

I Get A Random New Occupation Every Week

671 The Latest Reward

The moment the garage door opened, the live stream went silent.

The barrage of comments that were like a fountain just now seemed to have calmed down at this moment.

Everyone's eyes were fixed on the black sports car.

Many of the viewers were car fans, so they recognized the car at first glance.

Without a doubt, this was the world's limited edition, the La Voiture Noire, worth 126 million!

The silence in the live broadcast room lasted for about a minute.

Then, the chat exploded like a nuclear weapon.

The speed of the comments was so fast that it was impossible to see what they were saying.

"It's really the La Voiture Noire, a divine chariot worth 126 million!"

"Brother Mask is awesome. He can even get such a car!"

"Haha, trolls, don't you feel embarrassed? This is the consequence of looking down on Brother Mask!"

"I'm impressed. I can't afford to offend this big shot!"

"A wave of subscriptions."

"Brother Mask, don't just stand here. Show us up close."

Lin Yi was about to speak when Zhang Xiaoyu stopped him and said to the camera,

“The popularity of the live stream has already exceeded 750,000. Everyone, work hard and help share it. When it reaches 1 million, we’ll follow Brother Mask in and see the charm of this divine car worth 126 million up close.”

It had to be said that Zhang Xiaoyu was quite professional when it came to live streaming.

If it was Lin Yi, he would have immediately brought them closer.

After looking at the car, the live stream would end.

His popularity would not be able to rise to the next level.

This was the difference in experience.

At the same time, gifts and comments flooded the live stream.

Coupled with the constant influx of spectators, his popularity soared and soon exceeded 800,000 points.

During this period of time, Zhang Xiaoyu was not idle either.

She brought the audience in the live stream along as she strolled around Jiuzhou Pavilion.

“What exactly does Brother Mask do? He actually knows such a rich friend. I’m really impressed.”

“Didn’t Brother Mask say it himself? Jiuzhou Pavillion and the La Voiture Noire are both his. Why don’t you believe him?” Zhang Xiaoyu said.

“Think about it carefully. Someone who can buy a unit in Jiuzhou Pavilion and the La Voiture Noire must be at least a rich second-generation heir like Qin Han. At that level, will he still bother to do live streams?”

“That’s right. Even if there is a live stream done by a rich second-generation heir, he would be surrounded by people. Why would he ask you to do a live broadcast with him?”

“Damn, your words are too hurtful.”

After laughing and scolding, Zhang Xiaoyu felt that what the netizens in the live stream said made sense.

There were indeed many rich second-generation heirs in Huaxia who liked to watch live streams.

If they saw a pretty girl, they would give her some money and invite her out to play.

However, she had never seen someone doing a live stream alone.

Therefore, what the netizens said was also possible. This might be his buddy’s house, which was why he had the right to enter and leave so freely.

“You guys don’t have to worry about if this house and car belong to Brother Mask. To be able to enter Jiuzhou Pavilion and bring you guys to see the limited edition La Voiture Noire is already very impressive.”

“That’s right. Brother Mask is still very awesome. I’ve already followed him. In the future, I want to watch every one of Brother Mask’s livestreams.”

“I’ll create a fan group later. If you’re interested, you can follow it. If anyone wants to watch any live streams, you can discuss it in the group. With Brother Mask’s ability, he’ll definitely show you more interesting and fun things.”

“No problem, I’ll definitely join it as soon as possible!”

Just as Zhang Xiaoyu was chatting with the netizens, the system notification sounded in Lin Yi’s mind.

[Mission completed. Reward: 200,000 proficiency points.]

[Profession Completion: 30%, Lucky Card (Time Limit: 20 minutes)]

“Another Lucky Card?!”

Lin Yi liked the lucky card reward very much, and this one lasted for twenty minutes.

Including the previous one, he now had a total of two. A total of 30 minutes was not bad.

At the very least, he could save his life at a critical moment.

Just like during the operation on Yang Guangxia.

“Brother Mask.”

Zhang Xiaoyu walked over. “The popularity of your live stream has already exceeded one million. You can start the next stage of the live stream.”

“Let’s go.”

Lin Yi brought Zhang Xiaoyu to the garage.

