Chapter 1061 – Going All Out

Feature glanced over her several more times and then said to Qin Yu, “Such a pretty and captivating woman has already said that she is willing to serve your every need. If you aren’t moved by this, are you still a man?”

Black lines appeared down Qin Yu’s face. He clenched his teeth and said, “What did you come out for?”

Feature humphed twice. “The reason I came out is of course because I have obtained the information I need. You are so angry, is it because I ruined your good deed? What a good Qin Yu, it seems your thoughts aren’t that pure at all. Did you have similar thoughts about me before? Hoho, I really underestimated your courage!”

His lips twitched and he roared inwardly. If it wasn’t for you who was so unconcerned about being exposed, would I have seen what I shouldn’t have seen?

But saying this was a bit too petty. Moreover, he couldn’t admit that he didn’t have any thoughts because when he first looked at her, he did feel comfortable.

He coughed and shifted the topic, “Do you have a way?”

Feature derisively sneered, as if she were dismissing all men. Then she rolled her eyes and said, “Of course!”

She glanced over Qin Yu. In her heart, she couldn’t help but praise him. This boy’s luck was truly heaven-defying!

At such a time, a helper actually fell down from the skies to help him.

Certainly, the ‘helper’ she referred to wasn’t Mian Ya, but the information she disclosed. Such as the Nine-tailed Fox Clan’s most precious treasure, the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror.

When Feature walked out and Mian Ya first saw her, she immediately fell into a state of great panic.

She had no idea who Feature was and she didn’t release any formidable aura either. But her bloodline instincts caused her soul to tremble and her thoughts to go blank. She couldn’t think of anything else at all.

“Hoho, you little fox, your sensory abilities are quite good. Then be a good girl and let me take some of your blood. Yes, just like that. Don’t resist. I’m gentle and you won’t feel any pain.”

Feature made a tiny cut on Mian Ya’s palm and extracted a vial of blood. She smiled in satisfaction, “Alright, you can continue resting now. But don’t forget what you said. The Nine-tailed Demon Fox Clan will now be the slaves of this boy.”

Mian Ya’s eyes widened. Her instincts told her that if she didn’t refuse now, this matter would become an unchangeable truth. As if there was some supreme strength of rules contained in Feature’s words.

But things clearly weren’t like this. I said that he had to help us retrieve the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror first before we were willing to take him as our master.

Feature narrowed her eyes. Judging from this expression alone, she was quite similar to Qin Yu. "What, you want to go back on your word?"

Mian Ya paled and she hurriedly shook her head, "Everything will be as you wish!"

Feature patted her cheek. "Smart. Now hurry and rest."

She cast Qin Yu a meaningful look before turning and leaving.

Qin Yu followed close behind.

When the door closed, Feature curled her lips, "Qin Yu, I have helped you subdue the Nine-tailed Demon Fox Clan that is rich in beauties. You can recklessly do whatever you want to them. Why aren't you hurrying to thank me?"

Bah!

She had only said that because she had been forced into a corner and had no other choice.

Could things become true just because you said a few words?

But Qin Yu didn't have time to argue with Feature over this at the moment. He said, "What's your plan?"

Under the shadow of death, everyone else could stand to the side. After all, compared to one's life and death, there was nothing more important in this world.

This wasn't called the selfish fear of death. Rather, it was the instinctive resistance and struggle that any self-aware creature had towards death.

Feature snapped her fingers. "It's simple. As long as you can obtain the Thousand Mirror Demon Mirror in the body of the abyssal demon dragon, we will have a chance to survive this calamity."

Qin Yu paled. "You're telling me that you want me to steal the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror from inside the body of the abyssal demon dragon?"

"That's right. Didn't Shadowless Demon say that out of the three Demon Commander level demon beasts outside the city, the demon ape and crow were both voluntarily swallowed by the golden-eyed demon python? Now I understand that this is all due to the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror. Whether it is the demon ape or crow, they are both avatar-like existences split out from the golden-eyed demon python using the strength of the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror. This is why they were able to achieve perfect coordination within the beast tide and why they had no conflict at all, even coming together to fuse at the last moment and transform into the abyssal demon dragon."

Feature had an excited expression and she began to speak even faster, "Qin Yu, let me tell you that this is your lucky chance. Just like what that little fox said, the full power of the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror can only be used by the Nine-tailed Demon Fox Clan. But with her blood, overcoming this limitation isn't difficult for me. At that time, you can cultivate a formidable. And most importantly, the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror can help a person solidify a type of demon transformation state. I am absolutely confident that I can help you obtain a type of demonic body metamorphosis no weaker than an abyssal demon dragon!"

Her face flushed red as she spoke. She took a deep breath and continued, “How about it? Are you tempted? Let me tell you something, this sort of thing is only possible because I am here. You are probably excited and can’t wait to scream to the skies and pray to the heavens. Meeting me is your life’s greatest fortune! Even I am shocked by myself!”

Qin Yu’s lips twitched. Hearing her verbose babbling, he did understand her. But, all of this was based on one premise – he would have to pull out the so-called Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror from within the abyssal demon dragon’s body.

This woman, hadn’t he told her before that it was impossible for him to accomplish this himself?

City Lord Blackpool, Black Astral, and Shadowless Demon had joined forces, even swallowing super mighty invincibility pills, yet they had ended up in such a miserable state. Would he be any better?

Hehe, let alone pulling out the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror from inside the abyssal demon dragon’s body, he would likely be ripped to pieces with one collision.

“Feature, can you be a bit more realistic? This is your plan?” Qin Yu tried to endure it again and again before he finally clenched his jaws and roared, “You wouldn’t be deliberately tricking me into dying and then escaping by yourself right!?”

One couldn’t blame Qin Yu for having such sinister thoughts and assuming that Feature’s plan was a trick. It was just that her plan was full of holes that all led to a dead end.

Feature sneered at him, “Qin Yu, you think I would be as stupid as you? Since I said this plan, of course I have a way!”

She took out a bottle and placed it in front of them. It was translucent and one could faintly see a demon medicine the size of a longan fruit inside. It was deep red as if dyed in blood, and it emitted faint traces of red light. It was a strange and ghostly sight.

“First, what’s inside of this bottle is an ultra-strengthened version of the super mighty invincibility pill I refined. I spent a great deal of effort producing it over the last two days. I cannot explain the exact effects, but after taking it the effects will be good enough that you will be left screaming!”

She tossed it to Qin Yu and then pointed at him, “Secondly, within your body, there are actually two kinds of abyssal bloodlines. It’s just that one kind is too thin and is in a slumbering condition. I will help you stimulate it. Then using your Manifestation bloodline ability, you can go through a destructive combustion period, allowing you to erupt with the power of this abyssal bloodline for a brief period of time.

“Hum hum, don’t look at me like that. Destructive combustion will indeed cause irreversible damage to the bloodline, but it was in a slumbering condition to begin with. Even if it is destroyed like this, there won’t be any actual material losses to you.

“And to help you, I will extract the demon seed bloodlines of three Demon Commanders, refining them into your body. You can combust them and it will lengthen the time that you can last for. During this time period, as long as you obtain the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror, I promise that you won’t die. Once everything proceeds smoothly...hehe, that will be remarkable. At that time, you will know what it means to be ignorant of the kindness of others!”

Qin Yu had an indecisive expression. He looked down at the so-called ultra-strengthened version of the super mighty invincibility pill and his thoughts raced.

He understood Feature's intent. But no matter how much she said, there was one point that didn't change – if he wanted to survive, it all depended on him going all-out.

If he could defeat the abyssal demon dragon then he would live. If he couldn't...he took a deep breath and nodded. "Alright. I agree. Feature, you had best be sure that nothing you said is wrong!"

If he wanted to survive, he needed to go all-out. This was a fair matter.

It was fine as long as Feature wasn't lying to him...but thinking about it, this woman had no reason to harm him.

Feature slapped her chest, causing waves to surge. She lifted her chin and said with a valorous and heroic expression, "Those who believe in me will never die even in a hundred battles. You can rest assured!"

Three Demon Commander level bloodlines. The dead Yin Hanxin was one. The corpse of City Lord Blackpool was another one.

As for the third, Feature thought about the unconscious Black Astral.

Using Feature's words, he was half-dead anyways. If so, he might as well contribute his bloodline too. He might be able to help them survive this disaster.

Dead people naturally couldn't speak for themselves. So the bloodlines of Yin Hanxin and City Lord Blackpool were decided with just a word.

Although Black Astral was still alive, he remained unconscious. Old Fox hesitated for a moment before nodding in agreement.

He had no idea why Liu Huo wanted to extract Black Astral's bloodline, but in his belief, there was no way the incomparably formidable Liu Huo would covet Black Astral's bloodline.

Moreover, Liu Huo said that things could be rebuilt after breaking them apart. After that, there was no more hesitation. Old black dog, it seems your luck isn't that good anymore.

I hope that things are an exception this time. Otherwise if you die, don't blame me for making the decision for you.

The three Demon Commander level demon seed bloodlines were mixed together by Feature using an unknown method. They were put into a jar where they tumbled together, thick and viscous, with air bubbles passing up as if it was boiling.

Qin Yu clenched his teeth and drank it all down. Beyond his expectations, it didn't feel hot at all travelling down his throat, but felt cool instead.

But when it entered his belly, it was like he had swallowed a mass of fire. It burned, causing smoke to spew out from his orifices, as if he would spontaneously combust!

Luckily, this feeling only continued for a short period of time. Then all of the burning and heat faded away like a falling tide.

Hu –

He let out a long breath, looking at Feature and nodding, “It’s fine. It’s much simpler than I imagined.”

Feature smiled. “That’s good, that’s good.”

Qin Yu was stunned for a moment. He stared at her and said, “Don’t tell me that you had no idea what would happen to me after I drank that?”

Feature dryly laughed twice, “The facts proved that my craftsmanship is superb. After you drank it, nothing happened, right? Alright, alright, the abyssal demon dragon outside the city hasn’t fully recovered yet. While it’s ill, take its life. Now hurry up and leave. I am tired so I’m going to sleep. I won’t be seeing you off!”

She turned and walked away.

Qin Yu’s lips twitched. If it weren’t for the fact that she looked exhausted after refining the three Demon Commander level bloodlines together, he wouldn’t have let this go so easily.

He would endure it!

Feature was right about one thing. While the abyssal demon dragon was injured, the chances of success would be higher.

Chapter 1062 – Abyssal Titan

Qin Yu took a deep breath, turned around, and left. Old Fox and Shadowless Demon had already been anxiously waiting outside the courtyard for a long time. Although they had made a guess, with every moment that Qin Yu didn’t make a move, they couldn’t feel at ease.

After all, this was a matter that concerned their life and death. Whether someone was a Demon Commander or not, no one would be spared.

“Mister!” Old Fox and Shadowless Demon bowed.

Qin Yu nodded. “I will be leaving the city for a trip. I’ll leave everything here to you. If there is an accident...then bring Feature away. She will give you an unexpected harvest.”

As he finished speaking, demonic energy surged around him, engulfing his figure. In the next moment, he vanished from sight.

The complexions of Old Fox and Shadowless Demon changed. Just what was Liu Huo’s intent? He actually gave off a feeling as if he wanted them to handle his post-death arrangements.

Could it be that another accident had occurred in the beast tide? Or was there another danger they hadn’t realized?

Otherwise, with mister’s strength and status, why would he say such words...after all, with his status as an Abyss Walker, simply scolding the abyssal demon dragon to leave was possible.

As all sorts of thoughts raced in their minds and their faces darkened with uncertainty, the courtyard doors were pushed open from within.

Feature stepped out and looked at the direction Qin Yu left in. Her lips curved up in a smile, "You brat, at least you still have a bit of conscience..." She looked up at Old Fox and Shadowless Demon. Restraining her expression she said, "Come in."

For some reason, when Feature's smile disappeared, a bit of imperceptible fear appeared within Old Fox and Shadowless Demon's eyes.

As expected, if she could follow beside Liu Huo and be so valued by him, how could she be an ordinary demon girl?

This Miss Feature must be far more extraordinary than they imagined. However, Liu Huo just left, so why was she looking for them?

As all sorts of ideas raced through their mind, Old Fox and Shadowless Demon respectfully nodded and followed her into the courtyard. The doors closed behind them.

Outside Great Deer City, Qin Yu's figure appeared above the natural canyon that flickered with demonic energy.

His existence immediately attracted the attention of countless demon beasts. Their eyes that were flooded with cruelty and slaughter instantly locked onto him.

Hou –

Hou –

Two giant abyssal demon wolves roared and shot into the air using their formidable bodies. Like bolts of lightning, they bit at Qin Yu.

These demon beasts had completely lost their minds and were submerged in the atmosphere of the beast tide. They had no ability to think and only followed their instincts.

They could feel Qin Yu's vitality. If they could just eat him, they could surely enhance their strength.

So the two abyssal demon wolves attacked. It was this simple.

But at this time as they were soaring through the air, the two threatening abyssal demon wolves yelped in fear and panic.

It was like without warning, they were exposed to their natural enemy. Without hesitation, the two abyssal demon wolves suddenly stopped, turning their head as they tried to flee.

But it was too late!

Bang –

Bang –

Like two water balloons that were gripped too hard, the abyssal demon wolves blew apart. Countless pieces of bone and meat splattered in all directions, flooding the air with the stench of fresh blood.

