

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 101 Why Don't You Speak?

"He'll come in a minute." Finn Chen calmly said. The driver Marin Qiao sent to him should not be so unreliable. There may be other things that bothered him.

"In a minute? Hahaha, bro, are you still telling lies?"

"I don't think you have a car at all. Obviously, you came by taxi. You said that the driver was waiting outside. Gee, I appreciate your lies." Patrick Liu sarcastically said.

Maura Shawn was also a little uncomfortable. If Finn still told lies this time, it will be a shame for her.

At this time, a white Porsche approached. Seeing the Porsche license number, Patrick couldn't help but look at Finn. He said even more sarcastically: "Bror, look, your driver is driving a Porsche Is here to pick you up."

Maura frowned, did this Porsche come to pick Finn?

Porsche stopped in front of them.

A beautiful woman with a tall figure wearing a Gucci shirt came off the car.

The woman was just about to take off her sunglasses, but the figure that caught her sight made her pupils suddenly tighten.

Why was he here?!

Seeing the woman froze in place, Patrick stepped forward and couldn't help smiling: "What's up, my dear sister? Don't you recognize me?"

Elena Liu didn't speak. She cast her eyes along the expressionless Finn. Maura Shawn and Laura Xu beside Finn also attracted her attention.

"Elena?" Patrick was a little displeased. His sister was usually very lively. Why was she dazed as soon as they met today?

"Oh." Elena finally recovered, but she was still a little guilty. Last time, Finn's attitude towards her was absolutely irrelevant to closeness. Besides, there were two other beauties beside him at this moment. She dared not say hello to Finn.

"Elena, why don't you let the driver drive the Rolls-Royce? The Porsche is too old." Patrick said it was an old car, but the purpose was to show off. He wanted everyone to know that he had a Rolls-Royce at home.

"Rolls-Royce was driven away by dad," Elena replied subconsciously. Then she turned her eyes to Finn and three people, and tentatively asked: "Patrick, are they...your friend?"

"Friend?" Patrick sneered and said, "Elena, I don't have such a liar as my friend."

"Patrick, what do you mean?" Elena changed her face and asked, she heard the sarcasm in Patrick's tone. Did her stupid brother offend Finn?

"Elena, don't you know, there was a fool just now, and all the clothes he wore were less than two hundred yuan. As soon as he entered the airport, he boasted to me that he had a driver and a luxury car, but as soon as I came out, there was no car and driver. Elena, do you think this man is funny?" Patrick pouted.

Is he funny? Elena was horrified. She didn't think it was funny at all. Now Finn was the representative of the devil in her mind. Patrick, the idiot, dared to say that Finn was funny!

"Elena, why didn't you speak?" Patrick stunned, why did his sister look scared?

Maura also felt something was wrong. As a woman, her instincts were always keen. She found that Elena looked at Finn as if she was frightened. Something absolutely happened between the two.

Maura was a little unpleasant. Finn had just come to City J for a day, and there has already been someone make a pass at him.

In fact, Finn was also at a loss now because he didn't want to meet this silly lady. While Finn was thinking about resolving the embarrassing situation, a black Rolls-Royce with a gold plate number B8888 came over.

"WTF, a Rolls-Royce with four eights on its license?" Patrick's eyes widened, and he was shocked. He was very familiar with Rolls-Royce because he had one at home. But the one he had was only low-level configuration, only worth 5 million yuan.

But the car in front of him was the top-level configuration. The price of it has always been at least 12 million yuan. How can such a class of luxury cars appear in City J? The license plate number included four consecutive eights. If you can afford this license plate number, you can also afford a high-end Ferrari.

Patrick was envious. If he could have this luxury car, he could attract many women.

As soon as this idea was raised in Patrick's mind, he found that Rolls-Royce stopped in front of him!

"Elena, this car belongs to our family?" Patrick breathed heavily and asked excitedly, he had just thought of owning such a Rolls-Royce, this car really stopped in front of him.

Hearing this, Elena was so embarrassed and even wanted to flee. How could he think this car belongs to their family?

Patrick walked to the Rolls-Royce, ready to take a close look at "his" Rolls-Royce.

The door opened.

A middle-aged man came out sweaty and ran past Patrick to Finn, and said with panic: "Mr. Chen, I'm really sorry, I had a stomachache..."

Boom!

Mr. Chen? !!

These three words were like thunder, exploded in Patrick's mind, Patrick's footsteps paused for a moment, he could not hear what else the driver said, he only heard two words, Mr. Chen!

"It's okay." Finn waved his hand and said. As long as it's not an unethical mistake, he can forgive.

"Thank you, Mr. Chen!" The middle-aged driver nodded gratefully.

Finn had told him before, when he arrived here, he could not call him Master Chen. He should call him Mr. Chen. Although he was anxious, the middle-aged driver did not dare to forget.

"Finn, this car...is yours?" Patrick swallowed and asked in disbelief.

"No, I rented it." Finn shook his head, said seriously.

Rented? It is a Rolls-Royce worth more than 10 million yuan, and with a license plate number of four consecutive eights, who will rent it out?

Maura and Laura also didn't believe it. If it wasn't a Rolls-Royce with a license plate number of four consecutive eights, they would have really believed Finn's words.

What's more, this middle-aged driver's panic was obviously not fake.

So, the question was coming, where did Finn get this Rolls-Royce? Maura and Laura looked at each other, and this problem appeared in their minds.

Patrick smiled awkwardly and said, "Finn, please don't kid me. How can someone who can afford this car care about the rent?"

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 102 Have Some Money?

It was said that the car is the second girlfriend of a man, and many men even put the car in a more important place than the girlfriend. They would never be willing to rent the car to others.

"I'm lacking the rent. After all, the clothes I wore add up to no more than two hundred yuan." Finn Chen said.

"Bro, I was just kidding you, please don't blame me." Patrick Liu said embarrassedly. It was obvious that Finn was ridiculing him, but he dared not refute.

"Well." Finn responded nonchalantly, then turned his eyes to Maura Shawn and Laura Xu, and said with a smile: "Let's go."

"Ok." Maura nodded gently, and the middle-aged driver took the initiative to take the luggage and put it in the trunk.

Then the black Rolls-Royce ran away, leaving only the dumb sister and brother.

"Patrick, you are a fool!" Elena Liu glanced at Patrick and gritted her teeth. It was already too difficult for her to patch up broken relations with Finn, but the silly Patrick still mocked Finn.

"Elena, what do you scold me for? He is just a fool with some money. Our family can also afford this kind of Rolls-Royce," the Liu's Family could afford it, but they would not buy it. Because it was too high-profile, and their family didn't deserve it.

"A fool with some money?" Elena was almost mad. "Patrick, do you know what this fool did in City J in these two days?"

"What did he do?" Patrick asked subconsciously.

"He beat up Garry Bai's and Qing Yang's hands at Dragon's Villa !!"

Boom!

It was like a blast in Patrick's mind.

Being in the upper class of City J, Patrick understood what Garry Bai and Qing Yang meant. Not to mention Garry Bai, Qing Yang was the brother of the biggest potato in City J and was called the little prince. Even he was beaten by this guy!

"And the Bai's and Yang's families, dare not retaliate until now!" Elena said again.

Patrick's face suddenly turned to pale, the Families dare not retaliate? !

This man must have a monstrous background!

Patrick was terrified afterward. If he hurt Finn Chen just now, he would probably die here today!

And even if he dies, the Liu's Family dare not to revenge!

"Elena, you... do you know him?" Patrick asked with a trembling voice.

Elena shook her head and said, "I want to know him, but he doesn't want to know me at all."

"What should I do, will he kill me?" Patrick was a little frightened, and he sounded like crying.

"You start to be afraid of now?" Elena looked at Patrick indifferently.

"Elena, I'm as blind as a bat, help me please." Patrick was about to cry, if he could know that Finn had such a power, he would not dare to laugh at him.

"Do you think he will be as petty as you are?" Elena smiled disdainfully and said. "he just doesn't bother to care about a brat like you!"

Patrick's face was burning hot. And Elena's meaning was obvious. Finn didn't want to bother to care about him. He was like a clown.

"Let's go home, see how dad will rebuke you when you go back!" Elena glared at Patrick angrily. She had to tell Gil Liu that Patrick offended Finn. Although it seemed that Finn didn't want to retaliate, she had to plan well in the case.

Patrick nodded, but he was more curious about Finn's identity. He was not in the same grade as the local rich second generation.

"Finn, where did this car come from?"

Maura Shawn, who was sitting in the back row, couldn't help but ask. Although she didn't know about cars, from Patrick's eyes just now, she could know that this car's price was absolutely high. Not long ago, Finn also drove this luxury car to pick her up from work. At the time, she said that Finn rented the car. Now, it seemed that it was not.

"This car is..." Finn just wanted to say that it belonged to his classmate.

However, Maura directly interrupted: "Please don't you say that this car belongs to your classmate. I don't believe your classmates are so rich."

Finn choked. Indeed, using classmates as an excuse every time would not bring her around.

Laura Xu was also curious. Even a fool at this time should know that Finn was not simply married into a girl's family, he must have another identity.

From Thad Gu, Gavin Shen in City C, to the Bai's Family in City J, none of these opponents were easy to deal with. But Finn Chen beat them at ease.

They were not weak, but Finn was too strong!

Finn had too many secrets!

For the first time in forever, Finn had no idea what to do. He didn't know how to explain it to Maura. After all, Chen's Family, illegitimate children, and the world of Martial Artists were too complex for Maura. Finn was not even sure whether Maura still wanted to be with him after hearing his secrets.

At that time, the status of the two would be vastly different.

"Forget it." Maura suddenly said. She seemed to see Finn's embarrassment.

"Just let me know later when you want to tell me," she calmly said. She was also very afraid to know the answer. If she couldn't accept Finn's secret, she would not be able to be a spouse with Finn.

She would rather be kept in the dark. To be honest, she has completely fallen in love with Finn, and she could not live without him.

Moreover, Finn obviously had a monstrous background. He should have enjoyed the wealthy life, but he was willing to stay in Chen's Family for three years being ridiculed and served as a servant in Shawn's Family for three years.

What did he want? Was it Shawn's wealth?

Definitely not! Finn would never want Shawn's wealth because it was not worth to mention.

Maura was very clear that the reason why Finn stayed in Shawn's Family for three years was her!

In this case, it was meaningless to ask the question thoroughly. The only thing she knew was that Finn loved her!

This was enough.

"Maura, I will explain everything to you sooner or later. Trust me, that day will not be too far!" Finn said with a complicated expression.

"I believe you." Maura made a soft voice, and a gentle smile appeared on her face.

Laura sighed. She did envy Maura her marriage. Three years ago, she thought that it was a worm who married Maura, and that worm would ruin Maura's life.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 103

Manipulative

It now appeared that she was blind from the beginning, this man has always been a real dragon!

For the past three years, he has been disdainful of waking up!

Now that the real dragon has opened his eyes, it's time to make waves!

After putting the hotel's luggage, Finn Chen took Maura Shawn and Laura Xu to the hotel for lunch.

After lunch, Maura suddenly suggested: "Finn, Laura, shall we go shopping?"

"Okay." Finn smiled and said. He has been married to Maura for three years, and the two have seldom gone shopping together. Maura rarely visits City J on weekdays. Shopping was always the favorite activity of a woman. Finn had to satisfy her.

"I don't want to be the third wheel; I won't go with you guys. I want to take a nap first. I am exhausted after the flight." Laura yawned. Maura finally had a chance to be alone with Finn, and she couldn't disrupt them.

"Well, Laura, you should rest first, and I will go with Finn." Maura smiled.

"Well, see you." Laura waved her hand.

"Let's go." Maura took Finn's arm.

Finn was not very familiar with City J. Still, Maura used to study in a university in City J, and she was a little more familiar with the city.

After hanging around, the two came to The Mall, the most prosperous commercial district in City J, where the flag shops of all kinds of world-famous brands were here.

"Finn, I want to drink milk tea." Maura pouted cutely.

"Okay, I'll buy it for you." Finn smiled and said. Unlike other girls, Maura was the kind of physique that won't be fat no matter how much she ate. She drank milk tea almost every day, but she has never been overweight.

After waiting in line for ten minutes, Finn finally got a cup of milk tea.

After getting the milk tea, Maura was happy like a three-year-old child.

"Finn, let's go in and buy you some clothes." Maura pointed to the Armani Homme store on the side.

Finn shook his head and smiled: "No, I don't like this kind of clothes."

Although he was born in Chen's Family, Finn has always liked to be frugal. As long as the clothes were clean, he was willing to wear them. Clothes of dozens of yuan were no different from clothes of tens of thousands of yuan.

Since he was a child, his mother warned him that he should not be vain and care more about the inner world.

Some people were indeed flashy on the surface, but they were extremely poor on the inside.

And some people, even if they were wearing burlap, but they were sincere inwardly.

"All right." Maura stuck out her tongue. She found that Finn was indeed different from most men. He didn't have that kind of vanity. He never cared about other people's opinions. He only pursued what he wanted in his heart.

"Let's go shopping over there." Finn pointed to the brand-name bag store next to him. He was a man, so he didn't need to care about appearance, but Maura, a girl, still had to care about it. After all, women loved beauty.

"Okay." Maura nodded obediently.

Then the two came to a Prada store.

As soon as they entered, a female sale greeted them with a smile.

"Hello, welcome."

"Hello," Maura responded politely.

"What can I help you?" The sale still had a kind smile on her face with heavy makeup.

"I'm just browsing." Maura smiled.

Heard this, Lily Zhou's eyes were filled with disappointment.

As a professional shopping guide, it was her most basic skill to observe.

Generally, if she wanted to determine whether a couple has purchasing power, she needed to judge by the man who accompanies the woman.

If the man was a tyrant, then there was a 90% chance of a successful sale!

If the man was a loser, then he was just bringing his girlfriend into window-shopping. It was useless to rely on them to sell bags and earn performance.

Finn was included in the ranks of the loser by Lily in the first place. He was wearing cheap clothes, and the shoes were also the kind of ordinary travel shoes. As a man, he didn't even have a watch on his wrist.

But Maura was with a good figure and a beautiful face. At first glance, she was the kind of beautiful girl.

It's nothing but new wine in an old bottle. Lily thought, shaking her head.

Maura looked at the bags, but Lily obviously didn't mean to go forward and serve her. The bags here were from Prada, and the cheapest one costs 20,000 to 30,000 yuan.

Maura couldn't afford it at all, Lily didn't need to waste her words.

Finn smiled and didn't say anything. Lily's thoughts seemed ridiculous to him. Manipulative.

At this time, Finn's phone rang. Seeing that the caller ID was Marin Qiao, he frowned and went out.

"Pooh." Lily had a look of contempt across her face.

Lily has seen many men like Finn before. When they saw that the ladies had the intention to buy a bag, they would find all kinds of excuses to sneak off in advance. And then they watched from a distance, waiting for the ladies to go out of the store after shopping and said something happened to them just now.

At this moment, a beautiful lady wearing sunglasses and clothes of famous brands came in.

The lady seemed to be about 30 years old, perhaps because of the poor skin condition, she was with heavy makeup, but it still couldn't hide her loose skin.

As soon as the lady entered the store, Li's eyes lit up, and she cast her eyes along the necklace on the lady's neck, a limited edition! The official price was 390,000 yuan!

She must be a female tyrant!

"Hello, what can I do for you?" Lily hurriedly stepped forward and said with a smile. Unlike Maura, this beautiful lady was a big customer at first glance. She would never come in just for window shopping.

"Some new bags have been released recently in France, do you have them in your store?" The lady glanced at Lily with a bit of arrogance.

Hearing this, Lily was even more excited. This lady obviously often bought this type of luxury goods and knew the frontier of fashion very well.

"Yes, my lady. We just bought a batch of Prada limited editions from France the day before yesterday, please come here." Lily respectfully guided the lady to the limited edition area but found that Maura was also here.

At this time, Maura happened to be looking at a red bag.

Seeing Maura, there was a fit of obvious jealousy in the eyes of the lady. Maura was too beautiful, even if she wanted to find faults, it would be difficult to find Maura's slightest flaw.

She had a sixteen or seventeen-year-old girl's silk skin, a devil-like sexy tall figure, and an ethereal temperament.

The lady was a beauty herself, but she instantly became an ugly duckling in front of Maura.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 104

Terrible Anger

Lily Zhou saw the lady's jealousy, so she hurriedly said to Maura: "Excuse me, you are in the way." There was a hint of impatientness in her tone.

Lily knew well. At this time, she had to perform well in front of this lady to please her. Her commission this month depended on this beautiful lady. As for Maura, she was beautiful, but what Lily cared most was the performance.

Maura frowned; she didn't stand in the way.

"This lady, can you give me a place?" Lily's tone became even more impatient. As a shopping guide, she hated this kind of window-shopping people.

"I'm looking at this bag." Although Maura felt a little uncomfortable, she explained patiently.

"What kind of bag are you looking at? Can you afford it?" Lily sneered disdainfully. Although Maura's clothes were better than Finn, they add up to only a few thousand yuan. She didn't look like a girl that could afford Prada.

"What do you mean?" Now Maura turned angry. Her temper was good, but it's not good enough to let people ridicule her.

"You don't know what I mean?" Lily put her arms around her chest and sneered: "You and your poor boyfriend, are you just students? Two students want to buy Prada? You'd as like have angels fly out of your arse."

"The red Prada bag you are looking at is worth 99,999 yuan. How could you buy it? Do you rely on your poor boyfriend to buy it? He has run away!"

Maura frowned. She just realized that Finn was gone, but it was estimated that he had gone to the washroom. Finn was not the kind of person who could flee, but the female shopping guide made Maura very angry.

"How do you know I can't afford it?!" Maura gave Lily a grim look and said. Although the bag was indeed a bit expensive, she still wanted to teach Lily a lesson.

"Oh, if you can afford it, I will eat this mop on the ground!" Lily raised her voice, sarcastically.

"Okay, use the card!" Maura sneered and directly took out a bank card from her pocket. There were one million yuan in it. Last time Thad Gu paid 1.5 million as the compensation. She spent 500,000 yuan for a car, and one million remaining.

"Do you have any money on this card? Don't bluff someone with a blank card." Lily was not calm now. She just wanted to taunt Maura, but she didn't expect Maura took out her card. If there were money on this card, would she eat a mop?

"You will know if you try," Maura said. She would not care about Lily as she had a good temper, but Lily shouldn't scold Finn.

This time, Lily was stumped. She didn't dare to bet that in case Maura was really rich.

The beautiful lady on the side started to speak, pointing directly at the red Prada bag Maura liked, and then he said: "I want this bag, parcel it for me."

Lily turned happy and nodded hurriedly: "Okay, madam, I'll parcel it for you." She understood that the beautiful lady was rewarding her for taunting Maura just now.

Maura was a little angry, she didn't know why this pretty lady intervened in this matter.

"Madam, I chose this bag ahead of you," Maura said.

"Is it yours because you pick it first?" The lady showed her disdain.

"Please obey the rule of first-come, first-served," Maura was a little angry.

The beautiful lady snorted, and said, "I don't want to obey it, so what?"

She made Maura angry immediately, but Finn was not there at the moment, so Maura didn't even have someone to help her.

Lily Zhou reverently parceled the bag and handed it to the lady. Then she looked at Maura with provocative expression in her eyes. What if you have money, you little bitch? I just won't sell it to you.

Maura was very angry.

She didn't want to be entangled anymore, picked up the milk tea, and was about to leave.

At this time, the lady twisted her waist and walked towards Maura, and then seemed to inadvertently slam into the milk tea in Maura's hand.

"Splash!"

The milk tea bottle was hit on the ground, and the black chocolate milk tea splashed Maura, and the lady also was splashed a lot.

Maura didn't say anything.

"Zowie!"

The beautiful young woman raised her hand first and slapped Maura's pretty face.

"Don't you have eyes?" the lady scolded.

Maura was almost mad. It was this lady hit her on purpose, but she scolded her for not having eyes.

Maura raised her hand angrily, ready to slap back.

But the lady had been prepared and kicked Maura's belly.

Maura was staggered and slammed, hitting the back of her head heavily on the shelf, and was directly knocked out.

"Bitch, dare to hit me!" the lady cursed in relief.

"Madam, are you okay?" Lily Zhou hurriedly stepped forward, but she didn't even glance at Maura. Instead, she cared very much for the lady.

"I'm fine. You go over and slap this bitch for a few more slaps. One slap is 10,000 yuan. The harder, the better." The beautiful lady pointed to Maura. It would be best if she could ruin Maura's pretty face.

"Can I slap as I want?" Lily's eyes flashed. 10,000 yuan for one slap, which was much more than her doing shopping guides.

"As many as you want! Until you are tired!" The lady sneered.

"Haha, okay, I'm going to slap this bitch." Lily walked over excitedly. At this time, she left behind that customers are God. Sorry, money is God!

"Zowie!"

Lily raised her hand and slapped Maura severely. A blood-red handprint appeared on Maura's pretty face.

"Ten thousand yuan!" Lily was about to faint in excitement, never thought that making money would be so easy.

"Zowie!"

It was another slap, thrown on Maura's pretty face.

At this time, Finn walked in after the call.

But the eye-catching scene made him burst into tears!

Maura closed her eyes, blood still oozing out of her head, but Lily smiled like a demon and slapped her slap on Maura's pretty face.

Anger!

Terrible anger!

Finn's eyes were blood red, and he would never be so angry for a moment!

"Playing with fire!" Finn almost popped these three words from his teeth.

For an instant, Lily Zhou and the beautiful lady Mae Yan felt that the air around them was suddenly cold as if they had fallen into boundless hell!

An extremely cold murderous aura rushed toward them.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 105

Terrible Anger 2

Lily Zhou stopped the movement in her hand and looked back. Only then did she see the loser in her eyes just now rushed to her with blood-red eyes!

The next second, Finn rushed over like lightning.

"Zowie!"

In Lily's horrified eyes, with just a slap, Lily was directly slapped and hit the wall heavily.

For an instant, Lily felt like she was falling apart, her bones were broken into pieces.

More than a dozen bloody teeth popped out of her mouth!

Mae Yan shuddered on the side and took two steps back unconsciously.

But Finn's grim gaze locked her in an instant. Although Finn didn't see Mae slapped on Maura when he came in, he could speculate that this woman was the initiator!

Lily was not so bold.

"What are you doing? I warn you, it's illegal to hit me!" Mae exclaimed in a sharp tone.

"Why hit her?!" Finn Chen gritted his teeth with rage in his eyes.

"This bitch spilled milk tea on me, why can't I hit her?!" Mae said confidently.

"Good! Very good!" Finn clenched his fists and said angrily.

"Don't come here, I'll call the police if you dare to..." Mae tried to scare Finn by calling the police, but Finn's slap was thrown on her face before she finished her words.

Call the police? It's useless even she finds the King of Heaven!

With a slap, Mae's face covered with heavy makeup swelled up at speed visible to the eye.

Mae was stunned and couldn't move, only seeing stars for a moment. After recovering, she suddenly screamed hysterically and rushed towards Finn: "I'll kill you!"

Finn grinned, slapped again, and hit Mae's face fiercely. A few bloody teeth were falling out.

Mae was hit to the ground and began to cry.

But Finn did not intend to let her go. He took a step forward, raised his foot, and stepped on the back of Mae's hand.

Crush it hard!

"Kacha"!

Mae's hand bones were directly crushed by him!

"Ow!"

A pig-killing howl sounded, and the tearing pain made the veins in Mae's forehead were very heavy, and her face rose to purple.

Lily was still groaning on the side, but she was so frightened that there was a wet feeling in her crotch when she saw this scene.

Lily struggled to get up, trying to flee.

Finn sneered; he didn't give her a chance at all. He kicked Lily to the ground.

Then Lily felt a bigfoot stepped on the back of her hand.

"Do not....."

Before the words were spoken, heart-piercing pain came from the back of her hand.

Lily's hand bones were also abruptly trampled by Finn!

This was the price of daring to offend Maura!

Finn's eyes were frozen, he hadn't been so angry for a long time.

He couldn't even imagine that he just took Maura out to go shopping, and they could come across such annoying women.

"Finn..." At this time, Maura recovered from a coma.

"Maura, are you okay?" Finn Chen hurriedly rushed to her, holding her in his arms.

"Boohoo, Finn, I hurt." Maura's beautiful eyes were full of tears. She just wanted to buy a bag, why would she bump into people like Lily and Mae?

Finn's heart ached for a while. Maura had never suffered such grievances.

"It's okay, I'll take you to the hospital." Finn took a deep breath and said. Then he glanced at Lily and Mae, they were still groaning on the ground, and there was cold killing intent in his eyes!

Damn these two bitches!

"Pit-a-pat."

At this time, a man in a black suit ran over with a group of security guards.

It was impossible not to attract the attention of the mall administration because of the incident here.

The man in the black suit was the security manager of the mall, Woody Wang.

As soon as Woody entered the store, he saw Lily and Mae lying on the ground and were groaning. They looked very miserable when their faces were as swollen as a pig's head, and the back of their hands was dripping with blood.

Obviously, the instigator was Finn Chen.

Woody's angry eyes glanced at Finn instantly.

He, the security manager, could not escape the blame for such a big incident in the mall.

"You did this?" Woody asked furiously.

"Don't you ask what happened?" Finn's tone became cold when he found Woody didn't want to find out the truth.

"I asked if you did it! You just need to answer me, yes or no!" Woody roared.

"It was this bastard who beat me! Hurry and kill him!" Mae screamed, her face full of resentment.

"Catch him!" Woody said viciously.

At this moment, Finn's face was already extremely grim: "I will give you one last chance to figure out what the situation is!"

"No need. I'll let you kneel down and tell me!" Woody said fiercely. He must find a way to put all the responsibility on Finn.

Seven security guards swarmed up, Finn sneered and rushed over like a tiger.

Seven young and strong security guards fell to the ground in less than ten seconds, and no one could stand up!

Upon seeing this scene, Woody's face turned pale, with cold sweat on his forehead.

He encountered a ruthless character!

"Do you still want me to kneel down and explain to you?" Finn asked with a gloomy expression.

Woody swallowed.

"Jerk, you jerk!" Mae Yan screamed, seven security guards versus one man, but they had never beaten him!

"Shut up!" Woody cursed in anger. Finn obviously had great skills. No matter how many guards couldn't beat him.

"Dare to scold me?!" Mae's eyes widened.

"You wait, you jerk, and that bastard, you all have to die today!" Mae cursed hysterically, and then took out the phone.

"Darling, someone is going to kill me! You must help me! "

"This bastard is very good at fighting. Bring more people with you!"

Finn watched Mae call someone but didn't stop her. He wanted to see whom she could call!

A cold sweat broke out on Woody's forehead. Mae was not a small potato, if she really called someone to help her, he would suffer a lot.

"Sir, and this madam, could you please reconcile with each other for my sake?" Woody said with a sad face.

"For your sake? Who are you? Wait for my people to come, I want you to kneel on the ground!"

"And that bastard, I must break every bone in his body today!"

Mae's face was full of resentment, but her attitude was still arrogant at the moment.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 106 Play With Fire?

Finn Chen took out his cell phone and called Marin Qiao.

"Come here." After only two words, he hung up the phone. Calling Marin was not because he was afraid, but because he had a foreboding that this time the matter might be a big mess. Marin needed to come to deal with the aftermath.

After Marin received the call, an extremely solemn expression appeared on her face for the first time. As the saying goes, the fewer words, the bigger the problem. This time, Finn was obviously angry.

Even the last time Finn faced the Bai's Family, he was calm, but this time...

What happened?

Without time to think about it, Marin hurriedly summoned several senior executives in the company and the gangland forces cultivated by Tai Long Property Company and rushed to The Mall.

At this moment, the Prada store was surrounded by a lot of people.

Many people gathered around to watch the excitement.

At this moment, the crowd was violently pushed away.

More than a dozen tattooed men with switchblade knives and various other knives broke in.

The head was a middle-aged man with a big gold chain and a scar on his face.

Saw the scarred man, Mae Yan's face instantly became bright.

"Darling, you finally come! If you don't come, I will be beaten to death by these bastards, Boo-hoo..." Mae cried out with aggrieved expression.

Noticed her miserable behavior, Harper Qin's eyes flashed fire instantly.

"Baby, who did it?!" Harper asked angrily.

"That bastard, he beat up my hand!"

"And this dog security guard, he didn't protect me, and he asked me to shut up!"

Mae pointed to Finn and Woody and said.

Harper's face was serious, he first glanced at Finn and then moved his gaze to Woody.

He must beat Woody first.

As for Finn, he has already been sentenced to death by daring to treat Mae like this, and Harper wanted to take him back to kill.

"Why scolded my wife?" Harper asked Woody harshly.

Woody's calves quivered, his lips were also trembling, and he said, "Sir, I'm sorry..."

"Thump!"

Harper raised up the big knife in his hand and threw the knife's back fiercely on Woody's face.

"Ow!"

Woody screamed, and a foot-long red mark appeared on his face.

"I don't want to hear what you say I'm sorry, I'm asking why you scold my wife?!" Harper said angrily.

There was a "puff".

Woody knelt on the ground and began to kowtow to beg for mercy: "Sir, I beg you, I didn't mean to..."

With a grinning smile, Harper kicked Woody's head, and the latter was kicked to the ground.

Harper stepped on Woody's arm immediately and said with a grinning smile: "Remember, I am called Harper Qin. Don't let me see you again!"

When the words fell, the knife was swung, and then severely cut down.

"Zap!"

A bloody arm rolled on the ground, blood in the vessels sputtered from the wound!

Woody let out a miserable cry and was directly fainted by the pain.

The crowd was in an uproar, and the onlookers retreated immediately and looked at Harper Qin with horror.

No one thought that Harper would do such a bloody thing in front of so many people!

"Harper Qin...Harper Qin! I know who he is!" someone trembled.

"Who is he?!"

"It's Harper Qin from the Tiger's League in the East District!" someone said in horror.

"Tiger's League?!" Everyone's expressions changed drastically.

City J's locals, especially those living in the East District, even three-year-old children, knew about Tiger's League.

The Tiger's League was the largest underground power on the East District of City J. All entertainment industries in that area were under the control of Tiger's League!

In almost every entertainment venue, there were members of the Tiger's League as guards.

In the Tiger's League, there was one dragon and one tiger. The dragon was Lance Cheng, and the tiger was Harper Qin! These two were the bosses of the League!

This man turned out to be one of the two heads of the Tiger's League, and it was no wonder that he did things so lawlessly.

Looking at Finn now, almost everyone had a thought that he was going to die!

The security guard just asked Harper's wife to shut up, and he lost one arm.

And Finn not only slapped Harper's wife but also beat up her hand. It was not difficult to imagine how Harper would revenge!

Harper shifted his gaze to Finn. He thought that Finn would greatly change his face after seeing his cruel methods and even knelt down to beg for mercy. However, Finn was calm, and his brows have not frowned.

Harper's face became serious, the man in front of him...was very emboldened, unlike the security guard just now. Woody was scared to pee when he saw his knife.

"Well, tell me how to solve the problem?" Harper threw the bloody knife in front of Finn and said in a low voice.

"How do you want to solve it?" Finn asked calmly.

Harper glanced at Maura sitting on the chair, and saw the slap print on her face, he had probably guessed the whole story.

There was no doubt that it was Mae took the initiative to provoke Maura. Harper knew his wife very well. She was very arrogant and overbearing because Harper had some power. She always made waves in the street, but he could come forward to do the aftercare every time.

But this time, she obviously offended a big man.

"Well, Bro, I don't want to embarrass you. Which hand you used to beat my wife, you can chop off that hand yourself, as an apology for my wife. "Harper squinted his eyes. He was still trying to test Finn. If Finn started to beg, he has no confidence and just pretended to be brave. Then after cutting Finn's hand, he would kill Finn.

But if Finn didn't beg for mercy, he would consider whether Finn really had a great background.

"Darling, I don't want his hand! I want you to kill him!" Mae hurriedly screamed. She didn't know Harper's true purpose and thought that Harper really planned to forgive Finn.

"Shut up!" Harper glared at her with a bit of dissatisfaction. This stupid girl only knew how to make trouble for him.

Mae didn't say anything more, she didn't dare to embarrass Harper.

"Bro, how are you thinking about it? If you can't do it yourself, I can do it for you." Harper smiled and said, whenever Finn showed signs of begging, he would tear him to pieces.

Finn shook his head and said with a smile: "I think your wife's proposal is good, do you...why not kill me?"

