

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2909

All in the theater...

Both up and down are in such a laid-back state.

Although the Black Hawk agent and other high-level officials are watching the situation closely, they can relax more and more.

After all, there is no chance to participate.

I don't know what the above means at all.

Except for the curiosity of the Black Hawk agents, many people stopped staring at the situation.

...

A group of guards from the War Eagle Nation was smoking and drinking in the corner. They looked at the front of the coast and sneered: "The other side is fighting, but we are smoking cigars here! It's not good!"

"I don't want to fight! It's not good for us!"

...

"Boom..."

But at this moment.

Suddenly a blue beam of light bombarded here.

Shatter this port in an instant.

Countless guards were all buried in it.

“Boom...”

Immediately after that, a series of weapons all poured out, carrying out the most violent bombardment on the coastline of the Warhawk Nation.

One by one port, one line of defense was directly destroyed...

Caught off guard!

No one thought of this!

The Eagle Nation was attacked.

Still suffered such a fierce attack.

Soon, the entire Warhawk Nation was in chaos.

The rich and powerful, or the high-level people are in chaos.

They are in the theater.

I don't even think of watching the show, seeing my home being bombed...

Messed up...

The command room where the Black Hawk agents were in was completely messed up.

"Alert! Alert! Our west coastline has encountered the most violent attack!"

"Alert! Our east coastline has been attacked fiercely!"

...

Urgent messages came one after another.

They are dumbfounded.

"Someone attacked my war eagle country?"

"Who? So bold?"
