

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2750

All those celebrating the party were either drunk or couldn't bear the sleepiness.

There were a lot of people lying on the deck...

The pungent smell of alcohol permeates a large area of the sea.

To celebrate the victory, this group of young people came here in a group to release themselves.

A dozen cruise ships are connected side by side.

Most of the people have fallen asleep on the deck, but there are still some people who are holding bottles and drinking.

Roaring frantically at the sea, as if expressing his posture against the sea and the sky.

"Come on! Isn't it awesome? Come on! Kill me!"

"Didn't Levi Garrison say that there are more terrifying things that cannot be eliminated? They are all out!"

"I also said it would become a disaster. I want to see what a disaster looks like..."

...

They were drunk and yelled while they were drinking.

He even threw the wine bottle into the sea.

“Rumble...”

But at this moment, the area between the deep sea and the shallow sea below the sea surface suddenly burst into terrible movement.

It’s like an undersea volcano has erupted.

Terrible fluctuations and energy spread crazily in the sea, sweeping across the land.

When all creatures in the sea encounter this crazy wave, they are immediately shattered and torn apart, turning into a cloud of blood!

This is true of the entire sea!

“Puff!”

“Puff!”

...

Soon the anomalies derived from these fluctuations came to the surface of the sea.

Bubbles with big mouths formed one by one.

It's as if the sea is boiling!

Immediately afterwards, the entire sea surface turned blood red...

The blood from the corpses of sea creatures stained the entire sea area red.

Like a sea of blood in hell.

The pungent smell of blood will fill the whole world and pollute all places...

"Um???"