Hiss.

Everyone couldn't help but take a heavy breath. Did Finn play with fire?

Harper was going to let him go, but he still provoked Harper.

"Bro, are you kidding me?" Harper's face was a little gloomy. He didn't think Finn was provoking him. On the contrary, Finn had a lot of confidence. He was not afraid of Harper!

"Kidding?" Finn squinted his eyes, his face turned grim: "Who are you? You don't deserve me to make a joke with you!"

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 107

Forbidden Lamella

The onlookers were in an uproar!

If Finn's sentence was just a provocation, then this sentence was embarrassing Harper Qin!

Harper's face was also bleak.

Even if Finn Chen really has a great background, he shouldn't embarrass him. After all, he was a boss in the Tiger's League. After being humiliated in the street, if he doesn't do anything, the name of Tiger's League will become a joke.

Since Finn was asking for death, Harper decided to fulfill him! A cold murderous intent flashed in Harper's eyes. He wanted to see what kind of monster Finn was!

Just as Harper was about to ask his gangsters to act, the crowd began to agitate.

Marin Qiao rushed into the mall with a group of senior officials from Tai Long Property Company, followed by hundreds of gangsters in black suits.

"Why did the people from Tai Long Property Company also come here?!"

"Those people following Tai Long Property Company are the Tiger's League?"

"It's the Tiger's League! And the leader is Lance Cheng! The entire Tiger's League came out!"

"Fuck, this man-made great trouble."

Everyone looked at Finn with more sympathy. Only a Harper was enough for beating Finn. Unexpectedly, now, the entire Tiger's League has all come out. There were hundreds of people, Finn would be killed even if he was a Superman.

And there were also people from Tai Long Property Company, the local super consortium.

To sum up Finn's current situation, it was impossible to escape!

Harper was also surprised when he saw Marin and Lance, why did they come here? He didn't call them.

Although surprised, Harper greeted them.

After all, the identities of Marin and Lance were clear. One was the financial resource behind the Tiger's League, and the other was the true leader of the League.

Outsiders thought that Harper was one of the two bosses of the Tiger's League equal to Lance, but only he knew that Lance's puppet was promoted. The real boss of the Tiger's League was only Lance Cheng.

"Ms. Qiao, Bro Lance, why are you here?" Harper asked respectfully.

Seeing Harper, Marin felt ridiculous. It couldn't be this idiot who provoked Finn, could it?

"What are you doing here?" Lance did not directly answer Harper's question but asked with a harsh face. He could also realize that it was Harper who had the conflict with Finn.

"Bro, my wife was beaten by him. I'm here to take a look." Harper didn't dare to hide the fact and said truthfully. But there was strong anxiety in his heart.

Lance sighed, patted Harper on the shoulder, and directly pushed away from the crowd and walked in.

"Bro, what's the matter?" Harper was confused. He felt that Lance just looked at him with a trace of pity.

Harper turned around puzzled, but the scene he saw almost made his eyes fall off.

Marin and Lance bent over to the young man!

"Mr. Chen, I'm sorry." Marin was full of cold sweat on her forehead, and her tone was a little frightened. When she first saw Harper, she thought that Harper had provoked Finn, but she discovered that Maura was injured after arriving at the scene.

Maybe outsiders didn't know what Maura meant to Finn, but she knew!

Maura was Finn's only forbidden lamella!

You will die if you touch it!

If you irritate Finn Chen, there may be a way to survive, but if you hurt Maura, there would be a dead-end!

The fear in Lance's heart was not much less than Marin's. It was the first time he saw Finn. Before the meeting, he thought that Finn was an ordinary rich second generation. Still, after meeting, he was shocked to discover that Finn was not ordinary at all.

He has a frightening quality!

This quality may not be obvious usually, but once Finn was angry, people close to him can clearly feel it!

"Send Maura to the hospital." Finn put his hands on his back, his tone was calm.

"Send Ms. Shawn to the hospital!" Marin hurriedly shouted, and a crowd of people rushed up.

"Finn..." Maura glanced at Finn with some worry. It was the first time she saw Finn in this mood.

"Dear, you go to the hospital first, I'll be there in a while." Finn's tone became gentle again. He wanted to stay here to deal with Lily Zhou and Mae Yan. He didn't want Maura to see his cruel means.

"Ok." Maura glanced at the respectful Marin and Lance, nodded with a complicated expression. Are these Finn's secrets?

"Clear the field." Finn glanced lightly at onlookers who were still in a sluggish and said.

"Yes, Mr. Chen." Lance Cheng nodded hurriedly. But before he said something, the onlookers were scattered.

Scared!

They were really scared!

They thought people from the Tiger's League and Tai Long Property Company were here to kill Finn Chen, but it turned out that they were all Finn's gangsters!

Although they didn't know what the identity of this young man was, it was absolutely terrifying!

They dare not watch it!

"Now, you can tell us the process of the matter." Finn glanced at Lily and Mae and said indifferently. Although he can be sure that Lily and Mae took the initiative to provoke Maura, he still wanted to hear the process.

Lily's expression was dull. At this moment, she was about to be scared and speechless. She could never know that she would be in such great trouble as she provoked Maura Shawn.

There were hundreds of black suit gangsters. Marin Qiao, executive director of Tai Long Property Company, and Lance Cheng, the Tiger's League boss, were also here.

These people were legendary characters that she could never meet.

But now, they were gathered together. Their identity turned out to be just the gangsters of a loser in her eyes!

Lily felt extremely regretful. How could she thought that such a person would not be able to afford a Prada?

Such a person could even buy the entire mall!

"I... I'm sorry..." Mae shivered. She understood that Harper couldn't protect her at this time.

"I want the process," Finn said in a calm tone. He didn't want to hear "sorry." Not all mistakes can be made up with a sorry.

"It's her! She instigated me..." Mae hurriedly pointed at Lily.

Before she had finished speaking, Lily screamed up and grabbed her hair: "You bullshit! It's obvious that you are jealous of the lady who is beautiful and deliberately! You also asked me to slap that lady. You said you would give me ten thousand yuan for each slap!"

Ten thousand yuan for a slap!

Finn clenched his fists, his teeth clenched.

"Bitch, nonsense!" Mae was also crazy, grabbing Lily's hair and fighting with her.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 108

Domestic Violence

On the other side, Hu Qin's body shook like a sieve, and his clothes on his back were completely wet with sweat.

Qin's wife humiliated Finn's wife, and she will take consequences.

Marin said with anger, "you were too reckless." Marin didn't expect that Mae Yan would be so vicious.

Long Chen said coldly, "Hu Qin, get over here."

Marin was so arrogant because Qin spoiled her.

"I..." Qin muttered and knelt in front of Finn Chen.

Finn gave Marin and Li Zhou a cold look and said, "I don't want to see her again.

Long's eyes flashed a cold light and replied, "got it." If these two stupid women provoked Finn, the situation wouldn't be so serious. But they humiliated Finn's wife.

Zhou crawled to the feet of Finn but was kicked away by Long.

Mae looked at Qin tremblingly, asking for help, "save me, Qin."

Qin didn't look at Mae. At this moment, Qin couldn't protect himself, let alone to save her.

Long picked up the knife and threw it in front of Qin and said coldly, "you go to kill them."

Finn frowned and kept silent Long could have done it by himself, but he said to save Qin's life.

Qin hesitated for a moment and couldn't bear to kill his wife. But he knew that it was the only chance he got, or Long wouldn't let his go even if Finn doesn't kill him.

Qin clenched his teeth and raised the knife, walking to Zhou, who was desperate. After a moment, Zhou died.

"Qin..." Mae was shocked and was incontinent.

"I'm sorry, Mae," Qin said and raised the knife.

Finn went to the hospital directly after coming out of the mall.

At this moment, a female doctor was taking care of Maura Shawn's wound in the ward.

The doctor had a good figure. Her rear end was full. Though she was wearing a loose white coat, her slim waist was obvious.

"Maura, I didn't expect to see you again here," the doctor sighed.

"I'm alright. Don't worry, Meng Jia," Maura smiled bitterly. The doctor was Maura's roommate in college. Maura was surprised too that the doctor who received her was her roommate in college.

The doctor raised her eyebrows and pointed to the wound on Maura's back forehead and said, "you are wounded. It's not alright at all. I am telling you if the wound was deeper, your life would in danger."

"Moreover, you should protect your skin. If you don't take care of the wound, there will be scars."

"You were the most beautiful girl in our college, and many boys liked you. Even you got married, many boys still wanted to date you. They asked me about you, and some of them even said that if you divorced, they would marry you immediately. If there were scars on your face, I don't think they would still want to marry you," the doctor said. She was jealous of Maura.

What the doctor said was true. After graduation so many years, there were still so many boys who wanted to date Maura. Many of them were rich, and their parents were politicians. They were obsessed with Maura.

Maura shook her head and smiled bitterly and said, "Meng Jia, I have married for 3 years, and my husband treats me well. I am very happy now. if somebody asked you about me, please tell them that I will never divorce."

Meng Jia sighed and said, "we are good friends, Maura. You don't have to lie to me. If I were right, your husband did this to you, right? I don't believe you hurt yourself by accident."

Meng saw the red slap mark on Maura's face when Maura came. Maura came here alone, so Meng thought Maura was hit by her husband.

Maura was surprised and asked, "why would you think that? I have married for 3 years, and my husband hasn't scolded me for once. How could he hit me?"

Meng Jia asked, "really? Then why didn't your husband come here with you?"

Maura said, "my husband was dealing with the woman who hit me."

Maura didn't know what Finn would do to these two women. Finn was very angry at that time, and he probably won't let them go easily.

Meng Jia was even more suspicious and said, "I thought your husband is just a delivery man."

Maura said, "he..."

Maura wanted to say Finn was no longer a delivery man but hesitated to speak out because she didn't know Finn's job.

Meng Jia felt that Maura was embarrassed and added, "Maura, don't think too much. I was talking nonsense. I don't mean it."

Maura smiled bitterly and didn't want to explain more. She knew that Meng Jia looked down upon Finn. Even if Maura told her that Finn was capable of a lot, Meng Jia wouldn't believe her. Maura knew that her old friends and classmates wished that Finn was just a delivery man.

Maura smiled and said, "it's okay. I think his job is good." This was Maura's true thought. Sometimes, Maura hoped that Finn was a delivery man earning 5 thousand or 6 thousand a month, then Finn would live a peaceful and happy life with her.

However, the reality was that Finn was no longer a simple man. There were also more dangers in their life. Maura was afraid that she couldn't take all these anymore and would become Finn's weakness one day. At that time, it would be a luxury for her to be with Finn.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 109

Roommate

Greta Wang didn't believe that Maura Shawn hoped that her husband was a delivery man. Wang thought Maura was saying in angry words.

Maura was famous for being arrogant in college. Men who wanted to date her were rich, or their parents were politicians, but Maura refused them all.

At that time, people all thought the man Maura marry in the future will be the most outstanding.

Out of everyone's expectation, Maura got married as soon as she graduated. The man she married was a delivery man.

Most of the college people were surprised, and many men got drunk on the day when Maura had a wedding.

Countless girls were excited for several days after hearing that Maura married a delivery man. They thought they finally didn't have to live in the shadow of Maura.

Wang was jealous of Maura too because the boy she loved didn't like her but Maura.

Wang was jealous of Maura for a long time and almost hated Maura.

Her jealousy of Maura faded away after hearing that Maura married a delivery man.

Now Maura came to the hospital alone with a wound on her face, Wang started to sympathize Maura. She thought Maura lived a bad life.

Women were complicated. If Maura knew Wang's thoughts, she would be surprised.

Wang asked curiously, "Maura, you said your wound was not hit by your husband but by a woman. Why did she do that?" Wang thought Maura was gentle and won't provoke others.

Maura told Wang what happened in the specialty store but didn't talk about Hu Qin.

Wang was angry after hearing what Maura said and said, "bitch, why was she so arrogant?"

Maura smiled bitterly. She knew Mae Yan was so arrogant because of her powerful husband. But this time, her husband couldn't help her anymore because Finn Chen was very angry.

Wang asked, "you said your husband went to deal with Mae. Did you ask what he would do to that woman? Would he let the woman go after you left?" Wang was not stupid. If Maura was telling the truth, the woman who hit her must have a good background.

Maura's husband was just a delivery man. How could her husband deal with the woman? Wang thought Finn would apologize to that woman after Maura left.

Maura shook her head and said, "he won't. I believe him."

Wang pouted and didn't believe what Maura said. It was obvious that Maura's husband was weak. If he wasn't, why didn't he ask Maura to stay and watch what he did to protect Maura?

Wang didn't tell Maura what she was thinking. She didn't want to embarrass Maura.

At this time, Finn came in and felt relieved after seeing Maura was ok.

Maura raised her mouth and said, "Finn, you are back." She felt peaceful whenever she saw Finn.

"Yeah, how do you feel?" Finn asked softly.

Maura shook her head and said, "I'm alright now."

Wang asked, "you are Maura's husband?" Wang had been looking at Finn since he came in. Wang thought Finn was an ordinary person.

Finn looked at Wang with a puzzled look.

"Finn, she's Jiameng Wang. She was my roommate in college," Maura explained.

"Nice to meet you. I'm Finn Chen," Finn reached his hand and said.

"Nice to meet you, too," Wang said. She was reluctant but shook hands with Finn eventually.

Wang asked, "Finn, what did you do to the woman who hit Maura?"

Finn smiled and said, "I called the police, she was taken away by the police."

"Wang said disdainfully, "you called the police? I don't think that's a good way. She probably had a connection with the police. She could just give some money and will be released."

Finn shook his head and didn't say anything. He couldn't tell Wang that he killed them.

Maura smiled. She didn't believe that Finn would call the police.

Wang wasn't satisfied and said, "I think you shouldn't have called the police. You should have hit that woman. Look at Maura's wound."

"Jiameng, things have passed, and we should trust the police," Maura said.

Wang said, "if the same thing happened to me, my husband wouldn't call the police. He would hit that woman."

Wang looked down upon Finn, who was not only just a delivery man but couldn't protect his wife.

Finn smiled bitterly and knew he was looked down upon again. But he couldn't tell Wang the truth.

"Maura, we are going to have a class party the day after tomorrow. You should come with your husband. Our classmates wanted to see your husband," Wang glanced at Finn and said.

Maura hadn't gone to the class party after graduation.

Wang thought Maura was shamed into going. After all, her husband was a delivery man, while other men who wanted to date her were managers or bosses. She would be embarrassed.

This time, since Maura was in Nanjing, Wang would try her best to convince Maura to go. There must be many people interested in Finn.

"Ok, I'll go," Maura said and smiled. She knew her classmates didn't want to see Finn but to laugh at her.

Wang rose with a smile and said, "OK, then see you the day after tomorrow." She was curious that what would other men who wanted to date Maura look like when they saw Finn.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 110 Tim Xu

After Greta Wang left, Maura Shawn looked at Finn Chen.

"What did you do to them?" Maura couldn't help but ask, this was the first time she saw Finn was so angry, and she didn't know how Finn would handle Lily Zhou and Mae Yan.

"Nothing. I just gave Lily and Mae one unforgettable lesson." Finn lightly smiled.

Maura nodded gently.

"Nothing will happen to you, right? That woman looks like she has a background." Maura was worried. After Mae's husband, Harper Qin, came over, Harper cut off one arm of that security guard in public. He was so lawless that it was sure that he had someone behind him. Maura worried that Finn would get into trouble.

Finn shook his head and said, "Sure, I've taken care of it."

"Take a good rest in the hospital these two days, and don't think about other things." Finn smiled.

"Okay." Maura nodded, but she was a bit worried at the bottom of her heart. She realized that she didn't know much about Finn.

Then, two days passed.

At the University of City J's entrance, several beautiful young women were speaking with enthusiasm and assurance, forming beautiful scenery.

Greta also stood in it.

Since everyone graduated from the University of City J, the meeting place of class reunion every year was at the university entrance.

"Greta, why didn't you bring your husband this time?" Opposite Greta, a slightly fat young woman, dressed in sexy smiled and asked, "At that time, Greta was also a beauty in our department after Maura Shawn. After graduation, Greta married a coal boss with a net worth of over 100 million in another province. Her marriage is the best in the class."

When Greta heard the word "husband", a trace of anxiety flashed through her eyes, but her face was smiling: "Hey, don't mention it. There was an accident in that coal mine, and the workers made a scene. He went there to comfort those workers."

The slightly fat young woman nodded and said, "Then you have to let your husband handle it well. In these days, if this kind of accident is not handled well, people will post it online, and make big trouble."

Greta nodded, but her smile was somewhat reluctant.

Everyone didn't know that the man Greta married was not a coal boss, but a liar when she graduated. The liar said he was a coal boss at that time, and Greta believed it out of greediness.

After she got married, she discovered the truth. But at that time, she was already pregnant, so she could only endure it and make do with it.

"I heard that there are several boys in our class who are doing well." The slightly fat young woman had shifted the topic to other people. It was also the problem that everyone cared. Although everyone graduated from the same school, the situation was very different when they went into society. Some people had become executives of foreign companies in just two or three years, with an annual salary of five or six hundred thousand yuan, while others were still struggling at the bottom of society, even unable to find a job.

"Yeah. Do you still remember Bald Zhao?"

"Is that ugly and stupid boy? I remember that he seemed to have chased Greta. "

"Yes, that's him. However, Greta didn't like him that year and also threw his love letter into a garbage bin in public."

When they were talking, Greta finally remembered who they said Bald was.

"Is he doing well now?" Greta could not help but ask.

"He's more than good. I heard that after graduated, he entered a multinational company. In less than two years, he became a vice president. Now his annual salary is more than one million yuan, and the salary will rise." The woman envied.

More than a million yuan? Would it rise in the future? Greta opened her mouth wide with remorse in her heart. If she had promised his pursuit, she wouldn't have to suffer hardships now.

"But Greta, you were right to refuse him. Although he has a nice job, he is still much worse than your husband." The slightly fat young woman laughed--although Bald was doing well, he was not as good as the coal boss.

Greta looked stiff. If only she had a coal boss husband.

"But among the more than 60 people in our class, the most handsome boy-Tim Xu is faring quite well." The slightly fat young woman seemed to be a generalist, who knew all her class's situations.

"Tim?" On hearing this name, several young women's eyes flashed across a strange color.

If Maura was the dream lover of all the boys in the college class, Tim was the Prince charming of all the girls. Several young women in the court had more or less fallen in love with Tim. Unfortunately, Tim only had a crush on Maura.

"Where is Tim working now?" Greta asked, she was also one of Tim's admirers, but Tim threatened that he would only marry Maura in his life. Because of this, she also hated Maura.

"Work? Tim didn't go to work now." The slightly fat young woman shook her head and said, "Now he runs a clothing factory by himself, and he is the boss. I heard that there are three or four hundred workers under him."

"So many people?!" They all felt surprised.

"Well, he is not in the same class as us now. His clothing factory has a net profit of more than 30 million yuan per year. He has recently received strong support from the government and even has a relationship with the Liu Family." The young woman envied. Most people in the court had an annual salary of only 100,000 to 200,000 yuan, and even Bald only had a yearly salary of one million yuan.

Greta was also jealous. If there was no Maura in those days, maybe she could be with Tim. She would not have to be cheated after graduation, let alone live this miserable life.

"Sally, will Tim come this time?" Greta couldn't help but ask. Only some little-known people in the class attended the first two class reunions, but the big potato, such as Tim, didn't show up. If Tim came this time, she had to get on with Tim again and let Tim help herself.

Sally Li, the slightly fat young woman, smiled and said, "Of course, Tim will come this time, and he booked the place where we will get together this time."

"Where is it?"

"Hoki Restaurant," Sally answered.

"Hoki Restaurant?" Several women's eyes widened. That place was the fanciest restaurant in City J. The chef in it has worked as a chef in a Michelin-starred restaurant. The per capita consumption was as low as 3,000 to 4,000 yuan. If they eat a better meal, the cost will pass even over 10,000 yuan.

Would Tim invite them?

After all, there were more than 60 people in their class. If they all came over, it would cost hundreds of thousands. Even Tim was rich; he couldn't spend money like water. If they had finished eating and Tim didn't pay for it. How could they deal with it?

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 111 Party

Sally noticed what other people were thinking and smiled and said, "tens of thousands seems a lot for us but is a small amount for Tim. His garment factory can earn it for him in a few days."

Other several women didn't worry anymore after hearing what Sally said and became excited. She wanted to go to the famous Hoki Restaurant. They could show off in their friend circle after having a meal there.

Greta was also excited and expected to go there. She told herself that she had to take this chance to hook up with Tim. She was willing, even if Tim had married.

Though her life wasn't happy in the past three years, Greta's figure was still good. She also had a look appearance. During college, she was famous for being a sexy lady. Many men coveted her body, and Greta would take advantage of her body.

Someone said, "will Maura Shawn come?"

Others said, "I don't think so. She didn't come in the past two years." Almost all of the girls hated Maura in college.

Moreover, Tim chased Maura in college crazily. If Maura came, they wouldn't have the chance to hook up with him.

Greta said bitterly, "she'll come this time." Greta was happy that Maura came if Tim didn't come, but if Tim came, she didn't hope that Maura came.

Maura would be the party's focus, and she won't get the chance to hook up with Tim.

Sally asked curiously, "How do you know that Maura will come? I thought she had been too ashamed of her husband's job to come."

Greta said, "I met Maura the day before yesterday." She told them what happened on that day but didn't tell them why Maura was hit. Her purpose was to manipulate other people to misunderstand.

Someone laughed out as soon as Greta finished and said, "Maura was slapped several times?"

Another person said, "did Maura hook up with that woman's husband?" Why was she slapped?"

Greta achieved her goal.

"Maura must do something wrong. Her husband is a loser. It's normal for her to hook up with other men."

"I agree. In college, Maura acted like she was better than anyone. She was a bitch."

"I am ashamed of her."

"I don't know why did she have so many followers. They would regret it if they married Maura."

"I bet that her husband is regretful now."

Greta smiled coldly and was happy that her classmates now had the same opinion about Maura.

Many people said Maura was a mistress, and if Tim heard of this, will he be interested in Maura?

Greta changed the topic and said, "Maura's husband will come too."

"Her husband? Why? Does he feel that's embarrassing?"

"Would it be that he wanted to come after hearing that Tim invited us to there?"

"it's possible. After all, her husband's salary for a month couldn't afford a meal there."

"I fell sick."

"It is true that people who share the same values would be close. One of them is a mistress, and another one is a loser. They are matched."

Greta said, "don't be so mean. I saw her husband on that day. He was nice, and Maura said that she liked her life and didn't think her husband was a loser."

"I don't believe her. If she didn't disdain her husband, I would swallow this pole."

"Maura refused Tim. I thought she would have married a super-rich man. She married a delivery man. That was hilarious."

"I bet she was regretful. This time she came to hook up with Tim."

"I agree. I should be watchful today. If she dared to hook up with Tim, we would teach her a lesson."

Sally warned, "Tim is single now, and we should stop Maura from hooking up with him."

Everyone in the room had regarded Maura as their biggest enemy.

At this time, several Audi A4s and Volkswagen stopped at the school entrance, and other students in the class also arrived.

Several women glanced at the type of the car and then looked back disappointedly. The person they expected to see hadn't come yet.

Because Tim won't drive these cheap cars.

Generally, people who drove these cars weren't as successful as Tim after graduation. They had been unknown in college, so in society.

Greta and Sally greeted with several men getting out of the car.

They didn't greet people who took taxis.

The purpose of taking part in the student meeting was to establish a connection with people who were more successful than you. No one would talk with losers.

A man wearing glasses proposed, "everyone is here. Let's get in to eat."

The man was Jack, who was famous in the class. He was handsome and played guitar.

But today, no one responded to his proposal.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 112

Mistress

"Tim hasn't come yet, and he is the organizer," Garry said and broke the embarrassment. Garry had a secret crush on Jake in college, but after graduation, Jake worked for a private company as a secretary. Compared with Tim, he wasn't successful at all.

Garry looked down on Jake, and other women who had a crush on Jake all ignored him.

Jake smiled stiffly and said, "let's wait for a moment."

A black Land Rover Range came to the side of the road as soon as Jake finished. The cool model and the car's line attracted everyone's attention.

The car door opened, and a tall, handsome young man in Armani Suit came out of the car. His skin was fair, and his eyes were deep. He smiled confidently.

"Tim, here."

"Tim, it has been a long time. You look good."

The young man was Tim. Garry and Greta ran to Tim with enthusiasm after he showed up, while other men looked awkward. These women were snobby.

A woman with freckles flattered, "Tim, your car is amazing."

Garry flashed and said, "his car is Land Rover Range. The price is 2 million."

Tim was complacent and waved his hands and said, "my car is average. I am going to sell it and buy a Ferrari after this spring festival."

"A Ferrari. It will cost you 3 million."

"A 3 million Ferrari is a low-level configuration. People like Tim should drive a 5 million Ferrari."

Tim smiled and said, "I am going to do it."

"Tim will be the first one who drives Ferrari."

"We are proud of you."

Tim felt he was about to float up to the sky, and this was why he attended this party.

Tim said, "is everyone here? Let's go to Hoki restaurant."

Jake said, "Hoki Restaurant? It's expensive there. His salary for a month was 5 thousand, and this couldn't afford a meal from the restaurant.

Garry glanced at Jake and said, "Tim will pay. You don't have to worry. Garry thought she was lucky of not being with Jake before.

Other people said, "really? Tim will pay?"

They didn't know Tim will pay, so when they heard that they would go to Hoki Restaurant, they hesitated.

Tim looked arrogant and said, "of course, we are classmates. This is what I should do. You guys can order anything you want to eat in Hoki restaurant."

"Tim, you are so generous."

"Tim, you should teach us how to make a fortune."

Several male students started to flatter Tim who had become the center of the party.

Tim's red turned red. He waved his hand and said modestly, "that's not the most important. The important thing is that I could help if you got into trouble. If you were not satisfied with your current job, I can find a job for you. There are a lot of vacancies with a salary of tens of thousands for a month. You are my classmates. As long as you come, you can directly start your job without an interview."

"Tim, you are really rich."

Everyone flattered Tim who was satisfied.

Jake smiled awkwardly. He and Jim were both popular in college. But now, all girls followed Jim, and no one talked to him.

Tim smiled and said, "Is everybody here, then let's go. I have reserved a box."

Garry said suddenly, "Maura hasn't come yet."

Tim was stunned for a moment and asked, "will she come?" Tim looked happy after hearing Maura would come. Greta was jealous and knew that Tim still loved Maura.

Garry nodded and said, "she'll come with her husband."

Tim stiffened and asked, "how is she doing now?"

Garry pouted and said, "not good. Gare met her several days ago. We heard that she is someone's mistress and was slapped by the man's wife."

"What? Maura is someone's mistress? It's impossible."

"I knew she was not a good person."

"I heard that she married a delivery man, and her life wasn't good."

"She deserved to be slapped."

"I am ashamed of her."

Women despised Maura one by one, and Tim wasn't happy. Maura became someone's mistress? He couldn't believe it.

Garry realized she talked too much after noticing that Tim wasn't happy. She said, "let's stop talking about Maura. I think she will take care of herself. Let's mind our own business."

"I don't want to have a meal with a mistress."

"Me either. She was the only girl on in our class who became a mistress."

"let's not invite her next time. I'm ashamed of her."

"I agree. Tim will pay. It will be a waste to invite her."

Greta didn't say anything but was happy. She knew that everyone hated Maura, and Maura will suffer a lot when she came.

"Tim, shall we go first? Let's not invite Maura this time," someone said.

Tim shook his head and said, "no, I want to see Maura. I also want to see her loser husband."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 113 The Land Rover Range

Tim was a little angry that the girl he chased for 4 years married a delivery man. Moreover, this delivery man didn't protect Maura Shawn well, who even became someone's mistress.

He couldn't stand this.

"Tim, you are too kind."

"Yeah. Maura was stupid. She didn't accept you but married a delivery man."

"She must be regretful now."

A taxi came stopped in front of them.

Finn Chen and Maura got out of the taxi.

Other people were stunned that Finn and Maura would come by taxi. Maura's husband indeed was a loser who didn't have money to buy a car.

Tim looked excited after seeing Maura, who didn't become ugly but more beautiful. She looked more mature, and her figure looked full.

Tim became unhappy after seeing Finn, who held Maura's hands.

Tim was unhappy but still greeted, "Hi, Maura, long time no see."

Maura replied politely, "Hi, long time no see."

Tim turned to Finn and said, "Is this your husband?"

"Yes, he's Finn Chen," Maura smiled and said.

"Nice to meet you," Finn smiled and reached out his hand. But Tim just glanced at Finn and didn't reach out his hand.

Finn smiled knowingly and withdrew his hand.

Maura frowned and didn't say anything. She looked at Garry and Greta but found that other people all looked at them coldly except Greta.

Maura was confused.

Tim said happily, "everyone is here. Let's go."

"let's go."

"Tim, you'd better get ready cost you a fortune. You will not only pay for classmates but an outsider.

"Tim doesn't care about this, but I agree with you that some people are shameless. They even took their families to have a free meal.

Several girls mocked then. Maura knew they were talking about her and Finn. Why were they so hostile to her and Finn today?

Tim waved his hand and said, "don't worry. We finally got together. This is the most important. The meal is about three to four hundred thousand. I can afford it."

Tim showed off and glanced at Finn. He wanted to see that Finn's surprising look.

But Finn didn't show any expressions. Finn had 1 billion, and three to four hundred thousand was nothing for him.

Tim said, "let's go to the restaurant. Lots of you have cars. How about four or five people take one car? Then other people don't need to take a taxi."

Tim turned to Maura and said, "Maura, please take my car."

Maura said, "no, thanks, I want to take a taxi with my husband."

Tim frowned and was unhappy that Maura refused him in front of so many people.

Garry noticed that Tim was unhappy and said, "Maura. There is a traffic jam. If you take a taxi, you'll be late. If we got there first, we would have to wait for you."

"Yeah. Maura, just taking Tim's car. His car is Lang Rover Range. You should have a try."

Several girls who had a good relationship with Tim stood out to speak for Tim. They knew Tim still loved Maura. If they helped Tim, Tim would help them more.

Maura opened her mouth but didn't know what to say. She had been taken by Marin's driver, who drove Rolls-Royce.

"Ok, then I take Tim's car with my husband," Maura said helplessly.

Garry said, "Tim's car is full. Me, Greta, Abby, and you. let your husband take other people's car." Garry knew what Tim was thinking. If Finn took his car, Tim wouldn't have a chance to hook up with Maura.

Tim said, "Garry's right. Many people have cars. Let your husband pick one."

Tim looked at a young man wearing a colorful T-shirt and said to him, "Blaze, is there a seat for Maura's husband?"

"There is. Come here, Finn, "Blaze said. He was Tim's close friend in college and now became Tim's trusted man. As long as Tim gave Blaze a look, he would know what Tim wanted.

Tim said happily, "how about that, Maura?"

Maura looked at Finn and was afraid that Finn would be unhappy.

Finn smiled and said, "well, you take Tim's car, and I take other people's car."

"Ok," Maura said.

"Let's go, Maura. We haven't seen each other for several years. I miss you so much," Garry said enthusiastically.

Garry took Maura into Tim's car.

Tim was the last one getting into the car. He looked at Finn before getting into the car and gave a look to Blaze, who nodded.

"Let's get in the car and keep up with Tim," Blaze said and smiled.

Finn didn't overthink and get in Blaze's car.

Blaze reached his hand to stop Finn, asked, "What are you doing?"

Finn frowned and said, "Getting in the car."

"I'm sorry, I don't have an extra seat for you. You'd better take a taxi," Blaze said.

Finn smiled and was surprised that Blaze would trick him.

Blaze's friend said, "Finn, you are a delivery man. Why don't you take your motorcycle?"

Finn said slightly, "It's broken."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 114

Driver: Elena Liu

The triangular-eyed youth nodded, "Your car broke down. I'm afraid you'll have to walk over there by yourself today."

"How can I let him walk over there?" Blaze Sun said teasingly.

"Then what do you mean, Lord Blaze?" The triangular-eyed youth asked.

"Give him a hundred yuan to take a taxi." Blaze said.

"Haha, no problem." The youth pulled out a hundred yuan from his wallet and tossed it to Finn Chen, "Take it and get a cab, ask me for it if you don't have enough money."

After saying that, the two drove off.

Finn's face was cold. Tim Xu was a bit interesting, though.

