Chapter 1151

David commanded the Octagon. When it landed on Planet Grim, it was surrounded by a few patrolling vessels.

"Who are you? State your name. Why are you descending on Planet Grim?"

A voice came from the patrolling vessel.

At this moment, David was not in the mood to waste his breath with the other party.

He had already wasted enough time. He emitted his mind power and formed a mind storm around the Octagon, spreading wildly.

Boom boom boom!

The patrolling vessels around the Octagon were thrown more than ten kilometers away.

This time, David did not kill them.

Instead, he only pushed them away and did not cause any injuries to the people inside.

"Get lost! Tell Lucifer to come to see me!" David's deep and resounding voice came out from the Octagon.

The people inside the patrolling vessels were scared witless after what David did. Therefore, they quickly contacted the people on Planet Grim. "S-S-Sir, please wait. We'll contact Master Lucifer right now." David ignored them and continued to land the Octagon. The patrolling vessels did not dare to stop him. Hence, they only followed behind silently.

Inside the Grim family's head's study, Lucifer, the four grandmasters, and Lucifer's grandfather Derry were chatting.

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door.

Knock knock knock! "Grandmasters! Lord Derry! Master Lucifer! There's something I need to tell you." "Come in," Derry said.

An old servant came in after the door opened.

“What is it?”

“Grandmaster, we just got news from the patrolling vessels saying someone is barging into Planet Grim on an Octagon. Moreover, they are very powerful. The patrolling vessels were thrown more than ten kilometers away by an invisible force the moment they got close to it. The person on the Octagon also said he wanted Master Lucifer to go see him.”

“How many of them are there?”

“It’s just one Octagon. We don’t know how many.”

Marino and the others were curious. ‘One Octagon? So it can’t be the Elrod family. ‘Who is it then? “They even asked to see Lucifer.

Judging from what they did, did they come here seeking revenge?’ “Did he tell you his name or who he is?”

“No.”

“Lucifer, did you offend anyone out there?” Marino looked at Lucifer and asked.

“Grandmaster, I was just let out. How would I have the time to offend others? I only had a conflict with the Elrod family,” Lucifer answered.

“Come, let’s go have a look. I want to see who dares to come to criticize us. Are they tired of living?”

After Marino said that, he walked out of the room. The others quickly followed suit.

The Octagon arrived at the Grim family shortly after.

At this moment, countless patrolling vessels, Octagons, dozens of Milky Way Battleships, and three Galaxy Warships ascended into the air and surrounded David’s Octagon.

At the same time, Marino also brought the family’s core to ascend into the sky and stopped not far from the Octagon.

“Who dares to behave atrociously on Planet Grim? Are you not afraid of death? If you don’t give me a satisfactory reason today, don’t even think of leaving Planet Grim,” Derry, the head of the family, stepped forward and said. “Are all Grimms so overbearing?” David said sarcastically. “Hmph, since you called us overbearing, I’ll show you overbearing!” After Derry said that, he was about to attack the Octagon.

Chapter 1152 However, Lucifer standing next to him suddenly said, "Are you David?" "Long time no see, Master Lucifer. I'm so happy that you still remember me," David smiled and greeted Lucifer.

"What are you doing here? Are you here to apologize to me? Did you bring Mia to me? Too bad! Even if you do that, I won't spare you. Since you dare to tarnish the thing I like, you must get ready to pay the price, and the price is death!" Lucifer barked.

David took Mia's virginity, and this was the most prominent stain in his life.

So what if he had Mia now?

The others would talk about him behind his back. Lucifer Grim, the eldest son and the future head of the Grim family, was with a woman used by others.

Therefore, David had to die.

Only in that way would he feel slightly better.

"Master Lucifer, aren't you a little too full of yourself? Do I look like I'm here to apologize to you?"

"Then why are you here?" Lucifer asked.

"I'm here to demand an explanation from your family, of course."

"What explanation?"

