

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 1 Trillions of Assets

"Back to Chen's Family?"

At the door of a restaurant, pedestrian street, City C. Finn Chen, in a yellow delivery man's uniform, looked indifferent.

"Yes, the master said as long as young master go back, you will inherit all the trillions of assets of Chen's Family." In front of Finn, an old man in a gray Tang robe spoke respectfully.

"Humph...Trillions of assets?" Finn laughed and sighed. "Chen's Family is really rich."

As if finding the sarcasm in Finn's words, the old man had to say, "Young master, are you still taking to heart the thing that happened three years ago?"

Finn didn't answer. Jones Chen, the old man, said with bitter, "Young master, it was truly master's mistake three years ago, but in these three years, the master has also paid enough price for it. Why don't you give the master a chance?"

"Chance?" A sneer raised at Finn's face. Now, Jason Chen was asking Finn for a chance, but did Jason give Finn's mother any chance?"

Finn would never forget how his mother had died in front of him three years ago.

Chen's family contained trillions of assets, but Jason was unwilling to offer one million to treat Finn's mother. Even if Finn knelt to beg like a dog, Jason wasn't moved at all but watched Finn's mother die.

Now, Jason was asking a chance. Humph...

Finn shook his head with great irony.

"Are you willing to be a delivery man all your life?" Finding that Finn was not moved at all, Jones sighed. Jones knew that in these three years since Finn left Chen's Family, Finn had lived hard. He had been the son-in-law of Shawn's Family, where people all looked down on him. He had lived a totally different life from that in Chen's Family.

"Delivering food is better than delivering life." Finn jeered.

Jones's face changed. "Young master, what do you mean by that?"

"It doesn't mean much." Finn shook his head, "Jones Chen, you can go back. Tell Jason Chen that I'll go back to Chen's Family sooner or later, but not for the trillions of assets!"

Jones was shocked. Looking at Finn's leaving, he looked helpless.

Along the way, Finn's mood was complicated.

From the day he was born, he had stayed in Chen's Family. However, for the illegitimate identity, they didn't treat him well. Even the servants could curse and bully him.

Finn had thought he could be a dog in Chen's Family all his life. It was not until his mother was ill had Finn realized that Chen's Family even didn't give him a chance to be a dog.

That night, Finn's mother was severely ill. Finn knelt in front of the people of Chen's Family to beg them to save his mother, but no one helped.

All those people were extremely indifferent.

Eventually, Finn's mother died of illness.

Finn was deeply grieved. At that time, he had begun to know that the lives of his mother and him were less important than even ants!

On that day, Finn left Chen's Family.

And on that day.

Finn swore that one day, he would return to Chen's Family, and with absolute power, force all the people in Chen's Family to kneel and repent in front of his mother's grave!

But that was only his young and frivolous thought. The next day when he arrived in City C, he was hunted. If it weren't Grant Shawn to save him, he would have become defunct.

Obviously, the people hunted him was from Chen's Family.

In front of the giant beast, Chen's Family, Finn was as little as an ant.

After becoming the son-in-law of Shawn's Family, Finn's life returned to peace. Though he was mocked, he was alive.

But the tree might crave calm, but the wind wouldn't stop. Chen's family looked for him again.

And they were asking him to return to the family and inherit the assets.

But the third generation of Chen's Family contained more than 100 men. It was impossible to allow an illegitimate to inherit the assets.

Obviously, it was a conspiracy.

He used to be as humble as a dog, but today, he was worth trillions.

This conspiracy was too fake!

"Finn!" As Finn frowned and pondered, a beautiful woman in a white dress appeared in front of him. Delicate facial features, attractive figure, and graceful temperament made the woman quite bright.

She was Finn's wife, Maura Shawn.

"Maura, what's the matter?"

The smile came out on Finn's face again. No matter what happened, as long as Maura was here, Finn's mood would be bright again.

But Maura didn't look well. She glanced at Finn and said coldly. "Follow me to the Ancestral Shrine. The Ceremony of Ancestor-Worship is going to start."

"The Ancestral Shrine?" Finn was reminded what Maura had told her last night. Today the Ceremony of Ancestor-Worship would be held, and all people in Shawn's Family should worship the ancestors in the Ancestral Shrine.

But...

Finn looked down at his yellow delivery man's uniform, embarrassed. He had delivered food just now and talked to Jones for a while, so he hadn't changed yet.

He couldn't wear such inappropriate clothes for such a serious activity.

"Maura, could you wait for me to go home and change my clothes?" Finn said gingerly.

Maura looked dissatisfied. "What have you been doing? Didn't I tell you yesterday about this?"

"I...I forget it." Finn lowered his head like a child who had made a mistake.

"Fine, on need. Anyway, no one pays attention to you. Just go. Grandpa was waiting." Maura said with impatience. She was more dissatisfied with Finn. How could he forget such an important event?

"Well..." Finn was about to say something, but Maura turned around and left, so he had to follow.

Shawn's family was a reputable local family in City C, whose ancestor was the Prime Minister of the Han Dynasty. Since the ancestor founded this family, it had been more than 2000 years.

In recent years, though Shawn's Family had declined and lost its former glory, no one dared to look it down.

The Ceremony of Ancestor-Worship every three years was one of the most critical activities.

When Finn arrived with Maura, there were many people in the Ancestral Shrine.

Maura took a deep breath and then walked in the Ancestral Shrine. Finn followed, but when he got to the gate, he was stopped by a hand.

"Wait. Finn Chen, what are you doing here?" With irony on his face, the young man who stopped Finn was Hank Shawn, Maura's cousin.

"To worship the ancestors." Finn looked at Hank with confusion. For the Ceremony of Ancestor-Worship, everyone in Shawn's Family should come here. He was adopted as a son-in-law, so he was definitely one of the family.

"Ancestors?" Hank sneered. "Which ancestor do you worship? There are only our ancestors of Shawn's Family, so what does it do with you?"

The implication was that Finn was an outsider who didn't deserve to enter the Ancestral Shrine.

"Hank Shawn! What do you mean?" Maura's face turned cold.

Hank glanced at Maura and then said carelessly. "Nothing else, but the outsider or the dog are not allowed in.

If the previous words were just irony, the words "outsider" and "dog" were definitely humiliations.

Finn didn't care about, for he had been confronted with stronger humiliation before.

But Maura looked enraged. After all, Finn was her legally husband!

"Finn is my husband, so why do you say he is an outsider?"

"Your husband? Hahaha!" As if hearing a big joke, Hank burst into laughter. "Maura Shawn, speak with your conscience. Do you really take this trash as your husband? I know that you two even haven't slept together after you got married for three years!"

Hadn't they had sex in the three-year marriage life?

Many people in Shawn's Family here smiled meaningfully, and the look on Finn was also full of irony. How cowardly Finn was! Finn had been with beautiful Maura for three years but hadn't had sex at all. Did he have some problems with his sexuality?

Maura's face changed. Indeed, she had been married to Finn for three years, but let alone have sex, Finn even hadn't held her hand. She used to think that few people knew this matter, but now, it seemed that all the people in Shawn's Family knew that.

"Maura, you go in first. I suddenly remember that there is still an order needed to deliver." Finn smile with bitterness. He could face the ridicule of these people, but he didn't want Maura to be implicated.

Looking at Finn's mask of carelessness, Maura felt her heart grabbed. They had been married for three years. Though she didn't regard Finn as her husband in heart, Finn was quite good for her. No matter it was windy or rainy, Finn would pick up and send her to work. And no matter how great angry she got, Finn would face her with a smile.

In front of her, this man never got angry, as if he couldn't feel the pain. He only humored and took care of her.

As time went by, there would always be feelings.

Maura couldn't help sobbing. Why? Why was Finn so kind to her.

Finn took a deep breath and prepared to leave. He knew that the longer he stood there, the more humiliations he would get.

But when he turned around, a firm voice came from his back. "He enters, I enter!"

As soon as the voice faded, Finn felt his hand tightly grasped by a soft but quite powerful hand.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 2 Accident

People around there were astonished. Did Maura Shawn have a fever to speak such nonsense? Did she mean that if Finn Chen couldn't go in, she wouldn't go in as well?

"Maura Shawn! Do you want to betray the family for an outsider?" Hank Shawn looked furious. He didn't think Maura would say such words because of Finn. The Ceremony of Ancestor-Worship was one of the most significant activities in Shawn's Family. Once it was held, every member of the family had to attend, which was the unshakable rule!

The descendants of Shawn's Family would be regarded impious once they missed the ceremony.

If Maura didn't go in the Ancestral Shrine, in terms of the master of Shawn's Family, Scott Shawn's temper, she would be expelled from the family.

Therefore, the nature of this matter was definitely serious!

"Maura, go in. Your cousin is right. They are the ancestors of Shawn's Family, not mine, so it's inappropriate for me to go in." Finn said.

He knew that someone must give in between Maura and Hank, or both would be punished.

But Maura would be punished more severely. Finn didn't want Maura to be expelled, so he had to stand out and give in.

Even if it was humiliating, and he would be mocked more by the public, but Finn still willing to.

For Maura, he could give up all his dignity.

"Finn..." Maura sobbed. She knew the reason for Finn's compromise. But the more Finn did such, the more reluctant she was, and the more guilt she got.

"Well, I'm going to work. I'll be back early in the evening." Finn pretended to be at ease and then left without looking back.

Though Finn was severely humiliated, now, his mood was quite calm, and even a little bit secretly surprised, because the word Maura had said before, "he enters, I enter!"

It was the first time in three years that Maura stood on his side and firmly chose him in front of her family.

For this word, Finn felt that all his grievances were deserved!

After work, Finn went home and began to cook.

Finn was good at cooking. When he was adopted by Grant Shawn three years ago, he actually gained Grant's acknowledgment with his excellent cooking skills.

In Grant's word, all men doing well in cooking were good.

At that time, Maura had a good impression on Finn as well. With Grant's help, he became the adopted son-in-law of Shawn's Family.

However, after their marriage, a lot of contradictions broke out gradually.

Grant was not taken seriously in Shawn's Family so that his business was getting worse. Finn had no talent in business, so he couldn't help Grant but live with delivering food.

Life had been becoming harder and harder, so Finn's mother-in-law, Leah had also complained about Finn's uselessness and thought he didn't deserve Maura.

If Finn didn't appear, for the sake of Maura's pretty appearance, she must have to marry into a reputable family, so that Leah would have to live well.

Finn couldn't refute this. He was an illegitimate son, with little money and poor educational background, definitely inferior to Maura, who was indeed a beauty graduating from a prestigious university and keeping the image of the goddess on campus for the whole four years.

The only thing he could give Maura was his sincerity.

But in this world, sincerity was always the most worthless thing.

Putting the prepared food on the table, Finn wondered. It was later when Grand and Leah came usually, but why did they so slow today?

The telephone rang.

"Finn, Dad...Dad was hit by a car..."

Finn's face changed color. It was Maura's voice, but the message it sent was frightening.

Did she say that Grant had a car accident?

"Maura, don't worry. I'm coming." Finn hung up the phone and then quickly went to the hospital.

When he arrived, Finn saw Maura weeping on a bench.

"Maura, what's going on?" Finn trotted to Maura and asked anxiously.

Slap!

Before Maura opened her mouth, Leah came up and gave a slap in Finn's face.

It was quite painful.

"How dare you to ask what's going on?" Leah growled. "You fool, where were you this afternoon? Why didn't you pick up Grant?"

Finn was stunned. Usually, Finn would be the driver for Grant when Grant was off work. Grant's leg was injured before, so it wasn't flexible for driving.

But today, Grant had gone to the Ancestral Shrine and hadn't called Finn after that.

Finn thought Grant wouldn't come back today, so he forgot to pick up.

"Mom, I'm sorry." Finn apologized. He was accountable for Grant's accident.

"Is it use to apologize? You fool, you have done nothing good since you came to our family all these three years!" Leah was emotionally unstable. She cried. "If Grant has any problem, you must immediately divorce my daughter and get out of Shawn's Family.

Leah's voice was sharp, which attracted many people to watch.

But now Finn didn't have time to consider his face. Grant was not only his father-in-law but also his lifesaver, so he couldn't accept Grant's death.

"Who's the family member of the patient?" A doctor in the white uniform came over.

"I am." Leah and Maura rushed to him.

"The patient is now suffering from massive internal hemorrhage, which is severely serious and requires immediate surgery." The middle-aged Doctor said seriously.

Hearing this, Leah almost fainted, and Maura's face was also pale.

“Doctor, please arrange the operation as soon as possible. We can accept it at any cost.” Finn said in a deep voice.

“Fine, sign first, and then pay for the operation.” The Doctor took out a disclaimer. Finn signed his name quickly.

But when he saw the cost on the list, his pupil suddenly tightened.

Five million!

An astronomical number!

It was just a surgical operation. Why did it cost five million?

Finn felt something wrong. With Grant’s economic situation, not to mention five million yuan, even 500000 was hard for him.

Could it be the wrong print? Finn came to the payment room with wishful thinking.

But then, the toll collector told him that there was nothing wrong.

It was five million!

Finn was a delivery man with a salary of about six thousand yuan a month, so how could he pay five million?

Grant’s condition was serious, so it was too late to transfer to another hospital.

Where could he get five million?

How about asking someone to borrow it? But who would lend such a large amount of money to him?

Finn felt irritable. There had never been such a moment for him to find that money was so useful.

"Young master..." At this time, a familiar voice appeared behind him.

Finn turned around. It was Jones Chen who smiled at him.

In a flash, Finn knew it.

"It was you!" Finn furiously clenched his fist. Now, he would be an idiot if he still hadn't realized this.

A sudden car accident, the astronomical number of the operation cost...

Every step was carefully planned!

The purpose was just to force him back to Chen's Family!

Jones shook his head and said with a smile. "Young master, what are you talking about? I don't understand..."

"Bang!"

Jones was still speaking, but Finn suddenly hit Jones's nose with his fist, blood running out.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 3 Divorce

"Fuck you! Was that you who planned this fucking accident?" Finn Chen roared. Chen's family was so insane that to force Finn to return to family, they threatened with Grant Shawn's life.

"Young Master, it's you who said that, not me." Jones Chen smiled slightly.

"Fuck!"

Finn suddenly hit the wall. Though he hated Jones much, now Jones was the only one who could save Grant's life. In terms of their conspiracy, though Finn could gather five million yuan by himself, the doctor wouldn't help.

Besides, Finn had no way to gather five million yuan.

This was a totally obvious conspiracy, uncomplicated but impossible to avoid.

To force Finn to return, Chen's Family could do anything. Finn knew that and accepted, but he couldn't accept Maura Shawn's family to be hurt because of him.

"Young master, make a decision quickly. Mr. Grant can't hold long." With a confident smile on his face, Jones knew Finn well. Finn's weakness was too glaring. Once Maura Shawn got any hurts, Finn would lose his mind.

If today, Finn watched Grant die, his relationship with Maura would die as well.

Jones firmly believed that Finn wouldn't make such a stupid choice.

Finn laughed miserably. He had to admit that Jones was right. Even without Maura, he wouldn't have watched Grant die, who had saved Finn's life before!

"Save!" Finn's voice was terribly cold. He finally made the decision. "If Grant has anything wrong this time, I'll be no mercy to all the people of Chen's Family as a payment!"

"Young master, for the moment you were born, you had the noble blood of Chen's Family. Now, you have made the wisest decision. Believe me that the benefits Chen's Family can give you are much more than trillions of assets!"

Jones didn't care about Finn's threat. His voice was full of pride. Chen's family, known as the No.1 noble family in the Capital, was rich and contained a vast power beyond the imagination of ordinary people.

"Wise?" Finn bit the bullet, with a torrent of hatred.

Kind people would always be offended. Finn had compromised again and again, but in return, Chen's Family forced more and more.

People of Chen's Family all thought Finn as a dog, coming or going when they called.

But they didn't know that dog would bite if it was forced too much.

At this moment, Finn decided never to compromise a little from today on. There was no concession between him and Chen's Family!

He would make Jason Chen pay for his self-confidence!

"Chen's Family, it's you who forced me!"

Jones didn't know Finn's thought in mind. He took out the prepared contract and looked at Finn with a smile. "Young master, this is the meeting gift from the master. As long as you sign it, all the assets of Chen's Family in City C will be yours."

Finn stared at Jones coldly. The contract contained various industries, such as real estate, catering, communication, entertainment, internet and so on, involving almost all works of life.

Roughly estimated, it was worth tens of billions!

Finn knew for the first time how terrible Chen's Family, the most powerful family in Capital, was.

Just in City C, a prefecture-level city, the value of all its industries was worth tens of millions.

How about all its industries around the Country C?

Invincible wealth!

The more understanding of Chen's Family Finn got, the greater pressure he felt.

But the arrow was on the string, which was bound to fire. Finn had no way back.

Even if there was a hole, Finn must jump in.

Finn no longer hesitated and signed his name on it.

"Congratulations, young master. From now on, you're the richest man in City C." Jones bowed respectfully.

"The richest man?" Finn sneered. For ordinary people, he would go mad with joy if he became the richest man in City C, but Finn wouldn't.

Finn would rather live a life of ordinary people with Maura than be the richest man.

But Chen's Family didn't intend to give him this chance.

From the moment he accepted the property in City C, he could die at any time.

When Finn left, Jones took out his mobile phone.

"Master, he agreed," Jones spoke respectfully.

"Fine." The voice on the phone was a little indifferent, obviously not surprised by the result. "You stay in City C for some time to help him control the industries there as soon as possible."

"Yes, master."

"Besides, I'll send The Ghost to protect him."

The Ghost?

Jones was shocked. He didn't expect that Jason would send The Ghost to protect Finn.

What was with that illegitimate child that deserved Jason's such careful caution.

The Ghost was the most critical armed force of Chen's Family. Jason had spent more than 30 billion overseas to buy a small island as a training base for The Ghost.

Then, from all the world, they found young children with excellent talents to train since childhood. Every child must accept the cruel hell-like training, and all their instructors were either the masters of martial arts or the kings of killers.

Thousands of children entered the training base every year, but eventually, only one could become a member of The Ghost!

By that, it could be imagined how terrible The Ghost was!

The so-called kings of war and top killers, who were well known in the world, just joked in front of The Ghost.

Jones never expected that Jason would send The Ghost to protect Finn.

Even Jason's son was not eligible to be protected by The Ghost, but Finn was eligible.

Jones was frightened. There must be an unknown secret in Finn.

And this secret was even tens or hundreds of times more important than the trillion assets for Chen's Family!

For Jones's arrangement, Grant's operation was done without danger.

Grant was weak. Finn went out to buy some breakfasts. Leah Lin and Maura might be hungry, for they had stayed in the ward all night.

Finn with breakfasts came to the door of the ward and was about to push the door, but Leah's voice came from the ward.

"Maura, when your father recovers, you divorce Finn."

"Mom, I've said many times. I won't divorce Finn." Maura frowned, with a tired voice.

"You must divorce this time!" Leah kept a tough attitude and a firm tone. "Maura, I can follow you in other matters, but this matter has no discussion. If you don't divorce Finn this time, I'll never take you as my daughter."

Maura looked at her mother in a daze. Obviously, Leah was serious. Leah had said divorce many times before, but as long as Maura refused, Leah would give up.

But this time, Leah's attitude was surprisingly tough.

"Maura, it's not that I'm cruel to break you up, but you're not compatible. Finn doesn't deserve you."

"I could see from the day he came into our house. If it weren't that your father promised me that Finn would have a promising future, I wouldn't have agreed to your marriage."

"Now, three years later, what thing has Finn done well? Now he is still a delivery man, with a dead salary of six or seven thousand yuan. Are you really willing to live with such a good-for-nothing all your life?"

Finn stood outside the door, calm and upset. What Leah said were true. In the past three years, he hadn't done anything well and didn't make Maura live a good life.

Now, it was time for Maura to make a decision. No matter what decision Maura made, he could accept it. Even if she wanted to divorce, he would leave without tangle.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 4 | Trust Finn

Maura Shawn clenched her teeth, eyes turning red. She knew her mother was right. Indeed, Finn Chen had no future, and rationally, she should have left Finn long ago.

But every time she thought of Finn's dotting eyes, Maura's heart couldn't be tough.

Sure, that man was not promising, but he would cook porridge for her because of her casual word to complain about her stomachache. He had been such kind to her for three years, without exception.

That man was not capable, but he would send or pick her up every day, no matter if it was windy or rainy. He had been such considerate to her for three years, without exception.

In three years, this man had done too much for her.

Unconsciously, tears dropped from her eyes.

"Maura, have you...have you fallen in love with Finn?" Leah was shocked by the tears. Was that her graceful girl, with a pride of the peacock?

Maura didn't speak but was in tears.

She didn't know what to do.

Looking at Maura crying, Leah felt complicated. She never expected this. She had been strongly opposed to Maura and Finn's marriage, but Grant Shawn was stubborn.

Leah knew her daughter well, who kept more self-pride than younger Leah. Leah had been confident enough in Maura not to love such a good-for-nothing as Finn. As long as to wait for two or three years, Maura would have known Finn's nature, and then leave Finn without others' persuasion.

But now, Leah had a heave slap in her face.

Her daughter didn't leave the coward but seemed to fall in love with him!

"Maura, I know Finn's kind to you, but you should understand that since you two decide to live together for all your life, except being considerate, there are many matters needing consideration. With your conditions, you are bound to be treated well by a gentleman from a powerful family."

