Chapter 261: The Double Standard Dog Kicked Out of School

“What?!” Jiadong was hopping mad. “You’re just a physical education teacher, yet you’re talking to a vice principal like me like that? You’ve got no respect for me! Let’s go to the principal’s office right now, and if I don’t get you fired, my surname won’t be Feng!”

Lin Yi shrugged. “Let’s go, I was just about to talk some sense into you.”

Stretching his back, Lin Yi turned to the students.

“We won’t be able to continue today’s swimming class, but none of you should leave. Stay here and keep an eye on them.”

“Understood, Teacher Lin.”

Lin Yi and Feng Jiadong walked out of the swimming pool and saw a large group of people standing outside.

They had all heard about the international students getting beaten up and had come to watch the show.

“These people are using their identity as international students to run amok in the university. Teacher Lin’s actions are really satisfying!”

“What are you looking at? Disperse or I’ll give you a demerit!”

The surrounding students left resentfully. They didn’t dare to speak out against Feng Jiadong.

If it wasn’t for his backing, these foreign students wouldn’t have dared to be so arrogant.

In other words, he was the culprit!

As the students dispersed, Sugar and Song Jia jogged over.

“Principal Feng, calm down. There must be a misunderstanding,” Sugar explained.

Lin Yi was the honorary vice principal of the school.

Feng Jiadong was the executive vice principal of the university.

Although they were both vice principals, there was a huge difference in their power.

Lin Yi’s position didn’t hold any real power, and he couldn’t be compared to Feng Jiadong.

It was hard to say who the principal would favor in the end.

After all, Feng Jiadong’s position wasn’t low, and he was the second-in-command in the university.

“There’s no misunderstanding,” Lin Yi said.

“I’m the one who did it. This matter is clear, there’s no misunderstanding at all.”

Sugar's expression fell. 'Can't you just let me have some peace of mind?'

'Even if there's no misunderstanding, you can't just speak the truth!'

"Director Su, this is none of your business. I hope you won't interfere!"

Feng Jiadong harrumphed coldly. Then, he clasped his hands behind his back and walked toward the principal's office.

At this moment, in the principal's office, Zhou Genzhe stood in front of Zhao Qi and recounted the events at the swimming pool to him.

"This Feng Jiadong is getting more and more outrageous!" Zhao Qi slammed the table. "He actually indulged his international students and did such a thing. If this matter gets out, our university will become a joke!"

Seeing Zhao Qi's anger, Zhou Genzhe stood at the side and didn't dare to say anything.

This matter involved two principals. He was just a small secretary and didn't have the right to participate. It was better to let Principal Zhao decide how to deal with it.

Dang dang dang...

There was an urgent knock on the door, and without waiting for Zhao Qi's permission, Feng Jiadong pushed the door open and entered.

The three vice-principals gathered in the office, and Zhou Genzhe quietly left. With his identity, he had no right to stay here.

"Principal Zhao, I'm sure you've heard about Lin Yi beating up international students. I think this matter should be dealt with seriously, and we can't tolerate it!" Feng Jiadong said coldly.

"Such a black sheep has appeared among our ranks. If we let him stay in the school, who knows how many people will end up being persecuted by him?"

Zhao Qi pushed up his glasses and said in a low voice,

"I've also heard about the incident at the swimming pool. That international student named George openly harassed a female student from the university and even urinated in the swimming pool. Do you want to give me an explanation for this?"

"It's indeed their fault. I'll teach them a lesson later," said Feng Jiadong.

"But I don't think it's a big deal. Foreign Students advocate freedom and independence. In their country, this is considered a kind of performance art. There's no need to go overboard."

Pfft!

Lin Yi couldn't help but laugh out loud.

"No wonder you became the vice principal. Your level of education is really not bad to claim that this has something to do with performance arts. Impressive."

“I’m talking to Principal Zhao. You don’t have the right to speak. Pay attention to your identity!”

Zhao Qi looked at Feng Jiadong coldly.

“Lin Yi is not only a physical education teacher at the university, he’s also the honorary vice principal of the school. Do you think he has no right to interrupt with his identity?”

Feng Jiadong was stunned. He couldn’t believe his ears.

“Principal Zhao, what did you say? He’s the school’s honorary vice principal?”

Although Lin Yi’s name was added to the school’s official website, everyone knew that the official website was just a decoration. No one would even look at it.

This applied to Feng Jiadong as well. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have shown such an attitude. He wouldn’t have spoken to Lin Yi in such a restrained manner.

“You think I’d joke around with you about this?” Zhao Qi snorted coldly.

“Principal Zhao, we both know what’s the real deal with the honorary vice principal position. It’s an empty title, and it’s completely useless in front of me.” Feng Jiadong snorted coldly.

“The families of these overseas students are all quite famous in the local area. This has a very important impact on our school’s international reputation. In addition, their annual donations we receive from them are sizeable. Compared to the contributions from overseas students, an honorary vice principal like him is nothing!”

Zhao Qi pick up the cigarette on the table and lit ut. “Since we’re talking about contributions, I’ll have a chat with you.”

“I’m sure you know about the newly established computer lab in our school.”

“Of course I do. It’s said that it cost more than 20 million dollars. The leaders from the education bureau attach great importance to it. This can be considered as a business card that our school can take out and flex.”

Zhao Qi flicked the ash off his cigarette. “Those are just some surface-level reports. You don’t know the real situation.”

“Could there be other insider information?” Feng Jiadong asked in surprise.

“Why don’t I, the executive vice principal, know about it?”

Because Teacher Lin is very low-key and didn’t want to publicize it. That’s why I didn’t say anything.”

“Huh? He teaches sports. What does this have to do with him?”

“To tell you the truth, that lab was donated by Teacher Lin,” Zhao Qi said.

“Who do you think contributed more if you were to compare Teacher Lin compared to those international students?”

Feng Jiadong was stunned. He stood rooted to the ground like a nail.

For a moment, he couldn't accept the change in Lin Yi's identity.

"He's that rich?!"

"He's more than rich." Zhao Qi said expressionlessly.

"Not only was the equipment in the lab donated by Teacher Lin, but even the Longxin Research Institute in Zhonghai also belongs to Teacher Lin. Many of our school's research projects were completed with the help of this institution. How can you compare those shit international students to Teacher Lin's contributions? Are you out of your mind?"

Feng Jiadong's face turned ugly. He'd never dreamed that Lin Yi would have such an identity.

Not only could he not touch him, with the current scale of the teacher's university, it was only right for them to treat him as their ancestor.

Beating up a few international students wasn't a problem at all.

"Principal Zhao, look what happened was a misunderstanding." Feng Jiadong immediately changed his attitude and said with a smile.

"Since we're all on the same side, let's forget about this. I'll go back and teach them a lesson."

After saying that, Feng Jiadong left the office.

After leaving the office, he heaved a sigh of relief as the suffocating feeling disappeared.

After Feng Jiadong left, Zhao Qi looked at Lin Yi.

"How do you want to deal with him, Teacher Lin?"

"I'm just a physical education teacher. I don't have the right to make decisions on this. Principal Zhao, you can decide for yourself."

Zhao Qi frowned slightly. Although Lin Yi didn't say anything, his words were enough to show his stance.

"Feng Jiadong's identity is different from Li Detian's, so I have to take it slow. This matter can't be rushed. It'll take some time before there's a result."

"Just do as you see fit. You're the principal, after all."

"Other than that, I don't want those foreign students to appear in the university anymore."

"That's not a problem, I'll deal with it seriously."

"Alright, that's it for now. It's already noon, I have to go eat."

Lin Yi stretched lazily and was about to go to the cafeteria to eat.

However, at that moment, he heard a scream.

"Molestation, molestation, Feng Jiadong molested a girl with a slender waist and long legs!"

Chapter 262: Love From a Female Student

“Molesting a female student?”

Lin Yi and Zhao Qi were both stunned.

What kind of trick was this?

Wasn't he moving a little too fast to go back and molest a female student right after leaving here?

With Feng Jiadong's IQ, he shouldn't do such a thing.

“Teacher Lin, let's go take a look.”

“Okay.”

Lin Yi and Zhao Qi pushed open the door and left.

They saw a large group of people gathered at the door of Feng Jiadong's office.

Most of them looked familiar to Lin Yi, and they seemed to be students from the same swimming class.

‘Why did they come here? Weren't you supposed to be watching the international students drinking the pool water?’

Lin Yi and Zhao Qi walked over and saw a girl sitting on the floor, wiping her tears.

She was wearing a suspenders skirt, and one of her shoulder straps had slipped down her arm. She looked a little messy.

“Teacher Lin, Principal Zhao, you have to take justice for me. If this gets out, I won't be able to live with myself anymore.”

Lin Yi, “...”

‘Sis, could you please be more serious when you cry? This was too fake.’

“Quickly record his ugly behavior and post it online. I want everyone to know his true colors.”

“Yes, yes, yes, post it on Douyin. People like him must be severely punished!”

“Even the privilege of international students must be exposed. People like him don't deserve to work in the school!”

Seeing that the students were filled with indignation, Lin Yi guessed that they couldn't take it anymore. Otherwise, they wouldn't have done such a thing.