For Maura Shawn's sake, he wasn't going to be bothered with Tim and the others, who were her classmates after all. But now these people were taking the initiative to look for trouble, it would be unreasonable for him to retreat.

Finn was going to call his driver to send him over.

At that moment, a pink Ferrari, parked behind Finn, its window lowered to reveal a delicate face.

"Master Chen?" The person in the car asked.

Finn turned around to find that it was Elena Liu, who was speaking.

"What are you doing here?" After all, they had met a few times, and Finn had some impressions of Elena. Although she was a bit unruly and had a small temper, overall she was a nice person.

"I study here, and now I see you when I'm ready to come home from school." Elena was cautious.

Finn forgot that Elena was a student at The University of City J.

Seeing that Finn wasn't angry this time, Elena became much bolder and asked with a smile, "Master Chen, are you going somewhere? Do you want me to give you a lift?"

Finn thought it would be good to have Elena give him a ride, after all, he didn't know when the driver would come.

So Finn said, "I'm going to Hoki Restaurant, thank you."

"It's OK." Elena shook her head. This was a rare chance to be alone with Finn, how could she dare to be dissatisfied.

Finn then got into the passenger seat.

This scene was seen by many students at the entrance of the school. Elena was the school beauty of the university and the eldest daughter of Liu's Family. But she was even more famous for being arrogant.

The people who courted her could line up from the south campus to the north campus in the school but never saw her pay attention to anyone.

Her Ferrari, up to now, except for a few close girlfriends, not a single man had ever sat in it.

But today, Elena not only took the initiative to stop and let a man get in, but she also let him sit on the passenger side. What did that mean?

Who the hell was this man?

Someone immediately took a picture of Finn and uploaded it to the campus forum. Fifteen minutes later, it shocked the conference of university...

At this time, he did not know what was going on in the school. Finn sat in the car did not even look at Elena. This made driving her mood incomparably complicated.

As a school flower, she let a man into her car for the first time. And he didn't even look at her as a result. Was she unattractive?

Elena clearly knew that Finn wasn't pretending to be cold but wasn't interested in her.

Simultaneously, Elena was somewhat curious about what relationship those two women at the last airport had with Finn.

Half an hour later, Elena drove her car to Hoki Restaurant.

"Master Chen, do you need me to wait here to finish your meal before sending you back?" Elena had taken herself as Finn's driver.

"En... "Finn shook his head in a row, "No need to wait for me, go back quickly, I'll take a taxi after dinner."

Although he didn't have any problems, if Maura Shawn saw Elena, he was afraid that it would be hard to explain. Women had always been sensitive in this regard.

"OK." Elena was a little disappointed.

Finn left without saying anything.

At this time, Tim also happened to stop the car.

After getting down from the car, Tim walked up next to Maura and struck up a conversation, vaguely showing off the business he had made in the past few years.

When Greta Wang, who was standing behind, saw this scene, her eyes were filled with jealousy. She didn't expect everyone to say that. Maura was a mistress, but Tim was still not giving up on her.

On the side, Sally Li's attention was not on Tim and Maura.

"Greta, look at the man coming down from the Ferrari, his back looks like Maura's husband." Sally tugged on Greta's clothes and pointed strangely into the distance.

Greta also took a glance and frowned.

"Maybe there's just a resemblance. Maura's useless husband is just a delivery man, how could he ride in a Ferrari." Greta casually said.

Sally let out a sigh of relief: "I should be wrong, that loser should still be in Blaze's car and not come over."

Greta nodded: "Let's go first, keep up with Maura so that she won't hook up with Tim while we're not here."

"Right, let's go." The two of them then busily followed up.

A few people entered the hall and found that Finn was already at the front desk, while Blaze and the others were not beside him.

Sally was even more confused, "Why did you come over so quickly? Where's Blaze?"

"They're still back there, so I came over first," Finn said.

"In the back? Weren't you guys in the same car?" Sally was even more skeptical.

"No, his car was full, so I took a taxi." Finn shook his head.

"A taxi would be faster than driving?" Sally looked at Finn like he was an idiot. Now she was sure that the one who had just gotten out of the pink Ferrari was Finn.

"Why can't a cab be faster than you guys?" Finn shrugged his shoulders.

"You... "Sally was a little angry. The loser dared to talk back to her.

"Alright, Sally, stop talking and go in first." Greta frowned.

Finn might have a problem, and the Ferrari was pink, so the owner must be a woman.

Finn got out of a woman's car and covered up the fact. It was obvious that he and that woman had some kind of untold relationship. But Greta would not tell the truth, she would investigate and then use this to deal with Maura.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 115 Pay For the Meal

Tim and other people followed the waiter to get into the box. After a few minutes, Blaze and other people went in too.

Blaze saw Finn Chen, who sat beside Maura Shawn and was surprised. How could Finn who took a taxi to be faster than him?

Blaze was surprised but didn't ask more.

Everyone sat one by one, and Maura sat beside Finn. Tim sat beside Maura. The atmosphere was intense.

Garry sat beside Tim and intentionally rubbed Tim's arm with her chest to induce Tim.

People were divided into four tables. Tim's friends, including Blaze and Wang, were sitting with Finn and Maura.

"Waiter, several bottles of Lafite, please," Tim said.

Tim smiled and said to others, "order whatever you like. I'll pay today. Don't save money for me."

"If you say so."

"I hope you won't regret it."

"I heard that the dishes here are delicious. Thanks to Tim, I have the chance to try."

Tim looked at the menu and said to Maura, "Maura, I often come here for dinner. I strongly commend the Kobe Veal for you. How about I order one for you."

Maura frowned and wanted to refuse. At this time, Finn Chen said, "she likes fish more. How about West Lake Vinegar Fish?"

Tim was a little angry and said, "I'm not talking to you."

Finn smiled and said, "Maura is my wife. You can ask her which one she likes."

Maura said sweetly, "I want the fish. I like eating fish."

Tim was angry. He thought Maura lived an unhappy life and cheated on her husband. Why was she on Finn's side?

Didn't she know that Tim's asset was about 100 million?

"Finn. I think you should shut up. Tim will pay. So why don't you just enjoy your meal?" Garry put down her cup and said.

Finn said, "did I ask Tim to pay for me?"

Blaze patted the table and said coldly, "Finn, you'd better behave yourself. You are just a delivery man. If it was not Tim, you would never get the chance to have a meal here."

Garry added, "any dishes here will cost you one thousand or two thousand. If it was not Tim, you even don't chance to enter this restaurant's door."

Finn looked at Garry and Blaze coldly and said, "how do you know that I couldn't afford." It was ridiculous. If he wanted to, he could buy the entire restaurant.

"I know your job. You could only earn six or seven thousand a month. Do you even know how much the meal is here? Ten thousand for a good meal."

"If you were rich, how about paying for all of us?" Garry said. The meal was expensive, but Finn's salary for several months could afford his meal. But if asking him to pay for all of them, it will cost his wages for 5 or 6 years.

Finn said, "If I paid for all of you, what would you do?"

"if you paid for all of us, I will kneel down to you and call you daddy," Garry said.

"Are you sure?" Finn asked.

"I am very sure," Garry raised her voice and said. She didn't believe that Finn, whose clothes were only 300 yuan, could pay for those bills.

Finn said slightly, "I hope you won't regret what you said.

He said to other people, "I will pay for you."

Garry was stunned by what Finn said.

"Are you serious? It will cost you 400,000 to 500,000," Garry said suspiciously. She didn't believe Finn would pay for them.

Finn said, "you will see after we finish."

Garry continued to say, "what if you run away during the meal."

Finn shook his head and said, "my wife is still here. Where can I go?"

Garry felt that Finn was confident. She remembered that Finn got out of a pink Ferrari before. Was he wealthy?

But Garry didn't show weakness. If Finn lied to them, she would miss the chance to make him embarrassed.

Garry said sternly, "I will deliver my promise. If you paid for all of us, I would call you daddy." Garry thought if Finn paid, she would call him daddy, but he would pay hundreds of thousands for Finn.

Finn smiled and said, "ok, be ready to call me your daddy."

Finn knew that Garry thought hundreds of thousands were a lot of money for him. But the truth was that he had a fortune about 1 billion, which could earn hundreds of thousands of interests for him.

Maura didn't say anything from the beginning to the end. She didn't know how much money did Finn have, but it was more than hundreds of thousands. If Garry wanted to get Finn into trouble in finance, she would be too naive.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 16 The Master in Drinking

Blaze said strangely, "since Finn will pay, then order whatever you want." Blaze thought if Finn wanted to pretend to be rich, he had to be prepared to pay the price. Blaze won't be polite to Finn.

"Waiter, I want three ice harrier fish."

"I want two bottles of Romani Conti."

"Waiter..."

People followed Blaze to order food and picked the expensive ones. They ordered three or four same dishes and expensive wines. Their purpose was simple, that was to make Finn spend as much as possible.

Tim nodded his head in satisfaction. His classmates helped him a lot.

Garry put her mouth close to Tim's ear and said, "Tim, what if Finn didn't have money to pay?"

Garry meant that if Finn couldn't pay, and Tim will be that person to pay, given that the restaurant won't let them have a free meal.

Tim's face changed and realized what Garry said could happen. If Finn couldn't pay, what he lost was dignity, but they would pay lots of money for others.

At that time, he will be paid because he was the richest man in his class.

Tim coughed and said, "don't order too much. If Finn didn't have enough money, you would pay by yourself."

What Tim said made effects. Many people who wanted to embarrass Finn stopped. They were not stupid. They didn't want to pay by themselves.

Finn smiled. He thought they would order 3 or 4 million food, but they only ordered 1 million food.

Finn thought I originally want to buy you a good meal, but you guys gave up this chance. Finn indeed wanted to pay for this meal and didn't joke with Garry.

The waiter soon brought the dishes they ordered, but Tim had been observing Finn, who had been calm from the beginning to the end and even didn't blink his eyes.

Tim was suspicious and couldn't believe that Finn was so rich. He was just a delivery man. When Tim reminded other people to order less, the dishes they had ordered had been almost 1 million. If Tim were Finn, he would worry, but Finn looked alright.

Garry was complicated. She hoped that Finn was poor, at the same time, she hoped that Finn was rich.

Garry couldn't stand anymore during the dinner. She found that Tim had been looking at Maura Shawn and didn't even glance at her.

Garry was jealous and wanted to do something.

Garry made her decision and went to the bathroom. To make it easier, she took off her underwear and went back, sitting beside Tim.

"Tim, why don't we have a drink?" Garry said intimately. Tim could smell her fragrant breath.

Tim felt Garry touched his shoulder and felt hot. He knew that Garry was inducing him.

Tim thought if he couldn't get Maura's love, it would be good to have a good time with Garry. He said, "ok, let's have a drink. Waiter, give me bottles of Moutai."

Soon, several bottles of Moutai were put on the table, all of which were old Moutai at the national level.

Garry turned to Finn and asked, "Finn, do you want to have a drink with us?"

Finn frowned and said slightly, "ok."

Garry said knowingly, "then you and Tim have a drink."

Finn said peaceful, "ok." Finn knew Garry's purpose.

Garry knew if she wanted to hook up with Tim, she needed to prove that she deserved his love. And helping Tim to combat Finn was a good chance for her to prove.

Tim didn't like Finn. If she helped Tim to embarrass Finn, Tim would be happy.

Garry knew Tim was good at drinking and was called a master in drinking in college.

Tim knew that Garry wanted to help him. Men will never show weakness in front of their loved women.

Tim was excited and felt Garry did a great job.

Tim said happily, "Finn, let's compete. If you refused me, I wouldn't force you to drink."

Tim was tricking Finn, who had only two choices. One was to say that Tim was better than him, and another choice was to compete with Tim, who was good at drinking and was confident that he would win Finn.

Once Finn got drunk, Tim will make him embarrassed. Tim then could do whatever he wanted to Maura and probably could bring Garry together.

"Are you sure you want to compete with me?" Finn said.

Tim raised his eyebrow and said, "yes, are you afraid?"

Finn shook his head and said, "I'm afraid that you will regret."

Tim smiled coldly and said, "regret? That never happened to me."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 117 Spell Liquor

"Are you sure?" Finn Chen had a good laugh.

"Sure! Finn, if you're a man, don't dally. Let's spell directly." Tim Xu said imperiously.

"Well, let's spell then." Finn sighed, don't blame me since you wanted to die yourself.

"Waiter, bring me some boxes of beer," Timm shouted.

"There's liquor here. Let's go straight to the liquor." Finn lightly suggested.

Tim's face was stiff, spell with liquor? Were you stupid? A bottle of alcohol would directly burn a perforated stomach.

Other people look at Finn like a fool and thought that Finn was just joking. People who had drunk liquor knew that a small cup of alcohol like Maotai was beautiful. Still, if you took it up and blew it directly, it would burn and perforate the stomach.

"Why, you scared?" Finn raised his eyebrows.

Tim's face was gloomy. Was this about dared or not? If they spelled with liquor, they could die.

"I'm not. I'm just afraid your capacity is not enough, and a bottle of liquor will burn to perforate your stomach, what should I do if your family come to find me when you're dead?" Tim stemmed his neck, his words seemed to consider about Finn, but he terrified. He wanted to hit Finn's face, but there was no need to fight with his life.

"Speaking frankly or scared." Finn scorned to smile.

Tim blushed but said nothing.

"In that case, you can drink a cup by a time," Finn said again.

"What about you?" Tim asked subconsciously.

"I'll take a bottle directly." Finn lightly said.

"You look down on me?" Tim was a little annoyed. What did this rubbish mean? Letting him drank a cup while Finn drank a bottle. Wasn't it evident that Finn despised him?

Finn nodded and said with a straight face: "Yes, I look down on you."

Tim's mood was sluggish, okay, you were great!

"Well, let's start, but I'll tell you first, don't blame me if something happened to you," Tim said coldly.

"Don't worry. I would bear the responsibility if something happened." Finn lightly said.

"Hum, there are so many people watching the scene. They all can be witnesses, and your wife is also here. I hope you can keep your word!" Tim snorted coldly.

"I will," Finn answered.

"Finn..." Maura wanted to say something but hesitated. She also thought that Finn was a little too ambitious. However, she couldn't say it out because it would bring down Finn's dignity.

"Don't worry; I won't do anything I'm not sure about." Finn blinked his eyes.

"Well." Maura gently nodded. Indeed, she should believe in Finn, who was not the kind of aimless person.

"I hope you still can be so confident when you become a dead dog in a while!" Tim sneered at Finn, "Serve the liquor!"

Soon, the liquor in the private room served on Tim's table.

In front of Tim, they arranged ten cups of liquor in an orderly manner. They were not small cups, but medium-sized ones. Tim was also very confident.

In front of Finn, there were a dozen bottles of liquor, which could make people scalped to numb at a glance.

"He dares to compete with Tim for liquor's capacity, and have such a big deal, really doesn't know how to write the dead word!"

"What would he look like if he knew that when Tim was senior 3, he made five big men drunk in Eastern Province H alone."

"He'll regret to death."

"How many bottles do you think he can hold?"

"How many bottles? You overestimate him. I bet he will be unconscious after a bottle."

"I think one bottle too. If Finn stands still after one bottle, I'll eat these bottles."

All the people in the private room also gathered around and began to watch the play. Of course, no one was optimistic about Finn.

"Are you ready? Let's start drinking if you're ready." Tim looked at Finn coldly.

"Wait a minute." Finn suddenly said.

"Wait for what? Are you terrified?" Tim raised his eyebrows.

Finn shook his head and said, "I'm not terrified, but I have a suggestion."

"What suggestion?"

"You should call an ambulance," Finn suggested.

"Call an ambulance?" Tim sneered, "You said you aren't terrified, why I must call ambulance?!"

"You misunderstood me. I said, call the ambulance for you. I'm afraid you are alcoholism." Finn lightly explained.

Tim almost spat out a mouthful of blood. How could this fool be so crazy?!

The rest of the people almost laughed at this. Before they started drinking, he thought about calling an ambulance for his opponent. He was insane!

"No need! I won't call an ambulance even if I'm about to die!" Tim's vicious, he drank a cup at a time, and Finn drank a bottle at a time. He didn't believe that it was he who needed the ambulance.

"Well, then don't regret." Finn sighed.

"No regret, even if I die!" Tim bit his teeth, he picked up the liquor in front of him, raised his neck, and drank it down.

'Bang' the cup heavily placed on the table. Tim looked at Finn: "Your turn!"

Finn smiled, and did not say anything, he picked up the liquor, directly spelled it to his mouth.

'Gudang Gudang'

Finn quickly gulped a bottle of Maotai weighing one pound in less than ten seconds like it's water.

After drinking, Finn just belched, but his face did not change.

This scene immediately made people gape. Their mouth was wide open and could fill two eggs in it. It was Maotai, not water. How could you drink it like that? Was your stomach made of iron?

Tim's confused; this rubbish was good at drinking?

"Go on." Finn put the empty liquor bottle on the table.

Tim bit his teeth, picked up the glass in front of him, and drank it all in one gulp. After putting the glass on the table, Tim looked at Finn defiantly and said, "Your turn!" He didn't believe it. Finn could drink the second bottle of liquor without changing his face!

Finn smiled and picked up the second bottle of Maotai. He lifted the cap of the bottle and started gulping it directly into his mouth.

'Gudang Gudang'

The sound of liquor entering the throat, like a war drum, hit people's hearts, making people's hearts trembled. They were afraid that the next second, Finn would foam and die there.

But soon, Finn blew out the second bottle, and his mouth wasn't foaming. Finn's only change was that his face was a little ruddy, but compared with the two pounds liquor, this ruddy was nothing at all.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 118

Roaring Drunk

"Go on." Finn Chen said with a smile, Tim Xu was killing himself. He compared drinking with Finn. Finn was a martial arts man who cultivated his energy. No matter how much liquor he drank, his power could directly evaporate the alcohol. He wouldn't get drunk in a thousand cups.

Tim's face changed, but he didn't say anything. He took up a glass of liquor and drank it down. However, when he drank it this time, he was not as relaxed as previous. He felt a little bit hot on his face.

Although he had a considerable liquor capacity, he was not good enough to drink alcohol like water.

"Can you continue?" Finn looked at Tim with a smile.

"Of course! I'm just warming up." Tim insisted.

"I hope so." With a smile, Finn opened a bottle of Maotai, raised his neck, and drank it.

People's eyes became frank; they felt Finn's drinking it like drinking water.

'Bang!'

Tim slammed his glass on the table and looked at Finn with a red face.

Finn took out Maotai and continued to drink.

Both of them were you came, and I went, in three minutes, they emptied eight liquor bottles on the table.

Finn alone drank eight bottles of Maotai, while Tim drank a little, but it added up to two pounds.

Finn looked like nothing happened to him, while Tim's face was as red as a monkey's buttocks. It was apparent that the strength of liquor was coming up. At this time, Tim only felt that there were human figures everywhere.

After Finn had another bottle of liquor, Tim could not endure it anymore.

"Waiter! Come here!" Tim's eyes were red, and he yelled.

"What can I do for you, sir?" Several waiters came in panic.

Tim pointed to the Maotai in Finn and scolded: "Your Maotais, weren't they fake?!"

Fake liquor?

Hearing Tim's words, the head waiter's face suddenly changed. He said in a hurry: "Sir, it's impossible. Our Hoki Restaurant is the most upscale in City J. Every bottle of liquor is the most authentic liquor directly taken from Maotai distillery. There is absolutely no possibility of fake liquor."

"Fart! If it isn't fake, why isn't he drunk after eight bottles alone?" Tim pointed to Finn.

"Eight bottles?" The waiter was also surprised, which found eight empty liquor bottles in front of Finn, while Finn was standing as if nothing happened.

"Sir, did you drink eight bottles alone?" The waiter looked at Finn in disbelief and asked.

Finn nodded.

"Wait a minute. I'll call our manager." The waiter's face was dignified; if Finn drank eight bottles and was still OK, there might be something wrong with the liquor.

A few minutes later, a middle-aged man in a suit came up.

"Ladies and gentlemen, my name is Bob Liu. I'm the hall manager of Hoki Restaurant. I'm sorry to disturb your meal due to such a situation." The middle-aged man looked at the crowd apologetically.

He turned his eyes to Tim and asked, "Sir, do you think our Hoki Restaurant's liquor is fake?"

At the moment, Tim went insane of the liquor: "Even if it is not fake wine, you must have mixed it with water, otherwise, how can he drink eight bottles alone?"

Bob took a look at Finn. He was also shocked that Finn drank eight bottles alone. However, he was sure that they brought this Maotai directly from the factory. There was no possibility of fake liquor.

"Sir, your suspicions are quite reasonable. But what I want to tell you is that all the liquor on this table is from the same batch, that is to say, there is no difference between the Maotai you have drunk and this gentleman's." Bob explained.

"So what?" Tim's consciousness was not clear and did not reflect the meaning of Bob's words.

Bob sighed, "Sir, I mean, if our Maotai is fake, you won't get drunk."

"Nonsense! I'm not drunk!" Tim became angry. He reacted that he did an idiotic thing. Even if it was fake, Finn was not drunk after drinking it, but Tim was drunk. He was inferior to Finn.

Bob helplessly said: "Alright, alright, sir, you are not drunk, but I can also assure you that our Maotai has no problem, I will give you inspection on the spot."

Bob then put the eight empty bottles that Finn had drunk in front of him and began to scan the two-dimensional code. Soon, the production batch number and number of eight bottles of liquor appeared, and there was no possibility of counterfeit alcohol.

"As you can see, Sir, our liquor is authentic. If you don't believe it, you can ask the people from the industry and commerce to continue the inspection." Bob said.

Tim still doubted: "Could it be your waiter who opened the wine and mixed the liquor he wanted to drink with water."

Bob's eyes were frosty. Tim was already in a mess.

"Sir, you may not talk nonsense. Your words are already slandering our Hoki Restaurant's reputation. If the situation is not true, you should bear legal responsibility." Bob said coldly.

As soon as he heard that he had to bear legal responsibility, his forehead sweated a lot and sobered up instantly. Yang Family was Hoki Restaurant backer; if he made a mistake today, Yang Family would let him down.

"I'm sorry. I'm sorry, manager Liu. I drank too much. I made a mistake." Tim apologized in a hurry.

Bob's face was still cold and fierce. He saw that Tim and Finn were at odds. They're competing for their liquor capacity. As a result, Tim lost and became angry. He wanted to throw the pot to Hoki Restaurant so that he wouldn't be too flustered.

But this was Hoki Restaurant, not any ordinary restaurant. Tim couldn't do anything to them!

"Manager Liu, I'm sorry. Tim has drunk too much. Don't take his words to heart. There is no problem with your liquor." Greta helped Tim to make it through. Tim was drunk. It was the Hoki Restaurant. Even if there was a problem, you shouldn't say it out.

"Heng, don't act if you're a loser. I won't be so polite to you next time." Bob snorted coldly and then turned to leave.

Tim nodded his head in a hurry; his face was as red as a monkey's buttocks. If someone else dared to humiliate him, he would rush up on the spot. But Bob was the manager of Hoki Restaurant; he didn't dare to take Bob for granted.

Million Yuan

The crowd looked at each other; they're very dissatisfied with Tim Xu. Why must he be furious if he couldn't drink, he even could say that Hoki Restaurant sold fake liquor. Luckily, Bob Liu was generous and didn't argue with him. Otherwise, he would be in serious trouble today.

For a while, the atmosphere in the private room became depressed. The crowd could see that Tim's liquor capacity wasn't in the same grade as Finn Chen's. Finn was blowing bottle by bottle, while Tim was drinking cup by cup. As a result, nothing happened to Finn. At the same time, Tim started to be drunk crazy, even Hoki Restaurant's manager rushed out because of him.

"Tim, are you alright? Should we call an ambulance?" Blaze Sun was flattering Tim and cared about him. But when he heard it and looked at the crowd's monstrous expression, he immediately felt strange. It seemed that before they started, Finn had asked to call an ambulance for him.

As a result, Tim refused confidently. At that time, everyone thought that Finn was arrogant and was acting.

But now it seemed that if Tim didn't be furious and continued to spell with Finn, he would need to call an ambulance!

Blaze's words were like tearing open Tim's final disguise and sprinkling a handful of salt on his wound.

Tim's expression was utterly livid.

"F@#$ you! Do I look like something happened to me?!" Tim looked at Blaze and scolded him.

Blaze bitterly smiled: "I'm joking Tim, I'm joking."

"Since you're alright, let's continue." At this time, Finn spoke lightly.

Tim's face was stiff, continue? He didn't want his life anymore?

"Finn, why are you so disrespectful? Tim drank with you because he wanted to see your liquor capacity. Otherwise, a courier like you is not qualified to sit at the same table with him." Greta Wang looked at Finn coldly. Although Tim had lost the spelling, she thought it's nothing. Even if Finn still could drink more, he's still a courier, and also if Tim couldn't drink more, he's still a big boss.

"That's right. Some people don't know their limit. Tim is a big boss that earns tens million yuan a year, while he is just a courier with annual salary smaller than Tim's daily income. He was self-satisfied after he drank a few bottles of liquor." Sally Li was also disdainful.

Greta and Sally sneered at Finn one after the other; they began to resolve Tim's embarrassment. At this time, Tim's face softened. However, he completely hated Finn, no matter what, it was a fact that he lost to Finn in spelling.

Seeing both of them spared no effort to devalue Finn.

Maura Shawn couldn't help frowning. Sally looked down on Finn came as no surprise to her. However, she didn't expect Greta to help Tim. Maura and Greta were college schoolmate, and they lived in the same dorm. Even if Greta didn't help Finn at the moment, she shouldn't be on Tim's side.

Finn shook his head and smiled. He didn't know Maura's opinion. If he did, he would only say that Maura was still too young. In front of interests, classmates did not influence at all. Greta rubbed her chest against Tim's arm since they entered the private room. It was only a matter of time before she got into Tim's bed.

Although Finn had overestimated Greta's initiative's level as much as possible, Greta still let him know what's called licking a dog.

When Tim got up and indicated that he was going to the bathroom, Greta also got up; they entered the toilet one after the other.

Ten minutes later, both of them reappeared in the private room. The flush on Greta's face remained unchanged, while Tim's face was satisfied.

Two of them looked like that; even a fool knew what they did in the bathroom.

For a moment, several women in the private room who were interested in Tim looked gloomy. Before they came, they agreed that they should prevent Maura. Unexpectedly, Greta started to be a coquette first.

She successfully hooked Tim.

It's hard to prevent traitor.

Maura's expression was also a little complicated. She didn't expect that Greta, who was so pure in University, would become like this when she entered society. Moreover, she was a married woman. How would her husband react when he knew what she's doing with another guy outside?

The dinner party was finally drawing to an end, but no one got up first. Instead, they all turned their eyes to Finn.

Sally couldn't sit still. She snorted coldly: "Go settle the bill. What are you waiting for here?"

Finn pondered a smile and said, "Do you remember what you said before?"

Sally's face was stiff; she's reluctant to admit her mistake: "Of course! Do I look like someone unfaithful? As long as you settle the bill, I'll call you grandfather!"

Finn shook his head and said with a smile, "You don't have to, I don't have a granddaughter as big as you."

Sally's tone was stagnant. This courier still dared to act at this time. She wanted to see if he could laugh when he saw the bill.

"Waiter, bill please!" Sally's quite annoyed.

"Hello, lady, the total consumption is 1.8 million yuan..."

"Hiss"

All of them were surprised, 1.8 million yuan! How could it be so expensive?!

Tim's expression also changed; it's 1.8 million yuan. If Finn couldn't settle it, what should he do? Should he be someone with more money than sense?

"Could they miscalculated..." Someone whispered.

"Maybe, we are only a few people. How can we consume so much?"

It's not that the crowd wanted to help Finn, but if Finn couldn't afford, they should settle it at the end. After all, the bet was only for Sally and Finn. Still, everyone ate together, Hoki Restaurant wouldn't just ask Finn alone for money.

There was still a smile on the waiter's face: "Ladies and gentlemen, we recorded every purchase you make here. You ordered 15 bottles of Lafite, six bottles of Romanee-Conti, and more than 20 bottles of Maotai. All these alcohol cost 930.000 yuan, and there are also nine portions of caviar and ice harrier..."

The crowd's expression became more and more gloomy. There was no miscalculation. The group did order so many dishes.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 120 Trying To Impose?

"Madam, are you..." The waiter turned his eyes to Sally Li; he wanted to ask whether she would settle the bill.

Sally pointed Finn Chen and interrupted, "He'll settle the account."

The waiter had no choice; he turned his eyes back to Finn.

Finn didn't say anything; he just smiled and said, "I'll pay by card."

There was a stunning look on the waiter's face. The man in front of him didn't seem to be able to afford 1.8 million yuan, but he said with a smile: "Sir, please follow me to the front desk."

Then they went out of the private room and went to the front desk.

Sally warned aloud, "Have a good look at Finn; don't let him run away."

"Sally, my husband is not that kind of person." Maura Shawn said with a cold expression, Sally's behavior was typical, gauging a gentleman's heart with a meaningful measure. Since Finn said he would treat, he still would pay even if it's not 1.8 million yuan but 18 million yuan.

Sally sneered, "Maura, Finn isn't my husband but yours. How can I know what kind of person he is? In case he talks like farting and runs away when we don't pay attention, will you pay for the 1.8 million yuan meal?"

"You..." Maura's tone was stagnant. She found that she couldn't talk to an annoying troublemaker like Sally.

Several boys' faces changed, and they began to lean towards Finn without a trace. Sally's words weren't unreasonable. It was 1.8 million yuan. If Finn ran away, Tim Xu couldn't afford it. He would take out a few hundred thousand yuan at most and share the rest. Everyone at least had to give out 30.000-40.000 yuan.

30.000-40.000 yuan was most of their half a year's salary. If they spent it on a meal, they would die of heartache.

In this way, a group of people gathered around Finn and came to the cashier. Bob Liu happened to be there. However, Bob didn't have a good face for them at this time, especially Tim, who left a poor impression on Bob.

"Check out, and I'll call you, daddy." Sally was coldly looking at Finn.

Greta Wang was holding Tom's arm and waiting to see Finn's jokes. She knew Finn's details, he's a courier, even if he saved a lot, it was possible to take out 1.800 yuan, but it was a pure dream to take out 1.8 million yuan!

Finn smiled and took out a card from his pocket, then handed it to the front desk.

Seeing Finn, Sally frowned. Did this rubbish have so much money?

"Do you have 1.8 million yuan in this card?" Sally couldn't help asking.

Finn seemed to smile: "Are you afraid?"

"Fart! How can I be afraid!" Sally's neck stemmed, she put a bold face explained: "I'm just afraid you take an empty card here to pretend, then we'll lose our dignity together."

"Sally is right. Maura, if your husband's card has no money, there is no need to act. I have a card with three million yuan here. I can lend it to your husband. You can return it to me later." Tim smiled and took out a black gold card. However, the meaning of his words was clear. He lent it not given to Finn. So if Finn didn't return it, Maura as Finn's wife, may not escape his claws.

"You don't have to; my husband is rich." Maura coldly rejected.

Rich? Greta disdained. How rich could a delivery man be?

At this time, the cashier finally used the poss machine to swipe Finn's card.

The bank card swiped the card slot, and a long string of zeros appeared on the computer. Suddenly, the cashier's eyes tightened, and then he rubbed his eyes.

"What? Does this rubbish's card has not even a dime?" Seeing the cashier's reaction was strange; Sally raised her eyebrows and asked with her teeth clenched.

The rest of the people's face turned ugly, and sure enough, they shouldn't expect a courier to come up with 1.8 million yuan.

The cashier pursed his lips, said nothing, and even his hands trembled. It was not that Finn's card had no money, but that Finn's card had too much money! Too much that she couldn't count!

It was one followed by nine zeros!

A billion!

A whole billion!

After five years of working as a cashier, she had seen all kinds of cards, and the total money was not as much as Finn's card alone!

All of a sudden, she felt that the so-called local tyrants and the children of entrepreneurs were naturally weak!

In front of Finn, a man with a billion yuan in his card, everything was fleeting!

"What are you doing? If he doesn't have money on his card, you can tell me straight. Don't worry about his dignity." Greta looked at the cashier discontentedly.

"Maura, let your husband swipe my card. I have money on my card." Tim also smiled and turned his eyes to Maura. As long as Maura took his money, he was confident that he would turn Maura into his plaything.

Maura didn't speak. She was also a little strange at the moment. Why was the cashier's expression so funny? Was Finn's card short of money and tried to impose?

