/ His Scarlet Queen Luna by Milagros Faiyth

ZANE POV

The war had begun we were all in position and just like Scarlet said a portal opened at the position we were all in and what walked out was nothing we were expecting but we were prepared with our weapons in hand.

Creatures that had legs like a man but hands with talents like a large crow and heads of wolves with their canines elongated. They looked soulless and only had one aim kill.

“Attack!!” I said and the ones who didn’t have weapons shifted into their wolves biting and killing the abomination creatures While the rest of us fought in human form. Everyone in Our pack was trained both in human and Wolf form just in case we were in a situation where we couldn’t shift. I took out my sword joining the fight cutting down the abomination creatures.

This went on and on as the creatures kept on Pouring out. I was tired but kept on fighting.

The so-called Ceros was up in the sky riding on a dragon that kept breathing fire everywhere but luckily uncle Hugo was there forming a shield that was preventing the fire from burning us.

The fight was intense we were on the losing side these creatures were a bit strong and almost half of our warriors had been wiped out.

I was bruised and covered in blood but I kept on fighting.

Suddenly a blinding white light appeared out of nowhere wiping out half of the abominations but more keep on piling out.

I looked up to see Scarlet’s Mom floating in the air trying to distract the dragon.

Before long a door opened out of nowhere and the person who walked out had my mouth hanging open. Zoey!

and her mate. I looked at anger bubbling inside me.

Zoey looked over my side and before long she took out a dagger throwing it at me.

What the hell? I stood there shocked but luckily the dagger didn’t hit me instead it hit something behind me. I turned to see it was one of the abominations.

“Focus this isn’t time to be distracted..” I heard Zoey’s voice. I looked as she and her mate charged at the abominations.

Ceros fell from the dragon's back and before long Mom and Dad started battling him. I wanted to go help them but I couldn't I was surrounded the fight keep going on and on. Most of the warriors were tired battered. I need to end this and the only way was to attack the source of the powers. I looked over at Ceros only to see Zoey and her mate fighting him off. This has to stop I mentally told myself.

I saw Ceros use his claws and rip out Zoey's mate's heart. Zoey looked devastated as she would suddenly just die too! Seeing her mate dead but she didn't stop fighting.

I wanted to shift in my wolf but—

"Don't.." My wolf Juan said, "focus your energy and use your phoenix powers it's the only thing that can kill him.." I nodded my head closing my eyes and a power I never knew had filled me up and I embraced it. Once I opened them I saw myself covered in blue flames and so was the sword I was holding. One of the abominations came closer to me but it instantly caught flames disappearing into dust. My phoenix powers had surfaced.

With my flaming sword in hand, I walked over to where Ceros and my sister who was badly injured were battling. I charged at Ceros swinging my sword at him while he swiped his claws missing me an inch. Zoey stepped away and it was a one-on-one fight me swinging my sword and him swiping his claws. He clawed at my arm making me instantly bleed but I managed to slice his arm too although it didn't fall off. He momentarily stopped attacking, gathering his powers and I used it as an opportunity to strike plunging my sword straight through his heart.

"Haha.." he laughed darkly, "You are so foolish to think that you can take me down you are no—" he got cut off as dark stuff began to come out of his nose, mouth, eyes, and ears. I looked beside me to see both my sisters in their phoenix forms their swords glowing. Zoey was on my right her sword glowing red while Zara was on my left her glowing orange.

I channeled all my flames into the sword and before long Ceros was burning up until he was nothing but ashes.

I let go of my sword returning to my normal self.

Zoey went over to where her mate was laying dead I hated the guy for what he did but seeing my sister so broken made me feel a little tiny bit sorry. Just the littlest atom kind of sorry. I Looked around me only to see the abominations disappear into dust.

I looked up to see the dragon wasn't there instead it was a mother-in-law and an Angel??

Finally, it was over we won we actually—

" Mom.." I heard Zara say and soon she was running towards a group of people that had gathered. I went over as well and saw both my parents laying on the gra** covered in blood with Aunt Raima, Uncle Hugo, Lucas, and my cousin Claudio standing next to them and some of the warriors.

Doctor Faith was quickly by their side checking them up while I just stood there like a statue.

She said something and soon enough the warriors were carrying both of them to the side of the park hospital which was still intact. All of us followed in toll, they lay them on the bed and doctor Faith began checking them up while we waited outside. After a few minutes, she came out.

" I'm sorry I tried," she said slightly bowing and we all broke into sobs. The war was over but my parents weren't going to be here to celebrate with us. All of us entered the hospital room to say our final goodbyes

Lucas sat by the bedside crying. Aunt Raima was crying too as she held on to Uncle Hugo.

"Mom, Dad.." Zoey went over aswel crying her eyes out and so was Zara we lost my parents? no!

I got closer to the beds as well and Zoey hugged me crying on my shoulder Zara and Lucas hugged me too and all four of us cried at the loss of our parents. This can't be happening we just won the war! they should be here with us celebrating!!

White blinding light from before shone out of nowhere and soon two people p***ed into the room. Everyone else took their defensive stances while I just looked on. It was a mother in law she was standing next to a man that had blonde hair with silver eyes just like Scarlet.

"His mother-in-law, good to see you.." I said to her and she smiled at me while everyone else looked on.

"She is the moon goddess?" Zara asked in disbelief while mother-in-law just giggled nodding her head.

"Is it him?" the man she was with asked.

"Yeah let me introduce you Zane this is Jack Reyes Scarlet's Dad and my mate.

And Jacky this is Zane our little girl's mate.." she said with a giant smile.

"Nice to meet you, sir.." I said stretching my hand.

"No formalities call me Jack or Dad if you like.." he said pulling me into a hug and I nodded my head once we pulled away.

"I hope you are keeping my daughter happy.." the mother's lawyer said to me. I nodded my head sadly then shifted my gaze towards my parent's body,

"These are the people who took care of our little girl.." she said with a smile while she held on to Father-in-law.

"They seem like good people.." the man said with a smile of his own.

"I went to see Scarlet.." mother in law said looking at me, "But I couldn't really talk to her or introduce her to her Dad since she was kinder sleeping but anyway once she wakes up, tell her to come home." She held father in law's hand then looked at my parents with a giant smile.

"You know this is breaking the laws of nature right?" Father-in-law chuckled while all of us looked on wondering what was so funny about my parents laying dead.

"Yeah but they are nice people might as well bend the rules a little.." she grinned at him while he chuckled.

"Let's go, my little goddess.." He kissed her cheek and they both disappeared. Zoey and Zara broke into sobs again but a cough had our attention.

"Mom.." Lucas said going over to Mom who was now alive! she was freaking alive!! a smile broke from my lips.

All four of us ran toward her helping her sit up.

"But how?" aunt Raima stuttered seeing Mom alive.

"It was my mother in law the Moon Goddess. She brought her back.." I grinned at her.

"Mom I missed you so much.." Zoey said and Mom began crying.

"Zoey it's really you my baby.." she said hugging her. I looked over at Dad and he was awake too I quickly went over to him and so did aunt Raima and uncle Hugo.

"Brother.." aunt Raima said hugging the life out of Dad while he chuckled.

"hey little sister.." he said hugging her back

"Don't ever do that to me again.." the aunt said with a small sob. After all the sad emotional moments of us being happy that Mom and Dad were safe—

"Where is Angel?" Mom asked scanning around for my mate that's when I just remembered that I haven't gone to see her.

"Who is Angel?" aunt Raima asked.

"Zane's mate.." Mom said and aunt smiled.

"I will just go see if she is okay.." I said leaving the hospital I went outside only to see My cousin Claudio carrying an unconscious Scarlet in his arms.

"What happened.." I asked running over to him taking Scarlet from him.

A crying baby got my attention I looked over to see aunt Melissa carrying a baby and Brook was being carried by Aaron.