"You lured Mia and me to Planet Staub with the promise of the sale of a chamber of commerce. Not only did you waste my time, you even wanted to kill me and dominate Mia. Don't you think you should give me an explanation?" David asked seriously.

"Hahaha!"

David's words caused Lucifer to laugh loudly. "You're here to ask for an explanation from me? David, are you nuts? Don't you know this is my territory? I think you're not here to ask for an explanation. On the contrary, you're here to die. Since you brought Mia here while you're at it, I should thank you."

"Lucifer, since you're still obstinately persisting in going about things the wrong way, your ending has already been determined. I don't want to waste my breath with you anymore."

After David said that, he said to the people around Lucifer, "Are you the decision-makers of the Grim family?" "I am the head of the family. May I know who you are?" Derry asked. "David, I..."

Lucifer still wanted to speak, but Derry stopped him.

"Lucifer, stop talking for now." "Grandpa, ..."

Derry glared at Lucifer, and he shut his mouth.

However, he was staring at David's Octagon with rancor in his eyes.

Derry knew about their grudges from the conversation just now.

Even so, David dared to come to them by himself, demanding an explanation. It was either he was nuts, or he had support. The Grim family was not invincible in the Royal Region.

A lot of forces out there could destroy the Grim family easily. Before finding out who David was, it was better to ask him about this so they would not offend a strong force that could wipe out their entire family.

"You don't have to know who I am. I want to ask how you will handle Lucifer wasting my time and even trying to kill me. Can you give me a satisfactory answer?" David asked. "How do you expect me to give you an answer when you don't tell me who you are?" "Are you saying if my identity can suppress you, then you'll admit defeat, and if I can't, then you'll kill me?" "You can say that," Derry answered. "I got it. I can tell you right now that I don't have any forces behind me, and I'm only relying on myself. Are you happy with my answer?" "Are you serious? You're not joking, are you?" "Of course! I swear to heaven above me that I, David Lidell, have only relied on myself my entire life and will never rely on others."

The area fell into a short silence. Derry looked at Grandmaster Marino. Marino nodded slightly to him, hinting to him to probe David.,

Then, Derry nodded.

After that, he turned and said, "David, you're the first person who dare to barge into Planet Grim. However, you don't show your face even after you're here. I can only make you come out if that's the case." Derry charged forward after he said that. A low-level vessel like the Octagon could not resist a Celestial Ranker like Derry.

He wanted to break the Octagon open and pull David out to see who he was.

Chapter 1153

Inside the Octagon.

When Mia saw Darry charging at them, her heart leaped to her throat. She grabbed David tightly and screamed nervously, "David!"

Even though David said he was powerful, Mia had never seen his strength before.

Besides, the Grim family was not like the Tuffin family, and this was the Grim family's territory.

If something terrible happened, they might not be able to leave Planet Grim.

At this moment, David turned to look at Mia. He smiled and said, "Don't worry, I'm here."

Mia calmed down when she saw David's smile.

This man's smile made people feel very safe.

Derry approached the Octagon and was about to pull the vessel's exterior apart.

Right now, everyone was looking at him.

Lucifer showed a crazy smile. 'Grandpa is taking action, so David will surely die today! 'So what if David has some tricks up his sleeves? 'I still have my four grandmasters.

'David can't escape today.' Marino and the other grandmasters were observing Derry.

They shared the same thought as Derry.

Since this person dared to come to the Grim family, he would not be any simple if he was not a fool.

Furthermore, they could not sense any energy inside the Octagon. It was as if something was blocking it. The unknown was the scariest. Due to this, they asked Derry to find out what David was hiding. When Derry was about to touch the Octagon, the space seemed to freeze suddenly. Derry widened his eyes and looked at the Octagon right at his fingertips. However, he could not touch it.

What was more horrifying was that he could not move.

'How did this happen?

'I can't move. 'What's going on? Can anyone tell me?'

Derry was feeling more and more horrified.

He had been living for centuries, yet he had never encountered such a freakish occurrence.

