

Chapter 181: Mine! (2)

Ye Qingtang had a small frame, but the creature in her arms was so “magnificent.” The contrast between the two was striking.

“Junior Sister Ye, this wolf...” Qin Huan wanted to say something but stopped, and his eyes had a complicated expression.

“I picked it up on my way back.” Ye Qingtang’s eyes immediately smiled blissfully once she talked about the wolf.

Everyone did not know what to feel.

They were chased by the lava throughout and had to run like dogs.

But Ye Qingtang was another level. Not only did she escape by herself, she even carried such a huge wolf back... This little junior sister was rather fierce.

“This wolf seems quite special. I have never seen a silver wolf before,” Gu Yanqiu said as he forced himself to stay composed. His junior sister had done many shocking things already.

“Right!” Ye Qingtang’s widened her bright eyes which were filled with pride and said, “I have never seen one before as well. At first, I suspected whether it was a demonic beast but did not see any demonic beast aura on its body. Perhaps, it’s a special breed.”

The certain Demon God who pretended to faint: “...”

Special... breed?!

Qin Huan touched his chin as he sized up that silver wolf. Just seeing Ye Qingtang’s spirited look, he already guessed that his junior sister was intending to raise this wolf. Shifting his gaze back to the wolf’s blinding fur, Qin Huan also thought that while the wolf was not conscious, it was more majestic the more he looked at it, and, perhaps, this was a good thing.

“Junior Sister Ye, you’re really lucky. I see that this wolf is pretty good...” Qin Huan said as he reached out to touch the wolf.

Suddenly, an undetectable deathly cold air radiated around the silver wolf, and a murderous aura filled the air.

But just when Qin Huan stretched out his hand, Ye Qingtang immediately took a step back while carrying the silver wolf and shouted at Qin Huan with a protective look. “Mine!”

“...” The Demon God’s heart was... very complicated.

The murderous aura subsequently vanished into thin air...

When Qin Huan looked at his hand hanging in the air and then looked at Ye Qingtang’s protective stance, his lips could not help but twitch.

“Okay okay okay... yours, yours. I will not snatch with you,” Qin Huan dropped his hand helplessly and could not help but quietly think to himself.

Why did he not see that his little junior sister had such a childish side to her?

It was just a touch, why did she have to be so stingy!

She had already given him the exorbitant fire-resistant soft armor but could not even let him touch a single hair of the wolf!

Ye Qingtang lifted her chin and hugged the silver wolf more tightly.

The image of the little wolf’s miserable death from her previous life was still etched in her mind. She instinctively protected the silver wolf in her arms tightly.

Qin Huan’s mood fell to the bottom since he could not touch the wolf and was even glared at by Ye Qingtang.

On the other hand, Gu Yanqiu and the rest were elated at the sight. They felt that this little junior sister was scarily powerful previously and was completely not like her age. But now, she acted a little spoiled like that of a teenage girl.

“It is not easy to ride a horse while carrying a wolf. Junior Brother Meng and I will look for a carriage from the town nearby,” Gu Yanqiu said.

“Thank you, two senior brothers,” Ye Qingtang said with a smile.

Gu Yanqiu and Meng Sheng were about to leave but felt that something was off suddenly. Their attention was completely attracted by that silver wolf in Ye Qingtang’s arms previously, and only now did they notice there was actually a huge cloth bag hung on her waist. Something circular was in that bag, and it was even dripping with blood.

Chapter 182: Mine! (3)

“Junior Sister Ye, is this a snack you prepared for this wolf?” Qin Huan said and pointed to that bloody cloth bag.

Ye Qingtang looked down and burst out laughing.

“No, this is Wu Qi’s head.”

“...” Everyone’s jaw dropped to the ground.

“Wu Qi? You’re not talking about that Wu Qi... on the Assassination Roll... right?” Qin Huan’s lips twitched and felt that this news was even more explosive than the wolf.

Ye Qingtang nodded obediently.

Gasps instantly filled the air.

The nine of them widened their eyes as they looked at the beautiful girl with a scared expression as though they were looking at a monster!

They were more or less aware of Wu Qi's abilities. Although he was not the strongest, he was not someone that could be independently killed by an outer sect disciple like them.

In the end...

Not only did Ye Qingtang picked up a silver wolf, she even easily chopped off Wu Qi's head?

