

Chapter 1081 Eternity is Solitary (2)

"I need to get the Spiritual Abode... if I want to leave the mainland..." The old Valley Master stared at Perfected Xuanchen without any emotion.

He had to destroy this mainland in order to obtain the Spiritual Abode.

He needed to start from the Nine Nights Dynasty... to kill and destroy every living creature on this mainland.

Based on the old Valley Master's martial ability, it was not difficult for him to do so.

After thinking through what the old Valley Master was going to do, Ye Qingtang immediately jumped off the ground and pulled out the black-grade Regicide Sky Blade.

Her Divine Phoenix power exploded at the same time as well. A giant flame Phoenix appeared by her back. A soft roar appeared, seeming to be able to make the world tremble.

Swoosh!

Ye Qingtang waved her Regicide Sky Blade and slashed towards the old Valley Master.

She did not care what thoughts the old Valley Master had. There were still her family and friends on this mainland. She would not allow anyone to destroy that.

However...

The old Valley Master stood there without any intention to dodge.

Clank!

Under everyone's gaze, the instant where Ye Qingtang slashed her sword down, the old Valley Master raised his right arm slightly. He used two fingers and caught Ye Qingtang's Regicide Sky Blade.

Ye Qingtang frowned as her sword was held by the old Village Master. A trace of surprise appeared in her eyes.

An image of Yin Yang intersecting with the sun and moon appeared behind the old Valley Master. A remote power that broke through the sky landed.

Everyone in the Falling Sky Valley froze on the spot. Ye Qingtang was astonished as she saw the Yin Yang and the sun with the moon.

"Yin Yang Perfected Lord... Tenth Heaven!"

Ye Qingtang widened her eyes and stared at the image behind the old Valley Master.

As all had known, Yin Yang Perfected Lord was classified into ten heavens.

However, the Genth Heaven had become a legend. It was extremely hard to find someone at the Ninth Heaven of Yin Yang Perfected Lord.

After entering the Eighth Heaven of Yin Yang Perfected Lord level, one would encounter the bottleneck. It was rare to hear any cultivator that was able to enter the Ninth Heaven for the past thousands of years. Almost all cultivators started to charge towards Arcane Supremacy after reaching the Eighth Heaven of Yin Yang Perfected Lord...In Ye Qingtang's previous life, after reaching the peak of the Eighth Heaven, she wanted to explore the legendary level and charge towards the Ninth Heaven. However, she found no clue in the next three years. It seemed that there were no Ninth and Tenth Heaven at all...

Ye Qingtang could not help but break through the Eighth Heaven and enter the Arcane Supremacy.

After living for two lives, this was the first time she saw the legendary Tenth Heaven of Yin Yang Perfected Lord...

"Indeed, you're very talented. A Yang Lord at such a young age." The old Valley Master looked up at Ye Qingtang and murmured.

"You remind me of my disciple... The little guy was only eight or nine years old, and he was a Heavenly Venerate..." The old Valley Master frowned as he recalled something.

Heavenly Venerate... His disciple?!

Ye Qingtang looked at the old Valley Master in shock.

Before she could say anything, the old Valley Master lifted his right arm. Ye Qingtang was then thrown out by a powerful and ineffable force.

Chapter 1082 Eternity is Solitary (3)

"There is no time left..."

The old Valley Master sighed softly. The black pearl at his glabella flew towards the sky. Almost instantly, a black fog exploded and surrounded the entire Nine Nights Dynasty in darkness.

Ye Qingtang steadied herself. She stared at the old Valley Master and asked.

"You killed a selfless lady for your own greed... Now, you want to use all living creatures' lives on the mainland as your stepping stone to break the curse?!"

Ye Qingtang would not call herself a kind person. However, she could not accept the fact that he was going to kill everyone.

After hearing Ye Qingtang's words, the old Valley Master remained silent. After a while, he raised his head and looked at Ye Qingtang. "I have given too much time to this mainland... However, the Dimension Wall is broken... I believe that there will be a lot of powerful people coming from elsewhere soon to take the Spiritual Abode. Why not just give it to me..."

Ye Qingtang stared at the old Valley Master, who seemed to be very determined. There was no trace of hesitation.