"Mom, stop talking. I trust Finn." Leah was going to persuade but was interrupted.

Maura had made up her mind. No matter how useless that man was, she would never leave. This was her destiny!

"No, Maura, you'll regret it..." Leah sighed. She knew from Maura's expression that it was useless to say more.

Regret? No, no! I'll never make you regret it!

Outside the door, Finn clenched his fist.

I trust Finn.

He had been waiting for this word for three years!

Maura, thank you. Even if the world made you regret, I, Finn, would never make you regret!

Finn turned around and then strode away. From now on, he had another task, to make Maura the happiest woman in the world!

He wanted to show Leah that a coward could also give his beloved woman happiness!

"Young master, do you have time now?" As soon as Finn left the hospital, he received a call from Jones Chen.

"What's the matter?" Finn frowned. He had told Jones yesterday that if there was nothing important, don't disturb him. He didn't want his peaceful life to be broken.

"Young master, I found that you have no place to settle down in City C, so I decided on my own last night to buy you a villa in Spring Hill from Hans Shen. Young master, if it's convenient for you, please come and have a look now." Jones's tone was somewhat flattering. From the phone call with Jason Chen, Jones knew that even if Finn was an illegitimate child, he couldn't afford to offend him at all, so he bought the best villa in Spring Hill overnight, which was regarded as an apology for Finn.

Villa? Finn subconsciously intended to refuse. He had got tens of billions of assets, but he preferred to be humble. He preferred to be the son-in-law of Shawn's Family than the richest man in City C.

However, after hearing that the villa was in Spring Hill, Finn changed his intention.

Maura had mentioned that she liked the environment of Spring Hill, and when she earned enough money one day, she would buy a house there to appreciate the sunrise every morning.

At that time, indeed Finn couldn't afford to buy a house in Spring Hill, and let alone a house, he couldn't even afford a toilet in Spring Hill.

Hills and streams surrounded Spring Hill. With the beautiful scenery and excellent location, the house in Spring Hill was the most expensive in City C. Even the ordinary residence was worth more than one hundred thousand yuan per square meter, let alone the high-grade villa.

Without the help of Chen's Family, Finn couldn't afford to buy a house all his life.

But now, Finn even didn't have to buy it himself, but Jones had bought it before he asked for it.

Well, it was better to take it as a gift for Maura. Finn sighed. But the problem was how to make Maura accept this gift.

"Well, I'll go." Finn agreed.

"Young master, I'll send a car to pick you up."

"No, I'll go by myself," Finn said. Spring Hill was not so far from the hospital, and besides, he didn't want to be ostentatious.

"Yes, young master." Jones didn't dare to say more.

Finn rode his electric scooter, along the road, to Spring Hill.

As a well-known rich district in City C, the security of Spring Hill was quite good.

Even the common residential area on the hillside was adequately guarded. Living in such a place, the residents didn't have to worry about their safety.

The security of the villa area on the top of the hill was more substantial.

If the hillside residential area was only inhabited by the rich in City C, then the residents in the villa area on the top of the hill couldn't only be described as "rich."

Only nine villas had been built on the top of the hill.

There were all influential celebrities of City C who lived there, such as the mayor, and Hans Shen, the richest man in City C, and some other the top class in City C.

So it would take a high price to buy a villa here, not only the money but also the power.

Sure enough, Jones Chen had this power. As the chamberlain of Chen's Family, the most powerful family in Capital, Jones would only show his humbleness in the face of Jason Chen or Finn Chen.

But as for others, Jones's status was not inferior to some influential dignitaries. After all, it was Chen's Family standing behind him, the family that could dominate in Capital, where dignitaries lived everywhere.

"Hey, that guy over there, stop!" As Finn just rode to the gate of the villa area, he was stopped.

A group of black-uniformed security guards surrounded.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 5 Hans Shen

"Hey, what are you doing here?" The leading tall and swarthy guard was staring at Finn Chen.

"Looking for someone," Finn replied.

"Looking for someone?" The guard sneered. "Do you know where there is?"

"Spring Hill," Finn answered.

"Fuck, since you know there is Spring Hill, you still dare to look for someone here. Can there be anyone you know?" Wang, the guard, sneered. It would be less than one hundred yuan for Finn's clothes, and he was riding a delivery man's scooter. How could such kind of guy know the people in the villa area?

Finn frowned. He didn't want to be ostentatious, which didn't mean he would accept a guard's disdain.

Seeing that Finn didn't speak, Wang became more arrogant, for he thought he had seen through Finn.

"Guy, speak that who are you looking for, Mayer Li or boss Shen?" Wang satirized. Mayer Li and Hans Shen were the most famous people in City C. One was the head of this city, and the other was the richest. Many people came here and said they knew the two, but all had been penetrated by Wang.

"I'm looking for Hans Shen. I bought a villa from him, and now I'm here to have a look." Finn sighed. He knew Wang wouldn't believe the truth that he said, but he still wanted to give Wang one more chance. If Wang allowed him in, Finn could forget it. After all, he would live here in the future.

"Hahaha!"

As expected, the response was wanton laughter.

Wang laughed so hard that he convulsively bent down, tears also coming out.

"Hahaha! Did you hear that? This fool said he has bought a villa from boss Shen. I'm going to die fucking laughing!"

"Is this fool stupid? Doesn't he know that he can't afford even one square meter of the villa here all his life?"

"If he can afford a villa here, I'll eat this scooter!"

These guards were all laughing. They had seen a lot of braggarts, but they hadn't seen someone like Finn, who dared to speak that he had bought a villa here.

It was not bragging, but fucking dreaming!

Finn shook his head. Why didn't people believe the truth now?

"Well, guy, for the sake of making me laugh, I won't hurt you today. Go away down by yourself. Here is not the place you can come to." Wang waved his hand to Finn, as driving a fly.

Originally, according to Wang's temperament, Wang would at least beat Finn, teaching this little guy to know who himself really was.

But Finn made them laugh. Wang thought he could be kind today to let Finn go.

Meanwhile, in a luxurious living room in the villa area, Jones Chen walked back and forth in front of the window, and behind him stood a rugged man.

With swarthy skin, a feeling of disobedience, looking from appearance, no one would know he was Hans Shen, the richest in City C.

"Mr. Jones, young master Finn...when will he come here?" Now, Hans was also a bit nervous. He had stayed up all night after hearing Jones said that the successor of Chen's Family would come.

Hans was disturbed, for he didn't know if that young master of Chen's Family was easy to get along with.

Though people called Hans the richest in City C, Hans knew that he was only somebody in City C but nobody in Capital, where dignitaries lived everywhere.

"He..." Jones was a bit uneasy as well. It had been more than an hour since the phone call. Normally, Finn should have been here long ago, but he didn't present yet.

Jones wanted to call and ask Finn, but he was afraid to trouble Finn.

Just then, Jones's phone rang first.

"Young master!"

"I'm at the gate." Only five words left, Finn hung up the phone.

Jones's face changed. Gate? Why didn't Finn come in?

"Hey, guy! I'm asking you to go away. Are you deaf?" Finn's disobedience to leave enraged Wang.

Finn smiled faintly. "You want me to go away?"

"What? Do you want me to help you?" Wang sneered, fingers squeaking, and then kicked the scooter.

The scooter which Finn had used for three years was broken into pieces.

Finn frowned, with frost in his face, upset and enraged. He had ridden this scooter to deliver for three years, which was enough to develop a feeling, but now it was kicked to pieces by a guard.

Wang didn't care so much. He ordered several guards to surround Finn.

"Little guy, since you don't want to go by yourself, let me help you. Come on. Put your face closer, and let me give you a slap so that I'll let you go." Wang looked arrogant, thinking Finn as the fish on the chopping board, which could be slaughtered at will.

"Are you sure you want to slap me?" Finn smiled and walked towards Wang.

"What? What can you do if I slap you?" Wang laughed and felt this guy more stupid.

Though Wang was a security guard, he was hired by Hans. Only the name of Hans could make this delivery man get in big trouble.

In this area, even some high-status officials and dignitaries had to be polite. Without Hans's permission, no one could go in or make trouble!

Wang raised his hand and then was going to slap Finn.

But his hand was held by someone, and then a slap came on his face.

Then a gloomy face appeared in front of Wang.

"Boss...boss Shen?" Wang felt his head exploding, and his tongue knotted. The man who suddenly appeared was his boss, Hans Shen, the well-known richest man in City C!

"Boss Shen, why...why are you here?" Wang's voice trembled. He knew how terrible Hans was.

"Would you like to slap me together?"

Hans roared. He was thinking to flatter Finn, but Finn was blocked out of the gate and almost beaten by his bodyguard!

Now, Hans really wanted Wang to die.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 6

Forgiveness

"Boss...boss Shen. I...I'm sorry." Wang's voice trembled, with fear in eyes.

"Bang!"

Hans Shen slapped Wang to the ground.

Then he turned around, respectfully, to bow to Finn. "Young master Finn, I'm sorry."

What a smooth action!

There was silence!

The security guards around rubbed their eyes with doubt and shock.

The richest man in City C bowed to a young man?

The whole city would shake for this scene!

What was the identity of this young man?

The guards felt their heads painful, and their breaths heavy.

"Mr. Hans, you're too serious. I'm OK." Finn smiled. Without introduction, Finn could know who the man was in front of him. Hans was the richest man in City C, so Finn could see his picture often in Financial Daily.

"Young master Finn, it's my negligence. I promise you that those who offended you today will pay for that." Malevolence flashing in Hans's eyes, Wang had made him almost doomed eternally, so he wouldn't let them go easily.

"Mr. Shen, please spare my life!"

"Mr. Shen, please give me a break!"

Flop...

Wang and those guards knelt on the ground, tears falling down. The payment Hans said was not only losing the job but also more than breaking hands and feet!

“Shut up!” Hans shouted with impatience.

Hans looked ruthless. It was not only the ability to do business for Hans to struggle to be the richest man in City C from a young man without any relationship.

Now that those people dared to offend Finn, they had to prepared to pay for it!

Finn squinted his eyes. He could see that Hans was not pretending, which meant that Wang and others would definitely be punished severely.

“Forget it, Mr. Hans.” Finn waved his hand. “They didn’t do anything too much to me, so let them continue to work. If you feel sorry, you can deduct one month’s salary from them as a punishment.”

Finn was finally softhearted. Wang had a mistake, but it wasn’t such severe. Finn didn’t want to ruin their lives because of him.

During the three years, he had left Chen’s Family, Finn had learned a lot. For people at the bottom of society, sometimes it was hard to just live.

Maybe for Finn, it was a decision made casually, but for Wang and others, this decision might influence their lives.

Hans was a little surprised, but since Finn said so, he had to care about Finn’s feelings.

"Thank young master Chen, quickly!" Hans coldly glanced at those guards.

Wang and others promptly moved in front of Finn, and then kowtowed to apologize.

Finn didn't speak, wishing these people to remember this lesson. Not everyone was as kind as him.

Hans was relieved as well. Finn's performance was quite surprising to him, different from other young masters from influential families.

Finn was not arrogant and ostentatious, without a feeling of haughtiness. If it wasn't that Jones could prove, Hans would never believe this young man in front of him was the young master of Chen's Family.

And this young master...

Came by an electric scooter!

Hans subconsciously took a look at the fragmented scooter, his expression turning complicated.

"Young master, let's go in." Jones stood out with a smile.

Finn nodded slightly and then followed Hans into a villa with European castle style, elegant decoration, and jade-like walls making people feel relaxed and peaceful.

Along the way, Hans introduced the villa to Finn. It was the best one in Spring Hill, with panoramic French windows, which could make people living here enjoy the beautiful scenery of the hill without going out.

The villa contained more than 500 square meters, with the swimming pool, gym, cinema, small garden, and so on. In short, all high-end facilities were available.

This villa was built for Hans's own to enjoy during the old age and was not for sale. However, Jones asked him to buy it, so Hans didn't dare to refuse. He sold the villa to Jones at 50000 yuan per square meter.

Actually, it was not to sell but to send because even the ordinary residence in Spring Hill cost at least 100000 yuan per square meter.

As for this villa, with the best location and a view of the whole hill, people would rush to purchase even if it was 500000 yuan per square meter.

Finn was satisfied with this villa, which he thought Maura Shawn would be pleased if she lived in.

"Young master Finn, it's late. I've prepared lunch at home. Could you please do me a favor to give me a chance to apologize?" Hans suggested tentatively. Though Finn had promised not to remember the thing Wang had done, Hans was still nervous, fearing that Finn would take it in the heart.

"Mr. Hans, you're too serious. Don't mention the apology. It's over already, and I'll forget it. On the contrary, I'm going to live in City C, so I may have to trouble you to take care of me."

Finn smiled. Since he had taken over Chen's Family's industries, he had to deal with the local strongmen here. Hans was wise, so if he could, he wanted to invite Hans to his group, not Chen's Family's.

“Haha, young master Finn, you’re joking. I don’t dare to say taking care of you. When you think I’m useful, you just call me, and I’ll try my best to help.” Hans laughed straightforwardly.

Finn smiled but didn’t speak. The words Hans said shouldn’t be trusted, but just listened to.

The world was bustling for profit.

If it wasn’t Chen’s Family standing behind Finn, people like Hans wouldn’t take him seriously.

“By the way, Mr. Hans, there are still undeveloped spaces in Spring Hill, with beautiful scenery and excellent location, so why don’t you continue to develop?” Finn asked.

Spring Hill was the most famous scenic spot in City C. The spring water in the hill gushed out of the stone gaps, running down along the hill, with rainbows under sunshine, which was one of the three wonders of City C and was praised by the ancient emperor as the First Spring Around the Country. It had been the resort since the ancient period and was a well-known scenic spot all over the country.

But due to its vast area and steep terrain, it required much investment to develop Spring Hill.

It was said that Hans had invested all his financial resources before to develop only less than a quarter of the areas, leaving three-quarters of it undeveloped.

Thinking of these undeveloped areas, Finn had a plan in his mind.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 7 The Yellow Rode

"Young master Finn, it seems that you don't know the situation of Spring Hill." A bitter smile came on Han Shen's face. "I want to develop Spring Hill much more than anyone else. After all, it's just Spring Hill that helped me get such status now, so it's my most important support."

"But it was too vast and steep. I've spent ten years with all the resources and power I had to develop less than a quarter. I was even faced with the bankruptcy of my company due to the breakup of the capital chain. So the remaining three quarters, I even don't dare to think about it."

Finn Chen smiled. He could hear from Hans's word that Hans definitely wanted to develop Spring Hill, but it was impossible for only Hans himself.

"Mr. Hans, what if I join in?" Finn smiled. Hans had no power to do it, but he had!

Or, Chen's Family behind him had!

Finn put forward his real purpose. Developing Spring Hill was the one hand, and the other hand was, more importantly, taking the opportunity to try the patience of Chen's Family.

The project of Spring Hill was just such a great opportunity.

Tens of billions, though it might be nothing to Chen's Family, was definitely quite a lot.

Finn intended to see how much Chen's Family was willing to pay for him.

With a change in his face, Hans didn't expect that Finn, who had gotten here just now, was so brave to think about the bottomless project of Spring Hill.

Naturally, Hans didn't know the relationship between Finn and Chen's Family. If Hans knew that Finn had never thought of making money from his investment, Hans would have cried.

"Young master Chen...if you're willing to invest, this project will surely succeed," Hans spoke with a pleasant surprise.

The development of Spring Hill needed not only the financial support, but also technical skills, resources, power, and other supports that Hans couldn't provide, but if Finn could join in, those problems could be solved easily.

After all, Chen's Family was standing behind Finn. For Chen's power, not to mention a project of one Spring Hill, it could deal with ten projects of Spring Hill.

Such an influential family contained not only wealth but also power!

Looking at Hans's excited expression, pretending to be calm, Jones felt bitter. He wanted to yell to Hans that this little son of a bitch was digging a hole for you, so don't jump in it stupidly!

But Jones couldn't say it out, because Jason Chen had warned him that in any case, the relationship between Finn and Chen's Family couldn't be known by anyone!

Obviously, Finn had seen this, so he was emboldened.

Jones smiled bitterly. Last night, he made Finn suffer a lot by the medical expenses of five million yuan.

This morning, Finn took an eye for an eye, and an eye deserved nearly 50 billion yuan!

This was totally a lesson!

Jones felt complicated, and suddenly, he found that he didn't understand this young master at all.

"So, do you mind cooperating with me?" Finn smiled with confidence.

"Haha, it's my honor to cooperate with young master Finn." Hans, who had been thinking about how to get on well with Finn just now, definitely agreed.

"Then...wish pleasant cooperation!" Finn squinted his eyes and held out his hand with a smile.

Two hands holding together, the most significant project in the history of City C was born.

And no one knew that this project was only the first step of Finn against Chen's Family.

Jones, standing beside, sighed with helplessness.

Naturally, Jones was responsible for the specific matters, and as the man in power, Finn should only determine the major directions.

After lunch, Finn soon left to pick up Maura Shawn, which had become Finn's habit.

When Finn left, Hans beckoned a man with tattooed arms. "Tiger, go to investigate Finn. I want all the information about him. But remember, hide well and don't be found."

"Yes, master Hans!"

Tiger nodded respectfully and then left.

Hans was grim-faced. Struggling to be the richest in City C from a thug, he was definitely clear-sighted.

From the first time he saw Finn, Hans had found Finn complicated. Finn was not that kind of arrogant young masters, but on the contrary, Finn was wise and scheming though he acted abnormally.

Even Hans had a feeling of asking a tiger for its skin, worrying and fearful.

Therefore, Hans naturally had to find out what kind of person Finn was.

"Cheetah, go to the garage to find the car I bought days ago, and then give it to young master Chen," Hans ordered. He knew people like Finn thought dignity much more than anything. The thing his guards had broken was not a scooter, but Finn's face!

Therefore, even if Finn made it clear that he wouldn't take it in his heart, Hans felt worried. So to repay a luxury car to Finn was to maintain Finn's face.

Hans was miserable. If the fool, Wang, hadn't broken Finn's scooter, he wouldn't have to give the supercar worth 20 million yuan to Finn as an apology.

Finn seemed to be the first man in the history who could trade an electric scooter for a supercar.

Finn didn't know Hans had thought so much after he left. If he knew that, he would laugh at Hans for Hans's too much caution.

The Cloud Edifice, the highest building in the west of City C, was the headquarter of Shawn's Company.

It was noon. Standing at the gate of the building, Maura had looked at the head of the road several times, but Finn still didn't appear.

Always, Finn was punctual. As long as Maura got off work, he would stand at the gate, waiting to pick her up. Why was Finn late today?

"Hey, isn't it beautiful Maura? Are you waiting for Finn to pick you up by his electric scooter?" An ironic voice came from Maura's back. Maura frowned. Even without looking, she could know it was her cousin, Sara Shawn.

Maura didn't speak. Sara hadn't been friendly to her since they were children, and when they grew up, Sara asked her for trouble many times.

In a red Bohemian dress and with exquisite makeup, Sara was good-looking, but in the face of Maura, who was without makeup, Sara looked lusterless.

Seeing Maura ignore her, Sara didn't get angry but sighed. "Maura, I thought the fate sometimes strange. When we were children, you were the most beautiful girl in our family. Grandpa said you would become the happiest girl in our family, for you would marry a powerful gentleman who was as noble as an emperor in the yellow imperial robe.

"You didn't disappoint grandpa. You really married a man in a yellow robe, but it was a yellow uniform for a delivery man, hahaha!"

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 8 Slap

Maura Shawn tightly bit her lips. She knew that Sara Shawn had always been bitter about her being the most beautiful woman in the family, so Sara would mock her as much as possible, which Maura had been used to.

Maura was silent, but Sara was more arrogant.

"Maura, when will Finn buy you a car? He's so inconsiderate to put you in the back of an electric scooter in such a hot day."

"What does it have to do with you?" Maura glanced at Sara with disgust.

Sara sneered. "I'm sorry, Maura. I forgot that Finn's salary was so little. It seemed that he will never afford a car."

Maura clenched her teeth, enraged. Sara belittled Finn in front of her, but she had no word to refute, for what Sara said was the truth that Finn's salary was even too little to support a living, not to mention to afford a car.

"Maura, ask Finn not to deliver food. Let him work under my husband. My husband's company is recruiting security guards recently, with a good salary, at least better than delivering food. If Finn could work hard for the years or more, he would have to afford a car."

Sara satirized. Unlike Maura, Sara had married an excellent husband, who was already the manager of the company's personnel department at such a young age. So Sara was confident enough in front of Maura.

Maura turned around and didn't look at Sara.

"Hum." Maura hum with disdain. Maura ignored her, so she felt boring to mock Maura then.

At this moment, a black Audi A8 drove into the gate, and behind it was a Jetta taxi.

Sara became excited.

"Maura, my husband has come to pick me up. You can stay here to bask in the sun." Sara went to the Audi car with complacency.

Maura bit her lips. Of course, she was jealous. Sara's husband drove an Audi A8 car, worth about one million yuan, but her husband drove an electric scooter.

Sometimes when it rained, both Finn and she would be drenched.

The car stopped at the gate, then the window lowered, Sid's face revealing.

"Honey!" Sara went to Sid and then kissed his face.

"Sara, get in the car."

Sid smiled gentlemanly. Glancing at Maura, Sid felt Maura stunning. Over three years, Maura was as beautiful as before. Time didn't leave any evidence on Maura's face, but bring her more charms of maturity.