Everyone's feelings were extremely complicated for a moment.

Looking at everyone's expression, Ye Qingtang realized that they might have misunderstood.

"I met him on the way, but he had some accident and already was dead, so I conveniently cut his head off." It was unwise for Ye Qingtang to mention the Aura of the Evil. After all, the Aura of the Evil was too powerful. The less trouble, the better.

Hearing Ye Qingtang's words, everyone slowly let out a sigh of relief.

A natural disaster hit this Giant Rock Canyon today, and it could be that Ye Qingtang had the opportunity to cut his Wu Qi's head off because he encountered a high-level demonic beast that was escaping.

Although she did not kill him independently, there was really nothing to say about her luck...

"Ahem... We will look for a carriage first," Gu Yanqiu cleared his throat and said. Then, he and Meng Sheng rode the horses that they left outside the canyon previously and headed nearby to look for a carriage.

On the other hand, Ye Qingtang and the rest rested outside the canyon.

Ye Qingtang sat on a large rock and looked at the silver wolf, which was still in a deep sleep in her arms. She could not help but worry whether the wolf was injured in other areas; thus, she carefully held the wolf's paw and checked carefully. After inspecting, she did not find any other wounds and finally sighed in relief. However...

"It is so nice to touch..." Ye Qingtang became addicted to touching it. Her tiny hands caressed the wolf all over as though they were stuck onto the wolf's body, and she looked extremely blissful.

This fur was more comfortable than any of the wolves she touched before!

The certain Demon God who pretended to faint was completely frozen because someone continuously took advantage of him.

Mu Su had chased up since a long time ago, but when he saw that Ye Qingtang met up with a group of Xuanling Sect disciples, it was inconvenient for him to appear. He could only quietly look at His Highness being carelessly touched all over in Ye Qingtang's arms from a distance away.

He felt very complicated.

Extremely, extremely complicated.

Mu Su pondered if he should find a chance to “save” His Highness, but thinking from another angle, it was even more suitable for His Highness to remain beside Ye Qingtang given his current condition. After all, the Heart of the Demon God within Ye Qingtang was the key to controlling the Aura of the Evil. If His Highness could be near the Heart of the Demon God, the uncontrolled Aura of the Evil in his body would be eased.

At that thought, Mu Su quietly kept his leg back.

The moment Mu Su thought of His Highness’s unbearable technique in picking up girls, he instantly felt that letting his highness follow Ye Qingtang in this form was good as well.

Your Highness, you must make use of this opportunity and get along well with Lady Ye!

I can only help you up to here!

Chapter 183: Mine! (4)

Just when Mu Su was proud of his wittiness, his face suddenly froze.

That is not right!

His Highness is in animal form right now, and Lady Ye is completely unaware of His Highness’s identity. How are they going to get along??

Human beast...

Mu Su suddenly sensed that his thoughts were very dangerous and immediately decided to bring His Highness back first. But when Mu Su turned around and was about to turn into a wolf, he saw...

Gu Yanqiu and Meng Sheng had already brought a carriage over, and Ye Qingtang carried the silver wolf up the carriage.

That carriage quickly disappeared right before Mu Su’s eyes.

Mu Su went crazy!

Ye Qingtang sat in the carriage while hugging the wolf, and other senior brothers rode on their horses on the way back. Meng Sheng was perhaps guilty for suspecting Ye Qingtang and, thus, took on the role of the coachman and even helped Ye Qingtang to hang the bloody bag containing Wu Qi’s head outside the carriage.

There were some obstacles in this journey, but everyone returned safely. A line of them headed back to Xuanling Sect in a mighty formation. They only wanted to return to the sect as early as possible, turn in the mission, and exchange for Xuanming points to continue in their cultivation.

Perhaps the day was too tiring, Ye Qingtang leaned against the silver wolf and fell into a deep sleep throughout the bumpy journey.

In the next instant, after Ye Qingtang fell into a deep sleep and her breathing was stable, the wolf suddenly opened its tightly-shut eyes and turned his head a little to look at Ye Qingtang, who fell asleep on its body, with a complicated expression.

A black fog suddenly floated out of Ye Qingtang's chest and slowly formed into a little black ball.

