

Chapter 461: Demon Subduing Pagoda (1)

That Demon Subduing Pagoda was over ten feet tall with an imposing aura that filled the air.

Ye Qingtang was taken aback by this look.

“That is... Master’s Demon Subduing Pagoda?!”

In her previous life, Ye Qingtang was once saved by Perfected Xuanchen of Nine Nights Dynasty and brought to cultivate in Falling Sky Valley. That Demon Subduing Pagoda was one of Perfected Xuanchen’s dharma treasures which could subdue all evil beings, and Ye Qingtang had once seen it before.

“This is strange. Master once said that his Demon Subduing Pagoda was handed to his favorite disciple... Afterward, that disciple was killed, and the Demon Subduing Pagoda ended up in Yunxiao Sect’s hands...” Ye Qingtang’s brows were furrowed as she pondered.

The Demon Subduing Pagoda was in Yunxiao Sect’s hands for very long, until a long time later when Perfected Xuanchen killed a Yunxiao Sect elder and got the Demon Subduing Pagoda back.

“Why would I see Master’s Demon Subduing Pagoda here...” Ye Qingtang’s expression was serious. After thinking for a long while, she ultimately decided to check.

Kilometers away.

Two young males were exuding a frightening air which stirred gusts of winds that swept the surrounding area.

One of the males was wearing a long black robe, and there was a golden embroidery of the word “valley” on the chest while the other person was a Yunxiao Sect disciple.

“Hah. Ji Yixuan, disciple of Perfected Xuanchen in Nine Nights Dynasty, I did not think that I would actually meet you here.” The Yunxiao Sect disciple sneered at the teen in the black robe.

At that instant, the youth in the black robe waved his right arm, and the tall Demon Subduing Pagoda shrank immediately and fell into his hand.

“You are the disciple of Yunxiao Sect Sect Master, Yue Tiancheng?” The male in the black robe had an aloof expression as he sized up the youth before him.

“That’s me.” Yue Tiancheng laughed. “Ji Yixuan, why are you not in Nine Nights Dynasty but here in Formidable Heavens Dynasty?”

“It has nothing to do with you.” Ji Yixuan replied.

Upon hearing that, a cold glint flashed across Yue Tiancheng’s eyes. “Hah. Ji Yixuan, Falling Sky Valley and Yunxiao Sect are mortal enemies. Now that you’ve stepped into the Formidable Heavens Dynasty, you are courting your own death.”

“Oh?” Ji Yixuan said with indifference. “Our skills are similar, and Master granted me the dharma treasure, Demon Subduing Pagoda, for this trip to the Formidable Heavens Dynasty. I wonder which one of us will die today.”

Then, the Demon Subduing Pagoda in his hands turned swiftly. It let out a horrifying sound, and thunder emerged around it.

Ji Yixuan waved his right arm, and a palm print was formed from his palms. Instantly, the Demon Subduing Pagoda elongated and turned to be over ten meters tall which suppressed Yue Tiancheng.

“This dharma treasure is indeed powerful.” After being forced backward ten or so steps by the Demon Subduing Pagoda, Yue Tiancheng suddenly stopped and took out a talisman.

“Go!”

Then, Yue Tiancheng threw the talisman out.

In a second, the talisman started burning and eventually turned into a golden light once it was completely burnt.

“Array formation in a talisman?!”

After noticing the situation, Ji Yixuan’s expression changed slightly.

The more powerful the array formation was, the longer it took to set the array, and top array formations needed at least months to finish setting up.

However, Yue Tiancheng sealed the array formation in the talisman in advance, which could achieve the effect immediately!

Golden light cast from the sky immediately and shrouded over the Demon Subduing Pagoda.

Boom!

Boom!

Boom, boom!!

The huge Demon Subduing Pagoda was wildly attacked in the golden light, where the sounds of contact were frightening.

Nonetheless, Yue Tiancheng’s array formation was extremely brilliant, and the Demon Subduing Pagoda could not escape it.

“Worldly Self-Illusion!”

With an indifferent expression, Ji Yixuan immediately manifested another him.

At that moment, there were two Ji Yixuans standing side by side.

Chapter 462: Demon Subduing Pagoda (2)

“Oh... Worldly Self-Illusion. Your martial talents are indeed shocking, and you have proved yourself to be the favorite disciple of Falling Sky Valley’s Perfected Xuanchen... Your Worldly Self-Illusion is actually at such a refined level...” Yue Tiancheng shook his head and continued. “If not for Master’s Kingdom of God Talisman, perhaps I would really have been defeated by you today.”

Then, Yue Tiancheng sneered as he took out another talisman from his space ring.

Once the talisman was completely burnt, it was as though there were singings of various gods in the surroundings, and an illusory Kingdom of God fell from the sky.

Shock filled Ji Yixuan’s eyes upon noticing the situation.