Observing the La Voiture Noire at such a close distance, the people in front of the screen started to drool.

“This front lip, these lines, I love it.”

“I feel that one tire from this car is enough to buy a house in my neighborhood.”

“This is f*cking inhumane. I’m so bitter!”

“Brother Mask, can you go out for a test drive?”

Lin Yi shrugged. “I haven’t registered it yet so I can’t drive it. I’ll drive it in a few days.”

With Lin Yi’s status in Zhonghai, even if he didn’t have a license plate, it wouldn’t be a problem for him to drive this car out.

However, this was a new car, so it was better for Ji Qingyan to be the first to sit in it.

No one thought too much about Lin Yi's words.

It was already very rare to see such a supercar.

Seeing it go for a test drive was something that could be randomly enjoyed but not asked for. It could not be forced.

After the live stream ended, Zhang Xiaoyu put away the live stream equipment and said with a smile,

“Boss, today's live stream was a huge success. You're a newbie, but you're able to gain a million popularity points on your first live broadcast. This is very rare. In the future, when you do your own live stream, you won't lack viewers.”

“Thanks for your help.”

“Why are you making a big deal about me helping?” Zhang Xiaoyu said, “You tipped me 500 super rockets. It's only right that I help you.”

“Don't worry about those super rockets.”

Zhang Xiaoyu looked around. “Boss, it's getting late. Let's go too. It's not good for us to stay in such a high-end area.”

“This is my home. What's so wrong about it?”

“Huh?”

Zhang Xiaoyu's expression was exaggerated. “Is this really your home?”

“Otherwise, why would the security guard at the door let me in?”

“If that's the case, is that La Voitaire Noire really yours?”

“It's just a car worth a little more than 100 million. You don't need to act so shocked, right?”

Zhang Xiaoyu almost vomited blood. “Boss, please give us poor people some leeway. If I had a hundred million yuan, I wouldn’t be doing live streams anymore.”

“Look at how you’re behaving.”

“But I’m really curious. You’re handsome and rich. Why did you come to the live stream?”

Although Zhang Xiaoyu had the same question before, she didn’t know that Lin Yi was so rich.

He was this rich, but he still wanted to live stream. Moreover, he did it seriously. This was very strange.

“Is it strange?”

“Of course it’s strange. It’s absolutely puzzling behavior. I’ve never seen a rich second-generation heir come out to live stream.”

“The reason why they don’t play like this is because they haven’t reached my level yet,” Lin Yi said.

“In other words, they’re probably not as rich as me.”

672 I’ll Let You Have Your Fun Today

“Um...”

“Now that you explain it, I understand. The others don’t live stream because they’re not rich enough.”

“That’s exactly what I mean.”

Zhang Xiaoyu chuckled. “Brother Lin, I won’t disturb you since your house is here. I’ll get going first. If there’s anything, let’s contact each other on WeChat.”

“Let’s go. I’ll drive you.”

“No need, no need.” Zhang Xiaoyu said, “I left my best friend behind today. I’ll go and have a meal with her later to comfort her broken heart.”

“Alright then.”

After chatting for a while, Lin Yi returned to Villa Number One.

He looked at the time and realized that it was almost four o’clock. Other than that, there was an unread message from Liang Ruoxu.

Opening WeChat, Lin Yi started a video call with Liang Ruoxu.

After a few rings, Liang Ruoxu picked it up.

“What’s the matter, Beauty Liang?”

It was during working hours, so Liang Ruoxu was dressed in a gray uniform.

Her hair was tied up, and her makeup was slightly old-fashioned. She looked very mature.

“You’re at home?” Liang Ruoxu asked after seeing the background behind Lin Yi.

“Yeah.”

“What’s wrong with your restaurant? Did it close?”

“Yes, I quit.”

Liang Ruoxu was silent for a few seconds. Lin Yi probably had his reasons for doing this.

After what happened, he probably didn’t have the mood to continue.

“Then what are you busy with now? Are you going back to work at Lingyun Group?”

“What are you talking about? Didn’t I say before that I’ll never return to the company for the rest of my life?”

Liang Ruoxu smiled. “Then can you tell me what you’ve been busy with recently?”