Then looking at Sara beside him, Sid found that with heavy makeup, Sara was good-looking, but she was much more inferior to Maura, who was even without any makeup.

If only he had been one step earlier than that coward, Sid thought. Three years ago, Sid was attracted by Maura, but when he intended to chase after her, a claim came from Shawn's Family.

Maura had married a delivery man!

Sid felt the sky falling, but the die was cast, so he had no choice but to marry Sara.

Sid couldn't forget Maura at all. Even when he heard that Maura didn't live well, he had imagined to divorce Sara and chase after Maura again.

But it was just an imagination.

Sid sighed and was ready to drive. But at this moment, he saw a familiar figure in the driving mirror.

Was it that coward Finn? Sid sneered.

"Maura, sorry, I'm late." Finn got out of the taxi, wiping the sweat off on his head and then rushed to Maura.

"It's OK." Maura was confused about that Finn didn't drive the electric scooter today, but she didn't ask.

"Come on, let's go back." Finn smiled.

"Hey, Finn, where is your electric scooter?" Sara asked sarcastically. At least Finn usually drove a scooter to pick Maura up, but today, even the scooter wasn't here. Did he want to go back on foot?

Finn squinted his eyes. "What does it have to do with you?" He knew Sara's disdain to Maura, so he wouldn't be polite to Sara.

Sara choked. They were bound to be a couple, for they could speak the same word.

But Sara wouldn't be polite to Finn, too. "What did you say? Do you know any order? How can you speak to your cousin like that? Rude!"

"Sara, be polite to speak the language!" Finn didn't say anything, but Sara stood out with a cold face.

"What, for this coward, I'll..."

"Slap!"

Sara was still speaking, but Maura slapped her.

Sara was stunned, so were Sid and Finn.

With a cold face, Maura clenched her teeth. "Do you dare to speak coward again?"

She was...slapped? Sara was shocked.

"Ah! Bitch! I'll kill you!"

Suddenly, Sara cried and rushed to Maura.

At this moment, Finn stepped out to protect Maura behind him.

Sid stepped forward as well. He intended to help, but in the face of stronger Finn, he stopped and held Sara.

If the fight started, faced with Finn, who had been exercising all the time, Sid knew he had no chance to win, so he didn't want to be humiliated here.

"Sid Zhao, what are you pulling me for? This bitch slapped your wife, and you don't help but pull me!"

Sara screamed hysterically, with no grace at all, attracting a lot of employees in the company came out to watch, which made Sid feel shameful.

"Enough!" Sid heavily grabbed Sara, glaring.

"Boohoo, honey, that bitch, Maura slapped me."

Finn's face suddenly turned cold. He stepped forward and then slapped Sara.

It was OK to curse him as a coward, but it was unacceptable to curse Maura!

He slapped much heavier than Maura, leaving a fingerprint on Sara's face.

"Finn Chen, you coward dare to slap me! And bitch Maura..."

With pain, Sara was crazy. She broke away from Sid and then rushed to Finn.

Slap! Slap!

How could Sara's petite body fight against Finn? So there were two more slaps, making Sara almost fainted.

"Honey, honey, this coward! He...he slapped me! Ah! I'm going to die!"

Sara was about to be mad.

"If you can't control your mouth, I don't mind tearing it up!" Finn said coldly. The bloody looking in his eyes showed that he would really do that if he wanted.

This scene shocked all the people nearby, including Sid and Maura, stunned here.

Koenigsegg

"Finn Chen, you...what are you doing?" Sid really wanted to fight against Finn but recoiled because of Finn's eyes.

But his wife had been slapped, so he had to stand out. Stuttering, Sid roar, "You...you coward! As a man, you even hurt a woman!"

"I never hurt women, but is Sara Shawn a woman?" Finn sneered. "I've been intending to tear off her mouth for a long time! This is just a warning, and if she dares to do that next time, I won't let her go such easily."

"And you! If you're unconvinced, look for me at any time. But if I know you dare to trouble Maura, I'll send you to the hell."

Sid's face changed. He felt a horrible murderous look from Finn, which made him terrified.

He doubted. Was this...terrifying man that coward Finn?

Finn went to Maura Shawn, smiling. "Maura, let's go back home."

"OK." Maura obediently nodded her head. Finn's performance today shocked her as well, and she even felt Finn had changed to another person when he said those words before.

She couldn't be sure. Finn had never done such things as cursing, fighting, and threatening.

But fortunately, all Finn had done were for her.

Just after they walked a few steps, a sharp roar of the engine came from the distance. A few seconds later, a black car appeared.

The loud roar from the engine, with a streamlined body full of technical sense shining in the sun, and in a black and gold skin full of supremacy and nobility, the supercar was like a noble emperor, sending out a breathtaking momentum.

In an instant, people here were attracted.

Everything was eclipsed in the face of this black supercar!

"Koenigsegg"

Some people who knew the car were short of breath and then shouted out loud.

But more people were staring at the car and wanted to know why this car would appear at the gate of Shawn's Family.

Sara stopped crying with tension, for that car was coming to them.

Stopped!

It stopped!

Sara's breathing was a little short, and Sid swallowed.

The door opened, a man in a floral shirt got out of the car, coming to them.

Sid took a deep breath, thinking about whether he had seen this man before.

"Sir..." Sid forced a smile, ready to greet the man.

But his smile was frozen.

Because the man didn't give him a look but walked behind.

Behind him...

Sid turned around quickly and saw a scene he would never forget.

The man who got off from the Koenigsegg bowed to Finn!

Sid rubbed his eyes, feeling that he must have seen wrong.

"Mr. Chen, you forgot to drive your car." The Cheetah respectfully said. His word was sensible. He didn't say that the car was a gift from Hans, but say that Finn forgot to drive, which meant that the car belonged to Finn originally, and made Finn have no reason to refuse.

Finn was speechless. There was no car he forgot. If there was, it shouldn't be this extremely cool supercar but his electric scooter.

For the sensible word, Finn had no reason to refuse.

"Sorry, I was in a hurry before. Thanks for sending it." Finn casually took the key.

"Mr. Chen, you're welcome." The Cheetah smiled.

Sid and Sara were stunned, so were the people in Shawn's company.

Did this supreme car really belong to Finn, the coward?

Maura was shocked as well. She was the one who knew Finn best, but she couldn't believe that the car was Finn's.

"Come on, Maura. Let's go home." Finn waved his hand.

Finn opened the door for Maura, and then Maura got in the car.

Finn looked at Sid and Sara with a slight smile and then drove the car to leave.

"It's...impossible!"

"It must be rented!"

Sara didn't have time to care about the humiliation of being slapped but cursed again. She would never believe that the car belonged to Finn.

"Stupid! That car can't be rented!" Sid gritted his teeth, with fear in eyes. He could be sure that the car wasn't rented. He worked in Hans's company, and three days ago, he had seen Hans drive this car. According to people's words, this car was newly-acquired, a global limited edition car worth 26.8 million yuan. There were only six in Country C. Hans prepared to take this car as a birthday gift to a provincial leader.

But today, Finn kept this car. Sid didn't know why but know Finn couldn't rent it, because no one could afford to rent it.

"What do you mean, honey?" Sara looked confused. It was not rented, but bought?

"Nothing. Don't offend Maura and Finn in the future! I advise you not to think about revenge as well!"

Sid said coldly, and then he got in the car.

Sara stamped her foot and then followed.

In the car, Maura looked at Finn. "Don't do that kind of thing again in the future."

"Ah? What kind of thing?" Finn was confused.

"Rent a car." Maura glared at Finn. "I know that you don't want to disgrace me, but you don't have to rent a car. It must cost a lot of money to rent such a car."

Finn looked strange. He was thinking about how to explain, but Maura had helped him find the excuse.

"Well, it didn't cost a lot. Take easy. I won't do this again." Finn said.

"That's good."

Maura turned her head away, with a serious expression, but a faint smile in her face.

Jones Chen was efficient. In less than half a day, he had decided on the specific detail of the cooperation.

Chen's Family invested 35 billion yuan, while Hans Shen 15 billion to establish a tourism company, named The Group of Pinnacle.

The company would completely develop Spring Hill to build a large-scale resort.

This news soon spread all over City C, shocking all the people in City C.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 10 An unprecedented Project

The project invested with 50 billion yuan was unprecedented in City C, which would bring significant changes.

But what shocked people more was that the leader of this project was Chen's Family!

The most powerful family in Capital!

The super influential family with great influences in military, politics, and business, standing at the peak of Country C!

Numerous businessmen were envious, asking around whether they could participate in this great project.

It was the project led by Chen's Family!

With Chen's foresight and rich financial power, this project couldn't fail, but make money, a lot of money!

Moreover, Hans Shen's participation also made those businessmen more reassured.

This project was like a money tree that whoever participated would make much money.

For this reason, numerous businessmen came to The Group of Pinnacle to seek for cooperation. They kept their attitude low. Even some companies promised that as long as they could participate, they would give up the shares.

Finn Chen was shocked by this news. He didn't expect this situation.

Everyone thought the vestment in Spring Hill was a "no-lose" business.

But only Finn knew that this investment was just playing. Even in his plan, it would fail this time.

He had never thought about making money from it.

But these businessmen take this seriously.

The reputation of Chen's Family was reliable enough to make those businessmen ignore the risks.

The conference room, top floor of the Cloud Edifice, the headquarter of Shawn's Family.

Less than half an hour after the Group of Pinnacle announced the project, Shawn's Family held an emergency meeting.

Scott Shawn sat on the chairman's seat, squinting. The other members were in two columns. Everyone's expression was extremely dignified.

"I think you've heard about the Spring Hill project, right?" Scott opened his eyes.

"Yes." They all nodded, but with different expressions.

"In three days, no matter what your plan is, I need you to make Shawn's Family participate in the Spring Hill project." Scott glanced at the members and said with an unquestionable tone.

The members were embarrassed and lowered their heads.

"Father, it seems to be...impossible." After a long time, Carl said cautiously. He was Scott's eldest son and the next head of the family, so no one could know Shawn's situation better than him.

Today's Shawn's Family had long been declined.

Since some large real estate groups settled in City C, Shawn's real estate industry had been depressed, and the output value had also plummeted.

Several real estate projects were without any interest.

Today's Shawn's Family was an empty shell, without anything left except for a few professional engineering teams.

Such Shawn's Family even couldn't enter the gate if they wanted to participate in the Spring Hill project.

"Impossible..." Scott's fingers slightly tap on the table, making the members around feel nervous.

"So, everyone's year-end bonus will be halved," Scott said faintly.

The members were shocked. Be Halved? How can they live with that?

Shawn's Family contained a family business, so everyone in this company was related to Shawn's Family.

Half of the year-end bonus was equal to deducting half of everyone's salary.

People like Carl Shawn, who could get 20 million yuan a year, could only get 10 million now.

Obviously, Scott was enraged!

If they couldn't make Shawn's Family participate in that project, Scott would do that as he said.

Then they would suffer.

The members became anxious and were debating, intending to discuss a way to participate in the Spring Hill project.

It was as difficult as climbing to the sky!

Today's Shawn's Family was too weak to cooperate with the Group of Pinnacle.

Hank Shawn took a complaining look at Carl. He didn't know why his father wanted to be such a pioneer. Now Scott was enraged, and everyone would suffer.

Seeing that all the members were depressed, Scott seemed to realize that he was too harsh, so he relaxed his voice. "If the member of Shawn, whoever he is, can make a cooperation with the Group of Pinnacle, I'll reward him with the property in the east of the city."

"The building in the east of the city?"

Many members were shocked.

"Grandfather has made a deadly investment. The building in the east can be sold for at least 30 million!"

"Yes, but I still don't think the Group of Pinnacle will agree to cooperate with us."

Some people were excited about Scott's reward, but more people were depressed for its difficulty.

With a building valued more than 30 million yuan as a reward, Scott had cheered up many members.

Maura was cheered up as well, but thinking of the resources Grant had, she felt hopeless again.

Grant Shawn was the least valued among Scott's three sons.

The engineering teams in Carl's hands were the best. With excellent skills and rich experiences, they had built most of Shawn's buildings.

But Grant's engineering team was made up of the ousted. With this team, it was a joke to discuss cooperation with the Group of Pinnacle.

So Carl was the only one who could probably finish the task.

As Maura expected, Carl stood out and promised that he would sleep at the gate of the Group of Pinnacle tonight to take the first step tomorrow to discuss with the Group of Pinnacle.

Scott nodded with satisfaction.

Maura sighed. It seemed that the things next had nothing to do with her.

But at this moment, Hank said. "Grandfather, to make our value bigger, uncle Grant should give us his team, so that we should have more confidence when negotiating with the Group of Pinnacle."

Maura's face changed. The people in Grant's team were unskilled, but they were the only capital in Grant's hands. Once Grant gave the team to Carl, he couldn't get back again no matter this negotiation succeeded or failed.

In the future, Grant would get no share from the family, and he would become an inessential people for Shawn's Family.

"I don't agree!"

Maura refused without thinking. She couldn't believe that Hank was so shameless that he wanted to take Grant's only resource taking advantage of Grant's coma, which was indeed forcing their family to die!

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 11 A Ruthless Decision

"Maura, I'm doing it for the sake of the family. We can't know when your father will wake up, so his team can't stay in vain. The negotiation with the Group of Pinnacle was about our future, so to be on the safe side, we must gather all the resources we have." Hank Shawn looked serious.

Sara Shawn found it an opportunity to humiliate Maura, so she echoed. "I agree. Maura, at this time, you shouldn't be too selfish. For our family, you should make some sacrifices."

Sara had been slapped by Finn and Maura yesterday, so she would do anything disadvantageous to them.

If it were not that Sid disagreed, she would have to look for someone in the underground to give them a lesson.

Other members agreed as well because doing this, on the one hand, could befriend to Carl, who would be the next head of the family, and on the other hand, could kick Grant's family out of the core-level of Shawn's Family, so that they could get more shares.

Their ruthless words fell into Maura's ears. In this conference room, no one stood by Maura's side.

Maura's body shook with fury. She had never thought that one day, she would be forced such ruthless.

Even these people who were forcing her were her relatives.

Maura looked at Scott, who was the only able to help her.

But Scott's word made her felt colder.

"Let Grant stay in the hospital to have a good rest." Obviously, he supported Hank, too!

Maura looked pale. Scott's word was the death sentence for Grant, which meant their little family had no hope at all.

"That's all for today. The meeting is over." Scott got up slowly and left the conference room.

Hank got up, too. He walked to Maura, looking at her with complacency. "Maura Shawn, do you dare to be against me again?"

"Shameless!" Maura was clenching her teeth, eyes red with fury.

"Haha, shameless?" So what? Didn't you see that even grandfather stood by me, the shameless guy?" Hank laughed. In Shawn's Family, Scott was the god that no one dared to question his decision even though it was wrong!

"Hum, you'd better go home and deliver food with your useless husband. That's what you should do." Hank sneered, then left, humming.

The conference room empty, Maura couldn't help sobbing on the table.

In the evening, Finn went home early. He put the rice into the steamer, and then prepared to pick up Maura.

But when he opened the door, he found Maura standing at the door.

"Why are you back so early today?" Finn asked.

Maura didn't answer. Looking at her for a while, Finn found something wrong.

With a smell of wine on her body, Maura's eyes were red.

Did she drink? Finn frowned. Maura hadn't drunk at all since they got married three years ago. Why did she drink so much today?

Maura entered in a daze and then sat on the sofa.

When Finn worried and was about to ask, Leah came out from her bedroom.

"My dear daughter, what's the matter?"

Seeing Leah, Maura couldn't help but hug her, crying.

"Honey, who made you so wronged? Tell me. Was that bastard Finn Chen?" Leah subconsciously thought it was Finn who made Maura angry.

Maura shook her head, crying. "sobbing, mom, I'm sorry for dad."

"Dad? What's the matter?"

Maura told the matter with a face full of grievances. Then Leah was furious.

"Bastards! I'll look for them. Your father is in a coma, not dead. How can they bully us so much?" Leah was madly furious. Their family was already in financial difficulties. If the engineering team was lost, they would live on air."

Finn's face was terrible, as well. Grant worked so hard for Shawn's Family. He should be given credit for hard work, if not for merit. Now he was just in a coma for an accident, but those people were in a hurry to get the resource from his hands, which was incredibly shameless!

But Finn also knew that it would only be humiliating to argue with Hank now. No one dared to question Scott's decision.

So Finn persuaded. "Mom, calm down first. This matter..."

"Calm down? How can I calm down?" Leah turned around and glared at Finn. "If it wasn't for your uselessness, how can they treat us like this?"

"Mom, don't blame Finn. It was because of my uselessness." Maura shook her head, sobbing.

"Don't blame him? Who should I blame? If it weren't this coward whose work is delivering food, a shame for Shawn's Family, your grandfather wouldn't have been dissatisfied with your father. And today's matter would never have happened!"

"It's all because of him! If this coward were capable even a little, you wouldn't have suffered such a lot!"

Leah's tone was full of disgust for Finn, but Maura was just crying.

"Maura, mom is right. It's because of my uselessness. I'll give you a result." Finn took a deep breath and then said calmly. He didn't blame Leah because Leah wasn't wrong. It was indeed because of him that Scott didn't take Grant seriously.

He was the only one who should be blamed, for he was disappointing!

And, Hank! He was looking for death! It was OK to humiliate Finn himself, but it was acceptable to bully Maura!

Finn pushed the door to leave, dialing Jones Chen's phone.

"Who's in charge of the Spring Hill project?" Finn asked with anger.

As if feeling Finn's anger, Jones hurriedly said. "Young master, it's Shane Lin, our man."

"Tell Shane Lin that tomorrow some people from Shawn's Family will talk to him about cooperation. I want to see them come out with pain!"

"Yes, young master." Jones hurriedly nodded. How did those people offend Finn to make him such angry?"

Finn hung up the phone, clenching his fist. Did Shawn's Family want to participate in the project? Did they want to be dominant in City C again? It was making a dream!

The next morning, dressed formally, Carl and Hank rushed to the Group of Pinnacle.

They felt nervous, for they had heard that many people even hadn't seen the manager of the Group of Pinnacle, not to mention cooperation.

So it was still a question whether they should see the manager.

However, just when they arrived and said out the name of Shawn's Family, the receptionist asked someone to lead them in.

They couldn't calm down until they entered the elevator. The manager of the Group of Pinnacle, who had refused hundreds of companies, was willing to see them!

Daydream

"Dad, it's not a dream, right?" Hank Shawn asked excitedly.

Carl Shawn pretended to be calm. "Son, calm down. Though our family is now in decline, it used to be a well-known family in this city. The Group of Pinnacle is the new-raised, so they don't dare to offend us. When we get in later, keep your attitude higher. Don't let them look down on us."

"Well, dad, don't worry." Hanks nodded. Then the two swaggered into the manager's office.

In the office, Shane Lin was lying on the chair, without any attention to the two people who were getting in.

Hank was confused. This was different from what he imagined. Shouldn't Shane Lin stand up hurriedly and bow to them?

Shane didn't speak, which eventually made Carl feel something wrong. However, since they had come, they couldn't go back without doing anything.

"Mr. Lin, I'm Carl Shawn..." Carl greeted cautiously.

"Fine," Shane replied lightly.

Carl's face changed. Shane's arrogant attitude made him frustrated, but he couldn't say anything. People had to be humble when they asked for help, so Carl had to keep his attitude lower.

"Mr. Lin, I'm here to talk about the Spring Hill project, so you..."

"Do you have anything special in resort construction?" Shane interrupted Carl.

Carl cheered up. As long as Shane spoke, the negotiation would be possible.

“Mr. Lin, we have nine professional engineering teams with a variety of large construction equipment. Besides, we’re good at the business of real estate, and our workers are experienced. We built many famous buildings in City C...”

Carl was so eloquent that he didn’t stop boasting their teams for almost ten minutes until he felt thirsty.

Then Carl looked at Shane with confidence, thinking that his words should move Shane.

But the scene he saw shocked him a lot.

Shane Lin fell asleep on the chair!

With snore!

Carl’s eyes turned red. How could Shane treat him like that?

Hank beside Carl was furious, as well. Usually, when people heard that he was from Shawn’s Family, they would respect him much, but today, Carl and he had been ignored many times!

“Mr. Lin!” Carl deepened his voice. Though he was furious, he was not stupid. He didn’t dare to blame Shane, for what was behind Shane were Hans Shen and Chen’s Family, which could tread Shawn’s Family repeatedly on the ground.

“Hum? What’s the matter?” Shane seemed to wake up from the dream, looking at the two confusedly.

"No...nothing. I've said our specialties." Carl restrained the anger and gave a signal to Hank.

Hank got it, taking out a long sandalwood box from behind, and respectfully putting it in front of Shane. "Mr. Lin, my father, he heard that you like tea, so he specially bought this blue and a white porcelain tea set from the street selling antique. I hope you like it."

Shane glanced at Hank, then opened the box, a set of the blue and white tea set, crystal clear and bright, lying in the box.

It was indeed an excellent tea set, though it was not the best blue glaze. It was worth more than one million.

They had invested a lot. Shane sneered.

"Mr. Lin..." Seeing Shane seem satisfied, Carl had the hope again.

"Mr. Shane, I think you have missed a specialty of Shawn's Family," Shane said.

"Ah?" Carl and Hank looked at each other, confused. Was there any more specialty Shawn's Family had?

