Chapter 1201 – Peach Blossom Spring's Peachy

There was a woman wearing a long pink dress, a few peach blossoms tied around her ears. She walked across the sea with a calm expression. Wherever she passed, waves restrained themselves, without a single fluctuation at all.

At this moment, the woman looked up at the skies above the Profound Vision World, her eyes flashing with a thoughtful light. Then, she turned her hand. Light surged and a peach blossom appeared on her palm.

It was a peach blossom exactly like those around her ears. If one looked carefully, they would discover that it was still wet with tiny dewdrops.

But the only similarity was their appearance. Just by looking at this peach blossom, one's mind would shake as if a towering mountain was pushing down on them.

It was dignified and formidable, vast and boundless!

An aura containing the rhyme of the Great Dao was released from the peach blossom. Common cultivators wouldn't be able to feel it, but within the senses of a Saint, it was like a transcendent Great Dao that pierced through the heavens, passing through the entire world.

This represented the will of a peak True Saint who had crossed the sea and reached straight towards the unsurpassed Great Dao! This will was strong enough that even an unsurpassed Ruler had to give it a certain degree of respect.

If a Ruler had to be like this, then there was no need to mention other cultivators. After a short silence, the space in front of the woman fluctuated.

Seven figures appeared one after another. As space warped around them, it began to tear apart, with countless tiny cracks appearing in it.

The woman bowed and respectfully said, "Peachy greets the Saints!"

The Saints who had arrived at the Profound Vision World with their thoughts before were now all gathered here. This certainly wasn't because of Peachy's noble status. After all, those who hadn't entered the path of Saints were nothing but ants. In the end they wouldn't be able to resist the passage of time and would eventually perish, their bodies and souls disappearing forever.

But for this peach blossom that had the will of a True Saint poured into it, they had to present themselves to show their respect.

"Peachy, why did you ask us to come here?" A female Half-Saint slowly said. Although the space around her was twisted and blurry, one could still barely make out her slender figure within.

Peachy said, "The reason I took the liberty to ask the Saints to come is because the person who initiated a hunt of sea monsters in the Profound Vision World is someone chosen by my father. I hope the Saints can be broad-minded and spare him."

The atmosphere fell silent!

The will of Peach Blossom Spring was incomparably formidable, but a complete Space Laws was also a great enticement.

In particular, to a Half-Saint who was trapped in the Sea Crossing boundary and unable to reach the other shore, this could be the key to them becoming a True Saint!

A Half-Saint said in a low voice, "How honored is the disciple of a True Saint. On what virtues did this junior receive such favor from the Spring Master?"

"Entering the tutelage of a True Saint isn't possible without great luck or an immense destiny. To be received so hastily, it seems a bit strange." Another Half-Saint said in a calm voice.

But no matter what tone they used, it represented a kind of confrontation. Your Peach Blossom Spring is strong, but that doesn't mean you can do whatever you want! The Space Laws were in front of them and this involved their own cultivation Great Daos. Although the Saints didn't want to, they had no choice but to compete with Peach Blossom Spring!

Peachy stood up, her calm expression not indicating anything, "The Saints are correct, so whether or not he can enter Peach Blossom Spring, that will depend on his own destiny."

She lifted a finger and pointed forward. The place she pointed towards was where the sea monsters were crazily gathering. "If he can rush out of the Endless Sea alive with his own strength, then he is predestined to join Peach Blossom Spring. This is the test that Peach Blossom Spring has given him!"

The Saints were all aware of the current situation by now. With how terrifying the sea monsters in the Endless Sea were, it was almost impossible for someone below a Saint to survive.

The chances of him surviving were infinitesimally low, so this could absolutely be used as a test. If he smoothly survived, then that was certainly a great destiny. Of course, he would be qualified to enter the tutelage of a Saint, and there would be no room for others to ridicule him.

The Spring Master was indeed the Spring Master. His conduct was impeccable, and even if the other Saints were dissatisfied there was nothing they could say about it.

"He cannot use the Space Laws!" A Half-Saint said.

The numerous Saints all nodded. If he escaped using the Space Laws, then even though the monster beasts of the Endless Sea were terrifying, it would be difficult for them to harm him and the test would become meaningless.

Peachy said, "Good. Then I ask the Saints to please stand as witnesses today. If he uses the power of space then he will be considered as having failed his test and Peach Blossom Spring will no longer interfere in this matter."

The numerous Saints were silent. They sighed inwardly; Peachy truly did have excellent methods.

To stand testimony today was also a pledge. If this person passed the test they couldn't feign ignorance and move against him in the future, otherwise that would be considered as provoking Peach Blossom Spring.

Even a Half-Saint existence would not be able to withstand provoking a peak True Saint!

Even so, the Saints couldn't reject this proposition, because it was their only way of obtaining the Space Laws!

Although Qin Yu knew it was impossible to escape the encirclement of sea monsters in the Endless Sea, he still fled.

Killing off the sea monsters...okay, that sounded heroic and blood-boiling, and it was a thought that stimulated the mind. But the chances of accomplishing this were so miniscule that it could almost be ignored.

In other words, escaping the Endless Sea and having the curse become invalid was the best choice and also the only choice.

Then of course he had to escape. Before he was surrounded and entangled by the sea monsters, he had to get as far towards the edge of the Endless Sea as he could.

The closer he was to the edge, the greater his chances of escaping alive!

Generally speaking, the deeper one went into the Endless Sea, the stronger the sea monsters. Qin Yu chose to flee in the direction he came from. But when the realm within a realm was destroyed and the spirit body dragged everyone into the furnace, the darkness that surrounded them had been the turbulent spatial flow.

Later when he came out, Qin Yu had arrived at almost the depths of the Endless Sea. So whether it was going forward or backwards, there was almost no difference at all. He just needed to choose a direction and run!

He did his best and erupted with his greatest speed. But Qin Yu had far, far too little time left.

He suddenly came to a fierce stop. Without pause, he punched out a fist.

Hou –

The void roared around him and the phantom of an Abyssal Titan appeared behind Qin Yu. It followed the punch, striking brutally.

The water broke apart and a vicious sea monster raced out, its tentacles covered in sharp spikes. But before it could tie Qin Yu up, it was sent flying away.

A loud and dull noise exploded on the sea's surface, like thunderclaps on the plains. One could clearly see the massive sea monster's chest sink in and its back blow up and explode into pieces.

Flesh and blood splattered in all directions, followed by a shrill scream. This sea monster that raced out from the sea and wanted to kill Qin Yu was ruined instead. It crashed back into the sea, blood billowing out of it before there were no other sounds.

Qin Yu's glowered, no joy on his face. He took back his fist and the Titan phantom behind him disappeared. He continued racing forward. It had to be known that what he faced right now was the encirclement of every sea monster in the entire Endless Sea. There was no encouragement to be found from killing one.

By killing this sea monster with one all-out strike, he might unnecessarily use up strength, but what was even more precious than that right now was time. With every additional breath of time he had, he could race that much further and approach the shore that much sooner.

Once one came, there would be a second. Moreover, as time passed, more and more sea beasts would approach him.

Soon, Qin Yu experienced a bitter attack from a second sea monster. Then it was a third, fourth, fifth...at the start, he was still able to run after killing one, but after the tenth, he discovered that he had fallen into a crazed pack of sea monsters!

Running was impossible, because there were too many sea monsters. Once he killed one another would replace it, like moths racing towards a flame.

No, that description wasn't too accurate. It was more like a swarm of locusts that blotted out the skies and chased after him!

Their crimson eyes lacked all wisdom and reasoning. They also had no idea what fear was. Even though they were soaked with blood, they still rushed forward.

Even if they died, they had to tear off a piece of meat from Qin Yu!

Okay, one had to acknowledge that even Qin Yu, who had a formidable willpower and mentality, still couldn't help but feel some dread and panic.

This was nothing disgraceful. If anyone else were in his place and faced this situation, it would be impossible for them to maintain their calm.

If a mountain collapsed in front of a person and they still managed to keep a straight face...then that person either had facial paralysis or he was pretending.

But panic and dread only lasted for a short time before it was forcibly suppressed into the depths of his heart. This was because he knew that these emotions would only cause him to die even faster.

If he couldn't continue escaping, then he would fight!

Hou –

The bloodline that came from the abyss world and had separated itself from the Ancients in distant times, once again appeared in the vast brightness world.

The power of the Abyssal Titans that once ate Demon Dragons as food erupted in desperation. The leading sea monsters were torn to pieces, their blood and flesh raining down from the skies and dyeing the entire sea red.

It was domineering and unparalleled!

If one didn't see this with their own eyes, they would never know how frigid and brutal this battlefield was. But no matter how strong the Abyssal Titan form was, it wasn't a killing machine that was completely disconnected from fatigue. As time passed, Qin Yu's breathing became heavier and his complexion paled.