"She sacrificed herself to save me.." Brook said with sadness. As Aaron was carried into the hospital. I looked down at my mate feeling a wave of fear wash over me. Sacrificed herself?

"Don't worry.." Breana said placing her hand on my shoulder. "Aunt Serene made sure she and the baby were fine she will be awake in a few hours.." she said and I let out a sigh of relief. Finally, it was all over I can finally live peacefully with my mate and our pups without worrying about a war I can finally marry her my Scarlet Queen Luna.

I looked up at the sky to see the sun shining brightly at us. Though the entire pack needed a make-over. I was happy that we were finally going to live in peace. I kissed her (scarlet) forehead going over to the alpha mansion which was surprisingly not affected. I went straight to our room I lay her down on our bed then covered her up with a comforter. I looked at her as she slept peacefully.

"How is she?" I heard Mom's voice. I looked to see she was in the room and so were Zoey and Zara.

"She's only sleeping.." I said to her.

"Your mate is really beautiful and pregnant too.." Zoey said with a smile.

" yeah, she is.."

" come on I'm sure she won't be awake for a while let's go see the new baby.." Mom said with excitement in her voice.

"Yeah.." I nodded my head. I placed a few strands of hair behind my cupcake's ear then kissed her forehead, Following Mom outside to the hospital.

"Mom do you know what happened to Brook and why the baby came a month early.." I asked.

"No, but I think she was probably stressed.."

A throaty growl stopped us in our tracks once we entered the hospital building.

Nathan Breana's mate was looking our way his eyes slightly dark.

"Mate.." I heard Zoey whisper and I looked at her in disbelief.

"No!" she said shaking her head and soon she was running out of the hospital building.

"Zoey wait!" Mom said running after her while Zara and I looked at Nathan who had a sad look.

"You have two mates?" Zara asked in disbelief.

"What?" Nathan asked.

ADVERTISEMENT

"First my cousin now my sister too?" now my time to ask.

"I am sorry Alpha Zane but I don't know what you are talking about I have been waiting for her for so long.." He said sadness clear in his voice. That's weird he already has a mate and he is saying he has been waiting for her for so long?

"Nathan stop acting like you've been waiting we all know you are mated to my cousin.."

"Oh I am not Nathan.." he said shaking his head, " I am his twin brother Noah.."

"Ohhh!" Zara and I said at the same time. These two were too identical everything about them was the same I am even wondering how Breana know which one is her mate. Or right the sparks and mate bond.

"Sorry, we didn't realize you guys are just too identical.." I said with a sheepish smile.

"Yeah doesn't worry a lot of people make the same mistake.." he sighed. Looking over at where Zoey disappeared, "I have waited for her all my life but I guess she doesn't want me.."

"No don't say that.." Zara said.

"She just had it tough I am sure once you guys talk you will understand her and where she is coming from.."

"I hope she doesn't reject me otherwise I will be crushed.." He sighed. I patted his back going over to the waiting room where everyone was waiting for Brook to be let out of the hospital. I mind-linked Mom telling her that it wasn't Nathan but Noah well just in case.

*Zoey pov surprise!!*

I stopped dead in my tracks seeing the man in front of me. "Mate.." I and my Wolf Wanda said at the same time. No! no! no! I can't have a mate not when I just lost one not after what my first did to me no I can't.

I ran out of the hospital not even knowing where I was going.

The idea of mates irked me I know you might be like if it did then why did she choose to live with her first mate for over eight years well the answer is simple because I had no other choice.

The wounds are still fresh the nightmares of my first mate r***** me, haunt me every night despite me living with him for eight years. I forgave him though I never let him in and he knew it. He had scarred and tainted my life. I was broken and having a second chance mate made the past I have tried to forget to resurface making the wounds even fresher. What if he does the same to me? I don't want to go through emotional torture anymore.

I fell on the ground crying my eyes out loudly might I add.

I felt someone hold me it was my mama I sobbed on her shoulder and she didn't say anything just held me.

"I can't have a mate mama.." I sobbed, "not after what the first one did to me.." I sobbed hugging her tightly. She didn't say anything and after a few more minutes of me sobbing and pouring out my heart I finally calmed down.

"He isn't like him.." Mama said cupping my cheeks, "princess I know what happened in the past was unbearable for you and you can never trust mates but you should try giving him a chance.."

"No.." I shook my head, "what if he tries to touch me? what if he does what Salvador did? I can't let him in Mama I can't.."

"Zoey you are strong brave and a good fighter. You lived with Salvador for over eight years and he never touched you right?" she asked and I nodded,

"Why?"

"Because I never allowed him to.."

"Exactly.." she responded. "If he tries something with you then you can just fight him off you have powers you are no longer the defenseless little girl from way back but you are stronger now. Just try to give him a chance okay.." she wiped away my tears and I nodded my head.

"Now come on get up! pull yourself together you are strong and brave.." she pulled me into a hug. After we broke away I saw him my second chance mate standing there.

"I will just leave you two.." she said "and if you try anything with her, I will drag you to hell in seconds.." she threatened while my mate just lifted his hands in surrender shaking his head in denial. I smile.

"Hi.." my mate said taking a step closer to me and on instinct, I stepped back I know if he tried anything I can totally take him out but the fear was just still there.

"Sorry.." he said stopping in his tracks.

"I would just like to get to know you?" he said averting his gaze. I didn't say anything as we both stood there looking at each other awkwardly.

"What's your name?" he asked his voice barely above a whisper.

"Z- Z- Zoey.." I stuttered not knowing why. I sat down my back pressed against the tree and He sat down as well both of us looking at each other.

*** Serene pov***

After bringing Kaira and Kaden back to life I and Jack p***ed right into the leaving room back at my house.

"So this is where I live.." I said blushing slightly the place was a little bit dusty because of not being used for so long but nothing a little bit of power can't fix.

"I guess we need to start cleaning up.." Jack said with a chuckle while I giggled

"yeah but don't worry I can just use my powers.." I said but he stopped me.

"No using your goddess abilities you will become lazy.." he chuckled while I sighed mumbling a fine going over to the broom cabinet.

"You are helping too.." I added as we both started cleaning up. After an hour and thirty minutes, we were finally done. The house looked more lively and homey

"Damn I am so hungry.." I mumbled to myself.

"Yeah me too but I don't see any food in this house.." Jack said

"Come we can go out and eat I have plenty of money saved up plus we can even go shopping you need a new outfit.." I said going to my room checking one of my drawers which was untouched. I took out a few dollars grabbed my purse then went back downstairs where Jack was waiting.

"I am pretty sure I should be the one taking you out for dinner and also shopping.."

"Yeah I know but you've been a dragon for over twenty years and the world has changed and also I am pretty sure you don't have any money so my treat.." I said dragging him outside we booked a taxi and went into town. After an hour of shopping and eating dinner, we came back home.

"Gosh, I am exhausted.." I said as Jack carried the shopping bags that had clothes and bathroom stuff to the bedroom, While I locked the front door. Taking the foodstuffs to the kitchen. After I was done placing everything I went to the bedroom to find Jack taking a shower. I check the shopping bags, took what I needed going over to Scarlet's old room. After I was done showering I wrapped a towel around me only to realize that I forgot to take my clothes I went back to my room only to find Jack standing by the door waiting for me with only a towel wrapped around his lower half. He looked—

"Serene.." he said stepping closer our bodies inches apart as my breath caught in my throat. I clutched my towel tightly so that it wouldn't fall

"I remember perfectly what happened that day I left and I just want to start by saying I am sorry.."

"Jack you don't have to—"

"No Serene.." he stopped me placing his warm palm on my cheek and I leaned in enjoying the warmth, " I know you that's why I want to assure you that, that night twenty years ago was the best night of my life.." he said and I felt a warm feeling in my chest. Indeed, I sometimes blamed myself that maybe I wasn't perfect for him and that's why he left but hearing him say this made me feel a lot better.

