

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2840

Levi Garrison laughed, "Sorry, you are not the first god I killed! There are hundreds of them!"

He really had no idea how many Levi Garrison killed in Forbidden Land No. 76.

"what???"

When the clown emperor and Lucifer heard this, their faces were full of horror.

They could see that Levi Garrison was absolutely flustered.

He is real!

Has he really done all this?

Two people are suspicious!

"The last time a group of guys who claimed to be gods were slaughtered by me, you are the next one!"

"what???"

I heard Levi Garrison say so.

The wise two seemed to understand something.

Is this the group of guys in Forbidden Area 76?

Doesn't it exist anymore?

They thought and saw Levi Garrison's subordinates!

Understood!

Only at this moment did they understand.

Many things and problems were solved immediately.

Everything is because of Levi Garrison!

They want to break their heads and can't think of it all because of him!

It's a pity that everything is too late.

"Goodbye! Old friend!"

Levi Garrison's voice fell, his hands exerted strength, and the power that could crush mountains, rivers and stars poured into it.

"哐啾!"

“哐!”

The clown emperor and Lucifer's bodies exploded directly, dissipating between heaven and earth.

There is nothing left...

The clown emperor and Lucifer, the four of them, even dreamt that the seemingly “simplest” task would have killed the four gods!

This is something that no one thinks of anyway!

Levi Garrison, who had no power to bind the chicken, would actually kill them!

Incredible!

The four of them thought that the easiest and most exciting journey would be the road to hell.

After getting rid of the four people.

Levi Garrison smiled and said, “How are you going to resurrect this time?”

“God? Can't you still kill it? Just blow it!”

“Hahaha.....”

Mutant No. 3 and King Kong No. 4 both made bursts of laughter.

I was laughing at “this group of self-proclaimed gods.”

In fact, they are still human!

Just a different race!

God?

Pull it down!