"Mr. Lin, please make it clear," Carl asked respectfully.

"Making daydreams!" Shane sneered. "The daydreams Shawn's Family made are all interesting."

Humiliation!

An obvious humiliation!

Carl and Hank's faces suddenly twisted.

It was not until now did they realized that Shane had been playing with them at the beginning!

From the beginning, Shane had intended to humiliate them!

Carl couldn't control his anger. He asked with fury. "Mr. Lin, what have we done to offend you?"

Carl was not stupid. He definitely found Shane's intention now. He had doubted that why Shane, who refused to see hundreds of companies, wanted to see them.

Now obviously, it was not because they were superior, but Shane intended to humiliate them.

"Offend me? Do you think you have the ability to offend me?" Shane sneered, picking up the box on the desk and throwing it on Carl's face.

Carl screamed, covering his nose and stepping back.

Crash!

The tea set in the box dropped on the ground, smashed into pieces.

"Son of a bitch!"

Hank madly rushed to Shane like a furious lion.

Shane sneered, kicking Hank to the ground.

"Guards!"

The bodyguards at the door heard the sound and came in.

"Mr. Shane!" The bodyguards looked at Shane.

"These two idiots intend to attack me. Let them know who's the master here!" Shane ordered. Since Jones gave him the task last night, he wondered how to enrage Carl and Hank and make them attack him actively. Now, it seemed that Hank didn't let him down.

"Yes, Mr. Shane."

The bodyguards grinned ferociously and surrounded Carl and Hank.

A few minutes later, Carl and Hank lay on the ground, beaten black and blue, breathing hard.

"Take them out and tell those who are waiting at the door. No matter who wants to cooperate with the Group of Pinnacle, he must first break the relationship with Shawn's Family. Otherwise, there is no way to talk about the cooperation!"

Carl and Hank, lying on the ground, heard this, with fury and fear, fainting.

The bodyguards carried them out and threw them out like the dead dogs.

The people from other companies at the door were confused.

Half an hour ago, didn't Carl and Hank complacently went to talk about cooperation with Shane? How had they been thrown out after just a flash?

They had been jealous before to Carl, thinking that Shawn's Family would be the first company to cooperate with the Group of Pinnacle. But now, looking at the two's miserable appearances, they took a deep breath. Fortunately, they weren't themselves.

The bodyguards loudly relayed Shane's words again.

As expected, the crowd suddenly became noisy.

"Are the two so arrogant to attack Mr. Lin here?"

"Hahaha, it's funny. How could that old fox, Scott, send such two fools here?"

"Shawn's Family is over. Since Mr. Lin has said this, nobody will dare to cooperate with Shawn's Family anymore."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 13 Do You Believe Me?

After Carl Shawn and Hank Shawn were carried back by Shawn's Family, Jones Chen made a phone call to Finn Chen again.

After hearing the good news, Finn nodded in satisfaction because Jones did not let him down. He did let Carl and his son walk in, but were carried out.

Finn was in a splendid mood. But at this time in the Cloud Edifice conference room, the Shawns all had a melancholy face.

After Carl and hank woke up, they were slapped by Scott Shawn, who was irritated.

Scott didn't expect that Carl and his son, who contacted the cooperation with the Group of Pinnacle sending by him, did not only fail but riled the head of Pinnacle.

Not to mention participating in the Spring Hill project now, whether Shawn's Family could tide over the difficulty was a problem.

After all, the only profitable means of Shawn's Family now was their engineering teams. But as long as Shane Lin denied Shawn's Family, no company will dare to use their engineering team. Thousands of people in the engineering team had no work to do, but the wages still had to be paid.

It directly forced Shawn's Family into a dead end.

"Can't you do anything right?" The furious Scott thumped the conference table. Carl and Hank did not dare to lift their heads. At this time, Scott was in a rage, and they had no chance to say anything.

"Dad, the priority now is not to pursue my eldest brother, but to find a way to obtain Shane's forgiveness. The staff just sent word that seven more companies stopped their partnership with us," Sara's father frowned speaking.

In the large Family of Shawn's Family, Carl and his son made mistakes that required the whole Shawn's Family to bear the responsibility.

"Honestly! I don't know what's wrong with their minds. They even went to the site of Pinnacle Group to fight their bosses!"

"Now, we Shawn's Family has become a hated enemy, and they should be satisfied at last."

Many relatives of Shawn's Family began to express their strong dissatisfaction with Carl and his son.

Carl and his son were miserable. No matter how wrong with their minds, they won't go to other's sites to hit their boss. They were all framed by Shane, but nobody believed them.

What did you think you were? What qualifications did you have to be framed by Shane?

Scott sat weakly on his chair. He also wanted to obtain Shane's forgiveness, but now he didn't know how did Shawn's Family offend him and how he was going to talk with him.

Was Shawn's Family inherited for over two thousand years going to be destroyed in his hands? Scott thought sadly.

Maura Shawn was also in the conference room. She wouldn't have the slightest sympathy for Carl and Hank. But for Shawn's Family, she still had some feelings, and now Shawn's Family was facing the biggest crisis in its history. There was nothing she could do about it. This feeling of powerlessness made Maura extremely frustrated.

At this moment, Maura's phone rang.

"Do you believe me?"

It was a WeChat message from Finn.

Maura was stunned. Believe me? What did he mean?

"Believe."

Maura hesitated for a moment, her fingers quickly typing out two words. She didn't know why Finn was asking this, but she was willing to believe him.

"If you believe me, tell your grandpa that you can make Shawn's Family participate in the Spring Hill project. But the condition is that after it's done, Carl and his son must hand over all the engineering teams they have to you."

Looking at this long news, Maura fell into a sluggishness, was Finn crazy? Why did he say that? Did he not know that Carl and his son were kicked out by Pinnacle Group?

Maura subconsciously felt that Finn was talking nonsense. But she suddenly thought of Finn's sentence last night, "I will give you an account of this matter."

Did the matter of Carl and Hank relate to Finn?

An unbelievable thought popped up in Maura's mind, and then she shook her head. Finn couldn't have such a great ability. She must have overthought it.

"Is there anyone else willing to go talk to Pinnacle Group? As long as Shane is willing to spare Shawn's Family, Shawn's Family can pay any price." Scott asked with a tired voice, and many members of Shawn's Family were sad. No one can imagine that the old man who was still high and mighty yesterday will be humble today. It was still for Shawn's Family.

It's a lie that she didn't complain about Scott because he took the side of Carl and Hank yesterday. But seeing Scott today, Maura's heart softened because Scott was just an old man who was dedicated to Shawn's Family.

"I will."

Maura took a deep breath and stood up.

Although she felt that Finn was incredible, she was willing to believe Finn once. Because this was the first time, Finn had been so serious since they had married for three years.

Even if she knew that Finn was talking nonsense, she was willing to try it for him!

The one standing up was Maura?

Everyone in Shawn's Family was dumbfounded. Was this woman crazy?

Even Carl and his son were driven out, where did she get the courage?

Scott was full of surprises. But after the surprise, he sighed and expressed. Shawn's Family, with a population of nearly one hundred, finally one stood out, it was a girl!

Maura, do you...have confidence?" Scott asked with a pause in his mouth. He knew very well that no matter who talked, hope was frail.

"How can we know if we don't have a try." Maura faintly said.

"How can such a thing be tried? What if Maura is like uncle Carl, and upsets Shane again, what should we do?" Sara muttered.

"Shut up!" Sean Shawn glared coldly at Sara, the stupid daughter of his was hopeless.

"What I said is true!" Sara was a little dissatisfied.

"Then you can try it. I don't expect much of you, as long as you find a way to make Shane spare our Family." Scott spoke. There was no good way to do it now.

"Okay, but I have a condition." Maura nodded and said.

"What conditions?"

"After it's done, I want all the engineering teams of my uncle and Hank!" Maura pointed at Carl and his son in the corner.

"Hiss."

Shawn's Family crowd sucked in a breath of cold air, so ruthless!

Where on earth did Maura get her confidence?

"No way! Maura, don't think about it!"

Hank said angrily. Although he felt that Maura and Shane could not negotiate successfully, But in case if the negotiation was successful? Hand over all the engineering teams of him and his father, they had nothing.

"It doesn't matter!"

Maura did not argue with Hank but sat directly on the chair.

"I promise you that as long as you can make Shane spare our family, I will give them all the engineering teams to you!" Scott spoke.

"Grandpa, that's not fair!" Hank was unconvinced.

"Pah."

Scott slapped directly on Hank's face and said lightly: "Is it fair now?"

The strong sense of humiliation almost made Hank clench his teeth. But at this time, he didn't dare to contradict Scott. His resentment against Maura reached an extreme.

"Maura, is there anything else you want?" Scott asked.

Maura shook her head.

"Then... Shawn's Family is all up to you." Scott sighed.

Maura then left the Cloud Edifice lightly.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 14 Why Rest?

In the conference room, people had different thoughts, but most people hoped that Maura Shawn could create miracles.

Only Carl Shawn and his son didn't think so. They wished Maura fail. If Maura made a deal, wouldn't it prove that he and his son were incompetent?

Hank Shawn even viciously hoped that Shane would treat Maura as rudely as them, and it was best to humiliate Maura as well.

Maura took a taxi to The Group of Pinnacle downstairs, looking uneasy.

In fact, until now, she couldn't believe that she agreed to come here because of Finn's words.

And to challenge this almost impossible task.

Maura almost entered Shane's office with the preparation to accept failing. Even she was ready to be humiliated by Carl and his son if she failed.

Fifteen minutes later, Maura came out with an incredible look.

Maura completed the task so smoothly that she thought she was dreaming.

After entering, Shane Lin didn't say anything about Carl and his son. On the contrary, his attitude was surprisingly good. Maura even felt that Shane was so kind to her that he intended to do something to her.

But until she came out of the office, Shane didn't do anything too much.

After returning to The Cloud Edifice, Maura still did not recover.

In the Meeting room, they saw that Maura was out of her mind, so they felt disappointed--obviously, the negotiation failed.

There was a flash of joy in Hank's eyes--you bitch. I thought you were capable, but you had been thrown out after only ten minutes.

"Alas." Scott Shawn glanced at Maura and sighed. Then he waved weakly and said, "Go back to rest."

"Rest?" Maura reacted: " Why rest?"

"Hum, you have failed. Why don't you rest? Do you still want uncle to give you the construction team?" Sara Shawn coldly hummed and quipped.

"Who said I failed?" Maura glimpsed Sara coldly and then threw the contract on the conference table.

"What do you mean!" Sara suddenly had a terrible guess.

Maura smiled, "Nothing. Shane promised to let Shawn's Family participate in the Spring Hill Resort project, and he can let bygones be bygones."

Golly!

All people here were shocked, just like a sculpture standing in situ!

"No... it's impossible." Hank and Sara questioned aloud. Other members of Shawn's Family doubted as well.

"The contract is here, in black and white, with fingerprints on it. Would you like to have a look?" Maura smiled and laughed. She had never been so proud of the family meeting.

Hank hurried to the table, took out the contract, and looked over it when he saw Shane Lin's signature. He felt cold.

"Fake! Yes, this contract must be fake! "As if he had thought of something, Hank suddenly said with excitement, "Maura, you are so bold that you even cheated Grandpa with a fake contract!"

"Grandpa, you should immediately check the authenticity of this contract. I also think it's fake. How can she reach cooperation with The Group of Pinnacle in ten minutes?" Sara also hurriedly added.

Maura looked at the two people like idiots--fake? She must be crazy. Just a call should be enough to prove it.

"Shut up!" Scott yelled at them coldly, then picked up the contract and carefully reviewed it.

After a while, his hand began to tremble--it was true!

Shawn's Family had reached cooperation with The Group of Pinnacle, and the excellent conditions in the contract exceeded Scott's imagination! The price offered by The Group of Pinnacle to Shawn's Family was twice as much as what Shawn's Family wanted!

"Maura, you saved our family!" Scott was excited.

Hearing these words, Hank and Sara turned pale.

Maura Shawn made it!

Hank's heart sank. He couldn't imagine why Shane had very different attitudes towards them and Maura.

"You bitch, did you sleep with Shane?!"

"Definitely! Maura, you bitch, you have lost the face of our Shawn's Family!"

"Slap--"

Scott Shawn got up suddenly and slapped Hank to the ground.

"You bastard! Do you have any sense of shame! "Scott trembled with rage. He didn't expect Hank was so narrow-minded.

"Grandpa, why do you slap me? You ask this bitch what's her advantage except for her body! "Hank hysterically said. Today's barrage of blows made him so crazy to lose all his mind that he even dared to contradict Scott Shawn.

After Hank said this, the eyes of many members of Shawn's Family at Maura also changed. Yes, how did Maura talk to Shane? Shane had refused so many companies. Why did he cooperate with Maura?

Looking at all the strange eyes, Maura was wronged. She naturally knew what was going on in all the people's minds, but she didn't know why Shane cooperated with her.

Was it ... Finn?

Maura suddenly thought of the WeChat message sent by Finn half an hour ago.

Finn Chen knew Shane!

Maura suddenly realized, but then she felt curious. How did Finn know Shane?

Not giving her much time to think, Scott, who was exasperated at Hank's failure, kicked Hank to the ground, and then called the security guard to drag Hank out.

"Carl, give all the engineering teams in your hands to Maura tomorrow!" Scott coldly said.

Carl nodded immediately. Maura was a great contributor to Shawn's Family at this moment. Even if she wanted the stars in the sky, Scott would pick them for her.

"Besides, I said before that no matter who, as long as it can help our Family and The Group of Pinnacle to reach a cooperative relationship, as a reward, I will give him that set of real estate in the east of the city. Now, Maura has completed this task. I rewarded her with the property in the east. You guys, do you agree with that?" Scott glanced many Shawn's Family's relatives in the conference room again and asked majestically.

All relatives shook their heads and looked at Maura's eyes, full of jealousy. The property in the east was worth more than 30 million yuan. Maura just went and earned it in less than an hour.

"Thank you, Grandpa." Maura smiled sweetly--selling the real estate. She could buy a bigger house and a car for Finn.

"Girl, you deserve this." Scott was full of kindness. Compared with the Spring Hill project, a set of real estate was Nothing. If the Spring Hill project was operated well, Shawn's Family could profit at least 500 million yuan from it!

"Bang!"

In the deputy general manager's office, Hank's eyes were red, and he picked up the cup on the table and slammed it on the ground.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 15 Happy Maura

"Maura, you bitch!" Hank Xia gnashed his teeth and said furiously. Never had he been so disgraced. But just now, because of Maura, Scott slapped him publicly in the family meeting. God knew how much he wanted to kill her.

At this time, Carl walked in and said, "Hank."

"Dad," Hank lowered his head. Initially, he planned to take the engineering team from Grant to Carl. But Maura had ruined everything. Even Carl's teams were gone.

He had made a Pretty Woman sized mistake.

"Alas"

Carl sighed and said, "Do you know what's your fault?"

"I shouldn't have asked for Uncle Gran's engineering team before," Hank said, embarrassed. That's true. If he didn't do that, Maura wouldn't hold a grudge against him, let alone steal Scott's team.

Carl shook his head and replied, "No, not that; you did the right thing."

Hank looked at Scott, confused.

Carl added, "For our big family, there are no family relations at all. Everyone puts his interests in the first place. Scott is not eligible to hold those engineering teams. You and I should manage those. Only in that way can we maximize the interest. I'm glad that you got this point."

"Well then, what did I do wrong?"

"You cannot offend your grandfather. He is the one who has the biggest say in our whole Xia Family. But you made him lose face."

Hearing this, Hank realized the problem instantly. He was too mad then.

"Later, when he gets better, go to your grandfather and tell him you're wrong. You should apologize to him."

"Ok. I will. Thank you, daddy, " Hank replied.

"Hank, keep in mind that never violate your grandfather," Carl urged again.

"Sure. I won't be there in the future. But Maura had stolen our engineering team. What should we do?" Hank asked worriedly. After all, engineering teams were the core and the only way to make money for Xia's Family. Without those teams, he and his father would be like generals without an army.

Carl shook his head slowly and said in a deep voice, "You still don't get my point."

"Even if Maura had the engineering teams, without projects, they can achieve nothing."

"But she has projects. That bitch had reached a cooperation with the Group of Pinnacle. Frankly, that's a big deal." Hank said.

Carl didn't talk about the project anymore but said, "My son, keep that in mind—your grandfather has the most significant say in our family. "

"Dad, do you mean..." Hank replied surprisedly.

Carl continued, "Maura did reach a good deal with the Group of Pinnacle, but it is up to your grandfather, who will be the head."

"No matter how capable Maura is, she is a woman, let alone her useless husband. In no way will your grandpa give her the project."

"But you, you are the only male in the third generation of our family. You're born to be the heir. Even if your grandfather is dissatisfied with you, he will make you run the project."

"Haha~Dad, I get it!" Hank was thrilled, "Maura was nothing but a good helper. Although she agreed with the Group of Pinnacle, I'm the one who runs the project in the end. Wow, it seems I need to extend my gratitude to that bitch. Thank her for offering me such a good opportunity."

Carl smiled cunningly and said, "Yeah, you should thank her."

"I think I should call her to give me back the engineering team," Hank said hopefully. He couldn't wait to have the team and start the project right now.

However, Carl shook his head and said, "No. Make it slow. You can't demand the team first. After all, you have made a bet."

"But without the engineering team, how can we begin our project?", Hank asked.

"The engineering team will come back to you sooner or later. Besides, then, Maura will give that to you willingly." Carl stated confidently.

"Why?"

"The nine engineering teams have more than 3,000 people who are not working now. But Maura had to pay for their salary of nearly ¥8 million. She cannot afford that." Carl smiled viciously.

"Now, the Project of the Spring Hill represents the top priority. All resources of Xia's Family have to be in service of this project. Your grandpa will not let her pick up other works. Think about that. If the project cannot start a few days later, the whole family will pressure Maura. Then she has no choice but to give you back the teams."

Like a cunning fox, Carl had planned all well.

Hank shook his fist in excitement. He didn't expect things would go this way.

"Maura, huh, stupid women. All you do is for me," Hank thought.

At this time, Maura had returned home.

The first thing she did was to ask Finn Chen about his relations with Shane Lin.

Finn had already prepared his answer well--they were close classmates in college.

Maura was convinced, and even Leah started to appreciate him.

Anyway, having been in Xia's Family for three years, he had achieved something.

Maura was delighted that, for the first time, she felt protected by her husband.

And Finn was also very glad that he could make his wife happy.

After washing up, Finn returned to his bedroom. Despite their three-year marriage, they slept in separate rooms all the time.

Finn knew that Maura would not refuse his proposal to sleep together, but he didn't want to.

He did hope to have coitus with Maura. He loved Maura. But he would rather sleep with a Maura who fell in love with him.

Finn was uncertain whether Maura loved him. Perhaps she loved him, or she was just moved.

That's why he never crossed the line.

He hoped that one day, Maura would love him from the bottom of her heart.

That kind of sleep was much more meaningful and romantic.

"Bang! Bang! "

All of a sudden, someone was knocking on the door.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 16 Repair Light Bulb

It turned out to be Maura Maine, who wore black tulle pajamas, making her much more attractive and sexy. Her boobs looked perkier as if they were going to come out.

Perhaps it was because of the shower, Maura blushed as red as a rose. She was so gorgeous. Finn could not get his eyes off her.

"What's going on?" Finn asked curiously. Usually, Maura wouldn't come to him at night.

"Um... the lights in my bedroom were broken." Maura tried to say naturally, but somehow, she felt it so hard.

"Ah, I'll check it. Perhaps I can help." Finn said, disappointed. This was not what he expected.

"Well, Ok," she said in a pretty low voice. Maura's face turned a bright red. She was so nervous that she was keeping playing with her fingers, over and over again.

When she realized Finn was about to go to her room instantly, Maura got bashful but somewhat annoyed.

"Wait. Do you mind me sleeping in the same bed with you tonight?" Maura said shyly. But later, she flushed more the moment she realized that she seemingly took the initiative on this stuff.

Finn was shocked but shook his head, saying, "Or, I fix your lamp and go back to your room. I am no stranger to mending lights. I used to do that job when I was in school. "

"No. Never mind. I can do that by myself." Maura said coldly and then went out, slamming the door.

"Hey..." Finn was confused. It was she who came to him to fix the lights. So weird.

This night, Finn slept deeply.

However, Maura stayed up all night. Then early the next morning, she came out of the bedroom with dark circles around her eyes. She ignored Finn.

Finn felt embarrassed. "What happened to her?" Finn thought.

After he made breakfast, Finn went to the hospital to visit Scott Xia. After all, Scott should have experienced a car accident without Finn. He felt guilty.

After the operation, Scott woke up from a coma. He was still semiconscious, so Finn did not talk too much with him.

Having left the hospital, Finn opened the note someone gave him just now.

"Little lord, two groups of people are targeting you recently."

"Hans Shen's group is investigating your background."

"The other is Jason Chen's. The Ghost is monitoring you. They are so alarmed that I couldn't nose into too much."

"Be careful!"

After reading it, Finn tore the paper secretly.

He had expected that Hans would look into him. Since the day he met Hans, he knew the man was much more careful and cautious than he appeared. Even so, Chen's Family would not let him get any useful information.

What bothered him was The Ghost from Jason. He had heard a lot about The Group, which was a dominant force controlled by Jason. He got a little worried.

Although he had been Xia's Family for three years, Jason didn't let his guard down. He was too hard to deal with.