"I loved every second of it and most importantly I love you Serene.." A lone tear escaped my eyes he loves me he still loves me!!

"You are the only one who is always on my mind every morning when I wake up and at night when I go to sleep even when I was turned into a dragon. I never stopped thinking about you baby and that day, that day I saw you again four years ago the only thought on my mind was to just break the spell Ceros had cast on me so that I can do this..." He pulled me to him placing his lips on mine. Our tongues danced together as I tugged his hair a little while he firmly wrapped an arm around my waist while his other hand was at the back of my neck holding me firmly. I had never kiss any other guy in my life he was the first guy I had ever kissed and I was kissing him again twenty years later. Just this simple kiss got me turned on and I wanted more from him I wanted more than just a kiss I missed him I missed every inch of him.

My hands left his hair as they started making way to his naked chest trailing my fingers. It seemed we were thinking the same thing because he pulled away removed my towel throwing it somewhere around the room leaving me bare. He took his time eyeing me while I blushed but I didn't dare cover-up I was all his and he was all mine. After eyeing me for a few minutes.

"You are just hot as I remember..." he said pulling me into a heated kiss that turned into a [*****] session I loved every second of it no other man had ever made feel what Jack did he was the sweetest and caring man ever I couldn't be any happier that I chose him and he was here with me in my room making love to me slowly but sweetly just like our first time but this time was even better than our first.

"I will always love you Serene my feisty and wild goddess I will only love you.." he whispered to me after we calmed down from our highs

ADVERTISEMENT

"And I will only love you, Jack.." I said pecking his lips. I was about to get up and go clean up when he stopped me.

"I want to ask you something.." he said seeming a little nervous

"What is it?" I asked he closed his eyes and before long a beautiful golden necklace appeared around his neck.

"How did you do that?" I asked in surprise as far as I know Angels didn't have any supernatural abilities. He smiled removing the necklace.

"my Mom gave it to me.." he said looking at me, "I was able to keep it till now because she gave it to me when I was in my Angel form and after I shifted back the necklace disappeared too hence being kept safe.."

"So you mean, you can stay in the same clothes you were wearing in your angel form after you shift back?" I asked and he nodded.

"wow, that's cool.."

"Anyway.." he scooted closer to me, "I want you to be officially mine. Will you marry me, Serene? I know this proposal is probably not what you were expecting but I just love you a lot and want to spend my life with you and possible have—" I pulled him into a kiss silencing his blubbing

"Yes, Jack.." I said pulling away, " I accept I will marry you.." He smiled widely at me pulling me closer then putting the necklace around my neck.

"It's beautiful.." I said touching it lightly.

"Just like you.." he said pulling me into another love-making session I had taken up his surname and my daughter too but now it was going to be official I am officially going to be Mrs. Reyes.

A beeping sound woke me from my sleep. I grabbed my phone from the nightstand checking it to see it was 5:30 a.m dang it I am late.

"Jack wake up!" I said getting up from bed grabbing the towel that was on the floor, I wrapped it around me then went over to the window opening the curtains.

"Why are you waking me up this early love come back to bed.." Jack said sleepily.

"No Jack get up scarlet is going to be here any moment we have to get ready.." I said going over to the bathroom brushing my teeth. A few minutes later Jack walked in and wrapped his arms around me.

"come on the love she is a pregnant girl I don't think she will wake up this early let's go back to bed I want to cuddle with you.." I sighed rinse my mouth then facing him.

"Jack I know Scarlet, before I even told her about what she was and about mates she always pressured me to get her a Dad, and now that she has one I don't think she will want to spend another second far from you.." I said as he sighed giving me a sad look.

" I can't believe I missed out on her childhood. I should have been there for her, she needed me but I—"

"Hey.." I place my palm on his cheek, " it wasn't your fault okay that is all in the past and now you can make it up to her by getting ready.."

"You are right.." he said removing his arms from my waist.

I went into the shower and after a few more minutes he joined me.

We were halfway done when I heard my little Angel's voice.

"See I told you she would come early.."

“Yeah and she is calling out for me..” he smiled widely.

“Finish up quickly and go see her..” I urged him.

SCARLET POV

An annoying sound had me groaning in my sleep uh why did I set an alarm.

I opened one eye so I could see my alarm clock and switch it off but instead it was my phone sitting gracefully on the nightstand taunting me.

Garth, I picked it up to see it was an unknown number.

“Hello..” I hesitantly answered it.

“Hey pink panther did you miss me?” my mouth hung open. Val! last I heard from him was way back in high school the day we graduated since then I haven’t heard from him.

“Oh my gosh, Valencia fluffy bunny is it really you..?” I squeaked happily.

“Yeah pink panther I have missed you so much can’t wait to come to visit you..”

“You are here? as in here in Baja?” I asked excitement clear in my voice.

“Yes love I mean Scarlet. I am here and I found my mate.. ”

“Wow that’s so awesome—” my excitement kept on dying at each word when I saw the figure of handsomeness coming out of the bathroom with only a towel hanging dangerously low and a few water droplets, were dropping from his hair all the way to his naked chest and down disappearing under the towel. I gulped.

“Hello? hello? pink panther are you still there.?”

“Yeah! yeah! yes! I am still here..” I said shielding my eyes so I won’t get distracted.

“Good anyway my mate is glaring daggers at me thinking you and I are a thing. I will just come to visit you one of these days with her so she could see you and your mate..”

“Yes, that would be wonderful can’t wait to see you love you bye..” I said cutting the call.

"Who was that?" Zane asked coming closer to me he looked just as handsome as he did a few seconds ago.

I didn't say anything as my mouth suddenly felt dry and I instantly became needy uh stupid pregnancy hormones.

I saw a corky smirk appear on his face and I quickly shook my head dismissing the needy thoughts.

"It was Val he is back in town.." I Said with a yawn desperately trying to avert my gaze.

"Okay, I believe you. I am glad you are awake.." That's when I remembered there was a war, I gave my strength to Bloom and

"Oh my gosh is Bloom okay?" and what about her baby and—" I quickly removed the comforter and sighed in relief to see my baby bump still there.

"I was so worried.." I said lovingly caressing my baby.

"Yeah me too but I am glad you are fine.."

"How did everything go judging by me sleeping here and you here with me I am guessing we won?" I said.

"Yeah we did.." he grinned at me.

"How long have I been sleeping?" I asked.

"Not long just three hours. Come on let's go get ready for dinner.." he helped me up leading me to the bathroom. I took out my toothbrush brushing my teeth while he filled up the bathing tub with water and my favorite lux body wash.

After I was done brushing my teeth he helped me undressed then removed his towel both of us getting into the tub.

"I met someone.." I said as he grabbed the bathing sponge helping me clean up.

"Who did you meet?" He asked.

" I don't know there was an earthquake and I stumbled but before I could fall he caught me then started checking me out. " I felt him stiffed

"He checks you out?" he growled lowly.

" no not that kind of checking out he was checking to see if I was injured and what was weirder was the fact that he knew my name.."

"Maybe it's someone from the pack? Zane asked.

"No if it was then they would have called me Luna but he called me Scarlet and he looked so worried asking if I was okay and if the baby was okay just like the way you and Mom ask.." He brushed the area between my legs making me bite back a moan.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Do you know him?" I asked facing Zane who's eyes were a little darker..he shook his head closing his eyes then after he opened them they were their normal usual blue.

"How about you describe how he looked like maybe I know him.." he asked getting up and helping me out of the tub going over to the shower to rinse off the soap.

"He had red hair and piercing silver eyes and handsome too.." I said and he growled lowly.

"But not as handsome as you.." I added and before long he was kissing the daylight out of me. The kiss turned into a quick love-making session.