If this was usual times, the corpses of these demon beasts would have been seized by the beast tide, becoming their food. This was because swallowing the flesh and blood of other demon beasts could also increase their strength.

But at this time, all the demon beasts in the surrounding region felt an extremely terrifying aura. Not only did they not approach but they even turned and fled in horror.

It was like a terrifying existence had appeared above the canyon.

Qin Yu was expressionless. He looked into the distance, his robes surging around him. A boundless aura broke free from his body, compressing everything around him like a massive invisible grinding pan.

Bang –

Bang –

Bang –

The panic-stricken demon beasts started to explode one after another. Flesh and blood filled the air like an endless rain! But what a pity, Qin Yu wasn't paying any attention to these dead demon beasts.

They had given their lives and their bodies were crushed into goo. But, their killer didn't even cast them a glance. This was the sorrow of the weak.

In Qin Yu's eyes, there was only that terrifying vortex of demonic energy in the distance.

Its upper end was huge and it continuously shrank as it descended, just like a funnel. One could clearly hear the roaring sounds of endless abyssal demonic energy rolling and tumbling.

It was the abyssal demon dragon. It truly was worthy of being the favored pet of the abyss; it could actually mobilize such an astonishing amount of abyssal energy to heal itself.

But the good news was that its wounds were severe and even now it hadn't fully healed.

Qin Yu narrowed his eyes. He appeared here and killed a massive number of demon beasts. The abyssal demon dragon must have sensed him.

As this thought appeared, a loud roar rumbled through the air like peals of thunder.

Then, that spinning funnel of demonic energy began to rapidly move, causing the surrounding demonic energy to howl even louder.

This abyssal demon dragon was indeed a terrifying creature. Just from being locked onto by its eyes, Qin Yu could feel invisible chains squeezing in on him from all directions.

But what Qin Yu didn't know was that when the abyssal demon dragon saw him, its shock was even greater than his.

This was an intense premonition that it couldn't suppress. It could feel that as long as it killed this demon, it would receive a reward from the abyss.

As an abyssal demon dragon, it was inherently born with the attention of the abyss' will. It could naturally tell this was not an illusion but a formidable will that came down to supervise it.

The only thing that could achieve this was the supreme will of the abyss!

Hou –

The abyssal demon dragon roared into the skies, its eyes burning with greed. Killing intent erupted.

No matter what price it had to pay, it had to kill this demon!

Qin Yu's lips twitched and his heart sank. After the abyssal demon dragon saw him, he could sense the changes that occurred in its aura in a short period of time.

Sure enough, the reason that this abyssal demon dragon appeared at Great Deer City was because it was chasing after him and Feature!

In other words, the will of the abyss had really locked onto them. Feature hadn't been lying.

Although he already expected this, once he confirmed it he still felt his heart chill.

But before he could think further, the abyssal demon dragon had already moved. It viciously swung its tail, as if a mountain was falling horizontally.

His heart shrank. Without any need to be stimulated, the three Demon Commander level bloodlines within his body erupted like a volcano.

Piki paka –

Within his body, bones and flesh crackled and rumbled. The sounds linked up together as his body doubled in size.

Rumble rumble –

Endless abyssal energy gathered towards him from nothing. It converged above his head, forming the phantom of a giant.

A vast aura that seemed to come from ancient times emanated from the giant phantom. It seemed to cross space and time, passing through the endless river of years to arrive here with an earthshaking roar.

At this moment, the abyssal demon dragon's body stiffened. Its ice-cold eyes that were flooded with killing intent fiercely contracted and revealed fear.

It was as if the aura of this giant phantom possessed an aura that could suppress it!

Bang –

With a loud crash, Qin Yu's entire body was sent flying away. The bones of his arms broke but regenerated in the next moment.

By combusting the bloodlines of three Demon Commander level bloodlines, they released a strength that made him nearly immortal and inextinguishable until they burned out.

Qin Yu steadied himself. He had a much clearer cognition of the abyssal demon dragon's strength. No wonder the hunting raid had failed. This demon beast's strength was incomparably terrifying.

And this was just a single injured abyssal demon dragon that had yet to grow up. If it grew up and was in its peak condition, any casual strike would have reduced him to powder.

He took a deep breath and composed himself. Then, he took out a jar. With a bit of strength he crushed it in his hands and swallowed the demon medicine from inside.

This was the ultra-strengthened version of the super mighty invincibility pill. It reeked of blood in his mouth but didn't irritate his senses. Rather, it was somewhat fragrant. This caused Qin Yu to become suspicious. After entering a demon-state, did his taste also become abnormal?

Then, this slightly funny and boring thought was crushed apart by a violent force and completely expelled from Qin Yu's mind.

His limbs and bones, every inch of his flesh and blood roared, releasing infinite strength. In this state, Qin Yu even felt that this abyssal demon dragon in front of him wasn't anything at all.

As if he could strangle it with just one hand!

But what a pity, this was clearly just a mental illusion caused by the tremendous increase of his strength impacting his mind.

However, when Qin Yu left Great Deer City to fight the abyssal demon dragon, this wasn't what he was truly relying on. To be more accurate, the three combusting Demon Commander level demon seed bloodlines and this ultra-strengthened super mighty invincibility pill were all a foundation laid to draw out his true weapon.

Inside his chest, the black heart of the abyss began to rapidly beat. A blazing hot strength started to flow out.

It was like magma flowing through Qin Yu's blood vessels, incinerating everything it passed by.

"Ahh!" He roared up into the air, his fierce cries of pain echoing in the skies and nearly crushing his will.

Flesh and blood roared. An incomparable hunger grew within him, as if he had been imprisoned for countless years and had just been freed, and now he wanted to eat the world. And this food was the endless abyssal energy that flooded the abyss world and bred the countless abyssal beings here.

Rumble rumble –

A giant vortex instantly formed. Then, a second funnel appeared between the heavens and earth. It was gigantic. Compared to the vortex of abyssal energy above the abyssal demon dragon's head, it was over twice as large!

A sea-like amount of abyssal energy poured into Qin Yu's body. He crazily grew. His body was like a balloon that inflated at an astonishing speed.

100 feet...500 feet...1000 feet...3000 feet...10,000 feet...20,000 feet...

Finally, only when he neared 30,000 feet in height did he stop growing.

He was like a terrifying giant that supported the heavens. The giant phantom within the vortex of abyssal energy had become incomparably solid and real.

It looked down at Qin Yu. With a roar, it melted into his body like a shadow.

Hu –

After transforming into a 30,000 foot tall giant, Qin Yu opened his eyes. Lightning sizzled in his pupils.

A wild strength surged in his body. It was so terrifying that as long as it burst out from anywhere, it would be capable of destroying mountains and severing rivers!

This was not a simple description nor was it an exaggeration. Rather, it truly possessed such horrifying might. When Qin Yu looked at the abyssal demon dragon, there was no dread in his heart.

In fact, he could even sense his opponent's fear.

And fear was normal...Qin Yu licked his dry lips, the desire to eat and devour coursing through him.

This was because the moment a member of the Abyssal Titan Clan was born, it took the abyssal demon dragon as food!

When the giant phantom above his head fused into his body, he naturally learnt everything...the sleeping bloodline that Feature spoke of was that of the abyssal titan.

Of course, it also had another name – that was the Ancient race bloodline!

Chapter 1063 – Titan Vs Dragon

The same bloodline flowed within the Ancient race of the living world and the titans of the abyss world. To be more accurate, the Ancients were only descendants of the titans with a part of their bloodline flowing through them.

The two lived in completely opposed worlds that were incompatible with each other, and yet they had such a connection. Did this indicate that there was some unknown and close relationship between the two worlds?

Qin Yu drew in a deep breath. The world started to rumble. This was the sound of endless abyssal energy being sucked into his body.

Now was not the time to think of such things. He could clearly feel the Ancient race bloodline in his body wildly burning after it was activated.

That's right, this was the ruinous combustion method that Feature spoke of before. Once he burnt through it all, he would lose the ability to maintain the true form of the abyssal titan he maintained through his Manifestation bloodline ability.

The three Demon Commander level demon seed bloodlines were burning at a terrifying pace. With each passing breath of time, he could clearly feel them weakening.

Even if they were formidable, it was impossible to keep combusting like this for a long time.

Before he ran out of time, he had to pull the most precious treasure of the Nine-tailed Demon Fox Clan out from the body of the abyssal demon dragon – the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror!

Feature said that the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror could solidify a demon-state of the holder. In other words, as long as he obtained it then he could forever keep this wild and incomparably tyrannical titan body. It would become one of his greatest weapons.

Qin Yu's breathing quickened and the sounds of tumbling demonic energy grew louder. He stared at the abyssal demon dragon and licked his lips once again.

Right now, he could understand the mindset of the abyssal demon dragon when it first saw him before.

It was probably something like... 'Brat, today you cannot escape! No matter what price I must pay, I will destroy you!'

Bang –

Qin Yu, who had become the incarnation of an abyssal titan, stepped forward. The space of the abyss world instantly cracked as countless fissures appeared all over.

Each crack released a formidable tearing strength. This was a backlash that came from the abyss world itself.

But right now, the power of these spatial tears wasn't able to harm Qin Yu at all.

If a titan could treat abyssal demon dragons as food, it could be imagined how terrifying the intensity of their mortal bodies was. Even the fangs that the abyssal demon dragons were so proud of could do nothing to him.

He raised a fist and punched!

Hou –

The abyssal demon dragon roared and its body swung around, trying to avoid this strike. But, this punch was far too fast and it seemed to have instinctually locked onto the aura of the abyssal demon dragon. It couldn't dodge it at all.

With no further recourse, the abyssal demon dragon roared and raised its head, soaring into the skies. It used its hardest horns to collide with the fist.

A heaven-shaking explosion followed. Unimaginable fluctuations of power swept out in all directions, as if a new world was being opened up.

...

Outside of Great Deer City, the fathomless canyon seemed as if it had been gripped by two giant invisible hands and was being pulled open, widening further.

Fierce shockwaves recklessly spread out!

"Ahh! The city walls are going to collapse!"

"Heavens, just what is happening!?"

“A heaven-destroying monster has appeared within the beast tide!”

“We’re all going to die!”

On the walls of Great Deer City, the demons that were resisting the demon beasts all fell to the floor and screamed in fear.

Bang –

A massive section of the city walls was shattered by a terrifying force and sent tumbling to the ground. Innumerable abyssal demons were crushed to death.

And this was only one part that could be seen. At least seven or eight sections of the massive city walls had been ruined.

It could be said that from this moment on, Great Deer City had been broken through.

The terrifying beast tide outside could rush in at any time, turning all of the demons inside into their food.

But soon, the despairing demons discovered that even though Great Deer City had been breached, the beast tide outside seemed to be experiencing something beyond terrifying. Without caring for the feast laid out before them, they turned tail and fled in all directions.

No one knew what was happening. But without a doubt, the vast curtain of abyssal energy in the darkness, so dark and opaque that it blocked everyone’s line of sight, must be hiding the truth behind it.

Old Fox and Shadowless Demon flew into the air, staring into the distance with wide eyes at the incomparably large mass of demonic energy. Their minds were flooded with shock. Even from such a distance, this strength caused them to shiver in fear!

The suspicious thoughts they had after leaving the small courtyard slowly settled and dissipated. When they looked at each other, they could detect the thoughts in the other’s heart.

If what Miss Feature said was true, then this was undoubtedly their lives’ greatest good fortune!

As long as they could grasp this chance, there would be a day when they could become peak existences of the abyss.

However, this was all based on the premise that His Excellency Liu Huo could safely return...

The abyssal demon dragon was not easy to kill, especially after they learnt the ‘truth’ from Miss Feature.

...

The two massive vortexes of abyssal energy couldn’t withstand the fluctuations of strength surging out. They broke apart, turning into a pitch black backdrop that covered up everything.

Within it, vast and enormous flows of abyssal energy crazily tumbled. As they raced around, a force was released that shattered everything. Space crumbled as cracks spread all over to every inch in sight.

Bang –

A giant black shadow smashed through layers of demonic energy. Its body was covered in scales and during the collision, the friction with demonic energy caused sparks to burst out.

The abyssal demon dragon roared out in pain. It could clearly feel that a giant horn on top of its head had broken, and now thick and viscous blood seeped out from the wound.

A dragon's horn was harder than its claws and fangs. It was the strongest part of its body and also an extremely crucial part. It was closely connected to the dragon's heart and once damaged, the dragon would be traumatized with pain, as if it had suffered millions of slashes!

Moreover, what left the abyssal demon dragon feeling fear was that in this confrontation of absolute strength, it was being stubbornly suppressed.

Abyssal titans. In ancient times they had once been the natural enemy of the Demon Dragon Clan, and they were a tribe that had vanished in the endless river of time.

The abyssal demon dragon had originally wanted to destroy Great Deer City and vent all of its anger and indignation. But that thought had vanished now and all that remained was fear.

Run. It had to run. It wasn't a match for this abyssal titan!

Moreover, the abyssal demon dragon had an intuition that this abyssal titan wasn't in a state of true existence.

To phrase it in other words, Qin Yu wouldn't be able to maintain this abyssal titan true body for a long period of time.