The little black ball shuttled to the front of the silver wolf, and it could not stop moving its round body. Anyone could tell that it was agitated at this very instant.

"Wow wow wow. Would-be father, you're finally taking action! I still looked down on you previously and did not expect that you would be so amazing this time!" The little black ball happily bounced about while looking at the silver wolf.

As early as when its mother met the silver wolf, the little black ball already knew that the other party was its would-be father. Who would have thought that would-be father was so witty: he discovered that mother liked wolves and knew how to give her what she liked!

This was much more reliable than before.

The silver wolf watched the little black ball with cold eyes which were devoid of emotion.

However, the little black ball blabbered on happily as if it completely did not sense the silver wolf's indifference.

"But... I keep thinking that there seems to be something wrong with your appearance... Uh... Is that taste for a human beast a little too..." Before the little black ball finished its sentence, the silver wolf suddenly launched its paw at the little black ball.

The little black ball which was a conscious being could only be touched by the Demon God, and this paw caused its palm-sized body to knock into all areas in the carriage!

In just the blink of an eye, the little black ball, whose head was spinning from the collision, fell in front of the silver wolf. It wanted to float up dizzily but was pressed on the ground with the silver wolf's paw...

"Boo hoo..." The little black ball wanted to cry. Its would-be father was so violent, and it was impossible for its tiny body to escape from that huge paw!

The silver wolf looked at the little black ball coldly and flipped its paw to kill off the little black ball's voice. Then, the silver wolf shifted its eyes, looked at Ye Qingtang sleeping soundly on its body, and quietly continued to pretend to be unconscious in the carriage.

While that little black ball whose state worse off than being dead was in despair.

Boo hoo hoo~ Is it too late to change a father?

Chapter 184: Returning to the Sect (1)

The journey back was safe and stable. On the way back, everyone regained their energy, and the condition of the wound on Qin Huan's arm improved. In the blink of an eye, everyone returned to Xuanling Sect.

Ye Qingtang was very gloomy about one thing though.

That silver wolf was in deep sleep throughout the journey and did not show any signs of consciousness. But it did not have a single drop of water over the past few days, which really worried Ye Qingtang.

It was not easy to pick up such a handsome wolf, and if it was starved to death, who would she go to cry to?

Luckily, although the wolf did not ingest anything, it did not look weary at all, and its fur was as shiny as before. Ye Qingtang then finally sighed as emotions overcame her.

Indeed, animals like wolves should still be appropriately fat for them to be able to withstand a drain in energy.

When they reached Xuanling Sect, Ye Qingtang insisted on personally carrying the silver wolf into the sect. During that period of time, Qin Huan and the rest wanted to help as they saw her short limbs but were all rejected by Ye Qingtang as though she was protecting it from thieves, causing all the senior brothers' to feel extremely complicated.

This little junior sister's love for wolves was quite strong!

When Ye Qingtang returned to her room, Su Wan and Lin Long were not around. She nimbly laid the unconscious silver wolf on her bed and touched its fur without bearing to let go.

"After I submit the mission, I'll find someone to take a look at you. Wait for me," Ye Qingtang said to the silver wolf very earnestly.

The certain someone who continued pretending to be unconscious felt very complicated...

Ye Qingtang settled the silver wolf and immediately headed to the Rewards Pavilion with Wu Qi's head.

The team mission with Gu Yanqiu's team was to be submitted by Gu Yanqiu, and the obtained Xuanming points had to be divided amongst all the participants while this head that Ye Qingtang had in her hand was all hers.

Ye Qingtang walked towards the Rewards Pavilion in a good mood. She did not have any idea how many Xuanming points Wu Qi's head was worth, but according to the Assassination Roll, the bare minimum amount would not be lower than a three digit number. If she could exchange the head for so many Xuanming points, Ye Qingtang's subsequent efficiency in cultivation in the sect would really be doubled.

Just as Ye Qingtang hummed a song and walked through the outer sect, her agile figure fell into the eyes of someone from not far away.

"Senior Brother Yun, I am still not too familiar with the swordplay that the warden taught yesterday. Can you teach me one more time?" Su Wan lifted her exquisitely made-up face and looked at Yun Shu beside her but suddenly realized that Yun Shu's eyes seemed to be attracted by something. She could not help but look up curiously in the direction of Yun Shu's gaze, but this look completely caused the smile on her face to freeze.

