

Chapter 541 Questioning Alfred

“Isabel, where are my sister and her child? Hand them over!”

The moment the voice shouted out, the entire hall fell silent for a moment.

Many people turned their eyes towards Elsie and Isabel, who was surrounded by bodyguards.

Elsie was a person who didn't care about her reputation. And of course, she was not someone famous, and almost no one here knew her either.

However, Isabel was the rich and famous woman here. She wanted her reputation.

Isabel looked gloomy as soon as Elsie shouted that.

“These two people are here to cause trouble. Tell the person in charge here to kick these people out.”

Isabel spoke to her bodyguard, telling him to quickly inform the person in charge of the place.

She didn't intend to dwell on it with Elsie.

And with so many people watching this, it would be best to remain silent.

As expected, there were security guards who began to surround Wilson and Elsie. However, Wilson and Elsie also had their own manpower with them.

In the end, the situation before them became one where Wilson's side blocked Isabel's path to continue going out. And Isabel's bodyguards were surrounding her. Neither of them could hurt her nor go any further.

Isabel grimaced, then took the phone and asked the head of this clubhouse.

“Why don't you take these few troublemakers away and lock them up?”

“Mrs. Chow, I’m really sorry. Those two people have their own power behind them too. I can’t afford to offend them either. Can you negotiate with them to talk about this matter?”

“A bunch of trash.”

Pregnant With Twins: My CEO’s Tricky Love

Chapter 542 About Yvonne

“I don’t care what you think about me. I’m telling you, don’t you dare get people to cause trouble around here. Don’t think that I won’t hurt you just because you’re Vanessa’s friend. You’re a mother as well and you have friends and family. Don’t get on my nerves. If you dare to bring Vanessa away, I will hurt the people around you. I will hurt the people you care about the most.”

“Aren’t you scared that I’ll expose the truth about your background?”

Georgia finally said it out loud. Alfred laughed abruptly on the phone.

“Georgia, do you have any evidence about what you’re going to say? Do you think that people will believe you? Well, you can pay the media and tell them that I’m not a part of the Chow family. You can try and see what will happen. I don’t care, just go for it.”

Alfred hung up the phone after that. Georgia was so furious that she was heaving.

She walked back and forth. Anger filled her voice.

“How dare he talk to me like that? He’s so thick-skinned! Robert, he’s an extremely selfish person. He’s afraid that Vanessa will leave him after knowing that he is engaged to Princess Anna, that’s why he is hiding Vanessa away from me. How is this love? This is just a crazy obsession. But yeah, he used to be like this as well. If he really loved Vanessa, he wouldn’t make Vanessa lose her memories and lie to her about her life. He never changed.”

“Calm down, don’t get too mad. It’s bad for the baby. Here, drink some water.”

Robert walked over and gave Georgia a cup of warm water.

Georgia patted her chest. She drank some warm water and felt better.

“I really want to fly to Svero right now and give Alfred an earful. But I have things to deal with here and I can’t leave. Wilson should be able to handle him. He brought Elsie over already. I wonder what else will Alfred do.”

“Let’s take it one at a time. For the time being, we should find out how much influence Alfred has. Maybe we don’t even have to go to Alfred and can find information about Vanessa’s location. Have some hope.”

Robert grabbed Georgia’s hand.

Chapter 543 Helpless

Robert shook his head.

“Indeed, a person called Yvonne did exist. I found out her and her age looked about right. But she passed away and no one from her family was alive. I have no way to test if Yvonne is Wesley’s biological mother. I don’t know if we had a relationship as I lost my memories from before and couldn’t remember anything. The investigation couldn’t reveal everything I did back then so I really cannot say much about this right now.”

“You’re saying that if Yvonne is really Wesley’s biological mother, you might have a one-night stand with her and wasn’t in a relationship with her?”

Robert nodded affirmatively.

“If she was my girlfriend, then there had to be some sort of evidence, but there was none. So, I don’t know anything about my relationship with Yvonne.”

After the discussion, they decided that Robert would go get Ivan and Emilia himself and bring them to the new place. Georgia and Robert freshened up and waited downstairs.

Around eight in the morning, the headline was on the news. The lead story was about Princess Anna’s and Alfred’s engagement.

