

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2784

Know the importance of sticking to this one.

therefore.

Xiao Liejun wanted to organize people desperately.

“boom!”

“boom!”

“boom!”

...

This time, he used almost all his weapons.

Thousands of fighters in the air were also dispatched.

All kinds of ammunition poured down...

This posture is no less than the first covered bombing on the coastline.

This area must be razed to the ground.

They have to fight for opportunities to build positions.

Countless ammunition bombarded the Leviathans.

They are all heavy weapons, their power is terrifying to the extreme.

“Buzzing...”

Looking at the pouring fire, an energy shield appeared on the surface of this group of Leviathans, emitting strong light waves.

“boom!”

“boom!”

...

The pouring gunfire can only blast on the energy shield, and all of it is blocked.

Leviathan could not be hurt at all.

Not to mention how hard their own scales are, even this shield can't break through.

Cover bombing did not hurt the slightest.

The most frightening thing is that this group of Leviathans actually gathered together to prop up the protective shield together.

This way they can't be hurt.

This is the consequence of the exposure of Daxia's various firepower and secret weapons.

It is because of the exposure.

The Gods' Laboratory will set up targeted defenses.

So that the firepower that destroyed several cities is completely useless at this moment!

Therefore, the cover bombing did not have any impact on the Leviathans, they are still advancing.

The artillery was still advancing through the sky, and the distance from them was getting less and less.

"this....."

See the coverage of the firepower in use.

Everyone is really scared now!

Levi Garrison was wrong!

This is a disaster!

No one can stop it!

But they do not believe it!

It is said that this kind of giant creature can be easily stopped by their mecha.

But the fact...

It seems that this giant creature has no flaws!

“Head! Can’t stop it at all! It’s less than a thousand meters away from us!”

The people in his team were anxious.

“Why don’t we go to the death team? We can delay a little bit!”

The captain of the death squad asked.

“No! You have to come later! Only when you discover their flaws, you will have the opportunity to make use of their value! It’s a waste now!”

Xiao Liejun yelled: “Order! All the mecha legions are dispatched! All parties cooperate with the mech legions!”

“We must hold on! We must hold on to the big troops! We must hold on to the powerhouses of the Baolong clan of Tiance Mansion!”

Under the order of Xiao Liejun.
