

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2841

It is an individual who wants to be a god and accept the worship of all mankind!

“You are all gods, then what am I?”

Levi Garrison sneered.

Although he had to wait for the main divine division to come out to show his full strength.

But these few are here to kill him, of course he is going to make a move.

No one knows about this anyway.

Levi Garrison did not let them send out any information.

Kill it, kill it.

Secretly killing things.

But to kill honestly, the winner must come out!

After all this was done, Levi Garrison felt nothing like it.

Go and continue to stare at the East Island Country.

However, in the future science and technology city of the Kingdom of God.

But there was an exception.

“Huh? Are you not coming back?”

“How long has it been! It stands to reason that Levi Garrison had been killed and returned.”

Everyone is waiting for Lucifer to come back.

It’s just that I haven’t come back after time has passed.

“Should there be no accident?”

Everyone looked worried.

Mr. X said coldly: “If I send one out, I might be worried. But I send out four at once. What can be done? Who can be their opponent?”

Say it like this.

Everyone was relieved.

Everyone knows the strength of the four Lucifer.

However, with time, there is still no one to see.

One hour.

Two hours.

...

Five hours! The four of Lucifer still didn't come back.

And there is no message!

Everyone can't sit still now.

Together with Mr. X.

If you are one or two hours late, it is actually normal.

But if there is no return in five hours, and there is no message.

Then the problem is big.

It's likely something happened...

"No way, is there something wrong with killing Levi Garrison?"

“Is Levi Garrison too powerful to kill?”

Everyone began to doubt.

“How is it possible? Don’t everyone know what Levi Garrison’s strength is? Just send one out and you can kill, let alone a full four!”

Someone immediately corrected it.

“Or our intelligence is wrong? Levi Garrison is not guarded by no one, but there are many strong guards?”

Someone suggested another possibility.
