

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2747

“A group of defeated generals, come and kill you once!”

“Just do you deserve us to build a safe island?”

One by one arrogant and domineering.

Don't take everything into consideration at all!

But this is the mental state after the big victory, everything is normal.

But this is the epitome of Daxia everywhere.

Almost every place is extremely lax.

Various banquets were also held to celebrate.

Ordinary people, or warriors, or strong people are celebrating...

As for continuing to guard?

impossible!

The whole world thinks that the giant creatures are wiped out!

What's more, they were wiped out with their own hands!

There is nothing more convincing than seeing the destruction with your own eyes!

No matter how much Levi Garrison said, can it compare to what they met in person?

So what you say in everyone's ears is not useful now!

Everyone only recognizes what they see...

After all, as the saying goes, hearing is false and seeing is believing.

"Another day! Still nothing happened!"

"I think the monitoring department can be reduced by half! Let's return to normal levels!"

In the Yanlongwei base.

Everyone breathed a long sigh of relief.

As decision makers, they certainly cannot relax 100%.

They still sent someone to stare.

But on the first day, that is, the best time, nothing happened.

Now two days have passed, and there is still no situation. This high probability means that it is safe.

This is simply anything unexpected happened.

You can't just suffocate one out, right?

That can't be!

"Okay, I'm going to rest!"

Xiao Liejun and the others went to rest.
