Ramirez Chapter 7

Chapter 7 Lexie Returns

Riven Group and the Maltz Group had a contract to sign. Anaya took half a day off and went to the Maltz Group with her colleagues. Meanwhile, she wanted to talk about the divorce with Joshua a.

Entering the reception room, Anaya was told that Joshua had something to do and went out.

“Where did he go?” Anaya frowned.

The secretary knew that Anaya was Joshua’s wife. After hesitating for a while, she said, “I can’t tel l you...”

Anaya didn’t make things difficult for the secretary. She asked, “Do you have his cell phone number?”

The secretary hesitated and reported Joshua’s number to Anaya.

Anaya dialed the number.

Joshua’s steady voice sounded. “Hello, who is that?”

“I am Anaya.” Anaya asked, a little dissatisfied, “Where are you? Didn’t you promise me that you would go to City Hall with me?”

Joshua was silent for a moment before saying, “Lexie has returned back today. I’ll pick her up.”

Anaya didn’t waste any more time with Joshua and asked directly, “When are you coming back?”

Quickly settle the divorce with me.”

“I have other arrangements with Lexie.”

“What...”

Without waiting for Anaya to finish, Joshua hung up.

Listening to the beep, Anaya slowly tightened her fingers that held the phone.

Joshua had been thinking about divorcing her for the past year. Now that he finally had his wish fulfilled, he actually attached more importance to picking up Lexie.

To Joshua, nothing could compare to Lexie.

Anaya felt tightness in her chest, but she quickly adjusted her mood.

If it was in her previous life, if Joshua abandoned her for Lexie, she would suffer for a few days.

But now, although she felt a little uncomfortable, she could ignore those feelings.

Since the person Joshua loved was not her, Anaya decided to get quickly divorced.

In this life, she would not give Joshua the chance to continue hurting her.

Joshua hung up the phone and looked up to see Lexie in a white dress dragging a lockbox toward him.

Since Lexie went abroad to study three years ago, he had hardly seen her.

Joshua missed Lexie day and night, but now that he met her, he did not feel the joy he expected.

Instead, his mind was filled with the matter of Anaya wanting to divorce him.

Just now, he directly told Anaya that he had come to pick Lexie up because he had selfish motives.

He wanted to see how Anaya reacted.

However, Anaya didn't care who he came