As long as it managed to last past this period of time and his bloodline burned out, Qin Yu would lose control of his titan true body and he would return to his original state.

Hou –

The abyssal demon dragon roared. Its giant body flipped around, ready to race into the distance.

But at this time, another deep roar exploded like thunder. Then, a giant hand that seemed to come from heaven tore open walls of abyssal energy and grabbed the tail of the abyssal demon dragon.

“You won't escape!”

With violent force, it forcibly pulled the abyssal demon dragon back. Then, it formed a fist and swung down. With this, the incomparably terrifying abyssal demon dragon that was over 10,000 feet long was swung around like a whip.

Piki paka –

The sounds of countless breaking bones rang through the air, all coming from the abyssal demon dragon. This simple pull and swing had caused horrific damage to it.

And the one who did this, Qin Yu, didn't think about it at all. He had accomplished this by relying on his instincts alone. Thinking about it, this should be from the instincts branded into his bloodline, that came from the abyssal titans capturing and hunting down abyssal demon dragons as food for countless years.

The abyssal demon dragon struggled in pain, wailing again and again. It twined its giant body around the abyssal titan and crazily contracted, wanting to break him in half. Then, it opened its massive jaws and bit down at Qin Yu's neck.

What met its mouth was another punch from the abyssal titan. The punch struck its eyes, causing scales to disintegrate and blood to fly through the air.

Qin Yu locked onto the belly of the abyssal demon dragon, where its torso connected to its head.

Without any reason, he knew that this was the key point of the abyssal demon dragon. It was likely that the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror was located there.

His hand reached out, and sharp nails emerged on the ends of his fingers. They flashed with a black and nearly metallic luster.

The abyssal demon dragon revealed a look of horror. It tightened its body around Qin Yu, clinging on for dear life as it attempted to conceal its belly.

Its head twined around his back and bit into his arm. The two terrifying abyssal beings were engaged in a frigid and brutal slaughter.

For a time, roars and howls shook the earth and a countless amount of scales and blood fell down. Destructive abyssal energy surged out, forming thunderclouds that devastated everything in range.

However, even in this current battle, the abyssal demon dragon wasn't at an advantage. The abyssal titan it attacked seemed completely unaffected. In fact, he seemed to become even more berserk from his injuries.

The nails tore across the body of the abyssal demon dragon, tearing open a large and long wound. A massive amount of blood rained down.

As this attack continued and killing intent invaded his mind, Qin Yu could no longer suppress the desire of the abyss titan bloodline to feed. Like a genuine abyssal being, he opened his mouth and bit down on the abyssal demon dragon, ripping off large chunks of meat and loudly chewing.

Fear shrouded the abyssal demon dragon's mind like a black cloud on the horizon. It felt despair at the approaching shadow of death.

After obtaining the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror it had split off two avatars. Using this method, it broke through its bloodline limit and transformed into an abyssal demon dragon. Once grown up, it would become a terrifying existence on par with an Abyssal King. It should be able to enjoy a nearly endless life approaching immortality.

The abyssal demon dragon was just about to obtain all of this, so how could it be resigned to die here? As it wildly struggled, a crazed look gleamed in its eyes.

Chapter 1064A – 100,000 Foot Long Dragon

The abyssal demon dragon loosened its bite on the abyssal titan and emitted a series of deep and guttural syllables from its throat. Like a thick-skinned drum being sounded in the dark of night, it reverberated through the world, constantly echoing between the heavens and earth.

Hou –

The abyssal titan seemed to sense something. It roared and wildly struck the dragon's head, causing flesh and blood to splatter in all directions in an attempt to interrupt its voice.

But the abyssal demon dragon had resolved itself. Despite the barrage of punches that rained down on it, even if they caused wounds to crack open and bone to be revealed, it kept stubbornly calling out like before.

Blood flowed into its eyes, causing the abyssal demon dragon's eyes to turn scarlet, emanating a berserk cruelty.

Suddenly, the dragon's voice turned sharp and incisive. All of the abyssal demon dragon's strength seemed to be sucked out of its body. It became exhausted and worn out as it slipped off of the abyssal titan's body.

But at this moment, Qin Yu could feel a terrifying threat. Without caring for the abyssal demon dragon that had lost all resistance, he looked up above, where tumbling waves of abyssal energy started to gather.

Although it was dark and there didn't seem to be anything there, he could feel a destructive intent gathering.

This was...a sword!

Countless memories suddenly gushed out from Qin Yu's mind. This came from the titan bloodline that he was wildly combusting within his body.

The Dragon Abyss Sword came from an ancestral land of the Demon Dragon Clan. It was bred from countless abyssal dragons and was a sacred weapon exalted by the Demon Dragon Clan.

Any abyssal demon dragon that felt its life being threatened could summon the will of the Dragon Abyss Sword to arrive and cut down their opponent.

Of course, summoning the Dragon Abyss Sword caused astonishing losses to the abyssal demon dragon. Even a fully grown abyssal demon dragon would need to pay a severe price for this.

And the abyssal demon dragon outside of Great Deer City was newly born. Its strength shouldn't have been enough to summon the Dragon Abyss Sword.

It had succeeded, and a large part of that was due to luck. Of course, it also had to pay a heavy price.

For instance, right now all of its strength had been sucked out. Even a Demon General would be able to kill it at this moment.

Certainly, the premise for this was that the Demon General had a treasure that could break through the defenses of the abyssal demon dragon. Otherwise even if a Demon General were to attack it for an entire year, they still might not be able to tear open a wound on its body.

The Dragon Abyss Sword lived in symbiosis with the Demon Dragon Clan and it had been enshrined and worshipped for hundreds of millions of years. It was blessed by all abyssal demon dragons and it had already given birth to its own will.

At the moment it arrived, it immediately sensed the aura of its natural nemesis, the abyssal titan. Without any need for command, it cut down.

Bang –

Endless abyssal energy blew apart, evaporating and dispersing into nothingness.

Within the abyssal energy, a straight channel appeared. The Dragon Abyss Sword was blindingly fast as it soared at the abyssal titan.

Qin Yu could feel an intense threat. He reared back his head and roared. Reaching out a hand, he grasped forward. A shaking came from within his body, causing the cracked space around him to break open. Space could no longer withstand it and completely disintegrated.

Then, after space disintegrated, a black suit of armor slowly appeared from the pitch black nothingness and settled on Qin Yu's body.

At the same time, the phantom of a giant black spear appeared. As the abyssal titan grasped it with its hand, it rapidly condensed into reality.

The Ancient race had three Sacred Mountains, each one enshrining their own divine tool. And because the Ancient race originated from the abyssal titan bloodline...an abyssal titan could naturally summon them too.

Or it could be said that what an abyssal titan summoned was the true armor and spear!

Myriad Battle Infinity Armor...Dragon Extinguishing Spear...

At this moment, the abyssal titan was covered with the infinity armor and held the dragon slaying spear in hand. Qin Yu could feel the excitement of these two treasures that had lain quiet for countless years.

Boundless fighting intent erupted from within his heart, flooding out his bloodthirsty desires. Qin Yu roared out loud, raised his hand without hesitation, and stabbed at the Dragon Abyss Sword.

In the next moment, the black backdrop that shrouded everything directly shattered. With abyssal energy disappearing behind it, the Dragon Abyss Sword pierced down.

Whether it was the Dragon Extinguishing Spear or Dragon Abyss Sword, they were both born from the abyss and were pitch black in color. When they collided, it was like two bolts of black lightning crashing into each other.

Spear point and sword point clashed. A shockwave erupted from this point, sweeping out in all directions.

A wild strength directly severed the black backdrop in half.

Then, whether it was the top half or bottom half, it all began to collapse and dissipate. Thus, the countless demons in Great Deer City saw everything that had been hidden behind it.

Two terrifying figures appeared in their eyes. What they saw caused their hearts to nearly stop beating.

Abyssal demon dragon! That was an abyssal demon dragon!

As a terrifying abyssal creature that stood at the top of the food chain, they had a resounding reputation. They were feared by almost all tribes of the abyss.

But now, this formidable abyssal demon dragon was cut and bruised, left looking horrifically damaged. Its 10,000 foot long body barely managed to stay in the air.

One could clearly see the wounds on the surface of the abyssal demon dragon, as well as the signs of flesh and blood having been torn and bitten off.

So after a brief shock, all eyes shifted to the terrifying figure that stood nearly 30,000 foot tall, as if it supported the heavens on its shoulders.

Countless demons groaned inwardly. They never imagined that such a terrifying entity still existed in the abyss!

At this moment, the black armor that giant wore seemed to have undergone a terrifying baptism. The plates were shattered in numerous sections and the exposed skin was covered in countless wounds.

It could be said that this giant had no intact spot on its body. But even such severe injuries weren't enough to cause it to lower its head.

The giant's back was still straight, like a towering mountain that soared into the skies. It stood there, as if it wouldn't bend no matter how strong of a storm struck it.

Hou –

A roar suddenly came from the giant's mouth. The terrifying sound entered everyone's ears.

Amongst Great Deer City's countless demons, the slightly weaker ones were shaken by this strength and spat out blood. Some of them even fainted where they stood.

The will projection of the Dragon Abyss Sword had arrived and shattered, then dissipating. The Dragon Extinguishing Spear in Qin Yu's hand was also broken in half.

But he was still the one who had won this battle. When his giant eyes locked onto the abyssal demon dragon, this terrifying existence that stood at the top of the abyss' food chain roared in panic and fear and struggled to escape.

But summoning the Dragon Abyss Sword had consumed almost all of its strength.

The abyssal titan strode forward. The abyssal demon dragon roared out even louder as its sense of fear became that much more intense. But no matter what, it couldn't change the outcome that was about to happen.

A frighteningly large hand picked up the abyssal demon dragon. Another hand stabbed into its belly. As the abyssal demon dragon futilely struggled, a giant ball of meat was pulled out from inside it.

This ball of meat was translucent, and one could see a mirror of unknown quality wrapped inside.

Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror, this was definitely the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror!

Qin Yu was overjoyed. Then, he was overcome by weakness. A black hole seemed to erupt from within his body, crazily sucking out his strength.

The titan bloodline and the three Demon Commander level demon seed bloodlines were about to burn out. In order to block the Dragon Abyss Sword a moment ago, he had been forced to summon the Myriad Battle Infinity Armor and the Dragon Extinguishing Spear, causing him to lose far too much strength.

He used a nail to cut an opening on his chest. Then, he took the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror that was still wrapped in a ball of meat and plunged it into his chest. Right after that, Qin Yu, the incarnation of an abyssal titan, let out a scream.

He grabbed the abyssal demon dragon with both hands. Erupting with his final remnants of strength, he fiercely tore in both directions.

Then, a horrifying scene occurred. Accompanied by a cacophony of harrowing sounds, the 10,000 foot long abyssal demon dragon was ripped in half!

Even when ripped in half, the abyssal demon dragon didn't die yet. It screamed in pain and swayed from side to side.

But at this time, the abyssal titan was already impatient. It folded up one half of the dragon's body and started chewing on it.

Blood spattered in all directions. With large swallowing gulps, the flesh and blood of the abyssal demon dragon was devoured and directly transformed into a formidable strength that maintained the titan true body.

The entirety of Great Deer City fell deathly silent at this moment. It was like a finger possessing supreme power had pushed down and suspended time within the abyss world.

All of the abyssal demons watched with wide eyes. Far too many shocking and unbelievable scenes were occurring outside the city.

An incomparably formidable abyssal demon dragon, a creature that existed only in legends to them, had been torn in half.

Moreover, while the abyssal demon dragon hadn't yet died, it was being bitten and eaten up.

If they didn't witness this with their own eyes, they wouldn't believe it even if someone cut off their heads.

Abyssal demon dragon...this was an abyssal demon dragon...it was known as the favored pet of the abyss. It possessed terrifying strength from the moment it was born, and when fully grown it would become an existence on par with an Abyssal King.

But now, in front of this giant, it had been reduced to food that was being torn apart. This contrast was too great, so great that the demons in Great Deer City couldn't accept it.

However, no matter how unacceptable this was, when it truly happened in front of them, they had no choice but to slowly force themselves to accept it.

Finally, some demons regained their composure. One of them shook his head, recalling ancient fables he had read about once.

It was said that in times long past, when the abyss was just born, many terrifying creatures existed there. And, the abyssal demon dragons were only one of these types of creatures, and they were only relatively normal in terms of strength.

This was because there was a type of giant. They were born a thousand feet tall and when they were fully grown they easily passed 10,000 feet in height. Their strength was endless and they supported the heavens and earth. The name of these giants was the abyssal titans. They were born with a natural desire to eat the flesh and blood of abyssal demon dragons. As a tribe that hunted and ate abyssal demon dragons, they were naturally their nemesis.

Countless years later, due to some unknown reason, the abyssal titans started to wane, eventually vanishing from the abyss world.

Chapter 1064B – 100,000 Foot Long Dragon

“Abyssal titan! It’s the legendary abyssal titan that was said to have gone extinct!”

“How is that possible? This is something that should only appear in myths!”

“No wonder even a formidable abyssal demon dragon could only be its food. It was actually an abyssal titan!”

Cries of alarm filled Great Deer City. Endless awe shined in the eyes of the demons.