“Feng Jiadong, you're going too far. It's one thing for you to speak up for the international students, but to turn around and bully your own students while calling me the black sheep. I think you're a real piece of sh*t.”

“What are you talking about? I didn't do anything. I just got back to the office, and she rushed in. She's clearly framing me!” Feng Jiadong said in a panic.

“Don't you know what kind of person you are? You even sneakily touched my hand before. I was one of the victims!” A girl said.

“Me too, me too. I failed three subjects last semester. He called me to the office and asked me to go out with him once so that I could avoid the make-up exam. But I didn’t agree to it.”

“Once, I saw him flicking his cigarette butt on the ground. He didn’t have any self-awareness as a teacher.”

“A few days ago, when I was in the cafeteria, I saw him flirting with the cafeteria lady. Then, she gave him a few more ribs. This is a typical bureaucratic style. There are even suspicions of female underlings who have unspoken rules with him.”

Feng Jiadong was already dumbfounded.

Even if I wanted to have unspoken rules, it would be with someone like Sugar. Why would I have unspoken rules with the cafeteria lady?!

Under the criticism of the students, all of the accusations surrounding Feng Jiadong was recorded on their phones.

Even the matter of not flushing the toilet was recorded.

However, there was no way to know whether it was true or not.

Feng Jiadong himself might not even remember whether he had done those things or not.

“Cough cough cough...”

Zhao Qi coughed a few times, and the chattering students stopped what they were doing and stopped shouting.

“Feng Jiadong, in view of your actions, I’ll suspend you temporarily. I’ll report everything that happened to the bureau. As for the punishment, you can wait at home for the news.”

Feng Jiadong was dumbfounded. He even felt like crying.

Although Zhao Qi didn’t have the right to fire him, he had no choice but to suspend him after such accusations had surfaced.

“I, I understand.”

When Feng Jiadong stepped into the elevator, a deafening cheer came from the corridor.

“He’s finally chased that old hooligan away.”

“I’ve always disliked him!”

“A person like him doesn’t deserve to stay in the university.”

As they cheered, more than ten girls surrounded him.

“Teacher Lin, are you alright? We were worried to death. Fortunately, I came up with such an idea in a hurry.”

“What’s there to worry about? If I was really afraid of him, I wouldn’t have gone against him.”

Zhao Qi’s mouth twitched. He hadn’t noticed it before, but now he realized everything.

If these female students went crazy, it would be even scarier than a nuclear weapon.

Sigh, being good-looking had its advantages.

“Alright, everyone, please disperse. No one is allowed to post the video you recorded just now on the Internet, got it?” Lin Yi said.

“Got it, Teacher Lin. We were just worried about you, afraid that he would make things difficult for you. That’s why we came up with this idea. As for the video we recorded just now, it will definitely not be leaked.”

“I’m relieved then. You guys go back first.”

“Okay.”

The men and women left one after another under Lin Yi’s arrangements.

The noisy corridor quieted down as well.

Ding dong.

The elevator door opened at this time, and a tall figure rushed out with two boxes in her hands.

Lin Yi glanced at her. She seemed to be Wang Ran, from swimming class.

“Teacher, Teacher Lin, are you okay?”

Wang Ran gasped as she stood in front of Lin Yi.

“Everything here is finished.” Lin Yi smiled. “If nothing goes wrong, Feng Jiadong will be fired. It’s a happy ending.”

“Oh, that’s great.” Wang Ran said. “Teacher Lin, this is for you.”

Lin Yi looked inside the first-aid kit that Wang Ran handed over. It contained some band-aids and iodophor.

“Why did you buy this?”

“I saw that your hand was injured during the fight, so I went to buy you some medicine.”

“Huh? Injured?”

Lin Yi raised his hand and saw that there was a small cut on his right hand that was half a centimeter long. There was some blood, but it had already stopped bleeding.

If Wang Ran hadn’t told him, he wouldn’t have even realized.

“You can keep the band-aid and iodophor. I didn’t even feel such a small cut,” Lin Yi said nonchalantly.

“It’s better to put on a band-aid. I’m afraid you’ll get an infection,” Wang Ran said softly.

“Alright then, I’ll do it myself.”

Lin Yi smiled as he took the band-aid and iodophor from Wang Ran.

“Bye, Lin. Thank you.”

Wang Ran bowed to Lin Yi before running away shyly.

“Hmm? What did I do? What’s there to thank me for?”

Lin Yi mumbled, “Is it because I stopped from wooing her?”

“Teacher Lin, I’m going back since I’m done here,” Zhao Qi said.

Lin Yi nodded and returned to the school committee’s office.

Sugar and the others stood up when they saw Lin Yi.

“Lin Yi, are you alright? Did Feng Jiadong give you a hard time?”

“He’s about to be expelled, what’s there to give me a hard time about?”

“Expelled?”

Lin Yi briefly recounted what happened just now, and Sugar and the others were in awe.

Wasn’t Lin Yi a little too strong?

He’d only been at the school for a little while, and he’d already gotten rid of two vice principals.

What kind of godly methods were these?!

Chapter 263: Far-Reaching Impact on Education

“Don’t look at me like that. I’m starving. Get me some food. I have basketball class in the afternoon.”

“Lin Bro, wait a minute. I’ll go get you some food now,” Song Jia said.

Lin Yi was depressed.

It was such a waste of a good class. It was such a pity that he needed to teach another class to make up for it.

As Lin Yi was having lunch, Sugar received a call from Zhao Qi.

“Got it, Principal Zhao. I’ll make an announcement now.”

“Okay, okay, okay. I understand.”

After finishing his business, Sugar hung up the phone and looked at Lin Yi at the same time.

“Why are you looking at me like that? This is an office and the walls aren’t soundproof.”

“What are you thinking about?” Sugar spat. “Principal Zhao called just now, saying that he wants to deal with those international students seriously, but he left the authority to do so to you. He said that you can decide how to deal with them.”

“What else is there to say? Just expel them.”

“Okay, I’ll make an announcement now.”

Lin Yi was eating the noodles that Song Jia bought for him. “There are other rules in the school that also apply specifically to international students, right?”

“There are indeed quite a few.”

“Cancel all of them. Who’s nurturing their bad habits and making them act like young masters?” Lin Yi asked.

“Normal University isn’t a good school, but they still have to have academic integrity. Tell them to stay as long as they can abide by these rules, and leave if they can’t.”

“Alright, I’ll get someone to make an announcement now. We’ll try to get this matter settled by tomorrow.”

“Okay.”

In less than half an hour, Sugar, Song Jia, and the others had already made an announcement.

When the announcement was made, it caused a huge uproar in the school forum.

Countless students supported it, forming an unprecedented scene of unity.

Because this announcement was the first of its kind, the significance and impact was huge.

To Lin Yi, coming to work at the school was just a mission given by the system.

However, Lin Yi himself didn’t know that an invisible move, like the butterfly effect, had a far-reaching impact on the entire education world.

In the afternoon, when Lin Yi went to basketball class, he was applauded by all the boys.

Although the welcoming ceremony was a little simple, it clearly expressed their respect.

“Stop with the platitudes, we still need to practice our basic training.” Lin Yi didn’t buy it. “Four sets, twenty each. Let’s start.”

“I shouldn’t have clapped if I knew this would happen.”

“If you don’t clap, you’ll run eight sets.”

Lin Yi didn’t return to his office after the first class. He went straight to the parking lot and prepared to go home.

“Teacher Lin.”

Lin Yi noticed that the person who spoke was Wang Ran.

Wang Ran was dressed simply. Her blue jeans and black floral sleeves gave her a vibrant and beautiful aura.

“Does your hand still hurt?”

Lin Yi was a little embarrassed because the band-aids and iodophor that she bought were useless to him.

“Uh, it doesn’t hurt.” Lin Yi smiled. “I put the band-aids and iodophor that you bought in my office. I’ll keep them for later.”

“Yeah, yeah, one will often get hurt in gym class. You can keep it for later.”

Lin Yi nodded. “Are you leaving?”

“I, I have something to do at home. I have to go home.”

“Perfect, I’m off work too. I’ll take you home.”

“No, no, no, it’s okay.” Wang Ran declined immediately. “I’ll take the bus myself. I won’t trouble you anymore.”

“What trouble?” Lin Yi said. “Do you think my car is a jelly?”

“No, no, I didn’t mean that. Don’t misunderstand, Teacher Lin.” Wang Ran explained.

“Then come on up. I have nothing to do.”

“Then I’ll have to trouble you, Teacher Lin.”

Lin Yi opened the door and the two of them got into the car together.

Wang Ran’s heart was pounding like a scared deer’s.

Teacher Lin had just arrived at school, so she should be the first girl to ride in his car, right?

Thinking of this, Wang Ran’s face turned red.

If her roommates found out about this, they would be very envious.

“Where is your home?”

“Shu Guang District on Anping Road.”

“I really don’t know where this district is. Please show me the way.”

“Yes, yes. Thank you, Teacher Lin.” Wang Ran said.

The two of them chatted casually along the way.

Wang Ran sat in Lin Yi’s car with her legs crossed. She didn’t dare to move at all.