No matter how he tried to explain himself, he could never erase the crimes he had committed due to his selfishness.

“When the snow fell, the Divine King appeared. When he raised his head, he saw the most beautiful spirit. However, time flies, and hair whitened almost instantly...” The old Valley Master sighed with a complex expression.

The old Valley Master’s sigh and murmur landed into Ye Qingtang’s ears.

She was slightly stunned.

Divine King Luo Xue?!

Before the mainland was formed ten thousand years ago, there was a hero appeared after a snowstorm. He was known as the Divine King Luo Xue...

The Divine King Luo Xue led ancient people to form tribes and battled everywhere. His story was written in an enclosed historical record.

“You are... Divine King Luo Xue?!” Ye Qingtang stared at the old Valley Master in surprise.

The old Valley Master’s body trembled slightly.

His subtle reaction was all captured by Ye Qingtang

Ye Qingtang felt a mixed chain of emotions.

If her assumption was correct, the old Valley Master was the Divine King Luo Xue from ten thousand years ago!

According to the legend, Divine King Luo Xue lived together with a demon ten thousand years ago. In one battle against a strong enemy, he lost, and he used his life to cover for the demon for it to escape. However, the demon was not willing to leave and was willing to die together with him.

The Divine King Luo Xue in the legend cared for everything, even for a demon.

Ye Qingtang could not believe that the person in front of her who betrayed the extraordinary lady, ate her heart, and wished to kill everyone here as his stepping stone would be the Divine King Luo Xue in the legends, the one that was so selfless and kind.

Either the Divine King Luo Xue was lying, or the historical record was wrong.

However, Ye Qingtang was not sure of the truth.

Boom!

Suddenly, the sky was covered with dark clouds. Blood-red streaks of lightning appeared in the clouds and were about to attack everyone like a beast.

Swoosh!

In the next second, the blood-red streaks of lightning stroke towards the old Valley Master from mid-air.

Ye Qingtang was shocked. The blood-red streaks of lightning contained enormous power of the sky!

Ye Qingtang could still remember how she encountered the Heavenly Tribulation when she was about to charge towards the Holy Venerate. She almost died under the Heavenly Tribulation. Eventually, she managed to avoid the Heavenly Tribulation and became a Holy Venerate.

Chapter 1083 Divine King Luo Xue (1)

The old Valley Master did not have any signs of advancing, but why was there a blood-colored Heavenly Tribulation falling from the sky?!

“Haha... Hahahaha!!”

Although there were blood-colored streaks of lightning raining down, the old Valley Master was laughing heartily. With one hand controlling Heaven and Earth and the other controlling the sun and the moon, he received the streaks of lightning like a true god without any trace of fear.

Ye Qingtang was taken aback by the sight.

Who in this world could face the Heavenly Tribulation with smiles? It was most likely only Divine King Luo Xue!

Clank!

A black saber appeared in Divine King Luo Xue’s hand.

“Old friend... It’s been long...”

The old Valley Master looked at the black saber in his hand and chuckled.

Before everyone’s shocked eyes, a clear voice sounded from the black saber. “Divine King Luo Xue... I have been sealed by you for thousands of years... I never thought that you would actually bring me out today...”

“Hahaha. Meeting an old friend again. How great!” The old Valley Master laughed. The smile on his face completely contrasted that of a serious character.

“The Heavenly Tribulation is here. Fight!” The saber shouted.

In the next second, the old Valley Master rushed to the sky, and the saber swept across the blood-colored streaks of lightning.

Boom! Boom!

There was a loud eruption when the black saber faced the Heavenly Tribulation as though the sky was about to explode.

“Regicide Sky Blade?!”

Ye Qingtang stared at the sword in the old Valley Master’s hand, and her pupils dilated slightly.

The longsword in the old Valley Master’s hand was actually the genuine Regicide Sky Blade!

Although Ye Qingtang's black-grade weapon was also named the Regicide Sky Blade, it was an imitation of the Heaven-level divine weapon, Regicide Sky Blade... The weapon in Divine King Luo Xue's hand was the true Heaven-level divine weapon... Regicide Sky Blade!

At this instant, Ye Qingtang did not even have time to think. The Regicide Sky Blade smashed the blood-colored streaks of lightning violently, and the might of the Heavenly Tribulation swept throughout the place as though it wanted to extinguish every being in the world.

