Chapter 6

Chapter 6 I Am So Kind

“What did you say?”

“You don’t want to admit it! You think I don’t know your relationship with Tim?”

“Tim?”

Anaya didn’t know what was going on, but when she saw Jamar behind Joshua with a guilty look, she had a vague guess.

Was this because Jamar hated her that he wanted to scheme against her?

Anaya hated Jamaris sinister ways, but what she hated most was that Joshua attacked her without knowing the truth.

From the past until now, Joshua had never believed her.

Suddenly, her heart ached.

It seemed that she still needed time to completely forget the past.

“Joshua.” Anaya took a deep breath and tried her best to calm herself down. “Ask yourself. Ever since I met you, have I ever done any thing wrong to you? You treat me like this. You don’t investigate it, but just directly question me after you get a rumor about me. Aren’t you afraid that you will regret doing something wrong?”

Seeing her appearance, Joshua frowned and hesitated.

Just now, Jamar had told him that Anaya had affairs with Tim behind his back. He got a ngr, so he directly came to question Anaya.

However, Joshua never thought that Jamar might have betrayed him.

Joshua remained silent for a long time.

Suddenly, Anaya forced a smile and laughed at herself. “Forget it. Even if you do somet hing wrong, you will never regret it. After all, you are so predominant.

“You have never been soft–hearted towards me.”

No matter how deeply he hurt her, Joshua would not regret it.

Anaya had already understood this point through repeated verification.

She quickly cheered herself up and looked straight into Joshua’s eyes without fear. “Mr. Maltz, if you dare to hit me again, I will protect myself through the law. I hope you can behave yourself.”

Then, she left with Tim without looking at Joshua again.

Joshua looked at her back, his fingers curled up in his palm.

In the past two days, he had seen Anaya leave several times.

Anaya did not look back at him once.

Joshua stood in place for quite a while before coldly saying, “Jamar, explain to me what happened.”

Jamar trembled and immediately knelt to Joshua.

“Mr. Maltz, I... I didn’t do it on purpose. Please forgive me. I will work harder to serve you!”

Jamar just wanted to ruin Anaya’s reputation and let Joshua break up with Anaya earlier. He did not expect Joshua to confront Anaya face to face and expose his lie.

“Even you betrayed me.” Joshua stared at Jamar.

Joshua closed his eyes, exhausted.

There were too many things that were not going well in the past two days.

“Go to the personnel department tomorrow to complete the resignation procedures. Don’t let me see you again.”

After leaving the hotel, Anaya went to the hospital to visit Adams. She bought some pastries along the way.

As soon as she stepped out of the elevator, she saw Frank and Vivianna coming out of Adams’ ward.

Frank noticed Anaya and greeted her warmly.

“Anaya, why did you come back so late?”

Frank looked like a gentleman, but he did many evil things.

Anaya had no good impression of Frank, but she didn't show her dislike of Frank. “I just finished my work. Why are you here? Why didn't you notice me in advance? I...”

Anaya wanted to say that she wanted to buy more pastries for them, but before she finished her words, Vivianna interrupted her. “What? Do we need to report our planes to you? Does this hospital belong to you?”

Anaya raised her eyebrows and said, “I haven't seen you for a while. You are getting more annoying. Do you need me to introduce you to a doctor?”

“You!”

Frank quickly grabbed Vivianna and tried to smooth things over. “Anaya, Vivianna is so young that she lacks maturity. We are a family. Please forgive her.”

“If Vivianna was half as reasonable as you, uncle, she wouldn't be disliked everywhere she went.”

Vivianna was unconvinced and wanted to argue with Anaya.

Frank gave Vivianna a warning look and began to talk about business. “Anaya, I heard that you took over the Sega Corporation project. How was your talk with Mr. Chowne tonight?”

He came here today specifically to talk about this matter.

Mark talked with Devin in advance and asked Devin not to give Anaya a chance.

An hour ago, Mark called Devin to confirm the situation. Unexpectedly, Devin did not answer his call and did not reply to his text message. Frank and Mark went to look for Devin, but no one opened the door for them. They did not know how the cooperation was going.

Frank had no choice but to bring Vivianna over and let Vivianna beg Adams to give the project to Mark

However, she was rejected by Adams.

Fortunately, he saw Anaya when he went out of the ward.

Other than following Joshua all these years, Anaya did not care about anything else. Frank looked down on Anaya.

He thought as long as he persuaded Anaya patiently, he would find room for negotiation

“It went smoothly,” Anaya said with a faint smile.

Frank thought Anaya was just pretending, so he said earnestly, “The contract hasn’t been signed yet, right? You have only been working for two days. It’s better not to be too greedy.

“It’s better to leave the project to Mark. Anyway, the money we earn in the end is shared by everyone. Am I right?”

“You’re right. We split the money together. So you just have to wait for the dividends.”

Anaya was so stubborn that Frank said in a heavy tone, “Anaya, you have to listen to my advice. You have no work experience...”

Halfway through his words, Frank paused.

Anaya took out a document from her bag and waved it before him.

It was the contract of cooperation with Sega Corporation.

“Frank, the contract has been signed. You don’t have to worry about it. By the way, please tell Mark that Mr. Chowne will never see him again. Tell him to be careful.”

Frank had a bad feeling. “Be careful of what?”

“Who knows? It should be a casual remark. After all, Mark is loyal to Riven Group and has never done anything wrong.”

Frank laughed awkwardly, “Ha–ha, Anaya, it’s good that you believe in Mark.”

“I’m going to visit Grandpa. See you.”

After Anaya left, Frank removed his disguise and kicked the flower bed next to him.

He had originally thought that Anaya would not pose any threat to them even if she returned to the company. Now, it seemed that he had underestimated her!

The next day, Anaya returned to her office.

A person lingered at the door of her office.

“Mark, are you waiting for me?”

When Mark heard her voice, he questioned her. “Devin didn’t answer my call or reply to my message. What did you do to him? Did he say anything that shouldn’t be said to you last night?”

Devin had a lot of evidence of his previous movements. If Devin and Anaya colluded with each other, he would come to an end!

Anaya pretended not to understand what Mark was saying. “What shouldn’t be said? What are you referring to? Do you have something in his hands?”

Only then did Mark realize how anxious he was.

If Anaya did not know anything but he messed up himself and confessed everything, he would come to the end.

Mark tried to calm himself down and said, “It’s nothing. Since he didn’t say anything, forget it. Go on with your work, goodbye.”

Mark left in a hurry.

Tim, who was standing at the side, heard the conversation between Mark and Anaya. He asked doubtfully, “Ms. Dutt, why didn’t you expose his true colors? if Mr. Dutt knew what Mark did, he definitely wouldn’t let Mark off so easily.”

Anaya joked. “Because I am so kind.”

As she spoke, a dim light flashed in her eyes.

If Mark wanted to benefit from a project which was worth a few million dollars, he would at most get hundreds of or thousands of dollars.

Mark was a member of the Dutt family after all.

If a child in the family stole hundreds of dollars and was caught, at most, the child would be scolded.

Such a punishment was nothing to Mark.

What Anaya wanted was to expel Mark from the company.

Thus, she needed to endure before she found an opportunity to handle Mark.