The Kingdom of God was the highest-level array formation which could even suppress someone at Third Heaven of Martial Qi Level Three!

Yunxiao Sect was actually so generous to give their disciples such a life-saving item!

Seeing that the Kingdom of God was falling down, Ji Yixuan immediately retreated far away.

“Hah... it’s no use.” Yue Tiancheng’s lips curled into a cold scoff.

Just as Yue Tiancheng finished his sentence, the Kingdom of God landed and quelled Ji Yixuan’s duplicate while trapping his original self within it.

Subsequently, the Kingdom of God shrank and turned into an enclosed golden screen.

“A mere Kingdom of God and you wish to trap Ji Yixuan?!”

Ji Yixuan drew out his divine weapon with a loud clang.

At that moment, Ji Yixuan gripped on the divine weapon tightly with firmness in his eyes.

“Sword intent...”

Yue Tiancheng’s brows were tightly furrowed.

When cultivated to the extreme, a swordsman could develop the sword intent, which was incredibly frightening willpower that could even split mountains and cut rivers!

“Shatter!”

Ji Yixuan shouted sternly as he waved his divine weapon.

Boom!

A sword glint rummaged across the screen as though it wanted to annihilate this world!

However...

This frightening strike only caused a tiny crack on the exterior of the screen while the divine weapon in Ji Yixuan’s hands broke.

“Hahaha...” Yue Tiancheng guffawed at the situation. “Amazing... Indeed amazing... Truly a genius of Falling Sky Valley! It is a pity, though, that this Kingdom of God is given by my Master and is extremely firm. Even if you understand the sword intent, you can’t break it.”

Ji Yixuan did not move after hearing it as he looked at Yue Tiancheng without emotions. “It’s a pity. This Kingdom of God can trap people for only that long, and afterward, the force of the array formation would fade away. I will kill you once I’m out.”

“Out?” Yue Tiancheng shook his head. “I forgot to tell you that there’s a breath of destruction injected in it by my Senior Sister Ye You using the force of her blue spirit root. You will become a skeleton in at most four hours.”

Only at that instant was there a slight abnormality in Ji Yixuan’s expression.

In the seven spirit roots, there would be changes in the attributes of a spirit from the blue spirit root on.

Blue spirit roots could actively absorb the spirit energy in the world and turn the absorbed spirit energy into the breath of destruction.

Yunxiao Sect produced a rare genius, Ye You, and he naturally heard of it as a Falling Sky Valley disciple.

Although he was unaware of how powerful that Ye You was, even if she did not really cultivate in the future, just solely using the blue spirit root in her body to actively absorb the spirit energy in the world was enough for her to become a Yin Yang True Lord.

If this Kingdom of God really contained Ye You’s breath of destruction as what Yue Tiancheng said, if he could not find a way to escape from the array formation in a short time, he would definitely die in it...

“Ha...” Yue Tiancheng looked at Ji Yixuan who was sealed in the array formation screen and commented spiritedly. “Ji Yixuan, one of the younger generation talents in Falling Sky Valley and a disciple of Perfected Xuanchen, it’s impressive that you understand the sword intent and Worldly Self-Illusion... Yet, ultimately, you still have to die in my hands. It truly is a twist of fate.”

Chapter 463: Demon Subduing Pagoda (3)

Ji Yixuan frowned deeply without saying anything to Yue Tiancheng.

The force of destruction was slowly beginning to condense in the Kingdom of God. If he still did not think of a way to escape, he would probably lose his life here.

Yue Tiancheng sneered as though he had seen through Ji Yixuan’s thoughts. “Ji Yixuan, this array formation can only be broken from the outside. It is already considered a miracle that you could create a crack in the Kingdom of God from the inside with the sword intent earlier on. Now, your weapon is already broken, and there is no way you can condense the force of the sword intent anymore, much less escape from here. Just kill that thought.”

Then, Yue Tiancheng walked to another side. The corners of his lips tugged up slightly as he looked at the Demon Subduing Pagoda in the golden light. He waved his right arm over it, and the golden light faded away.

He placed the Demon Subduing Pagoda which had returned to its original size into his palm.

“Not bad... The dharma treasure of Falling Sky Valley’s division valley master, Perfected Xuanchen, is indeed not bad. However, it belongs to us, Yunxiao Sect now.” Yue Tiancheng laughed.

“Don’t you dare!” Fury emerged in Ji Yixuan’s eyes.

The Demon Subduing Pagoda was given to him by his Master, Perfected Xuanchen, to protect his life. How could it end up in the hands of their mortal enemy, Yunxiao Sect!

“Hahaha.” Yue Tiancheng could not help but scoff. “The Demon Subduing Pagoda is already in my hands now. Do you think I dare or not?”

Before waiting for Ji Yixuan to say anything, Yue Tiancheng waved a hand and intercepted him. “Ji Yixuan, instead of wasting saliva like this, why not think of how to escape from there?”