“Live streaming.”

“Ah? Live streaming?” Liang Ruoxu said.

“Do you have nothing better to do? There are so many things going on with Longxin, but you actually have the mood to do live streams. I really admire you. Can you focus on something serious?”

Lin Yi, “You don’t understand my good intentions at all.”

Liang Ruoxu, “How would I know if you don’t tell me?”

Lin Yi, “I wouldn’t have to say it at all if you really understood me.”

Liang Ruoxu, “Don’t you think I’ll understand you best if you just tell me?”

Lin Yi, “What’s the point of saying it? You should understand even if I don’t say it.”

Liang Ruoxu: “I’m not a fortune-teller, I know what you are planning.”

Lin Yi, “I’m not planning anything.”

“Lin Yi, do you believe that I can seal Huaqing Lake forever if I give the order?”

“Calm down, you might bring forward your menopause.” Lin Yi laughed. “What’s the matter?”

“It’s nothing serious. Brandon’s case has been settled. He’s being tried in Huaxia. I’ve already been informed by the relevant departments, and he’ll be given the death sentence.”

“Alright,” Lin Yi said quietly, “Did you run into any trouble?”

“Actually, I didn’t play much of a role here. Zhao Wen helped with most of it.”

“Zhao Wen?”

Liang Ruoxu nodded. “The research and development center project has been ongoing for a month. The work was all completed on the eve. It will be officially established in a few days.”

“That soon?”

“We have a ready-made place here. The only things that need to be moved are the outer walls and the interior renovations.” Liang Ruoxu said.

“I wanted to implement this project first before asking the government for money to kickstart a bigger project. Therefore, I’ve been in contact with Zhao Wen more recently. She accidentally found out about this matter and secretly helped out. Consider it a favor.”

“Zhao Wen is really smart. She did everything flawlessly.”

“She’s indeed very impressive. Your Lingyun Group can’t find many like her.”

“You’re wrong. Our Old Qi is also very impressive,” Lin Yi said. “Zhao Wen might not be his match.”

“I know Qi Xianzhao. He’s the kind of person who’s actually smart but merely seems stupid. He’s not bad at all.” Liang Ruoxu swept her hair to the side and said.

“There’s something else I want to ask you. The research and development center is almost done with its preparations. It’s going to be listed soon. When Uncle Chen comes over, will you drop by?”

“Do you need me?”

“No, it’s just the formal matters,” Liang Ruoxu said. “If you come, it’ll enhance your image.”

“My image is positive enough. I don’t need all this hypocrisy.”

“If this was the opening ceremony of Huaqing Lake, you’d go, right?”

“The situation would be different.” Lin Yi said, “I’m an honorary member of that club. I would have to go.”

“I really don’t know what to do with you.” Liang Ruoxu combed her hair. “Alright, I’m getting off work. I’m not going to bother talking to you anymore. Bye.”

Lin Yi got up and stretched lazily. He looked at the time and realized that it was already 4:30 pm. It was time for Ji Qingyan to get off work.

Lin Yi took the car keys and sat in the driver’s seat.

The interior of the car followed a new design language.

There were many differences from the other Bugatti models, but there were also certain details that adhered to the original design philosophy. If one did not pay attention, it would be difficult to notice.

After stepping on the accelerator, the La Voiture Noire, like a pitch-black beast, let out a roar that resounded throughout Jiuzhou Pavilion.

For most men, it was a pleasure to hear such a noise.

He started the car and drove to Chaoyang Group.

However, he did not call her in advance. It had been a long time since he had last picked her up from work, so he quietly went over to give her a surprise.

Apart from that, Lin Yi also brought along the live stream outfit to maximize the sense of mystery.

This would make things more interesting.

When Lin Yi drove to the parking lot, he happened to see Ji Qingyan walking out of the elevator with her handbag and high heels.

During this time, Ji Qingyan did not notice that there was a black behemoth in the parking lot. She took out her phone from her bag.

Ring!

Lin Yi's phone rang.

"What are you doing?"

"I'm at home."

"I'm off work. Is there anything you want to eat? I learned a few dishes and am prepared to show them to you."

