

I Get A Random New Occupation Every Week

Chapter 16

“Damn, it’s actually a Pagani!”

“Looking at the interior of the car, it seems to be the Pagani Zonda. This car seems to be worth more than 20 million. An ordinary rich second generation cannot afford to drive it!”

“And look, the driver is so handsome! He’s definitely a rich second generation!”

Seeing the comments in the live broadcast room, Xia Xinyu’s lips curled up as she said,

“Now you should believe it. You know what a luxury car is, right?”

Xia Xinyu felt proud in her heart. You guys always look down on me. This time, I will definitely turn things around!

“A nouveau riche 666.”

“I suspect that this is a car that the host rented herself in order to increase her popularity. She even found a handsome driver along the way. It’s just to attract attention. She must have spent a lot of money,” said a troll in the live broadcast room.

2

“Are you crazy? This is the Pagani Zonda. It costs more than 20 million dollars each. There are only a few cars of them China. Who would be willing to rent it out? Do you think it’s a garbage car like Mercedes-Benz or BMW?”

3

“How is that not possible? There might be dirty deals in private.”

Xia Xinyu almost exploded in anger when she saw the troll’s message.

In this era of the internet, there were all kinds of retards.

1

I’m not the kind of model with curves. How could I attract such a rich second generation?

2

Why didn't he think before he spoke?

This guy was definitely a loser who hated the rich and the handsome!

Even so, Xia Xinyu did not kick them out. If he stayed here, he would still contribute to her popularity.

1

When she could not take it anymore, she could kick him out again.

This streamer was too humble.

"Yi Bro, there's a parking space in front. Let's park there," Xia Xinyu pointed at the empty space in front.

"I see it. Don't worry."

As one of the most luxurious shopping malls in Zhong Hai, people came to Times Square every day.

Many people, like Xia Xinyu, had their eyes on the only empty space available.

However, when they saw Lin Yi's car approaching, they didn't dare to move.

If they weren't careful, they wouldn't be able to afford offending this figure even if they sold their bodies off!

1

"Hubby, there's an empty seat in front. Go over quickly. If you're any slower, you'll be robbed."

A woman in a low-cut short skirt said as she sat in a Porsche Panamera.

"Go to Hell." The middle-aged man next to her scolded. "That's a fucking supercar. Who dares to fight with him!"

"Supercar?" The woman in the front passenger seat was stunned. "So what if it's a supercar? This is also a sports car. Why should we let him win?"

"Idiot, that is a Pagani Zonda. Its price is more than 20 million. My car is only worth just over a million. In front of that car, it's not even worthy to be called trash. You want me to compete with him for the parking space?"

"That car is actually more than 20 million?"

The woman in the passenger seat was instantly horrified. Before she came to Zhong Hai, she heard everyone say that there were many rich people in Zhong Hai. Now, she finally saw it for herself.

2

Thinking of this, the woman in the passenger seat rolled her eyes. She still had to use all her strength to find a richer man.

A person driving a mere Panamera was just too poor to be worthy of her!

4

After parking the car, Xia Xinyu was a little stunned.

She still remembered the scene of the car parking.

Upon seeing Lin Yi's car driving over, everyone else's cars didn't dare to move.

Was this the ability of money?

"Wait, don't go yet," Lin Yi said.

"What's wrong?"

"Good review."

"Oh, Oh, I remember now, I'll do it now," Xia Xinyu said in a fluster.

Because Lin Yi only said 'good review', the people in the live broadcast room didn't understand what was going on and didn't think of him as someone who drove for Didi.

Soon, Lin Yi heard the system's notification sound.

[Mission completed. Obtained 200,000 experience points.]

[Job completion: 35%. Reward: One Zhong Hai International Racetrack, Master level driving skills!]

4

"Zhong Hai International Racetrack?"

Lin Yi had a slight impression of the place the system mentioned.

It seemed to be the most luxurious racetrack in Zhong Hai, and even in all of Huaxia.

Some people even said that it was the best racing venue apart from the Abu Dhabi racetrack in the Middle East!

Lin Yi didn't know if the rumors were true or not, but it was definitely the number one track in all of China!

He didn't expect it to become his business today!

It was unbelievable just thinking about it.

Ring, Ring, Ring...

Lin Yi's phone rang at this time. It was an unknown number.

"Hello," Lin Yi said.

"Hello, President Lin. I'm the manager of Zhonghai International Circuit, Zhou Haitao. Since you've just bought all the shares of our circuit, I have some procedures here, and I'd like to hand them over to you."

"I don't have time at the moment. I'll be there in the afternoon. Will this time be convenient?" Lin Yi said politely.

"Of course, of course. I'll be here all the time except for my official holiday on Sunday."

"Okay, see you in the afternoon."

Lin Yi did some calculations in his mind. It wouldn't take long for him to go around to buy his daily necessities. He estimated that he would be done by the afternoon.

Moreover, the system rewarded him with master-level driving skills. It would be a waste if he did not go to test them out.

"Yi Bro? What are you thinking about?"

Seeing that Lin Yi was in a daze, Xia Xinyu asked tentatively.

"Nothing, let's go now."

"Yi Bro, what do you want to buy?" Xia Xinyu asked after getting out of the car.

"I want to buy some daily necessities, clothes, and anything that suits me."

1

"Oh, oh."

Xia Xinyu was a little nervous. This was her first time coming to such a high-end mall.

The things were so expensive that it was shocking. It wasn't a place for commoners like them to wander.

Lin Yi looked around inside the mall and saw the apple store not far away.

4

"Let's go there first. I want to change my phone."

2

Lin Yi's phone was only a domestic phone that cost just over a thousand, and it was already starting to lag. It would be easier for him to take orders if he changed his phone now.

"Okay."

The two of them went to the apple store together. The clean lobby, bright lights, and all kinds of new equipment displayed on the counter made the entire store feel high-end.

"Sir, do you see any products that you like? I can introduce them to you," the salesgirl greeted politely.

Lin Yi pointed at the Apple iPhone 11 Pro Max on the counter and said, "Help me pack this up. I need 512gb of memory."

Xia Xinyu and the Salesgirl were stunned. A phone worth more than 10,000 dollars was bought just like that?

8

"Okay, please wait a moment."

"Wait, wait."

Xia Xinyu stopped the salesgirl and pulled Lin Yi aside.

"Yi Bro, it's not worth it for you to buy it here."

"How is it not worth it?"

"The phones in the store are all at full price. If you buy them online, you can get at least 1,000 dollars cheaper."

“There’s no need since I’m already here. I’m too lazy to buy them online. I’ll just get them early and enjoy them early.”

1

Lin Yi walked back as he spoke. “Help me pack it up.”

“Okay, please wait a moment.”

Because of Lin Yi, Xia Xinyu’s popularity reached over five million, five times more than the usual!

“It’s so good to be rich. Even the salesgirl was stunned. She probably wanted to give herself to him.”

“As long as one is rich, you are fated to be with anyone you want!”

“You poor people. Do you think someone is rich just because they bought a phone that costs more than 10,000 dollars?” The troll asked.

“A few days ago, a friend of mine bought the same phone, but he wasn’t as high-profile as him. Hehe...”

“F * ck, it wasn’t you who bought it, so why are you acting so pretentious? What the f*ck? Hehe, you f*cking baseless accuser.”