Georgia went on social media and every station was talking about this news. It was a global sensation.

She didn't want to read more about this and hence she went to check up on her children.

It was cold in the winter. Annie and Leon were still sleeping, they didn't seem to be waking up anytime soon.

Though, Georgia and Robert did wake up early today. They took the call and arranged everything, but it was only seven in the morning right now.

Robert's mother, Maisie, was already awake. It snowed last night and there were inches of snow outside. Maisie was taking a walk outside in the snow.

Read Free Novels Online - Updated daily

Contact: admin@

Chapter 544 Elsie is Back

Leda was the general manager for Riley's lover's experiments.

Georgia's and Leda's experiments were similar, but they weren't really going in the same direction. There were points of intersection, but they weren't heading towards the same goal.

But if either of them found out something new, they would tell each other.

In the past few days, Georgia realized that Leda was a capable person.

Georgia felt like she found a rival again.

With Antonio, Georgia would only think that she met a genius and there was no way that she would be able to catch up to him.

But Leda was like a well-matched rival, and Georgia was excited.

Georgia felt motivated to have a competition, a hard-working rival.

But then Georgia felt odd while thinking about Leda's and Robert's past relationship.

Though, the odd feeling mainly came from how they were coincidentally in the same industry and studied the same thing. Now they were doing experiments in the same lab and were colleagues.

“How’s Robert doing lately?”

Leda asked Georgia the moment she sat down.

“Everything’s normal.”

Georgia answered in a simple sentence.

Leda smiled and put her meal tray on the table. She started eating and was trying to have a conversation with Georgia.

“How did you and Robert get to know each other? It seems like you got to know each other after you got out of prison, but you guys had a child together already.”

Leda smiled while she asked Georgia.

“It’s simply a coincidence that we got to know each other. Maybe it’s just fate.”

Georgia couldn’t figure out Leda’s intention for asking this question, but there was no way that she could tell her the truth. Hence, she just brushed it off.

Read Free Novels Online - Updated daily

Contact: admin@

Chapter 545 Top Secret of The Wimbledon Family

‘How are things going with Emilia?’

‘She has no problem getting along with people with this one personality, which is what she has been for the most part lately. Rather, she’s mostly recovered from all the physical injuries she suffered.’

‘What about the other personalities? Have they been out much lately?’

‘Those personalities rarely come out. It seems as if this personality is her happiest personality, so her body is generally dominated by it. All the other personalities are more or less problematic and have to be watched by someone. Occasionally, you even have to keep Emilia locked up or something is bound to happen.’

‘It’s been a hard time for you.’

Robert sighed and said to his brother, while Ivan shook his head straight away.

‘My hard work is nothing. It’s Emilia’s condition that worries me. The specialists have been treating her, and I’ve been teaching myself about it. But I feel so useless that no amount of effort on my part can help Emilia.’

‘Don’t be so desperate. This disease depends on patience. IS Emilia’s mother locked up now?’

Robert asked curiously, and Ivan shook his head outright.

‘I let the Powell family take care of this matter. They didn’t put Emilia’s mother in jail but took care of it themselves. She seems to be in the Powell family for the time being. I don’t know what the situation is, but it’s not something we can get involved in. I just want to protect Emilia, and I don’t want to get involved in the Powell family’s affairs.’

‘Have you ever thought about the fact that Emilia’s trauma started when she was a child? I’m not studying psychology as a major, but to heal her trauma, you definitely need to get to the bottom of all the reasons why she was hurt. Since she had a happy time when she was a child, something must have happened to cause her relationship with her parents to go cold later on. Did you find out about this?’

Ivan shook his head.

‘Given Margie’s nature, she must have never been very nice to Emilia, and she just wouldn’t have done anything hurtful before. Maybe Emilia had been expecting her mother’s love and then found out that Margie really didn’t love her, that’s why she got upset later. I asked Emilia’s father, Oscar, too, but he didn’t know. Margie won’t say a word and now I’m clueless.’

‘Then forget it. Anyway, Emilia is in the country now, and with our people protecting her, nothing will happen to her. I have a villa in mind, and I’m in the process of buying it. After that, you’ll see how it’s built. After all, in Emilia’s situation, the house will definitely need to be repaired.’