"Don't cook today. You're so busy with work. Let's go out and eat."

"That's fine. I want to eat out as well."

"Think about where you want to go. I'll see you at the restaurant."

"Do you know where I'm planning to eat? Is that all I have to say?" Ji Qingyan smiled.

"Of course, science shows that when two people are together for a long time, they will have a telepathic bond. No matter where you go, I will be able to sense it. I can follow the magnetic field and radio waves between the two of us to be able to find you."

Ji Qingyan covered her mouth and chuckled. "You're just spouting nonsense. Why don't I sense the magnetic field between the two of us?"

"That means you don't feel the same toward me. Not as strongly as I do."

"Nonsense again."

“When I get there, if you don’t appear in front of me within ten minutes, it’ll be considered your loss. Be a gentleman in the future and don’t tease me for no reason.”

“What if I do find you?”

“I’ll let you have your fun today.”

673 The Project Was Blocked

“Are you sure about this?”

“Hmph, since when did I, Ji Qingyan, ever go back on my word?”

Even though Ji Qingyan had already gotten into her car, Lin Yi could still imagine her proud expression.

“Then it’s settled.”

“Let’s wait until you find me.” Ji Qingyan said, “Remember, I’ll only give you ten minutes. If you can’t find me then, don’t say that I’m bullying you.”

“It won’t take ten minutes. Five minutes will do.”

“Tsk, keep bragging.” Ji Qingyan said, “I’ve already thought of a place to eat. Let’s set off now. I want to see how you find me. Hmph.”

“Let’s go.”

Soon, she ended the call.

Then, there was the sound of her car starting up. The white Maserati drove out of the parking lot, and Lin Yi followed behind quietly.

If it were someone with experience in criminal investigation, they would definitely notice that someone was following them.

However, it was a different story for Ji Qingyan.

Inside the car, Ji Qingyan was extremely pleased with herself.

It took about ten minutes to drive from Chaoyang Group to the restaurant.

However, if they were to set off from Jiuzhou Pavilion, they would need at least half an hour to arrive.

Even if Lin Yi knew where she was, he wouldn't be able to get there in ten minutes.

Therefore, he would definitely lose!

Hmph, hmph, from now on, don't even think about teasing me!

Ten minutes later, she stopped in front of a Sunrise Land restaurant.

Coincidentally, it was the same Yifeng Hall that Lin Yi had eaten at in Yangcheng.

Entering the restaurant, Ji Qingyan booked a private room, but she was in no hurry to order. Instead, she called Lin Yi.

"I'm already here. Didn't you say that there's a special connection between us? If you can't find me, let's see how you explain it."

"I despise you despicable people the most."

"Really?" Ji Qingyan smiled smugly.

"I'm actually very low-key. It's mainly because you're too arrogant. You even said that you could find me within ten minutes. Slightly... Beep, beep, beep..."

Halfway through her sentence, she realized that the call had been ended.

"Why did you hang up?"

Muttering under her breath, Ji Qingyan did not take it seriously. She looked at the time on her phone and realized that six minutes had passed.

“Hmph, I’ll just stay here and see how you find me.” Ji Qingyan waved her small fists. “If you can’t find me, I’ll deal with you when I get home...”

Creak...

Just as she was immersed in her fantasy, the door to the private room was pulled open.

To his surprise, she saw a person wearing a mask, sunglasses, and a baseball bat standing in front of her.

“You... who are you?!”

Lin Yi smiled as he removed the equipment on his face. Ji Qingyan stared at him with her beautiful eyes.

It was as if she had seen a strange creature.

“You... how did you find this place?”

“Let’s not talk about that. Electromagnetic waves are constantly traveling between us, so I knew to come here.” Lin Yi said, “I counted just now, and I took about six minutes, so you lost.”

“That’s bullsh*t.”

All of a sudden, Ji Qingyan’s eyes lit up as though she had thought of something.

“You followed me!”

“We’re all educated, so how can you call this stalking?” Lin Yi said, “The proper term is tailgating.”

“Eh? That’s even worse. I might as well be considered stalking.”

She puffed up her cheeks like a punching bag.

All of a sudden, she had been tricked again.

