

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2956

“Really? You want me to join you, or even surrender you, show your strength!”

Doctor Dark smiled.

This is tantamount to agitating Levi Garrison.

Levi Garrison smiled.

Doctor Dark is asking what qualifications he has?

“Look up!”

Levi Garrison said this.

“Rumble...”

Suddenly, the aura on his body rose terribly and terribly, as if the heavens and the earth were drowned.

The overwhelming horror power is invisible suppressed!

“Puff!”

The mind of God knelt to the ground in an instant.

Doctor Dark only felt that the sky had fallen, and it was all on him.

I don't know how much it weighs!

And getting stronger!

“哐啾哐啾.....”

The ground under Doctor Dark's feet was completely cracked, and bottomless pits appeared.

He gradually couldn't hold on anymore.

Withstand the force of the sky.

Gradually his waist bends and his legs bend, and the whole person is about to fall gradually.

He couldn't hold it at all.

“what!!!”

He tried his best to keep his balance.

But it's not useful at all.

He suffered more power!

Waves of invisible power follow.

It's like a mountain after a mountain. The constantly superimposed weight shocked the sky.

It seems that the earth will collapse at any time because it can't bear this power.

The sky will tear because of the squeezing of this force...

Only Doctor Dark knew what he had endured.

He was full of bruises and bruises, and his face was terrifying to the extreme.

He tried his best to fight!

But he felt that his body was about to split.

Can't hold it at all!

At this moment, Levi Garrison suddenly accepted the gift.

The coercion that fell from the sky on Doctor Dark suddenly disappeared!

Everything is back to normal.

But Levi Garrison was not far away, he seemed to be doing nothing.

Just looked at them with a smile.

Shocked!

It was shocking!

The Dark Doctor's complexion was numb, and his eyes were filled with unresolved shock.

Outrageously strong!

He now finally understands why Levi Garrison went alone!

Because of self-confidence!

With his strength alone, he can definitely catch himself!

Levi Garrison smiled and said, "You're not bad! A little better than I predicted!"

The highest rating!

Exceeding Levi Garrison's prediction!

"Isn't it a pity that I killed you like this? Why not follow me, you continue your research, I also need your help!"

Levi Garrison looked at God's brain again: "You can too, you can continue your grand blueprint! There is no need to fight and kill!"

By now.

Doctor Darkness and God's mind looked at each other. At this time, because of Levi Garrison's performance, they had different thoughts.

There is a feeling that he has not gone to ruin.

They all name each other's thoughts.

It seems that the automatic program is a bit early...

right!

That's it!

If they knew this, they would not activate the automatic program the first time.

"Now, are you willing to follow me?"

Levi Garrison asked.

"this....."