Old Fox and Shadowless Demon gently trembled. Now, they no longer doubted the ‘truth’ that Miss Feature spoke of. His Excellency Liu Huo really did possess the purest bloodline of ancient times.

Right now, he had descended into the abyss, following a supreme mission. He could step onto the highest peak of the abyss, becoming an unmatched figure.

This road was difficult and filled with dangers. At any moment, a test from the will of the abyss could completely ruin him.

But because of this, Liu Huo needed outside help to finally pass the last test from the will of the abyss!

Taking a deep breath, light started to shine in Old Fox and Shadowless Demon’s eyes.

This was because they had been chosen by Miss Feature to follow Liu Huo. They would be his followers who would overcome all obstacles to join him.

Perhaps this was dangerous, perhaps death awaited them, but no matter what happened, this was bound to become the greatest honor of their lives.

And if they succeeded, they would become immortal, living together with the abyss. They would even bring the bloodlines of their tribes to heights never before reached.

For this, they were willing to abandon everything!

...

In the small courtyard, the pale-faced Feature revealed a smile.

He had really succeeded. She knew that with Qin Yu's luck, he wouldn't die so easily.

That's right, before this started, Feature wasn't absolutely certain he would succeed.

Although the Abyssal Titan Clan was the natural nemesis of abyssal demon dragons, that didn't mean that the strength of an abyssal titan could completely restrain an abyssal demon dragon.

In the ancient past when the abyss had just appeared, the titans and abyssal demon dragons were born. Because of their special tastes, both sides were like fire and water.

Countless abyssal demon dragons died being eaten by the abyssal titans. But at the same time, many of the gluttonous abyssal titans also died.

Of course, there was no need to say this any longer. Since Qin Yu had succeeded, it was her turn to enter the stage.

Feature stood up and looked outside of Great Deer City. Her eyes were calm, a faint trace of light circulating within them. She exuded a majestic temperament that left everyone in awe of her.

Without any strength, just by standing there she naturally became the center of the world. All things had to bow their heads and show their respect to her.

Although the will of the abyss was a bit brainless, its methods of stalking and fighting until the end were still considerably powerful. Feature narrowed her eyes. Her ethereal presence became even stronger. She knew she could no longer avoid this.

But at the very least, she could complete her arrangements before she vanished.

...

With the flesh and blood of the abyssal demon dragon supplementing his strength, Qin Yu was able to maintain the titan true body. He could feel that the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror he put inside himself had already recognized him as its master.

Sure enough, Feature had been right. After obtaining Mian Ya's blood, she really was able to break past the limitations of the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror, where those not of the Nine-tailed Demon Fox Clan weren't able to fully control it.

At this time, Qin Yu could feel his wildly burning titan bloodline fall into a stable and silent state.

This stabilizing strength came from the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror. As long as this strength didn't disperse, he could forever maintain the titan true body.

Of course, this didn't mean that Qin Yu could summon the titan true body whenever he wanted and without any scruples. This was because while his bloodline would no longer be depleted when he transformed, he still needed the power of the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror to maintain it.

Once the strength of the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror was exhausted, his titan true body transformation would naturally undo itself. It would fall into a quiet state until the demon mirror gathered enough strength for another summoning.

He silently calculated. The strength of a fully charged Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror would allow him to maintain the titan true body for around an hour. After that strength was exhausted, it would require at least a month to recover.

Every month he could only use it for an hour. This seemed to be a pathetically small amount, but Qin Yu was more than satisfied with it.

Under the titan true body transformation, he was confident that even if he faced off against an Abyssal Demon King, he could last for a time.

If he were to fight anyone else, this would be a sure-kill technique. Anyone besides an Abyssal Demon King would be ground to dust.

And this was a super great card that could be reused. If he wasn't satisfied with it, then that was being far too greedy!

Feature...

This woman had given Qin Yu a great present, even if he obtained the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror by risking his life.

The entire process seemed incomparably smooth. He had fought the abyssal demon dragon, finally devouring it into his body.

But in truth, it was extremely dangerous. Just a bit longer and his titan bloodline would have burnt out.

If anything had changed during that battle, then it would have had a completely different ending!

Because of his battle with the abyssal demon dragon, the beast tide outside of Great Deer City had been scared off and could no longer pose a threat to the city. As for the abyssal demon dragon, it had become food within the abyssal titan's belly, supplementing him with strength.

So, this meant that they survived this attack from the will of the abyss, right?

But just as this thought appeared in Qin Yu's mind, an enraged dragon's cry resounded through the heavens.

Rumble rumble –

In an instant, endless abyssal energy was summoned, condensing into a flood that smashed out in all directions. With a loud bang, Qin Yu's abyssal titan body was struck and sent flying away.

Space shattered and an enormous hole appeared from the dark nothingness. A suffocatingly large abyssal demon dragon slowly flew out.

If it was said that the abyssal demon dragon Qin Yu killed had an incomparably terrifying aura, then the contrast between that one and this one was like seeing a baby and an adult.

It had just arrived here and without any movements at all, the abyssal energy whipped up by its aura had formed a tide of abyssal energy that struck Qin Yu and sent him flying back!

As more and more of its large body appeared, the air turned thick and viscous. It became incredibly difficult to breathe, as if the air was going to freeze solid.

Finally, the entire abyssal demon dragon emerged from the spatial black hole. It spread out its body, looking like a continuously winding mountain range. It was over 100,000 feet long and its figure slowly moved. Its armored dragon scales grated on each other, causing a sound like metal on ice.

“Abyssal titan...damn it!”

The 100,000 foot long abyssal demon dragon’s roar was accompanied by a cold and violent killing intent. Each syllable was like thunder, wildly exploding.

Qin Yu revealed a bitter expression. Could it be that this was the will of the abyss’ true plan? Or, was it that the will of the abyss would never give up as long as he and Feature were alive?

This wasn’t a solution!

Unless it was death. Besides death, there was no other path that the will of the abyss would let them take.

It was said that as the heavenly dao turned, it always left an open path...but, these words didn’t seem too convincing in the abyss.

It wasn’t that Qin Yu was pessimistic nor that he lacked confidence. Rather, the strength of this abyssal demon dragon was simply far too terrifying.

The abyssal titans hunted abyssal demon dragons and devoured their flesh and blood to survive. If an abyssal demon dragon were equal or slightly weaker in strength to an abyssal titan, then an abyssal titan would have an advantage.

But if the disparity in strength was too great, then the roles of hunter and hunted would change.

100,000 foot long dragon body...this abyssal demon dragon was absolutely in its peak condition right now. Moreover, according to what he knew about abyssal beings, the larger they were the stronger they were. The strength of this creature was definitely far above a normal Abyssal Demon King.

How could he fight this? How could he struggle for his life?

Almost all of the demons in Great Deer City were struck by the aura of the 100,000 foot long dragon and fainted where they stood.

At this moment, only a few outstanding individuals were able to remain conscious. But even so, their faces were all pale and their eyes were full of fear.

Today, their horizons had been broadened. Terrifying existences appeared one after another. First it was an abyssal demon dragon, then it was an abyssal titan that ate that abyssal demon dragon. Right after that, another one arrived, this one 100,000 feet long. This was clearly an abyssal demon dragon on the level of a Demon Beast King. Just its presence alone was enough to suppress the abyssal titan.

What? You asked that the two sides hadn't yet fought so how could everyone tell that the abyssal titan was suppressed? What nonsense, is there still a need to explain this? This demon dragon was over 100,000 feet long, and just by arriving, it spurred enough abyssal energy that it shook the abyssal titan and sent it flying away.

There was nothing to say about this obvious difference in strength.

Old Fox and Shadowless Demon's faces stiffened. With their strength, they were just slightly better than the other demons around them. Their pale faces weren't as obvious.

Now, their eyes were wide with shock and they subconsciously drooled. Could this be the true test of the abyss that Miss Feature spoke of?

This...wasn't this a bit too much? They acknowledged that Liu Huo who possessed the bloodline of the abyssal titans could be said to stand at the highest peak beneath an Abyssal King. And even when facing an Abyssal King, he still had a chance to escape.

But compared to this 100,000 foot long abyssal demon dragon that was surely of the Elder level, the difference in strength was far too great, so great that they couldn't imagine any chance of survival.

And facing this situation, the two could only flee as far as possible. They simply didn't dare to approach, much less help.

As Old Fox and Shadowless Demon were left flustered and in fear, the courtyard doors creaked open and Feature stepped out.

She glanced at Old Fox, thinking for a moment before saying, "Appear in your true demon body and bring me outside the city."

Covered by her gaze, Old Fox instinctually felt awe and terror. He wasn't able to resist her orders at all.

Demonic light flashed and a several dozen foot long demon fox appeared. He respectfully bowed to Feature and crawled to the floor.

Feature crawled up the demon fox's back and settled herself. She slapped him and said, "Let's go."

Chapter 1065 – Demon Dragon Clan Elder

The demon fox moved and leapt into the air. Demonic energy appeared, wrapping around it and forming a barrier. Then, its limbs began to move as it shot out of the city.

The 100,000 foot long demon dragon's ice-cold and indifferent eyes were locked onto the abyssal titan. Cruelty and killing intent surged within them.

It had sensed the will transmitted from the Dragon Abyss Sword. This was why it broke through the void of the abyss, directly arriving at Great Deer City.

But it was still one step late. The 100,000 foot long demon dragon could smell the blood in the air, blood that belonged to the tribe of demon dragons.

It was young and was filled with impurities. It was clearly from some young fellow that managed to luckily activate their demon dragon bloodline and evolve into one.

As long as this fellow entered the ancestral lands of the demon dragons and borrowed the strength of the Dragon Pool to wash away its impurities, its bloodline would have become perfect.

These types of juniors that transformed themselves, evolving into a demon dragon, often had incredible talent. As long as they were given enough time, they could grow into outstanding members of the Demon Dragon Clan, contributing their effort and strength for the growth and prosperity of the tribe.

But now, this kid that had just developed a dragon body had fallen for some vicious scheme and had been eaten up by the abyssal titan in front.

As this thought appeared, its dragon eyes became increasingly cold. As a result, the temperature in the surrounding abyss world started to dramatically fall.

Kacha –

Kacha –

Qin Yu could hear a sound similar to ice freezing over in his ears. An extreme cold aura started to seep into his body through his pores.

Even with the powerful defensive abilities of an abyssal titan, he still felt his heartbeat about to stop beneath this corrosive chill, and his blood almost froze along with it.

This was the strength of a genuine powerhouse from the Demon Dragon Clan? It really was incomparably terrifying!

Following this, he should be smashed apart by it.

Qin Yu's eyes flashed with fear. This was a normal response that any living being would develop when faced with the possibility of death.

Perhaps because of a powerful will, life's mission, or belief, there were some beings capable of achieving a state where they were at peace with death.

But when death was about to approach, they would feel fear. This was an instinct of all living creatures who yearned to survive, and no one was an exception.

But soon the fear in Qin Yu's eyes was covered with a berserk franticness.

Even if he was doomed to die here, it was impossible for him to sit down and resign himself to destruction.

He would not wait for death. No matter what point of time it was in his life, he would never do this.

The 100,000 foot demon dragon was terrifying, but if he went all-out he could still tear off a chunk of its flesh.

Even if he couldn't tear off a chunk of its flesh, destroying some of its scales was also a good result.

In short, he wouldn't be killed without that person paying a price.

The heart of the abyss beat vigorously within his chest. The terrifying strength of an abyssal titan shook his body.

Kacha –

Kacha –

The ice cold strength that was about to freeze Qin Yu started to crack apart and disintegrate.

The 100,000 foot demon dragon's eyes flashed with surprise. It never imagined that Qin Yu would still have the courage to resist right now. But soon, that surprise turned into a cold sneer.

If someone could reverse a situation just because they had the courage to go all-out, then what was the use of strength? At most this would just require him to use some more effort.

The 100,000 foot demon dragon opened its jaws, revealing rows of fierce fangs. A dark blue light began to gather from deep in its throat.

Demon Dragon's Breath!

To be exact, this was one of the strongest methods of the Demon Dragon Clan.

The reason that the abyssal demon dragon Qin Yu killed didn't use its dragon's breath against him was because it had vented its anger in the previous battle and damaged itself in the process, and it still hadn't recovered.

Otherwise, it would have taken Qin Yu considerably more effort to kill it.

Qin Yu had been just a short moment away from burning out his abyssal titan bloodline and being unable to maintain his titan true body...thinking about it that way, the abyssal demon dragon had been wronged in its death, and it had even caused its own death in a way.

The deep blue light grew brighter and brighter, like a quietly burning fire beneath a layer of ice. Although it didn't seem hot, it possessed the strength to destroy everything!

If this dragon's breath truly arrived, then even with his abyssal titan true body state, he would still be turned into ashes in an instant. There would be nothing left of his mortal body.

But at this time, the 100,000 foot long demon dragon's pupils shrank, as if it sensed some immense threat.

It turned its head and locked its eyes onto the direction of Great Deer City. In its line of sight, it could see a laughably weak white fox flying towards it, surrounded with demonic energy.

Such a little thing was not what made it feel threatened. But, the dangerous aura did come from its body.

Then, a white and delicate palm reached out and pushed away the long fur of the white fox. A woman said, "Old Fox, your fur is too long, you need to give it a good cut."