Was that figure walking past from a distance away not Ye Qingtang, who left the outer sect for half a month?!

The moment Su Wan saw Ye Qingtang, her heart skipped a beat instinctively.

“Junior Sister Ye is back?” Yun Shu could not help but smile as he looked at Ye Qingtang’s back view.

But in Su Wan’s eyes, that thoughtless smile was more disturbing than ever.

Ever since Ye Qingtang left the outer sect, Su Wan abandoned all previous reservations and searched for an excuse to find Yun Shu every day. It was as though she completely replaced Ye Qingtang’s position as the person around Yun Shu.

Yun Shu was good-natured and not good at rejecting people’s requests. Su Wan succeeded time over time, and in just half a month’s time, rumors about the two of them started to spread within the outer sect. Yun Shu had never put it to heart and tried to explain a few times, but Su Wan told him to brush it off using the excuse that as long as they had nothing going on between them, it would eventually be proven to others.

Little did anyone know that this outcome was exactly what Su Wan wanted.

Chapter 185: Returning to the Sect (2)

Su Wan was confident that she could conquer Yun Shu bit by bit, but...

She never thought that Ye Qingtang would come back so quickly. She originally thought that Ye Qingtang would take at least half a month before returning, but seeing her again now made her furious already.

However, Su Wan was very smart to not show this anger on her face and could only hide away all the hatred in her eyes as she followed Yun Shu’s gaze. She said gently, “I have not returned to the room today and didn’t know that Junior Sister Ye came back.”

Then, Su Wan looked at Senior Brother Yun’s handsome side profile and smiled faintly. “Senior Brother Yun kept worrying about Junior Sister Ye’s safety all this time. Now, it seems that Junior Sister Ye returned safely, and you don’t need to worry anymore.”

Yun Shu chuckled and shook his head. “She is young, so I was a little worried. Now that she returned safely, my heart is naturally at ease.”

Yun Shu’s voice had a hint of laughter, and every word was filled with concern for Ye Qingtang, piercing Su Wan’s heart like a silver needle.

She secretly clenched her fists that were hidden in her sleeves and tried to maintain the sweet and gentle expression on her face.

“Senior Brother Yun has a good nature and everyone knows it. However, Junior Sister Ye went on the mission together with other senior brothers. Junior Sister Ye was born pretty, and those senior brothers would naturally take more care of her. You worry too much already.”

Su Wan’s neither harsh nor light words had needles hidden in them. Not only did she pick up the fact that Ye Qingtang did not go on the mission with Yun Shu, she even emphasized her beautiful appearance and close interactions with “other senior brothers.”

After Yun Shu heard her, he only gave a brief smile and did not put it to heart.

“It’s good that she’s back. If you meet her when you return, do tell her to find me. The warden taught quite a lot of things over the past few days, and I have prepared a set for her.”

Jealousy and hatred flashed across Su Wan’s eyes.

Ye Qingtang was not in the outer sect for the past half month, but Yun Shu actually thought about Ye Qingtang for everything!

On what basis!

Even though she was clearly the one staying by Senior Brother Yun’s side during this period of time!

“I got it. I will tell Junior Sister Ye when I return,” Su Wan said as she forcefully suppressed the unwillingness in her heart.

Yun Shu nodded and did not say anything more.

On the other side, Ye Qingtang reached the Rewards Pavilion in no time and went up the stairs directly.

There were not many people in the Rewards Pavilion at that time. When Ye Qingtang was handing in the head, she coincidentally met Gu Yanqiu and Qin Huan, who were submitting the mission as well.

“Junior Sister Ye, you’re finally willing to leave that precious silver wolf of yours now?” Qin Huan could not help but joke with Ye Qingtang when he saw her.

Over the past few days, they witnessed how overprotective she was.

Ye Qingtang raised her eyebrows and simply did not bother arguing with the likes of him.

Gu Yanqiu, who was standing aside, let out a laugh. At the same time, the warden in charge of verifying the mission entered the reward for killing the level 6 Giant Lizard into Gu Yanqiu’s bracelet.

In Xuanling Sect, every disciple had a bracelet which recorded the number of Xuanming points they had.