"What's the matter, the card balance is not enough?" Bob also frowned. Joyce was a Hoki Restaurant's old cashier; she had seen all kinds of scenes. How could she be so disrespectful today?

At this time, Joyce finally responded, she shook her head and said, "Enough, enough!"

The money in Finn's card, let alone paying for a meal, was enough to buy the Hoki Restaurant!

"Then you can swipe the card; you stay there for what." Bob reprimanded.

"I'm sorry, manager Liu. I'll do it right now." Joyce was busy apologizing. She was really out of tune today. After all, Joyce was an ordinary person. When she saw a billion yuan in front of her, there was no reason why she was not shocked.

Seeing that Finn entered his password and paid for the meal, everyone opened their mouth and looked very strange.

This rubbish had 1.8 million yuan?!

Sally was full of disbelief, she looked at Bob and said, "Manager Liu, is your cashier make a mistake? How could this rubbish's card have 1.8 million yuan?"

"Our cashier won't make a mistake," Bob said with a gloomy face, it was 1.8 million yuan. If Joyce made a mistake, she had to pay by herself.

"How could it be? Manager Liu, I'm afraid you don't know. This loser is just a courier. How could he take out 1.8 million yuan?" Sally still hadn't given up. She thought there must be something wrong.

"Why can't a courier has 1.8 million yuan?" Bob's face was a little gloomy. He was the lobby manager of Hoki Restaurant now. But he was once a courier five or six years ago, so he hated it most when others looked down on courier.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 121 Are You Unconvinced?!

Seeing Bob becoming angry, Sally's head was filled with thoughts. Sally was not wrong either, and although she thought so, Sally didn't dare to say so. After all, Bob didn't even give Tim his pride, let alone Sally.

Sally was busy explaining, "Manager Liu, I didn't mean that..."

"I don't care what you mean!" Bob directly interrupted and said, "This man's account has been settled. If there are any more problems, I will take full responsibility, so you don't have to worry about it."

Sally was speechless. Bob said that, so what else could she say.

"Sally, my husband, has already settled the account. It's time for you to fulfill your promise." Maura looked at Sally coldly.

Sally's face turned differently. She had to call Finn as her father in front of so many people, where would she put her pride? But words have been said. Otherwise, people would look down on her even more.

"Dad." Sally bit his teeth and called Finn.

Finn smiled and didn't respond. For him, Let Sally call him as a father was just something to do when she was bored. He didn't put his hope on Sally either.

"Are you satisfied now?" Sally looked back at Maura coldly.

Maura said lazily: "I am satisfied."

"Maura, don't be too proud. Don't think I don't know that your husband's 1.8 million yuan, it was all the savings of both of you. Today, your husband has pretended to be cool, but you two will get what you deserve when you get home." Sally sneered, she didn't believe it. Finn was the type of guy who could win the hearts of people even without blinking. Although Finn looked calm on the surface now, he may be hurt inside.

"Woe, Maura, we all know that you want to prove that your husband isn't useless, but you didn't need to use it. Didn't you feel sorry to ask your husband to take out 1.8 million yuan and invite everyone to dinner at once?"

"That is, you don't understand your husband. After all, he is just a delivery man. He can't earn back 1.8 million yuan even after ten years of hard work, so you should help him."

Several women who had a good relationship with Sally started to speak strangely, and Maura almost laughed at her anger. Why did these people still think that Finn was a deliveryman and that a delivery man could use 1.8 million yuan to eat without blinking even an eye?

"You guys overthink, my husband bought you a meal not to prove anything, he does not need to prove himself to anyone." Maura was too lazy to explain to these people, and they would not believe whatever she said anyways.

They only wanted to believe was that Maura had a miserable life and that her husband was very useless.

"If your husband is not useless, then why would you commit adultery?" At this time, Sally disdained to skim her mouth, which was astonishing.

Commit adultery? When did this happen? Maura was confused.

"Do you still want to pretend? Maura, don't think we don't know. You committed adultery, and then you were caught red-handed by the first wife, and you were slapped several times in the street." Sally sneered, she didn't intend to tell her about it, but Maura and Finn had made her feel ashamed, so she had to say it out.

"Sally, what are you talking about? When did I commit adultery?!" Maura's face turned differently, and she finally understood why they looked at her with that kind of eyes when she first saw Sally and her friends.

"Did you say that I'm talking nonsense?" Sally sneered and said, "Maura, do you dare to say that you have not been slapped in the street?"

Maura's tone was sluggish, she had been slapped in the face before, but it has nothing to do with committing adultery.

Seeing that Maura didn't speak, Sally became more proud. She couldn't help sneering: "Maura, Greta has told me everything. I didn't expect you to be such a kind of person."

Greta?

Maura fiercely turned her gaze to Greta. If she didn't think it would be Greta who was spreading the rumor, she must be too dumb.

Seeing Maura looking at her, Greta felt guilty. But she still talked with a cold-hearted face: "Maura, I said you were slapped in the face, but I didn't say that you committed adultery."

The implication was that Sally made up the story of Maura committing adultery.

"Do you think I'm still a kid?" Maura bit her silver teeth. She told Greta the truth back when she regarded Greta as her friend. However, she did not expect that Greta would spread it in an instant. Moreover, without Greta starting the rumors, others would not have thought of it.

"Believe what you want." Greta curled her lips and didn't care about Maura's opinion.

"Maura, you have done all these shameless things, but you didn't allow people to talk about it?" Sally sneered. She also doubted Greta's words, but she didn't care about them. She preferred to believe that Maura was cheating.

"Who did you just say was shameless?" At this time, Finn said coldly. Initially, he didn't want to argue with a group of women, but Sally was going out of the line. She splashed dirty water on Maura before, and now she was trying to attack Maura personally.

Facing Finn's icy eyes, Sally's heart was full of palpitations. How could this trash have such a frightening look? But although she was afraid, in front of so many people, Sally's mouth was harsh: "Why, am I wrong? You're trash. Your wife was being cuckolded... "

"Pa"

Sally's words were thrown back to herself.

This scene's sudden occurrence made everyone in the hall stunned, this trash, he dared to hit people?

"Ah, I'll fight with you!" Sally was stunned for three seconds, and then she screamed at Finn.

Finn sneered and kicked Sally to the ground. In this place, there was no rule to beat women.

Although Finn used less than one percent of his strength, he still kicked Sally with her stomach facing the ground.

"Fk you."

"Are you still a fking man?! You even dare to hit women?" Tim's face turned differently, no matter what, Sally was also his spokesman. Finn beat Sally in front of him, so how could he have his pride.

"Are you unconvinced?" Finn's icy eyes fiercely glared at Tim. Tim suddenly choked and felt a little chilly on his back.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 122

Hamlin

"It's not a matter of being convinced. Sally is also a woman..." Tim explained stiffly.

"Woman?" Finn sneered, "Can women make rumors?"

Tim was choking. He also thought Sally and the others were trying to annoy Maura. After all, back in university days, there were so many wealthy second-generation suitors. If Maura wanted to cheat, she would have been a cheater by now, and she didn't need to wait.

"And you, Greta! In the future, it's better to think before you speak or do things, to avoid disaster from your mouth!" Finn looked at Greta coldly again. Through his observing skills, it was not difficult to see that Greta was the initiator of all this. On the surface, this woman has the best relationship with Maura, but when she stabbed Maura, she became the most ruthless one.

"Are you threatening me?" Greta looked obscured. Finn was only a delivery man. How dare he threaten her?!

"Threat? You don't deserve it!" Finn disdained a smile. Greta was not even qualified to be his opponent.

People looked at each other. Finn's words were quite presumptuous. No matter how, Greta has a husband who owned the coal business, and she was now within Tim's cover too, so how could Finn have this confidence?

Greta's face was clouded with uncertainty, but she didn't say anything more. She knew that she had nothing to do with Finn, and her husband was not a coal business owner. Moreover, she and Tim were just maintaining their friendship. Tim would not treat Finn differently, just for Greta's sake.

At this time, Tim's mobile phone rang. After seeing the number, Tim's face changed, how was it Hamlin who called Tim?

Although surprised, Tim still answered Hamlin: "Hamlin, how do you have the time to call me?"

Seeing Tim's somewhat respectful attitude, people can't help but wondered who called Tim. Tim seemed to be afraid.

"Tim, is Maura there?" Hamlin was arrogant and did not answer Tim's question directly.

Tim couldn't help but look at Maura and whispered, "Hamlin, Maura is here with me."

"Bring her to Kowloon international!" Hamlin said directly in an imperative tone, and without waiting for Tim to say anything, she instantly ended the call.

Tim frowned. How did Hamlin know Maura was here? Who leaked the information?

"Tim, who was it?" Greta asked casually.

"Hamlin," Tim said with a great smile.

"Hamlin?"

"Hamlin from the department of economic management?!"

"Oh my! How could it be her!"

On hearing that it was Hamlin, everyone immediately burst into flames.

Finn frowned, Hamlin seemed to have a big reputation.

Finn can't help but look at Maura. He wanted to know whether Maura understood what happened. However, Maura's pretty face has turned pale by now.

"Maura, what's wrong?" Finn frowned, Maura seemed to be a little afraid of Hamlin.

"No... Nothing." Maura shook her head and smiled reluctantly.

Finn was more confused. Something must have happened between Maura and Hamlin.

"Tim, what was Hamlin looking for?" Greta asked curiously. Hamlin was not in the same class with them when she was in university. Still, she was well-known in the department of economics and management. She even surpassed Maura in school.

Of course, Hamlin could surpass Maura in terms of popularity because she was prettier than Maura. But it's because she had a good family background. Also, her appearance was outstanding. Hamlin was not as noble as Maura, so she played around with many people.

At that time, several famous rich young people and sons of the government official in the school had an indistinct relationship with

Hamlin. It could be said that Hamlin was a social butterfly, she's a kind of resourceful social flower, and she could play around with men.

"Hamlin, who was in Kowloon international, asked if we would like to come and play." Tim's eyes turned as he said it; he didn't dare to say that Hamlin wanted to see Maura alone. Tim was evident that if he said that, Maura would not go because Maura feared Hamlin the most during university days.

"Was Hamlin in Kowloon international?" Upon hearing that Hamlin was in Kowloon international, Sally's eyes lit up.

Tim nodded. He could understand why Sally was so excited. Hamlin was Sally's defender when they were in university. Sally often followed Hamlin to commit crimes. Now, hearing that Hamlin was in Kowloon international, Sally must have Hamlin together to avenge Finn.

"Tim, let's go. I haven't seen Hamlin for a long time." Sally excitedly said she would like to see Hamlin. Still, after Hamlin graduated from university, she deleted all her contact information, and Sally could not meet her.

This time, she finally got the news from Hamlin. She could not miss it again, and she would let Hamlin help her teach Finn a lesson.

Hamlin's energy was not comparable to that of Tim. Tim was just a good student in his class. But Hamlin was the most famous person in Jinling University.

When Hamlin was in her third year of university, two modeling companies were under her name, with an annual net income of 10 million yuan and 20 million yuan. Now it's nearly three years since graduation, so people could imagine how far Hamlin has gotten.

"Er..." Tim has some problems. Hamlin did not want to see Sally at all. There was only one person she wanted to see, and that was Maura. But if he said it, Maura would not go. After all, Hamlin was Maura's nightmare in college.

"Tim, did Hamlin want to see Maura?" It was Greta who first understood Tim's thoughts.

Tim said with a smile, "Well, Hamlin said that she had insulted May back during university days, so she wanted to meet Maura and apologize."

"Maura, do you want to..." Tim turned his gaze to Maura.

"No." Maura's tone was cold. She won't believe Tim's lies. Hamlin would only apologize to her after she would eat a dog's poop.

Tim's face stiffened. He was in trouble. Hamlin called her and asked him to take Maura to her. If he couldn't do it, Hamlin would blame Tim.

"Maura, will you just go there? There will be many of us there. Hamlin won't do anything to you." Greta squinted with a smile. She knew very well how flawed Hamlin was. This time, Hamlin definitely would not apologize to Maura. On the contrary, Hamlin was more likely to humiliate Maura.

Hearing this, Finn raised his eyebrows. Hamlin seemed to have done something excessive to Maura in college.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 123 Past Events

"Greta, don't you think that I don't know what you're thinking." Maura gave Greta a fierce look, and then she said with a smile: "I was blind to even mistook you as my friend. After today, there is no relationship between you and me!"

Greta's face changed instantly, but she didn't say anything more.

"Finn, let's go." When Maura finished saying this, she took Finn's hand. She would never come back again for any class reunion. None of these people ever considered her as a classmate. Even Greta, Maura's only friend whom she recognized, made her cold-hearted.

"Maura, stop!" At this time, Sally stopped in front of Maura, and said in a harsh tone: "Hamlin has invited you there to save your pride, so you can't be ungrateful."

After Greta said this, Sally also responded. Hamlin asked Maura to go there, and she certainly wanted to avenge Maura. If Maura left now, she would not be able to recompense Finn for attacking here.

"Get out of my way!" Maura's tone was cold, and she was too lazy to be polite to Sally.

"Maura, I warn you, you are not a student now. When you offended Hamlin, the school teachers will protect you, but now, no teacher will protect you. If you dare disobey the orders and let Hamlin lose her pride, can you guess what she will do to you?" Sally put her hands around her chest and sneered. When she was at school, Hamlin pursued a rich second generation man who liked Maura and confessed to her, but Maura refused.

Hamlin was so angry that she went straight to Maura's dormitory. He called several people and dragged Maura out of the dorm and threw her into the school's lake, and it's the twelfth month of the calendar, which was winter. But with the help of the school's teachers, Maura would have been frozen to death in the lake.

But after Maura was rescued, she was almost disfigured by Hamlin. Later, Maura saw Hamlin and avoided her like a mouse seeing a cat.

However, Hamlin never let Maura off. Although she did not do anything to Maura again, all kinds of small troubles happened in a few days.

Maura's pretty face turned pale again. Hamlin, at that time, did leave a tremendous psychological shadow on her. Even now, she often experienced nightmares and dreams of drowning. Hamlin has indeed become her nightmare.

"Who's that Hamlin that you're talking? What did she do to Maura?" Seeing Maura was fear, Finn frowning. He wanted to know what Hamlin had done to Maura, which even let Maura fear her these years.

"Hum, if I talked about Hamlin, what if you got scared and pissed?" Sally disdained a cold hum, and she tried to excite Finn, to see if Maura was afraid to face Hamlin, which could only hit Finn's body.

"Say it! I'll see what she has to offer!" Finn's tone was a little cold.

"Okay, loser, listen to me. Hamlin is the daughter of the Du family in City J." Sally's expression was incredibly proud, as if she was Du's daughter.

"Du family?" Finn frowned. He seemed to have heard Li Zhen say that this family is one of the nine second-tier families in City J. They were a little more potent than the Bai family. However, for Finn, the family was just like nothing.

Seeing Finn's doubt, Sally became more proud: "Don't you know our City J's Du family?"

Without waiting for Finn to reply, Sally disdained a smile, and then opened his mouth: "You, a villain from City C, how could you possibly know that the Du family is such a powerful family."

"To tell you the truth, the Du family owns the cultural and entertainment industry. In City J, the Du family is a well deserved cultural and entertainment leader. A dozen cultural and entertainment companies in City J were all owned by the Du's industries. You know, such as Liu Yan and Wang Junsheng, these well-known big stars were all cultivated by the Du family."

"Of course, the entertainment industry I'm talking about was only a small part of the Du family's. The Du family also has a lot of business in real estate and catering, but there's no use in telling you more of these."

Tim was silent, and Sally said nothing wrong. Du's family power was within one's imagination. The reason why Tim had his clothing factory was not because of his keen ability. However, when he was at school, he was lucky to have dinner with Hamlin several times, and Tim was in Hamlin's favor.

After graduation, under Hamlin's promotion, he established his production line, got a lot of clothing orders, and Tim was able to be where he was today.

The richer Tim was, the more he understood how powerful the Du family was. It could be said that ordinary people would not have access to the Du family at all.

The Du family was a privileged class in modern society!

"I don't want to know how powerful the Du family is. I want to know what Hamlin did to Maura at that time." Finn's cold voice mouthed these words, and he didn't even consider the first-tier Yang's family, let alone a Du family.

"Do you want to listen?" Sally sneered and asked.

"Say it!"

"Husband, it's all over. Don't ask again..." At this time, Maura suddenly spoke with a hint of pleading on her pretty face.

Finn shook his head: "There is no such thing as the past, Maura, if Hamlin let you suffer injustice in those years, then I will let her get what she deserves 100 times more!"

"100 times more? Hahaha! Finn, are you fking kidding me? Are you not afraid to say these words? You are only a commoner. We can crush you to death with one finger. If you don't want anything to happen to you, you should burn incense and thank your ancestors. You are now asking for Hamlin's trouble." Sally laughed and sneered. Finn thought that after a meal in Hoki Restaurant, he could fight with Du's family as he didn't take the Du family seriously.

"I ask you for the last time, what did Hamlin do to Maura?" Finn's tone was cold as if on the edge of his anger.

"Hamlin didn't do anything. Your wife seduced Hamlin's boyfriend, and then Hamlin let someone drag your wife out from the dormitory and throw her into Jinbo lake. Oh, yes, the Jinbo Lake in winter. If the teacher didn't mind her own business, your wife would have been frozen to death that time, alas..." Speaking of this, Sally couldn't help sighing, as if having some regret, Maura had not been frozen to death at that time.

But Finn's face darkened!

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 124 Mr. Chen?

Finn Chen always thought that it was because Maura Shawn was a congenital sufferer so that she was weak and often caught colds. But now it seemed that it was not the true reason.

It was because she was thrown into the Golden Lake in the cold winter by Hamlin Du so that she became weak since then!

Finn clenched his fists, and there was anger in his eyes. He couldn't imagine how desperate Maura was when she was struggling in the icy cold water. That vicious woman aimed at killing Maura when she threw Maura into the lake!

Before, he could not figure out why Maura rarely mentioned her university life in their three years of marriage. Now it seemed that Maura did not dare to mention it!

Because in her university life, there was such a painful memory that could not bear to recall!

Hamlin Du!

Shit!

Finn gritted his teeth. He was even angrier because that bitch did such a vicious thing to Maura, Maura didn't even think about revenge, but Hamlin still wanted to hurt Maura!

And now it's been three years after graduating from university. It was not difficult to imagine how vicious Hamlin was!

Finn has never hated a woman so much, and he even has never met Hamlin before!

"Hillbilly, Ms. Du is in Dragon's Villa now, do you dare to go there?" Seeing Finn was irritated by her, Sally Li was even more proud and began to provoke him.

Finn raised his head; his expression was extremely angry: "Lead the way!"

"Finn, don't go..." Maura begged him. She hasn't mentioned Hamlin for so many years because she knew exactly what the Du's Family meant, even if ten Shawn's Families were added together, they still would not beat half of the Du's.

Finn had already done enough for her, and she didn't want Finn to provoke the behemoth Du's Family because of her.

"Maura Shawn, what are you afraid of? Your husband wants to revenge for what Ms. Du has done to you. You should be happy." Sally said with a weird sneer.

"Did you participate in what happened in university?" Finn turned his head abruptly, staring at Sally.

Sally shuddered subconsciously, and hurriedly defended: "I... I didn't. Finn, those things were all done by Hamlin. If you are a man, go to find her. Don't bully me."

"Of course, I'll go to Hamlin Du. But if what happened back then has something to do with you, I will never let you go!" Finn said grimly. Since the past was mentioned by Sally today, he was bound to revenge one by one. He would not let those who bullied Maura go!

Sally pouted her lips in disdain. Won't let me go? Let's talk about it after you handled Hamlin.

Seeing Finn insisting on going to the Dragon's Villa, Tim Xu suddenly became happy. He was worried that he could not complete Hamlin's task before, but Finn took the initiative to go to the Dragon's Villa to die.

Tim sneered in his heart. He knew very well how cruel Hamlin was. She was a lawless girl in university. She often destroyed the faces of other beautiful girls. But she was still pampered by everyone in Du's Family. Du's would protect her from any serious matter.

This Time, if Finn went to the Dragon's villa, he would die or be hit hard.

"Who else wants to go to Dragon's Villa?" Tim Xu smiled and glanced at the other students around him.

Everyone wanted to go, but when they thought of the consumption of Dragon's Villa, they couldn't help but shrink.

Tim shook his head and he was a little disdain. But if these people didn't go, no one would witness Finn making a fool of himself. Thinking of this, Tim smiled and said, "I forgot to tell you guys. If you go to Dragon's Villa, the consumption at Dragon's Villa will be up to me. I will pay the bill. I wanted to invite everyone to dinner, but Finn is so hospitable that he paid for dinner. Therefore, I will invite everyone to Dragon's Villa to play."

Hearing Tim's words, everyone's eyes suddenly lit up. They were willing to go if someone could pay for them. After all, it was Dragon's Villa, City J's most luxurious entertainment venue.

If they could take a few photos there and post on social media, they could show off in front of their friends.

"Tim, you are so generous!" Greta Wang said shyly, and she became more satisfied with Tim. He was a real sugar daddy that she must fascinate him.

"Don't be shy, we are classmates. And it's my pleasure to show everyone the wide world." Tim smiled, but secretly, he began to touch Greta's body.

"Hamlin is waiting for us, hurry up, let's go." Tim put his hand off Greta's body and said.

"Let's go." Everyone nodded hurriedly, and then they left Hoki Restaurant in a mighty manner.

"Lord Qing, that person over there seems to be the one who clashed with you in Dragon's Villa last time," As soon as Finn walked out of the gate of Hoki Restaurant, someone recognized him.

"Clashed with me?" Qing was stunned, then his expression changed drastically, "You mean Mr. Chen?"

"Mr. Chen?" Qing's gangster didn't know what happened afterward and was a little surprised why Qing called him that way.

Qing didn't explain, he hurriedly glanced in the direction where the gangster was looking, only to find that the group of people who had just left the restaurant had already got on the car, and he didn't see Finn Chen.

Seeing Qing seemed very anxious, the gangster said again: "Lord, the young man you mentioned seems to have just had dinner at our Hoki Restaurant. You can check the monitoring."

"Let's go!" Qing waved his hand and hurried in. If Finn really came to Hoki Restaurant for dinner, it would be a remarkable event. Hoki Restaurant was his site, he didn't come forward to entertain him, Finn might not be happy.

"Lord Qing!"

Seeing Qing, Bob Liu's attitude immediately became extremely respectful.

"Is there anyone with the surname Chen among the group who just went out?" Qing asked hurriedly.

"Chen?" Bob stunned. The ruthless man who had drunk eight bottles of liquor seemed to have the surname Chen.

"Lord Qing, did that surname Chen offend you?" Bob asked cautiously. After Finn left, Joyce Zheng dared to tell him that the reason for her gaffe was that Finn had one billion yuan in his bank card. With a turnover of 1 billion yuan in the bank card, Finn's assets definitely exceeded 10 billion. The identity of him was definitely not simple! That's why he had to ask clearly, so as to decide how to answer Qing.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 125

Golden Members

"I'm fucking asking if there's any, just answer, talk so much bullshit." Qing was a little impatient.

"Yes! Lord Qing, it was a man surnamed Chen who just ate here, there were over forty people in total, and he was the one who paid the bill.

And in the middle, he had a conflict with someone... "Bob Liu didn't dare to hide anything, he told Qing everything. Including Finn Chen and Tim Xu spelling wine, beating Sally Li, and the fact that he had one billion yuan in his card.

"This person is Master Chen." Qing wasn't sure about the other things, but once he heard about the one billion yuan, he could be sure that person was Finn Chen. Other than he, no one else was this generous.

"Master Chen?" Bob and Joyce Zheng couldn't help but stare at each other. There was nothing wrong with their ears. Qing called that person Master Chen.

Qing didn't intend to explain to them, and directly ordered, "Bob, let the finance department take 1.8 million yuan to Master Chen to return it.

He came here to eat is to give a face to Hoki Restaurant, we can't accept his money."

Qing's words caused the two of them to be stunned once again. Who the hell was that young man just now! Qing wouldn't even dare to take his money!

"Moreover, you must keep your mouths shut about what happened here today. Otherwise, you'll bear the consequences!" Qing threatened the two of them. Now there were only a handful of people in the entire City J who knew Finn's identity. If other unrelated people knew about Finn's identity, it might lead to some kind of chaos.

"Yes, Lord Qing." Bob and Joyce nodded their heads. From Qing's tone, they knew Finn Chen was a very distinguished person, how could someone from the lower class like them dare to offend him.

Soon, Qing told Thomas Yang the news of Finn going to Dragon's Villa. Thomas then called to inform a few core shareholders of Dragon's Villa, taking this opportunity today to let them know Finn. After all, he was now the largest shareholder.

Finn, Maura Shawn, and Sally sat in Tim's car's back seat, while Greta Wang sat in the passenger seat, laughing and talking with Tim along the way.

"Tim, I heard that you must have a membership card if you want to enter Dragon's Villa, is this true?" Greta asked curiously. She had only heard of Dragon's Villa before but had never been there.

Tim shook his head: "No, there are many areas in Dragon's Villa. Ordinary leisure and entertainment areas can be entered without a membership card. But some high-class areas can only be entered by members."

"Greta, let me tell you. Dragon's Villa's premium recreational areas are also divided into several levels. At the lowest level, silver members can only enter the area for silver members. Gold members can enter the area for gold members. On the next level, Platinum members will be able to enter the core areas of Dragon's Villa, such as the hunting park and target range areas." Sally was a little proud. She had actually never entered Dragon's Villa, but she had heard this from hearsay and just happened to show off to Greta.

"Why is membership grading of Dragon's Villa so strict?" Greta was a little surprised and curious about what level of membership Tim was.

"Because Dragon's Villa was established as an aristocratic Villa, dedicated to serving the social elite. An ordinary commoner can't enter."

Sally also looked at Finn as she said this, her words meaning something.

"Tim, you must be a member of Dragon's Villa, right?" Sally suddenly asked this, somewhat flattering Tim.

Tim nodded, somewhat proud of himself: "I'm a Gold Member."

"Gold member?" Sally covered her mouth in surprise: "Tim, the Golden Member's annual membership fee alone is five hundred thousand yuan, right?"

Tim was even more proud: "Right. I add the money spent on the manor every year, it's more than half a million yuan."

"Tim, it would be great if I could be as rich as you." Sally was a little envious. She was currently working as a designer in a small company. She was only earning 150,000 yuan a year for working hard. Whereas Tim's annual membership fee alone was half a million yuan. How could this difference between people be so big?

Tim said, "Sally, you have to be far-sighted. I'm only a golden member now, and you think I'm rich. Then if I become a platinum member next year, wouldn't you be treating me as the richest man."

Tim said this since he showed off that he was going to become a platinum member next year.

And Sally was also very good at talking and quickly asked, "Tim, how much is the annual membership fee for Platinum members?"

"It's not much, just a million yuan!" Tim spoke indifferently, the one million yuan was spoken by him like one hundred.

"Wow, a million yuan!" Sally looked at Tim with an adoring face: "Tim, I'm afraid that some people may not earn so much money in his lifetime."

"Finn, how long does it take to deliver takeout if you're going to make a million yuan?" Sally was still just a subtle allusion to Finn, but Greta asked Finn directly. After all, there were only two men in the car, and Finn had just offended Tim, so now it was natural to embarrass him.

"More than ten years." According to Finn's salary of six or seven thousand dollars a month, it would take more than ten years to save up a million yuan.

"A dozen years?" Greta laughed disdainfully, "Haven't you been spending money on other things for over a decade?"

"That would take decades, is that answer satisfactory to you?" Finn's tone was somewhat sarcastic. He knew that Greta just wanted to see herself make a fool of herself, just satisfy her.

Greta was a little angry that this loser even dared to be sarcastic with her.

"What kind of tone are you using? Greta is right, right, you can't go without eating and drinking for over ten years to save a million." Sally was dissatisfied.

"Yes, it's impossible." Finn had learned since childhood that you couldn't reason with a fool. A fool only needed to agree with what he said, and if you reasoned with a fool, you would only turn yourself into an idiot.

"Maura was blind before, how could she fall for someone like you. Also, as a man, Tim spent a million yuan to get a membership card in Dragon's Villa, while you, I won't comment on it." Sally continued to ridicule.

Finn was a little angry, it was fine for them to ridicule him, but he couldn't stand mocking Maura.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 126 Steve Zhou

"Believe it or not, I do have the membership card of Dragon's Villa." Finn Chen said calmly. Plus, his was one of the mere three Supreme Membership card, which indicated he was the biggest shareholder of Dragon's Villa.

"Are you crazy?" Sally Li said sarcastically. Like it's Finn's joke.

"I'm serious," Finn sneered.

"Ha-ha. Ridiculous," Sally laughed loudly and continued, "Then what's your level? Black iron? Brass?"

Sally was making fun of Finn. There's no such kind of membership at all.

Finn ignored her. When they entered the Villa, Sally would know his real level.

"Sally, be nice. I believe Finn is supposed to be the diamond member. That's the most suitable one," Tim teased Finn as well.

"Diamond? I never heard about this," Greta Wang asked astonishingly. A platinum member would spend one million on the membership fee. For a diamond, the number would be much more huge.

"Yes." Tim nodded, and said jealously, "But it's tough to be the diamond members, despite a big fortune. One must be recommended by the shareholders. Afterward, he needs to pay 10 million of the annual membership fee."

"Ten million?!" Greta said in shock.

"Yes, but it's not a big deal for them," Tim said lightly. After all, there're several meetings for Diamond-level members every year, each of which would bring them at least 10 million benefits.

Greta was too shocked to get any words out. She used to feel that a man with tens of millions of assets was wealthy.

"Tim, what's the level of Hamlin?" Sally asked.

"You can figure it out yourself. Hamlin's brother is one of the shareholders of Dragon's Villa. "Tim said calmly, "She's the diamond member."

Sally was excited and planned to flatter Hamlin more to gain benefits.

Finn was surprised about their reaction to only a diamond member. That'd be pretty interesting when they knew Finn, who's now in the same car with them, represented the biggest stakeholder.

...

The car reached the Dragon's Villa quickly.

A male foreman in a suit came out to greet Tim.

"Mr. Xu, this way please," seeing the dozens of people behind Tim, the foreman was a little surprised. Still, he didn't say anything and directly led them to a small manor.

It's a small villa, with a swimming pool, picnic spots, billiard court and the like. The environment was fascinating, as well.

As soon as they walked in, the girls took out their phones and started taking selfies frantically as if they wanted to take photos of everywhere in the Villa. After all, rarely could they enter this place, which represented a location of power and money.

While Sally and Greta didn't do so, they even began to despise them, feeling that they were not educated and impolite.

"Tim, when will Hamlin come here?" Sally couldn't help but ask. It has been ten minutes since they came here. There was only one foreman, no Hamlin.

"Um," Tim hesitated. He also wanted to know Hamlin's location, but he didn't dare to ask her. After all, they're not friends. Hamlin was more like his boss.

A handsome young man with the slicked-back hair appeared, who was a bit taller than Tim. His figure was extremely well-proportioned, making him look like a model.

"Hey, Steve," Tim said respectfully.

"Steve?" Sally and Greta recognized the young man soon. It was because of him that Hamlin threw Maura Xia into the Golden Lake.

Present Steve did not look like a schoolboy but more a mature man. He had changed a lot. Without Tim's greeting, everyone would not recognize him.

"Where's Maura?" Steve remarked as if Tim was nothing.

"Over there," Tim replied, still with full respect, his finger at Maura's direction. At this time, Maura was cuddling in Finn's arms.

"Ok," Steve nodded slightly. He looked at Maura enigmatically and then at Finn coldly.

"Hamlin is dealing with several shareholders. She will come to us soon. I can take you around the hunting park," Steve said lightly.

Tim was stunned, saying, "Hunting park? But we're not eligible." The hunting park was the high-level entertainment area, which was only open to platinum members.

Steve said disdainfully, "I am the general manager of the Dragon's Villa Outer Park. I have the final say."

"Why, are you promoted?" Tim looked happy and asked. Last time he came here, Steve was just the supervisor of one of the estates. In a blink of an eye, Steve became the general manager of the Outer Park. This position meant he could get in touch with many big shots. Each of them would bring them many opportunities and resources.

