

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2876

Leave an indelible scene in everyone's mind!

Is this the true power of the kingdom of God?

Don't know why?

Suddenly, everyone thought of Levi Garrison's advice.

You must stick to it, don't take the initiative to attack, and don't underestimate the enemy.

Can't beat it and retreat immediately.

Detecting the signs of something wrong, immediately retreat...

The Lab of the Gods is stronger than anyone thought.

Everything they showed before was tentative strength, not real strength.

But it's not serious!

After having absolute power, who would be afraid of the kingdom of God?

But at this moment...

Everyone is numb...

The real strength of the Lab of the Gods is here...Confused!

A moment ago, I was still clamoring to take it, but in the next moment everyone was gone.

It's alive and disappeared from the eyes!

This shocking scene is the first time everyone has seen it.

Obviously so many people died at once!

But it is not bloody!

Not bloody at all!

Because no blood was seen, no screams were heard, the bombed body was shattered, and the limbs were not separated.

They just disappeared instantly after touching the red beam.

This is Tongtian's method!

Just erase all traces!

If it is used on a civilization, it is estimated that it will be destroyed in an instant.

...

It took more than thirty seconds before and after, and all obstacles in front of him disappeared and cleared.

Mr. X's brows eased a little.

Everyone in the laboratory of the gods regained their coldness.

In their eyes, ordinary humans will have no good end to challenge God.

"Full offensive!!!"

The army of the Kingdom of God began to attack.

At the forefront are five giant flying ships, directly pressing up.

Behind it is the main force of the Kingdom of God, various advanced warship weapons and so on.

They attacked with everything.

This is the end of repeated provocations and contempt of them.

At this time, the Lab of the Gods no longer needs to be tested.

The opponent put on a posture to fight to the death.

It's time for them to show all their hole cards.

Rumble!

The entire sea area began to boil, and the sky began to tremble.

Seeing the surging army of the Kingdom of God, the Titans and the God of War panicked.

Every leg was shaking.

After all, the terrible scenes just now were seen by everyone.

"Boom boom boom..."

The red beam continues to fire, clearing all obstacles in front of you.

As long as everything in the range will be shattered and disappeared.

The several frigates in front of the aircraft carrier where the Titans were all hit.

Shattered and disappeared on the spot.

The other screens were smashed.

Nothing is left.

The Titans were even more panicked.

These were all his personal guards, as well as the reserve team, which disappeared in such an instant.

The loss is too great!

Everyone's legs are softer.

"withdraw!"

"Quickly retreat!"

The Titan God of War was scared into a cold sweat, and was about to run away immediately.

At this time, they probably understood why Levi Garrison avoided fighting. This was too strong.

It's a loss if you hit it.