As Yue Tiancheng finished his sentence, the pressure of the spirit energy in the Kingdom of God skyrocketed and materialized into an inexplicable breath of destruction.

The force of it was like the descent of countless mountains which suppressed Ji Yixuan tightly, causing his breaths to quicken and face to flush. Before long, Ji Yixuan could no longer hold it in and fell on the floor with a “thump” as cold sweat dripped down his forehead like a broken pearl necklace.

On a slope several hundred meters away, Ye Qingtang was looking ahead at that instant.

“Yue Tiancheng...”

After she saw that small disciple of the Yunxiao Sect Sect Master, her fists were tightly clenched, and she strongly desired to skin him alive!

In her previous lifetime, she was wounded by Yue Tiancheng a few times and almost lost her life in all encounters.

After Nine Nights Dynasty was wiped out, Yunxiao Sect combined forces with other super sects of Formidable Heavens Dynasty to attack Falling Sky Valley. Yue Tiancheng’s hands were stained with the blood of all her senior and junior brothers!

Very quickly, Ye Qingtang calmed her heart down and looked at Ji Yixuan.

She never thought that she would meet Ji Yixuan, the disciple of her Master who had already passed on in her previous life, of Falling Sky Valley today.

Back then, Ye Qingtang entered Falling Sky Valley and cultivated beside Perfected Xuanchen. Thus, she naturally had heard of these past events.

Ji Yixuan came to the Formidable Heavens Dynasty to obtain the Regeneration Stone.

The Regeneration Stone possessed the powers of renewing the bones of a dying person. The Valley Master of Falling Sky Valley was heavily injured from a battle a decade ago. He was already of old age now and had a sudden illness. He could only keep his life with that Regeneration Stone.

In her previous life, the Regeneration Stone that Ji Yixuan obtained along with the Demon Subduing Pagoda fell into Yunxiao Sect's hands together. Because the Regeneration Stone was too rare, Perfected Xuanchen could not find another one even when he personally searched for it, which resulted in the eventual death of Falling Sky Valley's Valley Master.

Ye Qingtang looked at Ji Yixuan who was over a hundred meters away. He was sealed in the array formation, and the force of destruction in it had already caused him to gasp for air. She was afraid that Ji Yixuan would die in the array in no time.

Based on skills, Ji Yixuan was one of Falling Sky Valley's geniuses and had comprehended the sword intent as well as the Worldly Self-Illusion. Under normal circumstances, Yue Tiancheng of Yunxiao Sect was definitely not his opponent.

Chapter 464: Senior Brother and Junior Sister (1)

However, Yue Tiancheng had too many cards in his hand and was able to achieve victory just by using two talismans that the Yunxiao Sect Sect Master gave.

While the Demon Subduing Pagoda was powerful, it was relative. It could subdue and slaughter any evil spirits in an instant, but when dealing with humans, its abilities were greatly reduced and naturally would not be as good as the array formation in a talisman that the Yunxiao Sect Sect Master gave to Yue Tiancheng.

Ye Qingtang frowned deeply. Although she wanted to save this senior brother that she never met in her previous life, Yue Tiancheng's skills were too powerful, and she would definitely not be able to defeat him even if she played all her cards.

Moreover, even if she could defeat him, she did not dare to make a move rashly.

No one knew how many cards Yue Tiancheng still had on him, and if he took out another array formation in a talisman...

Just as Ye Qingtang felt helpless with the situation, her eyes flickered. She opened her space ring, and her lips curled into a smile as she looked at the Yunxiao token inside the space ring. Then, she took out an ordinary blouse from the space ring and changed out from the dirty Xuanling Sect uniform.

Since this top was tighter than the Xuanling Sect uniform, Ye Qingtang had the little lightning dragon shrink a little to hide it in her wide sleeves.

After changing, Ye Qingtang immediately stood up and walked ahead in great strides.

About a hundred meter outside, Yue Tiancheng suddenly looked over.

"Whoever that is, do not come any farther!" Yue Tiancheng ordered coldly.

"Is that Senior Brother Yue Tiancheng ahead?" Ye Qingtang stopped walking and asked.

"Who are you?" Yue Tiancheng sized up Ye Qingtang and thought she was rather foreign.

"It indeed is Senior Brother Yue!" Ye Qingtang had an agitated expression. "Senior Brother Yue, I am a Yunxiao Sect disciple!"

Yue Tiancheng was startled to hear that. This random girl who appeared from nowhere actually claimed to be a Yunxiao Sect disciple?

"You are a Yunxiao Sect disciple? Why have I not seen you before?" Ji Yixuan asked.

"Ah..." Ye Qingtang sighed. "Senior Brother Yue, you are an inner sect disciple of Yunxiao Sect while I'm only an outer sect disciple. Isn't it normal that you have not seen me before?"