Steve nodded slightly. Hamlin played a significant role in his promotion. In the final analysis, he's from a small family with less than 30 million assets. Hamlin did help him a lot to get this position.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 127

Hamlin's Family

Steve Zhou thought it's right that he chose Hamlin Du over Maura Xia, who could not give him the status and money.

"Ok, everybody. Steve will take us to the park then. It's a perfect place for hunting. We can see many kinds of prey: turtledoves, mountain rabbits, phoenix chickens, black antelopes, and some prey you never see outside, such as the black wolf. Enjoy your brilliant trip," Tim Xu shouted.

"What? But black wolves are protected animals," someone was surprised. Hunting protected animals was against the law.

"Yes, but here is special," Sally Li sneered disdainfully, "In this place, as long as you have enough money, you can hunt anything you want."

Steve smiled faintly, silent. What Sally said was all the truth. The Forest Protection Bureau had never come to check their protected animals at all.

Sometimes the law could not limit them in light of their forces and money.

If this hunting park were like the ones outside, where only rabbits and the likes were selected as preys, no rich people would gravitate toward Dragon's Villa.

"Tell your classmates not to take pictures or videos when they are inside," Steve informed seriously.

"Sure." Tim nodded. "No shooting" was a written law here. After all, there're many secrets inside.

After Steve left, Greta Wang and Sally walked to Tim.

"Is that Steve Zhou?" they asked to confirm their guess. This guy looked so different.

Tim nodded, "Call him Mr. Zhou next time. He is now Hamlin's husband."

"They married?!" Sally was so surprised.

Tim shook his head lightly, "It's not like a marriage. He married into and lived with Hamlin's family."

"Wow. That's great. He is now the general manager of Dragon's Villa," Sally envied.

Great? Tim didn't think so.

On the surface, Steve was enjoying all the benefits to be Hamlin's husband. Take a deeper look, and then you'll find him a servant of Du's Family. Even his wife--Hamlin made no attempt to conceal her unfaithful behavior.

He knew that clearly, but he dared not complain. What's worse, he had to give a smiley face to Hamlin.

Because of this, Tim looked down on Steve from the bottom of his heart. But even if Steve was a waste, he was part of Hamlin, a woman he couldn't offend.

"By the way, where is Hamlin?" Sally demanded.

"She's receiving several major shareholders of Dragon's Villa," Tim replied.

Hearing this, Greta got excited. She had made inquiries before--all the shareholders were super-rich. So the girl planned to show up in front of them so that she had the opportunity to develop something romantic. Being loved by the rich meant Greta had arrived.

...

At this moment, they entered the park. It was a super vast forest with a million acres. One couldn't even see the end at a glance. In the depths, there seemed to be mountains.

Hares and pheasants appeared around them.

Most people were very excited. After all, it's their first time to enter this spot.

Steve was the leader. He did not communicate with the group except for Tim. He felt that talking to others would make him very low.

But others didn't dare to say something bad. In the final analysis, it's Steve who let them in.

Finn Chen and Maura Xia walked together. Maura was somewhat curious and happy, probably because she came here for the first time. And she felt not that afraid of Hamlin. After all, the woman had not shown up by now.

Finn got a bit boring. Without Maura, he wouldn't come in.

When he was a teenager, Finn was thrown into the wild more dangerous than this place. He got trained to survive by himself. He had to face hordes of tigers, wolves, and even bears without any protection.

But now, they had a professional security team.

And their bows and arrows had no damage at all. On what earth could they get the prey?

At this time, Finn's phone rang.

"Mr. Chen, this is Thomas. Are you in the manor now?"

"Yes?" Finn raised his eyebrows. How did Thomas know? Did he have someone follow him?

On the phone, it seemed that Thomas guessed Finn's thoughts. He hurriedly explained, "My brother saw you came out of the Hoki Restaurant and then to here."

"I'm thinking you meet other shareholders this time," Thomas remarked respectfully. Initially, the Villa had nine stakeholders. After Garry Bai was kicked out, Finn came in as the largest shareholder. It's necessary to let the others know Finn.

"Where are you?" Finn asked.

"In the conference hall. You can come when you finished your own business. We're not in a hurry."

"Now is a good time," Finn said. He would meet the shareholders sooner or later. He didn't want to be here someday for just an encounter.

He hanged up and then came to Maura.

"Maura, I intend to meet some friends. Will you join me?" Finn asked. Now he was not prepared to let Maura know his background. But if Maura wanted to, he won't say no. And it was an excellent opportunity to let Maura know Thomas.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 128 Keep A Mistress

Maura Shawn hesitated for a moment. Then she shook her head and said, "No, you can go alone. I'll be waiting for you here." She could probably guess the identity of the friend of Finn Chen. She also understood that Finn was slowly confessing to her, but she was not ready.

She wasn't ready to understand the past of Finn. If Finn's friends were all big potatoes, would she blame Finn? After all, apart from being beautiful, she had nothing to do with her. She didn't have a prominent family background, nor extremely capable.

"Wait for me for ten minutes, and I'll be back in ten minutes, " Finn muttered. Since Maura did not want to go there, he would not embarrass Maura.

"Well, I'll wait for you." Maura nodded gently.

Seeing Finn leaving, Steve Zhou casually leaned against Maura.

"Maura, long time no see." Steve smiled and greeted. After not seeing each other for three years, Maura was still charming, even more, stunning than when she was in college. She was slim and graceful, much more beautiful than Hamlin Du.

"Haven't seen you for a long time," Maura replied somewhat coldly. She didn't have any feelings for Steve at that time, and it was always Steve who pursued her. But Hamlin said that she was the one who seduced Steve and let other people throw her into the Golden Lake.

"I heard that you didn't have a good life after your marriage?" Steve lighted a cigarette with a sad expression.

Maura shook her head and said, "No, I had a good and happy life."

"Happy?" Steve laughed disdainfully. Then he said, "How can a takeaway deliverer bring you happiness?"

Maura looked calm. She didn't retort, nor did she need to.

"How about this. You divorce your husband, then come over to City J to accompany me, and I'll give you a hundred thousand every month." Steve vomited a smoke ring and faintly said.

In the meantime, Maura raised her eyebrows, "Steve, please show some respect. I'm a married woman now, and you're married to Hamlin too. Are you doing this right for her?"

"Right for her?" Steve's look was suddenly fierce, "Do you know what that bitch has done? And let me do f right for her?"

"What did she do?" Maura frowned and asked.

"Brrr." Steve said mockingly, "That bitch brought home two men on our wedding night, and messed around with them in front of me. You let me do f right for her!"

"Maybe to outsiders, I'm living a glorious life now. After all, I'm the Du's Family's home son-in-law. But only I know that I'm like a dog raised by that bitch! I'll do whatever she tells me to do!" Steve was full of resentment. When Hamlin had offered him to be the Du's Family's home son-in-law, he was about to go crazy with joy. After all, it was Du's Family.

The famous Du's Family in City J! The real giants! If he could become Du's Family's home son-in-law, he would be able to rise to the top!

It is with this thought in mind that he entered Du's Family.

But he didn't expect that as soon as he entered the Du's Family, Hamlin exposed that she was the town pump!

Changing men quite frequently!

Everyone in Du's Family knew about Hamlin's fetish, but only he didn't. Marrying him was because, when Hamlin was old enough to get married, Du's Family needed a home son-in-law.

As for whether the home son-in-law can control Hamlin, it was not in their consideration.

So Steve was like a puppet or a dog. He was like a dog that Hamlin could call and order around!

Maura opened her mouth wide in shock, she could have never imagined that Hamlin would be so lascivious. On her wedding night, she had messed around with other men in front of her fiancé. How could there be such a shameless woman in the world?

"Maura, I know your husband is a bum, and you haven't had a happy couple of years. You divorce him and stay with me. That bitch Hamlin, I'll ruin her sooner or later. After that, I will divorce her and get married to you. I believe you can also feel that I really like you." Steve sincerely advised. Maura was the only woman who could let him expose his ugliness. If he told others, they would tell everyone. But Maura wouldn't, she would keep it a secret. Because he trusted her.

Many people think that almost all the men in college liked Maura because of her beauty, but only he knew that only part of boys liked her beauty, and more boys liked her kindness.

Kindness is a quality that sounded ridiculous. But it was a quality that most women would never have in their lives.

"Steve, I can understand your feeling right now. But we aren't suitable. Besides, my husband is not the bum. On the contrary, he's brilliant. I can even say that he's the best man I've ever seen in this world, and I won't leave him." Maura shook her head. She did sympathize with his current situation, but it didn't mean that she had to sacrifice herself for Steve.

Steve frowned, "Maura, you and I are both victims in a marriage, is it interesting for you to lie to me? I've heard what's your husband likes. He's a total bum. He can't give you happiness!"

Maura shook her head and took a step back.

"Maura, please, please give me a chance. I quite like you." Steve seemed a little agitated. When he said, he wanted to pull Maura.

"Please behave yourself!"

Maura was a bit angry and plucked Steve's hand away.

"Steve! What are you doing?!" At that moment, a sharp voice shouted.

A woman with heavy makeup came over, riding a black horse. She wore black sportswear. She was very hot and beautiful. The only flaw was that the woman had a pair of inverted triangular eyes, which made her look mean and made people uncomfortable.

Seeing Hamlin, Steve panicked and retracted his hand, explaining in a hurry, "Honey, listen to me, it's not what you think..."

"Pah..."

Before Steve could finish his sentence, Hamlin came down from her horse and slammed him. Five reddish handprints appeared on Steve's handsome face.

"You are so capable! I've only been away for a few minutes. How you dare to cheat on me?" Hamlin sneered.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 129 Vixen

Felton trembled like chaff, and his eyes were full of anger and resentment. Although it was in front of the others, Hamlin never gave him a face and slapped him. That was a common thing.

Although he was angry, he did not dare to confront Hamlin. He knew that he could not fight her at all. Hamlin could let others evaporate, and then find another son-in-law.

"Wife, listen to me, I'm loyal to you, it's Maura who seduced me first!" Felton pointed at Maura's nose and fabricated it against her. At this time, he could only throw the pot to Maura. Otherwise, with a defect-must-be-reported character, Hamlin would inevitably make him peel off a layer of skin.

Maura opened her mouth wide as if she could not believe that Felton would say so.

"Felton! Are you still a human?" Maura scolded angrily. Felton proposed to support her, but in the blink of an eye, instead, he raked it upside down and said that she took the initiative to seduce.

"Maura, don't pretend to be innocent here! Since knowing that I am the general manager of Dragon's Villa, you hinted at me. You asked me to give you 100 thousand yuan a month, and then you will accompany me to sleep. Then I'll tell you. I'm Hamlin's husband now, and I won't agree with you, you just ran to me and seduced me..." Felton's expression was both angry and aggrieved. People who didn't know would take it seriously.

"You bullshit! You said first that you want to support me!" Maura was going crazy. She never imagined that Felton would become like this.

Tim, Greta, and several people gathered around, but no one dared to speak for Maura. They knew it in their heart that Felton took the initiative to find Maura. And about seducing, it was also Felton who seduced Maura first instead of Maura seduced Felton.

But they didn't dare to say these words in front of Hamlin.

"Snap."

Hamlin sneered and raised her hand, slapped hard on Maura's pretty face, cracked the corner of Maura's mouth, and bloodstains oozed out.

"Bitch, still dare to quibble! If you don't piss and reflect on yourself, will my husband support you?!"

"It's not like this, listen to me!" Maura almost cried when she was wronged.

But with a snap, Hamlin slapped Maura's face with anger again.

"Explain? Explain what! At school, you were a sedulous vixen and seduced my husband. I didn't expect that you, sedulous vixen, would never give up three years later!"

"Snap."

"It seems that the old lady didn't teach you enough three years ago and did not make you a vixen, remember it!"

Every time Hamlin said something, she slapped a slap on Maura's pretty face, and in a blink of an eye, Maura's pretty face was swollen and red.

On the side, Sally and Greta showed a happy expression. Didn't expect that Maura would encounter such an unreasonable woman like Hamlin.

"Come here, tie this stinky bitch for me!" Hamlin commanded with her hands on her hips. Although she slapped Maura for more than a dozen slaps, she still did not feel angry enough.

After Hamlin said that, the two black-clothed security guards took out a rope with a cold face and came to Maura.

"Hamlin, what are you doing?!" Maura panicked, and her face was pale.

Hamlin sneered again and again and did not say anything. The two black-clothed security guards immediately put the rope on Maura. Maura couldn't resist at all, and soon she was tied.

"You stinky bitch, don't you like to seduce men? That old lady will let you seduce enough today!" Hamlin's eyes drew a vicious stroke, and then ordered: "Bring this stinky bitch to the black wolf den."

Black wolf den?

Greta and Sally looked at each other, why did she bring her there?

The others also looked at each other, not knowing why.

Only Tim and Felton seemed to think of something currently, and there was a little horror in their eyes.

In less than two minutes, a group of people came to a hill beside the forest.

Halfway up the hill, there was a dark hole, which looked quite gloomy.

Around the cave entrance, an artificially constructed two-meter-high iron wire wall was with high-voltage electricity on it. Apparently, it was made to prevent things from coming out of the hole.

Two security guards were wearing anti-bite suits outside the wired wall, holding shotguns, and patrolling back and forth.

After everyone reached the area of the wire wall, they smelled a human scent. Several black wolves with one person tall sprang out of the hole like lightning, grinning with the teeth to the people around the wire wall. The eyes of the wolf exuded fierceness.

The black wolf-headed up in the sky and roared "Aoo," and the harsh wolf howl shook everyone's eardrums, and their back became cold.

Most of them were their first time seeing the wolves. Although there were security guards with a shotgun standing on the side to protect them, everyone was scared and even timid. Their calves began to tremble.

Hamlin's face showed a wicked excited smile this time, and her vertical triangle eyes radiated a dangerous palpitation.

"Bring this bitch out." Hamlin licked her lips and said that.

"Let me go!" Maura shouted in despair. At this time, she didn't understand what Hamlin would do next.

They brought Maura in front of Hamlin. Hamlin held out her hand and slapped on Maura's pretty face again.

"Slut, don't you like to seduce men? The old lady will let you seduce enough today!" She said.

"Do you see the male wolves inside? In a sense, they are no different from men. Since you can seduce men, you must be able to seduce them." Hamlin's face was full of perverted smiles. Then she fiercely pointed at the black wolf hole: "Bitch, don't say the old lady didn't give you a chance. After a while, the old lady will let you in. If you can successfully seduce those black wolves, the old lady will let you go, and the past problems I'll write off!"

"If you can't seduce..." Hamlin paused, and then she laughed wildly:
"Then you, Bitch, you die inside! Hahaha."

Looking at Hamlin's madness, everyone's scalp tingled for a while, was this woman... sick?

This time, even Greta and Sally's faces changed. Although they were jealous of Maura, they did not feel jealous to the point of psychological abnormality. Still, this Hamlin had abnormal psychology, and this was direct to make Maura dead!

And killing Maura was not enough. She had to let Maura humiliate before she died, it's too vicious!

Both Greta and Sally shivered.

They suddenly discovered that compared with Hamlin, they were just two little white rabbits.

Tim couldn't help but glance at the black wolf full of blood-thirsty in the wire wall, and his lips were pale. Hamlin was crazy. This woman was crazy!

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 130 I'm In A Hurry

"Why are you still dumbfounded! Throw this slut in!" Hamlin glared fiercely at several dumbfounded security guards.

Several security guards were stunned and immediately gritted their teeth and approached Maura. They understood that their behavior at the moment was no different from murder. But after all, they were employees of Dragon's Villa.

With Hamlin's cruel way of dealing with things, if they dare not listen to her words, they were probably the ones who will enter the black wolf hole.

"Wife, that's not a good idea...it will be fatal." At this time, Felton trembled and spoke up. It wasn't that he felt sorry for Maura, but he understood that if Maura died inside, the Du family would push someone out to commit the crime. This person who was pushed to commit the crime could never be Hamlin, but it could be him!

"Not good?" Hamlin's cold eyes shot at Felton like a sharp blade, "Do you feel bad for this stinky bitch?"

"No, no!" Felton shook his head hurriedly and said, "Wife, how could I feel bad for her? This stinky bitch dared to seduce me and ruin our relationship. Since dead was another crime, we can torture her in another way. This ... It's a bit inappropriate." Felton also looked at Tim while saying that. There were too many people coming today. Suppose Hamlin sent Maura to the Black Wolf Cave in front of so many people and let Maura die inside. It was difficult to ensure that no one would leak the wind, and even if the Du family could cover the sky, he was afraid that it would not be covered at that time.

"You're a waste. The old lady is not afraid! What are you afraid of?" Hamlin said and kicked Felton's stomach, and directly kicked him to the ground.

"Throw it! Quickly throw this stinky bitch! The old lady's brother was Hammer, the major shareholder of Dragon's Villa. Today, if you don't throw this stinky bitch, the old lady will throw some of you!" Hamlin said it with hands on her hips, looking at several security threats with an arrogant expression.

After hearing that, several people dared not hesitate anymore, and directly framed Maura. Then they threw her into the wire wall.

A few black wolves stared at Maura inside the wall, and their eyes were full of blood-thirst light. They were not human, and they did not understand what was called loving a jade. In their eyes, Maura was a big piece of food.

"Let me go!" Maura's face was full of panic and despair, shouting and trying to break free. Still, a few big security hands were like iron hoops at the moment, holding her tightly so she couldn't breakaway.

"Finn, save me..." Maura whispered, her beautiful eyes were full of tears. In this desperate situation, the only person she could think of was Finn.

Finn, could he save her?

Greta and Sally were also thinking about this matter at the time.

"Where is Maura's useless husband? Wasn't he quite awesome before? Why was he missing now?" Sally couldn't help asking.

"Maybe after seeing Hamlin, he sneaked away." Greta sighed and said that she now had some inexplicable sympathy for Maura. She believed in Finn so much, and as a result, Finn ran away by himself at the most critical moment in her life. Sure enough, that couple was originally a bird of the same forest, so it was difficult for them to fly separately.

"He's the same as rubbish! Before he bragged about giving back the grievance that Hamlin gave to Maura a hundred times, now after he saw Hamlin, he ran away like a dog!" Sally gasped, she thought that Finn would also flex his wrists with Hamlin, even if he couldn't pull it, he had to show his attitude.

As a result, Finn turned out for good, and the people were scared away, leaving his wife here alone.

Tim clenched his fists several times and wanted to save Maura, but when he thought of his current career, it was all thanks to Hamlin, he took a deep breath and calmed himself down.

It was a little worthless for Maura in his heart, even entrusting her life to a man like Finn.

At this time, Finn had arrived at the conference hall.

As soon as he entered, several imposing young men stood up together and looked at Finn in the conference hall, with surprise in their eyes and deep disdain and doubt.

In front of him, the man with less than three hundred pieces of clothes in his body would be Young Master of Chen Family? Impossible.

But despite their suspicion, several people still had a humble smile on their faces.

"Finn, you are here." Thomas was the first to speak out. He did not think much because everyone knew Finn's strength. Even without the power of the Chen family, Finn himself was a terrifying warrior.

"Yes," Finn responded faintly. Somehow, his mind was in a mess.

Seeing that Finn was a little absent-minded, Thomas frowned, thinking that it was the staff in the manor who did not entertain Finn well.

The other young people looked a little ugly and dissatisfied with Finn. They were the second generation of famous families in Jinling, the second generation of the super-rich. On weekdays, whoever saw them always had to treat them with respect and flatter them, but the man in front of him didn't even bother to look at them since he entered the door.

Was it necessary to do this?

"Finn, did the staff in the manor offend you?" Thomas tried to ask. Finn's clothes were incompatible with the royalty of Dragon's Villa, plus the fact that some staff members often saw low people in the manor, so he couldn't help thinking.

Finn shook his head and smiled: "No."

"Don't you say you want to take me to meet several shareholders? Let's start now. I'm in a hurry." Finn said again that his heart's uneasiness made him somewhat unreliable.

He always felt that something was wrong, Finn also thought about Maura. But he had just left a few minutes, what could happen?

In a hurry?

Several young people who were already dissatisfied with Finn heard his words, and suddenly they became angry.

If Finn's attitude of ignoring only made a few people uncomfortable when he just entered the door. Now his words indeed pissed them off.

A few people were originally arrogant masters. In the world of Jinling, except for Thomas, they didn't pay any attention to any of them. Even if it was Thomas, when they saw them, they talked and laughed. They didn't dare to ignore them like this.

But Finn didn't show some love as soon as they entered the door. Now that he was in a hurry, he made them feel that they were just a cat and a dog in Finn's eyes.

"If Finn is in a hurry, you can leave now. Our brothers didn't ask to introduce Finn." A cold voice sounded, and Thomas's face changed suddenly. He turned back and scolded, "Hammer, what are you saying! Finn said that he is in a hurry, it's not what you think, Finn is really in a hurry."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 131 Bury With Her!

"Urgent? What can be more urgent than meeting my guys!" Hammer Du snorted coldly.

Finn Chen glanced at him and asked, "You think you are important?"

Hammer's face changed. Finn's glance made him feel a lot of pressure. However, in front of so many people, he could not show his weakness.

"It's not me that matters, but my guys. Although you now control 39% of Dragon's Villa's shares, the shares controlled by us are only a little less than you. You can't ignore us," Hammer said calmly. He was very clear that he could not resist Finn alone. Only united other people can confront with Finn.

They did not say anything excepted Thomas Yang. They consented to Hammer's statement.

Finn Chen, you are the biggest shareholder, but we are not anyone to be bullied!

"Hammer, don't talk nonsense here. Young Master Chen doesn't ignore you, he..." Thomas was anxious to explain. If Hammer and Finn were in opposition, Dragon's Villa might collapse internally.

At this time, Finn waved and interrupted Thomas directly.

"Thomas, you don't have to explain. I look down on them." Finn said with a faint smile. Just a few wealthy sons. They value themselves so much! They had a little stake in Dragon's Villa, so they thought they could be equal. That's underestimated him !

Heard this, Their facial expressions immediately cooled down. Finn said so that the matter has no room for change.

Thomas was very depressed. He didn't understand what happened to Finn today. Finn was so angry. Even if Finn didn't take them seriously, he shouldn't say it.

"Since Master Chen looks down on us, there is no need to continue this shareholders' meeting today. Thomas, I'll go first." Hommer snorted coldly and was ready to leave.

He didn't want to fight Finn here because it would make Thomas in difficulty.

"Hommer, do me a favor ! " Thomas spoke in a deep voice. Up to now, he could no longer be a double-dealer. He could only choose to stand in line and choose Hommer or Finn. That was obvious.

"Thomas, it's not that I don't give you the road. The premise of cooperation is equality, but Master Chen despises us. How can we cooperate with him? "Hommer suppressed his anger.

Hammer was also unexpected at the moment, Thomas chose Finn.

Dragon's Villa has six shareholders like him. There were also six Families. They add up to be about the same as the First-class Families. Thomas had been operating in City J for nearly ten years before attracting their six families. But now, Thomas even wanted to give up the influence that he has worked hard for ten years. He chose the young master of Chen's Family. Is Thomas too irrational?

Thomas sighed. Hommer's words were true. But this was Chen Finn, the successor of the Chen's Family in City Y. They have no idea what Finn's identity means.

Thomas now some regret. He should not hide that from Hommer before. Finn once disabled one of Garry Bai and Qing's hands in Dragon's Villa. And Finn has practiced Kungfu.

"Hommer, I have given you a chance. If you stay now, apologize to Master Chen. He will accept you again!" Thomas did not give up, trying to retain Hommer again.

However, Hommer snorted coldly and said, "Thomas, I know what you mean. As for apology... When young Master Chen is not so arrogant, it's not too late for me to apologize to him. "

"Hommer Du, don't regret it!" Thomas took a deep breath and said.

Hommer disdained to skim his lips, regret? He never regrets.

Just then, a security guard in black rushed in.

"Lord Thomas, something happened to the Hunting Garden!"

"What? You have no manners!" Thomas angrily rebuked.

The security guard swallowed his saliva and apologized: "Lord Thomas, I'm sorry! But it's too urgent. "

"Say !"

"In the Hunting Garden, a woman offended Miss Du. Miss Du threw her into the black wolf cave!"

"Hunting garden?" Finn's face changed dramatically. Then he rushed out of the meeting room like a madman.

People look at each other, did not understand.

"Hommer, does your sister have any enmity with Master Chen's wife?" Thomas asked in a hurry. If the woman who was thrown into the black wolf cave is Finn's wife, the whole Dragon's Villa will be finished today!

"Master Chen's wife?" Hommer looks puzzled. Although he loved Hamlin Du very much, he didn't know Hamlin's privacy. He didn't know who Hamlin had a grudge against.

Thomas stamped his foot heavily and said, "Hommer, pray now. The person whom your sister threw into the black wolf cave is not Master Chen's wife. If it's her, Du's Family will be buried with her! "

Let Du's Family be buried with her? Hommer disdained his lips and said, "Lord Thomas, you take Finn seriously. Chen's Family is really powerful, but who knows which successor Finn is?? And this is City J. I don't believe he dares to let our Family bury with his wife. "

"Fool! When your whole family is killed, you will believe me." Thomas's angry voice scolded. Hommer didn't know what did Chen's Family mean.

Whole family killed? Hommer was shocked.

"Lord Thomas, don't scare me. If his wife dies, we will find him a more beautiful woman. Can he kill our family for a woman? "

Find another one? Thomas sneered and went out directly. Hommer and others looked at each other and followed Thomas.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 132 Fury!

Finn was burning with anxiety so that his internal power hit the limit. All the people in the park only felt a strong breeze in front of them, but it was hard to see what it was.

On the other side, Maura Shawn had been thrown into the wire wall.

Three black wolves with green eyes suddenly jumped up. They did not bite Maura for the first time out of the instinct of animals. They wanted to make sure whether Maura was a threat to themselves.

Outside the wire wall, the crowd looked coldly and did not come forward to rescue Maura.

Hamlin Du's face was filled with an excited smile, seemed to be looking forward to the bloody picture to be staged next.

Greta Wang and Betty Li felt sympathetic towards Maura. They didn't expect Maura to end up in such a sad ending after so many years of entanglement.

Some timid girls had closed their eyes as if they couldn't bear to see Maura being torn apart by the black wolf.

Maura thought: Finn, I'm sorry, I may not see you. She closed her eyes, and her pretty face was already full of tears.

"Howl--"

The leading black wolf gave a long howl and was sure that Maura was no threat to themselves.

The next moment, the black wolf jerked its hind legs, jumped toward Maura, opened its big mouth, and closed it heavily.

Its white teeth pierced Maura's arm, so she's bleeding. The sharp pain made Maura unable to bear but scream.

And Finn was hundreds of meters away from the black wolf hole at the moment!

The scream-- It's Maura's voice!

Suddenly, Finn's eyes almost split and turned red. He could no longer control the monstrous anger in his chest, which evolved into a roar!

Momentum!

Strong Momentum!

People who stood a hundred meters from Finn felt like falling into the endless abyss as if the biting cold surrounded them!

The leading black wolf also stopped biting, and its eyes appeared a touch of fear, as an animal, its sense of smell of danger was one hundred times stronger than human beings!

Although there was still a hundred meters away from Finn, its feelings about Finn's momentum were extremely strong! It was apparent that if it continued to bite the woman in front of it, there would be only one end waiting for it--death!

The black wolf was afraid!

It turned around and ran!

But the next second, Finn, who had been hundreds of meters away from it, arrived there!

It seemed that Greta, Betty, and other several people stunned when a figure quickly passed by them--Was Finn, that waste just passed by them?

He took less than two seconds to arrive here?!

People subconsciously rubbed their eyes, felt that they must have blurred vision.

"Death!"

Then, Finn's angry voice rang in their ears, and they looked up and saw the scene, which made them horrified.

Three black wolves, who had run out for seven or eight meters, were scored by three willow leaves!

And there were several "flop" sounds.

Three black wolves fell to the ground one after another. Even if they were dead, people could see the remaining fear and a little confusion in the wolves' eyes.

The wolves were confused about the speed of Finn; why could he be so fast. That completely detached from their previous cognition of human beings--Finn took less than two seconds to get there 100 meters away.

As for the willow leaves that finally pierced their heads, they could not think about it.

"Maura! How did this happen? "Finn held Maura, who had fainted in his arms, only felt a pain in his heart. He regretted it! He hated himself!

Why did he have to meet Thomas Yang at this time!

Why did he have to see Thomas when Maura was in trouble?

Why?!!

"Where did this bastard come?! Are you losers working for nothing? Why let this bastard in?" Hamlin's hands rested on her hips and shouted coldly. One second less, Maura could be torn up by three black wolves, but the security guard let Finn in, which ruined her good thing in the last second.

Hamlin Du!!

Finn's eyes turned crimson. He suddenly looked at Hamlin—the murderous energy looked like huge waves flapping toward Hamlin.

Hamlin took three steps back uncontrollably, and her face went pale instantly.

"You bastard, how dare you to stare at me?! You want to die?!" Although Hamlin felt that Finn was not an ordinary man, she was not afraid at all. After all, this was Dragon's Villa, her territory. There were so many security guards standing behind her, and she even had a shotgun. She didn't believe that Finn could make trouble.

Finn gently put Maura aside and stood up expressionless.

Hamlin subconsciously took a step back and looked at the security guard beside her and ordered, "Come on. You losers! Help me catch this bastard!"

Several security guards looked at each other, but no one dared to move.

Wanted them to catch Finn? Hamlin was out of her mind, but they didn't!

Finn could kill three black wolves with three willow leaves. Could they rookies have a chance to touch Finn? Hamlin was such a fool that she couldn't understand the situation.

In fact, at the moment, everyone on the floor realized something was wrong, Finn, definitely not an ordinary delivery man!

Seeing that no one dared to move, Hamlin panicked and hurriedly threatened: "You losers, my brother is Hammer Du. If you dare to watch this bastard beat me, my brother will kill you!"

Still, no one dared to move. If these security guards offended Hammer, they would get hurt; but if they offended Finn, you would die!

Hammer Du!

Finn's eyes were cold. When he was in the conference room before, he guessed that Hamlin might be Hammer's young sister. Yeah, it's true!

Finn came to the front of Hamlin.

Feeling Finn's cold eyes, Hamlin was finally afraid, and he began to threaten Finn but cowardly in his heart: "What are you going to do? Listen, my brother was Hammer. He is the major shareholder of Dragon's Villa. If you dare to touch me, he will kill you!"

"How do you want to die?" Finn's voice was cold, let alone Hamlin, even Hammer was standing in front of him personally, and he would also make Hammer regret coming into this world!

Seeing that in Finn's eyes that Finn indeed wanted to kill her, Hamlin shivered and hurried hid behind Steve: "Honey, this bastard wants to kill me, you should kill him quickly."

Steve's calf shivered--Finn Chen could easily kill him, but he couldn't kill Finn.

"Finn, let's have a peaceful conversation. Don't use violence." Steve embarrassedly smiled. Now he could only appease Finn first and then waited for people of Hammer to come over. After all, there was a huge disturbance here that Hammer should also know.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 133 Do You Believe It?

"Get out!"

Finn Chen responded Steve Zhou with fulmination.

Seeing Finn didn't mean to show Steve some dignity, Steve simply shrank his neck, stepped back, and pushed Hamlin Du to Finn.

Hamlin suddenly started screaming like a hairy cat: "Steve, you loser! Are you going to watch your wife get beat up by the bastards?!"

Steve smiled, but he was sneering in his heart: at this time, Hamlin remembered that Steve was her husband, huh? Why didn't she remember she had a husband when she took those wild men home to fuck around?

"Clap-"

Finn sneered, directly slap in Hamlin's face, "bang-", Hamlin flew out, and hit the wire wall.

When she fell to the ground, half of her face swelled.

Finn didn't try his best to hit her. If he used all his strength, Hamlin's head would be blown out directly!

Seeing Finn coming to herself again with an angry face, Hamlin finally got scared, bursting into tears. She knelt on the ground and began to beg for mercy: "Finn, don't hit me. I was wrong."

"You know you wrong now?!" Finn's eyes were cold. If he had just arrived a second later, Maura was probably already in the wolf's belly. Even when he arrived in time, the wolf had also bitten off a piece of meat on Maura's arm. Finn was shocked: Hamlin Lu let him know a woman could be how malicious!

He didn't understand why Hamlin hated Maura so much that she would throw Maura, a living person, to the wolf!

"Finn, I didn't mean it. I just want to make a joke with Maura." Hamlin answered weakly. Although Hamlin wanted to chop Finn into pieces, she also knew that at that time, her life was in Finn's hands, so she absolutely couldn't act wildly.