After he pulled away we washed up then he towel-dried us.

He chose a maternity dress for me much to my dismay then help brush my hair Both of us were ready and heading downstairs hand in hand

"I am soo hungry! The last time I ate was in the morning..." I said.

"Yeah, baby don't worry the first thing I will do once we reach downstairs is take you to the kitchen.." Zane grinned at me while I smiled kissing his cheek. I happily skipped down the stairs but stopped dead in my tracks when I saw everyone! people I have never met before.

The living room was filled with a lot of strangers and kids running around.

Everyone's eyes snapped in my direction. Mom Kaira was nowhere to be seen neither was Aunt Melissa in short non of the people I am used to seeing were in the room except of course the red-haired guy from earlier who gave me a small smile while the others just looked on. I stood there awkwardly not knowing what to do until Zane like the savior he is coming and stood beside me placing his hand in mine.

I took a step back trying to hide behind him but he held me firmly in place leading me towards everyone.

"Why didn't you tell me we had guests over?" I said through gritted teeth and low enough for him to hear.

"I wanted to surprise you.." he whispered back.

"Hi family this is my mate and the future Queen, Scarlet, and Scarlet these are my family members.."

"Hi, nice to meet you.." I said in a low voice. A lady who looked like a younger version of grandma Crystal got up from her seat and before long she was pulling me into a hug.

"Hi Scarlet nice to meet you. I am Raima his aunt.." she said with a sweet smile.

"Hi, aunt Raima.." I said back

ADVERTISEMENT

Zane introduced me to every single person. It turns out the red-haired guy was actually his cousin aunt Raima's son and I met Zoey too she smiled sweetly at me and I got happy vibes from her.

"Angel you are awake.." I heard BeBe say coming towards me pulling me into a hug while I smiled.

"How is Bloom? is she okay? what about the baby?"

"Don't worry she is fine better than fine though she still had to stay at the pack hospital for more checkups and the baby is fine too she is strong and doesn't look premature at all.." she grinned happily while I smiled.

After that Mom, Aunt Melissa Aunt Raima, and some omegas served dinner and we all ate as one big happy family

Morning came I woke up at five a.m excitement could be clearly seen because today I was going to see my Mom and meet my Dad.

I got up went to the bathroom brushed my teeth undressed but before I could hit the shower Zane came in.

"Baby you know it's too early right Mom Serene is probably sleeping right now with Dad Jack probably together in their room.." he said and I knew what he was hinting if they were busy having a session then I will just have to disturb them.

"Zane I don't care plus I will call them and tell them I am coming simply.." I said heading into the shower.

"Come on baby it's five a.m still early you should be in bed with me plus I am sure baby wants to sleep too. Am I right baby?" He asked getting into the shower as well as caressing my baby bump.

" well, baby says he wants to meet his grandparents. Plus they told you to tell me that once I woke up I could go see them I am sure they are expecting me, Zane.." he sighed helping me shower. He showered as well, dressed, and then e*****ed me to my car.

"At least let me drive you.."

"No Zane I will be fine I want to go in my car so that I can take them both shopping I don't want to get a tax.." He gave out a long unhappy sigh.

"I guess I will come to pick you up tomorrow? I am going to miss you and your baby. I don't know how I will sleep tonight without you by my side.." He said sadness dripping from his voice.

"I am going to miss you too baby daddy.." I pecked his lips but he deepened it and after a few minutes he pulled away.

"I love you.." he said hugging me.

"I love you," Zane said pulling me into a hug.

"I love you too.." I said after we pulled away. I got into the car with a huge smile on my face driving off to my parent's home.

"Dad hello?" I said entering the house. I was super excited to finally officially meet my real Dad my very own Dad!

I went straight to the living room but there was no one. That means they are both in bed. Zane was right but I guess I will just have to disturb them.

I walked up the stairs straight to Mom's room knocking on the door.

"Dad.." I said knocking. If it were in the past I would have walked in but I didn't want to walk in on my Mom and Dad you know doing things. That would scar me for life!!!

"Daddy.." I said knocking again until after some time the door opened showcasing a shirtless man with blonde wet hair and silver eyes, probably coming out of the shower. He was really handsome and had a nose like mine.

"my little girl.." he murmured pulling me into a hug

"Dad.?" I asked a huge smile on my face

"Yes princess, I am your Dad! I am sorry I wasn't there for you I am sorry..." I hugged him back tightly enjoying the warmth. Finally, my Dad is here with me! with us.

"Oh, you both have met.." Mom's voice broke our Father's daughter moment she came out of the bathroom with a towel wrapped around her.

"I finally have a Dad Mom.." I squeaked happily hugging her.

"baby you are pregnant.."

Mum laughed

"Right.." I said sheepishly.

"Come on in.." Dad said opening the door widely

"Actually I will just wait here for you both to get dressed.."

"Don't be silly little one.." Dad said dragging me inside I sat on the bed while he pulled on a shirt and Mom dressed up. After that, the three of us went to the kitchen to make breakfast.

"What would you like to eat little Angel.." Dad asked taking out ingredients from the cabinet.

"He can cook?" I asked Mom who was sitting next to me smiling widely. I have never seen my Mom this happy I guess Dad was the key to her happiness and not me.

"Yes of course you are gonna love it.." Mom said happily while I smiled.

Dad made my favorite bacon with scrambled eggs and freshly squeezed juice while he made pancakes for Mom

"Wow, this is amazing Jacky I love it!" Mom said happily, she kissed his cheek while they both began to feed each other and I just stared at them barely touching my food.

"Angel why ain't you eating don't you like it?" Dad asked I guess they have now noticed my presence.

"Yes, it's fine I uh.." I didn't get to finish my sentence as Dad got up from the sit coming to sit next to me.

"What's a wrong princess?" he asked me

"Nothing daddy I am okay.." I said not making eye contact.

"Little Angel I know I was never there for you when growing up but I can tell you are not happy about something to tell me, sweetie, what's bothering you?" he asked softly petting my hair.

"I just feel a little sad and left out.." I said my voice barely above a whisper but they heard me anyway.

"Why do you say that princess?" Mom asked in the same soft voice.

"Because I have waiting to see you again Mom, for years now and Dad I have waited for twenty years but you both are spending time with each other barely noticing me. Can't you just spare a single day for me I want to know how it feels like to have both, my parents, with me? I know I am old enough and I am going to be a Mom soon but I just—"

"Shhhh..." Dad stopped me placing his index finger on my lips then with his other thumb wiping away my tears.

"Sorry we made you feel left out baby from now on it will be all about you okay. We will both shower you with all the love you need. Right Serene?" He said.

"Yes right you are our little princess our happiness too we both love you a lot, my baby.." Mom said

" but-" I sniffed, " mom you were never this happy with me, I was never the key to your happiness right?" I asked looking at her

" of course you are baby, I was happy when I had you and I still am. My happiness lies in you both.." She said looking at me then Dad, "Without either of you I can never be fulling happy.." she added hugging me and soon Dad joined in both of them showering me with their warmth. I felt nice safe and complete because I had my family here with me.

"Come on eat breakfast.." Dad said grabbing the fork and feeding me the bacon I smiled as Mom grabbed the sp***-feeding me the eggs.

Breakfast was indeed amazing first time tasting food made by my Dad. The best thing ever in this entire world.

"By that megawatt smile, I am guessing you love it.." Dad said grinning at me

"Yeah I love it and I love you both.."

"Aww, we love you too baby.." Mom said as she cleared up the table.

"Come on we have to go shopping!!" I said dragging them both outside to my car.

"No baby we went shopping yesterday plus we can manage right, Jack?" Mom said looking at Dad.

"Mom you lost your job remember and Dad hasn't started working yet and you both need a lot of stuff so my treat.."

"No baby we can't spend your in-law's money I will find a job soon.." This time my Dad said.

