

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2862

Levi Garrison always wanted to force the chief divine division out, and then he could release all his strength to fight.

However, it was still not enough to force out the main priest.

It seems we have to continue...

“Pass my order and withdraw! Leave a small group of teams to harass!”

Levi Garrison is still an order-retreat.

Small groups of teams harassed, but the result was terrible.

One by one suffered heavy casualties!

The army that encountered the laboratory of the gods was completely defeated and defeated.

Not one level!

The Lab of the Gods vented their anger completely.

Use the strongest equipment and the strongest superpower to attack and crush in turn.

For a time, the coalition defense lines were breached one after another.

But Levi Garrison hadn't had any good way to resist, he just kept retreating.

At present, all eight lines of defense have been lost.

Fortunately, Levi Garrison had set up a lot of defense lines in advance, otherwise, they would have threatened the fundamentals.

However, behind the coalition forces led by Levi Garrison is an ally-the Giant Bull Nation.

If Levi Garrison retreats blindly.

Then it is equivalent to completely ceding the Giant Cow Kingdom to the Lab of the Gods.

The Lab of the Gods will swallow the Giant Cow Kingdom without hesitation...

"The commander-in-chief can't retreat anymore! If he retreats again, it would be equivalent to abandoning the giant cow country. We will fight anyway!"

"Yes! Once an accident occurs in the Giant Bull Country, I am afraid our federation will fall apart!"

"You must fight! You must fight anyway! I suggest, gather all the coalition forces here to fight the Kingdom of God, right?"

...

The lieutenants of all parties began to persuade Levi Garrison.

Everyone's suggestions are almost the same.

They are all required to gather all the forces to fight to the death with the laboratory of the gods on the ninth line of defense.

Levi Garrison refused, "No! It's not suitable for a decisive battle for the time being! I don't think it will come at that time!"

What is the final battle now?

Even if you are finished.

Even won.

What is the use.

The main priest is still there.

The more powerful ones are still there.

If he suddenly came out, Levi Garrison might not be able to take care of the overall situation.

At the moment, we have to fight steadily, and step by step to force the main gods out is the right way.

"what?"

The words came out.

The audience was in an uproar.

The lieutenants looked at Levi Garrison in disbelief.

“What do you mean by commander?”

Everyone asked.

“Withdraw! For the time being, we have to continue withdrawing!”

Levi Garrison ordered.

“Ah? In this case, wouldn't the Giant Cow Country be handed over to the Lab of the Gods? The place will be destroyed and everyone will die! The Giant Cow Country is our ally!”

“I don't agree to retreat!”

“I also don't agree to retreat!”

...

Even the relevant personnel of the Giant Bull Nation in the coalition force strongly opposed Levi Garrison.

After all, this involves their survival. Levi Garrison was happy: "That's not what I meant for you to retreat!"

"First of all, we first adopt the tactics of harassment. Every moment, every place harass the laboratory of the gods, disturbs their attention, and delays their progress!"

"Secondly, let's not withdraw! Let's guard here first! Even if the Gods' Laboratory comes, we have to stop!"

"But all this is actually to cover the retreat of everyone in the giant cow country!"

"According to my order, everyone in the giant cow country will withdraw by the early hours of tomorrow morning! All those who want to survive will withdraw!"

Regarding Levi Garrison's decision.

Everyone still has no obstacles.

At least he wants to keep the giant cow nation up and down.

Everyone can only listen to Levi Garrison.

All sorts of harassment began on the army of the Gods Laboratory from the front.

Even if the sacrifice is great, it must be harassed.

As for the giant cow country, it immediately began to retreat.

At this time everyone saw the benefits of Levi Garrison's deployment of defenses in advance.

Arrange most of the world as a defensive area in advance, so that most areas are under control.

It is like now that the giant cow country can flee to any area behind it.

It's all alliances anyway.

But if Levi Garrison hadn't arranged it in advance, now the left and right sides may be enemies.

There is no place for the giant cow country to withdraw.

Everyone once again admired Levi Garrison's brilliance.

The army of the Gods Laboratory was harassed by all kinds of harassment, which really slowed their progress.

However, there are still many strong men who broke through everything and came to the ninth line of defense ahead of time.

Levi Garrison was in charge and commanded the defense of the coalition forces.

The two sides fought extremely hard.

Especially on the coalition side, encountering the powerhouse of the Gods Laboratory, it was even more defeated and suffered heavy casualties.

Fortunately, the commander is Levi Garrison, who arranges each party in the most reasonable position to ensure that everyone's strength is maximized.

Otherwise, it might have been breached long ago.