In the future, he would not casually offer these challenges. Who knew when she would fall into one of Lin Yi's trap again?

“Don't worry about the details. Just remember one thing. If I win, it means you lost. That's all.”

Ji Qingyan blushed and hurriedly pushed the menu over.

“Let's not talk about this anymore. I'm hungry. Hurry up and eat.”

Knowing that Ji Qingyan was thin-skinned and that this was a public place, Lin Yi did not tease her and started ordering.

From what Ji Qingyan remembered, the two of them had been busy during this period of time and had not come out for a meal for a long time.

“Why did you come out dressed like this?” She asked during dinner.

“Isn't that what you asked me to do? I was dressed like this during my live stream.”

“Huh? You were streaming today?”

“Do you have to be so excited?”

“Why didn't you tell me? I'd have gone to tip you.

“I heard that there's a ranking for live streamers. I want you to reach the top.”

“Just drop by for a visit. Don't delay your own matters.”

“That won't do. I'll tip you the next time you stream.”

“In that case, I'll thank you in advance, rich lady.”

“That’s right. As long as you listen to the rich lady in the future, I guarantee that you’ll have a good life.”

Ring!

Lin Yi’s phone rang. It was a call from Qi Xianzhao.

“President Lin, are you busy? I have something to report to you.”

“I’m not busy, just tell me.” Lin Yi called and placed his phone on the table.

Qi Xianzhao was a very steady and sensible person. Under normal circumstances, he would not call him during non-working hours.

Something must have happened for him to call at this time.

It was probably not minor.

“Previously, you said that you wanted to join the mobile phone industry and asked me to find some manufacturers. I’ve now found a manufacturer with a good reputation and production strength. The subsequent negotiations were also very smooth. The report on my side is done, but the other party called me just now and said that they don’t want to cooperate anymore.”

“Don’t want to cooperation anymore?” Lin Yi paused, “Are you sure that the price and procedures were handled correctly?”

“No problem. Everything was going smoothly. It’s just that this happened very suddenly.”

Lin Yi raised his head and looked at Ji Qingyan. The latter thought for a few seconds and muttered to herself,

“Something doesn’t seem right.”

Lin Yi’s gaze landed on his phone again.

“Are you saying that you’re afraid that someone is interfering here?”

With Qi Xianzhao's ability, he naturally wouldn't come to ask for a solution.

Rather, he smelled danger.

"Yes, it is."

Qi Xianzhao said, "President Lin, do you still remember the post shared on the financial website after the war with the Huayin Group ended?"

"The one that was quickly deleted after it was published?"

"Yes, that's the one," Qi Xianzhao said.

"Since then, I felt that something was wrong. I felt that someone was going against us, so my business trip this time was very secretive. But in the end, I still didn't succeed. I don't think this was a coincidence.

"Moreover, recently, Director Tian's investment work has been impeded recently. I think this might explain the reason for that."

"You suspect this is the same group?"

After a few seconds of silence, Qi Xianzhao said, "It's just a possibility. I'm not sure yet."

Lin Yi spat out the fishbone in his mouth and smacked his lips.

"Go on."

"Although it's possible that the same group of people is doing these things, we can't rule out the possibility that it is Zhao Mo and the others' revenge!"

674 If You're Awesome, Take Us to See a Fighter Jet

Qi Xianzhao's guess was not unreasonable.

However, Lin Yi felt that the latter possibility was unlikely.

After what had happened previously, Zhao Mo had already been beaten into submission by him. She shouldn't be able to do anything bad to him for the time being.

No matter what, the Zhao family was a huge family. They were even slightly stronger than the Qin family.

As a rich second-generation heir of Yanjing, Zhao Mo had his own principles.

Even if it was for the sake of revenge, he would not resort to such sneaky methods.

He wouldn't do such a lowly thing.

Secondly, Shen Shuyi knew that he was planning to develop a phone.

This was a major opportunity to break through industry barriers. There would also be a certain level of support for this at the national level.

Even if Zhao Mo was crazy, he wouldn't do such a thing.

Therefore, he could already eliminate the possibility of this being the case.

"It is unlikely to be Zhao Mo. It should be the same group of people."