He had some forces, but he knew that compared with Jason's, that was nothing.

The only way for him was to proceed with caution.

After he returned home, Finn drove Maura to the company as always. He asked Jones to put the Koenigsegg in the villa located in Spring Hill and bought a new electric car.

"Why, are you still angry?" Finn asked with a smile.

Maura rolled her eyes and said coldly, "Nope. Why do you ask that? Should I be angry?"

"Well. Never mind." Finn smiled bitterly. He could not figure out why Maura treated him this way. Perhaps it's just her period.

Then they approached the company. Finn heard a voice of amusement when he was about to leave.

"Hello, Finn, where is your stupid car? Can't you afford the rent?" Sara Xia walked toward Finn, twisting at her waist.

Finn rolled his eyes--he had no word with this stupid woman.

"Huh, what about your face?" Maura said, smirking.

Heard this, Sara's face turned pale. No doubt, Maura's words got her, making her think of being slapped by them yesterday.

But Sara adjusted herself quickly and said, "Maura, here's good news for you. You'd be expelled from the Project of the Spring Hill."

Maura was shocked, frowning. What did Sara mean by that? She had made a deal with the Group of Pinnacle.

Finn squinted his eyes slightly. He had predicted this before.

Scott Xia, it's so you!

"Huh, idiot!" Sara snorted coldly.

"What do you mean? Where's grandpa?" Maura realized something. She needed to have a word with Scott.

"Grandpa went to Jinzhou to celebrate his friend's birthday," Hank appeared.

"Besides, before he left, grandpa made me run the project. So, Maura, you're out." Hank said proudly. As Carl Xia expected, Scott gave him the project after Hank apologized to him sincerely.

"What? That's mine. He has no right to do that."

Maura flew into a rage. She made efforts to deal with the Group of Pinnacle. Suddenly, someone told her she was out. What's worse, her rival took over her project.

Xia Hao smiled disdainfully and said, "You should know that I am born to be the heir of Xia's Family. You're out all the time!"

Maura was too angry to get any words out. Why? No matter how hard-working she was, Scott never praised her. The only one he cared for was the grandson—Hank.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 17 Afraid Of Him?

Finn Chen was not surprised about that. He was unequivocal such a big family's tradition-- the head of the family would always be a male, not a female.

"Alas, some people here just think too highly of themselves. Does she think that she can do whatever she wants by sleeping with Shane Lin?" Sara Shawn ridiculed. After she finished speaking, she also deliberately looked at Finn Chen and asked with a smile: "Finn, you still don't know how your wife talked business with the CEO of the Group of Pinnacle yesterday."

"Hmm?" Finn raised his eyebrows.

"I heard that they talked in a presidential suite at Hilton Hotel for two or three hours." Sara was added fuel to the fire.

"And then?"

Finn pretended to be surprised and asked. As for how did Maura Shawn talk business with Shane? He knew better than anyone. Was Sara, this stupid woman with cement in her head?

"What then? Finn, are you nuts? Shane was so handsome and rich, and Maura was so beautiful. They are all alone in the same room. I said that they were writing homework for two or three hours at the hotel. Do you believe it? "Sara was furious--Finn was such an idiot, she had hinted him so plainly, but he still didn't understand.

"Yes, I believe it." Finn nodded solemnly. "They are doing homework together, and Maura told me when she came back."

"Poof!"

Maura couldn't help laughing. Of course, she saw it already. Finn was playing dumb and playing Sara as if she was a monkey. This bastard, when did he become stingy like this?

Seeing Maura laughing, Sara finally realized that something was wrong, but at this time, she could only bite the bullet and forced herself to say: "Finn, you idiot, Maura cheated on you, do you know!"

"Oh, I see." Finn looked very serious.

Sara choked--Was he still so calm when he knew?

"Finn, are you still a man? Aren't you angry when your wife cheats on you? "Sara scolded.

"Why should I be angry?" Finn asked.

"You ... you are a waste!" Sara had nothing to say.

"He didn't dare to be angry. He didn't dare to do with Maura even he was angry." Hank Shawn sneered faintly. He looked down on Finn from the bottom of his heart and felt that Finn had lost all the faces of men. On that day, he humiliated Finn so much that Finn did not even speak one word.

"Hank, I heard that you were beaten yesterday. Are you all right?" Finn looked very sincere. Some people would think Finn was concerned about Hank if he didn't know it.

"Damn it! What does it matter to you when I'm beaten, you waste!" Hank's face distorted immediately. He had psychologically shadow because of Shane yesterday, so now, what he hated most was that others mentioned this matter.

It happened that Finn still added insult to injury.

"I just care about you, why are you angry?" Finn sighed and said.

"Get out! I don't need you to care about me, you waste! You are a waste which has been cheated and dares to be angry and dare not speak. What qualifications do you have to care about me!" Hank roared.

Maura was stunned by watching this scene. It was as if she met Finn for the first time. Was he still her submissive husband? How did he become so mean that he let Hank furious in three or two sentences?

"Is there a contradiction between being cheated and caring for you? Can't I care about you when I am cheated?" Finn still had a sincere face.

"Shut your fucking mouth!" Hank had been livid and couldn't wait to jump up and kick Finn. Today, he was going to show off in front of Maura and discourage her. As a result, he was stirred up by Finn, and it was himself who was hit.

Maura smiled brightly. Why didn't she find that there was such an exciting side in Finn before?

"What are you laughing at, bitch?!" Hank was already in a bad mood at the moment. Seeing Maura laughing, his mood was even worse.

"Hank, keep your mouth clean!" Maura frowned, suddenly lost her temper.

Finn's face also cooled down. He didn't mind that Hank scolded him, but when Hank was scolding Maura, that challenged his bottom line.

"You bitch, did I give you face? Don't think that if you sleep with Shane, you can do what you like in Shawn's Family. A whore like you can't call the shots in our Shawn's Family." Hank's words were not very pleasant. Maura's breast ups and downs, apparently she was extremely angry.

"Try to scold Maura again!" Finn's face was frighteningly cold.

Hank, who was facing Finn's cold eyes without any feelings, shuddered, but he was still quarrelsome, "Anyway, I have scolded her. I'm her cousin, so can't I scold her?" You are just a live-in son-in-law, who eat from our Shawn's Family and use everything in our Shawn's Family. What are you going to do? Do you still dare to beat me? "

"Clap-"

Mr. Chen slapped Hank, made him turned a circle in place, and Hank lost two of his teeth.

"Sorry, you are right, I dare to hit you," Finn said lightly. Dragon's rage couldn't be touched. Maura was his baseline that unable to touch!

Hank could humiliate him all the time, but to humiliate Maura, he was looking for death!

This slap made Hank saw stars. After a few seconds, he just reacted-- why Finn, a waste beat him?!

Shane could beat him, but what was Finn? Why should he beat himself? Hank suddenly became angry.

"Finn Lin, fuck you!" Hank roared and lunged at Finn.

Finn smiled disdainfully--it was no exaggeration to say that for Hank's small size, he could beat ten!

"Clap"

Another slap, like a gyro, Hank went around on the spot again.

"Finn, what are you doing! It's against the law to hit people, do you know that?" Sara panicked and tried to stop Finn.

"Shut your fucking mouth! Otherwise, I will beat you too!" Finn called out.

Sara suddenly fell silent.

Finn naturally had no idea of being kind to women. Besides, he had grown tired of Sara. If she was talkative again, he didn't mind letting Sara feel the taste of being slapped.

After two slaps from Finn, Hank was entirely stunned.

Was this still the waste son-in-law of Shawn's Family who didn't fight back and scold back? Why was he so cruel today?

Seeing Finn coming to himself again, Hank could not help but be fearful.

"Finn, you ... what are you doing? I am the only heir to the Shawn family. If anything happens to me, Grandpa will not let you go! "Hank threatened him in manner but cowardly in his heart.

Finn sneered and said, "Do you think I will be afraid of Scott Shawn?"

"Are you ... are you crazy!" Hank's eyes widened--Finn dared to call Scott Shawn by his name.

"Outrageous!"

"You are looking for death!"

"Drive him out of the Shawn Family!"

Challenging Scott!

Many of Shawn's family members as onlookers were also filled with righteous indignation. In Shawn's family, Scott was like a god-like existence, and no one dared to challenge Scott's dignity. But today, a son-in-law who just came by dared to call Scott's full name and provoked Scott. There's no way Shawn's family members could tolerate what he had done.

Even Maura's pretty face appeared a bit of worry, and felt what Finn had said were a little too much. If it passed to Scott's ears, Scott wouldn't give any mercy and forgive him easily; Scott might kick Finn out of Shawn's family.

Finn looked around coldly at Shawn's family members; In the opinion of Shawn's family members, Scott was a supreme existence to them. But in Finn's view, Scott was a stubborn person and old-fashioned.

In Finn's mind, Scott was not qualified to make him fear yet.

Finn saw that most of Shawn's family members were angry, their faces got entirely red with madness, but no one dared step forward and do anything for themselves. They would subconsciously step back when they had eye contact with Finn; Finn couldn't help laughing.

He shook his head and laughed scornfully: "What a bunch of garbage!"

A bunch of garbage who bullied the weak and feared the strong!

All the time, they were good at doing hold their heads high in front of the weak and bow low to the strong.

In the past, in order not to attract Chen's family's attention, Finn deliberately pretended to be weak. At that time, any member of Shawn's family dared to tease and humiliate him.

After three years of forbearance, he woke up and showed a wild side. Even if he called them garbage in front of them, they dared not also to respond.

How ridiculous and pathetic they were.

Finn suddenly lost interest in bullying such a group of people, which was really no fun.

"Maura, let's go back." Finn looked at Maura and smiled.

Maura looked at Finn with a worried face and nodded lightly.

Until they left the company courtyard, many members of Shawn's family in the yard relaxed and wiped the cold sweat.

Hank's face was full of hatred. If the person he hated most was Maura, now it's definitely Finn!

He could accept being embarrassed by Maura, but he could not accept being embarrassed by such rubbish as Finn.

"Finn..." Maura was about to speak but saying nothing. She didn't understand why Finn suddenly became so fierce, and he dared to challenge Scott.

"Maura, do you believe me?" Finn asked suddenly.

Maura was shocked, because Finn asked her the same question on Wechat yesterday, and he chose to believe him.

Then she succeeded in negotiating the project of Spring Hill.

Today, Finn asked her the same thing...

Maura smiled and replied, "I believe you."

There was no reason, and there was no need for a reason.

Finn raised his lips and said, "I will let grandfather give you the Spring Hill project again."

Maura was shocked, and her mouth opened. She thought she was going to take over the project again from her grandfather? She dared not even think about it because she knew her grandfather's personality; he was an older adult who valued pride more than anything else.

Maura wondered that now that he had already decided to hand over the project of Spring Hill to Hank, he would never regret it. If he handed over the project to herself from Hank, it would slap in his face.

Moreover, taking over the project again meant that her grandfather would have to compromise with her.

Was grandfather willing to compromise? Maura did not think so; her grandfather has always been superior after all. In his eyes, the younger generation was still the younger generation. It was more challenging to let the elder compromise with the younger generation than to kill him.

But Finn said it so calmly and unhurriedly; Maura became so upset for the first time.

Maura thought that one of them was her grandfather, the absolute authority of Shawn's family. The other one was her husband, which was trash in the eyes of Shawn's family. Who should she believe?

What Maura didn't know was that Finn already knew what would happen before Finn asked her to negotiate the project of Spring Hill with Shane. Finn knew that Scott would kick Maura out and help Hank get on the top after the negotiation.

Scott thought that he had absolute authority in Shawn's family, and Maura dared not go against his decision.

But Scott ignored Finn, a dispensable son-in-law of Shawn's family!

He was the one who could really decide the life and death of Shawn's family!

Golden Time Club was one of the biggest entertainment clubs in City C.

At the moment, Hank was sitting on the sofa with a gloomy look in a deluxe private room of the club.

The door of the room was pushed open, and a man dressed in a flower pattern shirt with a ferocious scar on his left face came in.

Behind the man, there were also two gorgeous women wearing split cheongsam and showing most of their slender legs.

"Lord Thad."

Hank got up immediately with great respect when he saw the man entered the room.

"Hank, why are you here at my place?" Thad unconstrained sat on the sofa. The cheongsam woman next to him immediately took out a cigar and lit it for him.

"Lord Thad, come on. So can't I be here when there's nothing happened?" Hank replied to him with a flattering look. The person in front of Hank named Thad; On the surface, Thad was the boss of Golden Time Club. But secretly, he was the leader of the west district in City C. In the west of the city, almost every KTV and entertainment clubs were in the charge by Thad.

Thad shook his head, vomited a cigarette ring, and said with a smile, "Cut it out. As long as you raise your butt, I will know what crap you are going to take. Tell me what kind of trouble you get in again and how do I help you."

"Lord Thad, nothing really matters." Hank paused for a moment and said, "Hmm, Load Thad, didn't you mention that you like my cousin very much..."

"Your cousin? Maura!" Thad's eyes danced with delight; He immediately became interested.

"Yes, it's her." Hank nodded.

"Haven't the girl been married for three years?" Thad frowned, "What happened? Did she provoke you?" Thad asked casually.

"Not really. Our Shawn's family talked about a project from The Group of Pinnacle, right? My grandfather gave the project to me, but that little girl had to get in the way. so I had a little conflict with her."

"You want to kill her?" Thad raised his eyebrows and asked.

Hank quickly shook his head and said with a smile, "Load Thad, stop joking. Why do I need to kill her?"

Hank didn't dare to think about killing people.

"The project of the group of Pinnacle? You're saying the project of Spring Hill, right?" Thad narrowed his eyes and asked. He knew that Chen's family and Hans had invested 50 billion to develop the Spring Hill. In other words, everyone in City C knew it currently.

"Lord Thad, you are so wise." Hank flattered Thad.

"30 percent." Thad faintly said out two words.

30 percent? What does 30% mean?

Betrayal

Hank Shawn stunned. A moment later, he realized that Thad Gu wanted to take a cut from the Project of Spring Hill.

A thirty percent cut!

After thinking about it, Hank's forehead was instantly covered with cold sweat. Thad was so greedy that he asked thirty percent directly in the first place, which valued more than one hundred million.

"Lord Thad, are you kidding me?" Hank confused with a smile that was even uglier than crying. It should be known that although the project of Spring Hill was a grease project, Shawn's Family had a total of several hundred people, and it wasn't much when spread out to everyone. To exaggerate, he and his father combined would share less than thirty percent.

"Do you think I'm kidding you?"

Thad gave Hank a light glance. Hank shuddered and suddenly felt a spine of coolness rising from the end of the spine.

Thad wasn't an ordinary social thug. He killed several people before. Hank suddenly regretted that he shouldn't have sought cooperation with a jackal like Thad.

After being beaten by Finn Lin in public, Hank only thought of revenge in his mind, and he couldn't wait to bruise Finn immediately, so he came to Thad without stopping. It was completely unexpected that in the eyes of people like Thad, he was a lamb.

"Lord Thad, thirty percent... it's too much. I can't take that much." Hank said weakly.

"Ha, ha." Thad suddenly smiled. He patted Hank's shoulder and said, "Hank, don't be so nervous. Am I look like a greedy man, I'm just kidding, ha, ha!"

Hank squeezed out a smile: "Lord Thud, you are so humorous."

"Come on, how can I deal with the bitch Maura Shawn?" Thad asked seriously.

Hank smiled and answered, "Use your favorite way to deal with her."

"My favorite way?" Thad looked at Hank with confusion and suddenly understood, "You want me to fuck her?"

"Yes, Lord Thad, haven't you been thinking about Maura? The other day I sent someone from Thailand to bring a few bottles of magic potion from the black market. The drug properties were extremely fierce, as long as they drink the water, whether they are chaste ladies or gentlewomen, all of them will become sluts and be manipulated, and they can do all the shameful things you want!"

"Is Maura, this stinking bitch, always likes to pretend to be noble? I'd like to see her after drinking this water this time, will she still be noble in front of you?"

Thad rubbed his hands in excitement, the lustful evil in his eyes not concealed. The women he had played with were many, including students, nurses, white-collars, young ladies... all kinds of them. Those women, beautiful as they were, without exception, they all had a dusty air about them.

They always made Thad unhappy.

And Maura was different, not to mention her perfect face and body, her elegant temperament was simply like a fairy in the sky. Even in his dreams, Thad wanted to fuck this kind of fairy.

In the past, afraid of the Shawn family's power, he didn't dare to do anything to Maura. But now, someone from Shawn's family brought Maura to him. If he didn't fuck her, he would be a little sorry for himself.

"If I fuck her, nothing will happen, right?" Thad asked.

"Lord Thad, don't worry, absolutely not! When you fuck her, you can make a video. After finishing, you can use the video to threaten that little bitch. She doesn't dare to say anything more. As for her useless husband, you may not know, Lord Thad. Yesterday, he knew that little bitch Maura was having sex with Shane, but didn't dare say anything." Hank replied.

"What a fucking waste!" Thad scolded, "If my wife dares to give me a cuckold, I'll break her legs and cripple the bastard who dares to give me a cuckolded."

"Lord Thad, not every man is as bloody-minded as you. I won't lie to you, that trash, married to Maura for three years, haven't had sex with her. Before yesterday, Maura was still a virgin." Hank expressed.

"Fuck!" Thad cursed, "Why is this trash still alive, why doesn't he go die!"

Finn Put an excellent woman like Maura by his side for three years but didn't have sex, and other men took the first step. Thad now wanted to kill Finn. How could there be such a wimp in this world?

Seeing that he had succeeded in arousing Thad's anger, Hank raised his lips with a smile of success, revealing his visit's real purpose: "Lord Thad, would you like to meet this wimp?"

"Why do I see him? Seeing this kind of waste will dirty my eyes." Thad scolded.

"Lord Thad, you don't understand this. You have to meet him because he is the wimp Finn."

"Think about it, when you have sex with Maura, let Finn watch from the sidelines. If he sees his wife, whom he hasn't even kissed in three years of marriage, transforming into a slut in front of you and being ravaged by you, what kind of mood will that wimp have?"

"And that bitch Maura, doesn't she consider herself noble? What would she look like if you fucked her in front of her husband, haha."

Hank laughed wickedly. This was the most painful way he could think of to take revenge on Finn and Maura.

Hank thought that Finn, you should have just settled for being a wimp, the price you pay for being impulsive was far beyond what you can afford!

Thad was dumbfounded and thought Hank was really bad to the bone, how could he even think of such a vicious method.

However, it was indeed exciting...

Thad's face flushed red. He had played with many women, but none, yet, in front of her husband.

Thad's lower abdomen suddenly became hot, "Good, just do as you said, haha. After it's done, you will be my brother-in-law. I will not treat you badly! "

"Thank you, Lord Thad." Hank's face was crossed with excitement. With Thad as his backing and Shawn's family, no one would dare to oppose him, not even Scott Shawn!

"Besides, Lord Thad, the wimp Finn is still a bit brute. For the sake of insurance, I suggest that you scrap him first, and then bring him over, so as not to disturb your interest when you have sex with Maura. "Hank sinisterly said. Finn's two slaps made his face still sorely hot. At this moment, he just borrowed Thad's hand to give Finn a lesson.

"Okay, no problem." Thad waved his hand indifferently. Many of his brothers were ruthless men who licked the blood with their blades. Letting them scrap one was no different from stepping on an ant.

"Then Lord Thad, I'll call Maura right now and ask her to come over." After Hank said that, he walked out of the private box and took out his phone. He had already made some inquiries, Maura was at home at the moment, while Finn was still out delivering take-out.

As long as Maura was called first, Thad will handle Finn.

Hank dialed Maura's phone.

"Maura Shawn, I'll give you half an hour to come over to Golden Time Club right away!"

Hearing Hank's voice, Maura hung up the phone directly.

Hank gritted his teeth, this bitch, shame on you!

"If you don't come over in half an hour, don't blame me for being rude to Finn!" Hank sent another text message.

Maura frowned, she couldn't ignore Hank's threat.

It's just that she didn't know what Hank wanted her to do in Golden Time Club.

Hesitantly, Maura still decided to get up and go there. She didn't think that Hank would do anything to her. More likely, Hank still wanted the engineering team in her hands.

Maura soon took a taxi and arrived at Golden Time Club.

After being led into the compartment by the waiter, she found Hank sitting alone in the compartment, and a bottle of red wine on the table in front of him.

"What are you looking for me for?" Maura spoke coldly.

Hank glanced at her, and faintly said, "Sit."

Maura frowned slightly and sat on the sofa.

Hank poured a cup of wine and pushed it in front of Maura.

"Hank, if you have something to say, just say it!"

"Maura, I'm your cousin, can't you talk to me a little nicer?" Hank smiled bitterly.

Maura gave Hank a suspicious glance: Why was Hank's attitude a little strange?

"Actually, it doesn't matter, Maura. At noon, Finn slapped me in the face of so many relatives. It's impossible to let it go," Hank said lightly.

"What do you want to do?" Maura gritted her teeth, asking. She was well aware of Hank's personality that this man would definitely take revenge on his enemies. If Finn Chen couldn't explain his reason for beating him up, Hank would never stop and might come up with some way to deal with Finn.

"It's simple, just return my dad's engineering team!"

"No way!"

"No way?" Hank sneered, "Aren't you afraid that Finn will suddenly be hit by a car and die when he walks on the road one day!"