Very quickly, the first Heavenly Tribulation was broken through. Divine King Luo Xue's Heaven-level divine weapon pointed to the sky proudly as though it had returned to millions of years ago-an era which it belonged to.

"Old friend..."

The clear spirit from the Regicide Sky Blade sounded. "The road that you chose... Isn't the price a little too huge..."

"Price..."

Divine King Luo Xue was expressionless, and he seemed to be in thought.

After so many years, he had almost forgotten his initial thinking and who he exactly was...

"I don't wish to become eternal..." Divine King Luo Xue mumbled. "Eternity... is lonely..."

"This road... is too difficult. If you really swallowed her heart back then, would you still need to be afraid of the curse? You could have left this mainland a long time ago... and became a true legend... Yet, you chose the toughest road... After ten thousand years, do you... still love her..." A soft sigh emitted from the Regicide Sky Blade.

However, Divine King Luo Xue did not say anything and responded with silence.

"Initially, she remained in this mainland because of you, but you did not accept her feelings... and persuaded her to leave. It seems that you already knew the awful nature of those people. It's just a pity that she was unwilling to leave... until when her temple was destroyed and faith was tarnished... You appeared and disguised yourself as those people to split her flesh. You brought her heart away and stored it in your body, bearing her curse of anger... but this ruined your entire life... Was this really worth it?" The Regicide Sky Blade said.

Chapter 1084 Divine King Luo Xue (2)

"You're unwilling to admit that you are Divine King Luo Xue... as you're afraid of tainting that name... In these ten thousand years, you pretended to be a wicked person... But if you're really wicked, you could have destroyed this mainland a long time ago with your determination. I can already feel that your heart was bleeding when you killed one Falling Sky Valley disciple... You wish to leave with her heart. You think that by keeping her heart as a whole, there will always be a chance to revive her... However... Ten thousand years have passed, and her soul has already disappeared... Are you still going to avoid this problem? Why are you not willing to face reality?"

The Regicide Sky Blade's words knocked onto Divine King Luo Xue's heart, and his expression changed.

Only the Regicide Sky Blade that had been by Divine King Luo Xue's side knew what exactly happened ten thousand years ago...

No one knew the weight of this issue.

"Yeah... Ten thousand years have passed..." Divine King Luo Xue mumbled.

"You're afraid that the Dimension Wall breaks... You're even more afraid that the powerful figures from the outside world will come to this mainland and take her Spiritual Abode away. Once that happens, your curse will never be removed, you cannot leave with her heart, and she will not have any chance to revive. Ultimately, you're just deceiving yourself and others. Even if you can leave this mainland, she is still unable to be revived... Old friend, wake up..." Regicide Sky Blade sighed.

For that overly-compassionate extraordinary lady, the once unique and unrivaled Divine King Luo Xue was now...

Boom!

Suddenly, blood-colored streaks of lightning appeared once again.

Bolts of lightning filled the sky aggressively.

"This Heavenly Tribulation array formation is laid by those people, and its might is no weaker than a real Heavenly Tribulation. As long as you intend to leave, the array formation will be activated until you're completely dead... Old friend, I am with you," said the Regicide Sky Blade.

"Haha, great... Old friend, what do I have to fear with you here?!"

Divine King Luo Xue laughed aloud, still jovial even when facing the terrifying force of the Heavenly Tribulation.

Boom!

Boom!

BOOM BOOM!!

In the next second, several thick bolts of lightning struck down at Divine King Luo Xue.

With the Regicide Sky Blade in hand, Divine King Luo Xue stood in the air silently in superiority, but his figure was extremely lonely.

Ten thousand years ago, he had an excellent reputation; now, all that was known was his infamy...

Ten thousand years ago, who did not recognize Divine King Luo Xue?!

Ten thousand years later, who knew about Divine King Luo Xue?!

Divine King Luo Xue, who was forgotten and abandoned by everyone, wielded the Regicide Sky Blade once again and fought against the Heavens.

Swoosh!

A black sword glint opposed the blood-red bolts of lightning directly.

Boom!The sword glint broke after being unable to block the heavenly might. Divine King was heavily injured and fell from the sky.