After thinking for a few seconds, Lin Yi said, "Try contacting the other factories and seeing how the situation is. Report to me if there are any problems."

"Got it, President Lin."

After Lin Yi hung up, Ji Qingyan asked,

"Do you have any ideas on who this is?"

"It's not easy to guess." Lin Yi shook his head. "Because of the lithography machine, Longxin is now considered a legitimate company. No one should come looking for trouble."

“Could it be an external company?”

“That doesn’t seem possible either.” Lin Yi said.

“Lingyun Group’s mobile phone business is still in the development stage. The other mobile phone big shots will not take us seriously.”

“Then, is it possible that they’re not targeting the mobile phone business, but the chips?” Ji Qingyan asked. “Longxin’s Chip 2.0 technology is at the forefront of the world.”

“Hmm?”

With Ji Qingyan’s reminder, Lin Yi seemed to have thought of something.

“That seems possible.”

“The Chip 2.0 technology will have a huge impact on Intel. I think they might get involved in this matter,” said Ji Qingyan.

“But I don’t think that’s very likely. They’re a Meiguon company. Even if they sensed Longxin’s threat, they wouldn’t have reached out so quickly.”

Ji Qingyan rolled a piece of roast meat for Lin Yi and said slowly, “Even if you don’t actually reach out your hand, you might be the person to pull the trigger.”

“If that’s the case, things will be much clearer,” Lin Yi said, “The person most likely to do this is from Jaewon Television.”

“Jaew?”

“The world’s largest chip manufacturer,” Lin Yi said.

“Their boss is called Zhang Zhongmou. In the past, he was the one who defeated SMIC. The reason why ZTE fell so quickly a few years ago was also because of him.”

“This person is not simple.”

“He’s considered a cunning person. He’s much more impressive than Zhao Mo,” Lin Yi said.

“However, it’s meaningless for them to secretly cause trouble. They’re not as fierce as Zhao Mo in this aspect. They’re nothing.”

Although he already had an answer, Lin Yi had no intention of counterattacking.

They were still in the guessing stage. He had to find a way to confirm his hunch.

If he attacked the wrong person, it would be awkward.

After dinner, the two of them paid the bill and went home.

“Huh? Where’s your car?”

Walking out of Yifeng Hall, Ji Qingyan looked around but did not see Lin Yi’s car.

Beep beep beep!

Lin Yi pressed the car key, and the door of the La Voiture Noire opened. Ji Qingyan stood there, stunned, for a long time.

“Is this your new car?”

“It looks pretty good, right? There’s only one of it in the world,” Lin Yi said excitedly.

“And? Nothing else?”

“Uh... pretty cool.”

“That’s it? No other comments?”

“The only other thing is that it is a little dark.”

Ji Qingyan did not have much interest in cars. Otherwise, she would not have driven a Maserati worth only a million yuan.

Regardless, Ji Qingyan’s EQ was still on point.

“Let’s go for a ride. I’d like to ride in Mr. Lin’s car.”

Seeing the two of them get into the car, the others who passed by were so envious that they almost drooled.

A sports car and a beautiful woman. This man was too lucky.

Lin Yi brought Ji Qingyan around the highways before returning to Jiuzhou Pavilion.

As soon as she arrived home, she went to the bathroom to take a shower.

Lin Yi returned to the study, but just as he sat down, he received a WeChat message from Zhang Xiaoyu.

“Brother Lin, what’s your QQ number? I helped you create a fan group. There are already more than 800 people in it. Add it quickly.”

“Okay.”

Lin Yi turned on his phone and tried QQ again. He tried a few times, but the account and password he inputted were always wrong. He tried a few times but kept failing.

Therefore, he simply registered another account and followed Zhang Xiaoyu’s instructions to join the fan group.

Seeing Lin Yi join, the fan group became lively.

“Brother Mask, when’s the next stream? We want to see more amazing things.”

“Yes, yes, yes. Brother Mask, we want to watch your live stream.”

“In that case, I’ll stream for a while. I have nothing to do anyway.”

From his experience, many of the system missions were triggered while working, so whenever he could, he should try to stream for a while.

