

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2777

“The great thing is not good! Something has happened! The prophecy of the king’s side by side has come true! Daxia is under unprecedented attack...”

“Where are you? Please come back quickly to support the overall situation!”

“Daxia is messed up, messed up everywhere!”

“Hurry up, a little later, something serious will really happen! Besides, you are still extremely powerful!”

...

The voices of Ye Zhantian people next to him came: “Great! Mr. Ye is gone! Can’t even disappear with you! Come on! Daxia needs you!”

“This time the giant creature is too terrifying! It can’t be killed at all! You are coming!”

“I believe they have plans for the next step! You can’t do it!”

...

Hear the anxious tone of the other side.

Tiance Shenshuai realized that something was wrong, and even these few were so weak, then I believe the situation is really serious.

After hanging up.

Tiance, the superintendent is about to leave.

But the big disciple of the Dark God stopped him: "Where are you going?"

"Something happened to Daxia! I'm leaving!"

Tiance Shenshuai didn't explain much at all.

About to leave.

"No! I think you just want to make an excuse to leave! She tore it all, can't you accompany her any more?"

The big apprentice stubbornly stopped in front of Tiance Shenshuai.

Looking at him, Tiance Shenshuai suddenly trembled and understood something.

"You... shouldn't you know in advance, right?"

"You brought me here on purpose? Right!"

...

Tiance Shenshuai suddenly understood everything.

Levi Garrison also reminded him before retreating.

To prevent this kid...

Levi Garrison should have known that this kid was a spy in the laboratory of the gods.

Because he is his own flesh and blood, although he has been on guard, he can't fail to see him, right?

This time he even offered to see his mother as an excuse, and he couldn't refuse it at all.

Unexpectedly, this was a conspiracy at all.

Just to lead him out of Daxia.