However, he never landed on the ground. With a laugh, he charged upward to the sky once again and received the blow.

At this instant, Ye Qingtang was shaken as she looked at the figure that remained still almost eternally.

She heard everything that the Regicide Sky Blade had said just now.

The truth that no one knew of shocked her.

She originally thought that he was like those others from ten thousand years ago, who turned their backs on that extraordinary lady to gain more power. Yet unexpectedly...

What kind of person was Divine King Luo Xue?

And what was his relationship with the extraordinary lady...

Chapter 1085 Divine King Luo Xue (3)

Why did he rather bear the endless infamy and tell the world about all his evil deeds—tearing down the palace and destroying the faith when all he wanted was to protect the extraordinary lady's heart...

An originally compassionate man eventually did not hesitate to slaughter living beings and wanted to leave this mainland with that extraordinary lady's heart.

The force of the heavenly might was increasingly frightening, making it seem as though all the gods personally brought the calamities to the people.

The scary array formation force from ten thousand years ago was still extremely terrifying when appearing now!

What was sealed in the array formation was the true force of the Heavenly Tribulation and the fury of the heavenly might.

Bolts and bolts of blood-colored lightning were destroyed by Divine King Luo Xue, and even more heavenly might exploded on Divine King Luo Xue's body.

Currently, Divine King Luo Xue's body was already covered by fresh blood, but the heroic and heart-wrenching laughter echoed continuously.

However, at this very instant, a few gold carriages appeared in the sky not far away. Several huge demons pulled the gold carriages and circled around the sky.

"Divine King Luo Xue indeed wishes to leave this mainland to revive that woman. If that woman is revived, wouldn't we definitely die?"

A deep voice sounded from one of the gold carriages.

"Haha... It's fortunate that we foresaw this and hid an ancient array formation on Divine King Luo Xue's body. Once he wishes to obtain the Spiritual Abode and leave this mainland, the ancient array formation will be activated, and he will definitely die."

Ye Qingtang's eyes were on those gold carriages right now. Once she saw the symbol on those gold carriages, she was slightly taken aback.

"The hidden ancient clan?!"

The historical records of this mainland once documented that somewhere between the clouds and mountains, there existed a hidden ancient clan that was shut away from the world, and its symbol was exactly the same as the one on the gold carriage.

There were plenty of rumors regarding those ancient clans in this world but...

In her previous life, Ye Qingtang had never seen a single hidden ancient clan even when she left this mainland.

She originally thought that the existence of the hidden ancient clan was merely a random record and not the truth or that perhaps those ancient clans had already long passed away over time.

Thus, Ye Qingtang used the name of the hidden ancient clan to deceive Peerless School and the few Peak Masters of Falling Sky Valley.

But it turned out that...

The hidden ancient clan actually existed in this mainland!

Ye Qingtang narrowed her eyes at those gold carriages.

She did not know why the hidden ancient clan suddenly appeared and came here.

But for some reason, Ye Qingtang faintly sensed that the appearance of these hidden ancient clans was perhaps related to Divine King Luo Xue. Boom!

The blood-colored lightning rained down non-stop, and the force of the heavenly might was difficult to block.

Divine King Luo Xue was eventually unable to block the frightening attack of the Heavenly Tribulation, and his body fell from the sky.

"Old Valley Master!"

Seeing that Divine King Luo Xue's body fell, Perfected Xuanchen and the other Falling Sky Valley masses were sorrowful.

Although no one knew what exactly happened to the old Valley Master's body, most of them at the scene would already have died without him.

The old Valley Master once blocked many disasters and saved the lives of numerous Falling Sky Valley members... All of this was inexplicable.

Divine King Luo Xue's consciousness was gradually blurred, and his tight grip on the Regicide Sky Blade slowly loosened. The Regicide Sky Blade sighed. "Old friend... Dignified Divine King Luo Xue, is it the end today... Your dream is not yet fulfilled... Ending like this... Is it a pity..."

Chapter 1086 Is It A Pity? (1)

“Is it a pity...”

Divine King Luo Xue closed his eyes, but his lips tugged up slightly into a heart-wrenching smile.