His strength was going to be exhausted, but as far as he could see, the sea monsters were still endless. It was impossible to kill them all!

Chapter 1202 – Great Furnace

The Saints might not interfere, but since they arrived in the Endless Sea, they were able to sense everything that happened in this world.

They naturally saw that Qin Yu was in a difficult situation and his strength was almost dried up. Their eyes rippled.

In truth, Qin Yu lasting this long was beyond their expectations. They had no idea what origins that giant phantom behind him had, but they unexpectedly felt a vague sense of threat.

It could be seen that besides the Space Laws, this junior also had other hidden cards.

It really was a pity. If the Space Laws weren't too precious, then this junior would be an excellent uncut jade. His future would be limitless.

But speaking about that now was meaningless.

This junior would likely use the Space Laws to escape. Once he did, then he would have failed the test.

At that time Peach Blossom Spring would have to retreat, and it would be their turn.

The Spring Master had always been true to his word, never renegeing on a promise. The Saints never doubted him.

Their thoughts raced. They already started to consider what means they could use to take Qin Yu away. After all, there was only one person with the Space Laws, and yet seven Saints had arrived here!

There was going to be a competition!

A battle between Saints was a great event, one that rarely happened. But since this involved the Space Laws, none of them were willing to withdraw.

At this time, the eyes of the seven Saints erupted with a sharp light. Because Qin Yu's aura had suddenly vanished!

He used the power of space!

Shua –

All eyes simultaneously fell on Peachy. She furrowed her eyebrows and said, "Since he hasn't passed the test, then this person isn't someone of Peach Blossom Spring. He shall be passed over to the Saints to be handled."

She turned and started to walk away. But at this time, she muttered a light, "Huh?", beneath her breath before she turned around and looked towards Qin Yu's position, her eyes brimming with shining brilliance.

Qin Yu's aura had suddenly vanished, but it wasn't because he used the Space Laws to escape the encirclement of sea monsters. Peachy turned and said, "Saints, it seems everyone will have to wait a bit longer. He hasn't failed yet."

The seven Saints were expressionless. No matter what they were feeling inside, for someone who managed to step onto the path of Saints, not revealing their emotions was the most basic skill.

Of course, it was impossible to not be annoyed.

A giant furnace appeared within the mass of sea monsters, protecting Qin Yu inside. What was astonishing was that it was in a translucent state.

Although no aura leaked out, the sea monsters with their crazy red eyes were able to clearly see his figure inside.

Provocation. No matter how anyone saw it, this was a stark naked provocation. Here I am. If you have the ability then come and kill me!

An ordinary person wouldn't even be able to endure this, much less a swarm of sea monsters that had been stimulated to the point of going crazy by the curse.

Bang –

Bang –

They attacked the great furnace with all their strength, even breaking their bodies apart in the process.

The seven Saints saw everything happen. Their eyes flashed with surprise before they composed themselves. Even in the eyes of a Saint, the defensive ability of this great furnace was astonishing.

But the logic of ants biting an elephant to death was not only applicable to living creatures. It could also be used on this great furnace.

What it faced now was an endless number of sea monsters that didn't fear death. Perhaps they might not be able to cause damage to the great furnace with their individual attack strength, but there were so many that all those attacks would eventually begin to add up.

Even if it had some power, how long could a lifeless object last? It was just a matter of time! Perhaps Qin Yu could temporarily survive, but this was only temporary. The furnace would eventually be broken by the sea monsters!

At that time, only two choices would be placed before Qin Yu. He could either wait for death...or use the Space Laws to retreat.

But in fact, the end result of these two choices was about the same. In other words, as long as this great furnace was destroyed, that would be when Qin Yu died.

The Saints waited for the great furnace to be crushed to pieces.

But this thing's defensive capabilities were far greater than they imagined. After suffering countless attacks from sea monsters, it still retained its original appearance.

It seemed that the badly beaten sea monsters, who even killed themselves in their attempts, could do nothing against it no matter how crazed they had become.

Peachy's eyes were calm, and a light flowed in their depths. It was only now that she began to believe he was the person her father spoke of. Although many years had passed, she still had an impression of this person.

It wasn't that he left behind a deep impression when they met in the past. In fact, the two sides hadn't even spoken a single word to each other.

But for some unknown reason, when she looked at Qin Yu she always felt that he was somewhat familiar. As she slept for these past years, she even dreamed of him at times. This was especially true in recent years...Peachy discovered that Qin Yu's figure began to appear in her dreams more and more often.

Her father had said that their destinies were intertwined. What was the meaning of that? She had asked her father, but he simply smiled and waved his hand.

If Qin Yu really could survive and become a cultivator of Peach Blossom Spring, she had to figure out just who this person was.

As Peachy was deep in contemplation about who he was, and the seven Saints were furrowing their eyebrows, Qin Yu let out a long breath.

This plan really did work!

When he summoned the great furnace, he had no assurance in this plan. But as time passed he could sense through the iron lump that the furnace hadn't sustained any substantial damage.

In other words, the crazy attacks of the sea monsters were just suicidal. They had no practical effect!

He had picked up a treasure!

Although he knew that the great furnace was an exceptional treasure before, he discovered that he still underestimated it.

Not to mention the terrifying fluctuations of strength contained within the great furnace, just its incomparable defensive powers left Qin Yu shocked and overjoyed.

Ignoring all else for now, just the fact that he had the protection of this great furnace suddenly caused Qin Yu's current situation to brighten up.

Who cared about the curse of the sea spirit? The sea monsters in the Endless Sea had limited strength. Even the fiercest among them wouldn't be able to kill Qin Yu in a short period of time.

As long as they couldn't kill him, Qin Yu could hide in the great furnace. Once he recovered, he could leave again. He could repeat this as many times as he wanted.

The more he thought about it, the more positive his outlook became!

Qin Yu suddenly thought that killing all the sea monsters in the Endless Sea wasn't something that would be impossible for him.

Old Turtle suddenly said, "Master, if you can kill off all the sea monsters and forcibly break through the curse, perhaps there might be an accidental harvest."

Qin Yu's eyes flashed, "What?"

"Curse immunity! Of course, this sort of immunity has its limits, but it is still very useful." Old Turtle said, "Once you have condensed this immunity, every sea monster you have killed will become a part of this immunity. Anyone that dares to place another curse on you will face a backlash...in other words, the more sea monsters you kill, the better the immunity will be. Of course, the premise is that you must forcibly break the curse...by killing them all...or killing them until they collapse and flee."

Qin Yu was immediately moved. Only after personally experiencing it did he understand how bad it was to provoke things like curses.

And more importantly, he indeed had the chance to forcibly break the curse. All he had to do was waste some more time.

But even so, Qin Yu still had scruples. Right now, every sea monster in the Endless Sea had gone crazy, and the commotion was too large. It was inevitable that he would attract attention.

The best choice was to leave this place as fast as he could. If he was greedy about this curse immunity and the Saints turned back and caught him, he wouldn't even be able to cry.

He took a deep breath, suppressing the unwillingness and helplessness in his heart. It was impossible to take all things in the world. When choices were available, one had to be decisive!

"Whatever. Breaking the curse will take too much time. I will leave the Endless Sea first."

Old Turtle paused for a few breaths of time and said, "Master is worrying that the Saints will return? In truth, that's not necessary..."

Qin Yu's eyes brightened. "Why?"

If possible, he certainly hoped he could obtain the power of curse immunity.

Old Turtle let out a breath and eerily said, "Because they have already returned."

Qin Yu: ...

If Old Turtle was standing in front of him, Qin Yu would have grabbed his neck and slapped his lips a few times.

Bastard, do you not know what people mean when they say jinxes keep crowing about disaster? After eating that spirit body, do you think you've grown wings and can suddenly do whatever you want?

This was just too arrogant!

"Hoho, you're too bold to joke with me about this kind of thing. But it's not funny at all, so take it back."

Old Turtle remained silent.

Qin Yu's cold sneer stiffened and then was slowly restrained. He tensed up, shock and anger on his face.

"Old Turtle!"

He roared inside his heart.

"Master, it's true!" Old Turtle's voice was a bit crabbed, "Not long after you came out, the Saints arrived at the Profound Vision World."

Qin Yu believed that with Old Turtle's title of the one who feared death the most, after sensing his anger he wouldn't dare to joke around anymore.

In other words, he was speaking the truth. Those incomparably terrifying Saints with unfathomable cultivation levels had come back.

Perhaps now, in some corner, the Saints were quietly watching him from afar...like watching a monkey play around.

The more he thought about it the more he tensed up. He forced himself to calm down as he restrained his thoughts.

That didn't make sense. If the Saints returned, would they watch him just jump around while doing nothing? After learning about the significance of the Space Laws, Qin Yu was well aware that for Saints who hadn't mastered the Space Laws, he was like a piece of large and fragrant roasted pork, the kind that they would never share with anyone.

