

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 2994

Northern Continent has fallen!

In the end, Dongfangzhou also fell!

Five hundred safe islands and various emergency bases similar to safe islands have suffered the impact of energy storms!

In the whole world, there is no local area that is spared.

The light was completely swallowed.

The whole world is enveloped in darkness.

The same goes for the images seen from the aircraft in space or the space station.

The world became pitch black, like a deserted dead planet.

Even the energy storm has hit the channel, and many aerospace instruments have been greatly affected!

From this moment on, darkness completely enveloped the whole world.

The world seems to have stopped.

“It’s over! It’s over!”

“This is the end of the world! How could anyone stop this? The whole world is over!”

“Only we are left!”

In the space station, everyone saw what the world looked like and exclaimed.

Unexpectedly, the whole world would be destroyed so quickly.

Only them are left.

“This will be the heaviest stroke in human history! That is the ending!”The world has stopped!

Completely reduced to darkness!

Moreover, the energy storm in the super spirit veins is still erupting, and it has gathered in the sky, unable to disperse at all.

This is also an important reason to obscure the sky and turn the world into darkness!

And because the energy is too strong.

Leading to frequent outbreaks of various abnormalities.

Phenomenon such as sea water intrusion has appeared.

It's just shrouded in darkness, no one can see.

Desperate!

Even the space station or the people who ascended to space are depressed.

They are alive and wrong now, but where do they go?

Stay in space for a lifetime?

Impossible!

All kinds of resources and food will be in short supply!

Just came to escape temporarily!

What should I do? ? ?

Desperate!

A group of people lie down and have nothing to love!

Numb to the point of walking corpses!

There is nothing more uncomfortable than seeing your home destroyed!

I thought they would be overjoyed to escape this catastrophe!

But I didn't expect it!

Not happy at all!

Even everyone regretted it.

Should not flee, but with home.

Death is better than now!

I don't know how long it took.

"Huh? Did we survive this?"

In the safe island.

Xiao Liejun and others opened their eyes in a daze, and found that everyone was still on the safe island and not dead.

When receiving the energy storm, everyone can feel it.

Even if the safety island can achieve the effect of isolation from the world!

But when the energy storm came, everyone felt it.

That is an ultimate power.

Almost uprooted the safety island.

Almost cracked the ground!

When the energy storm hit, everyone was stunned.

No matter the strong or ordinary people.

Can not withstand the most violent impact!

This time they didn't know how long they had been asleep.

Now I wake up one by one.

"Survived! We all survived!"

"We are still alive! We are still alive!"

Everyone who woke up gradually began to cheer!

Everywhere is permeated with the feeling of aftermath!