It's just a joke?!

Finn's eyes burst into flames, and his teeth rattled: threw a living man into the wolf den was just a joke?!

Okay! Very good!

Finn clenched his fist, and his body was filled with a real murder. A few people who were closer to Finn couldn't help shuddering.

It's horrible!

At that moment, Thomas Yang and Hammer Du came along.

Thomas naturally saw Hamlin half kneeling on the ground, but he didn't have time to care about Hamlin. What he wanted to know more was what happened to Finn's wife.

Thomas anxiously looked around in the crowd. When he saw Maura leaning against the wall and falling into a coma, Thomas's pupil couldn't help but shrink. Although Maura didn't die, it seemed that she injured badly.

It's over!

There was only one thought in Thomas's heart at the moment. Today's Dragon's Villa would usher in an unprecedented earthquake!

At least, Hamlin, she couldn't expect to walk out of Dragon's Villa alive.

Hammer didn't think so much. His eyes were all on Hamlin. When he saw his sister, a princess at home, knelt in front of Finn with a swelled face, Hammer's face immediately darkened. Hammer went to Finn and shouted, "Young Master Chen, what do you mean?"

Young Master Chen?

People were all shocked--why Hammer called Finn Young Master Chen?

Greta Wang and Betty Li couldn't help glancing at each other. Did this waste have other identities?

"Brother. Kill this bastard now! He hit me, boohoo-"Seeing Hammer, Hamlin's eyes glowed again. She even crawled up behind Hammer, bitterly looking at Finn, and began to curse.

"Sister, you can rest assured. I'll make sure he gives you an explanation!" Hammer comforted Hamlin with a serious look. Since childhood, Hamlin was a treasure in the hands of all Du Families. They had not even scold Hamlin before. But today, Finn beat her. How could Hammar endure it?

"Brother, arrest him. I want to break every bone in that bitch's body in front of him." Hamlin complained bitterly. No one ever dared to make such a fool of her. If she didn't revenge, she couldn't sleep or eat! Hamlin thought: Finn like Maura, huh? Then she would let him watch that bitch suffer!

That bitch?

Hammer did not notice Maura leaning against the wire wall until now, and immediately understood that she was Finn's wife.

Seeing Maura was injured, but still alive, Hammer felt relieved--it was good that she didn't die. Otherwise, he couldn't couldn't stand up for Hamlin manfully.

"Young Master Chen, don't you want to say something?" Hammer's tone was a little aggressive at the moment. He clearly knew that it must be Hamlin who made trouble for Maura first. So he had no theoretical advantage, and he must pre-empt, overruled Finn in momentum.

"I want to know--why do you want to do this to Maura?" Finn suddenly stared at Hamlin and asked calmly.

Facing Finn's calm eyes, Hamlin couldn't help but shrink her neck. However, when she thought that Hammer was by her side, she had nothing to be scared. She said confidently, "This bitch, she is shameless! She seduced my husband and asked my husband to give her 100,000 yuan a month to support her. How couldn't I teach her a lesson?!"

Finn nodded and turned his eyes to Hammer: "Do you believe it?"

Hammer's heart was complicated--Hamlin didn't know Finn's identity, but he knew it. Finn was the largest shareholder of Dragon's Villa, holding a 39% stake, which meant that Finn at least had five billion yuan. And Finn had other assets, perhaps more than billions. His wife couldn't seduce another man for one hundred thousand yuan with so much fortune.

Even Hammer thought about it; he couldn't say it at that time. He must stand on Hamlin's side. Otherwise, Hamlin's complaint wouldn't make sense.

"Young Master Chen, I don't know Mrs. Chen's character, but I think that since my sister said this, it must not be aimless. Maybe Mrs. Chen indeed did it." Hammer lightly said that. Although his words sound ambiguous, a man with a brain could understand that he was sure about what Hamlin said.

"Well, I understand." Finn nodded his head.

What was "I understand"? Hammer felt a little confused.

In fact, at the moment, only Thomas knew what Finn thought in his heart--Finn was in liquidation!

Finn wanted Hammer and Hamlin to die plainly! At the same time, he also gave himself a reason to kill Hammer and Hamlin!

Poor Hammer! Poor Hamlin! They were still smug, like idiots.

Thomas sighed, at that time, he wouldn't think about helping Hammer, because he was afraid that he would get in trouble too.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 134 Death List

"Steve! Did Young Master Chen's wife seduce you?!" Hammer Du coldly looked at Steve Zhou and asked. The threat in his eyes was self-evident. Finn Chen didn't speak, so Hammer naturally thought that Finn was weighing the pros and cons. Hammer wanted to determine this matter's nature through Steve. Only did this, could he prevail over Finn in theory.

Steve nodded his head and said, "Yes, Hammer. Young Master Chen's wife, she was indeed interested in me. When she first arrived at the hunting park, she hinted that she wanted to be my mistress and get 100,000 yuan a month."

Steve Zhou!

Finn lightly glanced at Steve and added this name to his death list.

Hammer approvingly nodded--Steve Zhou was quite sensible.

"Young Master Chen. Things are now obvious. Your wife seduced Hamlin's husband first so that Hamlin would throw her into the black wolf hole. Although Hamlin was wrong, your wife couldn't escape the blame." Hammer looked selfless.

"Then what?" Finn lightly asked.

"Then?" Hammer raised his eyebrows and said, "Then, Young Master Chen, you have taught Hamlin a lesson, so let's forget it. As for the injury to your wife, I can only say sorry. Besides, I can pay 1 million yuan as compensation to your wife."

A million yuan?!

Many people were quite surprised. Maura's slight injury could be cured at most 10,000 or 20,000 yuan, but Hammer took out one million yuan, which was quite generous.

"Hammer? What do you mean? Do you want to let go of this bastard and that bitch? "Hamlin was angry when she heard this--Finn humiliated her so much, and then didn't Hammer see it? Why did Hammer still choose to compensate Maura one million yuan!

It didn't make sense! Hamlin felt that it was not enough for Hammer to kill Finn and Maura. However, Hammer even lost money to Finn.

Hammer frowned and said, "Hamlin, Young Master Chen is my friend. Let the thing go for my sake."

Thomas Yang shook his head. He already didn't know what to say. Hammer, such a fool, was thinking of letting go of Finn at the moment, instead of asking Finn for mercy. It's a miracle that Hammer had grown to this age and was not stupid to death.

"But, brother ..." Hamlin still didn't want to give up--how could Hammer let Finn go so easily?!

"Be a good girl!" Hammer glared at Hamlin. Finn was, after all, the largest shareholder of Dragon's Villa. Besides, even if Hammer hated Finn, he still needed to respect him for Thomas' sake.

"All right." Hamlin pouted discontentedly and then turned her eyes to Finn. She said viciously, "Smallville, you are lucky this time--my brother pleaded for you. If you dare to offend me next time, even God can't protect you!"

"There is no next time." Finn shook his head, and his tone showed some sympathy.

"What do you mean?" Hammer frowned and felt some uncomfortable. He had been so generous, and he didn't dispute with Finn about Hamlin's injury. Why did Finn still want to make trouble with Hamlin?

Finn did not answer Hammer's question, but asked faintly: "How many people are there in your family?"

Hammer was even more puzzled, but he still endured his anger and replied, "Thirty-eight. What advice does Young Master Chen have?"

Finn nodded slightly, turned to look at Thomas, and said, "Send 38 million to the Du Family later."

Thomas's eyelids jumped, hurriedly nodded, but felt chilled on his back. He naturally understood Finn's meaning.

However, Hamlin didn't understand it. He thought that Finn's move was mainly to be kind. Therefore, he took a proud look at Finn and snorted coldly: "That's almost the same!"

"If you are trying to make amends for Hamlin, you don't have to send 38 million yuan. We don't need the money." Hammer lightly said. He had thought Finn was a tough guy, but now Finn quickly showed weakness to him. How tedious!

Finn smiled: "Do you think my 38 million yuan is to make amends for her?"

"Then, what else?" Hammer raised his eyebrows.

Finn shook his head and said calmly, "My 38 million yuan is to compensate 38 people directly under the Du Family."

Compensation?!

Hammer's face suddenly turned gloomy, at the moment, even if he was silly, he heard the meaning of Finn's words.

"You don't show a little respect to my Du Family, right? Your wife is only bitten by a wolf, not killed. You want 38 people from my Du Family to make amends to your wife. Really? You think my Du Family are fish on the chopping board, and you can do anything you want?" Hammer was livid, asked coldly.

At this time, Thomas stood up and piteously looked at Hammer.

"Hammer, if the wolf kills Mrs. Chen, your 100 million yuan is not enough to make amends to Young Master Chen."

"Thomas, what do you mean?" Hammer's face changed, and he asked.

"Nothing. Do you remember what I said in the conference room?" Thomas shook his head and asked.

Hammer sneered. Of course, he remembered what Thomas said in the conference room. Thomas said that if Maura had an accident, Finn could let the whole Du Family lost lives.

But was this possible?

It's impossible!

The Du Family was a giant in City J. Although it was not among the first-line ranks, it also played an important role in City J. Would the Du Family be destroyed by Finn so easily?

"Well, Thomas. Don't talk nonsense with him." Finn was getting impatient. "Are there any black wolves in the garden?"

"Young Master Chen, the black wolf, is gone." Thomas couldn't help but look at the three black wolves that Finn had pierced their heads with willow leaves not far away. And then he continued, "But there are two Manchurian tigers."

"Well, bring them here." Finn gave the order calmly.

"Yes, Young Master Chen." Thomas dared to refuse. The Manchurian tiger, a treasure-level prey, would naturally be kept by Dragon's Villa. Only when some bosses came, Northeast Tiger would be released for those bosses to hunt on weekdays.

But today, Thomas was clear that Finn released these two tigers, not for hunting, but to make them hunters. It was obvious who would become prey.

"Thomas! You'll help him?!" Hammer showed a terrified expression for the first time. He didn't expect Thomas's attitude to be so firm that Thomas stood on Finn's side without hesitation.

Thomas shook his head and sighed: "Hammer, don't blame me. I'm not helping Young Master Chen, but helping myself."

Help himself? Hammer finally heard the meaning of Thomas's words-- Thomas was afraid of Finn!

Thomas had to take Finn's side!

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 135

Inviting Troubles

Hammer was a little panicked now. He was not afraid of Finn because he thought Thomas would choose to be neutral in situations concerning him and Finn. After all, Hammer had Du's Family's support. No matter how much Thomas valued Finn, he would not offend Du's Family for Finn.

But now, looking at Thomas, he had never considered Du's Family!

The importance of Finn in Thomas's eyes was beyond his imagination!

In fact, the others were dumbfounded at the moment. They realized how respectful Thomas towards Finn.

But who was Thomas?

The young master of City J!

It was not an exaggeration to even call him the number one young master of City J.

Had they ever seen that Thomas talking to people in this tone?

The few young people who stood close to Hammer all left without a trace. Being on the top of the group of people in the rich second-generation social circle of City J, they were not stupid. In the beginning, they did not see anything wrong in Thomas's attitude. So they naturally had to team up with Hammer to stand up to Finn, the largest shareholder.

But now, Thomas's attitude showed that Finn's identity was probably beyond their imagination. Even if they were tied together, they could not stand against Finn!

Greta and Sally were also dumbfounded. When Hammer called Finn Mr. Chen, they still doubted Finn's identity. But now, even Thomas has such an attitude towards Finn. If they still doubted it, then they had to be so stupid!

Just when everyone was guessing Finn's identity, two green army trucks carrying iron cage drove over.

In the iron cage, there were two Siberian tigers as tall as a person. Even if the iron cage separated them from the tigers, everyone could feel the Siberian tiger's ferocity.

Hamlin panicked too. Finn asked Thomas to bring the Siberian tiger over. It was self-evident that Finn wanted to use the same methods he used on Maura on him.

Hamlin looked at Hammer pleadingly and said, "Brother, help me." Maura could escape from the tigers, but she might not have such good luck to escape from them.

Hammer was not happy. He stood in front of Finn again and asked coldly, "Mr. Chen, do you want to fight Du's Family to the last gasp?!"

Hammer moved out of Du's Family's house. He had to move out of their house! Now that Thomas was not on his side, he could only rely on Du's Family!

"Du's Family?" Finn shook his head with a disdainful expression. "You may not have heard what I just said. I asked Thomas to send 38 million yuan to Du's Family, which meant that even Du's Family couldn't stay out of this matter. Everyone in your Du's Family has to suffer the pain Maura felt. So it's not Du's Family who will fight me to the last gasp, but it's me who will fight Du's Family to the last gasp!"

With that being said, everyone became silent!

Before this, everyone except Thomas had no idea why Finn would give Du's Family 38 million yuan, and now they understood!

Finn was helping Maura to vent her spleen. Before that, Hammer said he would compensate Maura with one million yuan for the wound!

However, this was too domineering!

Hammer only said this because Maura was injured. Nevertheless, it had nothing to do with anyone in Du's Family.

Finn was going to let all 38 people in Du's Family feel the pain Maura felt, then give them 38 million yuan!

What kind of domineering style was this!

Hammer flushed. He didn't expect Finn to be this arrogant. He never planned to let Du's Family go from the beginning, which meant that he would punish everyone and get everyone involved.

But, Du's Family had his back!

A family rooted in City J for more than 800 years, with big influence, could even influence the City J's economy. Why was Finn so arrogant!

"Mr. Chen, my sister is just ignorant. Why do you refuse to give her a chance?" Hammer sternly shouted. Now, he didn't dare to gamble if Finn had the power to do it. At this time, he could only admit defeat.

"Ignorant?" Finn's expression suddenly became cold. Think they could escape this matter by saying she was ignorant?

"Mr. Chen, we, Du's Family, will find the best doctor to cure Mrs. Ling's injury. I will also bring Hamlin home this time, punish her, and not let her step outside the house." Hammer said daringly. It was already the biggest concession he could make.

"No, I will treat Maura's injury myself!" Finn waved his hands, coldly.

Finn glanced at Hamlin coldly and said, "As for this vicious woman, don't say I didn't give her a chance. Make her go into the black wolf cave and stay there for three minutes. After three minutes, if she can come out alive, I will put this matter into an end!"

"Impossible!" Hammer's expression changed drastically. There were no black wolves in the black wolf cave now, but there two Siberian tigers. So, making Hamlin stay with the two Siberian tigers was no difference with killing him directly.

"I won't go in!" Hamlin also screamed, tears streaming down his face, standing in fear.

"Impossible?" Finn sneered, and then looked coldly at Hammer, "Then go with her!"

"Finn, how dare you! I'm the only male in Du's Family! Asking me to go in means the end of Du's Family. We, Du's Family, will never let you off!" Hammer shouted sharply with a shocked face. He didn't expect Finn to become out of control like this. Hammer was the heir of Du's Family. Asking him to go inside meant he completely offended Du's Family. Du's Family would fight Finn to the last gasp. There was no turning back.

"Du's Family won't let me off? Do you think I'll let Du's Family off?" Finn asked, lifting his eyelids slightly.

Finn glanced at Thomas and said, "Thomas, do it."

Thomas's scalp was nervous. He couldn't help but glanced at Hammer and asked, "Mr. Chen, Does Hammer...need to go too?"

He meant to plead for Hammer. If Hammer were to go in, Du's Family would be furious and turned into a mad dog and bite everyone. Although Finn was the initiator, he was an accomplice. He could not escape the blame.

Thomas regretted it a bit now. He thought that tying Finn to this ship would bring incredible benefits to Dragon's Villa. Still, he did not think it was simply inviting trouble.

Finn was so cruel! It was true that he did it for Maura, but it wasn't just for that. He got rid of Hammer, this hidden trouble, then "killed the chicken to warn the monkey."

After all, Hammer was showing his dissatisfaction with Finn in the conference room.

"You don't want to?" Finn raised an eyebrow.

Thomas's tone stagnated. At this time, if he said he didn't want to, he would completely offend Finn. Then all the actions he had done to win Finn before would be for nothing?

Thought of this, Thomas gritted his teeth and finally made a decision.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 136 Crazy Hammer

Thomas knew very well that an easily swayed person wouldn't have a good fate. He couldn't please both sides, between Du's Family and Finn, he had to choose one side!

As for choosing which side, Du's Family or Finn, did he still have a choice?

From the moment Finn was introduced to Dragon's Villa, he already had no choice!

Thomas gritted his teeth and walked to Hammer: "Hammer..."

"Thomas!" With a thud, Hammer knelt in front of Thomas, snorting and tearing: "Thomas, forgive me."

Thomas shook his head and said, "Hammer, you shouldn't listen to me."

Hammer laughed sorrowfully. He naturally understood what Thomas meant. Thomas had reminded him many times before that Finn was not easy to deal with, but he did not listen.

"Thomas, can you tell me his true identity?" Hammer asked miserably.

Thomas couldn't help but glance at Finn because he wanted to see Finn's expression. After all, Finn said that everything about him must be kept secret. So he just told Hammer and others secretly, that Finn was related to Chen's Family from City Y. But he didn't dare to say anything specific about Finn, which was also the root cause of Hammer's conflict with Finn in the meeting room.

Finn was expressionless and didn't look at Thomas.

Thomas gritted his teeth, put his mouth near Hammer's ear, and said in a voice that only two people could hear, "Mr. Chen is the only heir to Chen's Family from City Y. It was Mr. Chen who broke Garry and Qing's hands. Mr. Chen himself is also a martial artist, and most likely is a martial artist from Transformed Period!"

Hammer's pupils dilated suddenly!

The only heir of Chen's Family!

And a martial artist from the Transformed Period!

"Hahaha!"

Hammer laughed suddenly, madly. Thomas stared at Hammer. If Hammer dared to say a half-word about Finn, he would shoot and kill Hammer with a single blow.

But Hammer didn't. Hammer just glanced at Thomas calmly and said, "Thomas, help me persuade my parents."

Thomas nodded with a complicated expression. Hammer didn't say persuade them for what, but Thomas understood.

At the next moment, Hammer took a step forward, grabbed the shotgun from the security belt around him, and pointed it at his head. With a bang, a loud gunshot sound, Hammer fell to the ground. His head burst like a watermelon. The ground was red all over.

"Ah! Murder!"

The crowd screamed, then fled like birds.

Finn frowned, and there was a shock on his face. Hammer, a greedy and fearful person, committed suicide. He didn't expect it.

"Brother!" Hamlin screamed, his legs suddenly became weak, then he collapsed to the ground.

Steve on the side was also shaking, completely frightened, Hamme... died just like that?!

The gunfire that pierced the sky also awakened Maura.

"Finn..." Maura was a bit weak. Although she had lost consciousness just now, she knew exactly what happened in the court.

"Maura, how's it going?" Finn's smile returned to his face again. The black wolf bite wasn't deep. He had just used his energy to help Maura stop bleeding, so it was nothing critical.

"I'm much better." Maura's pretty face was still slightly pale, but a smile appeared on her mouth's corners. Just now, she thought she would never see Finn again. But Finn saved her at the last minute.

"Finn, let them go," Maura said again. Hammer was already dead because of her. She didn't want to see Finn sin anymore and didn't want Hamlin and Steve to follow Hammer's footsteps.

Finn frowned, he naturally understood who Maura meant by "them."

It was just...

Finn couldn't help sigh a relief in his heart. Maura was too kind. It was what he liked about Maura the most, but it was also Maura's deadliest weakness.

"Hahaha! Maura! Don't be a hypocrite! I don't need your pleading, just die with me!" Hamlin laughed like crazy, took the speargun next to Hammer's corpse, and pointed it at Maura.

But before the trigger was pulled down, Hamlin flew out like a kite with a broken line. Before she landed, she spat out a mouthful of blood.

Thomas shot with a cold face. He was a martial artist from the late Obvious Period. There was naturally no suspense for him against ordinary people like Hamlin. Hamlin's internal organs directly broke into a foam with a trigger, and there was no chance of surviving...

Finn pursed his lips and didn't speak, but he knew in his heart that Thomas was trying to win his favor. Because Maura had asked him to stop, it was hard for him to do it, but Thomas could do it.

Maura stared blankly at Hamlin, who had fallen to the ground, unable to speak. Even when he was dead, Hamlin's face remained grim. Why did you have to hate yourself like this?

Finn sighed and said, "I'll take you to the hospital." This thing would inevitably leave Maura with a lot of trauma. They needed to find a few psychologists to give Maura psychological counseling.

"Yeah." Maura nodded slightly.

"Maura, I'll go with you." At this moment, Greta suddenly laughed out loud.

Finn gave Greta a cold look, and Greta grinned, saying, "Mr. Chen, there may be a little misunderstanding between Maura and me..."

"Bug off!"

Finn sneered, misunderstanding? Did she thought he was a fool!

Although Finn scolded Greta in public, she didn't dare to be irritated. After all, Finn's identity was obvious. Even Thomas had to treat Finn respectfully. She didn't dare to offend him.

However, Greta regretted it now. She was the first person to interact with Finn. If she didn't act like a snob and give Finn enough respect and even became friends with him at that time, her future would be... Greta didn't dare to think about it, anyway, it was not something Tim could compare with.

But unfortunately, her lack of foresight ruined all this.

She didn't seduce a super god-like Finn but seduced a loser like Tim.

Yes, a loser, after seeing a young master like Thomas calling Finn "Mr. Chen," an elite like Tim with assets over 100 million yuan, immediately became a loser to her.

Sally, hiding in the corner, finally dared to come out after seeing Finn left with Maura in his arms. She witnessed Hammer's suicide, got scared to death, and hid directly in the garden corner. She was afraid of being seen by Finn, afraid of being thrown into the black wolf hole.

She didn't dare to gasp until Finn left.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 137

Situation in City C

"Tim, this Finn, what is his identity?" Sally asked in a whisper. If anyone believed that Finn worked in a food delivery company, then they had to be so stupid. Someone who could be respectfully called " Mr. Chen " by a young master like Thomas couldn't be a food deliverer.

"You ask me. Who do I ask!" Tim said in an angry tone. He was now in an anxious state of mind. After all, Tim offended Finn before.

If Finn wanted to get revenge, it would not be enough even if he had ten lives. As for Finn's identity, he also had some guesses. At least Finn was probably also a shareholder of Dragon's Villa. Moreover, He was the largest shareholder. Otherwise, Thomas would not act that way towards him.

"Tim, Mr. Chen, he won't bother us, right?" Sally asked weakly. She didn't dare to call Finn's name directly now.

Tim sneered, "Now you're afraid, what were you thinking back then? At that time, you ridiculed Mr. Chen, the most sarcasm. If Mr. Chen wants to bother someone, he will trouble you first!"

"Tim, don't scare me, Mr. Chen still has some tolerance, doesn't he?" Sally was almost crying when he heard Tim said this. When she was at Hoki Restaurant, she picked on him and scolded him a lot. She also said Maura was shameless, then Finn slapped him.

The most important thing was that after coming out of Hoki Restaurant, she was still careless. She still ridiculed Finn on the road, that he earned less than one million yuan and couldn't afford the Dragon's Villa membership card. Now when Sally thought about her stupid behavior at the time, her face felt burning hot.

In front of Dragon's Villa's largest shareholder. She said that he earned less than one million yuan, and mocked that he couldn't afford Dragon's Villa's membership card. Even anyone whose head was bumped into the door wouldn't do it.

Tim snorted coldly but didn't say anything. These people were desperate. They could only pray that Finn would not think of them. Otherwise, none could escape.

After sending Maura to the hospital, Finn called Olivia and asked Olivia to rush over from City C.

Although Maura didn't seem to be seriously injured, Finn still had to be careful. After all, Olivia was the last disciple of Sun, a Chinese medicine doctor. In the entire Qiannan Province, no more than three people could surpass her in medical skills.

Three hours later, Olivia came to the hospital and began to examine Maura's wound.

On the hospital bed, Maura had a pale face and a haggard look. Finn felt distressed watching her.

After dealing with Patton's matter, Finn had to send Maura back to City J immediately. Finn thought to himself. He found that City J was a dangerous place for Maura. Maura came to City J, and in just a few days, she countered two life and death crises.

Finn never believed in Feng Shui, but for Maura, he would rather believe it once.

"Young Master, there is nothing serious with Mrs. Chen. She was just frightened. Young Master, it's better to stay with your wife these days." Olivia said respectfully.

"That's good." Finn nodded and said, "How is the situation over there in City C recently? Lowe, is he behaving well?"

"Young Master, the situation in City C is very stable. Lowe has always behaved very well, and never crosses the line. But Shawn's Family..." Olivia stopped talking.

"It's okay, Aunty Olivia, just say it!" Finn frowned.

Olivia said, "Young Master, when his wife left City C, Carl and his sons began to intervene in the Spring Hill project. They contracted several key projects in the Spring Hill project to some local real estate companies for five million yuan. Most real estate companies do not have construction permits. The ones built in the past were all jerry-built projects."

Finn sneered. Sure enough, Carl and Hank would never change. He and Maura only left City C for a few days, and these two already couldn't sit still and began to profit from the Spring Hill project.

Normally, if you wanted to contract several key projects of Spring Hill, it would be 10 million, or even 20 million for each project. However, Carl and his son sold them at a low price of 5 million. It could be seen that they were in a hurry because once Maura came back, they would never be allowed to contract those projects.

Moreover, the companies that sold at low prices were all those without a construction permit. It was conceivable that Spring Hill will be insulted.

"Shane didn't get clear instructions from the young master, so he didn't stop Carl and his son," Olivia said again.

Finn nodded. Shane was, after all, from Chen's Family, not his. In this kind of thing, it was impossible to do his best. But Finn knew in his heart that Carl and Son alone did not have that guts. There must be Scott's acquiescence behind this matter.

It seemed that the old fox Scott was not restless. He wanted to test Finn's limit. Finn could not help but sneer. Okay, when he went back to City C, he would let them know his limit!

Soon after Olivia left, Maura woke up.

Seeing Finn looking at herself tenderly by the hospital bed, Maura couldn't help but cry. Tears came from the corner of her eyes, "Finn, I thought I would never see you again..."

Only through life and death could you understand who was most important to you in this world.

The second the black wolf pounced on her, the figure that emerged in Maura's mind was not Leah or Grant, but Finn.

She could face death calmly, but she couldn't afford to lose Finn.

"It's okay. It's all over." Finn hugged Maura gently and patted her shoulder softly.

At this moment, Laura also hurriedly arrived. Seeing Maura was okay, she was relieved.

"Finn, how did you take care of Maura?" Laura asked with a slap in his face. After Maura came to City J, she first was slapped by Mae Yan. Today she was thrown into the black wolf hole and almost eaten by the wolf. Laura didn't want to be angry. Her good impression of Finn disappeared in just a few days.

"It's my fault. I was careless." Finn admitted calmly. Finn wasn't bothered by Laura's attitude. He was even a little happy for Maura because Laura was not like Greta, the fake friend. She was deeply concerned about Maura.

"Laura, it's not Finn's fault..." Maura smiled bitterly. She didn't mean to blame Finn, because the people she met these days were all the kind of psychopathic weird people. One Mae Yan, one Hamlin. Ordinary people might not have the chance to meet this kind of poisonous woman in a lifetime. But she happened to meet all of them in just a few days after she came.

"What do you mean by it has nothing to do with him? He is your husband. Isn't it just vital for him to protect you!" Laura said with some dissatisfaction, but she knew that these things had nothing to do with Finn. Although Finn did not protect Maura well, he would never let the ones who hurt her off.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 138 The Reaction of Du' Family

Mae Yan just slapped Maura Shawn, and then she was mutilated by Finn. In the end, Harper Qin from Tiger's League came to intercede but failed to save her. Mae's eventual fate was unknown but undoubtedly dire.

Hamlin wasn't just miserable. He was dead.

Although Laura Xu was not present at the time, she heard what had happened. After Thomas Yang said something to Hammer Du, Hammer was so scared that he shot himself. Hamlin Du wanted to kill Maura but was also killed by Thomas.

There were two persons of Du's Family who died within a day; however, up to now, Du's Family had no intention of looking for Finn Chen to take revenge.

The hidden truth was so terrifying that Laura dared not even think about it.

She thought Finn was in control of only a small part of City C, but now it seemed that Finn even in charge of City J, the capital city of Province Q.

Marin Qiao is the president of Tai Long Property Company. And Thomas is the biggest potato of City J. Both of them were the characters Laura needed to look up to, but they were obedient to Finn.

Laura wondered what Finn's real identity was? Why did he stay in Shawn's Family for three years?

Laura shook her head, trying not to think about it. She felt like there was a vast mystery about Finn, and the forces behind it were beyond her imagination.

There was a brooding oppressiveness in the air of Du's Family's manor, and the servant's breath was lightened.

It was unexpected that Hamlin and Hammer, who were still alive yesterday morning, just went to Dragon's Villa and died there.

Knowing that the siblings died, Hammer and Hamlin's mother cried and fainted several times.

Surprisingly, until now, Keen had made no attempt to avenge them, as if the siblings had never existed.

In the hall of Du's Family, all the big shots of Du's Family showed up.

Keen sat at the head of the table, a woman dressed in elegant next to him. She was Lea Fang, wife of Keen.

A few years ago, Lea was also famous for her beauty in City J. But the news last night that her son and daughter had died turned her hair white. Even now, her eyes were red and swollen, and her face was furrowed by the tears.

Ken Du, Kemp Du, and some of the younger members of Du's Family sat below Keen and Lea.

"Keen, is what Thomas said true?" Ken could not help asking as Keen's expression darkened. Thomas came to apologize in person last night. He said Hammer's deaths were related to him, and he was willing to let Keen handle it.

Keen was furious at the time, but his sense kept him from killing Thomas. He knew that Thomas was just a knife in the death of his son and daughter. Finn was the real culprit.

He wanted to send a killer to the hospital to kill Finn, but when Thomas said Finn was a warrior in the Transformed Period, he started to sweat.

A warrior in Transformed Period!

Which killer group dared to assassinate the Warrior in the Transformed Period? Unless the killer organization wants to be killed!

Even if there were killers dared to accept the mission, the reward needed to kill a Warrior in the Transformed Period would be at least 50 billion yuan starting!

And there was no guarantee the killer could kill Finn certainly.

Even if Du's Family went bankrupt, they couldn't afford it.

So Last night, Keen gave up on Finn. What made him even more desperate was what Thomas said later. He told Finn was also the sole heir of Chen's Family.

Even if someone hurt Finn's hair, Du's Family would be killed, not to mention Killed Finn.

Keen sighed and said, "It's true. Thomas couldn't have lied to me about it. That young man is indeed the heir of Chen's Family, and a Warrior in Transformed Period."

As soon as he spoke, the whole hall fell silent.

Chen's Family heir, a warrior in Transformed Period, these two identities were not Du's Family could compete!

"Oh, what a pity." Ken sighed sadly.

But everyone else in the hall sneered and thought Ken was hypocritical. Hammer and Hamlin's death meant that the next leader of Du's Family would be Ken's son. So Ken must be very excited, his grief was just for Keen.

Keen was expressionless, and he could see Ken's insincerity. But there was nothing he could do. As a father, Keen was the most sorrowful. He had raised his children for more than twenty years, but they all died without even seeing him again.

If it was not for the interests of the hundreds of Du's Family, he would have gone to find Finn desperately, even if he was a warrior in the Transformed Period. He would spill his blood on Finn when he died.

But for Du's Family, Keen had to suppress hatred.

"In the future, all Du's Family members, if they meet people in Chen's Family, should give up and avoid conflict with them. This is Du's Family rule. Anyone who violates it will be expelled from Du's Family!" His voice was gaunt, but Du's Family was shocked to hear that.

Sure enough, Keen was not going to avenge and even wanted to be done with the members who avenged!

What a deep hatred! Many people in Du's Family had mixed feelings. Would they be as relaxed as Keen?

"Did you hear what Mr. Du said? Don't provoke that Finn anymore! Otherwise, you need to get out of Du's Family!" Ken snorted.

The young people in Du's Family nodded. Hammer and Hamlin were two big rocks on all the young people in Du's Family before.

For their arrogant behavior, they dare to speak out. They could only secretly call them devils.

Yesterday they died at the same time, but Keen didn't dare to do anything.

For these young people, Finn was more horrible than Hamlin, and Hammer, who touched him, would die!

Even if Ken didn't tell them, they wouldn't dare to provoke Finn!

Thomas quickly told Finn the reaction of Du's Family. Finn was a little surprised. He didn't expect Keen could bear it.