"You must know something, so stop making me guess. Otherwise if I suffer bad luck, I'll make sure to break you to pieces first!"

Old Turtle coughed a few times and hurriedly said, "Master, don't be anxious. In fact, I can't sense it clearly, so I only have a few minor guesses."

Qin Yu clenched his teeth and spat out, "Tell me!"

If Old Turtle dared to waste another word...!

Old Turtle clearly understood Qin Yu's mood. "Master, there are seven Saint auras. But above those seven, there is one that is even stronger.

"Uh...to be exact, the stronger one arrived after the seven Saints came to the Profound Vision World. Since then it has kept silent and hasn't made a move."

Qin Yu's eyes flashed, "And?"

Old Turtle said, "Master, this is what I think. After the Saints discovered you, there was no reason for them to remain silent. Since they are silent, that means an even more formidable will has forced them to hold themselves back for the time being."

"It's that stronger aura?"

"Yes."

"How much stronger is it?"

“Much, much stronger.”

Qin Yu rubbed his forehead, his thoughts beginning to race. If the seven Saints returned, it had to be due to the changes in the Endless Sea. He didn't believe that the Saints had enough leisure time to watch him fight off the sea monsters. They clearly cared about his Space Laws.

If they had a goal but didn't do anything, then Old Turtle's explanation was the only possibility. A stronger existence was stopping them.

But why was it stopping them?

If it was just to take his Space Laws, then according to Old Turtle, the much stronger one would have just taken him.

One strong and seven weak, the eight Saints were silent altogether. This was strange...Qin Yu's eyes brightened. Had someone taken a liking to him?

He asked Old Turtle and obtained an affirmative reply; both of them believed the same thing. Although there was no evidence, this was the most likely possibility.

Assuming this was the case, the one who had taken a liking to him hadn't intervened. But why? The most likely reason was to give Qin Yu another test.

For instance...the curse of the spirit body!

This was why Old Turtle ran out and mentioned the topic of the curse immunity, guiding Qin Yu towards the possibility of killing all the sea monsters.

Qin Yu had no idea if their guess was right, but there was one thing he knew for sure. Rushing out of the Endless Sea as fast as he could was not a good idea.

The reason was simple. The current situation was stable. But what if he fled and destroyed this stability? Not to mention that there was one strong and seven weak Saints, even the weakest among them could destroy Qin Yu with a single hand.

If he couldn't run, that left him with one choice – to remain here and eliminate all the sea monsters, forcibly breaking the curse placed on him!

Chapter 1203A – Furnace Saint

This required time. In the process, Qin Yu could use Old Turtle to remotely sense the status of the eight Saints. If something felt wrong, he could quickly change strategies. If things remained stable, then he would kill the sea monsters and think about what to do next after that.

In fact, one of the factors that contributed to this decision was his perpetual cautiousness. Under unknown conditions, it was better not to act rashly.

And as more and more time passed, he could make several more preparations...even if he knew that these preparations were useless against a Saint.

But this was Qin Yu. No matter what situation he faced, he would not resign himself to death. Even if the Saints tried to ruin him in the end, no matter how scared or desperate he felt, he would still fight to the death and try his best to tear a piece of flesh from his enemy.

From this point of view, Qin Yu's current situation was a little bit similar to the sea monsters' in the Endless Sea.

Of course, this point of view wasn't too appropriate, because what he was going to do next was to completely exterminate all the crazed sea monsters in the Endless Sea!

What if Old Turtle was right and this was a test? The more outstanding his performance was, the more likely he was to be saved.

Qin Yu's only worry was that this method of killing sea monsters might be considered cheating, as he wasn't depending entirely on his own strength.

Old Turtle reassured him that when it came to things like treasures, they were all a part of a cultivator's overall strength.

If it was cheating, then Qin Yu could use the power of space to open a space channel and directly leave this place. If he did that, who cared about the many sea monsters there were in the Endless Sea? That would be true cheating!

This was the truth. But after it was confirmed that eight Saints were staring at him, he knew that he couldn't use the power of space.

What nonsense, the logic behind that was simple. If Qin Yu just casually ran away, then what was there to watch? Did the Saints quietly observe him in secret, gazing upon his actions, because they were bored and had nothing to do? This indicated that he had better not use the power of space!

Old Turtle said these words to remind Qin Yu. Then, Qin Yu took a deep breath and said, "I've rested enough. Let's continue."

With a thought, the great furnace vanished. The roars of the waves immediately rushed into his ears, along with the screams and howls of countless tyrannical sea monsters.

Bang –

The phantom of the Abyssal Titan appeared once more, fighting everything around it!

Peachy's eyes lit up with surprise. She never thought that Qin Yu would choose to stop and start fighting. Did he plan on killing all the sea monsters in the Endless Sea? That was just crazy!

However, from what she could see, if the defenses of that great furnace were potent enough, then he might be able to accomplish this.

It was just a matter of time.

The seven Saints remained silent. Their complexions were much cloudier than before. They originally thought Qin Yu would only be able to delay his death, but who imagined that he would still be jumping around alive right now?

Moreover, from what they could see and judge so far, he would be able to live for a long time after this.

The defensive powers of the great furnace were strong to the point of being ridiculous. Even if it was them, if they just stood there and passively withstood everything, they might not be able to endure the endless suicidal attacks of the sea monsters.

If the defense of the Saints couldn't reach that level, then it was naturally extraordinary. And it was such a strange-looking translucent great furnace.

Suddenly, a Half-Saint opened his mouth and said, "Could this furnace be..." As he spoke this far, the expression of the other Saints changed a little, as if they had realized something.

Seven Saints had arrived at the Profound Vision World at one time, and the will of the peak True Saint, the Peach Blossom Spring Master, had also arrived. But, this didn't mean that the vast brightness world had a large number of Saints.

On the contrary, even though the myriad heavens and endless worlds were vast and boundless and countless trillions of cultivators were born, those that could cross the sea and step onto the path of Saints were exceedingly rare.

After all, the further one climbed up the great path of cultivation, the more difficult it became. Crossing the sea to gather the Great Dao...it was easy to say, but throughout the infinite river of time, how many shocking and amazing cultivators were stranded there, eventually perishing as they couldn't withstand the corrosion of time?

The vast majority of cultivators would never see a Saint in their entire life. They might not even know about the existence of these mighty cultivators.

The reason Qin Yu's luck was so good was because the spirit body had matured and since this was the best time to pick it, it had attracted competition, thus leading to this current situation.

Saying so much was to establish a concept. Through the vast brightness world, if one counted all the Half-Saints and True Saints, then it was just a small circle.

So even if it was the Imperial Master of Thunder Dominion who liked to stay withdrawn and rarely communicated with the outside world, or the female Half-Saint Folded Kite who appeared to be a bit narcissistic, they were still known by the disciples of other Half-Saints.

As long as they showed signs of activity, every new or old Half-Saint or True Saint could be considered a member of this small circle.

Besides the highest supreme Rulers, the members of this small circle were the most powerful de facto controllers of the vast brightness world.

Everyone knew each other!

Long, long ago, as far back as a hundred thousand years, so far that the newly promoted Half-Saints of now barely knew about it, there was a madman in the vast brightness world who wanted to forge his own Great Dao and soar straight to the other shore with his own strength!

To be called a madman by the small group of Saints, this person had to be insolent and fanatically insane to a certain degree.

This madman was known as the Furnace Saint. He came from some mysterious noble refiner family. Of course, this was just the news that was spread outwards. According to some old and knowledgeable Saint, the truth was that he was just a bastard who had stepped into dog shit luck, a smelly blacksmith who had managed to stumble his way into becoming a Saint!

There was a sour and resentful tone to these words.

Regardless of what the truth was, 100,000 years ago the Furnace Saint was one of the most formidable Saints. He was so strong that when he was still at the Half-Saint boundary, he fought two True Saints and didn't lose.

No one knew the specifics besides the Furnace Saint. But there was one thing for certain. He at least developed his own path, otherwise it would have been impossible for him to resist two True Saints with his Half-Saint cultivation at the time.

But in the end, the Furnace Saint vanished.

Some rumors said that in trying to forge his own Great Dao, he offended the will of the vast brightness. Since he was then no longer tolerated by the source of the world, he was completely obliterated.

There were also some rumors that said his attempt to forge his own Great Dao was a mistake in itself. When he stepped into it, the result was already doomed and he faded into ashes during his cultivation.

The Furnace Saint died, like a radiant star vanishing from the starry skies. But he had never been forgotten, because there were always some people who found things he left behind after he died...for instance, this great furnace.

Half-Saints were Saints, but they were trapped in crossing the sea. They had to endure the inexhaustible pain of the sea of bitterness. Although they were no longer corroded by the passing of time, it was difficult for them to be comfortable and carefree.

The road ahead was endless, the winds were strong, and the waves pressed upon them, leaving them unable to even see where the other shore was. Over long years, it was inevitable that they would think of other things.

