

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2783

But in front of this group of giant creatures, it was easily torn apart.

It's as easy as tearing up a piece of paper.

In this case.

How strong is their combat effectiveness?

unimaginable!

Everyone was poured with cold water.

Everyone's body was trembling.

Everyone's scalp was numb, and a chill rushed from the soles of their feet to the sky.

All blood will be frozen...

What are they going to face? ? ?

Before, everyone in the death squad was screaming, not afraid of death or difficulty.

But after seeing the power of Leviathan in detail, they changed.

All of them were trembling unexpectedly.

“boom!”

“boom!”

...

The Leviathans' movements did not stop, and their weapons fired directly.

Bombarded towards the front position.

“Rumble...”

“Rumble...”

In a sound of earth-shattering.

The temporarily formed position was shattered unexpectedly.

The casualties are not small!!!

Xiao Liejun and the others were stunned.

So strong? ? ?

There was no time to react, and a large number of Leviathan shocked in front of him.

There are more to come.

This is the place with the most Leviathans in the first line.

There are almost seven or eight hundred.

This is the key goal of the Gods Laboratory.

Therefore, the largest number of Leviathans were sent here, which is regarded as a major battlefield.

The rest of the Leviathans were divided into groups of hundreds.

To attack the major cities and bases in Daxia...

At this moment, Leviathans from all over the world have gathered.

All landed on Daxia's land.

Looking at the dense Leviathan, covering the sky and covering the sun.

Xiao Liejun and the others really panicked.

“Build a position again!”

“Secondly, all fire cover! Call for air support!”

“Evacuate all the people behind! The farther the better!”

“We must hold on to this line of defense! We must not fall before the arrival of large forces!”

“Once we fall here! It’s equivalent to opening up the entire Daxia! They can go north to the capital, or go south...”

“A hundred kilometers to the rear, we will construct a position again! That is our last line of defense!”