Ten thousand years ago, between the clouds and mountains, the flowers were in full bloom. There were vibrant blooms, chirping of birds, natural wind, and fluffy clouds at the mountain ranges.

A man in snow-white clothes with outstanding looks was walking.

“You are Divine King Luo Xue... I am You Yun from the Central Mainland. I like you.”

It was as though that lady walked out from a painting; she was so beautiful that one could not bear to touch her.

Divine King Luo Xue’s heart raced as he looked at that alluring face.

Many seasons later, the lady became a respected goddess of the people, and together with Divine King Luo Xue, they led the masses toward a brighter future.

However, years later, the lady’s divine powers were slowly bled dry.

As the lady’s divine powers were exhausted, the world was filled with abomination.

The ancient people smashed the lady’s statue, destroyed the temple, and tainted the faith with resentment; it was a dark era.

“I want her heart.”

In the temple, Divine King Luo Xue wielded the Regicide Sky Blade and killed the ancient people like a madman, making them pay with their lives.

However, in the end, a few elite family clan powerful figures appeared and joined forces to suppress Divine King Luo Xue.

“I want her heart. I want her heart...”

Ultimately, Divine King Luo Xue seemed to have given in and became a puppet without emotions in front of the millions of powerful figures. After swallowing the lady’s heart, he left the temple and disappeared for ten thousand years.

“Yun...”

Suddenly, Divine King Luo Xue opened his eyes, and a surge of white-colored divine power emerged in his eyes and rushed into the clouds.

In Ye Qingtang’s disbelief, an extraordinarily stunning lady appeared in the form of a virtual image. She stood beside Divine King Luo Xue protectively with an elegant smile on her face.

“Yun...”

Divine King Luo Xue used all his energy to touch the lady, but his palm passed through her body. It was mystifying.

Ye Qingtang looked at that perfect lady, perplexed.

At this moment, Ye Qingtang finally understood everything that the Regicide Sky Blade and Divine King Luo Xue were talking about.

That lady... should be the extraordinary lady from ten thousand years ago.

Ten thousand years ago, she once adored Divine King Luo Xue and was willing to remain on this mainland for him.

Divine King Luo Xue did not hesitate to bear the countless sins and conceal his identity for ten thousand years, just to leave this mainland with her heart and revive her once again.

Ten thousand years elapsed quickly...

In these ten thousand years, Divine King Luo Xue clung onto that last trace of hope and lived with the company of loneliness.

As for that extraordinary lady, even after she died, her obsession with her loved one was also hidden deep in her heart.

When Divine King Luo Xue encountered a calamity today, the obsession transformed into the appearance of that extraordinary lady when she was alive and appeared here to protect the most important person in her life...

As the lady waved her hand, the blood-colored lightning exploded and vanished without a trace.

"I am You Yun... from Central Mainland... Divine King Luo Xue, I like you."The lady looked at Divine King Luo Xue as she continuously repeated the words she said when they first met.

"Yun..."

Divine King Luo Xue trembled. A strong man was, however, no longer able to bear the pain as he sobbed softly.

The scene from ten thousand years ago seemed to replay once again.

After the extraordinary lady died back then, Divine King Luo Xue brought her heart to a small tree, and no one knew the location of it.

Once the little tree grew into a tall tree of a towering multitude, Divine King Luo Xue's jet-black hair had already turned white.

He remained under the tree for thirty years.

Without knowledge of what year it was.

Chapter 1087 Is It A Pity? (2)

"Ancient clan..."

Ye Qingtang stared at the gold carriages that were being pulled by a few demons in the air, and her expression changed.

She never expected that the historical records were actually real and not a hoax.

No one knew how powerful the hidden ancient clan was, and the initial Blood Moon Sect probably could not be compared to it.

The development of the issue had way surpassed Ye Qingtang's expectations.

All of this was a chain reaction after the Dimension Wall broke.

Once the Dimension Wall broke, powerful figures from the outside world would come to snatch the Spiritual Abode. As such, Divine King Luo Xue made up his mind to destroy the world, and his determination activated the Heavenly Tribulation array formation that had been laid on him ten thousand years ago.

Ye Qingtang guessed that the hidden ancient clan was probably from the same generation as Divine King Luo Xue and was closely related to Divine King Luo Xue and the extraordinary lady...