Maura's complexion changed suddenly. Of course, she knew that Hank was threatening her, but she dared not gamble on Finn's life.

"Fine, I can give you the engineering team, but you must promise not to trouble Finn in the future!" Maura gritted her teeth and said. Although handing over the engineering team to Hank meant that she had lost the last bargaining chip in her hand, and the Project of Spring Hill would be completely irrelevant to her, it had nothing to do with comparing to Finn's life, she could accept it!

"I promise, as long as you give me the engineering team, that wimp Finn, I will not look at him in the future," Hank said with laughing.

"You'd better do it!" Maura gave Hank a cold look.

"Don't worry, Maura, who can't get along with the money? Come on, drink up. Let's forget all about our past grudges." Hank smiled and poured a glass of wine, pushing it in front of Maura.

Without any doubt, Maura took the wine glass and drank it.

After finishing the drink, she was ready to get up and leave.

But at that moment, the door of the compartment was pushed open. A man wearing a flowery shirt with a scar on his face walked in.

Maura instantly felt something was wrong.

"My great beauty, how does the wine taste?" Thad smiled lustfully and walked over.

"Hank, who is he?!" Maura scolded angrily.

Hank got up, walking to Maura, and said with a smile: " My cousin, he is the husband I found for you. How is it, is it ten times and one hundred times stronger than the wimp Finn?"

"You are shameless!" Maura's chest shivered with anger, and then stretched out her hand towards Hank's face.

"Pah."

It was Hank's slap on her pretty face first, and her pale face immediately turned red.

"Bitch!" Hank smiled hideously, "Did I give you a fucking face? That wimp Finn hit me, and do you a stinky bitch want to hit me too?"

"Hank! You destine not to die a natural death!" Tears twirled in Maura's beautiful eyes, her legs were soft, her feet were weak, and she couldn't even stand.

"Hank, how can you hit your sister-in-law, your sister-in-law has such a pretty face, it would be bad to break it. " Thad smilingly stepped forward.

"Lord Thad, I'm sorry." Hank apologized incessantly.

Thad waved his hand and said, "It's fine, go on with your work. I'll make out with your sister-in-law first, haha!"

"Okay, Lord Thad, take your time." Hank bowed respectfully. After saying that, he closed the door and walked out.

"My beauty, I'm here!"

Thad smiled lustfully and pounced towards Maura.

Maura took two steps back in fear but tripped over the couch behind her...

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 20 A Great Flash of Anger

On the other side, Finn Chen had just finished delivering a takeaway order and suddenly had a distracting feeling, as if something terrible was about to happen.

"Are you Finn Chen?" At this moment, a man with a large gold chain and a tiger tattoo walked over and blocked Finn.

"Something wrong?" Finn raised his eyebrows.

"Is Maura Xia your wife?" the tiger-shaped tattooed man sized up Finn and asked.

"Yes, what's wrong?" Finn suddenly had a bad omen.

The tiger-shaped tattooed man shook his head and said, "It's a pity..."

"What do you mean? What a pity?!" Finn's tone was suddenly cold.

The tiger-shaped tattooed man sneered and said, "It's a pity that your wife is such a beautiful woman who marries you like a wimp."

"Maura is with you?" Finn suddenly felt tight in his heart, bursting into a cold murderous intention in his eyes. He had just called Maura for several calls but couldn't get through. Now it seemed that something happened!

"Wimp! You still have to take care of yourself first." the tiger-shaped tattooed man smiled disdainfully. "Lord Thad said he wants you two legs, so do it yourself, or do we help you?"

"I say, is Maura with you?!" Finn gritted his teeth, the killing intent in his eyes almost turning into reality.

The tiger-shaped tattooed man finally felt something was wrong, how could this Wimp have such a terrible look? But despite his surprise, the tiger-shaped tattooed man was still confident. He was also a ruthless man who killed people before. He didn't think what a son-in-law can do for himself.

"Yeah, Wimp, your wife is lying on our Lord Thad's bed now. Haha, what can you do if you know..." The tiger-shaped tattooed man said openly, "Hey, you're a ridiculous piece of shit, you can't even keep your own woman!"

Boom!

But before he could finish his sentence, he felt himself surrounded by a cold killing intent, then his neck tightened, and his entire body actually hung in the air uncontrollably!

Finn's eyes flashed red, and the large hand squeezing the tiger-shaped tattooed man neck was slightly put forth his strength.

In an instant, the tiger-shaped tattooed man's forehead was filled with vibrant blue veins.

"Ho, ho... let go... let me go..."

The tiger-shaped tattooed man was horrified, what kind of figure had he messed with? How could he have such terrifying power?

"Where! Is! The! Maura!?" Finn almost popped these words out of his teeth, and the monstrous murderousness hit the tiger-shaped tattooed man 's mind like a storm.

"Speak, or die!"

Finn pushed slightly, and the tiger-shaped tattooed man 's body immediately trembled.

Under the persecution of the death suffocation, the tiger-shaped tattooed man was finally afraid. The killing look in Finn's eyes made him have no doubt. If he didn't talk about it, he would indeed die.

"Golden...Time Club..."

"Your wife is... in the Golden Time Club."

Bang!

The tiger-shaped tattooed man was thrown by Finn several meters away and hit the railing in the distance. When he struggled to stand up and looked up again, Finn had disappeared in his eyes.

Finn ran with all his strength, and his eyes were blood red. He had never been so angry for three years since he came to Shawn's Family!

Dragons have counter scales, and they would be angry when touched!

Maura was his counter scales!

No matter who it was, he had to die if he touched it!

It took Finn, who was in extreme rage, less than ten minutes to rush to the Golden Time Club entrance.

At the entrance of the club, three tattooed men stood.

Seeing the furious Finn, the three men subconsciously took a step forward.

"Who are you looking for?"

"Bang!"

What responded to them was Finn's iron fist.

Just a punch, the first tattooed man flew backward, the bones of his nose cracked and blood spewed.

"Where is Maura Shawn?" Finn's voice was as cold as a nine-dark ghost.

"Fuck! Who the f**k are you? How dare you break into here!"

"Don't you know what you are doing here? Do you want to die?"

The two men scolded and took out a stick from their bodies and rushed towards Finn.

Bang Bang!

Two loud noises came. Before the two of them rushed with their weapons, they flew out and knocked on the door behind them.

"I'll ask again, where is my wife, Maura Shawn...?" Finn's eyes burst with a killing look as he walked over towards them.

"Are... Are you Finn?"

The two finally recognized that he was Finn.

Just to their surprise, wasn't Maura's husband a well-known wimp?

Why was he so fierce ?

Without giving them too much time to think, Finn took a step forward and simultaneously extended his two hands. The two only felt dizzy. In the next second, the two would rise at the same time!

Seeing this, several female college students working part-time in the Golden Time Club suddenly screamed in horror.

The two tattooed men weight two hundred kilograms, but the man in front of them lifted the two men at the same time as if they were chicken. Was he a ghost?

In fact, the two men who were raised by Finn even cried in horror.

When Thad said he wanted someone to beat Finn, they all rushed to go and thought that Finn was an unrestrained bug and trampled on the ground.

In the end, this opportunity was snatched up by the Tiger. They were all envious.

But now, they were not envious.

He was not a fucking worm, but a dragon!

Now it seemed that the Tiger was even worse than them.

"Spare... spare me!"

"Lord Thad is in the leftmost compartment on the third floor!"

Both of them spoke out. Finn snorted and threw them on the ground like garbage, then rushed in.

But he hadn't taken more than a few steps before he saw more than a dozen tattooed men with weapons rushing over.

"Dare to make trouble here! Kill him!"

"Bang! Bang! Bang!"

Finn rushed into the crowd. Every time it rang, a person flew out following by a scream.

.....

At this time, Finn was also full of anger in the compartment.

He was careless just now!

Seeing Maura tripped just now, he impatiently jumped on her and prepared to take off her clothes, but Maura grabbed the bottle and smashed it on his head.

The scarlet blood ran down Thad's forehead.

Thad's squinted eyes flashed a fierce light. Beating the geese all day long, but the geese pecked his eyes!

"I was going to fucking love you, little bitch. But you got yourself killed, so don't blame me!"

Looking at Maura, whose face was flushed and her breasts were fluctuating, Thad licked his lips and tore off Maura's clothes with a powerful hand.

"Bang!"

At this moment, a loud noise came!

Thad turned back sharply, but saw that the compartment's solid wood lacquered door had split into pieces!

At the door, a tall figure stood upright!

"Mother f...!"

Thad Gu was shocked by the sound and was about to curse out. But when he turned back and saw this scene, his pupils immediately constricted and he couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air.

He forcefully held back that dirty word.

"Hey bro, did you go the wrong way?"

Thad quietly took out a dagger from the bottom of the table and asked. Having been in the underworld for over twenty years, he had seen all kinds of people, so he was extremely accurate in distinguishing people.

He could know at a glance which could be messed with while who could be not.

The man with a calm look in front of Thad was one of the few people who made Thad afraid to offend!

Finn ignored Thad. At this moment, only Maura was in his eyes. Seeing that Maura was fine, Finn was finally released.

"Brother, did you have a crush on her?"

Thad tentatively asked. Since Finn entered the door, Thad began to observe Finn's expression, so now, Finn's appearance made him have an illusion. In his opinion, Finn had a crush on Maura.

It never occurred to Thad that the man in front of him was the wimp in his mouth that he didn't even want to see.

"If bro doesn't mind, you can join me..."

"Swoosh!"

A flash burst out!

At the moment of approaching Finn, Thad's expression suddenly became ferocious. He drew out the dagger hidden in his belt and pierced fiercely towards the main artery on Finn's neck!

Thad smugly smiled as if he had already seen Finn's blood spurting out.

Thad's action was really fast. If there was an ordinary person, he might have died under this unexpected stab.

But Finn was not an ordinary person!

From the age of six, he began to receive the hell training by his mother, including combative, assassination, body quenching. Day after day, year after year!

At the age of ten, Finn was able to fight three strong adults without defeat.

Slaughtering wolves at thirteen, fighting tigers at sixteen...

During the first half of Finn's life, he was in battle and trained almost every day.

Because his mother told him that to survive in this jungle world, he had to have a hundred times more power than ordinary people!

Only those who endure the most could become the strongest!

Finn suffered countless hardships to be the strongest to protect his mother from being bullied by Chen's Family. So now, Thad's movement seemed ridiculous to him.

As slow as a snail!

Finn smiled disdainfully and stretched out two fingers.

The cold light-filled dagger stopped an inch in front of Finn's neck, unable to advance.

Thad blushed with horror.

"Click"

Finn pressed lightly.

The iron-made dagger broke off like a wood chip.

Thad was dumbfounded.

"Are...you a martial artist?!" Thad blurted out. There was no way for him to explain why Finn would be so terrifying except that he was a martial artist.

Finn sneered and punched Thad in his face.

Thad vomited a big sip of blood and instantly languished.

"Bro, let's talk it over. I don't want this woman anymore..." Thad stumbled up from the ground, knuckling under to say.

Finn looked stern and kicked on Thad's calf.

"Crack"

Crisp bone-cracking sounds rang out. Thad howled and half-kneeled on the ground.

"Boss!"

At this moment, a loud voice sounded.

Hearing this voice, Thad shouted as if he grasped a straw in water, "Howard, save me!"

Finn turned his head with his eyes squinting and immediately raised his fist to smash towards a black figure.

That figure wasn't willing to show weakness either, and fiercely punched Finn!

"Boom!"

After a loud noise, Finn just took a step back. However, that figure took three!

Under the light, the man's face became clear gradually.

The man named Howard was thin and slender. In terms of the figure, Howard couldn't compare to any of the several men behind him.

But these men were headed by Howard because he was full of bloody temperament.

Finn was very familiar with this temperament!

It was the murderous look that only the strong man who killed a lot of people could have!

Howard must have killed many people.

"Howard, kill him. Kill this bastard for me." Seeing Howard, Thad immediately felt confident again. Howard was a talent he had found seven years ago from an underground black boxing market in Europe. The fights in the black-boxing market there were different from the fights at home. Every fight was a gamble on life there!

Once in the ring, one part must die to end the fight, not even allowing to admit defeat!

At the time, Howard won seventeen in a row! Almost swept that ring!

Thad spent more than twenty million dollars on buying Howard from the boxing ring owner.

After backing China, Howard never let Thad down. Over the years, Howard fought for him all over the world and helped Thad find most of his industries. To Howard, Thad had blind confidence.

Even if the Finn in front of him was indeed a martial artist, Thad felt that Howard could fight!

Howard didn't move, but looked at Finn with a dreadful look, "Aren't you going to explain?"

"What explanation do you want?" Finn faintly spoke.

"You broke into our Golden Time Club for no reason, and also hit our boss..."

"For no reason?" Howard was interrupted by Finn's sneer. "Do you know who she is?" Finn asked, pointing at the unconscious Maura on the sofa.

Howard looked back at Thad. He didn't know what happened, only knowing that someone broke into the Golden Time Club and hit Thad.

Now it seemed that the matter was something else.

"She... she is mine," Thad said sternly. He did not know who Finn is, only regarding Finn as the mysterious master of Shawn's family.

"Pah."

Finn slapped Thad across his face. In an instant, several bloody teeth flew out of Thad's mouth.

"Yours?" Finn sneered: "What do you think you are?"

Thad was humiliated. Being beaten in front of so many heelers, he felt all his majesty was lost. But at this time, he did not dare to say anything.

He was not stupid. Just now, Howard was not there. It was normal for him to be hit by Finn. But now Howard was in front of him, Finn could still beat him in front of Howard. Even Howard had no time to react, Thad instantly realized that even Howard might not be Finn's opponent!

As Thad expected, Howard's muscles were tight at this time. If Finn just made him afraid just now, but Finn was enough to scare him now.

Too fast!

Finn's speed was so fast that Howard hadn't responded yet.

If he and Finn fought, his chances of survival would be less than ten percent!

"Say it, bro. What will you take to spare my boss." Howard took a deep breath and asked.

Even though several strong men were standing behind him, he knew very well that he had no chance to beat Finn. In front of a martial artist like Finn, the number of people was just a joke. No matter how many people there were, they could not pose any threat to Finn.

Thad was utterly dissipated. Even Howard had to compromise, which proved that he indeed met a hard target today.

Thad smiled miserably. The person he most wanted to kill now was Hank Shawn. Because it was Hank's assurance that there wouldn't be any problem with fucking Maura, he was bold. But now, he hadn't even touched Maura's hand, and there was such a fierce man looking for him.

Finn laughed. Howard was quite sensible.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 22 Buy A Lesson

Thad Gu's face changed entirely--ask him for a hand? He paused and wanted to make a bargain, but Howard beside him directly grabbed the dagger and cut off his left hand without blinking his eyes.

"Ah--"

After a piercing cry, Thad's bloodied left hand fell to the ground.

"Brother, are you satisfied?" Howard asked with a straight face.

Finn Chen slightly nodded his head. He appreciated Howard more and more because he was decisive and cunning.

If Thad dared to continue to bargain with him, Finn would not give Thad any choice. He would cut off both Thad's hands!

Howard sensed it. Therefore, he saved Thad's one hand!

"You are outstanding. If you don't want to be in this business one day, you can come to me." Finn looked at Howard appreciatively and said.

If Finn wanted to fight against the monster Chen's Family, he must have a brave soldier like Howard. Judged from Howard's attitude towards Thad, he was still a loyal man. There were not many such people in the world.

Howard clenched his lips and did not speak.

Finn didn't mind. He knew very well that masters like Howard were prideful. They wouldn't surrender easily to people, but once they surrendered, they would entrust their lives to that person, a real life-and-death friendship!

"Besides, as for what happened here today, if anyone dares to spread out..." Finn smiled and patted the long table in the box. "Crack," The three-inch-thick marble long table crashed and broke!

"The table is his end." Finn lightly said, with that, he held Maura got up and left the box.

Clattered--

More than a dozen hefty men who looked pale at the door made a way, and no one dared to stop Finn!

"Investigate! Investigate him! I want to know who he is!" After Finn left, Thad was clutching his bleeding wrist and opening his mouth in pain.

"Lord Thad, his name is Finn Chen." A younger brother keeping at the door said weakly.

"Finn Chen?"

Thad's eyes were wide open, and he was almost stunned by the news.

Finn was Maura Shawn's waste husband?! A loser who was cuckolded and dared not to speak?

"Ha-ha!" Thad smiled wanly, and his tears came out, if even such a man was a waste, then no man was not a waste in this world.

Hank Shawn, Hank Shawn!

You son of a bitch! Fuck you!

"Boss, listen to me, just take this hand as a lesson. Don't go to the trouble that person!" Howard took one look at Thad's broken hand on the ground and looked very dignified.

"Howard, was Finn Chen that strong? If you go after him with a gun, can you kill him?" Thad was unwilling to take it and asked. He had been in City C for more than 20 years and had never suffered such a loss. If people in the gang knew that an adopted son-in-law cut off Thad's one hand, Thad couldn't be respected in the underworld.

Howard shook his head. "Boss, don't think about it. I won't have a chance to shoot in front of him."

"Hiss."

Thad gasped--even had no chance to shoot?

"I don't know why Finn would be an adopted son-in-law, but he was at least the leader of the underworld in our city if he wants to do our business." Howard continued.

Thad stopped talking. He knew that he had no hope of revenge. Thad had been in the underworld for more than 20 years. Naturally, he understood how hard it was to be the underworld leader in a prefecture-level city. It could be said that he Thad could never get into that position in his life.

However, Howard spoke highly of Finn after a short contact of fewer than ten minutes.

It showed that Finn Chen was more than a leader of the underworld in City C with his real potential!

Finn came to a small clinic holding Maura. Judging from Maura's state, he found nothing wrong with her. She was just in a coma.

But Finn also dared not to be sure about it. It was always wise to play safe.

What if there was any sequel?

So Finn came to this small clinic.

The clinic was one of the forces he cultivated in City C. He seldom came here because he was afraid that Jason Chen would discover this place.

But now, Finn didn't care so much.

Maura's safety was the top priority.

The clinic owner, a middle-aged woman, looked ordinary, but Finn knew that this middle-aged woman could rank in the top three even in the whole province Q!

The Middle-aged women were the only female disciples of the highly skilled traditional Chinese medicine doctor!

"Young master!"

Seeing Finn, Olivia Liu suddenly became respectful.

"Aunt Olivia," said Finn with a slight smile, "Help me to check Maura. Someone just made her drink lust potion."

"Yes, young master!"

Olivia nodded, holding Maura into the compartment.

A moment later, Olivia came out.

"Young master, Maura was fine. She was just shocked and passed out."

"Well." Finn breathed with relief. "By the way, Aunt Olivia, after I leave, Chen's Family may investigate you. Be careful." Finn was obvious that The Ghost following him, with their rigorous attitude to everything, were bound to investigate Olivia Liu.

"Don't worry, young master. I have already prepared another identity." Olivia replied.

"Hmm." Finn slightly nodded his head--he must be meticulous when dealt with Jason Chen, this old fox. If he took the wrong step, he would lose the whole game!

Maura didn't wake up until the afternoon. When she woke up and saw Finn, she could no longer control her emotions and hugged Finn and wept bitterly.

"Whoops, Finn, I'm afraid ..."

"Don't be afraid. I am here." Finn spoke softly, even if Maura looked sharp, it wouldn't change the fact that she was a woman. If she met a villain like Thad, she probably would get PTSD. So Finn didn't tell Maura what happened later, saying that the police arrived in time and saved her.

"Finn, why is Hank so cruel? I'm his cousin. How can he be so vicious to us?" Maura's most unacceptable thing was that her cousin lied to her, and her relative intended to destroy her life for benefit.

"Hank Shawn!"

There was a coldness in Finn's eyes. When the tiger-striped man came to trouble him, he knew that Hank was the initiator of this incident, and no one would trouble him like this except Hank.

If it were Chen's Family, they would have never sent this kind of wannabe.

Hank repeatedly bullied Maura, and this time he almost hurt Maura's virginity, which was completely beyond Finn's bottom line!

This time, he would make Hank suffer!

In the past, because of Maura, Finn didn't want to do things too absolutely. After all, these people were Maura's relatives.

Now, Maura regarded them as relatives, but they didn't see Maura as a relative!

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 23 A

Frame-up

At the same time, Hank held his phone, walked around in the office, and felt very anxious.

The afternoon passing. Hank thought that Thad should have finished his work.

There was a massive risk for him in doing such a thing. If Scott knew that he was helping an outsider deal with his family member, he would be severely punished. Even if he was the only successor of Shawn's Family.

However, once the thing could be done, he would earn a huge benefit as well. As soon as Thad had sex with Maura and took a video, he could ask Maura to do anything he wanted when he got the video.

And if Thad became his backer, he could also do anything he wanted in Shawn's Family.

When Hank thought of it, he couldn't help getting excited. He couldn't wait to call Thad.

At this moment, Thad just finished his surgery in the hospital. His hand cut off by Howard renewed barely, but it was impossible to be normal in the future.

Therefore, Thad deeply regretted what he had done. He wouldn't have to get in such a situation if he didn't listen to that motherfucker, Hank's instigation.

The person that Thad hated most at the moment was definitely not Finn, but Hank.

Just then, Hank's phone call came over.

"Load Thad, how's it going? You must be having a good time, right?"

Hank asked Thad laughingly; Maura had undeniable charm; even most female stars couldn't compare with her. If without the blood relationship, he would like to have sex with her too.