Feature revealed her face. She looked up at the 100,000 foot demon dragon and their eyes met. She smiled and waved her hand, "Hey big fellow, this is our first time meeting, hello!"

There was no way to describe the mood of the Demon Dragon Clan Elder Ao Fa. He couldn't feel any aura coming from this woman's body.

She was as small and weak as an ant. Let alone a breath, just a single glance could kill millions of her.

But for some unknown reason, when facing Feature, Elder Ao Fa felt a great sense of fear swell up from his heart.

He even felt a strange sensation, as if a sharp blade had been aimed between his eyebrows. If he dared to show any disrespect, he would be torn in half. A cold chill seeped into his heart.

Just who was this woman? Why did she give off such a terrifying feeling? It had to be known that as an Elder of the Demon Dragon Clan, Ao Fa's skills and strength nearly reached the pinnacle of the abyss.

In his tribe, besides a few ancient demon dragons including the Patriarch, as well as some unfathomably talented kings, there was simply no one he feared.

Yet someone as formidable as him felt the threat of death when facing this woman who released no aura.

This was simply a joke!

But right now, Elder Ao Fa couldn't laugh at all. He closed his mouth, reclaiming the dragon's breath that was about to erupt. He looked at Feature earnestly and bowed his head in the courtesy of the Demon Dragon Clan. "Demon Dragon Clan Elder Ao Fa greets miss."

Feature nodded. "Elder Ao Fa is a truly polite individual. I'm relieved." She blinked her eyes and gestured at Qin Yu. "Let this kid go and then we'll talk further. Don't worry, this is a good thing for you."

Elder Ao Fa hesitated for a moment before withdrawing the power that imprisoned Qin Yu.

Qin Yu immediately ended the titan true body state and flickered over to Feature's side.

Giving Qin Yu a look that told him not to talk, Feature reached out a hand and said, "Elder Ao Fa, please return to my residence with me. However, it would be best if you change your current appearance first. It isn't too convenient."

Demonic energy flickered and the 100,000 foot long demon dragon disappeared. Elder Ao Fa took on the appearance of a middle-aged demon who looked around 40 years of age. He wore loose black robes and had a graceful bearing. "Very well. I also want to know what miss would like to discuss with me."

Feature didn't speak further. She patted the white fox and beckoned Qin Yu, "Let's go."

Thus, all of the demons in Great Deer City that were still conscious watched with panic-stricken wide eyes as a terrifying 100,000 foot demon dragon took human form and flew over.

They had no idea what happened, but without a doubt, if this terrifying demon dragon were to become angered, all it would need to do was reveal its true form and roll around a few times to turn the entire city into dust...naturally, they would all be crushed to death in the process.

Shadowless Demon confessed that he had seen many magnificent scenes in his life and had overcome numerous disasters. But right now his throat was as dry as straw and he couldn't utter a single sound.

Although Elder Ao Fa had taken the appearance of a middle-aged demon and was diligently restraining his aura, he was still like a moving mountain in the senses of others. All they could do was crawl on the foot of the mountain as if they were common ants.

Feature leapt down from the white fox. She staggered, almost falling over before she was caught by Qin Yu. She patted his head and said, "It's been too noisy outside the city so I haven't had a good rest lately. Elder Ao Fa must have found this funny. Please, come in."

Elder Ao Fa's lips twitched. With his eyesight he naturally wouldn't see things wrong. This woman's strength was poor and she had indeed almost fallen over.

But it was such a sick and dispirited woman who could barely stand steady that had given off such a dangerous feeling.

And he didn't dare to do anything at all. In their contact so far, she held the initiative.

This really was strange!

As these thoughts raced through Elder Ao Fa's mind, he smiled and nodded, entering the courtyard behind Feature. He glanced around.

Fortunately, he didn't sense anything wrong. It seemed that she really just wanted to have a chat with him.

Ao Fa's eyes sparkled before he composed himself.

"Qin Yu, wait outside for a bit. I have some matters to discuss with Elder Ao Fa in private."

Qin Yu looked at her and slowly nodded, "Okay."

Creak –

The courtyard doors closed, isolating all senses.

Qin Yu drew in a deep breath and slowly let it out. Looking at the courtyard doors, his eyes flickered with uncertainty.

As he thought, Feature wasn't as simple as her appearance suggested.

Even the solemn Demon Dragon Clan Elder was suppressed by her...just what was her origin?

Moreover, what was she planning to speak to Elder Ao Fa about?

Qin Yu didn't think it was about harming him. But he didn't like this feeling of not knowing anything.

Whatever. Feature could deal with the current situation as she wished. He would figure out a way to ask her about the details in the future.

Chapter 1066 – Ten Days

The atmosphere in the little courtyard was peaceful. Feature went over to where Qin Yu normally sat and took a seat. She gestured with a hand, "Elder Ao Fa, please."

Ao Fa walked over and sat down, "May I ask where miss came from? My Demon Dragon Clan can be considered experienced and knowledgeable, but never have I heard of someone so exceptional as you."

Feature yawned, as if she wasn't in good spirits. She vaguely said, "There is no need to probe me. And my origins aren't important."

She waved her hand and changed the topic, "You appeared in Great Deer City and also saw me. Are you telling me you haven't felt it?"

Ao Fa remained expressionless. "I do not understand what you are trying to say."

Feature curled her lips, "You old fellows that have lived for too long like to hide your thoughts. Since I spoke about it, of course I am confident in myself. Elder Ao Fa, it would be wise if we spoke honestly to each other so that we don't waste each other's time, right?"

Ao Fa was silent for several breaths of time. He slowly nodded and said, "Miss is correct. When I first saw you, I had a strong feeling that if I killed you I would receive a great harvest."

Feature yawned again, "In truth, you can be even more straightforward."

Ao Fa's eyes were obscure as he said, "I could feel traces of fixation from the abyss' will on your body."

Feature snapped her fingers and smiled, "That's right, this is it. I must say that as a dignified Elder of the Demon Dragon Clan who had obtained the approval of the abyss' will, if you cannot realize such a small thing, that really would be disappointing."

She rubbed her forehead and invigorated her spirits. Feature continued to say, "Let me ask you something. Elder Ao Fa, since you have sensed that the will of the abyss has locked onto me, why haven't you attacked me? You should know that as long as you kill me the will of the abyss will surely grant you a great reward."

Ao Fa shook his head, "We abyssal demon dragons might be proud of our bloodline and act arrogantly in many respects, but that doesn't mean we are stupid. The abyss' will has locked onto you yet hasn't directly attacked you. To me, this in itself is the greatest warning. So how would I dare rashly attack miss?"

"Hehe, speaking with a smart dragon really does save effort." Feature snapped her fingers again, "So you don't dare to attack me, but you really want to attack me. And right now, I can give you a chance to move against me without doing anything at all...it's a bit complicated, but you understand my meaning, right?"

Ao Fa nodded, "I understand miss' meaning. Then what do you need me to do?"

"It's simple. Once I vanish, the Demon Dragon Clan cannot hunt down or chase after that boy outside. Don't try to feign ignorance with me. You and I both know who I am talking about." Feature's lips curved up in a smile, "Of course, this is just my first condition. After all, my value is high and I can't sell myself short."

Ao Fa was tranquil. "Of course. This is just a minor matter. The Abyssal Titan Clan has already been destroyed. Even if a part of their bloodline still exists in the outside, it cannot affect the Demon Dragon Clan."

“Wonderful. Then I will put forth a second condition.” Feature thought for a moment before continuing, “For a reason I cannot tell you about, I promised to guarantee that this boy lives well in the abyss. However, he really likes to mess around and his ability to invite calamity is truly top class. So, my second condition is to give him a token of yours so that he can summon you in a time of danger.”

Ao Fa furrowed his eyebrows. He thought about it and slowly nodded, “I can agree to that. But as miss says, if the person he provokes is too great, so great that it will pose a threat to my own safety, then I can choose to refuse.”

Feature laughed, “No. Elder Ao Fa, it seems you don’t understand the current situation yet. I simply told you my condition, but that doesn’t mean I’m giving you room to bargain with me. Of course, you can choose to refuse me, but I am confident that I can find other partners for cooperation.”

These words were extremely rude and were a direct slap to the face, but Ao Fa didn’t lose his temper. His frown tightened and he thought about it for several breaths of time, “Good, I agree.”

Finger stretched out a finger, “Don’t be afraid. This is my third condition and also my last condition. I won’t make things too hard for you.”

Ao Fa’s heart twitched. If it weren’t for those strong words just now, he really might have believed her.

“Miss, please speak.”

“In the future, for certain reasons, that boy Qin Yu might intrude into places that he shouldn’t intrude into. This is only my guess and it won’t necessarily happen. But if it does, what I want you to do is to turn a blind eye to it. You don’t need to help him, but you cannot stop him either.”

Ao Fa revealed an awkward expression. “If he wants to enter the ancestral lands of my Demon Dragon Clan...”

Feature waved a hand, “Don’t worry. I can promise that this has no connection to your ancestral land.”

Ao Fa nodded, “Then there’s no problem.”

Feature reached out a hand, “Then I hope this cooperation goes well!”

Ao Fa heisted for a moment before shaking hands with her. When their palms touched, he froze in place as if he sensed something incomparably terrifying happen.

Feature released her hand and harmlessly smiled, “I trust that Elder Ao Fa will keep his word, right?”

Ao Fa understood her. He gulped and said, “That...of course. Miss, please rest assured that I will abide by our agreement.”

His voice shivered and his eyes tried to avoid her. It was obvious that this Demon Dragon Clan Elder had been genuinely frightened.

Feature’s smile brightened, “Great. Then I won’t keep you here any longer. Ten days from now, I will give you an explanation.”

Ao Fa stood up and bid his farewells. He pushed open the door and left the courtyard. Looking around, he locked onto Qin Yu not too far away. He walked over and raised a hand. Demonic light surged and a black, knuckle-sized block of jade-like material appeared.

“Take this. At any time in the future, you can use this to summon me once.” After handing the jade to Qin Yu, Ao Fa didn’t pause. He took a step forward and vanished.

Feature’s voice echoed out from the courtyard, “Qin Yu, come over! Let me inspect your current condition!”

When he came in, Feature’s eyes lit up as if she saw a treasure. She couldn’t help but cautiously stroke Qin Yu’s body. “An abyssal titan, a living abyssal titan! Although the bloodline isn’t too pure, you can be considered a living fossil of the abyss world.

“Go, go, go, I need to perform an interesting experiment on you. I want to see what secrets are hidden in the abyssal titan bloodline.”

Qin Yu stood there without expression, looking at her without saying a word.

After a moment and seeing him not move, Feature glared at him. Then she glared at him a second time, a third time...soon, she realized how firm Qin Yu’s heart was. She put on a helpless expression and said, “In truth, there’s nothing much to say. If you really want to know then wait ten days.”

Qin Yu frowned, “Why ten days? Feature, are you hiding something from me?”

Feature humphed. “Even the Elder of the Demon Dragon Clan silently holds in his grievances before me, and yet you dare to argue with me? I said ten days so it's ten days. If you keep on complaining, be careful that I might change my mind!”

“Fine! Ten days is ten days. At that time, you have to tell me everything!” Qin Yu quietly said.

Feature beamed with joy. “Yes, yes, everything will be as you say!”

She grabbed Qin Yu and pulled him into a room.

“Hurry, hurry, take off your clothes and lay down!”

Qin Yu: ...

No matter how he interpreted it, these words didn’t sound right!

Old Fox and Shadowless Demon waited at the entrance to the courtyard. Their bodies were stiff and a cold sweat dripped down their foreheads.

The heavens and earth could bear witness that they really didn’t intend on hearing these words...they shouldn’t be eliminated to remove all potential informants, right!?

Carefully closing the courtyard doors, Old Fox and Shadowless Demon let out long breaths of relief. They scolded their subordinates to leave and also withdrew a certain distance themselves.

Who knew what would happen inside the courtyard? It was best to hide as far away as possible so that they didn’t provoke a fatal disaster for themselves.

After all, even an Elder of the Demon Dragon Clan had been suppressed when facing the two in the courtyard. If those two wanted to crush them, it would be far too easy!

Enduring the physical discomfort, Qin Yu gritted his teeth and cooperated with Feature to complete her strange experiments. Then, he hurriedly escaped.

It wasn't that she put forth too many requests or that the process hurt. It was just that he found the entire thing too difficult to accept.

For instance...

Whatever. It was over anyway. In short, it was something that left one feeling uncomfortable.

For the next two days, Feature refined demon medicine in a completely mesmerized state. Even the heavens had no idea what she was doing.

Qin Yu was glad for this. And he could take advantage of this period of time to adapt to the changes of strength in his body.

The only bad thing was that Mian Ya had woken up already. He had no idea what Feature fed her but her injuries had been healed. At the very least, her daily movement was no longer hindered.

Her faintly resentful eyes appeared when she first saw Qin Yu. And they never left him again.

The Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror...the supreme treasure of their Nine-tailed Demon Fox Clan that had been inherited for countless years...that represented the future hopes of their entire tribe...

Had been taken by him.

It wasn't stolen or suppressed. Rather, he had obtained the true approval of the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror. In other words, unless Qin Yu took the initiative to give the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror back to the Nine-tailed Demon Fox Clan, they would forever lose this treasure.