Although Du's Family said they wouldn't take revenge, Finn felt a little uneasy and asked Thomas to keep an eye on Du's Family and reported Du's Family's situation to him.

He was not afraid of the revenge of Du's Family, but Maura was an ordinary person. Any killer could threaten Maura's safety.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 139

Gambling Fight

When Finn Chen was about to return to City C, Jed Li called.

"Master, I've got the results of what you asked me to do."

Finn frowned and then remembered that he had asked Jed to investigate Patton Jin before.

"Say it."

"Patton Jin did participate in a chase three years ago, but I didn't find out the person's identity being chased or the people he was hunting with. According to Patton Jin, the chase offered a reward for the capture of the target.

The target's identity was not mentioned in the mission. And the killers' identities were also secrets to each other. "Jed said truthfully.

"Where is Patton Jin now?" Finn asked, and those who hunted him down three years ago were indeed masked. At the time, he thought all the killers knew each other. But if it was a reward, it was reasonable that they didn't know each other. But even though they were masked, Finn remembered the tricks they used. If they meet again, Finn was confident that he would recognize them.

"Master, Patton Jin is about to take his disciples to the Harry Material Arts Club for a gambling fight at 5 p.m. today," Jed said.

"A gambling fight?" Finn narrowed his eyes. Gambling fight was like making trouble, but the gambling fight was more civilized. Gambling fight did not destroy, but a gamble. Before the battle, the two sides will bet first, who won who would get the bet.

Jed said that Patton Jin took the initiative to make his disciples to the Harry Material Arts Club. That indicated that Patton Jin had confidence in his disciples and was likely to win the bet.

Finn thought if it was him, it wouldn't be likely.

Finn smiled and asked where the Harry Material Arts Club was.

When Jed heard that Finn was going to Harry Material Arts Club, he felt sorry for Patton. He had just become a warrior in the Obscure Period for a few days. Still, before he could congratulate himself, he offended Finn.

At four o'clock in the afternoon, Finn left the hospital on time. After Finn left, a hunchback appeared in the doorway of the ward.

The man was Thomas Yang's bodyguard, Trent Pang, the first master of the Yang family!

The warrior of the middle stage of the Obscure Period could be among the top ten in the martial arts world of City J.

Trent appeared here, not to hurt Maura Shawn, but to protect her.

Finn asked Thomas to send someone to protect Maura. Thomas directly sent his most capable man.

Finn knew about Trent's arrival. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to go to Harry Material Arts Club at this time. With Trent here, even if the Du's family invited an assassination team, they couldn't hurt Maura.

When a Warrior reached the middle and later stage of the Obscure Period, his sensing ability would rise to a very high level. These Warriors could immediately sense any sound within 100 meters.

The Obvious Period judged the state of the warrior by controlling the power of the warrior. The warrior of the early stage of the Obvious Period could produce about 300 kilograms of force in one punch, which was equivalent to the weight of a wild horse. The early stage of Obvious Period's warrior could withstand the onslaught of a wild horse head-on.

The mid-stage warrior's punch was about 600 kilograms. Although 300 kilograms were only half of 600 kilograms, the gap between the early stage and the middle stage was not half in actual combat.

When the warrior reached the later stage of the Obvious Period, warriors with general control of power could have about 900 kilograms of force. In comparison, a well-controlled warrior could reach a force of 1000 kilograms or even 1100 kilograms. One thousand kilograms was already the weight of a small car. It would take seven or eight adults to lift a small car, while the warrior of the later stage of the Obvious Period only needed one hand. This was the difference between the warrior and ordinary people.

Among ordinary people, those who could face the early stage of Obvious Period's warrior without losing were only some of the world's top boxers. Their peak strength was generally around 230, and their use of force was more professional. However, although these boxers could fight against the early stage of the Obvious Period, it was impossible to defeat the warrior of the early stage of the Obvious Period.

The warrior not only had the strength but also had the martial skill, as well as the specialized strength-using way.

Ordinary people couldn't understand these.

Although most warriors are in the same world as ordinary people, the warrior and ordinary people were actually two different worlds!

The martial arts world had a default rule. Once a person became a warrior, he should try his best to interfere with ordinary people's affairs. From that day on, a warrior should use his power to fight for justice and defend the public.

The martial arts world also established the Martial Arts Association to supervise the warrior to prevent them from wrongly dealing with matters. Without their supervision, the world of ordinary people would be messed up.

A few years ago, some warriors of the early stage of the Obvious Period were hiding their identities to participate in the Olympics. In that Olympics, the gold medals of strength events were all won by these warriors, and no one could break the record they set.

Afterward, it attracted strong condemnation from the World Association of Martial Art. The president of the Martial Art Association of Country C came forward to apologize and severely punished those warriors.

In this world, it was not just Country C that had warriors, Southeast Asia, Europe, Country A, Country J, etc. Many countries with long heritage had warriors, but they had different names.

Harry Material Arts Club was located in the suburb of City J. When Finn arrived, only a few young people at the Harry Material Arts Club entrance. They were wearing the clothes of Martial Arts by Harry Material Arts Club.

Finn discovered that even though they were members of the Harry Material Arts Club, none were warriors. The only difference between them and the ordinary persons was that they looked more capable.

Finn was not surprised. It would be tough for an ordinary person to become a warrior without luck. At present, most of these young people were undesirable persons. They might not even know what the warrior was.

These people came to Harry Material Arts Club to learn some martial arts like Taekwondo or Karate. These young people were all students in the branch of Harry Material Arts Club, not core students. Harry Material Arts Club would not teach them real martial arts skills. The reason why the club accepted them was just to earn some money. After all, the warrior also had to live.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 140 Timid Before Fighting

Most martial artists in the martial arts world today were inherited, they were either passed down from sects or families. These sects and families would select extremely talented young children. At the age of five or six, they would begin to immerse in medicinal wine to lay their foundation. At the age of seven or eight, they would begin formal martial cultivation, hardening their bodies and exercising their determination.

As the saying goes: carry out training in the coldest and the hottest parts of the year. Children spend a minimum of twelve hours a day on martial cultivation.

Even with such brutal training, many people could not become martial artists. Only those with good talent could succeed.

One could imagine how difficult the path of martial arts was.

Finn Chen was stopped by a few students as soon as he arrived.

"The martial arts club is closed today, so if you want to sign up for martial arts, you can come back another day." A tall young man said with a smile. Finn wasn't wearing a martial arts uniform, so the youth took him for an ordinary person who wanted to come to Harry Martial Arts Club to learn martial arts.

Finn shook his head, "I'm not signing up, I'm here to find someone from King Kong Martial Arts Club."

"King Kong Martial Arts Club?" The tall youth's tone was suddenly unkind, "Are you from there?"

"No." Finn continued to shake his head, "There are some personal matters between me and Patton Jin that need to be dealt with."

"Then you wait, I'll go and consult the owner."

Inside the martial arts club, an imposing middle-aged man was sitting on a mat. In front of him sat seven or eight serious-looking young men and women in martial uniforms, listening to his lecture.

"Patton was well prepared, and a few of his disciples were already difficult to deal with. Now that he has become an obscure martial artist, his understanding of the martial arts is even higher. So he will teach his disciples even more profound techniques. When you guys go up later, if you can't beat them, just admit defeat, don't take any risks!" The middle-aged man instructed the disciples in front of him with a worried face.

In the past, he and Patton were both martial artists in the later stage of the obvious period, so Harry Martial Arts Club was still on par with King Kong Martial Arts Club. And every year, the two martial arts clubs won and lost their confrontation.

This year, Patton was promoted to the obscure period, so the two clubs were instantly not at the same level.

It was extremely likely that King Kong Martial Arts Club would win this bout.

"Master, can we postpone this match for a few days?" A skinny young man asked. His name was Ryan Feng, Harry Su's youngest disciple. He had just been promoted to the obvious martial artist a few days ago. Other than private sparring, he hadn't fought any martial artist yet. But this confrontation he was going up against, and Ryan simply didn't have the confidence to fight a few of Patton's disciples.

Harry frowned, somewhat disappointed in Ryan. This was a typical timid before a fight, and he had already lost half the battle before it even started. If he competed in this state, Harry was afraid that he wouldn't resist even one move from the other side.

"Ryan, the annual fight against each other is customary and cannot be postponed. And even if it could be postponed, how would the other martial arts clubs talk about us? They will say that Harry Martial Arts Club is afraid and can't afford to lose. What will Master do at that time?" Dash Zhao reprimanded him. And he was Harry's eldest disciple and the only one. He was expected to break through the mid-stage of the obvious period this year, which could be described as an extraordinary talent.

Harry was not optimistic about this match, but he was extremely confident.

"Well, Dash is right, even though we lost, but our momentum is still there. Besides, it's Patton Jin who became an obscure martial artist, it's not his disciples all like this. We might have a chance to win as well." At this time, a young girl wearing a white martial uniform with a hot body said.

Although the young girl was about eighteen or nineteen years old, she was already a slender beauty. Her features were delicate, and her breasts were full, so she was a typical beauty.

As soon as the young girl spoke, several youths' gazes were drawn over to her and looked at her with fiery eyes.

"Juliet is right! It's nothing to be afraid of. We're all the same age and also in the early stages of the obvious period. Could someone from King Kong Martial Arts Club still have an extra leg over us?"

"Exactly. This isn't a fight to the death, so it's fine if we can't beat them and admit defeat."

Several youths spoke up, and everyone's enthusiasm instantly rose.

"Dad, can I participate?" The young girl said laughingly.

"No!" Harry refused without even thinking and harshly criticized her, "It's inappropriate for you to fight and kill! You're a girl."

"Master is right, Juliet. It's fine for us to do such things."

"Juliet, you're so delicate, it would be bad if you get hurt."

The young girl was a little reluctant, "But, I'm also a martial artist."

After the young girl said this, many people were helpless. They were all core disciples of the martial arts clubs, unlike the outside students. They had been cultivated by Harry since they were young and were expected to become martial artists.

But many of them were already in their twenties or even thirties this year. Yet, they were still wandering on the edge of becoming martial artists.

And Juliet Su had become a martial artist at the age of eighteen, which could be called an unprecedented talent. Unfortunately, she was a girl, and compared to male martial artists, female martial artists were still somewhat disadvantaged.

In the martial arts world, male martial artists were the mainstream.

Harry's heart was also feeling sorry for her. If Juliet was a male, with her talent, even if she was in the middle and later stage of the obscure period, she would have great hope. So his position in City J martial arts world would not be as awkward as it was now.

"Alright, this matter is over. You just stand below, no going up." Harry said majestically.

"OK." Although Juliet was dissatisfied with the decision made by Harry, she did not dare to refute it. After all, Harry was not only her father but also the owner of the martial arts club.

At that moment, the tall youth came over.

"Master, there's a man outside who says he's looking for someone from King Kong Martial Arts Club, and from his tone, he seems to know Patton."

"Knows Patton?" Patton was still somewhat famous in City J martial arts world. If the people outside knew Patton, then he had some status as well. It was likely that this person was in the martial arts world who had come to watch the confrontation. Thinking of this, Harry said, "Let him in."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 141 Juliet Su

Finn Chen attracted the attention of most people in the martial arts club as soon as he entered.

Harry Su frowned at Finn. To him, Finn didn't look like a martial artist, and he was so young, how could such a person know Patton Jin?

"You know Patton Jin?" Harry was confused but still polite.

Finn shook his head, "I don't know him yet."

"Then what are you fighting for?" Harry frowned.

"Fight with him." Finn smiled slightly.

Harry was surprised by Finn's words, he wouldn't want to live if he was looking for Patton's fight.

"Oho."

Juliet Su even couldn't help but laugh out loud.

"Do you know who Patton is?" Dash Zhao suspected that Finn was here to cause trouble. Finn wasn't even a martial artist, but he still wanted to fight with Patton. He was afraid that Patton could poke Finn to death with one finger.

"I know." Finn laughed.

"You know nothing!" Dash glared at Finn, "I'll be honest, Patton is not someone you can mess with. If you understand, you should leave our martial arts club quickly and don't cause any trouble."

"I'm here to fight against Patton." Finn was helpless, how come no one believed him.

"To fight? It's more like you're here to die." Dash snorted coldly.

"Hey, uncle. Are you a martial artist?" At that moment, Juliet suddenly said with a smile.

Uncle? Finn touched his nose and was a bit speechless, was he that old?

"Juliet!" Harry stared at Juliet with dissatisfaction. This little girl talked more and more freely, could a martial artist's affairs be revealed to ordinary people casually?

Juliet threw out her tongue and made a face at Finn.

"What grudge do you have against Patton?" Harry could tell that Finn wasn't aimless. But Finn wasn't even a martial artist, so how did he mess with Patton.

"We do have some grudges between us."

"You must take revenge?" Harry raised his eyebrows.

"Yes!" Finn was resolute.

Harry sighed, "Listen to my advice and leave our club quickly. Patton is not someone you can provoke."

"How will I know if I don't try." Finn smiled. He knew Harry's words were naturally for his good. But Harry had also severely underestimated him.

After hearing Finn's reply, Harry was immediately a bit dissatisfied with him. The meaning he wanted to express was so obvious, so why didn't Finn accept it.

"In that case, suit yourself." Harry's tone was slightly cold. If Finn had to do this, he couldn't stop him.

"OK." Finn smiled and walked to the side.

On the other side, Dash, Ryan Feng, and the others were warming up and preparing for the match that was about to begin.

Without anyone paying attention to Finn, Finn just happened to have time to observe the martial club facilities. It had to be said that the practice facilities at Harry Martial Arts Club were still perfect.

Training stakes, sandbags, bench presses machines, and other equipment could be said fully-equipped.

Finn looked towards a sandbag in the center of the club. Although it was called a sandbag, it had departed from the sandbag category.

Because it was not sand that's in the sandbags, it was iron sand.

Yes, iron sand.

It was a sandbag nearly two meters tall, as thick as a bucket, and filled with iron sand.

The sandbag gave people an extremely heavy feeling just by hanging there.

Most of the ordinary sandbags next to it were ten kilograms, twenty kilograms, and thirty kilograms. These ordinary sandbags were for students to practice outside the club.

There were also some fifty kilograms and eighty kilograms of sandbags for martial artists.

And this iron sand sandbag in front of Finn looked like it was about five hundred kilograms. It would be difficult for an average obvious martial artist to shake it, not to mention use it for practice.

"What are you looking at?" At this moment, a clear voice sounded behind him. Finn didn't need to look back to know that it was that clever little girl.

"Looking at the sandbags." Finn faintly said. This kind of iron sand sandbag was also in the martial arts club of Chen's Family. But it was heavier than the one in front of him, reaching a thousand kilograms.

Juliet said, "I know you're looking at the sandbags."

"Then, why are you asking?" Finn laughed.

Juliet gritted her teeth, "Why are you talking like that?"

"What's wrong?" Finn looked startled.

"Nothing!" Juliet stomped her foot in anger. She felt like Finn was an idiot.

"En..." Finn responded and looked at the iron sand sandbag again.

Seeing that Finn was ignoring her, Juliet was a little annoyed. Wasn't she better looking than a sandbag?

She had to make a fool of this idiot! Juliet felt that she should punish Finn for his rudeness.

"Do you want to try this sandbag?" Juliet's eyes rolled around and suddenly said.

"How to try?" Finn stared at Juliet's eyes and smiled playfully.

Being stared at by Finn, Juliet was inexplicably a little guilty. However, she still said, "Try it with your fist. Just like hitting an ordinary sandbag, you'll test out the feel of this iron sandbag by hitting it with your full strength."

"Is that so?" The playfulness in Finn's eyes became even greater. This little girl wanted to tease him and make him embarrassed. One had to know that this was a five hundred kilogram iron sand sandbag. An ordinary person would at least sprain his wrist if he punched it with all his strength, and in more serious cases, he might even break a bone.

After all, this sandbag was filled with iron sand. If you hit the iron sand with your fist, it was equivalent to hitting steel. This would hurt.

"Yeah." Juliet said seriously.

"Well then, I'll try." Finn laughed.

"Haha, come on." Juliet had a glimpse of success in her eyes. If nothing else, Finn would scream in pain from this punch and even sprain his wrist. When the time came, if Finn asked her to send him to the hospital, she would have to refuse and make Finn look bad.

Finn walked up to the iron sandbag and took a look at his fist, preparing to punch.

"Wait!"

Seeing that Finn was standing to punch, Juliet even shouted to stop.

Finn looked at Juliet in confusion, what was wrong with her again.

"Your movements are not standard."

Juliet came up and 'kindly' helped correct Finn's movements, "Hitting sandbags relies on the waist's power. You should plan well your feet first so that your waist can exert power. You don't have the power to hit the sandbags directly standing up."

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 142

Shameful

Finn twitched. "What a ruthless girl," he thought. If he were an average man and believed her lies, Finn would get fractured and immediately hospitalized right after punching. After all, hitting with full energy and hitting with half energy were two different concepts.

"Well, uncle, you can punch it now." A cunning look flashed in Juliet's beautiful eyes. "Idiot. I told you not to be rude to me. I'll make you suffer to death," Juliet thought.

Finn smiled. This little girl was very amusing. But if she wanted to tease him, that wouldn't work. She had to be lucky. When thinking of this, Finn asked with a smile, "If I say I can move this sandbag, do you believe it?"

Juliet rolled her eyes and said: "Uncle, are you kidding me? Do you know the weight of this sandbag? It is 500 kilograms. I just asked you to try the feel of the sandbag. I never thought to let you move the sandbag."

However, there was one more thing that Juliet didn't tell him. Her senior, Dash, who was almost considered a warrior in the middle of the Obvious Period, also couldn't move this iron sandbag, let alone ordinary people like Finn.

"What if I can make it move?" Finn asked.

"If you can move it, you can do anything to me," Juliet blurted out. But after she finished her words, she immediately regretted it. What if this guy asked her to do "it" with him?

No. What was she afraid of? This guy wouldn't be able to make the sandbag move, not even a bit. Thinking of this, Juliet breathed a sigh of relief again. Anyone could talk nonsense.

"Are you sure?"

"Yes!" Juliet bulged her cheeks. She wasn't the kind of person who would shamelessly deny what she promised!

"Well, you better not regret it." Finn smiled and hit the iron sandbag with a punch with his backhand.

Why don't you do..." Juliet wanted to remind Fin to do horse stances before hitting the sandbag. Still, the next second, the swaying iron sandbag made her swallow all her words.

Juliet rubbed her eyes. She must have seen it wrong.

Yes, wrong!

How could this idiot move the iron sandbag that even the senior couldn't move it?

Juliet rubbed her eyes fiercely again, this time, she rubbed them until tears came out, but when she looked at the sandbag, it was still moving!

Although the shaking was not as great as before, it was still shaking.

Juliet had nothing to say now. Although she didn't want to admit it, Finn did hit the 500 kg iron sandbag with one punch.

Seeing Finn looking at him with a shy smile, Juliet's pretty face suddenly blushed.

"Let me make myself clear. Although you won the bet, I want you to know that I'm not an easy girl. If you dare to ask me to do that shameful thing with you, I'll fight you to death." Juliet threatened with her fist.

Finn's expression turned serious. He thought, "Do I look that narrow-minded? A thin girl, like you. You don't have anything to show even with her clothes off. Why would I want to do that shameful thing with you".

Seeing Finn not talking, Juliet was a little proud and felt that Finn must have been intimidated by her.

"Uncle, are you a martial artist?" Juliet rolled her eyes and asked. He didn't expect Finn to hide the fact so good, that even his father Harry didn't realize that he was a martial artist.

"Don't call me uncle, I'm only twenty-five years old," Finn said with a serious expression.

"Twenty-five years old is also an uncle. I'm only eighteen. You are seven years older than me." Juliet said as if it was a matter, of course.

Finn was a little heartbroken. He turned out to be an uncle, even when he was only seven years older.

"Uncle, what kind of martial artist are you? Mid-Obvious Period or late Obvious Period?" Juliet asked, Finn obviously could not be an early Obvious Period martial artist. She felt that he was very likely to be from the late Obvious Period.

He shook his head. When Finn was 17 years old, he crossed the Obvious Period and went for the Obscure Period.

Juliet opened her mouth wide, if not the Obvious Period, could it be the Obscure Period?

How was this possible!

If he were twenty-five years old, then he would be a twenty-five-year-old Obscure Period martial artist? She didn't even dare to imagine!

Because she once heard Harry say that in City J's martial arts world. The fastest warrior to break into Obscure Period was the eldest disciple of The First Fist Sect, Chaucer. He broke through to the early stage of the Obscure Period at the age of 28 and was given the nickname "the best in a hundred years of City J's martial arts world".

If a twenty-eight-year-old were given the nickname "The best in a hundred years," what about Finn? He did it at the age of twenty-five.

No, she had to ask whether this guy was an Obscure Period martial artist!

"Uncle, are you an Obscure Period martial artist?" Juliet asked again. If Finn nodded, then what she saw might be the vilest genius of City J's martial arts world in thousands of years.

Unexpectedly, Finn shook his head again. He stayed in Xia's Family's house for three years. Although it was the worst three years in his life, he also spent those years practicing with the fastest speed.

Seeing his denial, Juliet was relieved. She knew it. If this fool was an Obscure Period martial artist, wouldn't it mean that he was a hundred times stronger than her?

"Wait. You said that you are not from the middle of the Obvious Period, nor from the later Obvious Period, let alone from the Obscure Period, then how did you hit the iron sandbag?" Juliet immediately reacted. That iron sandbag weighed 500 kg. Martial artists from the early stage of the Obvious Period had a strength limit of 300 kilograms. Logically speaking, he should not be able to move iron sandbags.

"Could it be that you are the legendary born with power?" She said hurriedly before Finn opened his mouth. Harry once said that there were people who were naturally born several times stronger than their peers. Once they became martial artists, they would have a greater advantage than others, especially in strength.

Finn smiled, neither confessing nor denying it. Since Juliet had figured out the excuse for him, he didn't have to fabricate one.

Finn didn't answer, so she naturally thought he confirmed it.

"Uncle, you are twenty-five years old, but still in the early Obvious Period. You have to work hard. I broke through to the early Obvious Period when I was 18 years old. When I am twenty-five years old, the same age as you, perhaps I can all breakthrough to the Obscure Period." Juliet's tone was a bit flaunting. Of course, the so-called breakthrough to the Obscure Period was purely bragging. Even if she was a genius, a breakthrough to the Obscure at the age of 25 was also impossible.

The martial artist training was getting harder and harder. It was also common for some martial artists to be stuck at one level for decades.

Like Harry, who broke through to the late Obvious Period at the age of thirty-two, he was fifty years old this year, but he was still in the late Obvious Period. He had been stuck in the late Obvious Period for 18 years!

"Then, should I congratulate you in advance?" Finn smiled. This little girl liked to brag. If ordinary people didn't have the talent and the support of famous teachers and resources, reaching the late Obvious Period at the age of twenty-five was simply a dream.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 143 Thank You Uncle

The reason why he was able to break through the obscure that fast was because of his terrifying talent. But on the other hand, it was also because of his master, Garrett Xiao! He was a martial arts giant in China!

Under the guidance of Garrett Xiao, Finn Chen had fast-forwarded his growth by ten years.

It proved the importance of having a famous teacher.

"There is no need to congratulate me, but if I break through the obscure, I will protect you if you come to find me." Juliet Su waved her hand "modestly".

"Well, it is a deal." Finn Chen smiled. This little girl was quite thick-skinned.

Seeing that Finn Chen flattered her, Juliet Su was a little embarrassed. This dummy would not really believe her words, right?

She thought: Can I trick him into taking the stage for Harry Martial Arts Club and fighting the people of King Kong Martial Arts Club? Juliet Su turned her eyes to Finn Chen again. Finn Chen's strength as a martial artist was no doubt.

To be able to move 500 kg of sandbags, he must be slightly better than her senior brother. If Finn Chen were to replace Ryan Lu, the victory rate of Harry Martial Arts Club would increase drastically.

"Uncle, I have promised to protect you. You have to repay me a little bit, don't you think?" Juliet Su smiled.

Finn Chen stared blankly.

"What do you want me to do?" Finn Chen questioned.

"Ahem, it is simple. Soon, our martial arts club will have five-on-five matches with King Kong Martial Arts Club. You can fight one match for our Harry Martial Arts Club." Juliet Su proposed.

"What if I lose?" Finn Chen did not agree right away.

"It will not matter if you lose. We will lose anyway." Juliet Su looked indifferent.

Finn Chen nodded slightly. It seemed that even Harry Martial Arts Club had no confidence in this match.

"What do you think?" Juliet Su's eyes were full of expectation.

"OK, I can fight for your martial arts club." Finn Chen uttered after pondering. He was free anyway. Fighting for Harry Martial Arts Club would be an adequate warm-up before killing Patton Jin.

"Hee Hee, uncle, thank you." Juliet Su's beautiful eyes formed a crescent moon shape.

Finn Chen shook his head and smiled.

"Uncle, you wait here. I'll tell my father." Juliet Su skipped away, she came to Harry Su: "Dad, I found you an expert, he promised that he will fight for our martial arts school."

"An expert?" Harry Su stared at Juliet Su suspiciously. What expert did his daughter know?

"It is the uncle who just came in and said he wanted to fight with Patton Jin. Dad, you do not know how powerful that uncle is ... " Juliet Su chattered on and on. She was trying to tell Harry Su that Finn Chen could move the sandbag.

But before she finished her words, Harry Su coldly said: "Nonsense! That boy is not an expert! He is not even a martial artist! "

Juliet Su explained: "Dad, he is a martial artist, and he is..."

"Junior, I think that boy has fooled you. I have seen most of the strong martial artists in City J's martial arts circle, but I am not familiar with this boy." Dash Zhao interrupted.

In his opinion, Finn Chen was probably drooling over Juliet Su's beauty. He said that he wanted to fight with Patton Jin to attract Juliet Su's attention. A pure girl like Juliet Su was easy to trick.

"Senior..."

"That is enough! Let your senior brothers fight! " Harry Su made a decision. After that, he took another look at Dash Zhao and said, "Dash, you should keep an eye on that boy. Do not let that boy make trouble."

"Yes, master." Dash Zhao nodded respectfully. If they really let a non-martial artist like Finn Chen to fight for them. Harry Martial Arts Club would have no honor.

After Harry Su finished speaking, he left to welcome the men from King Kong Martial Arts Club.

"Junior, get the boy out of here. If you don't, do not blame me for being rude to him." Dash Zhao said lightly.

Juliet Su pouted her lips, stamped her feet, and left.

At the gate of Harry Martial Arts Club, a middle-aged man in a black robe stood with his hands on his back. Behind the middle-aged man, there were more than a dozen youths of different statures.

The middle-aged man was Patton Jin, and the youth behind him were his disciples.

Looking at the flamboyant calligraphy of Harry Martial Arts Club in front of him, Patton Jin had no expression on his face, but his disciples were all disdainful.

At this time, Harry Su took Ryan Lu and several people out.

"Congratulations, brother Patton, you have broken through the obscure! You are a great addition to the martial arts circle of City J!" Harry Su began to flatter.

"Brother Harry, you are too kind. I am mediocre." Patton Jin said with a faint smile. Although he was very modest in his words, his face was full of pride.

"Haha, brother Patton, why so modest?" Harry Su laughed.

"Brother Patton, dinner has been prepared. If you don't mind, let's eat first." Harry Su smiled.

"Brother Harry, don't worry about the dinner. The match should come first." Patton Jin waved his hand.

"Brother Patton, there is nothing more important than eating. Your disciples will not be able to display their strengths if they are hungry. How can they fight with my disciples?" Harry Su said with a smile.

"Master Su, you think too highly of your disciples. Do we need to eat to defeat them?" Behind Patton Jin, a young man with fair skin spoke. He implied that they could defeat Harry Su's disciples either way.

Harry Su forced a smile. Ryan Lu and the several people clenched their fists in anger.

"Master Su, let's do the match first. In any case, it won't take us ten minutes to finish the fight. We can still have dinner on time. The food will not be cold." Another person called out. He meant that the people of Harry Martial Arts Club could not fight with them for more than ten minutes.

Patton Jin heard the taunts of his several disciples, but he didn't stop it. After all, he has broken through the obscure. Harry Su was no longer of the same level as him. He didn't need to be polite to Harry Su.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 144 Profit

Seeing that Patton Jin didn't mean to care about his disciples, Harry Su was more angered. However, he couldn't get angry in front of so many people, so he suppressed the anger in his chest and calmly said, "Let's do the match first, and then we'll have a dinner after."

Then they entered the martial arts club.

Harry Su saw Finn Chen standing with Juliet Su. Suddenly, Harry Su forgot all about his anger and looked at Dash Zhao: "Why is the boy still here? Didn't I tell you to drive him away? "

Dash Zhao stared blankly. His junior didn't drive the boy away.

"Master, I will kick him out." Dash Zhao prepared to go to the boy.

However, Harry Su waved his hand: "Forget it, let him stand here and watch. He should know how much he has overestimated himself after watching the match."

"Yes, master." Dash Zhao nodded. Harry Su wanted to save Finn Chen. If Finn Chen knew how terrifying Patton Jin's disciples were, he surely would not wish to fight Patton Jin.

"Uncle, it's starting. Let's go and see." Juliet Su was excited. She hugged Finn Chen's arm and ran to the arena.

Feeling Juliet's plumpness on his arm, Finn Chen felt helpless. Didn't this girl understand the boundaries between men and women?

The arena was in the center of the martial arts club. Because it was for martial artists, it was much larger than an ordinary boxing ring. It was more than 50 square meters. Moreover, the floor layered with solid steel. Even if the fighters used all their strength, they would not leave any trace on the floor.

There were many seats around the arena, but at the moment, only Harry Su and Patton Jin were seated. Their disciples lined up behind them.

Harry Su and Patton Jin talked and laughed, while their disciples arranged their match order.

Five people from each side would fight in a one-on-one competition. They took turns to enter the stage. The loser would step down, and the winner could choose to stay and fight the next opponent, or step down and let his teammate replace him.

The rules were simple.

And the bet between the two sides was not money, but the area to recruit students in City J.

The winner could recruit students in more areas of City J and expand the scale of their martial arts club. The loser could only give up their recruit area.

They have gambled quite often, so they quickly decided to bet on the recruit area this year.

After that, Dash Zhao took the agreement to Harry Su, and Patton Jin's eldest disciple gave a copy to Patton Jin. Only after the two sides signed it, could the bet take effect.

Harry Su glanced at the agreement. When he was about to sign his name, Patton Jin said: "Brother Harry, you and I have been competing for the majority of our life. Those recruit areas are mine this year, and they will become yours next year. Don't you think this is boring?"

"You mean you want to add another profit for the bet?" Harry Su understood Patton Jin in an instant.

Patton Jin nodded, then glanced at Juliet Su, who was talking with Finn Chen not far away. He asked with a smile, "Brother Harry, does your daughter have an engagement at the moment?"

"Juliet?" Harry Su was nervous. Could it be that Patton Jin took a fancy to his daughter?

"The girl is not engaged." Harry Su bravely opened his mouth. It was impossible to trick Patton Jin. After all, this kind of thing could be found out by investigation.

Patton Jin nodded slightly and said, "My son is single at the moment."

"What is Brother Patton suggesting?" Harry Su was relieved to hear that Patton Jin was talking about his son. Although his son was not a martial artist, he was very talented in business.

His son had started his own business at a young age, and his company was listed in the United States a year ago. He could be a suitable match for his daughter.

"Brother Harry, I think it will be beneficial if our children get married." Patton Jin said his intention. He was aware of Juliet Su's talent. If she were a man, countless martial artists in City J would fight so that she could be their disciple.

However, because she was a woman, Juliet Su didn't get visited often. Nevertheless, Patton Jin wanted to give it a try. He didn't care about gender. If Juliet Su married into his family, Patton Jin could train her. That way, he would not have to worry about no one protecting his family after he died.

"Brother Patton, I approve of this marriage. However, nowadays young people prefer free love. It is unlike our times, when parents were free to decide, so I'd like to ask my daughter's opinion on this matter." Harry Su said with a smile.

He didn't refuse this idea, since the Jin family could become one of the top families of City J in the future. If Juliet Su could become part of the Jin family, it would be a great climb.

However, Harry Su couldn't be too proactive in this matter. At least he couldn't promise Patton Jin that Juliet Su would marry into their family right away. Otherwise, it would show Harry Su's inferiority.

That's why Harry Su said he wanted to ask Juliet Su's opinion first.