The blood-colored lightning continued on, but the sky darkened. A small drizzle rained down in no time.

The virtual image of the lady remained beside Divine King Luo Xue, and her face was as calm still water.

Ten thousand years later, it was as though it was their first meeting ten thousand years ago.

Divine King Luo Xue stood up slowly and looked at the familiar yet foreign lady before him. After ten thousand years of longing, he could no longer hold himself back.

Divine King Luo Xue stretched a hand out towards the lady. His fingers trembled as he desperately wanted to hold onto something.

However, his five fingers passed through that lady's body. There was nothing other than air.

"Yun... It's me... Have you forgotten? In the Nine Lives Palace under the bodhi tree, you said that in this life... you will marry no one but me..." There was a trace of anticipation in Divine King Luo Xue's eyes as though he was hoping for You Yun to react.

Nonetheless, it was as if the lady did not hear anything as she merely guarded in front of Divine King Luo Xue to dispel the blood-colored streaks of lightning.

He clearly remembered what happened ten thousand years ago.

After You Yun died, Divine King Luo Xue came to a little tree with You Yun's heart. With that one sit, no one knew how many times the grass on the ground withered and the skies changed.

Day after day. Year after year.

Over the years... The little tree grew into a towering tree with fertile soil in the surroundings.

That day, Divine King Luo Xue's black hair turned into snow-white.

It was also that day where he buried all his love under the soil. From then on, he changed his appearance and concealed his identity. There no longer was a Divine King Luo Xue in the world anymore.

Now, ten thousand years later, Divine King Luo Xue finally met You Yun once again.

That lady who dared to love and hate and always told him that she would not marry anyone else but him.

That lady who exhausted all his divine power and scattered her love all over this mainland. That lady whose temple was destroyed and flesh was distributed out to be eaten, who left the world with intense resentment.

In these ten thousand years, he tried his best to forget himself and You Yun and almost went insane.

At this moment, ten thousand years of hard work was so fragile.

Even for a lady who died from misery, her obsession at the very last moment was still Divine King Luo Xue.

Ten thousand years ago, Divine King Luo Xue faced a huge calamity, and You Yun's obsession appeared once again.

"You can't hear my voice... You can't hear my voice..."

As Divine King Luo Xue looked at You Yun, it was as though his heart was being ripped apart.

Luo Xue was already old, but You Yun was still like back then. Her face had never changed... It was so familiar... and so foreign.

Chapter 1088 Is It A Pity? (3)

Divine King Luo Xue called out to You Yun, but that lady who had been imprinted in his heart for ten thousand years did not respond; she was so near yet so far.

"Hahaha. Divine King Luo Xue! I already thought that you were harboring evil designs back then... In the end, you really betrayed us. You deserve it!"

Just when Divine King Luo Xue fixed his gaze on You Yun, several elderlies walked out of the gold carriage and floated in the air.

Divine King Luo Xue looked in the direction of the voice and saw those ancient clan powerful figures. His face turned extremely cold in an instant, and overpowering martial willpower rushed into the horizon.

"Ha. If you swallowed that dumb woman's heart from the start, you could have been free from the curse, went to the outside world, and still be that Divine King Luo Xue. Yet, look at you now. What are you?!"

A white-haired elderly stared at Divine King Luo Xue and scoffed.

This elderly similarly possessed the power to contend against the heavenly might.

"Yin Yang Tenth Heaven..."

Ye Qingtang sensed an enormous power around that elderly that was actually the same as that of Divine King Luo Xue: Yin Yang Tenth Heaven!

Yin Yang Tenth Heaven, which had disappeared from this world for a long time, actually appeared in two people today!

“Could it be that... in the era ten thousand years ago, these martial realms are not as simple as Yin Yang Perfected Lord realm...” Ye Qingtang frowned slightly as a perplexed expression emerged in her eyes.

No matter the ancient clan powerful figures or Divine King Luo Xue, although they had the power of a Yin Yang Tenth Heaven, their martial aura was no weaker than hers when she was a Holy Venerate back then!

It was also to say that the martial skills of these people were definitely not as simple as Yin Yang Perfected Lord realm...