Thinking of this, the bitterness in Mian Ya's eyes became heavier. This was because even an idiot knew that she couldn't pull out a piece of fat that someone had eaten already.

In fact, Mian Ya was correct. This was because it was only with the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror that Qin Yu was able to solidify the titan true body. Disregarding all else, just this alone was enough for him to thicken his facial skin and pretend that he didn't see her.

As Qin Yu was withstanding Mian Ya's lament and carefully exploring the power of the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror, Old Fox came to visit.

He had no choice but to come. This was because Black Astral, whose bloodline had been drawn out by Feature, was now a lamp that had run out of oil. He wouldn't be able to last much longer.

"Liu Huo...uh...I mean Your Excellency Qin Yu, Black Astral is on the verge of death. If possible, I ask you or Miss Feature to save him. I can guarantee you that if he survives, he will surely become a strong boost to you."

Qin Yu slapped his forehead, feeling a bit embarrassed. After he returned to Great Deer City he had completely forgotten about this.

He opened Feature's door and saw her face that looked as if it hadn't gotten a single day of rest as well as her reddened eyes. After a brief surprise, he knew that she had also forgotten about Black Astral.

With a light cough, Qin Yu pulled her over and explained the situation. Feature slapped her forehead and said, "I forgot...it doesn't matter though. Bring him over. I guarantee that he won't die."

As she spoke, she looked at Qin Yu's body. For some reason he felt that she had some sinister intentions.

Qin Yu took a step backwards, "Hey, what are you doing?"

Feature smiled blindingly. "Black Astral had his bloodline drawn out to help you, so saving his life is also a responsibility you cannot avoid."

"Come, enter the room with me. Once this matter is finished, it will also be time for us to leave Great Deer City and take a look at this endless abyss."

Chapter 1067 – Look At the Abyss

Four days after the Demon Dragon Elder left Great Deer City, an ordinary black iron carriage quietly drove out of the city.

The one driving the carriage was an unsmiling middle-aged man. His expression was cold and he looked straight ahead. Occasionally he glanced around, light bursting out in his eyes.

Behind the carriage was an old man of the Demon Fox Clan riding atop a horned horse. He wore ordinary blue robes and had a sack slung across his back. He had the appearance of a steward or even an accountant.

Great Deer City which had survived a disaster and the demons who lived within had no idea that those who helped them make it through had quietly left.

Of course, to be more exact, the reason they encountered such a terrifying catastrophe-level beast tide was also because of them.

So Qin Yu never thought of harvesting any gratitude from Great Deer City, nor did he take anything from them. Since Feature wanted to see the wider abyss world, he would simply depart.

The seemingly ordinary carriage was spacious and comfortable inside. A thick demon beast pelt was laid down across the floor.

In front of a large and soft couch, there was a table carefully carved from abyssal ink jade. It was crafted into the carriage and wouldn't shake with any movements or bumps.

There was a quietly burning oil lamp on the exquisite surface of the table. The lamp oil was pure and transparent, and when it burned, it exuded a fresh and invigorating fragrance.

Mian Ya wore maid robes of the demon race. She half knelt down, and when she looked at the two people sitting on both sides of the table, her lips subconsciously twitched.

This level was truly rotten...

“That’s not right, I didn’t make the right move. I’m going to take it back a step.” Feature yelled as she picked up a chess piece.

Qin Yu rubbed his forehead, “If you continue playing like this, there really will be no way to play chess.”

Feature curled her lips, disdain on her face, “Can you even be counted as a man? I just want to take back my last move, yet you can’t even agree to something so simple?”

Qin Yu’s face darkened. “One move? Hoho, from the time the game started, you have already taken back 13 moves. And you’re still asking if I am a man? To begin with, this has nothing to do with being a man. You have simply gone way too far.”

Mian Ya gently nodded, looking at Qin Yu with a bit of sympathy. Playing chess with such an opponent was truly torturous.

But she never imagined that her discreet actions would be sensed by Feature. Feature widened her eyes and wickedly glared at her, “What are you nodding for? You smelly servant girl, don’t forget your current status, otherwise I’ll have you warming Qin Yu’s bed tonight!”

Mian Ya flushed red and lowered her head. Then she looked up at Qin Yu with warm and watery eyes.

This nine-tailed demon fox woman, what are you looking at me for? It’s not like I’m the one who said anything to you...and the look in your eyes isn’t suitable at all.

Qin Yu’s complexion darkened even further. He pointed a finger at the window. The special demon crystal-forged windows were dark on the outside, but one could clearly see out from inside.

“This lake isn’t bad...”

Feature threw down the chess piece and sat up. “Where? I’m going to take a look!” Her entire body almost lay flat over Qin Yu’s face. He had to move back for a while to avoid his entire field of vision being filled by her twin peaks.

Qin Yu coughed, “If you want to take a look then go and take a look. There’s no need to be so excited!”

Feature rolled her eyes and muttered something beneath her breath. Then, she stood up straight with her hands on her hips and laughed out loud, “Very well. I announce that we will be stopping here today and having a barbecue while facing the lake! The taste will simply be amazing! Stop the carriage! Stop the carriage!”

She shouted as she slapped the carriage door.

The carriage came to a stop and was opened from the outside. Feature leapt out hollering, “Qin Yu, Qin Yu, hurry and come down, this scenery is too wonderful!”

Pretending that he didn’t see Mian Ya’s increasingly piteous expression, Qin Yu quickly responded and came out. He glanced around. The lake wasn’t too large and there were some trees and vegetation. The scenery was average and could barely be considered beautiful. Why did Feature have such an exaggerated reaction over this?

But this trip was to accompany her in relaxing to begin with. Since she wanted to stop here, then he'd do that.

The carriage stopped beside the lake. The carriage driver was quick with his hands and feet and soon opened up some chairs and a round table. Even a soft blanket was laid across the ground.

After respectfully bowing, he turned and started walking towards the lake. Since Feature said that she wanted a barbecue, there naturally had to be the freshest food.

Puff –

The carriage driver plunged into the lake.

If people were to see the former master of Great Deer City's Merry Forest, the desperado Black Astral who ruled over millions of people, doing what he did now, their eyes would likely pop out from their heads.

But if there was something to contrast it with then this sight wouldn't be considered anything at all. Because Old Fox, who once managed the Thousand Eye Temple branch division in Great Deer City, was laughing loudly as he set up a barbecue pit and started preparing all the necessary materials.

Although it had been many years since he personally cooked food, since Miss Feature had requested it, he would naturally do his best to achieve it.

Hoho, it had to be known that when he was young, he had top skills in cooking. Using this skill, he captured the hearts of many young and ignorant demon girls.

Of course, he also obtained other things, but this was an ordinary story so there was no need to speak much about it.

Something seemed to move in the shadow of the carriage. It squirmed a few times before it began walking over the ground.

Since they had stopped here, he had to investigate the surrounding environment lest Miss Feature's interest be ruined.

Shadowless Demon turned his head and glanced at the young man and woman standing at the lakeside. Without a doubt, he was dead set on following Qin Yu. But in his heart, Miss Feature had a status no less than Qin Yu.

Maybe it was even a little bit higher?

Because this was a legendary woman filled with all sorts of colors and wonders. She was so formidable that even an Elder of the Demon Dragon Clan had to maintain respect in front of her.

That's right, it was respect.

Shadowless Demon had an extremely strong ability to sense the moods and emotions of others. So, he was able to read Ao Fa's mood from his minor changes in expression. Disregarding all else, just this point alone was enough for him to endlessly flatter her.

Soon, Black Astral emerged from the lake holding a dragon fish and a giant red-backed prawn in each hand. Although they had been killed, the two demon beast corpses still exuded powerful demonic energy fluctuations. It was clear that they had been tyrannically strong.

Even so, they had no ability to resist when facing a Demon Commander. With a neat chop they were finished, and almost no waves appeared on the surface of the lake.

Shadowless Demon quietly returned to the carriage's shadow. However, there were several more dead demon beasts lying on the ground, all of them incredible cooking ingredients.

Old Fox started busying himself. He ran a bit away and started skinning and gutting the demon beasts, stringing them up and setting them over the fire. Soon, a wonderful fragrance filled the air.

Feature picked up a skewer of grilled shrimp and took a bite. Her eyes widened and she nodded at Old Fox. "Delicious, absolutely delicious. Old Fox, your craftsmanship is incredible. It's a pity that you didn't open up your own shop!"

Mian Ya quietly rolled her eyes. She thought that only this great miss could be at a high enough level to have a Demon Commander level powerhouse do something like this.

Open a barbecue shop? Let alone that being impossible, but even if he did open one, who would dare go there to spend money!?

Hiss –

After eating a mouthful, it was still a bit hot. But the taste was wonderful and the meat contained a strong demonic energy.

I eat, I eat, I eat it all!

This could also be considered a cultivation session...only those who had three Demonic Commander level servants could easily enjoy this sort of high-quality food. Of course she couldn't miss out on such a chance.

Old Fox beamed with joy at the praise. He said he had practiced cooking for some time when he was young, and that as long as Miss Feature liked it, he could cook anything for her.

Black Astral narrowed his eyes, his face still cold and expressionless. But, he couldn't help but sigh inwardly. Who didn't know that this fellow had trained hard in the past to woo the hearts of demon girls? And who would have thought that he would have another chance to display his skills today.

This old fox...hehe, he really knew how to make the best of things!

While there were no stars, sun, or moon in the abyss, it was still divided into yin, yang, and twilight. As the bottom of the upper abyss layer turned dark, night would arrive.

In the dimly glowing lake, an unknown type of flower unexpectedly bloomed. They shined with dim halos, deep blue and clear, as if they were little whirlpools that were dyed the color of the sea. It was surprisingly beautiful.

Feature ate her fill and patted her belly. Then, she plopped backwards on a soft blanket and stared at the flowers, a surprised look on her face.

Qin Yu walked over, "I just asked what they are called, and it seems it's just an ordinary abyss plant. They blossom at night and close in the morning. Do you need to have such an astonished expression?"

Feature humphed twice and said humorlessly, "Oh, Great Mister Qin is so knowledgeable and wise. Could it be that you've come to the abyss before?"

Qin Yu's face darkened. He realized that Feature's ability to irritate others had become increasingly potent. He coldly sneered, flicked his sleeves, and walked away.

He drew back a distance and sat down on a chair. His eyes fell on Feature as she lay on the ground and there was a warmth and gentleness in his eyes.

He could feel that Feature was truly joyful right now. Although he had no idea what happened, it was fine as long as she was happy.

Ten days...

After today, half the time would have passed. When the time came, would Feature abide by her promise and tell him everything?

As Qin Yu's thoughts were racing, sounds came from the distance. A group of demons soon appeared in his line of sight.

Chapter 1068 – One Against Two

"Stop!" Someone issued a decree. The troop came to a halt. "I think this place is quiet enough. Since it isn't safe to hurry along at night, let's stop here for now."

The voice of a youth sounded out. The tone of a superior naturally flowed out from him. It was clear that this person had a considerable status.

Among the troop, the demon guards responsible for safety swept around the lake and saw the carriage that was obviously stopped there. The guard leader frowned and said, "Sir, it seems that someone is already here. It may be a bit too crowded. How about we make camp somewhere further up?"

"If there are people here then make them leave. Can it be that I need to order you for something so trivial?" The youth's voice sounded out once again.

The guard leader revealed a helpless expression, "Yes, I understand." He turned and was about to order his subordinates to disperse the people around the lake, but he suddenly stopped when a figure quietly walked towards him.

Black Astral arrived in front of the troop without expression and said, "My master is resting here and does not wish to be disturbed by anyone. I ask that you immediately leave."

"Look for your..." A demon guard couldn't even finish roaring out a reply before a kick sent him sprawling backwards. The guard leader turned pale and said with an apologetic smile, "Sorry, these people don't understand the customs and have offended you. We were just about to leave!"

Black Astral nodded, "Thank you."

He turned and left.

After recovering the demon who had been kicked away and left unconscious, the troop quickly left. Once they were a certain distance away, the young man's voice rang out from inside the carriage again. Although he was calm, one could hear the suppressed anger beneath it.

"Leader Black Armor, I think you should give me an explanation."

The guard leader turned around. He only relaxed when he no longer saw the lake. But, he still kept his voice down as he said, "Sir, the one who negotiated with us was extremely formidable, at least at the peak of the Demon General realm...if someone can order him around as a servant, they must have an absolutely great background. It is best if we don't come into conflict with them."

The youth was silent for a moment. His tone lightened as he said, "Do not stop tonight. Hurry along the way."

"Yes." Seeing that he wasn't going to argue, Black Armor's complexion lit up with joy. Although they would likely encounter some demon beasts at night, it was far better than coming into conflict with those people behind them.

A breeze had already dissipated before it could take shape. Qin Yu and Feature didn't even know this had happened.

The next day, they enjoyed a clear breezy breakfast by the lakeside. Feature pulled Qin Yu back into the carriage and loudly proclaimed that because the victor of yesterday's battle had yet to be decided, she would slaughter him on the battlefield today.

Qin Yu face-palmed, feeling like he wanted to die. The chess style of the abyssal demons was quite interesting, but when the opponent was a completely unreasonable woman it became like torture.

