

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2902

It's a bit unsupportable! One to one is fine!

One to five lost instantly!

This makes the "gods" very surprised. What kind of existence is this?

I can fight back and forth with their gods!

It's terrible!

Seeing that Levilia is in danger, the coalition forces want to take turns to help Levilia reduce the pressure.

But it doesn't work at all.

The Kingdom of God is too strong here.

They didn't have any gaps to get in.

Besides, it's useless for them to rush over, it's too far away.

Far from being a level.

I can't help Levilia at all.

therefore.

You can only leave Levilia alone.

“Catch her alive! This is the order of the chief priest!”

Mr. X said coldly.

If they insist on killing Levilia, Levilia’s life is already in danger at this moment.

Even though Levilia is strong against the sky, he walked out of his own way and created his own practice.

But after all, the time is too short, and she still has a very high state.

It’s impossible to face five strong men who are no less than yourself!

Just when I was about to be taken down.

Levilia suddenly thought of something.

Hastily took out a wooden box from his body.

After the wooden box is broken.

A supreme pill came out inside.

This is the supreme pill given to him by the gods of Tiance!

There are three in total, and now only one remains.

It was already in Levilia's hands!

It is for life-saving!

The bigger one is to store what Tiance Mansion hopes to use in the future!
