

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2633

“Impossible! You will never have a chance! And we will have a great chance to enter!”

Everyone sneered.

It’s just that Jiao Tianyu and the others were unmoved and ignored them at all.

They continue to practice their...

Everyone feels boring.

“A rubbish brought a group of rash men! Nothing saved!”

“Same as your destiny, you can only stay in this corner after all! Forever!”

Everyone left one by one.

When everyone left.

Several people from Yin Zhengping went and returned.

“Jiao Tianyu as long as you tell me what you saw, and you want to go to that tutor, we will make arrangements for you!”

“We know that you guys don’t want to stay under Levi Garrison’s door for a long time, just tell us what you saw, that’s it!”

...

It turned out that Yin Zhengping wanted to show what Jiao Tianyu and the others saw.

He even put forward all the tempting conditions one by one.

Jiao Tianyu and the others have already noticed something unusual. In order to know what they saw, they asked this question?

There is definitely a problem.

Jiao Tianyu and the others are very smart, and a few of them looked at each other and said: "Okay, I'll tell you!"

"In fact, all of this is done by our teacher Ye!"

"Yes, it was actually Mentor Ye who did it!"

...

A few people told the truth.

"Don't mess with it! How is Levi Garrison possible?"

Heard this answer.

Yin Zhengping naturally didn't believe it.

I think Jiao Tianyu is playing with them...

You don't want to say anything.

Even if you say you did it yourself, it is more reliable than Levi Garrison!

"Okay, are you kidding us? I don't want to say, are you? You will regret it!"

Yin Zhengping left a few words and left.

Today this clue is too big.

They will run wildly looking for clues in such a hurry.

Actually it's a bit revealing...

After they left.

Levi Garrison appeared.

Jiao Tianyu immediately told Levi Garrison of their discovery.

"Okay, I get it. You don't need to bother about it!"

The next day.

Levi Garrison assembled his team.

Everyone stood neatly.

Set off for the door mightily.

Everyone was shocked.

“I heard that Levi Garrison is going to take them to the top of the world to see the inscriptions on the stele!”

“No? No? No? A person who is not even a gods can take someone to see it?”

“I said that Levi Garrison couldn’t teach anything, so he did something boring!”

...

Jiao Tianyu and others sneered: “You don’t even know what we are going to do?”

“A bunch of fools!”

Looking at everyone, they are still very happy in their hearts.

All of them are like fools.

Just as everyone was about to walk out of the gate of Kunlun Academy, a figure suddenly rushed out.

Stop Levi Garrison and his group at the door.

Don't let them leave!