He braced himself and played three games with her. In the end he lost two and won one. Only after a great deal of arguing did he free himself from this entanglement and toss this assignment towards the pale-faced Mian Ya.

He drank several cups of tea in one breath before he felt the blockage in his chest be relieved a little. He found a comfortable position to lie down and fell asleep for some time.

Despite Qin Yu's cultivation, even he felt tired and weary. It could be imagined how mentally exhausting it was to play chess against Feature.

When he woke up, the skies had darkened. Qin Yu narrowed his eyes and saw a pale Mian Ya staring at him with a sad and plaintive look.

He secretly thought that this was tragic. But for this kind of thing, it was better for others to sacrifice themselves rather than him. He could only apologize and ignore her plight.

Feature had already left the carriage. She pointed at a small demon town in the distance and said, "We're staying there tonight!"

She turned towards Qin Yu and revealed a look of disgust. "Huh...you fell asleep and slept all day. Qin Yu, are you a pig?"

Towards her provocation, Qin Yu only replied with a laugh. People were self-knowledgeable. As for when her level of chess was concerned, even pigs could be considered honest and righteous creatures.

"Qin Yu!" Feature seemed to see through his thoughts. She shouted and tossed herself at him, "If you dare say it then you're dead!"

Mian Ya had a relieved expression. She finally thought that Qin Yu was going to suffer everything she did...however, Miss Feature's chess skills were just far, far too horrible!

After a bit of noisiness, the carriage drove into the town and chose the largest inn to stay at.

When Black Astral came to a stop, he looked around and saw several other carriages. He furrowed his eyebrows for a moment.

The inn owner was an old man of the Demon Fox Clan. With their naturally witty minds and their ability for open and underhanded tactics, they were suited to doing business.

The Demon Fox Clan was known as a tribe that occupied nearly a third of all industries in the abyss.

Of course, the Demon Fox Clan wasn't strong in itself. Although it was said they occupied nearly a third of all industries, this was mostly related to helping take care of them and not actual ownership.

Even so, this was enough to show how excellent the Demon Fox Clan's skills were in management.

The two old foxes happily conversed. Old Fox introduced himself as an accountant who was out travelling with his master. The inn owner raised his eyebrows, saying that when it came to handling finances and other similar jobs, there was no one in the entire abyss that could compare with the Demon Fox Clan.

Regarding this, Old Fox nodded deeply and agreed.

If it weren't for the fact that there was another group of people waiting behind, the two old foxes might have gone to the backhouse to talk throughout the night over a meal of chicken and wine.

Thanks to Old Fox, the inn owner said that although a distinguished guest just came in recently and took over the best rooms, there were still some remaining. Normally, these rooms weren't open to the outside and were only used to entertain relatives and friends.

After Old Fox expressed his thanks, the inn owner called over a young worker and had him lead the group to the rooms. The rooms were in a good spot. And, there was a little river at the back of the inn. Pushing open a window, one could see the lights that lit up the river and the demonic willow trees that fluttered on both sides of the bank.

Feature was satisfied. Then with gratitude, she chose the best room, one that had two suites inside.

Next she turned and pointed at Qin Yu, who was about to choose a different room. She raised an eyebrow and said, "You are staying in my room tonight. There's no arguing. After sleeping all day, it's time for you to work at night. This time, I will destroy you until you toss away your helmet and armor and are entirely routed!”

One could see the inn owner’s smile freeze on the spot. He looked at Feature and then at Qin Yu. Were the youths of the demon race so open and brazen already?

Moreover, this miss was born so beautifully and yet had no sense of constraint or reserve. In full view of everyone, she challenged a man to a ‘fight’. It really was undignified.

Before this, in order to avoid unnecessary troubles, Feature and Qin Yu put on a light disguise. In the eyes of others, they looked like ordinary higher level demons.

The appearance of the royal families was simply far too eye-catching.

Old Fox’s lips twitched. He naturally knew that his fellow clansman was mistaken, but he didn’t dare to say anything embarrassing, otherwise the owner of this inn might have to be switched after today.

He lightly coughed and grabbed the shoulders of the inn owner, “Come, come, bring us to our rooms. Sir, miss, you must be tired so please rest early.” He glanced at Mian Ya and said, “What are you waiting for? Enter the room with the sir and miss to help take care of them.”

The inn owner’s lips twitched again. He was leaving but couldn’t help but glance back at the young and sweet-looking maid.

This was unexpectedly a play of one dragon and two phoenixes...

Gulp –

It was unknown which young worker gulped out loud, but the inn owner really thought they had no prospects.

But thinking about it, if he trades spots with that person...stop, hurry and stop it. My head feels dizzy and I’m about to have a nosebleed!

Black lines appeared down Qin Yu’s forehead. He entered the room and said in a loud whisper, “Feature, when you speak can’t you pay a little attention to how you phrase your sentences?”

Mian Ya blushed. She stood to the side, her heart pounding. She thought that even if this was the case, it wouldn’t be bad either.

Of course she wanted to climb onto Qin Yu’s bed. Whether it was because of his strength or the existence of the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror, this was the best choice.

But to say that Mian Ya felt any sincerity towards Qin Yu, that would be a joke.

However, powerhouses ruled all in the abyss. To have the chance to attach herself to a powerhouse was already her greatest good fortune.

To talk about sincerity, true emotions, or anything like that? That was just a moron talking nonsense!

Feature snorted out loud. “If your heart is pure, then naturally everything else is pure. If your thoughts are impure, then you’ll find the reason for why you’re crooked within yourself.” As she spoke she glanced to the side and said, “And you, you little harlot, just what is going on in that brain of yours? Although I’m not opposed to you crawling up onto Qin Yu’s bed using your own ability, if you’re in my presence at least restrain yourself a little.”

Mian Ya blushed red and left, saying that she needed to make the bed. But before she left she glanced at Qin Yu, her eyes like two little hooks that wanted to pull out his soul.

Feature scolded her for being such a showy fox. She pointed at Qin Yu and said, “You should be careful. Don’t become so besotted with others that you forget who you are.”

Qin Yu replied that she didn’t need to bother and was about to run away before he was caught by Feature. She said that until he accompanied her for eight to ten games of chess, there was no way he was leaving.

Thus, for the entire evening, Qin Yu didn’t get any sleep. Only when dawn came did he manage to rid himself of Feature. Countless chess pieces circulated in his mind. They collided and clashed, the sounds drilling into his brain.

This was true despair!

As for Feature, while she hadn’t slept a single wink, she was beaming and full of spirits. She pulled Qin Yu out and said that she wanted to personally make breakfast as a way to thank him for his hard work last night.

When the two left for the inn’s kitchen, they came across the owner. When the owner saw their differences in appearance, he subconsciously grinned. Although the young had vigor, this young man clearly wasn’t able to fight one against two.

Tsk tsk, as expected, in the abyss, only old and exhausted bulls and fields that hadn’t been plowed poorly...no, I have to talk to the old lady today! My energy is too high!

Chapter 1069 – Strange Taste

Reality proved that no one was omnipotent. Even Feature, who was mysterious and had an unfathomable origin and was even a peerless genius as a demonic refining master, had cooking skills that simply couldn’t be flattered at all.

Qin Yu had no idea how much he had to steel himself before he could endure devastating his body by stuffing these things that couldn’t be called ‘food’ into his stomach.

After finishing this breakfast of hell difficulty level, he swore to himself that he would never allow Feature to walk into the kitchen again.

As for how he would persuade her to give up her dreams of becoming a top chef...a woman must live exquisitely, with grace and pose. Yes, he would use these words!

Mian Ya had a sympathetic expression and she suddenly realized something. The reason why Qin Yu was still alive and jumping around was because of the powerful abyssal titan bloodline in his body. If it were any other demon of common bloodline, they would have been tortured to death in minutes.

The town was small and there wasn't anything particularly fun to do. After asking a few questions, Feature's eyes lit up.

This was because she heard some exciting news. A few thousand miles away from this town in Five Origin City, a massive auction was going to be held. It was said that countless treasures would be sold there, many of them rare and scarce.

So after thinking over things for a minute, Feature waved her hand and made her decision. Their next destination would be Five Origin City.

With a goal in mind, she became impatient. She didn't want to delay at all and urged everyone to set off.

The old innkeeper hurried over. He was out of breath and his face was still flushed red a little. He grabbed Old Fox's hand and said that he had a happy chat with him, and would miss him leaving.

Old Fox smiled. He said that since he was eating from the rice bowl of others right now, of course he didn't have so much free time. If possible, they would see each other again in the future.

The innkeeper sighed with emotion, saying that even though their Fox Clan had unparalleled wisdom, they were unfortunately ordinary in terms of cultivation and bloodline talent.

If a Demon King could be born within their tribe, the status of the entire Fox Clan would rise and they wouldn't have to live while being subjugated by others.

Old Fox forced a smile and said that while his master was good, he couldn't say these words in the future otherwise it would be difficult for him.

The innkeeper nodded. He nodded again and again, apologizing for his negligence.

Old Fox shook his head saying it was fine. His master was a generous person and wouldn't blame him for something said unintentionally.

But in truth, Old Fox approved of the innkeeper's words.

The Fox Clan's demon seed bloodline could be considered ordinary at best. Because of their outstanding wisdom, they were barely a medium-level abyssal tribe.

But if a King was born within the Fox Clan, then the entire Demon Fox Clan would be guided towards an unprecedented peak.

And now, he was diligently working towards this goal...

As long as His Excellency Qin Yu was able to rush through the layers of tests and obtain the approval of the abyss' will, he would become the only and supreme ruler of the entire endless abyss.

At that time, he would naturally obtain everything he wished for.

As Old Fox and the innkeeper were bidding farewell to each other, another group of guests had departed on their way first.

A giant carriage was drawn by three large and scaled dragon horses. Although there wasn't a horn on their heads, indicating that their dragon bloodline was thin, dragon horses were still dragon horses. They were top quality examples of horse-type demon beasts and could easily travel 10,000 miles in a day.

The person inside the carriage being pulled by three dragon horses could be regarded as a distinguished person. In addition, there was the squad of guards that looked difficult to deal with. Even a fool could tell from these details that the person sitting in the carriage was a truly great individual.

Black Armor casually tossed out some demon crystals. The few inn servants who helped send them off revealed ecstatic expressions as they continuously bowed.

Although there shouldn't be any dangers on this mission, the person in the carriage inevitably had an unusual status. If a problem occurred, all of them would suffer disaster.

Not daring to be careless, Black Armor swept his sharp eyes around. At this moment, he suddenly froze.

Not too far away, a lonely carriage and two ordinary horned horses were waiting peacefully on the roadside for their master to arrive.

Even though the weather had been growing dark and he wasn't able to see it clearly, when Black Armor's eyes fell on the carriage, his heart immediately contracted.

His intuition told him that the master of this carriage was the same people he met at the lakeside yesterday.

He immediately thought that these people had chased after them. But, he soon suppressed this thought.

If the other party wanted to make things difficult for them, they could have done something yesterday. There was no need to go through so much trouble.

Moreover, they had clearly stayed at this inn. Since there was no commotion, it proved that they didn't care about what happened before.

Black Armor let out a breath, relaxing inwardly. In his opinion, this was a result that couldn't be any better.

At the same time he sighed inwardly and praised himself. He really was a person with a deep background; his analytical skills were far superior to others'.

After all, the young sir in the carriage hadn't covered his voice when he spoke. The other party must have noticed it.

As some guesses circulated in his heart, he kept looking at the seemingly ordinary carriage and discovered some unusual points about it.

For instance, its size was clearly much larger than ordinary armored carriages. The inside was surely comfortable. And it was impossible to see in through the windows from the outside. The crystal panels also shined with complex and beautiful patterns.

Black Armor had seen such window material before. They were a kind of precious demon crystal and they were incredibly expensive.

There were also the black carriage's wheels. The ground was pushed down, indicating that the carriage was astonishingly heavy. It was likely that the interior had been altered long ago, and countless reinforcements had been added.

The carriage was this heavy and yet two ordinary horned horses were enough to draw it. Then either the carriage was using a demonic array formation to power itself, or these two horned horses weren't common.

Thinking about it, the latter possibility was more likely. Their dragon horses were here and their auras should suppress other horse-type demon beasts.

However, these two horned horses...no, it should be three, because he also had to count the one in the back that seemed completely ordinary. Their background was obviously formidable and they had fierce guards, yet they chose to remain so low-key. There had to be another story behind all of this.

Black Armor took a deep breath and turned his gaze, suppressing his tumbling thoughts. It was best to keep out of the business of others. While these people hadn't revealed any hostility towards them, with what happened at the lakeside their relationship couldn't be considered harmonious. It was better to leave early and avoid any unnecessary trouble.

"Are the preparations complete?" Black Armor shouted out loud. After confirming with some others, he walked over to the carriage and respectfully said, "Sir, we may leave now."

"Did you see that carriage over there?" A young man's voice rang out.

Black Armor's complexion changed and he braced himself, "Yes."

"You and I both think the same thing. It seems it really is them." The young man lowered his voice for a time. Then, he knocked on the carriage door and said, "Let's hurry along."

Black Armor let out a breath and immediately ordered the troop to leave. He thought that even though the City Lord's young brother was arrogant and willful at times, he wasn't completely brainless.

When the troop left the town, they began to speed up. Because according to their schedule, they had to arrive at Five Origin City before nightfall.