‘I know. Just give me the layout of the inside of that house and I’ll get someone to build it. It is essential now to prepare a house for Emilia where she cannot hurt herself and where some of her personality cannot be put out.’

Read Free Novels Online - Updated daily

Contact: admin@

Chapter 546 Overtime Experiment

Riley smiled as he continued.

‘Isn’t the Chow family’s now being inherited by Alfred? He’s been shown his ability to the full extent over the years, and by all accounts has most of the power of the Chow family in his hands. But both he and his brother have shares, so the struggle for interest is extremely fierce. It can be said that the two have come to a life and death struggle, but I recently got the news that it is said that Dickson is not the Chow family’s biological son. And it seems that Dickson was the one who lost Alfred’s child back then. Of course, these are just rumors and I have no source of verification. You can check in that direction.’

‘Thank you for telling me that.’

Georgia thanked Riley as she asked curiously again.

‘How did you get that top-secret information you handed out at the meeting today? This information must be extremely top-secret data within their family, which cannot be easily obtained by outsiders.’

‘How should I put it? Ever since my lover went into a coma, I’ve been trying to find a way to heal her. I’ve been researching top-secret information from the Albertson Group. When I found out that these members of the Wimbledon Family were more or less sick, I thought about trying to find a way to get the internal information. Because I thought it would be valuable for research, I had someone lurking at the Wimbledon Family for years. Of course, he hadn’t infiltrated then, but started as a junior clerk, rose through the ranks, and was then trusted by one of the family members. You and Robert have come into conflict with the Wimbledon Family, which has just unsettled the members of the family. In these times of turmoil, the family is not as well guarded as usual, and sometimes it’s better to steal secrets.’

He’d really gone to a lot of trouble, and Georgia suddenly wondered how that woman, who had made Riley work for five years and was still working hard to get her to wake up.

She used to think of Riley as playful, but now she thought he was incredibly thoughtful and powerful. This was not something that could be done by ordinary people nor just by love.

‘What are the chances of her waking up now?’

Georgia suddenly asked Riley, but she was cautious. She was also afraid that such words would hurt the man in front of her or upset him.

Riley smiled instead.

‘She’ll wake up. Isn’t even Robert on his feet? It just might take a long time to research. But Robert’s experience has proven that there is always a way out,’

Read Free Novels Online - Updated daily

Contact: admin@

Pregnant With Twins: My CEO’s Tricky Love

Chapter 547 Darren And The MU Research Institute

Georgia looked at Maisie strangely, and she subconsciously glanced at Robert, who didn’t understand what was going on.

But Robert’s mother had been gentle recently and there was nothing wrong with them getting along, so Georgia followed Maisie out to the balcony to talk.

The children were asleep by this time.

‘Didn’t I ask you one thing last time? I wanted to see your mother. What was your mother’s answer?’

Georgia reacted at once. There had been so much going on during this period that she had forgotten to pass on the matter.

She hurriedly explained it to Maisie.

‘I asked my mother two days ago and she agreed to meet with you. It’s just that too many things have happened to me in the past few days and I didn’t have the time to talk to you about it. You can meet her you're free. She lives around here and you can meet anytime.'

Maisie smiled.

'Since your mother has no problem with it, I'll just meet her sometime tomorrow. You're pretty busy right now too, so you don't have to accompany me to your mother's place. I won't do anything to her either. I just want to have a chat with her and meet her.'

Georgia could only nod. It was something her mother had agreed to.

Robert's mother had asked for it again, and she couldn't intervene to do anything.

It was only after she had gone back to bed in her bedroom that Robert asked curiously.

'What did my mother say to you alone? Why do you look so worried? Did she give you a hard time?'

Georgia smiled and shook her head.

'No, your mother forgot so many things and is so polite to me now. She and I are now in a model mother-in-law and daughter-in-law relationship.'

Read Free Novels Online - Updated daily

Contact: admin@

Chapter 548 Meeting of Rivals IN love

Maisie asked one of the assistants next to her.

'I think I've seen a picture of her. She's my sister's daughter, isn't she?'

'Madam, you remember correctly. Her name is Anaya and you are her aunt.'

'Why did you stop her?'

Maisie asked curiously. After all, this girl was her sister's daughter.

However, the people around her were stopping Anaya from coming near her.