"Daddy..." I took out my black card from my purse as Mom gasped.

"You own a black card but how?" She asked

"Well after I was done with high school I did a simple online course then started working at Dad Kaden and uncle Dean's company so all this money is mine and what's mine is yours.." I grinned.

"But—" Dad began and I shook my head.

"I am not taking no for an answer plus I am pregnant you don't want to hurt your little pregnant Angel's feelings now do you?" I asked pulling them both into a hug sniffing a little.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Oh great, she can blackmail.." Dad chuckled, "Okay if you say so little one.."

"Great.." I grinned at him, " and by the way, I also asked Dad Kaden to give you a job and you can start any day you want.."

"But Angel really? I could have looked for one.." he said

"And it would have taken months Dad now come on the shopping won't do itself.." I tossed the car keys to Mom who sat on the driver's side Dad on the passenger while I was at the back. The ride into town was absolutely amazing I got to know a lot about my Dad he even told me stories about how he and Mom met how they fell in love and even Mom's embarrassing childhood moments which she never shared with me.

We visited numerous stores and I even bought both of them new phones Dad had a little trouble using it since he spent most of his time being a dragon but after a little tutorial, he got hung of it.

I also got them both a huge king-sized bed much to their dismay but after convincing them and telling them it was my engagement gift to them, they agreed.

We ordered pizza after we were done with our shopping then went back home laughing and chatting while sitting on the couch me of course in the middle.

"I am sleeping with you guys tonight.." I dropped the bomb on them as Dad choked on the spaghetti we were eating.

"What?" Mom asked looking at Dad

"Well you heard me you both will have to pretend I am a little one-year-old kid who is scared to sleep alone plus it's only one night and I wanna know how it feels like to be cuddled up in bed with my parents and my sweet Daddy reading me bedtime stories.." I batted my eyelashes at them.

"I guess she is right? I mean it's only one night? Right?" mom asked looking at Dad who just nodded his head. While I giggled.

"Just kidding but you both need to stay in my room cuddling me till I fall asleep okay and Dad will have to read me a bedtime story.." A huge smile adorned Dad's face.

And Mom smiled too.

"Okay now that that's settled come on let's get baby and Mommy to bed.." Mom said leading me to my room which was just as I left it empty.

"Come on lay down and tell me what story you want me to read for you.." Dad said getting me into bed while I yawned.

"Tell me the story of how the Angel met the goddess.." I said as they both got into bed with me.

My little Angel can be a handful sometimes but I love her nevertheless.

We were laying on her bed as she cuddled onto her Dad while I petted her hair.

"There was once a beautiful goddess who was admired by many.." Jack said looking at me, "She was a true beauty worth dying for of course. Everyone wanted to get her and marry her but One day she met a simple Angel and they both fell in love.." he said his eyes never leaving mine.

"Then what happened?" Scarlet asked in a sleepy voice.

"It was love at first sight as the little goddess couldn't keep her eyes away from the Angel because he was so handsome and after getting to know each other even better she fell deeper in love with him.." I said

"And so did he.." Jack added.

"One day the Angel confessed his love for her and they both shared a magic moment filled with love and pa**ion.." Jack said.

"But that beautiful moment ended when the Angel left the goddess and he never came back.." I sadly added.

"Where did he go?" Scarlet asked while Jack was looking at me with sadness and regret.

"The goddess looked for the Angel everywhere but the Angel had disappeared and after a few weeks the goddess found out that she was pregnant which led her to leave her home running away.."

"Why?" Scarlet asked turning to face me.

"Because people were hunting her baby down and she had to keep the baby safe. And after a few months, she gave birth to a beautiful little girl who was a half Angel half goddess. They both lived together happily but the goddess wasn't fully happy.."

"Because she missed the Angel?" Scarlet asked while I nodded.

ADVERTISEMENT

"She missed him.." I said looking at Jack.

"Did she ever know why the Angel left?"

"No.." I shook my head desperately trying to keep my tears away, "If she had known then she would have to go to look for him.."

"And that's why the Angel never told her why he left.." Jack added looking deep into my eyes.

"Why did the Angel never tell her she deserved to know.." scarlet asked slightly angry as she turned to look at Jack.

"Because the Angel was afraid.." Jack said caressing scarlet's cheeks.

"That day he left he planned on coming back, he left to get her a gift but when returning he was ambushed and kidnapped by a man who wanted the goddess and use her as a baby-making machine because everyone knew just how powerful the little goddess was and how powerful her babies would be.."

" Why did they kidnap him shouldn't they have kidnapped the goddess?" I asked.

" they kidnapped him because he was the only one who knew where the goddess lived they thought that by kidnapping him they would blackmail the little goddess to give herself up for her lover.." Jack said.

" What happened after that did they blackmail the goddess?" Scarlet asked.

" no. The Angel was so powerful that he beat all of them up and was free.."

"Why didn't he come back once he was free.?" I asked

" because the man who kidnapped her was working with a powerful witch and he knew that they would track him down and he would lead them right to the goddess and their baby.."

"Baby it was their first time how did the Angel know that the goddess was pregnant?" Scarlet asked and we both looked at Jack me wondering the same thing.

ADVERTISEMENT

"He wasn't just an ordinary Angel and he just had a feeling that she was and after a few weeks the feelings become true when he heard people talking that the prophecy had been fulfilled and the goddess was going to have a child who would be powerful and giver of immortality.."

"But he still should have told her where he was so that the goddess couldn't worry.." I said.

"I didn't have another choice Serene I knew that if I told you, you would come to me then what would have happened to our little girl she would have been captured and we would have lost her forever.."

"I would have left her to be taken care of by my friend Syria I would have come alone to help you.."

"What if Ceros tracked down Syria? We both know she is no match for Ceros she could have gotten killed. Only you were able to take care of her Serene, you were the only one powerful enough to conceal your ident**y hide your scent from everyone else.."

"But you still should have told me Jack it was hard without you I was alone I needed you, Jack, I needed you by my side.." a few tears escaped my eyes.

"I am sorry I didn't tell you Serene but what would you have done if you were in my shoes. If you knew that your mate and child were in danger and the only way you can save them is by staying away so that those hunting her down by tracking you, couldn't get a hold of her?" I sighed wiping away my tears looking at Scarlet who was busy looking at me.

Before long her phone began ringing

"I am sure Zane misses you you can tell him to come over I know you both can't sleep without each other get some rest okay.." I kissed her forehead getting out of the bed going to my room.

I sat down on the floor crying my eyes out. He should have told me we could have worked things out together being a single Mom was really hard on me as I had to work whilst making sure my baby was okay since I had no one to take care of her. I needed him I needed Jack so much he should have been there.

"I am sorry.." his voice broke me from my line of thoughts, "I was wrong to leave your love I should have stayed and worked things out I am sorry.." he whispered hugging me tightly as I sobbed clutching his shirt.

"I promise I will make it up to you I won't be able to bring back all those years we spent apart but I will spend all eternity loving you and giving you everything you deserve my little goddess.." I pulled away staring at him as he wipe my tears away.

"I am sorry okay I am sorry I left you but I will never do it again okay.." He kissed my forehead then hugged me tightly. His reassuring presence was all that I needed to know that he was here for me

"Do you still love me?" I asked my voice in a small whisper.

ADVERTISEMENT

"Yes, I love you with all my heart and soul. You are the only one for me sweet Serene.." he said pecking my lips and I smiled

"I love you too.." he picked me up bridal style then lay me into bed he lay down aswell pulling me to him cuddling me.

"Get some sleep love.." was the last thing I heard as I drifted off to sleep.

_*Jack pov-*

I watched as my mate disappeared out the door. I sighed looking at my little Angel who was also looking at me completely ignoring her phone.