As Ye Qingtang said, Yunxiao Sect had many outer sect disciples, and it was impossible for him to meet all of them before.

"Third Heaven of Martial Qi Level Two" Yue Tiancheng pondered as he scanned Ye Qingtang.

Yunxiao Sect outer sect disciples were at least at the Second Heaven of Martial Qi Level Two while this girl was at the Third Heaven of Martial Qi Level Two. There should not be any errors.

"Why and what are you doing here?" Yue Tiancheng questioned.

From Yue Tiancheng's behavior, Ye Qingtang knew that he was an extremely cautious person, and, thus, she was on full alert as well. She chuckled. "Senior Brother Yue, I've been hiding in Wind Moon Sect, and I just engulfed the spirit roots of a few genius disciples a few days ago which allowed my spirit root to upgrade. I intended to return to the sect today and did not expect to meet you here."

Yue Tiancheng's suspicions were slightly reduced upon hearing that.

The sect sent quite a number of outer sect disciples to hide in the three sects to snatch the spirit roots of those genius disciples in order to strengthen themselves.

While this was not a shocking secret in Yunxiao Sect, it was not allowed to be divulged out, and there was no way others would know of it.

However, half of Yue Tiancheng's suspicions were gone, but another half remained.

"Your spirit root just upgraded? Since that is the case, let me take a look then." As he spoke, Yue Tiancheng leaped to Ye Qingtang's side while looking at her sharply.

Chapter 465: Senior Brother and Junior Sister (2)

Immediately, Ye Qingtang opened her palms and revealed her spirit root in front of Yue Tiancheng cooperatively.

"Not bad... The aura of the spirit root indeed is that of one that has just upgraded." Yue Tiancheng nodded.

Before waiting for Ye Qingtang to say anything, Yue Tiancheng frowned slightly. "That's not right! The spirit root is only a yellow spirit root after an upgrade, which means that your previous spirit root is an orange spirit root?"

“Senior Brother Yue is right. I was an orange spirit root previously,” Ye Qingtang said honestly and naturally.

A cold glint flashed across Yue Tiancheng’s eyes when he heard her. “Then, do you know that Yunxiao Sect’s criteria for accepting disciples... is that they must at least be a green spirit root?”

“So Senior Brother Yue is suspecting me.” Ye Qingtang could not help but laugh. “You’re really overthinking, Senior Brother Yue. Who dares to pretend as a Yunxiao Sect disciple in the Formidable Heavens Dynasty? Moreover, I was able to enter Yunxiao Sect as an exception.”

“Exception? You’re talking rather big. Tell me what kind of exception that was then.” Yue Tiancheng’s interest was stirred. A harmless smile hung on his lips, though a deep murderous expression hid in the abyss of his eyes.

“Alright. Since you don’t believe me, take a good look then.” Ye Qingtang raised her arm and opened her palms.

Swoosh!

In a flash, a golden flame was dancing in Ye Qingtang’s palm as though it was the spirit of fire.

Looking at the golden flame in the palms of the stunning girl before him, Yue Tiancheng showed a surprised look on his face. “Paragon Skill?!”

The Ultimate Origin Skill had not appeared on this mainland for too long of a time, and there was not much difference between the Ultimate Origin Skill and the Paragon Skill. As a result, Yue Tiancheng mistook it, and Ye Qingtang was naturally confident of this.

“Understanding the Paragon Skill as a yellow spirit root... is pretty good but not enough for the sect to make an exception...” Yue Tiancheng mumbled.

“Senior Brother Yue, are you sure... I understood the Paragon Skill as a yellow spirit root?” Ye Qingtang’s face was full of smiles.

“Oh? So you mean...” Then, there was a change in Yue Tiancheng’s expression.

Yue Tiancheng suddenly recalled that Ye Qingtang already revealed the aura of her spirit root earlier on, and although it was a yellow spirit root, it did upgrade not long ago...

It was simply impossible for someone who had just upgraded to a yellow spirit root to understand the Paragon Skill in an instant!

“You... you understood the Paragon Skill as an orange spirit root?!” Yue Tiancheng returned to his senses and looked at Ye Qingtang in disbelief.

This girl had just upgraded to a yellow spirit root, and there was no way she understood the Paragon Skill as a yellow spirit root. This meant that she understood it as an orange spirit root...

“Senior Brother Yue is intelligent. Exactly because of this, I was accepted into the sect as an exception,” Ye Qingtang said with a chuckle.

Yue Tiancheng finally returned to his senses after a long while. "Understanding the Paragon Skill as an orange spirit root... I've really not heard of it before. If that was the case, it is explainable why the sect made an exception."

"You should believe me already, right?" Ye Qingtang smiled.

"No hurry." Yue Tiancheng continued. "Take out your Yunxiao Token."

"Yunxiao token?" Ye Qingtang was stunned.