Gu Yanqiu looked at the Xuanming points on her bracelet and smiled at Ye Qingtang, “It’s good that you’re here Junior Sister Ye, you can take your share of Xuanming points.”

Ye Qingtang directly raised her hand with the bracelet without saying anything.

Gu Yanqiu immediately transferred Ye Qingtang’s sixty plus Xuanming points onto her bracelet.

“This is still a small amount. The head in your hand is then the big one,” Gu Yanqiu chuckled as he looked at Ye Qingtang. If other new disciples obtained sixty plus Xuanming points in their first month, it was already considered a huge amount. But this sixty over points were really nothing compared to Wu Qi’s head in Ye Qingtang’s hand.

Chapter 186: Returning to the Sect (3)

“Junior Sister Ye, are you still willing to come with us if there are any missions in the future?” At that instant, Gu Yanqiu could not help but invite Ye Qingtang.

Other outer sect disciples who came to submit their missions looked over in their direction because of Gu Yanqiu's words.

Gu Yanqiu had a good reputation in the outer sect, and his team missions had the highest completion rate. Many disciples wanted to join his team, but Gu Yanqiu was stricter in picking teammates, and it was very difficult for him to look at ordinary disciples.

However...

Gu Yanqiu sent out a second mission invitation to a new disciple. What was going on?

Everyone was sure that she was a new disciple when they took a look at her. They were very surprised as to why Gu Yanqiu would favor her so much.

Ye Qingtang pondered for a moment and smiled. "I don't intend to take on any more rewarded missions this month. I'll tell Senior Brother Gu when I feel like taking on any missions." After turning in Wu Qi's head, her Xuanming points should last her for a period of time. Increasing her skills in the shortest time possible was then the key.

The surrounding disciples could not help but widen their eyes when they saw that Ye Qingtang actually rejected Gu Yanqiu's invitation in public and suspected whether there was anything wrong with their ears.

In the outer sect, there were so many people who wanted to go on a team mission with Gu Yanqiu but did not have the opportunity to. But Gu Yanqiu already took the initiative to invite Ye Qingtang, and she actually rejected it straight up without thinking?!

Was this little junior sister an idiot!

Everyone began to look at Ye Qingtang incredulously.

Gu Yanqiu was, however, not shocked. He knew that Ye Qingtang was a girl with her own views. "Alright. Just find me or Qin Huan when you are free."

It was already shocking for Gu Yanqiu to be rejected, but after being rejected, Gu Yanqiu was not at all repelled and even spoke so nicely to her...

Everyone was a little muddle-headed at that moment.

Since when was Gu Yanqiu so nice to talk to? Why had they not seen it before!

"You can hurry on with whatever you have. I have to distribute the Xuanming points to Meng Sheng and the rest. I'll contact you next time." Gu Yanqiu waved a hand to Ye Qingtang and led Qin Huan out of the Rewards Pavilion.

With Gu Yanqiu's departure, everyone stared at Ye Qingtang even more boldly and openly.

Although they did know how much the reward for Gu Yanqiu's mission was, rewarded missions that Gu Yanqiu would look at would not be too bad. But Gu Yanqiu said that the reward for this mission was small and that this little junior sister had an even bigger mission in her hands!

Everyone's curiosity was piqued uncontrollably as they stretched their necks to look at the cloth bag in Ye Qingtang's hand.

"I am here to submit a mission." Ye Qingtang was long familiar with the set way of the Rewards Pavilion as she handed the cloth bag into the warden's hand.

That warden looked at Ye Qingtang confusedly. Why did he not remember that this young lady came to take on a mission before?

But when the warden untied the bag that Ye Qingtang handed over, expressions of shock suddenly appeared on his face.

The warden looked up in surprise. In the Rewards Pavilion, the only mission that did not need to be taken on in advance was killing a villain on the Assassination Roll. He had managed the Rewards Pavilion for many years and clearly remembered all the faces of those villains on the Assassination Roll since a long time ago.

The thing in the opened bag was clearly the head of Wu Qi, a villain on the Assassination Roll!

Chapter 187: Returning to the Sect (4)

The disciples became even more curious after seeing the warden's expression and looked towards that cloth bag. Once they saw the bloody head, they were all dumbfounded.

What kind of mission needed her to hand in a head?

Other than the Assassination Roll, they really could not think of anything else.

However...