"I didn't mean to hurt her I was just afraid that I would lose you both. Look I know you might be thinking that I am a bad person because I left her to take care of you on her own but I didn't have any other choice. They were hunting me down and if I went to her then I would have led them right to her I had to divert their attention somewhere else and in the end, I ended up giving up and that's how I was captured and turned into a dragon that way they wouldn't use me to get to her.." I said looking at her.

"You might just lose her if you don't go talk to her she misses you she's been longing for you. Go to her and make sure it is happy.." she smiled at me.

"You are not angry with me?" I asked

"No Daddy I am not I know it was bad of you for not being here but you had no choice I would have done the same if I were in your shoes.."

Her phone began ringing again.

"Go talk to her and in the meantime, I will take to my mate.." she said. I kissed her forehead going out of the room.

I found my sweet Serene laying on the floor crying her eyes out and I felt my heartbreak I really hurt her a lot after apologizing and promising to make it up to her she finally stopped crying and fell asleep

I looked as she lay on my chest. A million thoughts were going through my mind as I thought about what I did to her and how I could have changed our fate but there was nothing I could do to stop it. They were hunting me down and if I had gone to her I would have led the enemy right there but now I can finally be with her without worrying I can finally marry my little goddess the love of my life.

Morning came and my eyes were fixed on her as she slept soundly.

I had only slept a little bit mostly because I was busy thinking about her and what I'm going to do to make it up to her for all the years that I missed out on we are both immortal and I have a lot of years to make it up to her can't wait to start.

"Good morning.." her sweet voice broke my line of thoughts.

"Good morning.." I said kissing her forehead helping her out of bed as we both went to get ready for the day.

"I will just wake up Scarlet.." she was about to enter our little Angel's room but I stopped her.

"She's with her mate he came last night.." I said since I didn't sleep I actually heard him come in but luckily I didn't hear anything else I wasn't supposed to.

Her mouth shaped into a perfect O and we both went downstairs to prepare breakfast.

Soon enough Scarlet and her mate joined us too and we all ate as a family with me getting to know more and more about my little girl and her mate who I can tell loves her a lot

***Serene pov****

It's been a month since Jack came back to me a month that has been filled with us making love and getting to know each other. He has proved just how sorry he is for leaving me and I have totally understood why he did it. He has been really amazing this month showering me with love and gifts everything I ever needed and dreamed of and today we were getting married.

Everything had been going smoothly he works in one of Kaden's companies, I wanted to go back to my old work of being a lawyer but he stopped me telling me that he wanted to provide for us and I let him I knew not to argue with him because if I did he would have given me a sob story and beg me to let him prove himself to me.

"Wow I am soo excited.." my little Angel said happily her baby bump was now big and in just three months I am going to see my first grandkid.

Me, Kaira, Melissa, and all our girls were in one of the guest rooms at the alpha's house getting me ready for my wedding. We didn't hire a professional to do my makeup and hair but instead we as In Kaira and Melissa decided to do my makeup and well I let them do it plus I didn't care. what I cared about was the fact that I was going to marry my little Angel's Dad, my mate, my everything.

"Okay done!" Melissa and Kaira said happily I was wearing a simple white dress with my hair braided a little and my goddess crown that had a Swan right at the front adorned with little diamonds.

ADVERTISEMENT

My make-up was n*** just like I wanted.

"Wow Mom you look perfect.." my little girl smiled widely at me

"thanks, Angel.." I said hugging her.

Bells began to ringing making me slightly panicked

" oh no I am going to be late for my own wedding.." I said as they all just giggled.

"Serene everything is done all that's left is for you to wear your shoes and grab the bouquet. see you.." they all left and only me and my little girl remained because she will be the one walking me to the alter, well I didn't have anyone else to do it and after I asked her she happily agreed.

ADVERTISEMENT

The doors opened as me and my little Angel walked out hand in hand.

Our wedding was just simple and small with only family members allowed which was less than twenty people.

Jack stood there looking as majestic as always wearing a blue suit his blonde hair was cut on the sides making him even more handsome

Dreams do come true I always dreamed about getting married to the love of my life and at age thirty-six it was happening my dream was coming true.

We reached the alter and Scarlet gave my hand to Jack with a huge smile on her face and we faced Kaden who agreed to bless our union. After our vows were exchanged and the rings are worn I was officially declared as a married woman I was officially Mrs. Reyes.

Our little party was amazing as well as everyone gave gifts but one stood out the most me and Jack didn't plan a honeymoon but instead Scarlet and Zane did it for us with a one month all paid trip to London. It was the best moment of my life as Jack and I went sightseeing got to spend more time together and my life was complete I felt completely whole with him by my side. He was the missing piece to my puzzle and I Finally found it. I found my happy ending as it was always meant to be the Angel and the goddess.

I was in my room feeling Hella nervous

A year has passed by since the war and we have been at peace I gave birth to a handsome baby boy four months after the war and today Zane and I are having our wedding and also the official crowning ceremony as the new king and Queen of all werewolves.

"baby relax it will all be okay.." my Mom said. All the women starting with both my Mom's aunt Melissa and aunt Raima, Zoey, Zara, BeBe, and Bloom were all in my room helping me get ready. We were supposed to hire a professional make-up and hair artist but all the ladies insisted they do it.

So far only five hours were left and the only thing done was my manicures and pedicures.

My hair was still in a mess and my makeup was undone.

"Mom I don't want to be late for my own wedding.." I said

"Don't worry you won't!" She said as Zoey and Zara began to work on my makeup while my Moms did my hair.

Aunt Raima was taking care of little Michael yes our little boy we named him Micheal, Zane's middle name. He is just as handsome as his Dad with the same facial features but got my eyes and hair.

Everything between Zane and I have gone smoothly we now trust each other and tell each other everything. Our lives have been perfect I can say though there are some challenges here and there but not enough to break us apart and guess what we are planning on having another baby once Micheal Jnr is over a year old of course which won't belong.

Zoey gave Noah a chance but they are taking things slowly by going out on dates and also some small stuff. She hasn't moved to live with him she decided to stay here and he (Noah) decided to stay too though he was the beta of BeBe's pack the blood shadows which used to be one of the most feared packs in America because they killed with no mercy but luckily they stopped before alpha Nathan met BeBe. They went through trial and now the pack doesn't kill senselessly.

"Done.." both my Moms said at the same time. I looked in the mirror and gasped.

My makeup looked amazing it was a little bit minimal. there was light pink eye shadow with a little bit of eyeliner and mascara.

My cheeks were painted in blush and my lips a small shade of pink lipstick.

I looked perfect.

My hair was curled to perfection I had decided to get a hair cut much to Zane's dismay but he learned to deal with it.

My hair was shoulder length

It had been braided a little in front with jasmine flowers placed in perfection.

"Come on wear the dress now.." both my Moms said they were now acting like twins

I wore my dress and it fits me perfectly

It was a white wedding dress with small diamonds on the chest area. I looked like a true princess. I was wearing diamond star earrings as well but with no necklace apparently both my Moms didn't want me to wear a necklace, reason? I don't know.

"She looks perfect.." my Mom said wiping away her tears

"I know our little girl is all grown up!" Mom Kaira added crying as well

ADVERTISEMENT

"Come on, you both need to pull yourselves together if I start crying too my makeup will be ruined.." I said and they immediately stopped.

Everyone was all dressed up. Zoey, Zara, and BeBe were the bride's maids all wearing pink figures hugging long dresses with the makeup and hair done the same way. Lucas' mate Lucia was pregnant so she couldn't be part of the bride's maids. They found each other just the day after the war (when I went to visit my parents) and hit it off instantly. Since Bloom will also be crowned as the royal beta female, she couldn't be a part of the bride's maid group.

Mom Kaira was wearing a really long peach dress that looked fit for a Queen with a golden crown on her head she looked perfect like a true Queen and my Mom and aunts wore longbow gown dresses each with a different color but the same style.