For instance, the Furnace Saint who had cast his own Great Dao in order to reach the other shore!

Before, it was said that with the Furnace Saint's Half-Saint cultivation, being able to remain undefeated by two True Saints had already crossed the limits of the Crossing Sea boundary.

So he must have done something and changed something. The people who never forgot about the Furnace Saint didn't really want to use his method to reach the other side, but at least he gave them hope.

At worst, they could profit from his experiences and increase their strength to a higher level. At that time there might be more opportunities for them.

There was definitely a risk in doing this. The disappearance of the Furnace Saint was the best proof of it. But for the Half-Saints who had lived for countless years and were still stranded trying to cross the sea, if there was a glimmer of hope to see the other side, then any risk was worth it.

So everything related to the Furnace Saint had spread throughout the Saint circle over the years...especially the circle of ancient Half-Saints.

And it just so happened that the Half-Saints who arrived at the Profound Vision World today had all lived for a long, long time.

Originally, when they saw Qin Yu take out the great furnace and resist the assault of the sea monsters, the Half-Saints didn't think much about it. The vast brightness was inexhaustible, and even Saints didn't dare to say they had seen everything in the world. There were countless treasures in the shape of a furnace, so it was impossible to associate too many things just by seeing one.

But this time was different...

The defensive capabilities of the furnace were to the degree where it even shocked the saints. This point alone was enough to indicate how phenomenal this great furnace was. It was possible that this furnace once belonged to the Furnace Saint!

Chapter 1203B – Furnace Saint

The complexions of the Saints changed before they composed themselves. They kept their previous silence, but the burning heat in their eyes only rose.

The Space Laws were good, but there was doomed to only be one. Not everyone here would have a share. But this great furnace was different. If things were as they thought, this was a good fortune and they could all share in it.

They all glanced at each other and immediately understood each other's thoughts.

Then, their gazes all fell on Peachy. She certainly felt this. She furrowed her eyebrows and respectfully said, "I would like to ask the Saints to please dispel this junior's doubts. What is wrong with that great furnace?"

The first one to speak was a female Half-Saint. "Peachy, this matter involves the path of Saints; it is useless for you to know about it." She paused for a moment and said, "Peachy, contact the Spring Master. If he is willing to give up on this person, I am willing to pay a certain price."

The other six Saints hesitated for a moment before nodding one after another.

For a Saint to say they would pay a price, it naturally wasn't something that a common person could understand. Even if the word 'certain' was added, it was still an extreme benefit that reached the skies.

And now there wasn't just one, but seven Saints saying it together...this was a price that even the Peach Blossom Spring Master had to consider seriously.

It was hard to say whether that great furnace in Qin Yu's hand once belonged to the Furnace Saint. There was a chance they would get nothing in the end after rashly making such a promise. But if there was only a one percent chance, or even lower than that, they were willing to try.

Crossing the sea...Half-Saint...

Although they were honored as Saints, they found it difficult to see the other side. This sort of pain and torment could not be imagined by those who hadn't personally experienced it.

There was no hypocrisy to it.

Peachy's complexion changed. Although she was the only beloved daughter of the Spring Master and had an incomparably honored status, she didn't dare to neglect the will that came from seven Saints.

"I ask the Saints to please wait a moment!"

Peachy stretched out a finger and touched the hanging peach blossom in the air. She closed her eyes, as if sensing something. A moment later, the peach blossom opened. A mote of light flew out, rapidly inflating and turning into the figure of a middle-aged man in Taoist robes.

"We greet the Spring Master!"

The seven Saints bowed.

The middle-aged Taoist's facial features were blurry. He calmly said, "There is no need to be so polite. Please rise."

The female Half-Saint said, "Peachy should have passed our message to you. We ask the Spring Master to be open-minded and give us this chance."

If they could forcibly seize it, they would have done so long ago. But facing the master of Peach Blossom Spring, they didn't have full assurance. Since they couldn't take it, they could only ask. The seven Saints were aware of this, and thus their tones were respectful.

"We ask the Spring Master to allow us!"

"I will surely pay the Spring Master a satisfactory price!"

The middle-aged Taoist nodded. "I understand why you are asking me this, but the great furnace in Qin Yu's hand isn't what you think it is. And, this junior's destiny is entangled with my Peach Blossom Spring. That is the reason why I have interfered in today's matter."

A True Saint condensed the Great Dao, every word and action they did resonating with the world. If what he said wasn't true, the Saints here would feel it.

Now that they heard him, they couldn't help but reveal disappointment in their eyes.

It actually wasn't something from the Furnace Saint...

The female Half-Saint said, "I have disturbed the Spring Master. As an apology, I will withdraw first and no longer ask about this junior. Then, goodbye."

She turned and stepped away, directly vanishing from sight.

“We ask the Spring Master for forgiveness!” The other six Saints bowed and disappeared.

They had alarmed the Spring Master, and because they had received an explanation, they owed something in return. But, the more important reason behind them leaving was that they could no longer see the possibility of suppressing Qin Yu. With the protection of the great furnace, no matter how many sea monsters there were, it would just be a matter of time until they were all killed.

When the Saints left far away, the middle-aged Taoist looked at Peachy with gentle eyes. “Just wait here. After he breaks the curse, you can bring him back to Peach Blossom Spring.”

“Yes, father.”

The middle-aged Taoist turned back into a mote of light and flew into the peach blossom. The petals closed back up, restoring itself to its previous half-open, half-closed state.

Peachy turned and looked towards the depths of the Land of Disorder where the roars of sea monsters rang out and the smell of blood soared to the skies, and her eyes brightened.

Just now, her father had once again mentioned that Qin Yu’s fate was entangled with Peach Blossom Spring. He should have been referring to her...just what did this person have to do with her?

...

The Abyssal Titan raised a hand, bursting out with destructive energy and shaking away the swarms of sea monsters.

Blood rained down from the skies, filling the senses with the acrid stench of blood!

But at this time, the Abyssal Titan that was deep in the midst of slaughter suddenly stiffened. He was instantly attacked by several sea monsters.

Hum –

With a tremor, the Abyssal Titan disappeared and the great furnace arrived. Qin Yu appeared inside.

“Did they really leave?”

Old Turtle hurriedly said, “Master, you ordered me to keep track of the status of those Saints. I have confirmed that the seven Saints have left.”

Qin Yu’s eyes flashed. “You’re saying that the aura of the strongest Saint is still here?”

Qin Yu took a deep breath and said, “We won’t do anything at all. Since this Saint doesn’t want to make himself known, we will pretend we don’t know anything.”

Whether it was eight Saints or one Saint, the truth was that it didn’t matter to Qin Yu.

Because if they wanted to kill him, just one was enough.

So it wasn’t the time to relax yet...still, he could let out a breath of relief.

With just one Saint left, if they wanted to harm him, they had no need to wait. If they kept silent then it proved that his and Old Turtle's previous guess was correct.

A light suddenly lit up in the depths of his mind. Qin Yu thought of a possibility – Zhou Lei had once said that a cultivator from Peach Blossom Spring was waiting in the Endless Sea. Then, could this Saint be the Peach Blossom Spring Master?

There was a high possibility!

After all, according to what Qin Yu learned from the four cultivators, the Peach Blossom Spring Master was a True Saint who had crossed the sea and reached the peak. This conformed with Old Turtle's judgement of 'very strong'.

If he looked at things from this angle, then only a peak True Saint would be able to frighten and deter seven Saints into not doing anything, and also subsequently retreating.

The Peach Blossom Spring Master already perceived the path of Space Laws, so it was unlikely he would harm him. In addition, he once asked Zhou Lei to convey his desire to join Peach Blossom Spring. And this other party came here to test him...it made sense, it all made sense!

He took a deep breath, a sharp light in his eyes. If this was true, it would be the best case situation for him. But even if what he said wasn't true, the other party shouldn't have any ill intent towards him.

As he thought before, if this other party wanted to make a move they would have done so already. They wouldn't have waited this long.

He closed his eyes and started to restore himself.

Shua –

Qin Yu opened his eyes, light surging within them. He took a step forward and his figure vanished from sight.

A moment later, the Abyssal Titan arrived with a roar.

Bang –

He punched without hesitation, attacking the sea monsters that crazily rushed at him.

Come!

The blood-drenched slaughter became even more violent.

Since he was likely in the middle of a test, the better his performance was, the more likely it was that he would receive the attention of the Peach Blossom Spring Master.

Still, even if he successfully entered Peach Blossom Spring, he still had no idea what his next step would be.

But it was clear that the higher his status was and the more valued he was, the greater his chance to rescue Ning Ling...and even You Qi!

After a burst of violent strength and feeling himself weakening a bit, Qin Yu decisively summoned the great furnace.

This thing was truly an incredible treasure. With it in hand, where couldn't he go in the vast world? Qin Yu began to suspect that even a Saint wouldn't be able to easily damage it.