"Why? As a Yunxiao Sect disciple, did you not bring the Yunxiao token when you were out of the sect?" Yue Tiancheng asked.

"Why are you so distrustful, Senior Brother Yue? Why would I pretend to be a Yunxiao Sect disciple for nothing?" Ye Qingtang shook her head helplessly as she took out a token from her space ring.

This token was made from a special material, and a mystical cloud was carved on it. It definitely would not be an imitation.

"It indeed is the Yunxiao token..." After inspecting Ye Qingtang's token carefully, Yue Tiancheng finally let down his guard completely.

Chapter 466: Senior Brother and Junior Sister (3)

Seeing that Yue Tiancheng finally believed her fully, Ye Qingtang's lips curled up as a cold sneer filled the back of her eyes.

She never expected this Yue Tiancheng to be so cautious and distrustful. Fortunately, she searched the body of that disciple whom Yi Tianchou killed and obtained this Yunxiao token.

"Haha... Junior sister, it is my nature to be distrustful. Please forgive me." Yue Tiancheng laughed.

Currently, Yue Tiancheng had completely believed in Ye Qingtang's identity as a Yunxiao Sect disciple.

"No worries. After all, I just entered Yunxiao Sect and am an outer sect disciple. It is understandable that you're suspicious of me since you haven't seen me before." Ye Qingtang replied.

Noticing that Yue Tiancheng had let his guard down, Ye Qingtang suddenly looked at Ji Yixuan and pretended to be surprised. "Senior Brother Yue, who is that? Why is he trapped in the array formation?"

Yue Tiancheng scoffed at that. "The disciple of Perfected Xuanchen in Falling Sky Valley. As a citizen of Nine Nights Dynasty, he was so bold to come to the Formidable Heavens Dynasty. Our sect had arranged spies in Falling Sky Valley, and they notified me of Ji Yixuan's route and motive of coming to the Formidable Heavens Dynasty."

Upon hearing Yue Tiancheng's words, Ji Yixuan, who was sealed in the array formation, frowned deeply.

Had he not heard it for himself, he would definitely not believe that there were spies of Yunxiao Sect in Falling Sky Valley!

“No wonder...” Ye Qingtang pondered silently. She was wondering why Yunxiao Sect would be so generous for a disciple to have this many remarkable talismans.

So it was that Yunxiao Sect Master deliberately sent Yue Tiancheng to kill Ji Yixuan and thus handed him those array formations in a talisman. Otherwise, even if Yue Tiancheng was skilled, he was still lacking when facing a genius like Ji Yixuan.

Yunxiao Sect had prepared for all of this long ago. It was not out of luck that Ji Yixuan died in Yue Tiancheng’s hands in her previous life.

“Yunxiao Sect is so shameless to arrange spies in my Falling Sky Valley.” Ji Yixuan criticized angrily as he withstood the force of destruction.

“How dare you!” Before Yue Tiancheng said anything, Ye Qingtang suddenly sneered. “Who do you think you are to insult Yunxiao Sect?”

“Junior sister, there’s no need to waste your saliva on someone who is about to die,” Yue Tiancheng said nonchalantly. Ji Yixuan was destined to be a dead man. What could he do even if he learned of everything?

“Oh right, Senior Brother Yue, what is this person’s motive for coming to Formidable Heavens Dynasty?” Ye Qingtang wore an obedient expression as she looked at Yue Tiancheng curiously.

“Regeneration Stone.” Yue Tiancheng did not hide anything as a white crystal floated in his palm. “This item can renew the bones of a dying person. The days of Falling Sky Valley’s old Valley Master are numbered, and he needs the Regeneration Stone to keep his life. What a pity that their calculations failed. The Regeneration Stone that Ji Yixuan used a Herculean effort to obtain is now in my hands. When I return to the sect and turn it in, it would definitely be a great merit.”

“Senior Brother Yue is indeed amazing. I am full of admiration!” Ye Qingtang cupped her fists as she looked at him in adoration.

“Regeneration Stone...” Ji Yixuan realized that the Regeneration Stone which he hid in a certain corner previously was now in Yue Tiancheng’s hands!

“It seems that there really are spies in my Falling Sky Valley. Otherwise, how would you be able to tail me for days and even find the place where I hid the Regeneration Stone?” Indignation filled Ji Yixuan’s eyes.

He had no regrets even if he died there, but that Regeneration Stone was a life-saving item for the old Valley Master. His master and old Valley Master believed in him and entrusted this heavy responsibility to him, but... he ultimately disappointed both of them.

Chapter 467: Senior Brother and Junior Sister (4)

Immediately, Ji Yixuan fell on his knees and bowed in the southern direction where Falling Sky Valley was. He blamed himself fully, and even death was not enough to pay for his offense.

Pride filled Yue Tiancheng's eyes as he watched Ji Yixuan. After a while, he told Ye Qingtang. "Junior sister, I will be here to watch Ji Yixuan die. You can return to the sect to submit your mission first."