Looking at the young face of the new disciple, there was no way they would believe that such a new and young girl could behead anyone on the Assassination Roll.

However...

"Did... you kill him?" The warden's eyes were slightly shocked as he looked at the beautiful girl in front of him.

Ye Qingtang beamed, "I did not notice how much the reward is for him. I'll have to trouble senior to give me some guidance."

Upon listening to her words, the warden accepted that the head was chopped off by Ye Qingtang. His eyes softened and said after pausing a while, "Three hundred and seventy-six Xuanming points."

Three hundred and seventy-six?!

The curious outer sect disciples' jaws dropped upon hearing the warden's words.

A head could be exchanged for over three hundred Xuanming points?

Other than a villain on the Assassination Roll, whose head would be worth so much?!

Ye Qingtang was very calm though. She knew that Wu Qi's name was not too big, and, thus, it was worth less than other priceless heads on the roll. But over three hundred points plus the sixty plus points from Gu Yanqiu made a total of over four hundred Xuanming points, which was already enough for her to spend freely!

"Please help me exchange for the points then, senior." Ye Qingtang lifted her hand with a smile, and her eyes glistened as she watched huge quantities of Xuanming points being slid onto her bracelet.

This scene made all the surrounding disciples stare wide-eyed with their mouths open as they suspected if they saw wrongly until they recognized the human head...

"That head... seems to be Wu Qi's?" Someone mumbled.

And this fell into everyone's ears.

In a moment, everyone looked at Ye Qingtang was as though they were looking at a monster.

Was this a joke?

A new disciple could actually chop off Wu Qi's head?!

Had they gone crazy or had the world gone crazy?!

Ye Qingtang did not bother with their reactions. After all the Xuanming points reached her hand, she thanked the warden and left the Rewards Pavilion with a bright smile.

The warden looked at that head placed on the table with complicated feelings. After storing the head away, he wrote a few words on the file beside.

[Ye Qingtang beheaded Wu Qi]

After he was done writing, he felt that something was wrong and immediately found an assistant to send this file out.

If he did not remember wrongly, Ye Qingtang should be a disciple who just entered this month.

Such results in just half a month. This disciple... is not simple...

Apart from providing rewarded missions for disciples, one could find out other disciples' skills according to the completion status of the mission and, thus, discover talented disciples.

Informing this news to the outer sect elders was appropriate.

On the other hand, Ye Qingtang, who obtained Xuanming points, did not know what kind of trouble would come her way after picking up this head.

At this instant, Ye Qingtang was already at the door of the physician warden in the outer sect and directly invited him into her dorm!

Anything could be put on wait temporarily right now. Wakening her precious wolf was then the most important thing!

Chapter 188: Useless Wolf (1)

“Warden Tu, this is my wolf. It has been in deep sleep for many days and has not woken up. I’ll have to trouble you to take a look at it.” Ye Qingtang pointed at the huge wolf on her bed and said to the over-hundred-year-old senior whom she brought to her room.

Warden Tu touched his beard and examined the wolf on the bed with narrowed eyes. “Are you certain it did not sustain any external injuries?”

Warden Tu was responsible for medical aspects in Xuanling Sect’s outer sect. If any outer sect disciple was sick, he was always asked to help. Occasionally, some disciples with combat pets would find him for help as well, and Warden Tu was already used to such things.

“I’ve checked many times on the way and did not see any injuries on its body,” Ye Qingtang said.

Warden Tu nodded thoughtfully and stepped forward to examine the silver wolf’s condition, but his expression became a little weird after this check.

“Little girl, are you really intending to raise this wolf?” Warden Tu looked at Ye Qingtang as though he wanted to say something more.

“Is there any problem?” Ye Qingtang was a little puzzled.

Warden Tu sighed. “There isn’t any problem, but... although this wolf of yours looks pretty good, it is at most an ordinary wolf breed and not a spirit animal. Even if you spend all your energy to raise it well, it would probably not be a good combat pet and at most a useless wolf.”

Although this wolf’s fur was very nice, Warden Tu felt that this was an ordinary wolf, and there was nothing special about it no matter how he saw it.

The certain wolf with tightly-shut eyes suddenly let out a dangerous aura upon hearing the words “useless wolf.”

However, Ye Qingtang and Warden Tu were in a conversation and did not notice it.