But why would this thing appear in the Endless Sea, and not be discovered by people after so many years?

He didn't understand, but he didn't really care either. In any case, it was enough that the Great Furnace was in his hands!

Fight, rest, slaughter, rest, kill rest...Qin Yu didn't pause in this entire process. It was like he had become a killing puppet completely unaware of fatigue. The number of sea monsters that perished beneath the Abyssal Titan's fists was nearly incalculable.

The most direct and terrifying scene was that where Qin Yu was now, the sea had already turned red. It wasn't that the water had been dyed with blood, but that sea water had been completely replaced with blood, turning into a true sea of blood!

Cruel and ominous intent filled the air as strong winds howled about. One could even hear screams and shrieks of anger and unwillingness flitting across the wind.

A dark killing intent lingered, turning the skies dark and dropping the temperature in the air. Even snow began to fall.

Even though these were snowflakes, they were actually blood flakes.

Because they were the same color as the sea, a deep red. Each snowflake emitted a light curse aura.

At the start, Qin Yu's blood boiled from the brutal slaughter. But once the killing turned into a habit, even an instinct, he started to become numb to it.

Kill, kill, kill...until nothing was left!

When the last sea monster was crushed by his formidable strength and he looked around to see not a single stir, he finally paused. He had killed all of the sea monsters.

His mind relaxed and his eyes fell into darkness. Fortunately, his instincts still allowed him to respond. Before his consciousness faded away, he summoned the great furnace.

The instant Qin Yu fell into the great furnace, he fell asleep. He didn't even have the energy to see what was happening to his body.

Chapter 1204A – Third Seated White Phoenix

The blood had gathered into a sea. When Qin Yu fell asleep, a change began to occur. Roars rang out as phantoms of the dead sea monsters emerged from the sea of blood.

They glared at Qin Yu sleeping within the great furnace, their blood red eyes flooded with hatred and cruelty. They howled as they struggled to free themselves from their shackles and continue trying to take his life.

But soon, panic started to appear in the eyes of the sea monster phantoms. They desperately tried to escape, but an invisible force kept dragging them towards the furnace.

When the sea monster phantoms approached the great furnace, they directly merged into it, turning into crimson motes of light that sank into Qin Yu's body.

Space slightly distorted and a pink-dressed Peachy appeared, peach blossoms swaying at her temples. When the sea monsters sensed her aura, their cries turned increasingly intense and violent.

As if...they were begging her for help!

Peachy glanced at Qin Yu, her expression faint. "If you agree to the bet, you must also be willing to admit defeat. Since you have been killed, accept your fate."

Hou –

Hou –

The sea monster phantoms angrily roared in the sea of blood. Traces of blood red energy rose up, weaving together into crimson chains that wrapped around Peachy.

If you won't save us, then be destroyed with us!

Peachy's expression didn't change. In the next moment, the chains that approached her seemed to suffer something incomparably terrifying. They shattered with a loud explosion, and what followed that was the horrified screams of the sea monster phantoms.

It was like a hurricane swept through them. The sea monster phantoms were no longer able to resist the swallowing strength. They turned into countless crimson lights that howled into the great furnace, integrating into Qin Yu's body.

When all the sea monsters were absorbed, a purple mark appeared between Qin Yu's eyebrows. It flashed a few times before hiding away.

"Curse mark..." Peachy's lips slightly parted. She looked at Qin Yu, thinking that this boy's luck was actually quite good.

By breaking the curse, there was indeed a possibility to condense a mark which would in turn create a formidable resistance. If he faced another curse in the future, he could take the initiative to protect himself.

But this was only a possibility, it wasn't a certainty.

Moreover, even if the mark was smoothly condensed, these kinds of marks came in different qualities. Purple...even with Peachy's field of vision, she couldn't help but sigh at Qin Yu's luck.

Later, if someone tried to use the power of a curse to defeat Qin Yu, they would likely have to beg for help instead. After all, the power of the curse mark he obtained would correlate to how difficult it was to kill all the sea monsters of the Endless Sea.

However, with Peachy's background she had seen far, far too many things. After sighing a bit, she composed herself.

This didn't mean she had lost interest in Qin Yu. On the contrary, her eyes brightened as she looked at the great furnace that protected him.

Her father didn't lie, and that was the reason why the Saints gave up and left. But just because her father said that this great furnace wasn't 'what they thought it was', that didn't mean it had nothing to do with the Furnace Saint.

Rather, with Peachy's understanding of her father, the origins of this great furnace were likely extraordinary.

Qin Yu had fallen into a deep sleep for self-protection because he had consumed too much energy. After resting up, it was natural for him to regain consciousness. So after the long and dark sleep, his eyes slowly opened. His vision was a bit blurred, but he soon regained his focus.

His surroundings were quiet. Since he was lying in the great furnace, there was nothing to worry about. After experiencing the onslaught of sea monsters, he had absolute confidence in the defensive capabilities of this great furnace.

But at this time, he heard a calm voice in his ears, "You've woken up. Come out."

Qin Yu looked up. He saw a woman sitting on the surface of the great furnace. The sea breeze wafted against her dress and her long hair gracefully danced in the air.

He froze in place, his eyes widened. Just as joy and surprise lit up his face, it immediately vanished.

It wasn't her!

This look, this tone, this indifference, it was completely different from what he remembered.

Qin Yu never thought that the Peach Blossom Spring cultivator who Zhou Lei referred to would be her.

Peachy's eyes narrowed, "You know me?"

Qin Yu cupped his hands together, "Many years ago, when miss was chasing down Xue Zheng, I once saw you."

Peachy said, "You still remember."

Qin Yu took a deep breath and said, "Miss has an outstanding and graceful bearing. If it were any other cultivator, they would never forget the sight of you either."

Peachy looked deeply at him and said, "Since you remember me, you should know that I come from Peach Blossom Spring." She took a step forward, "If you haven't changed your mind and still wish to enter Peach Blossom Spring, come with me."

Shua –

The great furnace vanished. Qin Yu cupped his hands together and bowed, "I ask miss to please guide me."

"My name is Peachy."

"I thank Miss Peachy."

“You should call me senior-apprentice sister.”

Qin Yu bowed, “Yes, senior-apprentice sister.”

One in front and one behind, the two soon vanished from sight, leaving behind a terrifying place that would be known as the Land of Disorder’s abyss of blood in the future.

Peachy paused. She took out a peach blossom and an aura was released from within. Space immediately shook.

The power of space.

If Qin Yu wasn’t wrong, then the aura of the incomparably powerful Saint that Old Turtle sensed before had come from this.

This was truly worthy of a True Saint who had crossed the sea and arrived at the other shore. His true self hadn’t even appeared here, and just a peach blossom was enough to scare off seven Half-Saints.

“Senior-apprentice sister, please wait a moment!” Qin Yu suddenly said.

Peachy looked at him and withdrew the finger she pointed at the peach blossom.

Whoosh –

There was the sound of breaking air. Four black spots appeared on the horizon, soon appearing in front of the two.

“We great senior-apprentice sister Peachy!”

Rice Paper, Zhou Lei, Ruan Jing, and Soaring Sky all bowed respectfully.

Peachy nodded gently, “There is no need to be so polite.”

The four stood up and looked at Qin Yu. Zhou Lei was the first to talk, a smile on his face, “I must congratulate Brother Qin for fulfilling your wish!”

Rice Paper said, “Zhou Lei, you are wrong. Since fellow daoist Qin has entered Peach Blossom Spring, he is considered to be in the same generation as you and me. In the future, you should call us senior-apprentice brother and senior-apprentice sister.”

She pursed her lips and looked at Qin Yu, “I returned Yun Shi to her big brother Yun Che, but she still hasn’t woken up yet. Do you want to take a look at her?”

As she spoke, she pointed in a direction, indicating where they were waiting.

Qin Yu paused for a moment. He looked at Peachy and she lightly said, “If you want to go then go.”

“Thank you, senior-apprentice sister.” Qin Yu nodded at the four people.

Flying out for a bit, he finally saw a ship on the sea’s surface. Yun Che joyfully waved his hands in the air, “Brother Qin, here, here!”

Although he had no idea what happened to Qin Yu after they parted ways, when Yun Shi was handed back to him, he saw that the four cultivators were extremely powerful. In particular, Soaring Sky and Ruan Jing were renowned disciples of Half-Saints!

If he was able to interact with them, even entrusting them to take care of Yun Shi, then Qin Yu's background was undoubtedly strong. Although Yun Che had asked Rice Paper to pass a message on to Qin Yu, he had no idea whether he would succeed or not.

After all, according to the four, Qin Yu had saved Yun Shi's life more than once. Even if he no longer cared, that would be entirely reasonable.

Shua –

Qin Yu landed on the bow of the ship. He cupped his hands together and said, "Fellow daoist Yun Che, fellow daoist Zhou Cheng, I'm glad you are both safe and alive."

