

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2715

I can't find it! I don't know where he is in retreat! Even Chief Lu Xiong doesn't know where he is..."

"It's just that before he retreats, he explained to the head of Lu Xiong about the safety island! Let him do it within a month!"

...

"It's over! This is completely over!"

"Something is going to happen! Levi Garrison ran away, there is definitely a problem!"

"I feel that he may not be in retreat, but there are other things!"

...

Everyone hesitated.

"Then what shall we do now?"

"Do you want to stop planning?"

...

Jiang Ye asked.

“We have all reached this point and stopped. That’s not good! The loss is too great!”

“In this way, the plan continues! Then we send someone to find Levi Garrison! One more time to pay close attention to the developments of all parties in the world!”

“There must be no accident! Don’t let Levi Garrison throw the pot!”

Xiao Liejun and Hong Qingcang said.

It’s not just Yanlongwei.

It was everyone who was building a safe island, after they learned that Levi Garrison was in retreat.

One by one was irritable.

They were all saying that Levi Garrison had fooled them.

Let them run as coolies and build the so-called safe island without knowing what they are going to do.

There is also a specified time, which must be completed within two months.

They were too tired to die, but Levi Garrison ran away by himself.

I don’t know why I went.

Tell them to go to retreat.

But what is Levi Garrison's strength, don't you know?

What kind of retreat?

What's the use of your retreat?

Everyone felt that Levi Garrison was an excuse.

He is probably running off now.

As a result, many of the construction personnel of the safety island were coaxed.

Everyone must strike.

Some people even urged the overthrow of the built safe island.

In the end, it was Lu Xiong who went out in person and suppressed this group of people.

Otherwise, I really don't know what will happen.

Anyway, Levi Garrison suddenly disappeared.

Everyone is very emotional.

Think about it, too, the first person to make such a major decision ran away.

Whoever has to doubt it.

Fortunately, there is no need for Levi Garrison at Kunlun College for the time being.

Otherwise, it will explode.

Levi Garrison wanted to get there, so he shut himself up.

Caused such a sensation.

The matter of his retreat was also known to Tiance Shenshuai.

Because the former great apprentice of the dark god came to harass every day, he also knew about this matter.

He immediately found the Lab of the Gods and told Mr. X.

“Hahaha, sure enough, in this situation! The gods who forced the forbidden area No. 76 are ready to do it!”

“Now the Dark God and they are all in retreat, indicating that they are really preparing to deal with Da Xia, and they are going to swallow Da Xia in one bite!”

“I seem to have seen Da Xia being besieged by the Big Mac and the No. 76 Forbidden Area...”

Nothing is more exciting than Mr. X and the others.

Explain that everything they did worked.

Forced to force the forbidden area No. 76 to start ahead of time, pushing this era into the dark ahead of time.

“I heard that Daxia is also preparing. The masters of the Tiance Mansion and the Baolong clan seem to be gathering, and the strong ones who retreat have all come out.”

The big apprentice revealed another message.

“Daxia is sure, Daxia’s decision-makers have a good sense of smell. I definitely noticed it.”

“In that case, let’s attract a wave of their attention!”

Mr. X already has a plan.

Located in a resort island in Western Continent.

When thousands of people were playing on the beach, suddenly the sea trembled and whirlpools appeared.

Then amidst the waves of shaking mountains.
