

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2714

Report Mr. X! Forbidden area No. 76 has changed, and the Bible organization is frantically mining the resources inside! It is estimated to be used to make armor weapons! The speed is several times faster than usual!”

“And the Bible organization is also secretly carrying out some big moves, accelerating the reserve of resources, design and manufacturing, etc...”

At this time, the spies reported the anomaly in Forbidden Area 76 to the Lab of the Gods.

“Hahaha... It seems that the gods in Forbidden Area No. 76 also understand the situation! They are also accelerating their preparations! Ready to act, and swallow Daxia in one bite!”

“Wonderful, enjoyable, really enjoyable!”

“I can’t wait to see the God of Forbidden Land No. 76 suddenly revert to the scene of Daxia!”

Mr. X was very excited.

Lucifer said: “That’s wrong! In fact, the group of guys in Forbidden Area No. 76 are strong enough, and they are backed by such a huge force as the ancient Garrison Clan of the Bible organization! They could have taken action against Daxia long ago!

Now it’s just waiting for an opportunity! A time for chaos in the world!

If the world becomes more chaotic, the better, and the better it will be for them to take action! “

Mr. X nodded approvingly: “Wrong! The more chaos, the more it will stimulate them to take action! Now they also smell something unusual, so speed up the preparation!”

“In that case! Let’s add a few fires! Let him burn more and more!”

Lucifer and the Clown the Great came over: “How do you say? Should we prepare in advance?”

“Come on, then let’s create a little panic trouble for them in advance!”

...

After hearing what Mr. X said, everyone nodded in approval.

The persecution of the situation.

Let all parties treat it seriously.

Daxia had been preparing, but there was nothing.

It’s just that the rest of the country’s forces are in a state of coercion, and they have also taken some measures.

Levi Garrison knew the next situation well.

I have to face up with the Lab of the Gods!

I don’t know how strong the main priest is.

He also had no bottom in his heart.

So he will continue to strengthen himself.

Although the basic exercises have been practicing.

But recent things have been delayed.

Anyway, the plans are proceeding in an orderly manner.

It has been more than ten days, and everything is almost the same.

It didn't make much sense for him to keep staring.

therefore.

Levi Garrison decided to go into a one-month retreat.

He faintly felt that if he retreats for another month, he can still improve to another level.

Because he already felt it.

I have a sign of entering the next stage.

Must retreat, which step to take.

When the time comes, I will have more confidence in the Lord God Division.

And the final battle still depends on him.

Don't place too much hope on others.

After explaining everything well.

Levi Garrison went to retreat.

Lu Xiong and Tiance Shenshuai stared at him, and he was relieved.

But a lot of this incident reached Yan Longwei's ears.

"What? The plan he came up with, he went to retreat by himself?"

"What can he shut down?"

"Throw the mess to Lu Xiong! I said he was unreliable!"

"Where is the person? Where is the other person? Find it quickly? How do I feel suspected of him throwing the pot?"

Xiao Liejun and the others immediately panicked.

Such a big thing, he even ran away.

The person is gone.

How can this work?