Lin Yi could understand this. This was definitely the first time she had sat in someone else’s car.

Ji Qingyan was like this back then. She always had her legs crossed, but the first time she got in, she was wearing a dress. Thus, her outfit was much more eye-catching than Wang Ran’s.

Even so, nowadays, it seemed impossible for her to sit with her legs together.

She had even begun to take off her shoes.

“Teacher Lin, my home is too far. Why don’t I get out now?” Wang Ran said unkindly.

1

"It's fine. I have nothing to do when I go back. If I don't send you off, I have nothing to do."

"Thank you, Teacher Lin..."

Ring, Ring, Ring.

Just as Wang Ran was speaking, the phone in her pocket rang. However, Wang Ran did not pick up and hung up.

When she put the phone back in her pocket, the phone rang again.

Wang Ran hung up again this time.

Lin Yi's sharp senses noticed that Wang Ran hesitated for a moment before hanging up.

Lin Yi saw that it was an unknown number on the phone, but he didn't know who it was.

Wang Ran opened WeChat and searched for a person. She quickly replied with a few words before shutting the phone down.

After another twenty minutes, they arrived at Shu Guang District on Anping Road under Wang Ran's guidance.

Shu Guang District was an old district that had been around for more than thirty years. It was even older than the district that Lin Yi lived in before.

Since it was a residential building that used to support the factory workers' families, the living environment and internal structure here couldn't be compared to the current district.

It took more than ten minutes to drive from the main entrance to the residential area.

This was fine for an experienced driver like Lin Yi, but normal people wouldn't be able to drive around here.

"Teacher Lin, this is it. Thank you for bringing me back."

"You're welcome. You even bought me a band-aid and iodophor. We're even now."

"This is what I should do. Teacher Lin, don't be so polite."

"Okay." Lin Yi nodded. "You go up first, I'm going back too."

"Okay, bye, Teacher Lin."

After saying goodbye, Lin Yi took the lead and drove out.

It was hard to enter an old neighborhood like this, but it was even harder to get out. By the time he drove the car out, he could already see the red clouds in the sky.

After opening the window, the wind blew as Lin Yi drove toward Jiuzhou Pavilion.

However, at that moment, Lin Yi was surprised to see Wang Ran rushing over from the bus stop across the road. She got on the No. 89 bus that had just stopped at the platform.

“Aren’t you going home? Why are you taking the bus?”

Chapter 264: Only the Constitution Can Control Him

Lin Yi slowed down the car and only sped up as the bus drove away.

Lin Yi didn’t know why Wang Ran ran turned around and left when she got home, and he didn’t want to ask too much.

This wasn’t a school, and he didn’t have the right to probe.

Lin Yi didn’t go back to the Jiuzhou Pavillion after seeing ran Wang Ran off. Instead, he drove his Pagani around the track a few times before returning home satisfied.

The next day, Lin Yi wasn’t in a hurry since he only had one class today. He arrived at school at around nine o’clock.

He had just parked his car when Sugar called him.

“Where are you?”

Suger’s voice sounded a little anxious. Lin Yi felt that something was wrong. “I just arrived at school. Is there something you need me for?”

“Come to the principal’s office quickly.”

“Got it.”

Lin Yi didn’t waste any more time. He got out of the car and went straight to Zhao Qi’s office.

The moment he opened the door, he saw that the office was full of people.

Other than Zhao Qi and Sugar, the first people he noticed were George and Roca from yesterday. The other students were the ones he had beaten up as well.

Beside them were a few middle-aged foreigners. From their positions, one could see that they were parents.

“Lin Yi, come quickly.”

Seeing Lin Yi come in, Sugar pulled him to her side.

“You called me because of this?”

Sugar nodded awkwardly. If she and Zhao Qi had the ability to handle this, they definitely wouldn’t have made Lin Yi come over.

Unfortunately, because this matter involved foreigners, things became more delicate and sensitive.

“You scared me. I thought you wanted me to substitute for you again.”

Seeing Lin Yi’s calm expression, Zhao Qi couldn’t understand.

Why wasn't Teacher Lin afraid?

If this incident blew up, it would affect his reputation.

There would be no way for him to work in this field anymore.

"Teacher Lin, let me introduce you." Zhao Qi stood up and said.

"This is George's father, Mark. These are Roca's parents..."

"Alright, alright, there's no need for introductions. It doesn't matter who they are, they won't affect my performance." Lin Yi waved his hand nonchalantly.

"Father, he was the one who beat us up yesterday and forced us to drink the water from the pool. I'm suing him!"

"Don't talk, I've already found a lawyer and paid him a high commission. He'll handle this matter." Mark said.

"George, calm down. I'm your lawyer. I'll take care of this."

A middle-aged lawyer stood up, pushing his glasses up the bridge of his nose as he took out his business card.

"Hello, Mr. Lin. Let me introduce myself first. I'm a lawyer from Prosperity Law Firm. My name is Han Yue."

Lin Yi sat down on the sofa. "No need for the opening remarks. Let's get to the point. I have a class to attend later."

Han Yue's expression froze, his hand still holding out the card in the air. It was an awkward scene.

Sugar shook her head speechlessly.

It was not possible to make Lin Yi conform.

"If that's the case, then I have to remind Mr. Lin. If you don't cooperate, forget the class later, no one knows whether you can even stay in school or not."

"F*ck, that scary?" Lin Yi got up and quickly took Han Yue's card. "You can take my life, but you can't take leave my beloved teaching position. I won't be able to stand it if I don't see my cute students in the future."

"Haha..."

Han Yue straightened his back as he saw Lin Yi politely putting away his card.

"Teacher Lin is such a stubborn person. If I didn't use a legal tool, I really wouldn't know how to deal with him..."

Rip!

Lin Yi took Han Yue's card and tore it into pieces on the spot. "You're right, the quality of your card is pretty good. It will take quite a few tears to rip it up properly."

“You!”

Han Yue’s expression froze and his body trembled in anger. He didn’t think that Lin Yi would do such a shameless thing!

“What about me?” Lin Yi asked curiously.

“I’m just tearing a business card. Are you going to sue me? is tearing a business card against the law? When did this rule come out? How come I don’t know about it?”

Sugar stood at the side and couldn’t help but laugh.

When it came to a person like Lin Yi, no one could control him except for the constitution.

“Mr. Lin, you can disrespect me, but...”

“I have to say, you’re pretty self-aware.” Lin Yi laughed. “You can see that I don’t respect you. Don’t doubt yourself. Be confident, I’m definitely looking down on you.”

“I mean, you don’t have to respect me, but you...!”

“Alright, alright, I really don’t respect you.” Lin Yi said. “You don’t have to emphasize it anymore.”

Han Yue gritted his teeth in anger. This was the first time he had seen such a scoundrel in his twenty years of practice!

“If you continue like this, I’ll sue you for assault. You’ll have to pay for my mental damage!”

“With your looks and figure, you’re not on the same level as me. Do you think you’re worthy of me attacking you?”

Han Yue clenched his fists and gritted his teeth.

“I don’t want to waste any more time with you. Let me tell you, you intentionally beat up a foreign student at around 10:20 am yesterday. Today, I accepted the client’s invitation and officially accepted the case!”

“I did beat him up, but they molested a student from the university and even urinated in the swimming pool. How are we going to settle this?” Lin Yi said,

“Fortunately, there were only six of them. If there were two more, I would have thought that the eight-nation alliance had attacked again.”

“I’m sorry, I’m their lawyer. I’m only in charge of their litigation.”

“Tsk tsk tsk...”

Lin Yi smiled and shook his head. “Actually, I’m quite surprised. After all, you’re Chinese. How could you do such a thing?”

“It’s because I’m Chinese that I have to do such a thing!” Han Yue said righteously. “China’s international image is being tarnished by you people. If it weren’t for me...”

"F*ck your image," Lin Yi cursed. "The China's international image is crafted by real weapons. It has nothing to do with you. You really know how to flatter yourself."

"You don't have to admit that I'm useful, but I did try my best in this area."

It was as if Han Yue was already aware of Lin Yi's shameless personality and knew that he wasn't his opponent in this regard. Thus, he said seriously,

"Mr. Lin, I don't want you to avoid the important matters. Please respond to our demands!"

"Alright, that's all you have to say." Lin Yi said. "Just tell us what you want to do."

"You're scared, aren't you?" Han Yue narrowed his eyes.

"Our demands are very simple. You have to compensate the medical fees and mental damages for the six students, a total of 3.29 million dollars. We also want you to apologize to the entire school in front of the teachers and students. In addition, we also want the school to compensate the six students."

Chapter 265: Take Care of a Guy Named Han Yue

Zhao Qi and Sugar didn't think that they would ask for compensation in this form.

This was too much!

"You guys even want a public apology?" Lin Yi smiled. "I can't believe guys have already learned how to do that. Who gave you the courage to ask for this?"

"This is for our mental compensation!" Roca said.

"You idiot, can't you stop for a while? You've already been stuffed like a Christmas Turkey yet you want to speak up. Where did you get the balls to do so?"

After being scolded by Lin Yi, Roca didn't dare to say anything.

