

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2625

Everyone stared at him.

“Practicing this technique of mine! I will accompany you through it, and I can give you pointers! But I can’t guarantee how fast the improvement is! It may be two or three years faster, and it may be ten years slower... ..”

Hearing that, many people’s expressions changed drastically on the spot.

In this age of rocket-like rise, who can wait ten years?

According to what people say now-ten years later, whether this world will exist or not will be another matter!

It’s hard to survive!

If everyone else is expected to hear this, they are frightened.

However, the group of people specially selected by Levi Garrison was still calm, they were originally ascetic.

Keep the attitude that one thing never ends...

“Slow results are sure! But persevering will definitely have unexpected results! There is no problem with slamming the people outside! But first you have to get it down...”

“So I will give you one more choice-you can quit from me! Of course, instead of quitting Kunlun Academy, I will arrange for you to go to other tutors... I will also give pointers to other exercises...”

“what?”

The audience was in an uproar.

Everyone didn't expect Levi Garrison to give such a choice...

“Now, let's start to choose...If you want to quit, just stand by...”

Levi Garrison said.

But everyone was kneeling steadily, and no one stood up!

Everyone's eyes are full of perseverance!

It's all in a posture to the end!

Not to mention ten years, even twenty years, they will endure it!

No one is willing to quit! ! !

“Okay, three minutes have passed! No one has chosen to quit! Then you have no chance to quit!”

Levi Garrison was still very pleased.

No one has quit!

“Okay, very good! The next hundred li will be where you suffer!”

“Get up all!”

Levi Garrison smiled.

Everyone stood up.

At this moment, a group of people hurried over.

“Something happened... Something happened...”

Headed by the gods of Tiance, they are amazingly handsome.

“Is there anything wrong with you here?”

Seeing that Levi Garrison’s group of people were so calm, Tiance God Commander couldn’t help asking.

“Look at it!!!”

Ye Zhantian suddenly pointed to the Kunlun Mountains in the distance...

Everyone looked around.

It also instantly understood that the huge movement just now came from here, right?

“What’s wrong? I punched it. Is something wrong?”

Levi Garrison asked.

“No...nothing... let’s go one step ahead...”