In reality, just as Ye Qingtang had guessed, Divine King Luo Xue was unparalleled ten thousand years ago and might defeat even an Emperor-level cultivator ten thousand years later. He was known as a magnificent man who was just a small step away from a True God.

Ten thousand years ago, those powerful family clans were almost at the Emperor level.

Ten thousand years ago, an Emperor-level figure was nothing much as that was a generation where the Divine King was highly respected. There were traces of divinity everywhere, and the brilliance scattered by True Gods could be easily spotted. Powerful figures only had one goal: to become a True God.

This lasted until the extraordinary lady arrived, made this entire mainland, and led the masses towards an even brighter martial route and the realm of a True God.

However, as the extraordinary lady’s divine powers were drained, everything calmed down. The masses could not see any hope of becoming a God and thus vented all their anger on the extraordinary lady and shared her flesh to be consumed.

After the extraordinary lady died, her indignation turned into a curse. She cursed the ancient clan of this mainland to never attain liberation and to be unable to leave this mainland forever, and she dispersed all the spirit energy away from this mainland.

Without the support of spirit energy, the ancient clan members, who were once neck and neck with Emperor-level figures, were as good as having lost all their cultivation base and could only be stuck at the Yin Yang Perfected Lord realm forever. This was also the same for Divine King Luo Xue.

However, those hidden ancient clan members did not know how to break the extraordinary lady’s curse though they were still the most powerful people of this mainland when they remained. They did not allow any member of the ancient clan to leave, especially Divine King Luo Xue.

If Divine King Luo Xue left this mainland and restored the power of a Divine King, everlasting perdition would greet them.

“Divine King Luo Xue, you are heavily injured by the Heavenly Tribulation today, and you will die here!”

Chapter 1089 Obsession (1)

The powerful figures in the carriage landed into Falling Sky Valley instantly.

“Yun... It’s been ten thousand years... Seeing you today... you are still so beautiful... But I am old and feeble...” Divine King Luo Xue’s eyes landed on the lady before him, and a sorrowful smile was seen on his face. He did not bother about those few hidden ancient clan members.

"It's a pity that you cannot hear me anymore now..." Divine King Luo Xue smiled gently and slowly picked up the Regicide Sky Blade beside him.

"Actually... I have always been avoiding... seeing you again... I have betrayed you... I always did not have the courage to face you again... Perhaps it is not a bad thing now that you can't hear me... Yun, I will avenge you."

Divine King Luo Xue stood up, and his martial willpower was like a strong wave that swept through the entire place and completely enshrouded it.

"Divine King Luo Xue, you're already severely injured by the Heavenly Tribulation. What threat can the current you still deal to us?" One ancient clan elderly sneered.

However, just as he finished his sentence, a strange black mist appeared around Divine King Luo Xue.

"From now on... In this world..." At this point, Divine King Luo Xue looked longingly at You Yun, who was not far away. Ultimately, determination filled his eyes as he said, "In this world, there will not be Divine King Luo Xue anymore..."

In a flash, the black mist turned into demonic air and combined with his martial willpower. An enormous pair of pitch-black wings tore Divine King Luo Xue's back apart.

At this moment, there was no emotion in his eyes, which seemed like a freezing abyss.

Like a supreme Demon Lord, he was to bring calamity to the entire world.

From now on... the dark night engulfed the air. There no longer was any white light or Luo Xue.

It was at this moment when the ancient clan members' expression changed drastically.

They finally recalled that ten thousand years ago before the name 'Divine King Luo Xue' was known, he was the first-generation Demon Lord...

"Divine King Luo Xue, are you insane! Turning into a demon forcefully will drain your body's vitality. From now on, you will lose yourself and eventually die too!!" That elderly immediately said in a frenzied rage.

Back then, Divine King Luo Xue was the first-generation Demon Lord and was known as the everlasting Degeneration Demon Lord. Afterward, Divine King Luo Xue realized that the path of the demons was not the right path and not what he was searching for. He then turned his demon breath into vitality and became the leader of the orthodox, Divine King Luo Xue.

However, as Divine King Luo Xue was demonized once again, he would drown in his mental demons forever, and everything that belonged to him would turn into evil spirits. Once his vitality was completely burned away, he would die!