Yun Che's face was flushed red with excitement, "For Brother Qin to come here is my little sister's good fortune. Her aura is extremely weak and she still hasn't woken up. If possible, I beg Brother Qin to save her!"

As he finished speaking, Zhou Cheng fell to his knees and said, "Fellow daoist, if you can save Yun Shi, I am willing to become your servant!"

His head struck the deck repeatedly.

Qin Yu flicked his sleeves and lifted him up, "That's enough. Let me take a look at her situation first."

Yun Shi's luck wasn't bad. After the soul of the spirit body had been drawn out, her own soul had already started to absorb strength to reform. If there weren't any problems, she would wake up several months from now. But her memory would likely be impacted.

Yun Che sobbed with happiness. "It's fine, it's fine, as long as she can survive!" Compared to her life and death, losing some of her memories was indeed a minor matter not worth mentioning.

Qin Yu thought for a moment and then injected some more pure soul force into her body. If he was going to save someone, he would see it through to the end. After doing his best, he stood up and said, "Fellow daoist Yun Che, fellow daoist Zhou Cheng, I have other matters to attend to so I cannot stay here for long. Bring Yun Shi with you and leave the Endless Sea as soon as possible."

After that, he paused for a moment and continued to say, "Fellow daoist Zhou Cheng isn't bad. He is someone who can be trusted."

Whoosh –

With a whistling sound, Qin Yu flew into the distance.

Yun Che bowed, "I thank Brother Qin for the graciousness!" He rose up and glanced at Zhou Cheng. Seeing Zhou Cheng's embarrassed expression, his eyes flashed and he made up his mind.

Adversity exposed the hearts of people. As long as Yun Shi didn't object, he would be a matchmaker and allow the two of them to become dao companions!

When Qin Yu returned to Peachy's side, the four companions had already disappeared without a trace.

Peachy had no intention of explaining. She glanced at Qin Yu.

He understood this expression. She was asking him if he was ready to leave.

Qin Yu nodded in response.

Pa –

With a light sound, Peachy's fair finger touched the peach blossom.

Layers of fluctuations spread out from the peach blossom, causing the surrounding space to ripple. From these ripples, a wooden door appeared.

This wooden door was strange and peculiar. It was actually woven from peach tree branches. Judging by the thickness of the branches and the knots in them, this door had existed for many years already. What was even more amazing was that these peach branches were alive. Not only were there fresh peach tree leaves, it was also covered with peach blossoms that were wet with dewdrops.

As if it was a tree that had woven itself into the shape of a door!

Peachy pushed open the door and stepped inside. Qin Yu watched her back and followed behind her without hesitation.

Pa –

The wooden door closed. Then, it swayed from side to side a few times and vanished from sight.

Chapter 1204B – Third Seated White Phoenix

After the door was pushed open, he then walked out. This was a short period of time, and he hadn't even felt any fluctuations of strength. But in the time he took to step forward, he spanned an unknown distance and arrived directly in a reading room.

Looking up, he could see through the small gaps in the walls woven by the peach branches. Sunlight poured in, leaving a mottled pattern of light on the ground.

Qin Yu subconsciously narrowed his eyes. It was only then that he discovered something was off in this room. Because as long as he wasn't blind, he could tell that it was a woman's private room.

A faint fragrance floated in the air. Qin Yu wasn't unfamiliar with this scent, because it was the same one that came from Peachy.

He lightly coughed and quickly lowered his head, in case he saw something that he shouldn't have seen.

Peachy glanced at him. Without much expression, she took a few steps forward and opened the door. She turned and said, "Welcome to Peach Blossom Spring."

Outside the door, peach trees were in full bloom. Pink flowers seemed to stretch all the way to the end of the world. A thick layer of petals had fallen to the ground, and as the wind moved, it carried with it a sweet fragrance.

Qin Yu stepped out. He subconsciously reached out a hand and caught a petal that drifted towards him on the wind. When it touched his palm, it quietly melted into him.

Then, there was a bit of coolness. Qin Yu looked down to see that a peach blossom mark, one in full bloom, had appeared on the back of his hand.

Peachy's eyes sparkled as she saw this, but she remained silent.

"Junior-apprentice sister, I am here upon the orders of master to bring junior-apprentice brother Qin Yu to pay a visit to him." A man in white robes walked out from the peach tree forest. His eyes were like stars and his eyebrows like swords. He walked with a calm and elegant demeanor.

Qin Yu cupped his hands together, "My name is Qin Yu."

The white-robed man smiled and nodded, "It's nice to meet you, junior-apprentice brother. My name is White Phoenix. I am the third seated beneath teacher, so you can call me Third Senior-apprentice Brother. If junior-apprentice brother has no more questions, please follow me. It would not be good to keep master waiting for too long."

Qin Yu said, "Yes, senior-apprentice brother." He turned around and glanced at the seemingly indifferent Peachy. "Thank you senior-apprentice sister for bringing me to Peach Blossom Spring. Then, goodbye."

The third seated White Phoenix smiled and cupped his hands, bowing at Peachy, "Junior-apprentice brother, follow me." Facing the endless peach blossoms that danced in the air, the two soon vanished from sight.

From beginning to end, Peachy didn't look at the two again, as if nothing in the world was as beautiful as this peach tree forest in front of her.

White Phoenix was a good person. When this label popped up in Qin Yu's heart, it left him secretly surprised. Due to his life experiences, he was destined to be cautious and wary of others. He would never trust someone easily.

But just from seeing this person for the first time and speaking a few words, he felt this feeling. He thought it was inconceivable.

White Phoenix seemed to sense something in Qin Yu's gaze. He smiled and said, "Junior-apprentice brother, there is no need to be so nervous. Because of my bloodline and my cultivation method, I am inherently intimate with all things in the world. If you think I am a good person, that is normal."

After giving Qin Yu some time to digest this, his smile brightened, "Of course, I am indeed a good person."

Qin Yu was left speechless. This was the first time he encountered someone who had labeled themselves a good person like this. But, this third senior-apprentice brother's smile was contagious and he subconsciously relaxed.

Vigilant, he had to be vigilant!

“Junior-apprentice brother, please relax. Disciples of my Peach Blossom Spring are close to each other and protect each other. We don’t mess around and have troublesome matters like those from the outside do. You will understand later.” White Phoenix glanced at the peach blossom mark on the back of Qin Yu’s hand and said, “So junior-apprentice brother has already obtained a mark. Is it from outside junior-apprentice sister’s peach house?”

Qin Yu nodded.

White Phoenix lightly sighed, a bit of envy in his eyes, “Junior-apprentice brother is lucky. My Peach Blossom Spring has numerous peach trees, but when it comes to quality and age, junior-apprentice sister’s peach house is second to none. Even the place where master lives is a little bit worse. To have obtained a peach blossom mark from the peach house there, it seems junior-apprentice brother truly shares a destiny with my Peach Blossom Spring. Your future will surely be limitless.”

There was something like that? If White Phoenix didn’t speak so earnestly and it wasn’t easy to verify this matter, he would have suspected that this third senior-apprentice brother was spouting nonsense to him.

“The peach blossom mark is an identification marker of Peach Blossom Spring. In the future, you may show this to others to demonstrate your background.” Third senior-apprentice brother paused, his eyes flashing, “I heard that little junior-apprentice brother has perceived the Space Laws. If there is an opportunity in the future, we should have a discussion.”

When he finished speaking, he didn’t wait for Qin Yu’s response. He bowed and said, “Honorable master, junior-apprentice brother Qin Yu has arrived.”

A small courtyard hidden in the peach tree forest appeared in front of the two of them. But from beginning to end, Qin Yu hadn’t sensed its existence. If it weren’t for White Phoenix stopping here and bowing, Qin Yu would never have discovered it.

It was like if one wasn’t allowed, then even if this small courtyard was in front of them they still wouldn’t sense it. Unless one personally experienced this, it would be impossible to understand how miraculous and shocking it seemed, and also to appreciate how impactful it was.

The atmosphere remained silent, but White Phoenix had clearly received a response. After bowing respectfully, he nodded at Qin Yu and then turned and left. A gust of wind blew petals up, obscuring his figure as he vanished.

As Qin Yu was hesitating and feeling a bit anxious, the courtyard doors creaked open.

He took a breath, tidied his robes, and walked into the courtyard. There, standing beneath a peach tree, he saw a middle-aged man with his arms held behind his back.

His back was ordinary and he wasn’t too tall. But with just one glance, Qin Yu felt as if he was facing a majestic and endlessly towering mountain.

A moment later, Qin Yu discovered that he had really appeared in front of a mountain. It soared into the clouds, as if connecting the skies and earth, one that could never be surmounted.

A terrifying oppression was released, covering him.

The middle-aged Taoist in the courtyard didn't move at all, but Qin Yu was left struggling. Beads of sweat covered his forehead.