The others also noticed something was wrong. Derry was next to the Octagon, and yet he was not doing anything.

Marino saw the horrified look on Derry's face, and he knew something must have happened.

When he was about to ask...

"Get lost!"

Those words sounded like claps of thunder as they rang in everyone's ears.

Everyone was dizzy from the vibration.

Before they could realize what was going on...

In the next second... Boom boom boom!

A strong storm started spreading from the Octagon. It was so strong that the people around felt like they were a leaf in an ocean surrounded by waves more than a hundred meter high.

They could not resist at all. Initially, the Grim family's vessels were tightly surrounding the Octagon. However, after David said that, they all turned into fireworks in this storm. Then, they disappeared after turning into countless pieces. Meanwhile, no one was left within a hundred kilometers of the Octagon.

This storm threw the Grim family's cores hundreds of kilometers away. They were all looking at this scene, looking battered and sluggish. Their brains were still not registering what was happening, and they struggled to return to their senses.

The four grandmasters of the Grim family were no exception. Marino held Lucifer as they quietly watched the Octagon from hundreds of kilometers away. Even though Marino looked calm, a huge wave crashed against his heart. Even he felt irresistible energy sweeping across him when he looked at the scene just now. Even a mid-Infinity Ranker like him felt that he could not resist it.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1154

Chapter 1154 'What was that? 'Is a late Infinity Ranker or a peak Infinity Ranker hiding in this Octagon?

'No way!

'Impossible!

'What kind of existence was a late Infinity Ranker or above? There were not many of them in the Milky Way. So why would they show up here? 'Someone of this level will not take such a low-level vessel to travel.

"This must be an unknown trick, and he can only use it once. He can't use it an unlimited number times.'

Marino comforted himself internally. He had to make himself believe this even if he figured it was just a small chance. If this were not the case, then the Grim family would be doomed.

Furthermore, they would have no chance of making a comeback in the future.

Inside the Octagon, Mia was also shocked by what happened.

When David said that, he was not loud. He only said it with his normal volume.

Moreover, she did not feel anything when she was next to David. Nonetheless, it was chaos out there.

The countless vessels from the Grim family were destroyed by what David said.

It was just two simple words, yet it contained so much power. This changed Mia's entire worldview.

She could not believe that this was real. "David! T-T-This..."

Mia started stammering. "So? Did you like that?" David chuckled and asked.

"Yes!" Mia nodded quickly.

"I told you I'm powerful, but you refused to believe me. Those Grims are nothing but ants to me. Also, those four grandmasters are just ants that are slightly more powerful to me," David said seriously.

Mia was shocked, and she looked at David in disbelief.

Ants?

'The Grim family, ranked fourth among the eight prominent families of the Milky Way, are just ants to David?

"How strong is he?

'What kind of monster am I with? 'Is he still human?

Pah!

'How can I think about him that way?

'Of course, he's human, but he's just different from others.'

Right now, Mia felt that if she gave David some time to grow, he might be able to fight with the emperor of the Milky Way Empire. 'Emperor Nimbus is the strongest in the Milky Way. 'If David can one day be on the same level as His Majesty, won't it mean I can do whatever I want in the Milky Way? 'Even the eight prominent families would have to respect me.

'Does that mean I'll stand out among my peers?

'Yes!

Mia always felt inferior because of her background.

She was the only fairy without a background.

The other three were either a princess or a descendant of powerful forces.

On the contrary, she just came from a small family.

So, whenever a big shot invited her to something, she had to go even if she was reluctant.

On the other hand, the other three fairies were not the same.

They could do whatever they wanted.

This was the difference between Mia and the other three fairies.

She dreamed of being like the other three fairies and not being restricted by others.

Now, she finally saw hope.

If she stayed with David, she knew this day would arrive soon. "David, I will never doubt you again," Mia said. "Alright, I'll let you see how powerful I am today. From now on, don't be so nervous and fearful when you do anything. You don't have to be scared," David nodded and said. "I got it!"