Thad barely held his anger when he heard Hank asked him that.

Good time? Go fuck yourself.

It would be fine if he could have sex with Maura, but the point was that he hadn't even touch Maura, and his one hand was cut off. So he had no idea how to say it.

At this time, Thad wanted to chop Hank into pieces, but he didn't forget what Finn had done before leaving. Finn's slap easily smashed the three-inch-thick marble table, which was non-human strength.

If Finn did that slap on a human, the bones would be smashed!

Thad didn't want to risk his life, So he didn't dare to say anything about Finn.

"Damn it. The Police came when I was about to get on her." Thad pretended to be depressed.

"Police? Why the hell did they come?" Hank widened his eyes and wondered how it could be such unlucky.

"Alas, who knows? Maybe they're doing an inspection today."

"Lord Thad, what should we do? Did you let that little bitch Maura run away?" Hank panicked and asked. If Thad didn't make the video, what would he take to threaten Maura? On the contrary, Maura would tell Scott about this, so Scott would never let him off!

"Fuck you! If I didn't let her go, should I keep her here for dinner?" Thad said hotly, "As for you, just do whatever you want, and I'm not gonna care about it."

"Lord Thad, you...you have to help and save me this time. If my grandfather knew that I was cooperating with you and drugged the little bitch, my grandfather would kill me." Hank was in a hurry, Scott didn't dare to get into trouble with Thad, but he dared to kill Hank.

"It's none of my business for whether you die or not! Don't bother me anymore. If you try to bother me again, Scott maybe does nothing, but I'll kill you first!" Thad scolded fiercely; He hung up the phone then.

Anyway, he would not tell Hank the truth because he was terrified that Finn would come again to chop his other hand.

Thad had his plan as well; If Hank knew Finn a non-human being, Hank would surrender easily and dared not fight against Finn.

But if Hank didn't know that Finn was non-human and still treated Finn as garbage, he would keep making trouble for Finn and disgust him.

Both of them were Thad's enemies, so Thad was pleased to watch them bite each other.

After Thad hung up the phone, Hank was very anxious and immediately moved like the ants on a hot pan.

Hank thought that how should he tell Scott about this? Should he just run away?

When Hank was thinking about how to solve this problem, Sara came in.

"Hank, I heard that Maura went to Golden Time Club at noon. Do you know that?" Sara asked.

"How do you know that?" Hank's face suddenly turned white. Had the matter been exposed?

"My friend went there to sing today. She said that she saw Maura enter Thad's room. Does Maura this little bitch hook up with Thad now?" Sara growled. Since Maura got the Spring Hill project, she became the limelight in Shawn's family, making Sara very upset. In Sara's mind, Maura was a stinky and not conservative bitch. She was willing to have sex with anyone. Sara couldn't abide that Maura stands on top of her.

Hook up?

"Yes, why didn't I think of it?" Hank's eyes suddenly brightened, and he clapped his hands fiercely.

Hank thought that Maura could tell Scott that she went to the club because he lied to her. Similarly, he could also tell Scott that Maura took the initiative to seduce Thad and plant it on him.

Hank became excited.

"Cousin, I thought I'm the only one who knew this. Alas, I didn't expect you to know it too." Hank sighed in a heavy tone.

"Is it true?" Sara's eyes widened in surprise.

Hank nodded heavily and said, "I just finished talking business with Thad this afternoon. I saw Maura when I was ready to leave, and she looked a little flustered at the time. Obviously, she didn't expect that I would come here. After I left Thad's room, I saw her sneaking into Thad's room and then didn't come out for the whole afternoon..."

"What the fuck! This bitch! What a shame!" Sara shrieked and scolded.

"You're right. Maura has no sense of dignity, righteousness, and shame already. All she wants is to climb to the top position. She doesn't even think about what type of person Thad is. How can she control a person like Thad."

"Damn it. I have to tell my grandfather about it. And let him drive this bitch out of Shawn's family! I can't just see her lose all the pride of Shawn's Family. Understandably, She slept with Shane, but I can't understand why she slept with Thad. If things are going this way, any man can just have sex with her." Sara kept Scolding and shouting.

She didn't consider if Hank's words were right. In her mind, Hank didn't dare to make rumors about this kind of thing. In the final analysis, Shawn's Family was well-established and well-know; If such a thing happened, Shawn's Family's dignity would be ruined. Moreover, Scott was a person who valued the family's ethos a lot. If Hank dared to spread rumors on this matter, no one could protect him.

A smile appeared in Hank's face; If Sara helped him with this matter, the victory was already in the bag.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 24 Favor?

Two of them came to the chairman's office together. After opened the door, Hank's eyelid twitched. As expected, Maura had already contacted

Scott before him. Hank saw Scott's face became gloomy, and it was probably because Scott had listened to Maura.

Hank was thinking about how to start the conversation, and Sara had already taken the lead.

"Maura, what a shameless woman. How dare you still come to see my grandfather?"

There was a doubt showing on Maura's pretty face when she saw Sara speaking in condescending tones.

Finn was standing on the other side and couldn't help narrowing his eyes. He was worried before Maura came along to meet Scott, and he felt that Hank wouldn't stay aloof and do nothing. Things went the way as expected; it was apparent that Hank had prepared a set of speech according to Sara's current situation.

That's interesting!

"Sara, what do you mean?" Maura asked with confusion.

"What do I mean?" Sara sneered and asked, "Didn't you go to the Golden Time Club at noon today? And you spent a whole afternoon in the room with Thad!"

Maura was shocked she said, "Yes, I went to the Golden Time Club, but I didn't stay there with Thad for the afternoon."

"Bullshit! Hank saw it. He said that you went into the room and never came out for the whole afternoon." Sara acted so high and mighty; She didn't expect that Maura was so stupid to admit that she went to the Golden Time Club.

"Hank!" Maura suddenly turned back and clenched her pure white teeth; She looked at Hank coldly, and finally figured out that Hank was trying to set her up and slander her.

Hank was entirely unfazed for the coldness from Maura's eyes.

"Maura, why are you looking at me? You dare to do it but dare not to admit it?"

"What have I done!?" Maura got really angry.

"You know what you have done." Hank snorted coldly.

"Maura, don't treat everyone as a fool. Understandably, you used to sleep with Shane is for Shawn's Family. But this time, you slept with Thad, that's so ridiculous. Why do you treat your body as a public toilet? You go to bed with anyone who wants to hook up with you..."

"Crack"

When Sara had not finished speaking, Finn reached forward and gave her a slap with his big hand.

"You have your right to speak, but you better stop talking dirty." Finn opened his mouth calmly; He had enough with Sara, a stupid woman manipulated by others and still filled with delight. If Finn didn't give her a lesson, she might have already forgotten her last name.

Sara was totally stunned; she covered her face with her hands and wondered how dared a loser as Finn slapped her.

When Sara had recovered herself, she suddenly became hysterical.

"You loser. Why do you hit me?"

"You're a coward. Your wife makes you become a cuckold. Why do you put your anger on me?"

"Why didn't you slap Maura? The public toilet b..."

"Crack."

Finn gave another slap on Sara's face, and sneered, "If you don't know how to talk, I can teach you!"

"Woo toot. Grandfather, did you see that? Finn doesn't treat Shawn's Family members as a person at all. He hit Hank in the morning and me in the afternoon. Is he even going to hit you tomorrow?" Sara looked at Scott with endlessly weeping and wail; She didn't expect that Finn was so bold and dared to slap her twice, which meant he completely ignored Scott.

At this time, Scott's face looked gloomy and terrible. Maura came to complain at first had made him upset enough. Unexpectedly, Hank and Sara came after; What they said was quite different from what Maura said. He didn't know who to believe.

But what made Scott incredibly hard to believe was Finn! The son-in-law of Shawn's Family, whom he had almost forgotten. The so-called loser in Shawn's Family jumped out again this time.

Scott thought: Finn didn't mention that he hit Hank in the morning, and he said he's not afraid of me. He was impudent and insulting; Was this a provocation?

Scott didn't want to bother himself arguing with the person like Finn at the moment; He decided to show Finn who's in charge of Shawn's family after this matter had been solved.

"Bang"

"That's enough!"

Scott slapped the table fiercely and said with dignified; Sara was suddenly silent.

"The things Finn had done, I'll talk about them later." Scott glanced at Finn coldly and said.

"Now, more importantly, I want to know, Hank and Maura, which one of you is lying to me?" Scott asked.

Compared with Finn's case, the dispute between Hank and Maura was the top priority. After all, it concerned the dignity of Shawn's Family.

Maura's pretty face turned gloomy. Scott said so already, which showed that he didn't believe Maura from the beginning to the end.

"Maura, you said that Hank threatened you with Finn's life and told you to go to Golden Time Club, and then he drugged your wine cup to let you have sex with Thad. Do you have any evidence?" Scott asked majestically.

"Of course, I do!" Maura took a deep breath, took out her phone, and found the text message that Hank sent her, "Maura, after half an hour, if you don't come, don't blame me for being rude to Finn."

Scott's facial expression immediately changed when he saw the content of the text message; He looked at Hank and asked, "Fucking idiot, do you have anything to say?"

However, Hank was not flustered at all. Instead, he said frankly to Scott: "Grandfather, I didn't send this message to her. If you look at the mobile phone number carefully, it's not mine at all. Maura is trying to set me up."

Scott looked back at Maura again.

Maura frowned; Indeed, she ignored this point. This phone number was not the one that Hank usually used.

"Grandfather, Hank called me once and asked me to go to the Golden Time Club before he sent me the text." Maura could only tell the truth.

"Did I call you? Maura, don't make things up like that!" Hank pretended to be angry; actually, he was a little excited. It was apparent that Maura, who had not many experiences, was not qualified to be his opponent. Before he planned to set Maura up, he asked someone to apply for a new SIM card. Even if Scott urged people to check, he could not find out anything.

So things became very simple; everyone had no evidence. At this time, it depended on who could make up the proof better.

"You..." Maura clenched her white teeth; She couldn't do anything when Hank kept refusing to admit what he had done.

Finn sighed in his heart; His wife was still too naive, Maura never thought that everyone had an evil spirit. Even relatives would push you down the cliff sometimes.

Finn certainly had evidence. The person Thad was the most significant evidence!

Finn wondered as long as he called Thad come over and confronts him face to face, Hank would have to admit it.

But Finn didn't want to do this; he wanted to take this opportunity to let Maura grow up. She was too kind, and sometimes it might not be a good thing.

"So you're saying that you have no definite evidence. Right?" Scott's tone became colder.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 25

Sincerity

Maura Shawn was heartbroken. She stared at Scott Shawn and asked in tears: "Grandfather, do you think I will deceive you with my virginity?"

"Well, you've slept with Shane Lin. You are not pure." Sara Shawn murmured. With Finn beside her, she didn't even dare to breathe loudly, but she still must say it.

Scott Shawn frowned. He understood Maura Shawn. Purity is indeed vital for a woman, but he didn't believe Maura Shawn's words.

To put it bluntly, he sided with Hank Shawn, because Hank Shawn would eventually lead the Shawn's Family.

"Hank Shawn, you said that Maura met Thad and stayed in a private room with him all afternoon, but do you have any evidence of this?" Scott Shawn stared at Hank Shawn.

Hank Shawn stood tall and uttered, "Grandfather, I don't have any substantial evidence. But I know why Maura Shawn met Thad."

"Why is that?" Scott Shawn raised an eyebrow.

"For the Spring Hill project!" Hank Shawn spoke with confidence: "Grandfather, Maura Shawn was furious when she heard that you gave me the Spring Hill project. She came to me and asked me to return the project to her. Of course, I couldn't agree."

"Later on, Finn threatened me at the company and slapped me twice. I reckon he wanted me to hand over the Spring Hill project. Everyone knew of this. Finn also mentioned that he was not afraid of you." Hank Shawn was watching Scott Shawn's expression.

But Scott Shawn was calm. He didn't show any signs of joy or anger.

Hank Shawn continued: "At that time, I thought, how could a low life like Finn dared to challenge you?"

"Then at noon, I spotted Maura Shawn in Golden Time Club. Maura Shawn stayed in the private room all afternoon. I immediately understood Finn!"

"He sent Maura Shawn to sleep with Thad so that he could use Thad to force me to hand over The Spring Hill project!"

"They are wicked!" Hank Shawn pointed at Maura Shawn and Finn. "Maura Shawn lives off one person while secretly helping another. Finn is useless as well. Shawn's Family has treated him well in the past three years, but he is not grateful. On the contrary, he cooperated with outsiders to embezzle Shawn' Family!"

"What's more, Finn sent his woman to sleep with other men. First Shane Lin, then Thad. Finn, are you worthy of Maura?"

Hank Shawn roared. He didn't expect to rant this much. He only wanted to bite Maura Shawn back, but he pulled Finn into it. His reasoning was logical. If he didn't know the whole story, he would believe that Maura Shawn and Finn are such people.

"I wondered before, why wasn't Finn angry when he knew Maura Shawn was sleeping with Shane Lin? I didn't expect this was the reason. Finn, Finn. Scum like you should die! " Sara Shawn began to scold Finn.

Maura Shawn clenched her red lips and trembled with anger. At this moment, her heart fell into the abyss.

She has seen Hank Shawn's real face. Now, he spread lies about her to protect himself. He even destroyed her reputation!

Her so-called "relative" is more vicious than her enemies!

At this time, a big warm hand landed on Maura Shawn's shoulder. Maura Shawn turned to look. It was Finn.

Finn had a faint smile on his face. It made Maura Shawn feel at ease.

Maura Shawn was brought to tears by Finn's gentle eyes. She felt that she had someone to rely on, no matter how others treat her, this fool will always stand behind her. Maybe this fool is not as capable as others, but he was the only man in the world who promises her his sincerity.

With him by her side, she could overcome anything!

Finn gently patted Maura Shawn's shoulder. He knew that Maura Shawn was downhearted. He could comfort her, but he must not!

For Maura Shawn, this was a growing process that she must experience. Only by thoroughly recognizing Hank and Sara can Maura Shawn make the right choices in the future.

After all, what he wanted to give to Maura Shawn was more than just Shawn's Family!

As for Hank and Sara Shawn...

Finn's eyes were cold. They will eventually make them pay for their stupidity!

"Maura, why are you crying? Did he say too much?" Sara Shawn became arrogant.

"Maura, is Hank speaking the truth?" Scott asked coldly. If what Hank said was true, Maura Shawn had crossed the line!

If she cooperated with outsiders and sold Shawn's Family's interests, it would be a hundred times more severe than betraying Shawn's Family!

He would never forgive her!

Maura Shawn nestled in Finn's arms and didn't speak. She was exhausted, whatever she said wouldn't matter. What mattered was who Scott believed. Even if she could come up with concrete evidence today, what would Scott do to Hank?

Scott would only punish Hank lightly and find an opportunity to release him.

"Does it matter?" Finn spoke quietly.

"What do you mean?" Scott's eyes were cold with awn. An overwhelming aura swept towards Finn. It was the force he cultivated by his high position. Ordinary people wouldn't be able to resist it!

However, Finn did not flinch. Instead, he sarcastically uttered, "What do I mean? Don't you understand? It doesn't matter whether things are true or false. Who you believe is true, and what you don't believe is false."

"Impudent!"

Finn's meaning was obvious, Scott was favoring Hank!

Indeed, there were loopholes in what Hank said, but he ignored all of it.

But he must believe Hank, even if what Maura Shawn said was true!

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 26 She Is My Wife!

"Impudent?" Finn flashed a smile and shook his head: "Perhaps."

"Grandfather, since I came to Shawn's Family, you have never looked me in the eyes. You think I am useless and bring shame to Shawn's family. So you suppressed my father to force him to kick me out of Shawn's family." Finn stared at Scott Shawn. He was calm. It was as if he was describing a trivial matter that had nothing to do with him.

Scott Shawn didn't show it, but he was boiling up inside. This worthless scum had known all this time? Scott Shawn thought he had been discreet. Even Grant Shawn himself wouldn't have known. Finn unexpectedly could figure it out.

Scott Shawn felt fear for the first time. Finn was not the scum that he thought he was. At least Finn was no less sophisticated than him. He saw through everything, but he kept silent for three years and let others bully him. Only a few people in this world could withstand that.

Maura Shawn was stunned as well. She gazed at Finn with disbelief. Finn had known of this for a long time. Finn didn't tell her once about this in the past three years!

"I know all of that." Finn calmly stated.

"I don't mind it." Finn laughed again, and then he stared at Scott Shawn, his tone became indifferent: "But you shouldn't have involved Maura!"

Scott Shawn's face changed. Somehow, Finn managed to scare him.

"Maura is my granddaughter..."

"But she is my wife!" Finn uttered coldly.

"I don't care if Shawn's Family bullies and insults me!"

"But you as her grandfather shouldn't have let Maura suffer from injustice!" Finn suddenly raised his head. His eyes were bursting with anger.

Maura Shawn's tears welled up. She understood why Finn never told her about Scott Shawn's affair in the last three years. It was not that he didn't want to say, but he didn't want to worry and trouble her!

This fool.

"And what are you going to do about it?" Scott Shawn's face was cloudy. He never thought that his son-in-law would come to disrespect him.

"I will make Shawn's Family pay an unbearable price!" Finn spoke calmly.

Scott Shawn was furious, "Are you threatening me?"

"If you think it's a threat, then so be it," Finn stated lightly.

"I'll address you as grandfather one last time. Look out for yourself from now!" After that, Finn took Maura Shawn's hand and walked away without looking back.

Scott Shawn was livid with rage !

Maura Shawn held Finn's hand tightly until they got out of Scott building. She just realized that she had cut her ties with Shawn's Family for Finn!

She wouldn't even dare to think about it before.

What's more, Maura Shawn couldn't believe that Finn dared to face, and even strongly refuted Scott Shawn. It was the first time Maura Shawn had seen this side of Finn in three years.

Maura Shawn was quite confused. She realized that she couldn't see through Finn.

She didn't even know the real Finn.

After returning home, they saw Leah sitting on the sofa with a gloomy look.

"I asked you to help Maura solve the problem, and that's how you solved it?" Leah asked Finn.

As soon as Finn and Maura Shawn left the Scott building, Scott Shawn immediately announced that he would recycle all the engineering teams under Maura Shawn and expel Maura Shawn from the company. At the same time, he also took back the 30 million RMB worth of property that he had awarded Maura Shawn last time.

Their family fell from heaven to hell.

All this was because of Finn!

It was because he decided to oppose Scott Shawn!

Upon receiving the news, Leah couldn't believe it. If they said Maura Shawn was the one who opposed Scott Shawn, she could buy that, but Finn.. she would not trust that even if she's beaten to death!

If she slapped his face in public, that good-for-nothing wouldn't even dare to fart. He couldn't possibly oppose Scott Shawn!

But when everyone in the company said so, she couldn't help but believe it.

The wimp has become bold.

"Mom, don't blame Finn. Grandfather favored Hank Shawn. He didn't believe me at all." Maura Shawn frowned.

"You are still defending him?" Leah glared at Maura Shawn with dissatisfaction. "If he were more respectful to your grandfather, your grandfather would have never made such a decision!"

"I obtained the Spring Hill project after many trials, but I didn't make any money and got expelled from it. Do you know how embarrassed I am?"

Maura Shawn also seemed depressed. As her mother said, she had almost nothing left now. Moreover, Hank Shawn would most definitely spread rumors and fabricate things about her and Thad. She and her mother would never be able to look anyone in the eyes in the future.

"Finn, if you are a man, go and apologize to Maura's grandfather." Leah turned her eyes to Finn and ordered him. Even if Finn apologized, Scott Shawn most likely would not forgive him, but she had no choice. Grant Shawn was in the hospital, Maura Shawn got kicked out of the company. They almost lost all their financial resources.

Leah thought that Finn would not dare to object her. But this time, Finn disappointed her.

Finn shook his head and calmly opened his mouth: "I will not apologize to Scott Shawn. Instead, he should apologize to Maura."

Leah was speechless.

He said Scott Shawn should apologize to Maura Shawn. Is Finn crazy?

Maura Shawn was stunned as well. She couldn't even imagine Scott Shawn apologizing to her.

"Finn, you should go to the hospital to check on your brain." Leah sneered.

Finn chuckled, "Mother, whether you believe it or not, Scott Shawn would certainly apologize to Maura. Just wait and see."

After saying that, Finn went straight into his bedroom.

"Wait a minute, explain it to me..." Leah was a little confused after seeing Finn's confident demeanor.

Slam.

Finn closed the door.

This scene agitated Leah very much.

On the other hand, Maura Shawn seemed to have some expectations. Although she knew that Scott Shawn was unlikely to apologize to her, she still wanted to hope for it. It wasn't that Scott Shawn's apology was meaningful to her, but she wanted to know whether Finn was bragging.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 27 Binary Peak

Finn did not brag about it. He had thousands of ways to destroy a small family like the Shawn family.

If Scott thought that after he signed the Spring Hill Resort contract with Shane, he could sit back and relax, then he was highly too innocent.

Finn sneered and called Jones's phone...

Yunsheng Building.

Hank refreshingly came to the company early in the morning. To celebrate Maura's dismissal, he went to the club last night and spent the night with two girls. So he was in a very good mood today.

After taking all the engineering teams back and became the person in charge of the Spring Hill project, the only thing he needed to do now was to lie down and make money.

That little bitch, Maura, I bet she was mad at home right now, Hank thought proudly.

