

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2788

Head Xiao is not good! The big thing is not good!”

Suddenly, bad news came from the command room.

“What’s wrong?”

Xiao Liejun was also panicked.

“We just carried out a comprehensive scan of these creatures! We found that they have no weaknesses at all!”

“You can’t find a weak place all over! It seems that the other party is intentional, and has long noticed that we are scanning this! Therefore, there is no weakness!”

However, we found that these giant creatures all have a core. And the core should be the brain of this kind of creature, and also the source of energy, right in the middle of their body! But it is also the hardest place to attack the whole body!

The core can only be reached after all the scale shields in the body are broken! It is estimated that the other party deliberately hid the core in the most difficult place to attack! So it can be said that they have no shortcomings at all! “

High-tech talent began to explain.

“Then can our existing weapons hurt their core?”

“All weapon configurations!”

Xiao Liejun also added.

“Difficult! Almost impossible! It is difficult for our arsenal to damage the core!”

“It’s not good to say! When we can hurt their core, it is estimated that our entire army will be overthrown!”

The words of a few people.

The entire command room was covered with clouds, and everyone looked gloomy.

“Okay, I see, come with me!”

Xiao Liejun led everyone out of the command room.

At this time, someone said: “There is another terrible thing-even if their bodies are damaged, it is useless at all!

Because their core has a magical healing and restoring ability! There are many materials on them that we have never seen before! It is estimated to be the reason for the recovery! “

But at this point, no one has heard it.

“I still try!”

After coming outside, Xiao Liejun had a gloomy face.

Although it is bad news.

But it is also good news.

At least know how to destroy these giant creatures!

Even if it is almost impossible!

“Do you think this will work? Let’s use all the firepower to knock out all their protective shields! It’s best to knock out or loosen the scales on their bodies, even if they are damaged to a point!”

“Then we used all kinds of tiny machines to bombard themselves!”

“If I send a death squad to bomb them in turn, I can’t shake them?”

Xiao Liejun glanced back and said, “It would be great if someone like Tiance Mansion was there. I would like to cooperate with my plan!”

“But now we have to rely on ourselves!”

...

Leviathan had already launched attacks again and again, but they were all blocked by solid positions...

This can also comfort Xiao Liejun a little bit.

“Well, we can plan... Arrange a death squad to attack... Now the position is still stable, we still have time!”

Said the death squad captain.