"Mr. Lin, please don't threaten my client." Han Yue straightened his back. "I've already made my request. I hope you can respond."

"You guys are asking for a lot." Lin Yi said. "Let's talk about it one by one."

"Sure. Everyone is equal before the law. Let's talk about it slowly. I'm a professional lawyer. I can slowly discuss things with you."

"You said you want me to pay 3.29 million, right?"

"That's right, and immediately!"

"No need to emphasize it. I have plenty of money. I can afford it."

Lin Yi raised his head and glanced at George, Mark, and the others. "I can provide you with the money, but do you dare to accept it?"

"Why not?"

Mark pointed at Lin Yi's nose. "I've tolerated you Chinese people for a long time. I won't accept a single cent less!"

"You're so awesome that you dare to point your finger at me," Lin Yi said.

"Do you have the confidence now that I'm willing to talk you?"

Mark's Chinese wasn't very good, and he wasn't a match for Lin Yi.

He could only express his emotions with anger, and he spoke in a voice that was close to a roar:

"I'm telling you, paying this amount is already considered merciful."

"F*ck you!"

Lin Yi slapped Mark in the face, sending the latter flying towards Sugar!

Ah!

Sugar jumped in fright, running to the side with a scream and giving Lin Yi a reproachful look.

Why didn't you slap him somewhere else? If he hit me, he'd probably have broken my bones.

"Father!"

"Mr. Mark!"

George and Han Yue ran over to help Mark up.

Everyone was stunned.

Why did he hit him?

Didn't he think it through?

"Su... Director Su, what should we do? This is going to blow up." Zhao Qi was anxious.

He didn't know Lin Yi as well as Sugar, so he hoped that Sugar could think of a solution.

Sugar shrugged and showed a helpless expression.

"It's useless to say anything now. If I had a Sugar, I would have already done it."

"Ah..."

Ma Ke was helped up. His mouth was covered in blood, and it looked as if two of his teeth had fallen out. He pointed at Lin Yi and roared,

"I, I'm going to sue him!"

"Don't worry, Mr. Ma. I'm a professional lawyer. I'll handle this properly. You have to believe me."

Han Yue looked at Lin Yi coldly.

"Mr. Lin, we were asking you to compensate us with 3.29 million. That was the price before. Now that you've beaten up my client, our amount has changed..."

Bang!

Lin Yi didn't waste any more words and kicked Han Yue again. "I've been pissed at you for a long time. That kick was so satisfying."

This time, the unlucky one wasn't Sugar, but Zhao Qi's desk.

"Oh my, my mahogany desk!"

"You, you dare to hit me? I'll sue you until you're broke!"

"That's a bit difficult!"

Lin Yi looked at the others. "Don't you want compensation? Give me a number and I'll fulfill your request."

George, Roca, and the others stepped back subconsciously, not daring to speak anymore.

If they had known earlier, they would have called the police when they arrived. He wouldn't have dared to be so bold if the police were here!

"Lin Yi, let me tell you, it's useless even if you beat us up. When I get out, I won't let you go!" Han Yue pointed at Lin Yi's nose and scolded.

"I'll make you regret what you did today!"

"Don't worry, I'm a law-abiding citizen. I'll pay for it."

Lin Yi sat down on the sofa and dialed Qin Han's number.

"Old Lin, what do you want from me? I have something to talk to you about."

"Wait a minute." Lin Yi said. "Call your people from Sino-Han Capital's legal department. I want to ask them something."

"Sino-Han capital?!"

Han Yue was a little confused. Who was this guy?

He actually knew people from Sino-Han Capital?

Their legal department wasn't to be trifled with!

"How did you know I was in the company?" Qin Han mumbled. "Wait a minute, I'll bring them here now."

Everyone in the office held their breath, not even daring to breathe.

Who would have thought that something like this would happen.

After about half a minute, someone spoke on the phone,

"Hello, Mr. Lin. I'm Zhao Teng, the director of the legal department of Sino-Han Capital. Is there anything you want to consult us about?"

Zhao Teng?

Lin Yi muttered in his heart. The last time he went to Sino-Han Capital, their legal department director went by a different name.

He probably got fired by Qin Han.

"It's not that big of a deal," Lin Yi said. "I just want to ask, how much is the compensation for serious injury?"

Hearing the word 'serious injury', Han Yue, Mark, and the others shivered.

What the hell was he trying to do?!

"Mr. Lin, from a legal point of view, the word 'serious injury' is very broad. I really can't give you a specific number," Zhao Teng said with a bitter smile.

"You have to give me a description of the other party's current condition."

"His current condition is pretty good. I'm going to make a move later," Lin Yi said. "It's the kind of condition where he'll be on his last breath."

"If that's the case, it'll be between 5 million to 10 million."

"I see. That's not a lot," Lin Yi said with a smile. "It should be enough if I withdraw 100 million to beat up a few more people."

"Mr. Lin, listen to me. Offering monetary compensation is the best option. If the other party doesn't agree to a private deal, then you'll have to face jail time."

"Ah ah ah, if that's the case, then things will be a bit difficult."

"Don't worry, Mr. Lin. Our Sino-Han Capital legal department is a professional team. Even if the other party is severely injured, we can still minimize the court's sentence. We still have confidence in that." Zhao Teng said confidently.

"Not bad, not bad. Very professional."

"Old Lin, what the hell are you doing?" Qin Han interrupted.

"The guy will already be seriously injured. Why are you still thinking so much? You have money but nowhere to spend it. Just arrange for a car accident and kill him directly."

"F*ck, you're even more f*cking ruthless."

"That's why I said that you need to have experience and money. If he dies, you just have to pay a few hundred thousand. If he survives, it'll be a bottomless pit. The amount of money you have to pay will be astronomical. There's no need to go through this at all."

"But I need to deal with a few foreigners."

"Several foreigners. If you want to run into them, you'll have to arrange for a big f*cking truck," Qin Han said.

“There shouldn’t be anyone around you, right? Give me their information later and don’t worry about it. I’ll arrange it for you.” Qin Han said

“Alright, it’s settled then. I’ll send you the photos later,” Lin Yi said.

“Oh right, there’s a guy named Han Yue among them. Take care of him when the time comes.”

“Eh? The truck is already awesome enough. Why do you want to pay special attention to him?”

“F*ck, can you help me drive over him a few more times?”

Chapter 266: You Can’t Just Lose Money. Repent!

“If you say so, I understand,” Qin Han said.

“Just say the word. I’ll definitely help you take care of him. After I’m done, I guarantee that even his own mother won’t be able to recognize him.”

“That’s the effect I wanted.”

“Alright, send me the other party’s information first. I’ll go prepare a car now.”

“Okay.”

After hanging up, Lin Yi took out his phone and turned on the camera.

“Come, come, come. Everyone, fix your hair. Don’t make it too weird. If the driver can’t recognize you and bumps into the wrong person, it’ll be awkward.”

Zhao Qi’s face turned pale. Teacher Lin looked harmless, but he was too ruthless in the dark.

The first thing he did was to seriously injure and then target the person with a car accident. He was scared to death!

“What, what are you doing?!”

Han Yue and the others retreated into a corner, their faces pale.

“Didn’t my friend say that he was going to get someone to kill you all?” Lin Yi said.

“If we kill all of you, we’ll only pay around 10 million, while if you’re left with serious injuries, we’ll be forced to pay even more. It’s not worth it.”

Pffft!

Han Yue and the others almost vomited blood. ‘You’re taking human lives for granted!’

“I, I’m telling you, calm down. You know the people from Sino-Han Capital, but I have to remind you that Sino-Han Capital is the property of the famous Emperor of Zhong Hai, Qin Han. If you cause trouble and bring shame to the Qin family, you won’t be able to get away with it!”

“Uh... you’re right.” Lin Yi pretended to be troubled. “But the person I called just now was Qin Han. There shouldn’t be too much of a problem now, right?”

“W-what did you say?! The person you called was Qin Han?! You two know each other?!”

“Of course we know each other. We’re old friends.” Lin Yi smiled. “His methods are much better than mine.”

“Don’t, don’t do that. Let’s slowly discuss this. There must be a misunderstanding.”

Han Yue almost peed his pants. Qin Han’s influence in Zhong Hai wasn’t something he could afford to provoke!

“Mr. Han, is that Qin Han really that powerful?” Mark asked.

“He’s not just powerful, he’s f*cking powerful!”

If he had known earlier that this man was so close to Qin Han, he wouldn’t have taken the case even if he had killed himself!

“What other misunderstanding is there? Haven’t we already clarified everything?” Lin Yi asked.

“The first issue regarding the compensation has been settled. Now, it’s time for the apology.”

“It’s okay to apologize. I’ll go to the broadcasting room later and regrettably apologize to you in front of the whole school.”

“As for the academic dismissal, that is even easier. I’ll tell Principal Zhao and it’ll be done in a matter of minutes.”

“No, no, no. We won’t ask for compensation,” Mark said. “Let’s forget about this matter. It’s my Son’s fault. It’s all our fault.”

“That’s not very good. I was obviously the one who beat you up, but you’re saying that it’s your fault. It’s as if I’m bullying you. Aren’t you slandering my reputation?”