"Son, come with me to the Pinnacle Group later," asked Carl. His face glowed when he saw Hank.

"Ah? Haven't you finished discussing the Project? Why are you going there again?" Hank couldn't help but be stunned. Last time at Pinnacle Group, Shane had left a psychological shadow for him, which caused him to tremble when he heard about Pinnacle.

"The project has been discussed, but the implementation still has to be discussed," replied Carl.

"Dad, can't you just let Second Uncle and others go there?" Hank asked weakly.

Carl glared at Hank and said, "You are now the person in charge of the Spring Hill Project. Why should you let your uncle go there for you?"

"Dad, I know what you are worried about, but you can rest assured that this time. The contract is in our hands. Shane will not dare to do anything to us." replied Hank.

"I'm afraid that Maura, the stinky bitch, will say bad things about us to Shane and make him get us in trouble." Hank continued. He was very worried.

"Huh, this is not a hundred or millions dollar project, but it's billions dollar project. Even if he were a bit crazy, Shane would not dare to do many stupid things in this Project. He is only the person in charge of the Spring Hill project. It is the Chen family that is controlling the Project!"

"If Shane dared to look for trouble with us, the Chen family would never let him go!" Carl said confidently. But what he never thought of was it was not the Chen family that was controlling the Spring Hill, it was Finn.

"Dad, let's go now," said Hank.

Toward the Chen family, Hank was still envious. He dreamed that Shawn's family would become a rich family like the Chen family. Only by stomping their feet, they could make the whole China tremble.

But Hank could only think about it. A family like the Chen Family, if you weren't born there, then you couldn't just expect to be one for the rest of your life.

The father and son then came to Pinnacle Group again. Unlike last time when the beautiful receptionist of Pinnacle Group treated them so coldly as if they were not really there.

But this time, Hank could feel that how the beautiful receptionist looked at him became a lot more enthusiastic.

Hank's mood became good.

"President Lin."

Knocking on the door of Shane's office, Carl greeted him with a smile.

But when Shane saw the two, his face suddenly pulled down: "What are you guys doing here?"

Carl's face stiffened and said: "President Lin, a few days ago, our Shawn's family and your company signed the Spring Hill contract..."

"You are the one signing the contract?" Shane interrupted even before Carl's words were finished.

"Well... No." Carl smiled and said: "But no matter who signed it, they are a part of Shawn's family, it doesn't matter."

Shane raised his eyes and said, "What if I want that person who signed the contract with me to come?"

"Why should you be so tough?" asked Carl. Carl's expression was a little stiff. Maura has been fired. How could she come over?

Shane shook his head disdainfully and said, "Go back. When Miss Xia comes, I will talk about it."

"President Lin, Maura is busy these days, and she can't come," said Carl.

"Then wait until she has the time, I can wait," replied Shane.

Seeing Shane's tough attitude and not giving him any room for his reputation. Carl's expression became dark.

"President Lin, we have signed the contract," Carl said again.

"Yes, President Lin, your personal reasons have delayed the construction of the Spring Hill Resort, and I don't think it was okay," Hank said, with a hint of threat in his tone.

Shane's face suddenly froze: "Are you threatening me?!"

Hank's expression changed; he gritted his teeth and whispered: "Mr. Lin, you are funny. How could I dare to threaten you?"

"Humph." Shane snorted coldly and said: "If you dare not, why are you still here? Get Out!!"

The father and son looked pale. They didn't expect that Shane was so fearless. Is he highly doesn't afraid of the Chen family?

Seeing the father and son became motionless, Shane snorted again and said, "Why, do you still want me to invite you out of this place?"

Hearing this, the two no longer dared to pretend and left the office in a hurry. They didn't want to be 'invited' by Shane as they did last time.

After leaving Pinnacle Group, Hank's face was covered with resentment: "Damn it! That Shane, did he eat the bear's heart or Leopard's gall? He is just a dog of the Chen family; why is he so crazy?"

Shamed by Shane twice in a row, Hank has completely lost his mind.

"Shane must have someone to rely on, so he dares to do so, or maybe even got the Chen family's explicit consent." Carl speculated.

"In that case, dad, let's sue them. After all, the contract has a legal effect. If one party breaches the contract, the breach of contract alone will have more than 300 million." said Hank.

"Stupid! Having a lawsuit with the Chen family, was your brain crushed by the car wheel? Even if you can win, the Chen family will give you more than 3 billion dollars, do you dare to ask for it?" scolded Carl.

These words were like a pot of cold water. They immediately woke Hank up. If he dared to take the Chen family's compensation, it very possible that Shawn's family would disappear from this world the next day.

"What should I do then?" Hank said unwillingly.

"I don't know, go back and ask your grandfather," replied Carl as he shook his head helplessly.

"It was all because of the stinky bitch, Maura. She must have slept with Shane again last night, Damn!" Hank said angrily, and his resentment against Maura grew deeper.

After returning to the company, Carl conveyed Shane's words to Scott.

Scott's old face frowned.

Not to mention Carl, even Scott did not expect that Shane would not even care about the contract.

"Grandpa, it must be Maura! She must have been resentful of your decision yesterday," provoked Hank.

Scott's eyebrows frowned, and he didn't say anything. It was not impossible. But Scott felt that there must be other factors behind it. Otherwise, Maura alone would not be worth what Shane did.

Was it Finn? Finn suddenly appeared in Scott's mind. But he then shook his head, If Finn had such a great impact, he would not marry into Shawn's family, nor would he say nothing when after being disrespected for three years.

"Hank, now that things have gone this way, we could only trouble you." Scott glanced at Hank and sighed.

Hank's expression changed and said, "Grandpa, do you mean..."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 28 The Attitude

"Go apologize to Maura and let Maura return to the company," Scott said. The trust was he did not want to make such a decision. After all, it was not only disgracing Hank but also himself.

"Grandpa..." Hank still wanted to refuse, but when he saw Scott's harsh stare, and his tone softened again, "Okay, let me try."

"It's not to try, but you must get Maura's forgiveness!" Scott said coldly.

"Yes, Grandpa!" Hank clenched his teeth and nodded. When he thought of bowing to Maura, Hank was as uncomfortable as eating a fly.

Now that things have gotten this way, if he didn't do this, it would mean that he would not have anything to do with Spring Hill, the money tree.

Half an hour later, Maura received a call from Hank.

When she saw that it was Hank's number, Maura hung up directly.

Hank was very angry, helpless. But he called again. This time, Maura wanted to hang up, but Finn took the phone.

"Is there anything?" Finn's mouth raised a light smile.

"Where is Maura? Let her answer the phone," said Hank. His tone seemed like he was suppressing anger.

"Sleeping," Finn said lightly.

"You go wake her up. I have something to tell her." Hank ordered.

"Stupid B!"

Finn spat out two words and directly hung up the phone.

"Damn!"

In Yunsheng Building, Hank was so angry that he almost slammed his phone to the ground.

"Continue to call," Carl said with a sullen face.

Hank called again, and Finn smiled and pressed to answer.

"Finn, you are overly abundant!" Hank lowered his voice. It was still okay if Maura hung up the call, but Finn, the trash, dared to hang up his phone, really when he couldn't accept it.

"Spit it out quickly" Finn rolled his eyes.

"Finn, you tell Maura, as long as she is obedient, her family can give her another chance to let her work in the company again." Hank's tone was a little alms.

Finn sneered in his heart. Hank was so stupid that he still looked down on the situation!

"What if she is not obedient?" Finn sarcastically asked.

"Then she will never want to go back to the company!" Hank said coldly.

These words almost ridiculed Finn. It seems that Hank has regarded himself as an important person.

This time, Finn did not politely hang up with him. He simply hung up the phone and put Hank's number on the blacklist.

Maura, who was on his side, had no opinion on this. She felt that Finn did so and vented her anger for her.

"Damn! This trash, sooner or later, I will kill him!"

The angry and mad Hank directly slammed his phone to the ground and shouted with his angry eyes.

"Enough!" Carl snorted coldly and said, "Your grandfather asked you to apologize. Is that what you said?"

"But dad, that stinky bitch, Maura, she didn't even plan to answer my phone. Even Finn, the rubbish, dare to get down on..."

"You must realize, it's you who beg for people's help now. It's not them begging you. Since you ask for people's help, you must have the attitude of asking for people's help. Just take what you just said, and it will be strange if people forgive you." Carl said.

"What should I do then?" asked Hank.

"Buy some gifts, go directly to Maura's house and apologize to her in person," replied Carl.

"Dad, asking me to apologize to that stinky bitch, Maura, where will my self-esteem go?" asked Hank. His face was expressing his unwillingness.

"Which is more important, your self-esteem or the Spring Hill Project?" Carl gave Hank a dissatisfied glance. After he finished speaking, his tone eased a bit: "When the Spring Hill Project is completed, your position at Shawn's house will be steady. When that time comes, you can do whatever you want to Maura. You could even drive her out of Shawn's family."

"But this time, you must be soft to Maura, even if you are ashamed!" Carl continued.

"Okay, let's make this stink bitch proud for a few days." Hank gritted his teeth.

At night, Hank and Carl visited Maura; they even brought fruit with them. Leah opened the door.

This time Hank learned to behave well. As soon as he entered the door, he greeted his third Aunt.

But Leah didn't give him any good looks, after all, just yesterday, Hank almost destroyed Maura's life.

Leah had always been like that. Maura and Finn were even more ununderstanding toward Hank.

So the father and son were left aside by the family, and they even had no place to sit.

Seeing Finn and Maura talking and laughing, Hank was so angry. He gritted his teeth so hard that he almost broke his teeth.

But this time, he could not be impulsive again.

For a long time, Carl just started talking, "Haha, Maura, there might be some misunderstandings between you and Hank."

"What misunderstanding?" Finn said lightly.

A gloomy glance showed Carl's eyes, he suddenly found out that the biggest resistance for both him and his son was not Maura, but Finn. He didn't know since when that Finn, the trash, has become so brave that he dared to disagree with Scott and even disrespected him.

"Finn, this was our Shawn's family's own business, what are you involved in this?" Hank said coldly. He intended to treat Maura softly but did not plan to do the same with Finn.

Finn sneered in his heart. But when he just wanted to speak, Maura said: "Finn's idea is my idea."

Finn felt warm. He now understood that Maura had given him the decision-making power.

Hank gritted his teeth but said nothing more. Carl also turned his eyes to Finn. He also understood that in Maura's family, the person in charge was none other than Finn.

"Finn, what do you think?" asked Carl.

Finn did not answer Carl's question, but instead, he asked: "Are you here to apologize?"

"Yes, because of Hank's impulsiveness yesterday, he spread some untrue rumors and caused a lot of harm to Maura and caused Maura to be expelled from the family. In that matter, Hank was wrong." Carl said calmly.

At this time, Hank also opened his mouth and said: "Maura, I did something wrong regarding yesterday's matter. I apologized to you, and I hope you can accept it."

Hank bent down, and the viciousness in his eyes was unabashed.

"Is it just a rumor?" Maura said coldly. Until now, Hank refused to admit that he planned it.

Hank's face changed, and he asked: "Maura, what do you mean?"

"I don't mean anything, Hank, you can go now!" Maura sneered since Hank refused to admit.

She was too lazy to talk nonsense to Hank.

Carl looked at Hank puzzled, and he couldn't help but wonder. Was Hank hiding something? Was yesterday's matter different from what Hank said?

Or worse, was Maura framed by Hank?! Carl was taken back by the sudden thought in his mind. If that was the case, what is this crappy apology?

Maura was still lucky if Hank didn't kill her.

Carl suddenly felt that things were tricky, but at this time, he could only open his head daringly: "Maura, no matter what Hank does, we are all a family, and we can discuss things slowly between family."

"Family?" Finn smirked and said: "Uncle. Since it is a family, let's discuss it. How about handing over the Spring Hill Project to Maura?"

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 29 Scott's Visit

"Impossible! Finn, never think about it!" Carl Shaw was about to refuse, but Hank Shawn took first. The Spring Hill project was their money tree, so how could he share it with others.

"Is that how you apologize?" Finn naturally knew that they wouldn't give him the project. What he intended was just to tease Hank.

"Finn, I can apologize, but you should know that this project belongs to us. We can compensate for Maura in other aspects." Carl said in a deep voice.

"Other aspects? For example? Let Maura return to the company?" Finn sneered.

Carl's face was terrible. He could feel the sarcasm in Finn's voice, but he had to force him to ignore it. "More than that, we can not only allow Maura to return to the company but also give her the building in the east. Besides, we'll give her a five percent share of the Spring Hill project."

Carl looked at Finn. This was his final concession, which he thought was advantageous enough to move Finn and Maura.

But Finn seemed to have no interest.

"A five percent share? Uncle, you're so generous." Finn mocked.

"Finn Chen, don't be greedy! A five percent share was enough for you to live a quite wealthy life!" Carl frowned. He knew well about Finn's living situation, delivering food in rains and winds, a salary of less than 6 or 7 thousand yuan, but a five percents share would bring to him almost ten million yuan a year! To exaggerate, Finn couldn't make so much money as a delivery man for all his life.

"Well, uncle, you can go back and tell Scott Shawn; Maura won't return to the company unless he can come here to apologize to Maura himself and let Maura handle the Spring Hill project. Otherwise, there will be no way to talk about this matter." Though Finn said calmly, the word shocked Carl and Hank much.

Did Finn say that he needed Scott to come here to apologize and let Maura take the project?

Was Finn's brain full of bullshits?

Even Maura Shawn and Leah were shocked by that. It seemed that Finn was too fanciful!

"You seem to have no sincerity. Do you know what consequence will be if Maura's grandfather apologizes to her?" Carl threatened.

"Consequence? I really want to see what consequence it will be." Finn didn't care about it at all. Just a Shawn's Family, if he wanted, he could easily destroy it at will.

“Good! Good! Good! I hope you can still speak so hard when trouble comes to you!” Carl was so furious. He didn’t expect that Finn, the coward as ignoble as an ant, could be so arrogant now.

How wildly arrogant this worm was!

It was no need to talk more. Carl pulled Hank, who still intended to curse, to leave.

After the two left, Leah stared at Finn. “What advantage do you rely on? The benefits they offered were perfect. Why didn’t you accept?”

“Mom, I have no advantage. I just want to get some from them for Maura. They should know that they can’t bully Maura at their wills.” Finn answered.

“What? How were you so arrogant with no advantage?”

Leah was enraged. A five percent share was enough to move her. She would definitely have accepted this just now if Finn weren’t so arrogant. Finn’s arrogance made her misunderstand that Finn had some advantages.

In Leah’s opinion, money was much more important than the face. They would live on air if they still had no income.

“Mom, the manager of that project is Finn’s classmate,” Maura explained. She had guessed that Finn had asked Shane Lin to put pressure on Shawn’s Family. Obviously, Shawn’s Family had met some problems with the project.

“Classmate?” Leah looked at Finn with disbelief. “What kind of classmate? How can he help you to offend Shawn’s Family?”

"Classmate in university, we lived in the same bunk bed, and we're as closed as one mind in two bodies." Finn lied without unease.

"That's not safe." Leah worried. "You'd better make sure your classmate is useful. If Maura couldn't go back to the company, you should divorce her immediately."

"Mom, take it easy. My classmate has promised me." Finn smiled.

"You and your classmate have graduated from the same university, but how can you two have such a big gap, a manager and a delivery man?" Leah murmured discontentedly. How satisfied she would be if Maura could marry a man like Shane Lin.

Finn smiled but didn't say anything.

The next morning, a piece of surprising news came from Shawn's Family. Scott Shawn, the head of Shawn's Family, Maura's grandfather, was going to apologize to Maura himself!

All members of Shawn's Family were shocked.

In Shawn's Family, Scott was the god who had never been offended.

Maura was just a dispensable girl who had always been a joke since she married Finn three years ago.

But today, the god was going to apologize to a joke!

No one could accept this fact. Even Leah and Maura felt it unreal.

Maura looked blank. She hadn't woken up until Scott knocked on the door.

This was the first time Scott came to Maura's house. Carl and Hank followed behind Scott, as well as Sara and her father, almost all the influential people in Shawn's Family!

Only Finn was calm.

He had expected that Scott would bow his head.

Maybe in others' eyes, Scott was sacred and couldn't be offended, but in Finn's eyes, Scott was just an ordinary old man who would bow his head to compromise when insoluble difficulties came. Scott had lived for many years, he definitely was not a young man who took dignity much more important than others.

Therefore, in Finn's opinion, Scott's visit was inevitable.

As soon as Scott entered the house, he kept observing the expressions of the three people inside.

He had expected Leah and Maura's flattering expression.

Then he turned his eyes to Finn. Confident, with a smile on his face, Finn seemed to have no surprise. Scott felt a thump in his heart, knowing that he had bet Finn wrong. He had lived for such a long life, but this was the first time he bet the wrong horse.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 30 The Sleeping Tiger

In front of all Shawn's family members, Scott Shawn astonished! He suddenly figured out that this useless waste grandson-in-law was the man behind the whole matter.

And this young man once swore that he would make the Shawn family paid the price!

Just a moment, a cold sweat came from Scott's forehead: Compared with Finn Chen, all men in the whole Shawn family were real waste! This young man was a fierce tiger! He can do whatever he wants!

Scott suddenly felt a little horrified. He didn't understand why this tiger-like Finn, get into Shawn family? He even stayed in the Shawn family for three years!

Does Finn target Shawn's family wealth and intended to take Shawn's family power as his own? Scott kept wondering: If this is the case, Finn is too canny and skilled in playing with human nature!

Once he passed away, Scott could imagine Finn would hold the whole Shawn family in his hands.

These younger Shawn's generations were weak and stupid compared with that brilliant monster Finn! Finn could beat them all! Scott was so worried for a time, and he even dared not to look at Finn.

Finn didn't know that Scott thought so much just by observing at his one expression.

If he knew Scott's thought, He would disdainfully smile: Such a small family, like Shawn's, was out of his interests. If it was not for Maura, he had left Shawn's house long ago, and would not stay here even for an extra minute.

"Dad, why do you come?" Leah blurted out after finish talked. She just realized she mentioned the wrong thing. Scott came for an apology, yet she asked it. That was a tremendous embarrassment for Scott.

Leah thought that Scott would be angry, but to her surprise, Scott just smiled and said, "I came to see Maura, I heard she was sick."

"Grandpa, come in quickly." Maura smiled. Sick? What a terrible excuse! Scott said so because he wanted to give himself dignity.

Scott entered the door, followed by Carl and friends behind.

For a time, the narrow room became even cramped.

Fortunately, Scott was very acquainted. In front of everyone, he said that he should not listen to hank's rumors, and kicked Maura out of the company. Scott said that he hoped Maura would return to the company, and be in charge of the Spring Hill project.

It has to be said that Scott's decision was a bit beyond Finn's expectations this time. Without any chit chat, he directly arranged everything.

It was not important if Scott did apologize. After all, That old man's attitude was apparent in front of everyone.

If Finn still forced Scott to apologize, things would be much embarrassing. Since Scott was Maura's elder, forcing the elder to apologize to the younger one was not suitable. Besides, it would make Finn look stingy.

The thing's that Finn did this time, finally helped his wife resolved the family business problems. Maura now could return to the company.

After receiving a positive response, Scott did not stay longer. He directly left the house with others.

Leah looked at Maura after the crowd left, asked, "Sugar. That's not a dream, right? That your grandfather gave you the chance to charge the Spring Hill project!"

"Mom, you are not dreaming, I am now the person in charge of the Spring Hill project." Maura also showed a long-lost smile on her pretty face, and then she looked at Finn again. Although Finn didn't say a word, she understood, Grandpa gave the Spring Hill project to her was all thanks to Finn.

If it was not Finn, not only Spring Hill, she might have been kicked from Shawn's family.

Leah couldn't help but curiously glance at Finn. She had been married to Shawn's family for nearly thirty years. Still, she had never had such glory in this family: The Shawn family headmaster came into her house, entrusted her daughter with excellent work.

For the first time, Leah looked at Finn, she felt unprecedentedly pleased. This waste was not as useless as she thought.

Finn believed that after this lesson, Carl's and his father Scott would not do any cheap tricks in a short time. They would not go to Maura for trouble.

Two days later, Scott held a celebration banquet for Maura at C Hotel. He announced that Maura had officially become the head manager of the Spring Hill Mountain project.

This news had attracted the attention of many business people in C City. After all, Shawn Family was the best one to cooperate with Pinnacle's group on developing Spring Hill.

And Maura also caused much attention. For a time, many young rich generations and other rich guys started chasing Maura.

But it turned out that Maura had been married for three years! And her husband, Finn Chen, was only a food deliverer!

It's like a fresh flower plugged in cow dung! Like a good cabbage eaten by a pig!

In response to this, Finn couldn't help laughing. After pushing Maura to the front stage, he also became famous in C city. Since Finn was Maura's loser husband, his identity made him the public enemy.

After becoming the charger of the Spring Hill project, Maura became busy. She was in the company almost from morning to night.

One day, Maura came to Finn's bedroom early in the morning.

Maura said: "Finn, We need to go to the Airport."

"What?"

"I'll pick someone up."

"Who?" Finn said dimly in his sleepy eyes.

"My best friend, Laura, she is coming home today," Maura said.

"Laura! Why does that crazy woman come back?" Finn suddenly agitated, woke up from the bed.

Finn smiled bitterly, and a nightmarish figure appeared in his mind.