Charlene and Cindy were dressed in mini white dresses, they were the mini brides who will be throwing flowers on the red carpet, and lastly, my little prince was dressed in a gray suit looking so adorable.

"Are you ready?" My Dad asked looking at me in awe.

"I was never there for you for twenty years of your life but I am glad to be here for you and have the honor of walking you down the Isle.." He said wiping away a few tears while I hugged him.

"Please don't cry, Daddy. I don't want my makeup to be ruined.." I said and he chuckled.

"You look amazing kid.." He kisses my forehead while I smiled.

"Thanks, Daddy.." I said.

"The ceremony will start soon I will just go take my place see you, Angel.." Mom Kaira Said kissing my forehead my Mom did too. Everyone left and now it was only me and my Dad waiting for our cue to go and walk down the Isle.

"I got you something.." Dad said he reached into his pocket and took out a beautiful ruby necklace that had little emeralds around it.

"Wow, it's beautiful thanks, Daddy.." I said turning around so he could put it around my neck. I went and stood in front of the floor-length mirror admiring it.

"Thank you! thank you! thank you!" I hugged him as he chuckled hugging me back.

Bells ringing and music playing broke us from the hug.

I could feel my heart beating loudly I was Hella nervous.

"Hey.." Dad said pulling me to him as we stood in front of the doors that were separating me and my soon-to-be husband.

"Don't be nervous just relax okay. take deep breaths.." I did as told feeling much calmer.

"It's time.." he pulled down my veil covering my face then He folded his arm on the elbow and I linked it with mine taking a deep breath.

The huge oak Doors opened and my Dad and I walked out onto the red carpet that was adorned with white Rose petals and jasmine flowers.

Gasps echoed as everyone stood looking at me but my eyes were focused on a handsome figure that was standing at the end of the red carpet. He was wearing a beautiful grey tux and his reddish-brown hair was styled nicely. I just wanted to run my hands in it and mess it up. This was the first time that I had seen him wear a tux.

Our eyes locked as he looked at me in awe a few tears escaping his eyes probably mine too. Soon I will marry him and we will start our lives together in our own house raising our kids.

ADVERTISEMENT

I saw Luka who was the best man give him a tissue to wipe away his tears.

"Take care of my princess.." Dad said to Zane as soon as we reached where he was.

His eyes never leaving mine.

"I will.." he slightly bowed taking my hand pulling me closer so there were only like ten inches apart.

"You look beautiful..." He complimented. While I giggled.

"I'm wearing a veil you can't see my face clearly but you look handsome.." I smiled lightly. He leaned over our faces inches away I thought he was about to kiss me when instead-

"I can't wait to see what's under this dress.." he whispered in my ear so low that only I could hear and I blushed despite us being together for years he still made me blush and I think I will never stop.

"Hmm.." Mom cleared her throat As I and Zane turned to face her. Our wedding wasn't a normal one where they chose a wedding officiator and such nope! and you might not guess who was going to bless our marriage. My Mom and my Dad.

They had made a simple moveable alter just at the foot of the stairs. Since today was a combined wedding and the crowning ceremony the wedding altar was placed at the foot of the stairs that led to the stage where Mom Kaira and Dad Kaden were sitting with their glorious king and Queen outfits with crowns and everything. Aunt Melissa and Uncle Dean were there too.

"We are gathered here to witness the union of my lovely son Zane Micheal Black Alpha of the Royal Black Phantom Pack and soon to be King of all werewolves and my darling daughter Scarlet Lynn Reyes Luna of the Royal Black Phantom Pack and soon to be Queen of werewolves..." My Mom's voice boom as Zane and I faced her.

After a few minutes of silence, Mom decided to break it.

"You know what people; I tried to make this as normal as possible but this wedding can never be normal because these two ain't normal.." she said. Laughs echoed as I giggled and Zane laughed Mom can be a handful

"Well it's true so I will just cut all the formalities and get straight to the point.." she added with a smile.

"Zane Scarlet please face each other.." Dad said in a much calmer voice. And we did as told.

" Zane please remove her veil and say your vows.." Zane did as told and his eyes were sparkling.

" It was on uh wait a minute let me remember first.." I giggled as everyone else just laughed.

"How can you forget your vows.." I playful slapped his arm while he grinned.

"Hmm.." he cleared his throat, "It was on April fools day six years ago in high school when I smelt the sweetest scent in the entire world chocolate chip cookies. I never liked them but once the scent hit me I was unable to resist and so I head over to the school cafeteria straight to our lunch lady. I asked her to give me some cookies and she told me there wasn't and it probably was my mate's scent. I was furious I didn't want a mate until I saw you sitting there and I was smitten but didn't want to admit until my Wolf Juan talked sense into me. And that night at the party was the night you stole my heart, captured my mind, and made me your slave for eternity. I love you and I am glad you chose me to spend your entire life with.."

A few tears escaped my eyes but he was quick to wipe them away.

"Now your turn Scarlet.." my Dad said.

"It was indeed way back like I don't know how many years ago when you slip and accidentally kissed me.." The crowd laughed.

ADVERTISEMENT

"It's true and since that day you stole my heart as well. I am happy to have you in my life and to start a family with you I would have never chosen any other mate than the one I was blessed with. you are the most beautiful and best thing that has happened to me I love you and I can't wait to start our journey as a married couple. I know things will be hard but as long we will be together we will handle it all.." I finished off and Zane pulled me to him kissing me while the crowd cheered

"Okay that's enough love birds.." my Mom giggled as Zane and I pulled away.

"The rings please.." my Dad said. Charlene and Cindy came forward with white small baskets that contained the rings.

"Zane Micheal Black, do you take Scarlet Lynn Reyes as your wife, your mate, your Luna, and your Queen to stand by each other, embrace the mate bond till you both shall live?"

"I do!" Zane said, Charlene handed him the ring and he put it on my finger.

"Scarlet Lynn Reyes do you take Zane Micheal Black as your husband, your mate, your Alpha and you King to stand by each other embrace the mate bond till you both shall live.."

"I do!" I said taking the ring from Cindy and putting it on his finger.

"I now pronounce you husband and wife you may—" before Dad can even finish my and Zane's lips were already locked as everyone else cheered.

"I love you.." he whispered after we broke away.

The moveable alter was removed out of the way and we stood at the foot of the stairs our thrones await us

Music began playing and after a few minutes, Bloom and Aaron joined us.

All four of us walked up the stairs and then knelt before our parents.

"Zane Micheal Black repeat after me.." Dad Kaden said standing up and removing his crown.

"I Zane Micheal Black accept the role of Alpha King to lead all werewolf packs to glory and protect them from all angles.." Zane repeated the words and Dad Kaden placed his crown on him.

"Scarlet Lynn Black n`e Reyes repeat after me.." Mom Kaira said standing up and removing her crown.

"I Scarlet Lynn Black n`e Reyes accept the role of Queen luna to be my Alpha's backbone and to be the mother and protector of all werewolves.." I repeats and she placed the crown on my head.

Aaron and Bloom took the crowns of Beta from their parents well.

After they were done a ritual was performed and I felt a surge of power flow through me as a link opened to all werewolves.

"my Queen.." I heard Zane's voice in my head I smiled looking at him.

"I now present to you, your king and Queen, and your betas!!" roars of cheers echoed loud as everyone was up on their sits clapping. All the Alphas, Lunas, and Betas from all over the world had come to witness us being crowned as the new leaders and it was the perfect thing in the world.

Ten years later

"Mommy.!!" little Jasmine ran into the garden jumping on the seat next to me.

I was heavily pregnant with twins and would pop anytime soon. Jasmine was born five years later after trying so hard to have her and now I was pregnant again. After our wedding our honeymoon was lit we spent it in Hawaii and after it was done, we spent an entire year together moving around the world meeting others' packs. Micheal was left with his grandparents who were happy to take care of him and they spoiled him like hell.

