

Reborn To Love 144

Chapter 144 Li Yuyan's Pregnant

On this day of 10/XX/20XX, the patient known as Li Yuyan had a positive pregnancy test.

Li Yuyan's face paled as she immediately crumpled the piece of paper up and threw it at the car window. She slammed her fist onto the driving wheel, causing the car horn to sound.

"Ugh!!" Li Yuyan closed her eyes and hit her head against the back of the car seat.

--- Today morning

When Li Yuyan woke up, Su Zhiming was gone already. She seemed to be sleeping more recently, and she got tired often too.

Li Yuyan rubbed her eyes and slowly dragged her tired body out of bed. She walked into the restroom and yawned as she stared into the mirror.

She washed her face and applied a ton of different skincare supplies before walking downstairs. Liu Wei still hasn't given her any possible films to audition for yet, but he said that he will.

Li Yuyan sat down at the kitchen table and a worker brought out the breakfast. She scrunched her face up when she looked at the plates of food and moaned.

There was suddenly a disgusting feeling in her throat and she stood up immediately, running over to a nearby sink.

However, when she thought she was going to vomit, nothing came out. Li Yuyan coughed several times and leaned back against the countertop.

This was the fourth time this happened in the past few days. Li Yuyan knit her eyebrows together and closed her eyes.

Could it be possible?

Of course Li Yuyan thought of the possibility that she was pregnant because all of her symptoms led to that conclusion. However, she didn't want to admit it.

No way. . . It couldn't happen. If it was true, then it would definitely be Liu Wei's kid.

Su Zhiming hasn't touched her in a long time, and only touched her once last week because he was drunk. Even then, he had used contraception. There was no way the kid was his.

Li Yuyan sighed and a worker walked into the room, "Mrs. Su, are you okay?"

Li Yuyan quickly regained her composure and cleared her throat, "Yes, I'm fine."

She walked back to the dining table and stared at the food for a long time. Finally, she stood up and grabbed the car keys before leaving the house.

About 20 minutes later, she parked in the parking lot of the X Hospital.

--- Present

"Ugh!!" Li Yuyan closed her eyes and hit her head against the back of the car seat.

'This couldn't be possible,' she thought.

It was only one time. . . In so many times she had done it with Su Zhiming, she never got pregnant. How "lucky" could she be to suddenly get pregnant in that one time?!

Li Yuyan tapped her foot onto the ground anxiously, not knowing what to do.

Should she get rid of it? That seemed to be like the best choice. . . If Su Zhiming knew about what she did, there was no way he would stay married to her.

Then everything she did would have gone to waste! Su Zhiming's company was finally growing, and she couldn't just let him go without taking any advantage of it.

Li Yuyan put on her sunglasses again and got out of the car, entering the hospital once again. If she was going to get rid of the baby, she had to do it quickly.

However, once she stepped foot into the hospital, Li Yuyan stopped. She raised one eyebrow and walked back into the car.

With a sly smile, she started the car and drove home.

At night, Li Yuyan and Su Zhiming went to the He mansion together to eat dinner like always.

Li Yuyan pretended as nothing happened and she ate her dinner calmly. Bai Jiawei seemed to be in a pretty good mood today after his monthly meeting with Su Zhiming and he looked up after finishing his first bowl of rice.

"Yuyan, your birthday is coming up! It's in about a week!"

Li Yuyan smiled, "Yes, dad!"

"25. . ." Bai Jiawei nodded his head, "We should hold a party!"

Li Yuyan's eyes lit up, "Really! Yes, dad!"

"Okay, you and your mother can organize it."

Li Yuyan's eyes lit up with happiness. Since she came to the He mansion with her mother when she was a child, she barely had any large birthday parties.

They always celebrated at home, and Li Yuyan was never happy about that. She wanted to wear a beautiful dress and greet all the guests. Everyone would be congratulating her!

Meanwhile, He Xinyan always had parties for her birthdays. Even when Li Yuyan had tried so hard to take it away from her this year, she failed. . . because there was Gu Yechen!

Li Yuyan lifted her head up a little higher. This year, her birthday was going to be perfect!

Throughout the next week, Li Yuyan's entire focus was on her birthday party. She was allowed to hold it at the Xihe Hotel, which was also a five-star hotel, but not as prestigious as the Dasi Hotel.

Li Yuyan was still very happy about it, because this was going to be her first birthday party outside where she will be introduced to other upper-class people as a member of the He family.

"Which dress?" Li Yuyan asked her mom as she held up two. They were inside the best dress shop in the area and Li Yuyan had been picking out a dress for the last two hours.

Li Huiran looked between the two dresses her daughter was holding and pointed at the yellow one.

The color of the dress was really light, and if you looked closely, you would be able to see the skin of your legs when wearing it.

Li Yuyan smiled and nodded her head, "Okay, then let's get this one!"

The dress was mermaid style and Li Yuyan only dared to wear it because her pregnant stomach didn't show yet. Plus, she hasn't been eating well recently so she lost some weight, and Li Yuyan wanted to take advantage of it.

They returned home with the dress and began to organize the guest list.

It was the day before Li Yuyan's birthday.

He Xinyan was inside her room, studying her script. She only had a few more scenes left and she would be done with her first film!

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door. He Xinyan stood up and walked to the door, opening it to see a smiling Li Yuyan.

That was never a good sign.

"What is it?" He Xinyan crossed her arms together and sighed.

"My birthday party is tomorrow."

He Xinyan almost rolled her eyes but stopped herself. She replied sarcastically, "Really?! I had no idea!"

Li Yuyan's smile stiffened for a second. She talked about it almost every second while she was in the He mansion, so there was no way He Xinyan didn't know. She was just making fun of her!

"Anyway, you don't have to prepare a gift for my birthday. After all, we are still sisters."

He Xinyan raised one eyebrow as some memories came flooding back. After a few seconds, she nodded.

"Okay." Then, He Xinyan shut the door in Li Yuyan's face.

"You -"

He Xinyan walked back into her room and gently tapped her finger onto the script.

In her past life, Li Yuyan also had a birthday party on her 25th birthday. Although it wasn't as grand, it left a mark in He Xinyan's mind because it was Li Yuyan's first public birthday party and it was also another time when He Xinyan fell into her trap.

No present?

He Xinyan licked her lips. That was what Li Yuyan said in her last life. . . But what happened? At the birthday party, in front of everyone, Li Yuyan asked her for a present.

Back then, He Xinyan was stupid enough to actually not prepare one, and the entire situation was very awkward and embarrassing for her. After all, she was Li Yuyan's "sister".

And of course, Bai Jiawei got mad too. He apparently "lost face" because it seemed like He Xinyan was too cheap to buy a present for her sister's birthday.

He Xinyan scoffed. It was so nice to have a second chance. . .

She stood up and walked around her room slowly, looking around. In the end, she grabbed a random bracelet Gu Yechen had bought for her when they went shopping together once.

In fact, he had bought mostly everything from that shop just because He Xinyan had said, "That shop is very popular."

Although He Xinyan didn't want to give away anything Gu Yechen bought for her, she genuinely had too much!

The jewelry from that shop couldn't all fit into her vanity, so she had to take some and put it in random places in her room.

He Xinyan took the least expensive-looking bracelet and grabbed a random gift box. She threw it in and closed the lid.

To be honest, He Xinyan thought that Li Yuyan didn't deserve a gift as good as the one she prepared.

He Xinyan patted herself on the back and sighed, 'It's okay. Just think of it as donating to the poor. . .'

Yes, that's right! He Xinyan nodded her head happily and went back to reading her script.