‘Miss Mitchell hasn’t been in the right mood lately.’

The secretary spoke up with difficulty.

‘She ended up in the police station for two days the other day because she broke up with her boyfriend and went straight over to him with a knife and tried to hurt him. Mr. Simpson said not to let Miss Mitchell near you.’

Maisie followed the secretary’s line of sight and glanced again towards Anaya.

The girl did look a little crazy.

For some reason, she didn’t like the way Anaya was looking at her now.

‘Take her back to her parents. I’ll go in first.’

Maisie said and turned to walk away. Even though she was her sister’s daughter, she didn’t really want to care about her at the moment.

Just as she entered the gate, she heard Anaya’s frantic shouting.

‘Aunty, why didn’t you help me like the others? How can you be so cruel?’

The voice faded away and Maisie surprisingly put her hand over her chest.

She felt a little uncomfortable. It made her uncomfortable to see Anaya so madly in love.

Even she didn’t know what the discomfort was due to.

Read Free Novels Online - Updated daily

Contact: admin@

Chapter 549 Paranoid Love Affair

Maisie asked curiously.

‘No. Then something happened, I was seriously injured and hospitalized and many people thought I was dead and my experience was wiped clean. When I woke up, I thought I was Casey, the illegitimate daughter of the Powell family, and that my husband was Aidan, who had fabricated an experience for me. In those experiences, there was no my daughter or my ex-husband, and I thought I had met him after you divorced him. It wasn't until the days of his passing that I saw the letter he had left me, which reminded me of those experiences from my past.'

'Then can you tell me honestly what kind of person I was before I forgot my memories? I think I must have hated you. I wasn't that generous, was I?'

Maisie was simply getting more and more curious about her past memories.

'You didn't like Georgia very much and were very unhappy about her being with Robert. You had some run-ins, but nothing serious happened.'

Casey answered.

'Did I love Aidan so much that I grew to hate him out of love and was very disgusted with you guys?'

'Probably.'

Casey spoke the words in silence. There was no way she could lie in front of this woman.

They had all lived a miserable life, although she also felt that Maisie seemed to have had an easier time after forgetting those memories.

But if she wanted to know the truth about the past, she didn't want to lie to deceive the person in front of her.

'I see. So that's what happened.'

Maisie suddenly stopped talking but took a sip from one of the water glasses.

She and Casey just sat indoors in silence.

Read Free Novels Online - Updated daily

Contact: admin@

Chapter 550 Vanessa's Whereabouts

Randy laughed happily at this moment.

‘It was effective in making an example of them this time. Kenny is in jail and Dora is now being chased by the guys from the casino to pay them back every day and gets beaten up pretty badly every now and then. Those with ulterior motives have been very quiet lately and are not meeting with other forces. It looks like it will be calm for a long time. This trick really works.’

‘The company is still in your hands and I will leave the external affairs alone for the time being. I have no problem with this document. You take the file away and start making arrangements.’

Randy finished his lunch before leaving.

But before he left, Robert’s mother, Maisie, returned just at that time.

Robert instantly became a little apprehensive and wondered what his mother had said to Georgia’s mother.

He didn’t even know how to look at his mother now.

When he had sent Randy away, he saw his mother standing just outside the room. This was where the two children were studying, and Rick was still in there giving the children lessons.

And his mother was standing outside looking at the two children.

‘Mum, why are you standing here? Have you had lunch?’

Robert asked Maisie, who shook her head.

‘I haven’t had lunch and I don’t have an appetite for the moment. You don’t have to ask the maid to prepare it. I just suddenly wanted to come and see Anaya and Annie. One of them is my granddaughter and one of them is my grandson. I just inexplicably wanted to see more of them.’

Maisie smiled, but turned and walked over to the living room.

Robert hurriedly followed her.

‘You don’t have to be so careful. Your mother-in-law and I just had a little chat, and nothing happened. I didn’t bully her, and she certainly didn’t bully me. You go about your business.’

It looked like his mother didn’t want anyone bothering her, and Robert just had to leave and ask the men who had followed his mother there.

All he knew was that his mother and Georgia’s mother had a long conversation indoors, but he didn’t know what the conversation was about.

Read Free Novels Online - Updated daily

Contact: admin@