Lin Yi took his laptop and logged into Douyu.

Before the stream started, Lin Yi got fully armed. He brought all his equipment and blocked his face tightly, making it impossible to see his face.

Not that this was what the audience cared about anyway.

He brought everyone to visit the number one mansion in Zhonghai and see the limited edition La Voiture Noire. This was enough to cement Brother Mask’s awesome status.

Therefore, it didn’t matter if it covered his face or not.

As soon as the stream started, a large number of viewers rushed in.

Some of them were people who had watched Lin Yi’s live stream during the day, while the rest came because of his reputation.

With such an awesome rich streamer now live on the platform, they naturally had to come and watch.

A few minutes after the stream started, his popularity already exceeded 100,000.

For a new streamer, this was a very impressive result.

At this moment, Zhang Xiaoyu even gave Lin Yi two super rockets as support.

This also caused his popularity to rise further.

“Brother Mask, why are you covering your face? We want to see your true appearance.”

“Don’t tell me you’re a catfish.”

“I’m a strong streamer, I don’t rely on looks to make a living,” Lin Yi said.

“Haha, awesome.”

“Brother Mask, what’s going to happen in your next live stream? Can you reveal a little about it?”

“The content of my live stream is not fixed. You can discuss whatever you want to see. As long as it’s not too much, I can satisfy you.”

“Brother Mask, can we keep a low profile? If this continues, we’ll all end up being slapped in the face.”

“If you want me to make a star in the sky, it might indeed be a little difficult, but I should be able to do anything else.”

“We want to see the latest Gulfstream G650 business jet. Can you do that?”

“A Gulfstream G650?” Lin Yi said, “You guys sure know how to pick your battles. That thing isn’t cheap.”

“What’s so good about a broken plane?” Someone said. “If you want to see something cool, ask to see a fighter jet. Brother Mask, if you think you’re that awesome, take us to see a fighter jet.”

675 He Yuanyuan’s Idiotic Nickname

“F*ck, the person above, you really dare to say that? Do you think fighter jets are easy to see? Can’t you be more realistic?”

“Brother Mask said it himself. I’m not asking him to put the stars in the sky, so this request isn’t too much, right?”

“I can consider that.” Lin Yi said.

“The most advanced model definitely won’t be possible since they are kept a secret, but the ordinary models won’t be a problem.”

“F*ck, Brother Mask, you even agreed to this?”

“Not to mention the most advanced ones, even if you bring us to the most ordinary one, I’ll kneel down and call you Daddy.”

“Get your knees ready.”

At this moment, Zhang Xiaoyu called.

“Brother Lin, are you sure you’re not joking? You actually want to take them to see a fighter jet?”

“Isn’t it just a fighter jet? It’s normal, right? It’s not even the most advanced model.”

“But it’s not something that can be done with money.”

“Who said I’m just rich?”

Zhang Xiaoyu, “...”

Awesome!

Lin Yi’s words completely ignited the atmosphere in the live stream.

“Although I don’t know how much money you have, it’s so pretentious to say this.”

“I already wrote it down.”

“In all of Douyu, who can be more pretentious than Brother Mask!”

Just as the live stream became a scene of worship, Ji Qingyan cut the fruits and walked in.

Seeing that Lin Yi was wearing a mask and sunglasses, she quietly put the fruit aside and sat on the sofa.

She was prepared to watch Lin Yi's live broadcast.

"Brother Lin, there's a superstar streamer selection in Douyu happening now. I went to the rankings just now and saw that you're already ranked second. Tomorrow is the last day. Do you want to try your best?"

"I'll go over and take a look."

Lin Yi opened the live stream on Douyu again and saw the popularity ranking Zhang Xiaoyu mentioned.

The person in first place had the ID Wilderness Plagiarist. He was a Dungeon & Fighter (DNF) gaming streamer with 12 million popularity points.

Lin Yi was ranked second with 11 million popularity points.

And the third place only had a pitiful 5 million or so. Their combat strength was clearly insufficient to compete with the other two.

Lin Yi observed for a moment. The popularity of the rankings was different from the popularity of the live broadcast. The calculation method was different.

Although 1 million was a lot of points, the actual gap between them was not too big.