“No, no, we didn’t mean that,” Mark said quickly. “You didn’t beat us up at all. We hit ourselves.”

Sugar and Zhao Qi were speechless.

Even this kind of coercion could work.

Wasn’t Teacher Lin a little too black-bellied?

“If that’s the case, I will just barely be able to believe it.” Lin Yi said. “Still, there are other debts we have to talk about.”

“Okay, okay, okay, go ahead.”

Lin Yi looked at George and the others. “What should we do about you guys peeing in the school’s swimming pool?”

“We’ll pay, we’ll pay.”

“You’re quite sincere.” Lin Yi nodded. “But you scared Director Su when you nearly knocked into her just now. What should we do about that?”

“Did I scare her?” Mark asked, confused by Lin Yi’s trick.

“Yeah, look at her pale face and blank eyes. It’s obvious that she’s scared. Are you trying to deny it?”

Sugar rolled his eyes at Lin Yi, thinking to herself, “They’re the ones in shock. Their whole family’s in shock.”

“This, this can’t be my fault. You were the one who sent me flying.”

“I sent you flying?” Lin Yi asked meaningfully. “Didn’t you just admit that you hit yourself? How could I send you flying?”

Mark’s heart skipped a beat. “Right, right, right. You didn’t hit me. I jumped there myself. I’ll pay for it.”

“That’s more like it.”

Lin Yi turned to look at Han Yue. “When you crashed over just now, you bumped into Principal Zhao’s mahogany desk. What should we do about this?”

“I, I’ll pay for it too...”

Han Yue wanted to die. He just wanted to earn some extra money. He didn’t expect to be scammed like this!

“Looks like you all have come to the realization that you’ve made a mistake. I won’t say anything more,” Lin Yi said.

“I won’t demand too much either, just pay 3.29 million. The price is fair and honest, and I can even give you an invoice. Isn’t that nice?”

Nice my ass!

You were the one who was supposed to pay us that money, so why are you asking for it yourself?!

The Chinese people were too much!

“No problem, no problem. We will definitely pay it,” Mark said. “Now, can we leave?”

“Of course you can go, but there’s something I have to remind you of.” Lin Yi said.

“Don’t you foreign devils all like to pray to God after doing something wrong? Do you want to pray for God to forgive your sins now?”

“Of course, you can do it if you want, but I don’t know if God will forgive you. He might just send a truck over to pick you up as soon as you leave the school and have tea with him in the sky.”

1

Sugar could not help but laugh, such that even her two mountains shook.

It was the first time she had heard of God drinking tea.

“Yes, yes, yes. We’ll repent. We’ll definitely repent,” Mark said hurriedly. “We’ll go to the church now and repent for our actions.”

“That’s right. Seeing that you’re so sincere, I think God will forgive you.”

“Yes, yes, yes, we’ll go now.”

“Lin, Mr. Lin, I believe in Buddhism. Is there no need to repent?” Han Yue asked tentatively.

“Of course there’s no need if you believe in Buddhism,” Lin Yi said. “But you’d better be careful when crossing the road, because you don’t know which comes first, tomorrow or the truck.”

Han Yue shivered. “I don’t believe in Buddhism, but I believe in God now. I’ll go with them to repent in the church later.”

Lin Yi looked at his watch. “I think it’s about time. The students have finished their classes. You guys can go now.”

“Yes, yes, yes. We’ll go now.”

At that moment, there were many men and women standing outside the principal’s office.

In the morning, they saw George and his group on campus. They heard that there was a lawyer amongst them, so the students guessed that they were here to cause trouble.

Therefore, after class, they all ran over.

“Little Ran, do you think Teacher Lin will be okay?” A short-haired girl asked.

“I, I don’t know,” Wang Ran said nervously. “I hope Teacher Lin will be okay.”

“D*mn those foreign devils. If they dare to bully Teacher Lin, I’ll scratch them!”

“Let’s not talk about this now,” Zheng Jiarui of the basketball team said. “They even found a lawyer. Things are not going to be easy.”

Everyone was aware that a lawyer was here. This was definitely no longer a trivial matter.

Moreover, the other party was a foreigner. If such a sensitive matter was not handled properly, it could easily lead to big problems.

Creak...

The office door was pushed open. All the students raised their heads and looked over.

“What, What’s going on? Why are they coming out covered with bumps and bruises?”

Chapter 267: The Game in the Office

The men and women stared at each other, feeling as if they were hallucinating.

Weren’t these people here to cause trouble for Teacher Lin?

How did they end up like this?

Why was Teacher Lin still laughing and talking?

“Teacher Lin, did they make things difficult for you?” Wang Ran asked.

"I'm fine, I'm fine," Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Then, then what happened to them? Teacher Lin, did you get into another fight?"

"No, I just kicked them a few times... F*ck, my AJ6 is broken, I'll make them pay for it!"

George and the others arrived at the school's playground under the watchful eyes of the crowd, who were loudly criticizing their actions.

The incident had caused a sensation throughout the school, and all the teachers and students who were passing by had come to watch the show.

Although they didn't know the whole story, they had already guessed that this incident had something to do with Lin Yi.

The students on the campus were all celebrating since they were finally taking care of these damn foreign students.

However, the teachers at the school weren't so simple-minded.

Lin Yi had only been at the school for a few days, and he'd already gotten rid of two vice-principals and a professor.

And now, even these international students had been subdued by Lin Yi. No one would be his match in the future!

In order to avoid unnecessary onlookers, Lin Yi and the people from the school committee office went to a barbecue shop outside the school to finish their lunch.

"When we go back in the afternoon, draw up some guarantees and get them to sign it. We don't need any more trouble."

Lin Yi said as they ate.

"Okay, got it."

"Lin Bro, you're too good. If I get bullied in the future, I'll come to you for help," Song Jia said.

"Sure, if I can help, it'll be no problem," Lin Yi said with a smile.

"Oh right, Lin Bro, when I came out of the office just now, I saw that female student named Wang Ran. She seemed to be very concerned about you. It's only been one class, and she's already got her heart set on you, right?" Song Jia said with a smile.

"Why did you change the subject?" Lin Yi said with a smile. "You make it sound like I came here to pick up girls."

"I just wanted to ask about your relationship," Song Jia said with a smile. "If it's a good relationship, then I'll handle it as I see fit."

"Huh? What do you mean by handle it as you see fit?"

"Yesterday afternoon, the director of the school sent a report to the school committee, canceling Wang Ran's national scholarship." Song Jia said.

"The scholarship was canceled? Did you hear the reason?" Lin Yi said. "Usually, there's no way to cancel a scholarship, right?"

"I really don't know the details. You have to ask Sis Su."

Lin Yi looked at Sugar when he heard this.

"I talked to the dean of the School of Economics. Dean Mao said that Wang Ran missed 12 classes this month, and she only had leave slips for six of them. She didn't have an excuse for the rest." Sugar combed her hair and said.

"The teacher talked to her, but she didn't listen. In a fit of anger, he canceled her scholarship, but the documents are still with me. I want to wait for a while."

"Wait? The teacher from the economics department isn't wrong, right? People who miss classes consecutively don't have the right to keep scholarships," Lin Yi said.

"That's true." Sugar said.

"But I know that Wang Ran's family isn't that rich. Although the national scholarship isn't much in our eyes, it should be quite a big source of income to her. I still want to give her a chance."

"Give her a chance? We have to be fair. If she makes a mistake, she has to admit it. If she gets beaten up, she has to stand up straight. She won't change, yet you still want to give her a chance. Is that fair to the other students?"

"Calm down," Sugar said.

"I'll talk to her when I get back. If she remains stubborn, I'll make a decision."

Lin Yi picked up a piece of roasted kidney and put it into his mouth, making his lips drip with oil.

"By the way, can you contact the dean now? Help me see which classes she skipped."

"Not now. It's noon break. I'll call the dean in the afternoon and ask. We can't annoy them."

"Okay."

Lin Yi picked up another big kidney. "Li Bro, there's two more, one for each of us."

"No thanks, I'm already so old. It's useless to eat this. You're still young, so you should have it." Li Xingbang declined.

Li Xingbang had the shyness of a scholar. He was too embarrassed to eat this in front of his colleagues.

"Lin Bro is single now. It's useless to eat this stuff," Song Jia said.

"Why is it useless?" Lin Yi said.

"It's okay to prepare for rainy days," Shi Li said. "But eating too much of this stuff will end up tiring you out."

Lin Yi, "..."

A young woman was more daring than a young girl!

"Don't worry, it's inappropriate to use my hands. You guys even prepared the office for me. Do you think that's just for decoration?"

"Huh?"

Everyone at the table looked at Sugar as if they all understood.

Sugar opened her eyes wide, took off her high heels, and kicked Lin Yi under the table. "What nonsense are you talking about?"

"Sister Su, don't try to hide it. We already know," Shi Li said meaningfully.

"Huh? What do you know?"

Shi Li put down her chopsticks and described the situation vividly.

"Every time you're in the office, the room is very quiet. Once Lin is in the office, strange sounds will often be heard."

"Strange sounds?"

Sugar was confused, and so was Lin Yi.

What kind of strange sounds could there be?