With a stuffy cough, his figure trembled and his face paled. As his pupils shrank with shock, he quickly bowed and said, "Junior Qin Yu greets the Spring Master!"

"Mm." With a faint response, the middle-aged Taoist turned around. His eyes fell on Qin Yu, "To wake up so quickly, not bad.

"From today on, you are a disciple of my Peach Blossom Spring, placed ninth."

Hum –

A ripple arrived in Qin Yu's mind. As the Peach Blossom Spring Master finished speaking, a connection appeared between him and the peach garden beneath him.

A True Saint had formed the Great Dao. This was the true Enforcement of the Word. From this point on, Qin Yu had received approval to become a genuine cultivator of Peach Blossom Spring.

So this first glance was actually a test!

Qin Yu fell to his knees, "Disciple greets master!"

The Spring Master nodded, "Rise. My Peach Blossom Spring does not have so many rules. Today's situation is special so I shall receive your bow, but there is no need to do so in the future."

Qin Yu respectfully said, "Yes, master."

The Spring Master said, "You will come to learn the other rules of Peach Blossom Spring. Today, I will tell you one. Peach Blossom Spring does not support idlers. Don't think you can do nothing and enjoy all kinds of cultivation resources. It is best if you don't expect any meat pies to fall from the skies. Whatever you wish to obtain, that depends on how much you contribute to Peach Blossom Spring.

"There are many ways to make contributions, and one is right in front of you. Can you hand over the spirit body bred from the Endless Sea?" Without asking if he had it or not, and without any opening premise at all, he directly and bluntly asked for it.

Qin Yu stiffened. He never thought that the first thing the Spring Master would ask about was the spirit body. Sure enough, it was quite important, and Zhou Lei had really entered the Endless Sea because it was the will of Peach Blossom Spring.

But the problem was that Old Turtle had more or less eaten up the spirit body. Even if Qin Yu wanted to hand it over, there was nothing he could do about it.

"Honorable master, that spirit body..."

The Spring Master lightly said, "Every new disciple can receive a gift from me. This can be considered a first meeting gift, and also a ceremonial gift of accepting a new disciple. But the value of the gift I bestow can also vary. Do you understand my meaning?"

More sweat appeared on Qin Yu's forehead. This was a solemn and dignified True Saint that had crossed the sea to reach the other shore? The noble Peach Blossom Spring Master? Wasn't this sort of behavior and conduct too roguish!? This was clearly telling him that if he wanted something good, he had better take out the spirit body and exchange for it, otherwise he shouldn't expect anything!

But his heart had calmed down instead. It seemed that from the Spring Master's performance...he had no intention of forcing him. Was this okay?

After hesitating a bit, Qin Yu said, "I don't dare to conceal it from master. The truth is that the spirit body has already been used up, so I..." He hesitated a little, not daring to finish his sentence lest the Spring Master lose his temper. If that happened, he could only have Old Turtle vomit blood and shear off a part of his soul force. It was better for that to happen than to be punched by a True Saint.

No, there was no need for a punch. A casual finger would place him in a life or death dilemma.

The Spring Master furrowed his eyebrows, "It's been used?" He glanced at Qin Yu, "In that case, grab your things and find a place by yourself."

The surrounding scenery instantly changed. Qin Yu didn't even have an idea of what happened before he was tossed out of the courtyard. Looking at the tightly shut courtyard doors, he was secretly shocked at how terrifying the True Saint boundary was, and also how strange it was.

This Spring Master was completely different from what he expected. He had refused to take out the spirit body but still passed? Moreover, from beginning to end, he never mentioned the Space Laws.

It had to be known that the Half-Saints had rushed back and forth because of the Space Laws, so it could be seen how valuable they were. How come it wasn't taken seriously now that he arrived at Peach Blossom Spring?

He looked down at two things lying in his hands. There was a jade pendant and a set of robes. Qin Yu's lips twitched. This was the ceremonial meeting gift from a True Saint? To be cheap to such a degree, this was just too realistic!

But just thinking this was fine. He could never reveal it. Not only could he not reveal it, he had to display a satisfied appearance.

Qin Yu bowed respectfully, "I thank master for the generous gifts. This disciple shall never forget!"

The courtyard was silent, without any response at all. It seemed that when he was tossed out just now, in the opinion of the Spring Master, that was the same as chasing him away.

He forced a smile. When he looked up, he suddenly discovered that he had no idea where to go.

Chapter 1205 – Master and Disciples Different From What I Thought

Suddenly, someone patted his shoulder. Qin Yu spun around, but he didn't see anything behind him.

"Haha, you are little junior-apprentice brother Qin Yu? How about we make a bet? As long as you can find me, I will help you solve your current dilemma. If you can't find me, you will give me the jade pendant in your hand."

A voice came from all directions. It was impossible to lock onto it. It seemed that every peach blossom was shaking and emitting this sound.

Qin Yu narrowed his eyes and cupped his hands together, "May I ask which senior-apprentice brother it is?" If someone dared to appear in this peach garden and mess around near the dwelling of a True Saint, it could only be a disciple of Peach Blossom Spring.

"Hehe, little junior-apprentice brother is sly. You want to use this method to lock onto my position? Do you agree with the bet or not? If you do then I'll tell you."

Qin Yu's eyes flashed, "I agree!"

"Hahaha, I thank little junior-apprentice brother for your support. I am honorable master's sixth seated disciple. You can call me Sixth Senior-apprentice Brother. Now, come and look for me!"

Peach Blossom Spring's sixth senior-apprentice brother was incredibly talented in concealment methods. Even though Qin Yu tried his best to sense his surroundings, he didn't find anything at all.

But since he dared to make this bet, he certainly had his own methods.

Closing his eyes as if he was sensing something, Qin Yu stamped his feet and then moved to the side, "Sixth Senior-apprentice Brother, please come out."

A burst of hilarious laughter suddenly rang out, "Old Six, oh Old Six, I bet you never thought you would have such a day. This little junior-apprentice brother is too fierce; you should give him a lesson!"

These words were filled with elation, revealing a sense of joy as if someone has just 'fulfilled a great revenge'. With raucous laughter, a big fellow bravely strode forward...this, this person was a truly big fellow.

Besides from other alien races, Qin Yu had never seen such a tall and burly cultivator before. Although there were no sounds for every step he took, Qin Yu could still feel the earth shaking.

This was a feeling that could only be understood and not explained at all.

Blazing blood energy fluctuations billowed through him like a tide, rushing at him like heat waves.

It was like a moving volcano in human form!

The big fellow's smile was incomparably bright. He reached out a hand and patted Qin Yu's shoulder, "Little junior-apprentice brother is fierce. I am your fifth senior-apprentice brother. You can call me Iron Mountain."

Bang –

With a dull ring, Qin Yu became a bit shorter as his legs sunk into the ground.

Iron Mountain's smile stiffened. He quickly grabbed Qin Yu with both hands and pulled him out from the ground, an awkward expression on his face. "Little junior-apprentice brother, are you alright? I was so excited that I lost control of my strength for a moment. I really am sorry."

Qin Yu forced a smile. Around half of his body was still numb and aching, and this came from an unintentional pat.

The disciples of Peach Blossom Spring were truly terrifying. This fifth senior-apprentice brother's strength was simply terrifying, to the point he seemed like a vicious beast in the skin of a human!

Qin Yu shook his body and cupped his hands together, "I'm fine, this little brother can still withstand it. There is no need for fifth senior-apprentice brother to worry."

Iron Mountain laughed, "Good, good, my little junior-apprentice brother's body cultivation is not bad! This is the way! As men, we must have strong and tough bodies; only then can we live in the world with our heads held high. Little junior-apprentice brother, don't you agree?"

Qin Yu squeezed out a smile. He thought that there were likely not many men in the world that could compare to this fifth senior-apprentice brother. Moreover, he hoped he wouldn't become any further excited, otherwise he really would be vomiting blood.

"Old Six, honorable master is right there; you shouldn't shame yourself." As if trying to apologize, Iron Mountain stomped on the ground and took the initiative to speak up for Qin Yu.

"Peh! Fifth Senior-apprentice Brother, don't talk such nonsense. I have always been willing to admit defeat and have never done anything shameful!" With an angered shout, a person drilled out from the ground where Qin Yu had stomped a foot earlier. The amazing and strange thing was that in this entire process, the ground didn't break at all, as if this person was originally a part of the earth.

Standing beside Iron Mountain, these two senior-apprentice brothers suddenly formed a very sharp contrast. One was extremely strong and almost impossibly burly, while the other was thin and emaciated, like a starving ghost. However, his eyes were extremely bright and nimble. It was clear his thoughts were fast and flexible.

Just like that silence just now, if it weren't for Iron Mountain speaking up, he really might have killed himself rather than accepting defeat.

