

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2871

After learning to change the commander-in-chief, everyone started to laugh.

What they fear is that the coalition forces dare not fight them.

it's good now.

"Our strength is almost gathered, right?"

Mr. X asked.

"Well, it's all here!"

"Okay, waiting for my order to attack! I want to report to the chief priest and ask for their decision!"

...

Both parties are ready.

A big battle is on the horizon.

This battle is the battle of the century!

Rare in the world!

Except for a small number of forces in the Warhawk Nation, they are basically all involved.

the other side.

Levi Garrison quickly came to Daxia and gathered the four heads of Yanlongwei and the marshals of Tiance Mansion.

“One word side by side, shouldn’t you be a military division on the front line? Fighting is about to start everywhere! Why are you still in the mood to run here?”

Everyone asked curiously.

“I don’t need me anymore, I will do my own thing!”

Levi Garrison said.

Everyone looked at him puzzled.

Levi Garrison hurriedly said, “I gathered you all to ask a question...” “Huh? What’s the problem?”

“Say it! I’m all curious!”

Everyone looked at Levi Garrison with curiosity on their faces.

“I heard that Daxia has two types of legendary existence? They are above all else! Super powerful! Powerful enough to make the Lab of the Gods always jealous!”

Levi Garrison looked at the crowd and said, "So do you know the existence of these two types of legends?"

"this....."

When it comes to this, the leaders of Yanlongwei are all blank.

Obviously they don't know.

After all, these leaders who came from the modern era are still different from those in the ancient times.

If you don't deliberately go through some archives.

The existence of these two types of legends will definitely not be known.

However, a dignified look flashed across the faces of the Tiance Shenshuai people.

"I should have heard a little about these two types of existence! But not many! Only in legends!"

"It seems to be the pre-Qin qi practitioners, who practice qi training to the ultimate omnipotence! Just like the gods! But they are all legends, and they don't know much!"

But overall, it should be a legend! Not really! Otherwise, it's impossible not to leave any clues for so long! "

Tiance Shenshuai murmured to himself.

Levi Garrison still believed in such legends.

Otherwise, how would your master explain it?

He should be one level stronger in the world, right?

Is he even one of these two types of existence?

There is no such possibility!

There are still!