"That's right, hurry up, hurry up."

"Are you dying? I'll give you some milk to help you recover."

"You're amazing, you're amazing..."

Lin Yi's face flushed red. They were playing a game!

"Well, I heard it one morning when I was at work, and it was quite loud. I went out and didn't dare to reenter the office," Li Xingbang said.

Under the table, Sugar kicked Lin Yi again. "Hurry up and explain."

"We'll be quieter in the future."

Sugar, "..."

Please shut up!

"No, no, no, no." Song Jia said. "Don't hold it in. You have to have fun."

"Then we won't keep it in the future. Playing games is meaningless if we don't shout while having fun."

Sugar heaved a heavy sigh of relief. This sounded like a reasonable sentence.

“That’s right. It’s no problem for you and Sister Su to let go of yourselves during the game,” Song Jia said. “Moreover, it’s exciting to do so in an office.”

“That’s right,” Shi Li continued, “I was wondering why Director Su has been looking for me to go shopping recently. Moreover, she always buys a lot of stockings. It turns out that she needs them when she goes to work.”

Sugar, “...”

She wouldn’t be able to clear her name even if she jumped into the Yellow River.

Chapter 268: What Should I Play If I Don’t Play Games? Play You?

A simple lunch ended with laughter.

Lin Yi didn’t go anywhere because there was still a taekwondo class in the second period of the afternoon. He went back to his office.

“Sis Su, Sis Li and I have something to do, so we won’t be in the office this afternoon. I’d like to ask you for a leave of absence,” Song Jia said.

“Director Su, I have something to do at home too, so I’d like to ask you for a leave of absence,” Li Xingbang said.

The other teachers in the office followed suit.

Sugar glanced at Song Jia and the others.

“What the hell are you guys doing?”

“We’re afraid that we’ll delay your and Lin Bro’s business. As subordinates, we have to be aware.”

“What are you talking about?” Lin Yi said before Sugar could respond.

“Isn’t it bad if we stay here?”

“What’s not good about it?” Lin Yi asked. “The thrill comes from the risk. If you all leave, it’ll be the same as going to a hotel.”

Li Xingbang, “You young people have so many tricks up their sleeves.”

“Lin Yi, do you believe that I’ll strangle you to death?”

“Then you can play by yourself in the future. Don’t ask me to accompany you.”

Sugar was terrified at the mention of the games.

It was just a misunderstanding. If he didn’t invite her anymore, he’d be tortured to death by others in the future.

“Go, go, go. Go back to work. Whoever asks for leave today will have their pay deducted.”

Everyone went back to their desks and continued working.

Lin Yi and Sugar also went back to their office.

Sugar didn't stay idle. She called the dean and was about to ask about Wang Ran.

At the same time, Lin Yi called Qin Han.

In the morning, he said that he had something to ask him.

"Can you hurry up? I've already contacted my driver, why haven't you given me the information? When are you going to do it?" Qin Han shouted as soon as the call was connected.

"I've already settled everything in the morning." Lin Yi smiled.

"Didn't you say you were looking for me this morning? What's the matter?"

"Nothing much." Qin Han said.

"I have your Lykan, right? I'm almost done driving it. I was thinking of getting you a drink tonight and giving the car back to you."

"If you like it, you can keep it. I have a lot of cars, and I don't need this one."

"That won't do. It's like I'm asking you for a car." Qin Han said.

"If you really want one, just buy one back for me. I won't stand on ceremony with you." Lin Yi said.

"F*ck off, there's no way."

"Alright, come out tonight. Go to Metropolis on Aijian Road. Call me when you get there." Qin Han said.

"Alright, I'll come over after work." Lin Yi said.

"See you then."

Lin Yi put down his phone after hanging up.

At that moment, Sugar walked over to the printer and took out a few pieces of paper.

"These are Wang Ran's truancy records. Take a look for yourself."

Lin Yi nodded as he took the few sheets of paper from Sugar.

He didn't think much of it at first, but he realized that her truancy rate was quite interesting.

Most of them were focused on the last class in the afternoon, and a few were on the first class in the morning.

The second class in the morning and the first class in the afternoon didn't show any records of truancy.

What was more interesting was that the classes that Wang Ran missed weren't targeted at any particular subject. She missed almost every single one of the classes held at the aforementioned time.

Lin Yi looked down and found that Wang Ran had missed another class the night before.

However, when he saw her at the school gate yesterday, she seemed to have said that there were no more classes.

After he dropped her off at home, she had rushed to the bus stop and left.

Judging from the time difference, she probably didn't even return home and went straight to the bus stop.

This was a little suspicious.

Lin Yi tapped his finger on the table without saying a word.

Sugar sat opposite him, quietly looking at Lin Yi, waiting for his opinion.

If he insisted on canceling Wang Ran's scholarship, Lin Yi wouldn't be able to protect her anymore.

"Beep beep, pew~"

Hmm? I was waiting for your decision, but you're playing games now?

If you weren't thinking about this matter, why did you pretend to be so serious!

"Why are you still playing games?"

"My class is during the second period. There are still more than 40 minutes before class ends. If I don't play any games, I'll play with you..."

"Sister Su..."

At the same time, the office door was pushed open. Song Jia stood rooted to the ground with an awkward expression on her face.

"I'm... I'm fine now. Sorry to bother you, but you guys can continue playing as if we're invisible. Our hearing isn't good, so we can't hear anything."

"Lin Yi, I told you to stop spouting nonsense! Now you've made them misunderstand again, and I can't explain this away even if I wanted to."

Suge pounced on Lin Yi like a tigress descending the mountain.

Lin Yi finally understood when he saw the two mountains that were just inches away from him.

So this was what crashing into mountains meant!

After about half a minute, Sugar realized that something was wrong. The casual touch made her blush.

"Are you thinking about Wang Ran?" Sugar changed the topic.

"Not really," Lin Yi said matter-of-factly. "She's an adult now. She can do whatever she wants. We don't have the right to interfere with her life."

"Are you sure you don't want to do anything?" Sugar said. "I think she cares about you."

"What are you talking about? There are plenty of women who care about me, and she's not one of them."

“What about the scholarship?”

“Deal with it according to the rules.”

“Is there no room for negotiation?”

“Yes, in this university, no one has special privileges except for me,” Lin Yi crossed his legs and said pretentiously.

“Don’t go into the game yet. I’ll join too. The two of us can kill everyone together.”

Lin Yi played a game with Sugar before heading to the gym for class.

It was 4:30 pm. After class, Lin Yi drove to meet up with Qin Han.

However, he didn’t go to Metropolis. Instead, he went to Huaqing Lake.

Qin Han had previously said that this place wasn’t bad, so Lin Yi was going to get him a membership card. After all, he owed him a lot of favors.

Huaqing Lake was bigger than Lin Yi had imagined, and it was probably the biggest the largest of its kind in Zhong Hai.

The security guard at the door froze when he saw Lin Yi’s Shari.

A Shari didn’t normally show up at a place like Huaqing Lake.

“Manager Ma, are we going to receive this Shari guy?” The security guard asked.

The female manager pondered for a few seconds. “Just receive him normally. We’re just workers. Don’t look down on him. He’ll leave on his own if he can’t afford it. We don’t need to say anything more.”

“Okay.”

The female manager walked over with a smile when she saw Lin Yi get out of the car.

“Sir, are you coming alone?”

“I want to get a card.” Lin Yi didn’t waste any time and told her the purpose of his trip.

“Get a card?” The female manager was stunned. She hadn’t even started her sales pitch yet, so why was he taking the initiative to get a card?

No wonder he didn’t mind driving a Shari that looked like that. It was obvious that he was an experienced patron!

“Can’t I get a card? This is such a big store, so surely you have these facilities.”

“That’s not what I meant.” The female manager explained, “What type of card do you want to get? If it cost more than 1,000, you get 100 free, and...”

“An imperial set.”

“Ah? An imperial set?” The female manager was surprised. “Sir, the imperial set is the best card in our store. The price is 188,000...”

“Yeah, two.”

Pfft!

The female manager and the security guard almost dropped their jaws when they heard that he wanted two cards. This was close to 400,000!

You’re already so rich, so what’s the point of driving a Shari?!

“Alright, Alright, please come in. I’ll get it for you right away.”

Ten minutes later, Lin Yi took the two golden membership cards and left with satisfaction.

“It’s not bad. Come and have some fun when you have time.”

After getting the cards, Lin Yi went to Metropolis, which Qin Han had talked about.

In terms of scale, although Metropolis wasn’t small, but it also wasn’t amongst the largest in Zhong Hai. Even so, after the renovation, it was a unique place.

Qin Han’s visit here was also in line with his status.

As for his car, it was parked at the entrance. It occupied the most eye-catching spot and was surrounded by cones. It was extremely high-profile.

It was unknown whether it was because the car was too good or because of Qin Han’s status that he could receive such treatment.

“Look, isn’t that red sports car a Lykan Super 7? It seems to sell for more than 60 million dollars.”

“Don’t point your fingers at it, that’s the Emperor of Zhong Hai, Qin Han’s car.”

“So it’s Qin Han’s car. No wonder it’s so high profile, even taking up two parking spaces.”