“Warden Tu, I just like it. No matter what it is, I have decided to raise it. Please help me to look at what to do,” Ye Qingtang was strangely firm. Useless or not, it was still her wolf, and there was no use even if others said anything. She would raise it!

Ye Qingtang did not notice that her firm words caused that silver wolf’s dangerous aura to vanish into thin air immediately as it laid even more securely on the bed.

Warden Tu sighed. Honestly speaking, he was in disapproval of Xuanling Sect disciples raising such an ordinary wolf as a combat pet. Combat pets had to be raised carefully for them to turn out well and strong, and most of them were raised from young. However, not only did Ye Qingtang pick up a grown wolf on the road, the wolf was such an ordinary breed. This was really...

“Whatever. I will help you to take a good look, but I have to inform you first it might not recover immediately given that it has been unconscious for several days. There’s even a chance of it being in this state forever...” Then, the warden stretched out his hand helplessly wanting to properly examine the wolf’s condition.

But just when Warden Tu was about to touch it, its tightly-shut eyes suddenly opened.

A pair of dark green orbs directly met with Warden Tu's casual eyes.

This look almost scared Warden Tu to death.

Why did this wolf suddenly wake up?!

Ye Qingtang saw that the silver wolf was suddenly awake, and a smile immediately broke out on her face. In her happiness, she instinctively wanted to stretch out her hands to touch the wolf's fur, but she was suddenly met with those dark green orbs.

Wolves were extremely defensive animals and very aggressive. While Ye Qingtang hugged this wolf for many days, it had always been sleeping. Right now, she was still a stranger to it.

Chapter 189: Useless Wolf (2)

Ye Qingtang was going to retract her hands but suddenly realized that the wolf only cast her an aloof look before looking away as though it did not plan to resist or attack her.

Happiness filled her, and she automatically took the silver wolf's reaction as an acceptance of her. Insatiably, she reached her hands out and rubbed the fluffy wolf fur.

Yeah!

Comfortable!

The silver wolf froze slightly but did not resist at all, and Ye Qingtang caressed it even more brazenly.

Warden Tu's lips twitched. He just said that the wolf would never wake up, but then it woke up? His face was completely gone.

"Uh. Since it is awake, there should not be any big problems already." Warden Tu was obviously not too attentive to this "useless wolf."

But Ye Qingtang said very seriously, "But it slept for so long, could it have any internal injuries?"

Warden Tu replied casually. "Perhaps. However, there shouldn't be any big problems. If you're worried, you can massage it with spirit energy. Anyways, this will only benefit and not harm it." Although Warden Tu said that, he still felt that Ye Qingtang was crazy. Otherwise, why would she use such precious spirit energy to massage a "useless wolf?"

However, Ye Qingtang remembered his words clearly.

Warden Tu saw that there was nothing much and left after saying a few words insincerely.

After walking Warden Tu out, Ye Qingtang walked back to her bed and smiled extremely brightly as she looked at the "seductive" and handsome wolf. A pair of small hands had already unconsciously started directing her inner qi as they touched the wolf's body.

A certain wolf's body completely froze, but Ye Qingtang grinned. "Little baby. Don't be afraid, I'll give you a good massage. Don't worry, I'll be very gentle."

"..." A certain wolf froze for a while and ultimately turned its head around. Let her be then...

Once Su Wan returned to the room, she saw Ye Qingtang smiling extremely evilly while touching a silver wolf all over. She was slightly shocked, but she subsequently remembered what Yun Shu told her to pass on to Ye Qingtang. However, at this instant, Su Wan narrowed her eyes into a slit and looked away without telling Ye Qingtang anything as though she did not know anything.

She would definitely not let Senior Brother Yun and Ye Qingtang have anything going on between them!

At the same time, the file that the Rewards Pavilion warden sent to the outer sect elder had already reached the hands of the outer sect elder.

Elder Huang was the elder of the outer sect's sword faction and was also the one who introduced the sect rules to the disciples. As he read the file that was sent over by the Rewards Pavilion, his brows were slightly furrowed.

An outer sect sword faction disciple standing beside him obediently handed him a cup of tea.

"Does elder have any troubling matters?" The disciple asked.

Elder Huang said, "Zhou Xuan, have you heard of a disciple called Ye Qingtang in the outer sect?"