Sometime later, the armored carriage that had Feature, Qin Yu, and Mian Ya inside, started to make its way out of the town gates.

Black Astral drove the carriage and Old Fox rode a horned horse. He carried two wild chickens that the innkeeper had given him before he left.

This was a type of black and red-feathered chicken that had absorbed abyssal energy. Its flavor was top class and it was one of the foods that the Fox Clan loved the most.

Thinking about how Miss Feature loved food and drink, Old Fox was thinking about how to use these two chickens to prepare a grand meal.

"Hurry up! Hurry up! We have to go to Five Origin City to attend the auction! Haha, I want to buy, buy, buy, and use demon crystal to crush their minds!"

Feature shoved open the windows and leaned halfway out, shouting into the wind.

Black Astral's emotionless face revealed a smile. He swung his arms and struck the whip, "Miss, please sit tight. We will be leaving now."

"Black Astral, hurry up a little. I want to have a dinner in Five Origin City!" Feature returned to her seat and Mian Ya closed the window for her,

The two horned horses pulling the carriage suddenly whinnied out loud and increased their speed. A massive amount of abyssal energy gathered beneath their hoofs, unexpectedly taking the shape of a dragon. One could even hear the roars of dragons in their ears as the entire carriage was picked up in the clouds.

Whoosh –

The black iron carriage accelerated, howling into the distance like a shadow.

Old Fox patted the horned horse he was riding. "You should go faster too. Don't be cast off by them."

The horned horse called out in response. Its hooves moved as it chased after the carriage.

Thanks to Mian Ya, Feature had another hobby. That was reading.

It wasn't encyclopedias that narrated the history of the abyss, classics, or anything like that.

Casually glancing at the cover, one could see various gaudy and fanciful illustrations as well as overly exaggerated excerpts, such as, "Ah, my beloved, I will follow you to the ends of the abyss." Or, "Why? Why do you do this to me? My love for you can fill the entire abyss!" And so forth.

Of course, phrases like, "I will accompany you to see the rain falling in the abyss, to experience the ups and downs and life, all the sweet and sour and spicy experiences until we laugh out loud and burst into tears." were even more common.

Qin Yu curled his lips and sneered inwardly. Feature actually liked reading these things and was even fascinated by them. Hoho, how weak and naive!

But it didn't matter whether she was naive or not. All that mattered was that she continued reading and didn't drag him into playing chess.

Qin Yu closed his eyes and moved into a more comfortable posture. He thought that going on a trip where they went if they wanted to go and stopped if they wanted to stop was also wonderful.

He could enjoy this but wouldn't lose himself in it. Because he knew that the reason they obtained such a peaceful time was because Feature had done something.

This woman, she had become even more insane these past two days. He simply couldn't figure out what she was thinking.

Hu –

Without thinking about it, this was now the seventh day. At the time of the agreed date, he would find out what secrets Feature was concealing.

As for whether or not she would be shameless and lie about it...hoho, Qin Yu guaranteed that if she dared to do this, he would never let it go!

The level of fiction novels in the abyss was clearly extremely good. On the way to Five Origin City, Feature simply didn't look up.

Occasionally she rubbed her teary eyes, and sometimes she buried her head, hiding her blushing cheeks.

It was only when the carriage began to slow down and Black Astral called out loud that she reluctantly put the book down.

Qin Yu glanced at the cover. What he saw was a man wearing unusually revealing clothes. His skin was delicate and fair and his naked exposure was lethally blinding. His lips and eyes were curved up in a gentle and delicate aura.

He couldn't help but furrow his eyebrows together. What was going on with the women of these times? They were unexpectedly partial to this type of man.

Effeminate...homoerotic...whatever, they all shared a similar meaning. Qin Yu didn't have the perfect word to describe it.

In short, it was the type of novel that caused goosebumps to rise up all over his body when he saw it.

Chapter 1070 – Netherworld Platform Auction

Hu –

“Sir, Miss, we have reached Five Origin City.”

Feature stretched out her waist and rubbed her aching neck. She mumbled, “We've arrived...”

Qin Yu's lips twitched. This woman, he feared she had gone so deep into those novels that she had reversed her meridians and gone mad.

“Hey! What sort of expression is that? What's wrong with me liking to read? Do you have a problem with it?” Feature looked over, an ominous expression on her face.

“If you're happy, I'm happy.” His day of peace and quiet was all thanks to Feature's new hobby. He decided it was better to not go looking for trouble.

Seeing Qin Yu admit defeat, Feature arrogantly raised her head. But, these actions were too sudden and caused her stiff neck muscles to cramp and pull. She cried out loud and stumbled over.

Qin Yu hurried to catch her. He could immediately feel an astonishing touch. He froze in place and forcibly maintained his composure, helping her back up as he said, “You woman, can't you be a bit more careful?”

“It's all because of you, otherwise why would I fall over!” Feature clenched her jaws and stamped his foot before slapping the carriage door.

“Open the door. This carriage is suffocating; I want to come out for a walk!”

The carriage stopped and Feature furiously pushed open the door. Still in the carriage, Qin Yu let out a light breath. Fortunately for him, this woman's lines were strong enough, otherwise that accident just now would have left him embarrassed.

"The feeling isn't bad, right?" Mian Ya asked Qin Yu, her eyes blinking.

This woman, she really was courageous; she actually dared to sexually harass him? Did she happen to forget the suffering she endured back at Great Deer City?

"Humph." Qin Yu stood up to walk out. Then, Mian Ya's voice sounded out from behind him, "In truth, my body feels even better..."

He almost stepped on air and fell off. With a face full of black lines, he left the carriage.

This woman, she was really willing to do anything reckless for the Thousand Mirage Demon Mirror.

It seemed that he had to figure out a solution to have her suffer some hardships so that she stopped trying to entice him.

Mm...but, would the feeling be even better than Feature? There seemed to be some truth to this...Mian Ya was visibly larger...

Qin Yu took a deep breath and pushed down these random thoughts. It seemed that after stimulating the abyssal titan bloodline, his vital energy had become increasingly exuberant.

He had to be even more vigilant. Otherwise if he wasn't careful, his weakness might be grasped by others and he would fall into a miserable state.

With this thought in mind, Qin Yu raised his head, a dignified emotion filling his heart. All these sexual thoughts vanished from his mind like popped bubbles.

Five Origin City was extremely large, far larger than Great Deer City. Looking up, the city walls extended into the heavens and disappeared into the clouds. They appeared towering and without end.

It was unknown how many years had passed, but countless marks marred the surface of the city walls. These countless traces of damage represented terrifying battles that occurred in the past.

Perhaps it was an internal conflict within the demon race, or perhaps it was the threat of demon beasts, but no matter what the reason was, a massive number of demons had died.

It could be said that every mark on the city walls was drenched in blood. They contained the souls of the dead demons that had never fully dispersed.

Formidable slaughter energy exuded from the city walls. This in itself was an extremely potent deterrent.

It warned outsiders to not take advantage of this great city. This city was in itself a great beast, one that could swallow everything!

Wu wu –

Strong winds howled. It was as if one could hear the unwilling roars of the demons that had died here.

In the eyes of the demons, Feature possessed a powerful charm and enticement. Even though he thought she had an ordinary appearance, in the opinion of the demons, she was likely a beauty that could bring the downfall of nations.

So as soon as she left the carriage, she caused countless demons to pay attention to her. Their eyes burned with blazing heat.

If weren't for Black Astral standing by her side expressionlessly, clearly not someone who was good to provoke, then some demons might have approached her already.

Qin Yu's lips twitched. If things continued like this, who knew whether there would be problems? After all, while abyssal demons had an intelligence level no less than that of flesh and blood beings in the living world, they often easily caved in to their impulses due to the abyssal energy within and around them.

While he wasn't afraid, it was still better to avoid any unnecessary troubles...the targeting of the abyss' will had retreated for now, but Qin Yu had no idea when it would return.

Being a bit more careful and not attracting its attention wasn't a wrong choice.

He walked over to Feature's side and lightly coughed, "Didn't you say that you wanted to participate in the auction? It's not early anymore. If you go any later, I fear there won't be any seats left."

Feature's eyes brightened. "You're right. Let's hurry and enter the city."

Old Fox acted as the negotiator. It was unknown what he said, but the demon guards at the city gates were respectful to him and politely allowed them into Five Origin City.

"Who is that woman? She is as fresh and beautiful as an angel!"

"In my opinion, not even an angel can compare to her."

"What a pity. She's clearly someone with a great background. She's not someone you or I can hope to reach."

"After today, how am I supposed to find beauty in other demon girls?"

Listening to the raucous sounds all around him, Black Armor's lips twitched. He never thought that he would encounter the other party at Five Origin City again.

Adding in the lakeside encounter, this was the third time. This could be considered fate...unfortunately, he didn't want this fate at all.

"Black Armor." The young master's voice resounded from within the carriage.

Black Armor bowed, "Yes."

"Isn't this the third time we have met this miss? If this is fate, how can we stand by and do nothing?" His voice was still calm and tranquil, but he couldn't hide the simmering heat beneath it.

Black Armor's face stiffened. "Sir..."

“There’s no need to say anything else. I’ve made up my mind. Look up where they’re going and where they’re staying.” The young master said in a cold tone.

Black Armor sighed inwardly and respectfully nodded.

After entering Five Origin City, it didn’t take much effort to gather all the information about the auction.

But the bad news was that the tickets for the auction had started being sold as long as three months ago. So Qin Yu’s words became reality and all admission tickets were sold out.

This left Feature feeling dissatisfied. She stared at Qin Yu and said that he was a bad luck bird. She also threatened him with consequences if he couldn’t figure out a way to enter the auction.

Old Fox smiled and calmed Feature down as she was about to storm off. He said to rest assured and that he would handle everything.

He left for a moment, and when he returned, he had six admission tickets. They were even near the front center section.

As for the price, it was just some demon crystals.

Old Fox had resigned from his position of Thousand Eye Temple’s steward. For his achievements and hard work, he was given demon crystals as compensation.

No one knew the actual amount, but with Old Fox’s personality of never suffering a loss, the next steward of the Great Deer City branch division was sure to bleed a lot.

These were just mere admission tickets. Even if they had been raised to sky high prices, this was nothing in the eyes of Old Fox.

Feature happily patted Old Fox’s shoulders, saying that bringing him along was the best decision.

With just one sentence of praise, Old Fox felt as if he were floating on the highest clouds.

There was nothing he could do about it. He believed that after passing through so much wind and rain in his life, he had developed a calm and stable mind. But this lady, she was someone that even the dignified Elders of the Demon Dragon Clan had to obediently listen to.

As for how formidable she was, besides Qin Yu, no one knew.

But even a fool could tell that she was absolutely a peak character, someone who could freely wander the abyss.

After being praised by her, it was hard not to be ecstatic about it!

But in truth, Qin Yu really had no idea. And when it came to Feature’s background and origin, he was in the dark just like Old Fox and everyone else.

“Go, go, go, find a place to stay and then we’re going to the auction house!” Feature waved her hands in high spirits, her face full of anticipation.

Five Origin City’s auction was held in the east side of the city, in a place called the Netherworld Station. This was another incomparably strong influence that spanned across multiple layers of the abyss.

The difference from Thousand Eye Temple and Three Lives Pavilion was that Netherworld Station only did auctions and didn't have external operations.

Because they were already sufficiently formidable and had a first-class reputation, they gradually grew stronger until they became the premier auction house of the abyss.

No one knew what sort of powerful background Netherworld Station was concealing, but through the countless years, whenever they held an auction, no accidents ever occurred.

Of course, this didn't mean that it never happened. It was just that as soon as it occurred, it was completely erased as soon as possible.

This auction was also being held by Netherworld Station.

They chose an inn that wasn't too far away from the auction house. Although there was still some time before it began, Feature couldn't wait at all. She hastily scarfed down dinner and clamored to go to Netherworld Station as soon as possible.

This caused Old Fox to reveal a helpless expression as he held the two wild chickens in his hands. He originally thought to cook something delicious so that Miss Feature would think more highly of him, but now it seemed he would have to put this thought away for the time being.

With Feature and Qin Yu at the front, the group left the inn.

In a shadow near the street, water seemed to ripple. It silently arrived behind two demons. Then, the shadow suddenly rose up, directly rising from the ground behind and swallowing them up like a giant mouth.

But at this time, the shadow paused for a moment before shattering like a popped bubble.

Shua –

One of the demons fiercely turned his head. When he didn't discover anything untoward, he furrowed his eyebrows and said, "Did you feel something weird?"

"No!" The other demon said.

"Maybe I was too anxious. We've obtained the information so don't delay any further. Let's hurry back and report."

"Good."

The two demons turned and ran away. They had no idea they had taken a step into death's door just now.

As the two demons left, fluctuations appeared in the air and Shadowless Demon's figure materialized.

He glanced at where the two demons went and then looked in another direction. He had no idea why Miss Feature had prevented him from getting rid of them.

Although he couldn't figure it out, since Miss Feature had stopped him she had to have her reasons. He simply needed to follow her orders.

Moreover, no matter who sent those two people, if they dared to try and take advantage of Miss Feature or Qin Yu, they were just seeking death!

He looked down at the admission ticket in his hand. Then, he stepped forward, mixing into the streams of people and vanishing from sight.