“That’s for sure. This car sells for over 60 million. Who else in Zhong Hai can drive such a good car other than Qin Han?”

Lin Yi couldn’t help but laugh when he heard the others’ discussions. It was a misunderstanding after all.

“Mr. Lin.”

Lin Yi walked to the door and saw Liu Yinxi walking over.

“Why are you standing outside?” Lin Yi said with a smile when he saw Liu Yinxi.

Lin Yi had a good impression of this burly man because he had taken care of two issues with him.

“Young Master Qin knew that you were coming, so he sent me over to wait here.”

“Tell him not to play tricks next time. I’m not an outsider. There’s no need to do this.”

“Understood, Mr. Lin.”

Liu Yinxi was secretly impressed by Lin Yi.

He owned a Lykan and Koenigsegg, yet drove a beat up Shari. Mr. Lin was no ordinary person.

When they reached the third floor, they could hear the noise and screams of the women inside the room.

“Is this guy playing a multiplayer game inside?”

Liu Yinxi pushed the door open and Lin Yi saw two other boys inside, but they looked unfamiliar. He had never seen them before.

However, there were other familiar faces inside. Lina was there too.

Even so, she and the other tall women were all wearing bikinis and holding beer in their hands. They were twisting their bodies crazily, each wave higher than the other.

“Lin Bro, you’re here. We were waiting for you.”

Lina took the initiative to hold Lin Yi’s arm and rub it against her body.

“I just finished class, so I’m a little late.”

“Old Lin, come, come, I’ll introduce you to a few friends,” Qin Han called out, pointing at the slightly chubby boy.

“This is Liang Jinming. Xinhua Airlines in Zhong Hai belongs to his family.”

Qin Han pointed at the other person and said, “This is Gao Zongyuan. Long Teng Machinery belongs to his family, and they produce cables. The cables used on aircraft carriers are all their products.”

“Hello, Brother Lin.”

“Hello, Brother Lin.”

The two of them reached out their hands at the same time, very enthusiastic.

The man in front of them was incredible. After all, not every rich second generation could lend Qin Han their car to drive around.

“Nice to meet you, nice to meet you,” Lin Yi said politely. “Let’s have a nice drink later.”

He wasn’t going to anger these smiling gentlemen. He needed to keep up a good attitude.

“Okay, okay, okay.”

They sat down, and Lin Yi handed the membership card to Qin Han. “The imperial set from Huaqing Lake. I just went to get it for you.”

“F*ck, you really went.” Qin Han laughed. “You’re the best.”

“You’re welcome.”

Lin Yi laughed as he pointed at the girls in the room. “Did you find all of them?”

“No, I didn’t.” Qin Han said. “I brought Lina, and the rest were given to me by Baldy.”

“Baldy?”

“What kind of memory do you have?” Qin Han mocked.

“It’s that Liu Qiang you beat up a few days ago. He and Yao Donglai opened up a parlor recently, and he insisted that I come over to have fun. He even arranged for these people to entertain me. I heard that they’re all college students. Just take whoever you like. They’re all clean.”

“No, I don’t like that kind of thing.”

“Haha, I knew it.” Qin Han laughed. “These girls are good in every way except for their motherf*cking youth, haha...”

Qin Han put his arm around Lin Yi’s shoulder. “I remember that you hooked up with a woman named Guo Rui. She seems to be the vice president of the Zhong Hai Literary and Sports Association. She’s pretty good, right?”

Liang Jinming and Gao Zongyuan were stunned.

Brother Lin was too awesome. He could even hook up with the vice president of the f*cking Literary and Sports Association?

“Don’t say that. She’s a married woman.”

The two of them were even more confused. They were completely impressed.

A married woman?!

A master!

“Alright, I understand.” Qin Han laughed loudly.

Creak...

Just as the two of them were talking, the door of the private room was pushed open. Two tall women in miniskirts walked in with red wine and fruit plates in their hands.

“Sir, your wine and fruit plates...”

They stopped mid-sentence. The lady holding the fruit plates stared at them nervously.

“T-Teacher Lin, why are you here?”

Chapter 269: 10,000 Dollars Per Cup. Drink up

The person carrying the fruit plate was none other than Wang Ran.

Lin Yi noticed her the moment she walked in, but he didn’t say it out loud.

Qin Han and the others were stunned. Did he meet someone familiar?

Why did she call him Teacher Lin?

Lina, who was standing at the side, tactfully turned off the sound system in the room because she felt that the atmosphere in the room didn’t seem right, and she needed to calm down.

“Old Lin, is this your student?” Qin Han asked curiously. “She’s really pretty.”

“She’s a student from the university. I taught her class,” Lin Yi said lightly.

“Lin, Teacher Lin, I, I...”

Wang Ran clutched her skirt and was about to cry. Her words were stuck in her mouth, but she didn’t know what to say.

“This isn’t a school. You don’t have to call me teacher,” Lin Yi said.

“What a coincidence,” Qin Han said. “Since we’re on the same side, sit down and have a drink with us.”

Qin Han took the red wine and filled up the two rows of glasses.

“Since you’re Old Lin’s student, I’ll be more generous today. Ten thousand per glass, I’ll give you as much as you want.”

“Ten thousand per glass!” Lin Yi said

Hearing this number, all the women except Lina were in high spirits.

Young Master Qin was different. He was too generous!

“Lin, Teacher Lin...”

Wang Ran was scared by Qin Han and didn’t dare to say anything. She looked at Lin Yi for help.

“You won’t even drink for ten thousand per cup? Are you crazy?” Lin Yi said.

“Qin Han asked you to drink it because he’s giving you face. He has a bad temper. Don’t make him unhappy.”

“I, I...”

Wang Ran was scared to tears. She never thought that Lin Yi would say something like that.

“I’m sorry, I don’t know how to drink...”

“You don’t know how to drink?” Lin Yi said lightly. “If you don’t even know how to drink then what are you doing here? If you don’t drink, then don’t come here.”

Qin Han didn’t say anything from the beginning to the end.

Others might not know, but he could tell that Lin Yi wasn’t in a good mood.

“Lin... Teacher Lin, please don’t file a complaint against me... ...”

Wang Ran wiped her tears and looked at Qin Han. “Qin... Young Master Qin, will you really give me 10,000 dollars for a drink?”

Qin Han took out a checkbook, tore off a page, and pushed it in front of Wang Ran.

“You can count how much you want to drink, and then write down a number yourself.”

Wang Ran's body trembled, and she shook as she squatted on the ground. She picked up the wine cup on the table, closed her eyes, and drank it in one gulp!

Cough, cough, cough...

The pungent smell of wine was poured out the moment it entered her mouth.

Wang Ran's face was red from holding it in. She clutched her chest and coughed non-stop.

"You're vomiting after drinking? What's going on?" Qin Han said.

"Young Master Qin, don't be angry. This cup doesn't count. I can still drink."

Wang Ran wiped the wine stains from the corner of her mouth. She picked up another cup and drank it in one gulp.

This time, she covered her mouth tightly and drank every last drop.

Cough, cough, cough...

After drinking a cup of wine, Wang ran felt that her windpipe and stomach were on fire. It was a fate worse than death.

After about half a minute, Wang Ran climbed back to the drinks table, picked up another cup, and drank it in one gulp!

It seemed to be better this time, and there was no longer any fear of the wine on Wang Ran's face. She stared at it like it was her enemy.

After drinking another cup, Wang Ran covered her mouth again, afraid that a drop would spill out.

Qin Han frowned slightly and glanced at Lin Yi next to him. He noticed that Lin Yi was expressionless, so he didn't say anything else.

BARF!

Wang Ran couldn't hold it in any longer when she reached the fourth cup. She pushed her hands on the ground and threw up all the wine and food she had eaten.

"Boohoo!"

Wang Ran broke down at that moment. She covered her face and wept as she wailed.

Qin Han gave Lina a look, and Lina understood. She wrote in 40,000 dollars on the check and handed it to Wang Ran.

"That's enough for now. Let's go."

"I... I can still drink. Young Master Qin, don't go..." Wang Ran said.

Qin Han waved his hand. "You didn't drink much but already threw up. How are we supposed to play? Let's go."

"I, I know..."

Wang Ran walked out of the room with the check in her hand, but she glanced at Lin Yi before she left. Lin Yi wasn't looking at her, so she left quietly.

"Old Liu, follow her. Don't let anything happen to her," Qin Han said.

"Got it, Young Master Qin."

Liu Yinxi left, and Qin Han looked at Lin Yi.

"Old Lin, what's going on?" Qin Han asked. "What's this girl's relationship with you?"

"I'm not going to say anymore. She's a student at the university." Lin Yi said

"She isn't somebody normal, or you wouldn't be so angry."

"At the end of the day, she's one of his students. The nightclub isn't a good place for her to be hanging around. I guess Brother Lin's anger comes from this," Lina said.

"You're so sentimental. Why do you care so much?" Qin Han said.

"She's already an adult. She can do whatever she wants. Don't tell me you will still care about her for the rest of her life."

"That's why I didn't care. Otherwise, I wouldn't let her drink."