"Alright. Be careful, Senior Brother Yue. Don't let this scumbag of Falling Sky Valley escape." Ye Qingtang agreed without hesitation and walked out the valley.

However, Ye Qingtang suddenly stopped in her tracks halfway and looked at Yue Tiancheng with a frown. "Senior Brother Yue, I forgot about something. Earlier on in the valley, I saw Yi Tianchou who is ranked nine on the Assassination Roll."

"Yi Tianchou?" Yue Tiancheng was surprised.

Yi Tianchou was rather skilled. He was already at the peak of the First Heaven of Martial Qi Level Three five years ago and was ranked nine on the Assassination Roll.

"What was he doing here?" Yue Tiancheng was a little confused.

"I don't know about that." Ye Qingtang shook her head as she continued with a slight frown. "Yi Tianchou's nasty reputation is widely known, and he is too skilled, so I did not dare to get close to him. However, I seem to have heard him mumbling something about the Spirit Life Flower..."

"Spirit Life Flower?!" Yue Tiancheng's expression changed immediately.

Senior Sister Ye You discovered the Spirit Life Flower in this valley a long time ago, but it was not ripe yet at that time. Thus, Ye You sent a junior brother to guard it. Once it matured, it was to be plucked and brought back to the sect for her.

However, it had been days since the agreed timing for his return to the sect, and there was still no news of that junior brother.

Before he came to the valley this time, Ye You had specially ordered him to head into the valley and investigate what happened after settling the issue with the Falling Sky Valley disciple.

"Spirit Life Flower... Yi Tianchou... Could it be?" A glint flashed in Yue Tiancheng's eyes.

"Junior sister, are you sure that he was Yi Tianchou, and he mentioned the Spirit Life Flower?" Yue Tiancheng asked hurriedly.

Ye Qingtang nodded extremely certainly. "I've seen Yi Tianchou's portrait. I definitely will not identify him wrongly, and I did hear him talking about the Spirit Life Flower."

"This is bad!" Yue Tiancheng knew that there was trouble. The junior brother had not brought the Spirit Life Flower back to the sect after a long time, and it must have been closely related to Yi Tianchou!

Yue Tiancheng was frantic at that moment, but the force of destruction had not completely exploded to kill Ji Yixuan, and he could not move away.

"Senior Brother Yue, what happened?" Ye Qingtang asked.

Yue Tiancheng glimpsed at Ye Qingtang and said immediately, "Junior Sister, this is an urgent matter. I'll tell you the exact location of the Spirit Life Flower, and you are to go there to check. If you encounter Yi Tianchou, kill him!"

“Huh?” Ye Qingtang was surprised and shook her head hurriedly after hearing Yue Tiancheng. “Senior Brother Yue, I’m afraid... I can’t. You should be aware of Yi Tianchou’s reputation.”

“What is so scary about that!” Yue Tiancheng frowned, displeased.

“Senior Brother Yue, Yi Tianchou’s nickname is the great flower thief... No one knows how many ladies he has insulted... Not mentioning how I can’t defeat him with my skills, even if I’m more powerful than him, I’m a girl, and I don’t have the courage to...” Ye Qingtang had an aggrieved expression.

“Humph! How can you have so many excuses as a Yunxiao Sect disciple?” Yue Tiancheng was a little impatient. While he spoke disdainfully, deep down, he also felt that Ye Qingtang was not Yi Tianchou’s opponent. If they acted rashly, alarmed the enemy, and let Yi Tianchou escape instead, things would even be more troublesome.

Chapter 468: Internal Strife? (1)

Yue Tiancheng replied immediately. “Since that is the case, you will stay here to guard this array formation and Ji Yixuan. There is a force of destruction from Senior Sister Ye You’s blue spirit root. In a while, Ji Yixuan will be nothing but bones. You don’t need to do anything. Just don’t let anyone come near and wait for me to return.”

“Alright. Rest assured, Senior Brother Yue. With me here, no one will be able to come near here.” Ye Qingtang hurriedly agreed and nodded.

At that moment, Yue Tiancheng was burning with anxiety and immediately turned around to leave without explaining much to Ye Qingtang.

At the same time...

A loud bang sounded!

Ji Yixuan, who was sealed in the array formation, was astounded, and his jaws fell wide open.

The moment Yue Tiancheng turned around, Ji Yixuan saw that the Yunxiao Sect girl immediately turned hostile and slapped his back.

Without surprise, Yue Tiancheng’s body flew out and knocked on a rock over ten meters away.

Boom!

The rock crumbled into pieces from the impact. Yue Tiancheng further caused several sturdy trees to fall and finally fell on the ground.

“Ow!”

Yue Tiancheng’s complexion was pale, and blood gushed out of his mouth. He looked at Ye Qingtang in disbelief.