Six months after our wedding and coronation Zoey had decided to give Noah a chance and they both were now living at Blood shadows pack they now have their own family and Charlene is a big girl too she found her mate a few weeks ago who happens to be an alpha of a pack all the way in Canada.

And you are never going to guess what happened right on the day me and Zane came back from our 'world tour'

You guessed wrong!! It was my Mom my Mom was freaking pregnant I was so shocked I felt all the color drain from my face when I saw her with a big belly. And right on that day she went into labor and gave birth to twins!!!! A girl and a boy.! To say the truth I fainted. I woke up an hour later only to realize I wasn't dreaming and I had two siblings who they name Serene after mom and Jack after dad. Dad was beyond happy as he saw the two beautiful babies that were laying on Mom's chest and even though I was still in shock I couldn't help but smile seeing my little sister and brother. Serene looked just like me with the same blonde hair silver eyes and same nose while jack got Mom's nose but blonde hair well both my parents had blonde hair and silver eyes so we kids gotta have blonde hair too!

"Hey sweetie how was school?" I asked Jasmine. Today was her first day in kindergarten. Jasmine was just like a mini-me except for the eyes and hair which she took from her daddy. She is a mini-me but a Daddy's girl and Micheal you guessed it right he is a mommy's boy.

"It was a nice mommy I learned numbers.." she grinned at me with her two front teeth missing.

"That's wonderful baby.." I smiled widely at her.

"Mommy your belly is really big when are my little brothers coming?" She asked poking my belly. I was about to tell her soon but was cut off as a contraction hit! dang it I am going into labor.

"Zane get here now!" I growled through the mindlink

"Aah!!" a scream escaped my mouth

"Angel are you okay?" Bloom asked scanning me. All of us ladies were sitting in the garden enjoying the sunshine and having a girl's day.

"They are coming.." I said gritting my teeth preventing another scream from escaping.

" Mommy what's wrong.." Jasmine asked her eyes filled with tears.

"Jas come on let's go get some ice cream mommy needs to visit the hospital.." my mom said taking her and my little sister, Serene away

"Baby what's wrong? what happens? what—"

"get me to the hospital.." I yelled at Zane and just there and then I felt a liquid flow out of me as everyone gasped my water just broke.

It was the longest hour of my entire life as I lay on that bed pushing the twins out while squeezing Zane's hand

After pushing some more we finally heard a cry

"it's a boy.." Doctor Faith announces as I fell back greedily breathing the sweet oxygen!

"Ahh!!" another wave of pain hit

"the other one is coming too! push Luna.." she said again and after more pushing another cry was heard.

"It's another boy.." the doctor announced. After they cleaned me up and cleaned the babies they placed them on my chest while Zane lay next to me.

"what are we going to name them?" I asked looking at my twin boys they looked just like Zane same hair same blue eyes except the nose was mine.

"How about David and Daniel?" I asked.

"Yeah that sounds great David and Daniel it is.." he grinned at me.

"Mommy.." I heard a little voice which belong to my princess.

" Come meet your new brothers.." I said to her she got on the bed looking at them

"Hi little brothers I am Jasmine your big sister what's your name?" she asked while the twins just looked at her with their big eyes.

"Mom why are they not talking?" she asked making me and Zane chuckled.

"Because they are babies sweetheart they will talk when they are as big as you.." Zane said touching her nose while she giggled. Soon Micheal burst through the door as well followed by Jack my little brother something that I can't get used to! well how can I? my brother is younger than my son and with the fact that they are always together and have the same blonde hair and silver eyes, they look like brothers. They both had huge smiles on their face seeing the babies.

"Hey, little brothers.." Michael cooed while they both looked at him. "I'm your big brother Micheal welcome to our world.." he grinned while my brother Jack gave them weird looks.

"This one is an Angel and this one is a Wolf.." he said. oh, I forgot to tell you jack was like a mom with the same powers of seeing the future and everything else that God's do while Serene was a full Angel just like Dad I was the only one who got both half goddess half Angel. And (add a sigh) non of my kids got double but fingers crossed even though Jack said Michael was a full Wolf I was hoping he could be half Wolf half Angel and probably have little goddess power too but I won't know for sure until his first shift that is when he turns sixteen.

"Sister Scarlet.." I heard another voice squeak which belonged to my little sister, Serene. the little Angel jumped on the bed her face mere inches away from the baby's face.

"Wow, they are so cute my little nephews. But why do I feel like they are my little brothers neh I will just call them my little brothers.." she grinned poking the kid's noses while she giggled as we all laughed.

I smiled seeing my beautiful family a loving mate and husband and my lovely kids I could have never asked for more because I was content being a daughter-in-law, a mom, a big sister and lastly being Zane's mate being His Scarlet Queen Luna.

"I love you, baby.." Zane bends down kissing me on the lips.

"Ewww brother and sister in the room.." Jack and Serene said at the same time

"Yeah and son in the room too dear parents save it for the Bedroom.." Micheal said faking a gag while I giggled.

"Well if you don't want to see then you better leave.." Zane smirked bending down to kiss me again.

" eww daddy.." this time it was Jasmine as she covered her eyes ( not really covering her fingers were apart) I giggled while Zane sighed in surrender

"Can I hold one.." Michael, Jack, and Serene said at the same time.

"What no you might drop them?" I said slightly panicked.

"No of course not Mom we will be careful right Jack..?" Michael said looking at Jack.

"Okay, I don't see why not plus they won't leave the hospital and we will be here to supervise.." Zane said picking up one of the boys handing him to Michael who smiled widely.

He picked up the other twin handing him to Jack who smiled widely well.

"What about me?" Serene pouted

"afterward little Angel.." Zane said kissing her forehead as she nodded her head.

I happily watched Jack and Michael coo the twin boys, this was all perfect.

In only thirty minutes, it will be Michael's birthday I was freaking out as my mommy instincts were kicking in I knew how shifting for the first time hurt and I was worried for my baby boy.

"Mom relax I am the one shifting, not you!" Michael said we were currently outside in the garden with me pampering him with hugs and love, making sure he wasn't in pain.

"Scarlet you heard the boy he will be fine he's not gonna die or something.." Zane scoffed at my overprotectiveness

"Zane it probably hurts and I don't want to see my baby in pain," I said pulling him ( Micheal) into a hug kissing his forehead as he groaned.

"Mom I am not a baby I have three little siblings they look up to me if you are being overly sweet and scared they will think I am the scared one. You don't want them to think their hero is weak and can't handle a little pain now do you?" He asked

Okay, I don't know where he got the blackmailing from but it worked every time.

"Okay little one I will be strong I promise.." I said pulling myself together. A growl erupted from his throat and I widened my eyes in horror

"He is shifting.." Zane said excitedly. Another growl and Micheal was now laying on the Gra** and in pain but he was trying to stay strong since his brothers and sister were also outside witnessing. they refused to go to bed because they wanted to see their big brother turn into a Wolf.

"Oh no Zane my baby my poor baby is in pain please make it stop.." I sobbed burying my face in Zane's shirt I know I was overreacting but who wouldn't. Bones began to breaking making me cry louder.

"Scarlet pull yourself together or else you will miss the whole thing and you know no one is making a video here now stop your crying and watch the magic.." Zane said shaking me slightly I nodded my head turning to look at Micheal who was still in pain.

After a few more bones breaking and changing shape a white blinding light appeared as we shielded our eyes. after we heard a p*** sound we opened our eyes and everyone gasped.

Micheal! where Micheal was standing was a beautiful silver Wolf with white wings.

"Oh my gosh, he's a double! Zane our son is a double.." I squeaked happily forgetting my age and jumping up and down like I was a teenager.