Qin Han laughed. "Old Lin, that's what I like about you. You know what's good for you. I'm not as good as you. Come on, keep drinking. Old Liu is keeping watch outside, nothing bad will happen to her."

"Yeah, keep drinking."

Lin Yi took a sip, and his expression returned to normal.

Ring, Ring, Ring...

At that moment, Qin Han's phone rang. It was Liu Yinxi.

"Young Master Qin, can you come out for a moment? I met a few troublemakers outside."

"F*ck, wait here. I'll come over now."

Qin Han stood up abruptly after cursing. "Brothers, follow me out to take a look."

"What's wrong?" Lin Yi asked.

"Old Liu met a few hooligans. I'll go out and see what's going on."

"Don't act so surprised. You guys continue drinking in the room. I'll go out and take a look."

"Can you handle it? What if you get hurt?"

"Who's going to hurt me?"

"Then I won't worry about you. Let's continue drinking."

"Okay."

Lin Yi got up and walked towards the door.

Outside the door, about twenty meters away, Lin Yi saw a large group of people gathered at the bathroom door. Most of them were shirtless and covered in tattoos.

Liu Yinxi supported Wang Ran as they were surrounded in the middle.

“Mr. Lin, you’re here.” Liu Yinxi said when he saw Lin Yi walking over.

Wang Ran looked at Lin Yi guiltily and lowered her head, not daring to say a word.

“What’s going on?” Lin Yi said in a low voice.

“After we came out of the room, I took her to the bathroom. However, I met these people when I came out.” Liu Yinxi said.

Lin Yi glanced at the people around him. “What, you guys want to be gangsters?”

“Bro, look at you, do you still want to stand up for this woman?” The bald man in front said.

“You got a problem with that?”

“Of course I do,” the bald man said.

“She’s the number one girl in Metropolis. I’ve already told Old Liu that she’ll be drinking with us in our room later. What’s the deal with you guys keeping her here now?”

Lin Yi nodded. “Tell Liu Qiang to come over and speak to me personally. If he agrees, I’ll let you take her away.”

Chapter 270: Young Master Qin Borrowed His Car

“What, you don’t believe me?”

The bald man laughed coldly, “Let me tell you, Old Liu and I have a life-and-death relationship. There’s no need for me to lie to you guys.”

“It’s fine, call him over. I’ll listen to what he has to say.” Lin Yi said.

“You want me to call him over? You think my, Gao Tian’s, face is so worthless?” The bald man said.

“I don’t have time to fool around with you. Give her to me quickly, I want to take her away.”

“I’m really sorry, I’m afraid I can’t do that.”

“F*ck you, you don’t know who I am, do you...”

PFFT!

Before Lin Yi could do anything, Liu Yinxi pulled out a fruit knife from his pocket and thrust it at Gao Tian!

However, Liu Yinxi's stab was perfectly controlled. It hit Gao Tian's thigh, which ensured it was non-lethal. It was obvious that he was a veteran.

"So fierce?!"

Lin Yi was surprised. He felt sorry for sending a fierce man like Liu Yinxi to deal with Liu Mei.

This was the biggest insult to his career.

He had to buy him a drink when he had time.

Blood gushed out from Gao Tian's thigh, and he collapsed to the ground. He clutched his leg, unable to stand up.

Ah!

Ah!

Ah!

Screams rang out in the bar. The men and women who came to vent their desires had never seen such a scene before.

The frightened birds and beasts scattered and hid far away, but they all secretly looked in the direction of the commotion

Humans were such strange animals. They were obviously scared to death, but they couldn't resist the temptation to see what was going on.

"F*ck you, you dare to attack our boss? I'll chop you to death!"

Liu Yinxi held a bloody dagger and looked around at everyone like a ferocious wolf.

"Whoever dares to move, I'll stab to death!"

Liu Yinxi, who absolutely ruthless, scared all of Gao Tian's subordinates so much that they didn't dare to move.

"Brat, you guys are really fearless. You even dare to touch me, Gao Tian."

Gao Tian gritted his teeth and sneered, "I, Gao Tian, have lived for so many years, but I have never suffered such a big humiliation. Let me tell you clearly, if I don't break one of your legs today, my surname won't be Gao!"

"What the f*ck are you all standing there for? Hurry up and call Old Liu over. I must cripple them today!" Gao Tian turned his head and scolded.

"Got it, Tian Bro!"

"There's no need to call, we're coming!"

A low voice rang out from behind the crowd. The crowd opened a path and they soon realized that the people coming over were actually Liu Qiang and Yao Donglai!

“Old Liu, I’ve taken a liking to this woman. These two little b*stards are taking advantage of others and not giving me a chance. Help me break both of their legs and teach them a lesson!”

“Old Gao, we’ve known each other for quite a few years. Let me give you a tip. If you don’t want to die, just stay there obediently. Otherwise, you won’t even know how you died.”

Liu Qiang’s words scared Gao Tian so much that he trembled.

“Old Liu, what do you mean?”

“The Emperor of Zhong Hai, you should know who that is, right?”

“The famous Young Master Qin, who doesn’t know?”

“Let me tell you, the guy who stabbed you just now is Young Master Qin’s bodyguard, so you didn’t get stabbed unjustly.”

“Secondly, the guy standing in front of you is Mr. Lin Yi, Young Master Qin’s good friend. He’s even more powerful than Young Master Qin. You’re lucky that he only stabbed one of your legs today. Even if he stabbed you to death, you wouldn’t have the right to complain.”

Gao Tian and his men were all dumbfounded.

No one had expected that this handsome man in front of them would be so capable.

He was actually on the same level as Young Master Qin!

The women not far away looked at Lin Yi with shining eyes.

That man’s looks were even better than the stars in the movies, and he had a background that wasn’t inferior to Young Master Qin!

This man was perfect!

They were in love.

Liu Qiang stood respectfully in front of Lin Yi.

“Mr. Lin, how do you want to handle this? It’s all up to you.”

“I don’t care about this. Go ask Qin Han in the room and let him handle it.”

Lin Yi looked at Liu Yinxi after finishing his sentence.

“Go back and tell Qin Han that I’m leaving first. I’ll treat him to a drink when I’m free.”

“Got it, Mr. Lin.” Liu Yinxi said.

“But you were drinking in the room just now. I’ll arrange for someone to take you back.”

“No need. I didn’t drink too much. It won’t affect my driving.”

“Sure. Don’t worry if you run into any robbers. Young Master Qin has the connections to handle everything.”

“Okay.” Lin Yi patted Liu Yinxi’s shoulder.

“Come to meet me in a few days. I’ll be leaving today.”

“I’ll send you off.”

“No need, go back to the room and continue playing with them.”

With that, Lin Yi left along with Wang Ran.

Following closely behind were some people who were watching the show.

It was rare to see such an awesome person, and he was so handsome. They had to take a few more looks at him to really burn his image into their heads.

“Lin, Teacher Lin, I’m sorry...” Wang Ran said shyly.

“This isn’t the place to talk. Let’s talk when we get back.”

Wang Ran didn’t dare to speak anymore. She stood beside Lin Yi in a daze, forcing herself to walk.

As the two of them left, the people behind them who were watching the show started chattering non-stop.

“I’ve been coming to Metropolis a lot these days. The woman by Mr. Lin’s side is the number one hostess here. As long as she’s available, she’ll be constantly pouring wine. It’s only been a month, and she’s already taken down. Sure enough, there aren’t any difficult women, just inferior men.”

“Boss Liu said that this man has the strength to be on equal footing with Young Master Qin. What kind of car do you think a person like him would drive?”

“I really don’t know about that. But I dare to bet that it cost more than ten million. Otherwise, it wouldn’t be worthy of his status.”

“I think so too. Cars like Lamborghinis and Porsches are not worthy of his attention.”

At that moment, the people who were watching the show had already reached the door and saw a red Lykan sports car parked there.

“F*ck, look, it’s Lykan Speed 7. I heard that it’s sold in China for 66 million dollars. It’s such an honor to see it here today.”

“I guess that Lykan is his car. With his status, it’s perfect for him to drive around.”

At the same time, Lin Yi took the car keys and walked over to the Shari. He opened the car door and was about to leave.

“F*ck, no way. He’s driving a Shari? It’s not even as good as my car.”

“Boss Liu, are you mistaken? Are you sure a person driving a Shari is on the same level as Young Master Qin?”

“That’s possible. There aren’t many rich second-generation heirs like Qin Han in the whole of China, and there aren’t many people who can compare to him. It’s not easy to be on the same level as him.”

“You’re all wrong. When I came to Metropolis, I happened to see Young Master Qin. This red Lykan was driven by him, not that man.”

“Now that the truth is out, Boss Liu must just be bragging.”

At this moment, a clamor came from the entrance of the bar. Everyone looked back and found that it was Qin Han who had brought his people out.

Everyone made way for Qin Han when they saw him come out. No one dared to stand in his way.

“Old Lin, wait a minute. Don’t go yet.”

“Anything else?”

“I invited you here today to return your car. I haven’t given you the car keys yet.”

Qin Han handed the car keys to Lin Yi.

Everyone was stunned when they heard that.

The famous Young Master Qin actually borrowed Lin Yi’s car?