“You!!” After saying just one word, Yue Tiancheng spat another mouthful of blood again.

Ye Qingtang looked at Yue Tiancheng, who collapsed below a tall tree after being severely injured from just one move from her, and her lips curled up in a playful smile. She darted to where Yue Tiancheng was swiftly.

“You!” Yue Tiancheng clenched his teeth, wanting to stand up, but that one slap from that girl utterly smashed all life in him, and all his vital organs were damaged.

“Who exactly... are you!” Yue Tiancheng used all his energy to ask the devilishly stunning girl who had arrived before him.

“Senior Brother Ye, have you forgotten that you offended me before?” The smile on her lips deepened as she looked at Yue Tiancheng’s twisted expression.

“Other than today... I’ve... never... seen you before... at all!” Yue Tiancheng said between pants.

He was in a hurry to leave just now and did not guard against this girl at all. Who would have thought that she would launch a sneak attack from behind him and attack his gate of vitality!

“You are not a Yunxiao Sect... disciple!” Yue Tiancheng was not foolish. He was so cautious, but there was still a slip.

However, what replied him was the Demonic Blood Sword that had already been drawn out of its scabbard.

Swoosh!

The Demonic Blood Sword waved in Ye Qingtang’s hand. A blood-colored sword shadow emerged and pierced through Yue Tiancheng’s chest.

In just a moment, Yue Tiancheng stared disbelievingly at the Demonic Blood Sword that was pierced in his chest and watched blood spatter out from the wound.

“I don’t like to b*llsh*t with a dead person.” Ye Qingtang looked at the pale Yue Tiancheng from a commanding position. She suddenly withdrew her Demonic Blood Sword out and flicked her wrist for the blood on the sword to fall off.

Indignation was written all over Yue Tiancheng’s face. Even when he died, he still did not understand what exactly happened.

Looking at Yue Tiancheng who had already stopped breathing, Ye Qingtang bent down and took his space ring away without hesitation.

At that instant, Ji Yixuan was flabbergasted. He only saw Ye Qingtang suddenly attacking Yue Tiancheng previously, and the two of them flew over ten meters away. He could not hear what they said afterward and only witnessed Yue Tiancheng being killed by Ye Qingtang.

They were both Yunxiao Sect disciples, yet why would Yue Tiancheng be killed by another Yunxiao Sect disciple? Could it be that the two of them had an internal strife...

Ji Yixuan was extremely puzzled.

Chapter 469: Internal Strife? (2)

After Yue Tiancheng died, Ye Qingtang waved an arm over him, and a golden flame burned him completely into nothing.

Then, Ye Qingtang turned around and sprinted to Ji Yixuan. Looking at the stunned Ji Yixuan, Ye Qingtang walked forward and asked, "Ji Yixuan, do you wish to escape from the array formation?"

Ji Yixuan frowned slightly at that. There were no emotions as he looked at the young girl who killed her fellow sect disciple. "So what if I wish to or not? Would you all, Yunxiao Sect disciples, would let me off?"

Ye Qingtang could not help but laugh and shake her head as she saw how Ji Yixuan was still so cold. "So you think that Yue Tiancheng and I had an internal strife and that I killed him."

"Isn't it?" Ji Yixuan's brows were furrowed.

The supposed sect ties were nothing compared to how some disciples bred enmity between each other and secretly struck when they were out of the sect.

Ye Qingtang looked at Ji Yixuan who stood there helplessly, and an evil smile flashed across her eyes. Then, she nodded and said, "Yes, you guessed it right. I have an internal strife with Yue Tiancheng. Yue Tiancheng has the Regeneration Stone and even a Dharma treasure, Demon Subduing Pagoda... When I kill him, these items are naturally mine."

"Ha..." Ji Yixuan stared at Ye Qingtang and scoffed. "Do you think that Yunxiao Sect would not realize it when you kill Yue Tiancheng? If they find out, Yunxiao Sect would naturally not let you off, and Falling Sky Valley would not let you off since you obtained the Demon Subduing Pagoda."

"You don't have to worry, Ji Yixuan. You are already someone who is about to die. Don't waste any more saliva talking. Just take a look at this world for the last time." Ye Qingtang shrugged slightly and left directly without being concerned about what Ji Yixuan said.

As Ji Yixuan watched Ye Qingtang leave, Ji Yixuan slowly shut his eyes as the breath of destruction intensified gradually.

However, right at that moment!

Swoosh!

The shadow of a Demonic Blood Sword emerged. The Demonic Blood Sword in Ye Qingtang's hand shot past and knocked on the array formation hardly.

This array formation in a talisman was difficult to break from the inside, but if attacked from the outside, it was relatively simple to break it.

Swoosh!

As Ye Qingtang's sword landed, there was a sound of broken glass in the sealed array formation.

Almost instinctively, Ji Yixuan fled from the broken array formation instantly.

