

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2865

“Yes, for sure! Anyway, these seven countries and the eleventh line of defense have nothing to do with him, even if it is lost, it won’t hurt him and Da Xia’s vitals!”

“Yes, that’s wrong. Levi Garrison is thinking about Daxia, experimenting with our country’s land and human lives. If Daxia is involved, do you think he can withdraw people? He will definitely fight!”

“Yes! Even if you lose, it is not Daxia’s power that is lost! We are the ones who lose! He won’t panic!”

“We can’t take our country and people to give him time to think!”

“The eleventh line of defense must not be given up! If this is given up, we will be over!”

...

The lieutenants expressed their dissatisfaction strongly.

“Let’s go, let’s ask Levi Garrison now, what does he mean?”

“Yes! Even if he doesn’t make a decision, he must be forced to make a decision!”

...

Soon, dozens of lieutenants reached a consensus.

Go to Levi Garrison's command post and ask him whether he has made a decision. Levi Garrison looked at the dozens of lieutenants who ran together, all a little dazed.

He is still studying, still thinking of ways.

And he is also waiting for the message.

The Lab of the Gods must have arranged spies and the like on their side.

Levi Garrison would naturally also plant spies in the opponent's camp.

He was waiting for messages from these spies.

According to the actual situation, he has to make a decision.

Not thinking that these lieutenants were so impatient, they came to question him now.

"The commander-in-chief is on the other side-the army of the Kingdom of God is gathering. What we met before was only their vanguard team! Now their army is gathering! It will be the strongest force! Soon they will attack the eleventh line of defense!"

"Excuse me, what is your decision? We are all in a hurry. You make a decision quickly, and we quickly prepare!"

Everyone stared at Levi Garrison and asked.

Levi Garrison frowned: "This...in fact, I still haven't decided yet! I need to wait!"

He is still waiting for information before making specific decisions.

After all, the action of the Gods Lab is so big.

There must be an inside story.

Maybe there is a message from the chief priest.

“Huh? Still undecided?”

Everyone was surprised.

“Everyone has hit the door, you still haven’t decided yet?”

“Soon the Gods Lab will attack! In fact, we are already very late and very late to prepare at this time! You haven’t decided yet, it’s really not very good!”

“Moreover, the eleventh line of defense is so important! The seven countries behind us have also decided together, resolutely not to give in! Not to retreat!”

...

Everyone began to analyze the current situation to force Levi Garrison.

“The commander in accordance with the consensus of all of us-put all the forces of the coalition on the eleventh line of defense, and fight to the death with the laboratory of the gods!

Everyone advances and retreats together! Even if you lose, no one complains! After all, there is a huge disparity in power! “

“Yes! Everyone is united! We are not a single country, we are coalition forces! In this situation, we must not give up the seven allies behind us!”

“Commander, right?”

“Commander-in-chief, right?”

...

Everyone is pressing Levi Garrison to make him make the decision to fight to the death.

Levi Garrison frowned.

“Wait!”

“Give me half an hour!”

Levi Garrison let everyone leave first.

Everyone exited first, but they surrounded Levi Garrison’s command room.

Waiting for his final decision.

Time passed by every minute and every second.

Finally it was almost half an hour.

Levi Garrison received a message from the spy.

“Huh? The Lab of the Gods is afraid of Daxia’s two special existences? So that the main divine division has been reluctant to show up? It can even be said that the main divine division was prepared for Daxia’s two kinds of existence!”

Levi Garrison finally got the message.

He understood it all at once.

In fact, both sides are testing.

The Lab of the Gods is also testing.

Including the previous Leviathan is also testing the existence of the two legends of Daxia...

However, according to intelligence, these two types of existence may not exist at all.

However, the chief priest was still a little jealous.

If you have a clue, it will be fine.

Levi Garrison smiled.

Next, we must first find out with Yanlongwei and Tiancefufu what these two types of existence are?