If he used all his strength, it would not be a big problem to surpass this person.

"Then give it a try. It's a waste not to take the title."

Because of the way the system work, many missions were randomly triggered. If he got first place, he might trigger another mission.

Therefore, Lin Yi didn't want to miss any opportunity of gathering professional experience.

"Alright, I'll help you gather votes."

Zhang Xiaoyu hung up and tipped Lin Yi three more times.

But at this moment, the other ten super rockets rose in Lin Yi's live stream.

"What the f*ck, which rich lady is this? I can charm her even with my face covered. She actually gave me ten super rockets in one go," Lin Yi said.

Other than the top streamers on the platform, most small and medium-sized streamers had never seen such a thing.

There was no need to mention Zhang Xiaoyu, since she had experienced it recently.

However, these ten sudden super rockets suddenly gave Lin Yi a sense of accomplishment.

"Don't be so full of yourself. I was the one who did it," Ji Qingyan whispered. "I want to be first."

'Um...'

Lin Yi glanced at Ji Qingyan's nickname, "Moose Don't Get Lost". It was a little cute.

However, at this moment, nine more rockets rose in the live stream.

She surpassed Zhang Xiaoyu in one go and claimed second on the rankings.

"Don't call me arrogant. Look, another woman gave me nine super rockets. Charm isn't something that can be blocked with a mask," Lin Yi said through the microphone.

Ji Qingyan rocked back and forth in laughter. "That person is Yuanyuan."

'Um...'

Lin Yi glanced at He Yuanyuan's ID. "She's Just a Pretty Girl."

Seeing this stupid nickname, Lin Yi felt that this person could be no one other than He Yuanyuan.

“He Yuanyuan is such a money-grubber. She spent 18,000 yuan for 9 super rockets,” Lin Yi said.

“This senior sister of yours is quite strong.”

“She said it was paid for with public funds and not with her own money.”

“He Yuanyuan, f*ck your grandmother.”

Seeing rockets flying in Lin Yi’s live stream, many people came over.

They wanted to see who this masked man was.

Why did he gain so much popularity as soon as he started streaming?

“Everyone, work hard. Brother Mask’s popularity is already at the top of the Newcomer Rankings. You have to maintain it. This event will end tomorrow. Help him to win the Newcomer King title.”

“Got it. Time for gifts.”

Looking at the comments in the live stream, Ji Qingyan felt that streaming was quite interesting.

Was this what Yuanyuan often called 2D culture?

There was a high-end office building on the third ring of Yanjing.

Hundreds of companies had gathered in this office building, and several billionaires had even emerged from its doors.

On the eighth floor of the office building, all the other companies were already empty. The office was pitch-black.

However, one company in the corner was still lit up. It had become one of the shining lights in Yanjing City.

The company's name was Wei An Internet Studio.

Their main business was to nurture streamers and rely on them to earn money for themselves.

This studio was the absolute leader when it came to companies in this field.

It was no exaggeration to say that almost all the online live-stream platforms in Huaxia had streamers under this studio.

In addition to some additional income from sponsoring goods, the annual income of this studio was already more than a hundred million yuan.

The interior of the company was also very stylish.

It was very different from a traditional company.

At first glance, it looked like a high-end internet cafe.

There were more than ten people sitting around the sofa. There were both men and women, all of whom were dressed fashionably and beautifully.

In addition, there were more than 20 computers inside.

However, only one of them was occupied. It was broadcasting DNF to the audience.

The man's name was Meng Jinyang, and his gaming ID was Wilderness Plagiarist. He was a new gaming streamer at Douyu and had played professionally before. He was also a streamer that the officials thought highly of.

“According to the current trend, the title of the Newcomer King will definitely belong to Old Meng.”

The man who spoke was called Ma Weian. He was the person in charge of this studio.

He was in his early thirties. His family was in the timber business, but this studio was a result of his entrepreneurial achievements.

There was a woman in a white dress sitting beside Ma Weian.

This person was Han Shuang, whom Lin Yi had met before. She was also the top star of this studio.

“F*ck, something happened to Brother Ma. Old Meng is now second. Someone pushed him down.”