A few breaths later, Ji Yixuan looked at Ye Qingtang in disbelief.

This Yunxiao Sect disciple actually cracked the array formation and allowed him to escape?

“Why did you do this?” Ji Yixuan had a confused expression.

Even if Yunxiao Sect disciples fought internally, this girl launched a sneak attack and killed Yue Tiancheng but should not have released him.

“You’re indeed the same as what Master described. How boring...” Ye Qingtang tilted her head as she scanned Ji Yixuan up and down

“Master? What do you mean?” Confusion filled Ji Yixuan.

“I was just joking with you just now. I am not a Yunxiao Sect disciple,” Ye Qingtang said honestly.

“Really?” Ji Yixuan frowned.

“Otherwise, why would I save you?” Ye Qingtang chuckled.

“This...” Ji Yixuan was at a loss of words at that moment.

Ji Yixuan initially thought that he would die without a doubt today, yet unexpectedly, a random girl of an unknown origin saved him, and even Yue Tiancheng, that small disciple of Yunxiao Sect Sect Master, was tricked and killed by her.

“Hurry back to your sect and submit your mission.” Ye Qingtang took the Regeneration Stone from Yue Tiancheng and tossed it to Ji Yixuan without hesitation.

Chapter 470: Internal Strife? (3)

After receiving the Regeneration Stone, Ye Qingtang spoke again without waiting for Ji Yixuan to speak. “And your Demon Subduing Pagoda.”

Then, Ye Qingtang tossed the Demon Subduing Pagoda that she found on Yue Tiancheng’s body to Ji Yixuan.

Looking at the Regeneration Stone and Demon Subduing Pagoda that he regained, Ji Yixuan was a little dumbfounded in a moment.

Not only did he survive from an ultimate-death situation, but even the Demon Subduing Pagoda and Regeneration Stone were back in his hands?!

“Who exactly are you?” Ji Yixuan looked up suddenly and at the alluring teen girl before him in surprise.

Regardless of whether it was the Regeneration Stone or Demon Subduing Pagoda, both were mystic treasures. Even if this girl was not a Yunxiao Sect disciple, these two items were an extremely huge temptation to anyone, but this girl actually returned them to him just like that?

“Who I am is not important. What is important is that you are not dead and did not lose the Regeneration Stone and the Demon Subduing Pagoda.”

Afterward, Ye Qingtang turned around and left.

"I am Ji Yixuan of Falling Sky Valley. May I ask for your name, please? I will definitely return your great kindness today!" Ji Yixuan said hurriedly as he watched Ye Qingtang leave.

"Ye Qingtang."

"Ye Qingtang..." Ji Yixuan mumbled as though he had never heard of this name before.

"Thank you, Lady Ye," Ji Yixuan said to the distance without knowing whether Ye Qingtang could hear.

On the other hand, Ye Qingtang had already walked far away at that moment.

Yunxiao Sect lost two disciples, and one of them was even the Sect Master's disciple. Not long later, Yunxiao Sect would probably organize a search.

Because of the influence of her Ultimate Origin Skill, the force of the primordial qi in her body had turned gold and was exceptionally striking.

To prevent complications, Ye Qingtang chose to return to the sect by feet instead of continuing to use the Feather Formation Technique.

With Ye Qingtang's speed, she would take about at least a few days to walk back to Xuanling Sect.

Throughout the journey, Ye Qingtang passed by a city and used her remaining gold to purchase a horse as a mean of transportation.

Two days later, Ye Qingtang passed by a mausoleum on her journey back.

An elderly was guarding outside the mausoleum.

His hair was gray, and he seemed to be old from his appearance.

However, once the horse crossed paths with the elderly who was blocking their way, its body stiffened and did not move no matter how Ye Qingtang whipped it as though it became a statue.

"That's strange..." Ye Qingtang looked at the horse below her and frowned.

"Little girl. This road is not open. You should take another route." The elderly, with seemingly cloudy eyes, radiated an unknowing glow as he smiled at Ye Qingtang.

"Take another route?" Ye Qingtang was surprised.

This mausoleum was a shortcut to Xuanling Sect, and she would take at least one more day if she changed her route.

"Mhm. I have sealed this area. It is wiser for you to continue your journey with another route," said the elderly with a laugh.

"You have sealed it?" Ye Qingtang looked at the elderly. "What big talk. This area has been deserted for hundreds of years, and there's no owner. Is it sealed just because you said it?"

There was a feasible shortcut right there, but she was asked to take another route. How would Ye Qingtang agree to this?

Nonetheless, the elderly was not bothered by her words and remained smiling. "I sealed this area in order to save the lives of you ignorant people. Just listen to what this old man says. Take another route and leave quickly."

Before Ye Qingtang said anything else, a terrifying imposing aura spread out from the inside of the mausoleum.

In almost the blink of an eye, this frightening aura enshrouded the surroundings.