Soon, Harry called her daughter.

"Hello, uncle Jin." Juliet Su smiled sweetly. She had always been a fair maiden in front of outsiders.

"Hello, Juliet." Patton Jin nodded with a smile. He was satisfied with Juliet Su.

She was beautiful, cheerful, and pure. She also had talent in martial arts. Such a daughter-in-law was hard to find.

"Dad, what are you looking for me for?" Juliet Su turned her eyes to Harry Su.

Harry Su beat around the bush, "Juliet, have you seen uncle Jin's son?"

"Uncle Jin's son?" Juliet Su frowned and shook her head: "I think I have seen him once. "

"What do you think of him?" Harry Su asked.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 145 Awful Uncle

"He is not much." Juliet Su was very direct. She liked masculine men. However, Patton Jin's son was an effeminate man. Although he was handsome, he wasn't her type.

Patton's face stiffened. He thought: This little girl is very straightforward, huh?

Harry Su was also a bit embarrassed, and so he suggested: "Juliet, uncle Jin's son is an excellent man. He has his own business at a young age. His company was listed in the United States last year."

"Dad, you don't want to marry me to him, do you?" Juliet puffed her cheek and asked. No matter how stupid she was, she could understand the meaning of Harry's words.

"Ahem," Harry coughed and said, "Juliet, you are no longer a child. It's time to think about your future. Uncle Jin's son..."

Before Harry finished speaking, Juliet interrupted: "Dad, what do you mean I'm no longer a child? I'm only 18 years old this year. Besides, uncle Jin's son is not my type."

Patton seemed dissatisfied. Juliet didn't even look up to her son?

Despite the lack of martial arts talent, nothing was lacking from his son.

Harry glared at Juliet and reasoned, "Juliet, how can you say that?! Uncle Jin's son is a giant among men. Do you know how many girls wanted to marry him? How can you be so stubborn about this? "

"Dad!" Juliet stamped her feet and shouted. She didn't expect that her father would use such a tone to talk to her.

"All right." Harry realized that he had raised his voice and calmed himself. He then added: "You are allowed not to marry uncle's son if your senior brothers win the match."

He wanted to remind Juliet that Harry Martial Arts Club was in a compromised position. If Harry were to offend Patton, Harry Martial Arts Club would only suffer more in the future. He hoped that Juliet could understand his difficulties.

He also wanted Patton to know his sincerity. He agreed with the marriage, but he couldn't do anything if Juliet didn't agree. If Patton wished for Juliet to marry his son, King Kong Martial Arts Club must win the match.

Harry believed that Patton should be able to see his sincerity. After all, the success rate of the King Kong Martial Arts Club was almost 80%.

"Dad, can I ask for outside help?" Juliet asked.

"Outside help?" Harry was confused for a moment, "Is it that kid from earlier?"

"Yes, it is that uncle." Juliet nodded. She had no choice but to place her faith in Finn Chen. She also knew that Harry was helpless.

"Is he a martial artist?" Harry was suspicious, but Juliet seemed very confident in Finn. Why was she so confident in him? He didn't look like a martial artist at all.

"He is a martial artist!" Juliet affirmed.

"Brother Patton, look..." Harry turned his eyes to Patton, seeking his response. After all, Finn was not a member of the Harry Martial Arts Club. It would be against the rules if Finn were to fight for Harry Martial Arts Club.

"Haha, brother Harry, since the girl is so confident in her friend, let him fight." Patton said with a bright smile.

"However, Juliet, if your Martial Arts Club loses, then you must marry my son." Patton smiled at Juliet.

"Uncle. Don't worry. If he loses, I will marry your son." Although she didn't know Finn, she had an unspeakable trust in him.

"Good!" Patton readily agreed.

Then Juliet went to Finn. She stared at Finn miserably and pleaded, "Uncle, you must help me."

"What's the matter?" Finn was confused.

"My father had a bet with Patton and made me the prize. He said that if the King Kong Martial Arts Club win the match, I must marry Patton's son." Juliet explained.

"And you don't want to marry him?" Finn raised his eyebrows.

Juliet nodded in a hurry: "Uncle, you don't know how girly Patton's son is. I really don't want to marry him."

"Uncle, if you don't help me, I'll buy a ticket to Africa. " Juliet added.

"Why are you going to Africa?" Finn didn't understand her.

"To run away from the marriage, obviously!" Juliet added, "Anyway, I can't marry him no matter what. If King Kong Martial Arts Club win, I'll run to Africa. I don't think they can catch me there."

Finn didn't know how to respond.

"Uncle, do you have the heart to see a beautiful girl like me go to Africa alone?" Juliet stared at Finn with her puppy eyes.

"I can bear with that, why can't I?" Finn seemed serious.

Juliet was speechless: "Oh! You are awful, Uncle! I won't talk to you anymore!"

"Okay. Okay. I was just teasing you. Since it has come to this, I'll defeat the King Kong Martial Arts Club today." Finn smiled.

"Really?" Juliet stared at Finn suspiciously and said, "Uncle, you are not bragging, right? I asked my senior brothers, and they said that some of Patton's disciples had broken through the Mid-level of Obvious Period."

"The mid-level? Is that strong? " Finn laughed playfully.

"Uncle, you are only at the Low-Level." Juliet pouted her lips. Now she felt that Finn was a little unreliable. Every time a martial artist broke into a different level, the difference in their power would be overwhelming.

Usually, a Mid-level Obvious Period martial artist could fight against three Low-Level Obvious Period martial artists without losing ground.

Only a few talented martial artists could fight people who are at a higher level than himself.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 146 Finn Fights Last

"So what? You think I can't defeat mid-level Obvious Period martial artists?" Finn Chen asked.

Perhaps Juliet Su thought there was an insurmountable distance between the low-level and the mid-level Obvious Period. But for him, it was non-existent, because Garrett Xiao trained him to be invincible regardless of class.

So the levels were meaningless to him.

"Okay, Uncle. I believe you. You can defeat a mid-level Obvious Period martial artist." Juliet laughed in delight, but she had decided not to bet on Finn. If it seemed that he couldn't win, she would book a ticket to Africa and leave City J that night.

Finn saw the distrust in Juliet's eyes, but he didn't want to address it. Everything would reveal itself at the arena.

“Uncle, let’s go. The match is about to begin.” Juliet took Finn’s sleeve and pointed at the arena.

Although Dash Zhao still didn’t believe that Finn was a martial artist, they decided to let Finn replace Ryan Lu. Finn was the last fighter.

They made Finn the last to fight, not because they respected him, but it was to hope that Finn would retreat after watching the first four matches.

Harry Martial Arts Club’s first fighter was Ryan, the second-best disciple of Harry Su.

Ryan was one of the best fighters among the disciples of Harry Martial Arts Club, second only to Dash.

They let Ryan fight first to hope that Harry Martial Arts Club could have a good start. After all, the result of the first battle could affect the team’s morale.

“Ryan is on the arena. As long as it is not Herb Duan and Quill Chang, Ryan should be able to win the first match.” Juliet analyzed, since she knew the fighters of both sides quite well.

Ryan had been in the low-level of the Obvious Period for five years, but even so, he had plenty of combat experience.

Herb and Quill were Patton’s best disciples. Herb was in the mid-level of the Obvious Period, and Quill was in the low-level of the Obvious Period.

Herb could beat anyone in the Harry Martial Arts Club, and although Quill was in the low-level Obvious Period, he had more combat experience than Ryan. Ryan had less than 30% chance of winning against him.

Harry Martial Arts Club hoped that Herb and Quill didn't fight first, so that at least they could win one match.

That's right, one match.

They only hoped not to lose five matches in a row, so that Harry Martial Arts Club would still have a bit of honor.

They didn't care if the defeat of Harry Martial Arts Club would cause Juliet to be married, because they know very well that Harry desired it.

Soon, the King Kong Martial Arts Club also sent a person to the arena. He was a short and shrewd man, not Herb or Quill.

Seeing the man on the arena, Juliet was jubilant: "It's Sawyer Zhang!"

"Uncle, Ryan's victory is decided. Sawyer is the fifth-best disciple in the King Kong Martial Arts Club. He didn't stand a chance against Ryan last year."

Finn shook his head. It was too early to decide.

Perhaps Ryan's strength overwhelmed Sawyer last year.

However, it was apparent that Sawyer had vastly improved. He was calm and confident, and his strength had almost reached the mid-level of the Obvious Period.

Ryan, on the other hand, remained stagnant all these years.

If they were to fight each other, Ryan would not last long.

Juliet couldn't see all this. Even the whole Harry Martial Arts Club, including Harry himself, thought that they had won the first match.

On the arena, Sawyer was expressionless, while Ryan, was overjoyed.

"Sawyer, don't worry. I will go easy on you this year." Ryan smiled.

Last time they fought, Sawyer didn't want to recognize his defeat, which resulted in Ryan accidentally breaking two of Sawyer's ribs. They said that Sawyer could only lie in bed for two months after that.

Sawyer sneered: "Suit yourself, Ryan! Just be careful not to die!"

Ryan was confused, "What do you mean?"

"You'll find out in a moment. " Sawyer uttered coldly. After last year, Sawyer had carved Ryan's name into the head of his bed, to remind himself of that shameful match.

He might not have made the fastest progress in the past year, but he was definitely the one who practiced the most!

Now he had increased his strength to 350 kg, and with Patton's additional guidance, he was one of the best low-level Obvious Period martial artists.

Ryan was a fool to underestimate him.

"Ready, fight!" With Dash's signal, the match officially began!

Ryan was the first to strike. He stamped his foot onto the ground and lunged at Sawyer like a sharp arrow.

"Gaudy, but useless!"

Sawyer sneered. He quickly hit Ryan with his fist.

The iron fist broke through the air and hit Ryan's.

Ryan was shocked. He thought: Why is he so strong?!

He felt that Sawyer's blow had eliminated his room for maneuver!

In a hurry, Ryan subconsciously turned his head and tried to avoid Sawyer's overwhelming punch.

However, Sawyer seemed to have predicted this. At the moment Ryan turned his head, he turned his fist into a palm.

A clear slap sound rang through the arena.

Sawyer slapped Ryan's face. Ryan spat out four or five bloody teeth from his mouth.

A five-fingered bloody handprint appeared on his handsome face.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 147 Three In A Row

Disgrace!

Sawyer Zhang chose to disgrace Ryan Lu in this match.

Ryan boiled with wrath.

"I will kill you!" Ryan cried and dashed towards Sawyer once again.

Sawyer smirked in disdain. He plunged the back of his hand into Ryan's abdomen.

"Cough!"

A mouthful of blood drooled on the ground.

Ryan retreated and bumped into the fence surrounding the arena.

"Ryan!"

"Brother Lu!"

Dash Zhao and Harry Martial Arts Club's members were all flabbergasted.

Too strong!

Sawyer was too strong!

Ryan couldn't even parry his attacks!

How could this happen?

How could he surpass Ryan in just one year?

Harry Su's expression was dreadful. He realized that he had lost to Patton in teaching his disciples.

"Will you surrender?"

Sawyer approached Ryan and stared him down.

"I will not!" Ryan quickly got up on his feet to attack Sawyer.

Sawyer sneered and thrust his foot on Ryan's chest.

There was a crack sound.

Ryan rolled away from Sawyer. He felt some of his ribs broke.

"Enough!" Dash flew to the arena.

"Sawyer, Ryan had lost this match!"

"I don't think that counts." Sawyer glowered at Dash. Although Dash was Harry's strongest disciple, he was not afraid at all.

"You have done enough!" Dash shouted.

It was obvious. Sawyer wanted Ryan to admit defeat by himself.

But if Ryan admitted defeat, he would have no honor!

"Enough?" Sawyer sneered, "Do you know how many of my ribs he broke last year?"

Dash's face shifted. Ryan was indeed ruthless last year. No wonder Sawyer hated him.

"Ryan was wrong last year..." Dash tried hard to explain.

Sawyer waved his hand and uttered coldly: "Well, that's enough talking. Let's proceed to the next match."

"Yes." Dash took a deep breath. After this, Sawyer might become Ryan's demon. If Ryan couldn't defeat Sawyer, he would live in Sawyer's shadow all his life.

"Who's next?" Sawyer challenged the Harry Martial Arts Club members under the arena. He was determined to defeat all of them alone.

"Me!"

Dash called out. Since Ryan couldn't defeat Sawyer, only Dash could fight against him.

"Brother, defeat him for me!" Ryan yelled bitterly.

Dash only frowned.

If Dash were in the mid-level of the Obvious Period, Sawyer might be a little afraid. But Dash was in the low-level of Obvious Period, so he stood tall.

Juliet Su was full of anger: "Brother Dash will teach him a good lesson!"

Finn Chen shook his head and smiled: "Who will teach who?"

"What do you mean, Uncle? Is brother Dash not a match for that guy?" Juliet asked. She pondered: Dash is the best fighter in Harry Martial Arts Club. Sawyer is not on the same level as him, right?

Finn sighed: "Just keep watching."

After Finn said that, the match started.

Dash's martial art style was far different from Ryan's.

However, Sawyer was not weak. His fist was quick and full of force. Sawyer pushed Dash back again and again.

After a few moves, he knocked Dash out of the arena.

“Dash!”

The disciples of Harry Martial Arts Club rushed to help Dash.

Juliet couldn't believe what she saw. Finn was right, but how did he know?

Sawyer looked arrogant, “Who's next?”

“I'll do it!”

Askey Sun, Harry's third-best disciple, called out.

Sawyer had humiliated Harry Martial Arts Club this time. He had singlehandedly defeated their two best disciples.

“You are not my match.” Sawyer snorted.

“Bullshit!” Askey jumped onto the arena and lunged at Sawyer.

However, Sawyer was indifferent. He took a step forward. With a stroke of his fist, he defeated Askey.

One strike!

Askey failed miserably!

Harry Martial Arts Club members were all pale. Their three best disciples were strung up by Sawyer alone!

Three in a row!

"Uncle, is this guy on drugs?" Juliet stamped her feet in anger. If Sawyer were this strong, how strong were Herb Duan and Quill Chang?

"It's over, uncle. I think I will have to go to Africa." Juliet was flustered and began to talk to herself.

"I haven't even fought yet. What's the hurry?" Finn yawned lazily.

"Uncle!" Juliet rolled her eyes. "Even Dash can't handle that guy, and even if you can beat him, there is still Herb and Quill."

"Well, I'll buy the plane ticket soon." Juliet seemed hopeless.

Finn only responded with a smile.

"Who else?" Sawyer put his hands behind his back.

Although Sawyer was arrogant, it was understandable, because no one in Harry Martial Arts Club could fight against him.

The fourth-best disciple, who should have been on the arena, dropped his head. He was scared stiff!

Losing his honor was a small matter. What he was afraid of was that Sawyer could seriously injure him.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 148

Thrown Away!

"No one dares to go?" Sawyer raised his eyebrows. How come the people in Harry Martial Arts Club were so embarrassing?

Harry was so embarrassed. Although he had expected that they would lose today's martial arts fight with King Kong Martial Arts Club, he did not expect that it would be this embarrassing.

It took only Sawyer to throw the entire Harry Martial Arts Club to the ground. There was even a scene where no one dared to fight.

Harry sighed and prepared to admit his defeat. Things had reached this stage. There was no need to continue. The mentality of the Harry Martial Arts Club had been crushed.

"Let me go."

But at this moment, a voice from outside the court could be heard. Harry paused and admitted defeat.

When everyone looked back, they saw a young man smiling.

"Why is this kid here?" Everyone in the Harry Martial Arts Club was shocked. The people in the King Kong Martial Arts Club didn't know Finn. They knew that Finn made a rant just half an hour ago, saying that he wanted to fight Patton. At that time, they only thought that something was wrong with his brain.

Now it seemed that something had got into his head. After seeing such a cruel Sawyer, Finn not only didn't flee in a hurry, but he also wanted to challenge him.

"Uncle, are you sure you want to fight against him?" Juliet opened her mouth wide and asked in amazement. She still had some feelings for him. Before asking Finn to help, she was just thinking about letting Finn play for Ryan. If the strength between the Harry Martial Arts Club and the King Kong Martial Arts Club were even, to increase their winning percentage.

The King Kong Martial Arts Club's strength had completely outstripped the Harry Martial Arts Club. Sawyer had defeated the Harry Martial Arts Club members all by himself.

At this time, Finn's most sensible choice should be to protect himself, directly admit defeat, rather than challenge him. Even if he could defeat Sawyer, there were four other disciples in the King Kong Martial Arts Club. Could it be he could defeat them all?

But was this possible?

Impossible!

Because Herb and Quill were much stronger than Sawyer, especially Herb, a martial artist in the mid Obvious Period, what would Finn do to fight him!

"If I didn't go up, someone would go to Africa to do the hard work," Finn said with a smile. Actually, he could directly fight against Patton. There was no need to fight against Sawyer and those ants. But directly killing Patton was meaningless. He had to give that old man a 'surprise'.

Juliet's pretty face blushed, and she said, "Uncle, you don't need to go up. I'm prepared to lose."

Her preparation was naturally a ticket to Africa. Juliet did not expect Finn to win. He couldn't defeat the King Kong Martial Arts Club alone.

Finn smiled and said nothing.

Juliet still felt a little guilty. After all, he came to fight for her. What if he got hurt?

"Uncle, what's your chance of winning?" Juliet couldn't help but ask. If Finn's chance of winning were not high, she would force him to stop.

Finn paused and spoke slowly, "Ten percent."

Ten percent? !

She was lost for words. In this crucial time, Finn unbelievably had the mood to joke around.

Everyone in the court was even more stunned. It was only ten percent.

Harry also shook his head. Honestly, he still had a little hope for him, but after Finn said that, his last hope was gone.

Finn was a typical arrogant and conceited man. It would be strange if he had real power.

"Harry, your daughter's friend, is a bit interesting." Patton also joked. He hadn't met such a brainless person like Finn for a long time.

Harry paused. He wanted to say that Finn had originally planned to fight Patton. But when the words reached his mouth, he swallowed them back. After all, Finn was now a member of the Harry Martial Arts Club.

Finn walked up to the stage slowly.

"Boy, you are crazy," Sawyer snorted coldly. Even Ryan did not dare say that he could win 100%, but Finn directly said that he had a 10% chance.

He didn't take Sawyer seriously at all.

"I'm just telling the truth, why am I crazy?" He sighed helplessly. He was a Transformed Period martial artist who would fight against a martial artist from the early Obvious Period. If he still lost, he could hit himself to death.

To be honest?

Sawyer was lost for words. Okay! Very well!

I would let you continue telling the truth!

Sawyer's eyes flashed a deadly look, and in the next second, he kicked abruptly, and his whole body shot at Finn with extremely high speed.

Finn, however, did not move at all, as if frightened and stupid, and stayed in place.

Upon seeing this, everyone in Harry Martial Arts Club couldn't help but sigh. Sure enough, he was a brainless guy.

"Where did Harry Martial Arts Club find this idiot?"

"I don't know. He doesn't even look like a martial artist. I think Sawyer's punch can directly kill him."

"The people in Harry Martial Arts Club are also stupid. They asked an ordinary person to come on stage. This fight will cost lives. People from the martial arts association would go to their place to make trouble."

Many disciples of the King Kong Martial Arts Club were discussing.

Herb and Quill yawned, got up, then left. They thought there was no need to watch the battle.

There was only one thing waiting for Finn in the end, and that thing was Sawyer's fist, which would make him hospitalized for several months.

"Boom."

There was a loud noise from the ring.

Then, the audience was quiet!

A needle dropping could even be heard.

Herb and Quill, who had turned around and walked a few steps, were stunned. They felt that the atmosphere was a bit wrong.

At this time, the people from King Kong Martial Arts Club should cheer for the victory of this year's martial arts battle.

How did they react so calmly?

Both of them turned their heads in doubt, and then their eyes widened.

On the stage, Finn stood on his hand like everything was okay, and Sawyer, whom they had high hopes for, was nowhere to be seen.

Yes, Sawyer was gone!

But the railing of the ring was knocked away by a human silhouette!

Herb and Quill looked at each other, and they both saw the horror in each other's eyes. Needless to know, the moment they turned back, Finn on the stage blasted Sawyer out!

Boom!

Both of them did not know other words to describe Sawyer's condition at that time.

The ring's diameter was more than 50 meters. Sawyer has disappeared from the ring and appeared on the ground ten meters away from the ring, unconscious.

He was directly blasted more than thirty meters away!

What was this terrifying power?!

The two were extremely horrified. Sawyer was an early Obvious Period martial artist. How did Finn punch him more than 30 meters away?!

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 149 The Four of You, Go Together?

Herb and Quill just visualized Finn's punch with their brains, and the shock in their hearts was beyond words.

One could imagine what it would be like to witness Finn's punch.

For two minutes, there was no voice from the audience.

All of them were thinking back, thinking of Finn's punch just now, that light punch!

"Brother, who is this predecessor?" Askey swallowed and asked. Finn had changed from that kid to a predecessor. He felt that Finn's strength was not at the same level as them.

Dash shook his head, took a deep breath, and said, "I don't know, but I think this time he might create a miracle!"

"Brother, you mean...?" Askey's face changed, he knew very well what the miracle Dash was talking about, but was that possible?

"Harry, Ling Yuan, where is he from?" Patton's face was also dignified. Finn's punch gave him the feeling that it was the strength of the early Obvious Period. He couldn't figure out one thing.

The power limit of the beginning of the Obvious Period was generally 350 kilograms. It might reach 400 kilograms for the ones with a gift, but even if they reached 400 kilograms limit, it was impossible to blow Sawyer with one punch!

Finn was weird!

Almost instantaneously, the idea came to Patton's mind.

Sue Harry smiled bitterly, "Patton, if I say I don't know his name until now, do you believe it?"

"You don't even know his name?" Patton was a little surprised. Seeing Juliet's expression, she was familiar with Finn. I thought Harry should know Finn's name no matter how, but he didn't expect that Harry also knew nothing.

Harry hesitated for a while, then said, "But Patton, that person seems to know you." At first, when Finn said he wanted to fight Patton, he didn't take it seriously. He felt that Finn was talking nonsense, and when Patton arrived, he also showed that he didn't know Finn.

But now it seemed that what Finn said was not necessarily false! He might have known Patton! But Patton did not necessarily know Finn.

"Harry, what do you say?" Patton frowned and asked.

Harry reiterated the purpose of Finn's coming to Harry Martial Arts Club.

After listening to it, Patton's expression became serious, and he began to think whether he had seen Finn before. Still, after thinking about it for a long time, he couldn't see Finn anywhere.

If I couldn't remember, let it be, Patton thought. He is not an indecisive person. Although Patton didn't know where he offended Finn, Finn came to bother him.

He was not afraid. Patton was an Obscure Period martial artist, after all. That said, in the entire City J, he was a top-ranked figure.

Finn's punch was indeed incredible, but it was impossible to say that it made him fear.

After all, the difference between the Obvious Period and Obscure Period was noticeable. If a hundred Obvious Period martial artists added up, they might not necessarily be an Obscure Period martial artist's opponent.

Juliet blushed. She was the most excited person on the court at this moment!

She hadn't had any expectations for Finn. She didn't expect that Finn made Sawyer fly with one just one punch. And seeing Finn's calm expression, it was apparent he didn't use his full strength.

Such strength could no longer be described as a terror!

Everyone didn't believe it when Finn came to the stage and said there was a 10% chance of winning. I thought Finn was bragging, but in just a blink of an eye, everyone was shocked by him!

In the audience, everyone in the King Kong Martial Arts Club looked at each other. They were a little bit awkward. Next, who should go on stage?

Even Herb, the mid-Obvious Period martial artist, was a little worried at the moment. He felt that he was not Finn's opponent!

Because if he were the one competing against Sawyer, he would definitely not punch Sawyer so far.

Seeing the people at King Kong Martial Arts Club not speaking, Finn couldn't help but say, "How about, you guys go together?"

Go together?!

Everyone in the field fell into petrification again.

Finn wanted to compete against four people?

Herb and Quill's expression were a little bit dark. Did they look that easy? They are not four Chinese cabbages, but four martial artists.

As if aware that what he said was somewhat came out as a show-off, Finn coughed slightly and explained embarrassingly, "Don't think too much. I'm asking the four of you to go together is not because I look down on you, but because I am in a hurry."

In a hurry?

The crowd was silent again.

Herb, Quill, and the two others were furious. They had never been looked down before!

Herb suppressed his anger and asked, "Do you really want to fight alone?" Although Finn's words were arrogant, it just proved that Finn was confident.

Only, why made him so confident?!

He was an Obvious Period martial artist. Why was he so crazy!

On the other side, there were three early Obvious Period martial artists, plus one from the middle Obvious Period!

"Do you think I'm joking with you?" Finn raised his eyebrows. He asked those four to go together not because he wanted to show off, but because he was in a hurry. After all, he had to send Patton on the road.

"Okay! Very good! I hope you don't regret it! The four of our brothers will not make it easy!" Herb sneered, and there was a subtle killing look deep from his eyes. Finn was so arrogant, then don't blame them for being cruel. It was a normal thing to die on the ring!

"Come on." Finn smiled disdainfully, just these few stinky fish and shrimps who wanted to kill himself.

"Uncle..." Juliet glanced at Finn with some concern and then stopped talking. She felt that Finn was a bit arrogant. He should know, Herb was the mid-Obvious Period martial artist. Even if it was one-to-one, Finn might not be able to win. Moreover, to go against four, a mid-Obvious Period martial artist plus three early-Obvious Period martial artists.

Even if Finn was from the late Obvious Period, she was afraid it would be difficult for him to win.

"It's okay." Finn turned around, smiled, and gave Juliet a relieved look.

Subsequently, Herb, Quill, and two others took the stage.

The four of them looked a little dignified, obviously intending to go all out. After all, Sawyer was still lying in the audience unconsciously. If they dared to look down Finn, they might not know how they would die.

"King Kong Martial Arts Club, Herb!"

"King Kong Martial Arts Club, Quill!"

"King Kong Martial Arts Club, Dean!"

"King Kong Martial Arts Club, Quinn!"

The four clasped their fists together and reported themselves.

"Harry Martial Arts Club, Finn!" Finn smiled and clasped his fists in response. He was competing for Harry Martial Arts Club, so he naturally had to report the Harry Martial Arts Club's name.

In the audience, everyone from Harry Martial Arts Club looked weird. It was the first time that many people heard Finn's name.

It turned out that this guy's name was Finn. If he were really from Harry Martial Arts Club, that would be great.

Finn and Juliet also recited Finn's name silently once to imprint these two words in their hearts forever.

Royal Dragon Husband - Chapter 150

Exceeding People from the Same Period!

Patton also thought about it for a moment. It seemed that there was no martial arts clan or gang sect dominated by the family of Chen in City J.

It stood to reason that: If Finn were a City J martial artist. An outstanding Obvious Period martial artist like him would have long been on the list of "hidden dragons" in the City J martial arts world. He would be well known by all major clans.

However, Patton had never heard of this name before today.

But despite the doubts, Patton didn't think about it too much. If Finn were playing against one, then Patton would have to worry about Herb, Quill, and the two others.

However, Finn was arrogant, wanted to go against four. The result would be obvious.

Herb, Quill, and the two others were four Obvious Period martial artists after all. If the four of them worked together, they could even fight a martial artist from the late Obvious Period.

So from the moment Finn proposed to go against four, there was no doubt in the result.

In the ring, Herb took the lead, and Quill and the other two followed closely behind.

Patton taught them this set of tactics, which could bring out 200% of their strength. The four of them were very confident. They worked together and surrounded Finn in the middle as soon as it began.

"Bang!"

Herb's iron fist flew over, rubbing the air and making bursts of sound. In a blink of an eye, the iron fist had already reached three feet in front of Finn's nose. Quill and the other two also aimed at the vital part of Finn.

There were cheering on all sides!

Herb sneered as if he had seen his punch splattered Finn's blood coming from the nose.

At this moment, Finn's eyelids lifted, and there was a faint smile across the corner of his mouth.

Then, Finn made a bold move!

Punch!

Lightning punch!

Herb only felt that it was dark in front of him, and a fist shadow was magnified infinitely in his field of vision.

"Boom!"

Finn's fist hit heavily on Herb's bridge of the nose.

"Crack!"

The crisp sound of bone cracks resounded through the audience!

Herb flew out like a straw and hit the fence of the ring.

Like hit by a boulder, the ring's solid wood guardrail was instantly torn apart, and the wooden blocks flew horizontally.

Immediately, Herb fell heavily on the concrete floor outside the ring and lost consciousness.

Silence!

Deathly silence!

No one thought that Herb, the strongest of the four, was blown away by Finn again!

The same result as Sawyer!

On the stage, Quill and the two others were also scared by this scene. Their backs were sweating cold.

When he saw Finn's calm gaze, Quill's head suddenly rose.

Give up!

They could only admit defeat! To save themselves!

This man was invincible!

Almost at the moment when the thought came up, Quill hurriedly said, "I admit..."

Quill wanted to say that he admitted defeat, but before the word "defeat" came out, Finn came to him fast, kicking Quill on his belly.

Quill arched like a soft-legged shrimp and flew out, hitting Herb on the outside of the ring.

The remaining Dean and Quinn were frightened, turned around, and ran away. It was terrible. Where did Finn, this demon come from? He only used two tricks against Herb and Quill. If they both stayed on the stage, they would be waiting for death.

The two reacted on time, but Finn was faster!

In just one step, Finn came behind the two of them and rewarded them one by one.

Without any suspense, the two flew out again and hit Herb and Quill near the audience!

With a muffled hum, Herb, who was in the bottom, lost consciousness.

People from Harry Martial Arts Club were shocked and felt strange. The two Martial Arts Clubs had been fighting for so many years.

There had never been such a scene before. People from King Kong Martial Arts Club were beaten and thrown outside the ring. Some even turned around and fled.

This time, the King Kong Martial Arts Club was humiliated!

In the audience, Patton's expression was extremely dark.

These three good-for-nothings!

Even if Finn defeated them, there was nothing wrong. It could be because their skills were not as good as him. No one would say anything about King Kong Martial Arts Club.

However, the three of them didn't even dare to fight Finn. Quill surrendered directly. Quinn and Dean were even turning their heads and running away.

Where should they put King Kong Martial Arts Club's reputation!

Harry's face was also mixed with shock and worry. He was naturally shocked by Finn's terrifying power. And he was worried because he didn't want King Kong Martial Arts Club to win. When Finn went to go on stage, he never thought that Finn would win.

But Finn won by all means. It was like a joke. The whole game took less than a minute.

First, he fought Sawyer, and then fought Herb, Quill, and two others alone. He made Quill so scared that he turned around and fled.

Without giving any respect to the people from King Kong Martial Arts Club, he stepped King Kong Martial Arts Club's reputation to the ground.

Seeing Patton's furious look, Harry knew that Harry Martial Arts Club's future would be difficult.

Finn stepped down. Dash led many disciples of the Harry Martial Arts Club to give way to Finn obediently. They were looking towards Finn with a respectful and fiery look.

Especially Dash that admired Finn to the core.

Sawyer pierced Harry Martial Arts Club alone, and then Finn avenged them. He defeated Sawyer, then went against four, oppressed the entire King Kong Martial Arts Club.

The strong one!

The strong one!

"Uncle Finn, you're so amazing." Juliet also rushed over happily, standing on his toes, and with a kiss, red lips were printed on Finn's cheek.

Finn's face stiffened, why is this little girl so daring?

After seeing the weird eyes of everyone around, Juliet's pretty face suddenly turned red. She realized that she was a little too initiative. After all, she was a girl. How could she kiss Uncle Finn in front of so many people?

If she wanted to kiss, she should find a place where no one was around.

It was Uncle Finn's fault. He was very awesome. If he weren't that awesome, she wouldn't be so excited, and then lost her senses. Yes, blame it on Uncle Finn, don't blame her! Juliet thought firmly.

But when she met Uncle Finn's helpless eyes, Juliet gritted his silver teeth again. Looking at Uncle Finn's expression, it seemed that he was very unhappy. That was her first kiss. She gave it out just like that. Damn Uncle Finn, he was not happy with it?!

Juliet pouted, with an urge to punch Uncle Finn on the spot.

At this time, Harry and Patton came over. Patton was not happy, but Harry was smiling. Harry arched his hand at Finn and said, "Your strength is the best of your peers. It is really rare."

Although Harry's words were meant to compliment Finn, most of them were true. Judging from Finn's current performance, only a few people could compare with him in the City J martial arts world.