At this instant, a black pearl in the air returned to Divine King Luo Xue's glabella once again. It was his third demon eye.

The appearance of the demon eye spelled the resurrection of the demon body; Divine King Luo Xue turned into a demon once again. Black mist surged out from Demon Lord Luo Xue's demon eye.

It seemed as though there was a recovery of the traces of divinity at this instant.

All the people of Falling Sky Valley and even the Peerless School wardens and disciples, who were previously killed by Demon Lord Luo Xue, actually reappeared in Falling Sky Valley. The dead actually came back alive...

"I... I am... sorry..."

Demon Lord Luo Xue's ice-cold demon eye looked at the lady.

Swoosh!

In the next second, a frightening demonic air erupted instantly.

Demon Lord Luo Xue turned into a black shadow and appeared before the ancient clan figures in a few breaths' time.

Chapter 1090 Obsession (2)

"This is bad..."

The hidden ancient clan members' expression changed drastically.

Divine King Luo Xue turned into a demon and was burning his body's vitality. His power in this period of time would be magnified greatly, and it was unimaginable!

"Run!" The elderly shouted alarmingly.

However, just as this elderly spoke, Demon Lord Luo Xue's cold demon eye had already locked on to him, and the Regicide Sky Blade made a frightening roar.

Swoosh!

The Regicide Sky Blade in Demon Lord Luo Xue's hand slashed down.

Before the stunned masses, the Regicide Sky Blade actually chopped the elderly into half.

The enormous black wings behind Demon Lord Luo Xue flapped. He pulled the long, white hair of the elderly and lifted his upper body as he hovered in midair.

Hiss...!

Regardless of the Falling Sky Valley masses or the ancient clan people, everyone was dumbstruck by this scene. How tremendous was this force!!

Roar!

Demon Lord Luo Xue, who had been completely demonized, let out a shrilling demonic roar, and the elderly's upper body exploded into bloody fog immediately.

Boom, boom!!

Before waiting for Demon Lord Luo Xue to make another move, the Heavenly Tribulation above him seemed to be even more infuriated as a blood-colored streak of lightning emerged and struck towards Demon Lord Luo Xue.

Noticing the situation, Demon Lord Luo Xue howled in fury. He opened his mouth to spit an endless black flame that contained an unimaginable destructive force, making it seem as if he wanted to burn this entire world down.

As the blood-colored streak of lightning and black demonic flame crashed into each other, monstrous destructive energy exploded in the air.

Ye Qingtang looked up in the sky. The frightening force produced from the collision of the Heavenly Tribulation and Demon Lord Luo Xue shattered the Dimension Wall completely this time...

It was unpreventable and irrevocable.

In no time, the powerful figures from the outside world would officially invade in...

“Roar”!

At this instant, the remaining bolts of lightning struck Demon Lord Luo Xue’s body aggressively.

Demon Lord Luo Xue roared in agony as he used his tough body to block the attack of the Heavenly Tribulation.

“Old Valley Master... Why are you... doing this!”

Tears flowed from Perfected Xuanchen’s eyes like an unbroken stream as he looked at Demon Lord Luo Xue, who was no longer human.

Perfected Xuanchen was not foolish and had already understood what happened to the old Valley Master from the conversation before.

In order to save his daughter, Perfected Xuanchen once headed to the area between the clouds and mountains to search for the hidden ancient clan, which was documented in the historical records, and he wanted to find divine elixirs that could save his daughter’s life.

However, Perfected Xuanchen never found any traces of the ancient clan and originally thought that the ancient clan did not even exist. Yet, today, they actually appeared in Falling Sky Valley, and what Perfected Xuanchen never expected was that there seemed to be a deep-seated hatred between the hidden ancient clan and the old Valley Master.

“Old Valley Master...”

The disciples of the twelve peaks were brimming with tears as they looked at the completely-demonized old Valley Master in the air.

How many young men and women in this world were deeply in love but unable to fulfill their passion and could only end their story on a heartbroken note?

“Quickly flee! Divine King Luo Xue is burning his vitality. His thinking and body are completely demonized already. He is unable to live for long. We just need to wait for him to die!”

One hidden ancient clan member shouted hurriedly.

At this instant, several hidden ancient clan elderlies fled towards the gold carriages.