When Zhou Xuan suddenly heard the words "Ye Qingtang," his eyes sharpened, but he hid his emotions away skilfully and replied calmly, "I did hear of her previously. I think she is a new disciple."

Elder Huang nodded and placed the file aside.

"When this disciple first entered the outer sect, I didn't expect her to have such skills..."

Zhou Xuan was confused but did not dare to probe.

Elder Huang did not say anything more and ordered someone to deliver the file back. Then, he spoke to Zhou Xuan again. "Zhou Xuan, how is your brother Zhou Qu's injury?"

Chapter 190: New And Old Scores (1)

"Thank you for your concern, elder. He is already fine," Zhou Xuan said calmly, but a sharp look flashed across his eyes.

Elder Huang did not notice Zhou Xuan's expression and merely nodded his head. "Although you and Zhou Qu are brothers, your brother's natural talent is far from yours. You need to focus on cultivation instead and not let down this gift of yours."

"Yes," Zhou Xuan replied.

"There is nothing here already. You can go down first," Elder Huang said and waved a hand.

Zhou Xuan left and directly headed to Zhou Qu's room.

Zhou Qu was already much better now and was chatting with a group of disciples. When he saw Zhou Xuan, his face turned white, dispersed the group immediately, and then went up to him carefully.

“Big brother, you’re here.”

Zhou Xuan frowned slightly. He was very unhappy to see Zhou Qu’s cowardly behavior but could only bear with it because he was his brother.

“Who did you say was the person who injured you?”

Half a month ago, he suddenly heard that his brother, Zhou Qu, was severely beaten up by someone, and he had to lie in bed for a week because of this injury. Although Zhou Qu was not skilled, he was still his brother. Who did not know about his relationship with Zhou Qu in the outer sect?

Even though Zhou Qu took advantage of Zhou Xuan’s influence, no one dared to go against Zhou Xuan, and anyone would still give Zhou Qu some face.

But this time when Zhou Qu was beaten up, Zhou Xuan completely lost face.

Zhou Qu felt wronged immediately when he heard the question.

“Big brother, you must seek revenge for me. It was all done by Ye Qingtang, that little bitch. She is a new disciple but dared to injure me. I...”

“Shut up!” Zhou Xuan’s face turned cold and glared at Zhou Qu until he kept quiet. “That Ye Qingtang is only a new disciple. You have been in the outer sect for many years and barely obtained the thousandth rank, but you can’t even beat a newly entered disciple. How do you have the face to say it!”

Zhou Qu completely lost his face because of Zhou Xuan’s scolding but did not dare to resist as well; thus, he could only lower his head timidly without making a noise.

Zhou Xuan looked at his brother’s good-for-nothing behavior and was boiling with anger.

“I’ll remember this incident. I went to look for Ye Qingtang when you told me about it the other time. However, she was out on a mission and was not in the sect. Perhaps, she is back now already. You better behave yourself during this period of time and stop going around to embarrass me!” Zhou Xuan warned Zhou Qu with a glare.

Happiness filled his heart when Zhou Qu heard his brother’s words.

Zhou Xuan was way more skilled than him, and if Zhou Xuan was willing to take action, Ye Qingtang would definitely not be able to fight back regardless of her abilities.

“Thank you, big brother. I will definitely listen to you on every matter. Right, big brother, these are the bottles of Xi Spirit Pills that I got from this batch of new disciples.

Zhou Xuan looked over and kept them naturally. He asked with a slight frown, “Why are there only these few bottles this time?”

Not only did Zhou Xuan know about Zhou Qu’s arena, he silently consented to it as well. Every time, a portion of the Xi Spirit Pills that Zhou Qu obtained would be pocketed by Zhou Xuan, who was more than happy to do so.

Zhou Qu replied, "It's all Ye Qingtang, who used some tricks and cheated a few bottles of Xi Spirit Pills from me."

"Oh?" Zhou Xuan raised a brow, and his lips formed a sneer.

"Ye Qingtang, you're good. You just entered the sect, yet you are so disobedient already. Previously, Senior Brother Ning from the inner sect already ordered me to "take good care" of her. Now, not only did she injure you, she even dares to snatch my Xi Spirit Pills? I will definitely settle all these new and old scores with her."