"Haha, how do you do, little junior-apprentice brother? I was just joking with you, so don't pay too much attention to it." Sixth senior-apprentice brother smiled and continued, "My name is Earth Stride, honorable master's sixth seated disciple. Later on, you will learn that your sixth senior-apprentice brother is a true man who absolutely keeps his word! He definitely isn't like those people who are large and tall and look as if they are simple and honest."

Iron Mountain wasn't angered. He chuckled and said, "That's right, little junior-apprentice brother, you should remember that Old Sixth is the type that values face the most. Since you have won the bet, he must give you a meeting gift. After all, arranging for you to live somewhere in the peach garden is a task given to us by elder senior-apprentice brother. Your sixth senior-apprentice brother is such a person. How dare he try to use such a situation to deceive you? Old Six, am I right?"

The sixth seated Earth Stride had an extremely wonderful expression on his face right now, as if he really wanted to tear off Iron Mountain's lips but had to tough it out and pretend as if he didn't know anything. He coughed and said, "Of course, I am always generous to my little junior-apprentice brothers and sisters..."

Iron Mountain clapped his hands together, "Good, Old Six is such a great person! Little junior-apprentice brother's jade pendant was given to him by master, so for better or worse, you should take out something of similar value. Hehe, let me tell you something, honorable master is in the courtyard. You should take your time to think over what you bring out, because if it's something bad, that will be considered as mocking master, and that is a crime of grave disrespect."

Earth Stride nearly choked to death on his saliva. He wickedly glared at Iron Mountain and grabbed onto Qin Yu's arm. "Come, come, come, let's get out of here as fast as we can little junior-apprentice brother. We don't want to disturb master's cultivation."

He grabbed Qin Yu and left, looking as if he was being chased away by a dog.

Uh...this description wasn't too appropriate. Qin Yu cautiously looked back at the courtyard. Fortunately, there wasn't any sound at all. It seemed that even a Saint couldn't sense everything.

"Let big brother Old Six tell you something. Master has actually arranged quite a good place for you." Earth Stride said with a warm expression as he pulled Qin Yu close to him. He moved quickly, not giving Iron Mountain a chance to interject.

Qin Yu never cared about the bet at all. He just felt that the disciples of Peach Blossom Spring were different from what he imagined, just like the Spring Master.

If they were able to join the sect and become disciples of a True Saint, their cultivations had to be tyrannical. He had personally experienced Iron Mountain's strength for himself. As for this skinny and emaciated sixth senior-apprentice brother who looked like a starving ghost, just from his tight grip, Qin Yu knew that he wasn't someone who was easy to mess with.

But their actions were completely inconsistent with the image of high level cultivators. Not to mention that they weren't aloof or haughty, describing them with the adjectives funny and teasing was more appropriate.

Iron Mountain lightly coughed. Earth Stride gave him a stern look and began speaking even faster, "Little junior-apprentice brother, if you don't understand anything then just ask me. We don't have many rules and customs here at Peach Blossom Spring. Just keep a few of the important ones in mind.

"We've arrived. Your dwelling is right in front. Let me tell you, the scenery here is truly beautiful. You will definitely be satisfied!"

"Big Brother Qin!"

There was a cry of surprise. Then, Qin Yu who was being dragged by Earth Stride suddenly stumbled and smiled. He thought that he would be able to see her after joining Peach Blossom Spring, but he never expected she would be waiting here.

Shua –

Before she arrived, a fragrance already rushed forward on the wind. Earth Stride's face stiffened and he hurriedly let go and stepped back. His eyes subconsciously swept over the surroundings.

Iron Mountain shouted out, "Little junior-apprentice brother, be careful!"

But he had spoken too late. A figure had rushed into Qin Yu's arms. This caused the fifth and sixth senior-apprentice brothers to change their complexions. They thought back to when elder senior-apprentice brother ordered the two of them to help arrange the daily life of their new little junior-apprentice brother. If something happened, the two of them would be to blame.

It seemed they could only brace themselves and act as meat shields today!

Before Iron Mountain and Earth Stride could do anything, a massive shadow covered Qin Yu.

He looked up to see a giant head above him, coming closer.

It was covered in scales, and the horn on it shined with metallic luster. Its giant eyes were filled with the indifference of a life form at the peak of the food chain. It stared at the person in Qin Yu's arms and growled, its eyes becoming increasingly unfriendly.

Dragon!

To be more accurate, this was a shockingly large and extremely powerful dragon, who released a heart-shaking aura.

Qin Yu squinted as he looked into the eyes of the giant dragon. He patted the person in his arms. "This is the little dragon from back then? He's grown so large!"

"Mm, that's him." Lei Xiaoyu raised her head, her face full of excitement as she stared at the giant beast, "Little Black, don't be so rude to Big Brother Qin!"

The giant dragon snorted, grievance in his eyes. Didn't they come to an agreement that she couldn't call him that in front of outsiders?

Lei Xiaoyu stuck out her tongue. "Sorry, I was too happy when I saw Big Brother Qin, so I forgot."

The one named Little Black was already quite large. He was a giant dragon who was normally cold in front of others, but now he almost shed tears. Xiaoyu, you've changed. You were so good to me before, so why did you forget about me the moment you saw this surname Qin?

Don't say anything...a broken heart is like shards of glass...mine is also broken!

Chapter 1206 – The Arrogant Azure Dragon

Seeing the depressed giant dragon, Lei Xiaoyu gave Qin Yu an apologetic look and turned around to hug his giant head, constantly stroking his face.

"Okay, okay, my family's Azure Dragon is the most sensible, so don't be angry anymore, okay? Besides, there are no outsiders here today. Fifth and sixth senior-apprentice brothers definitely won't speak nonsense to others. Right, senior-apprentice brothers?"

Hu –

Azure Dragon allowed Qin Yu to hug his head, but his huge eyes rolled, swiveling towards Iron Mountain and Earth Stride as he ruthlessly threatened them.

The approximate meaning was – if you two are tired of living, then go ahead and tell outsiders. Then you can experience just how sharp a dragon's fangs are!

“Uhh...of course, of course, junior-apprentice sister is right. I and fifth senior-apprentice brother definitely won't say anything. You have nothing to worry about!” Earth Stride squeezed out a smile, revealing a flattering expression as he glanced at Azure Dragon.

He had no choice but to flatter. Who would have thought that the little dragon their little junior-apprentice sister brought back in the past would actually have such an immense background? Although his current strength wasn't anything at all to them, they had no choice but to keep his terrifying future growth potential in mind.

Right now, any one of them could teach this proud dragon a lesson. But what then?

They couldn't kill the dragon. Otherwise, let alone their little junior-apprentice sister who had already tacitly approved allowing Azure Dragon to become the future guardian beast of Peach Blossom Spring, but their master would be the first one to jump out and destroy them.

Since they couldn't kill him, no one wished to provoke Azure Dragon. If they tried to punish him, they would surely receive retaliation in the future due to its narrow-minded nature.

And because of his bloodline, Azure Dragon was very much favored by their third senior-apprentice brother. In Peach Blossom Spring, Azure Dragon was like a tyrant that no one dared to provoke!

Iron Mountain revealed a puzzled expression on his simple and honest large face. He frowned and said, “What are you talking about? Because of my cultivation my ears are a bit weak so I haven't heard anything at all.”

Praise the heavens.

Looking at sixth senior-apprentice brother's wide-open mouth and his speechless expression, Qin Yu finally understood that there was some truth to what he said before.

Some people appeared simple and honest with reliable thoughts, but in fact they were rotten to the core!

Azure Dragon humphed. Of course, this humph was a snort, and when he did, he carefully avoided Lei Xiaoyu's ears. As he squinted his eyes and looked around, they were full of contempt. He was thinking that individuals like these had managed to sneak their way into his solemn Peach Blossom Spring. It was simply a disgrace!

However, he never considered that before coming here with Lei Xiaoyu, fifth and sixth senior-apprentice brothers had already been in Peach Blossom Spring for so many years. He really had no qualifications to express such feelings.

But whether or not one was qualified didn't matter. What was important was that Azure Dragon had a backer, energy, and potential. This was enough!

Iron Mountain and Earth Stride's faces stiffened and they roared inside. Were they being looked down upon? Looked down upon this Azure Dragon? For better or worse, we are senior-apprentice brothers, so where is the respect! The atmosphere of Peach Blossom Spring was simply terrible to the extreme!

This wasn't good. They had to search for elder senior-apprentice brother and have him kill off all these evil spirits and trends in the peach garden.

They glanced at each other and imperceptibly nodded at the same time. They came to a mutual agreement – they had to file a joint complaint!

As for why they imperceptibly nodded...cough cough, they had no other choice. Azure Dragon had narrow eyes and a small mind. If he saw them then he might create more issues. If things didn't go well they would experience a beating and third senior-apprentice brother would be dragged in.

As they thought about senior-apprentice brother's serious demeanor and his mentality of trying to convince people with mortality as well as his endless droning lessons that could turn a person deaf, Iron Mountain and Earth Stride paled. Did they have to reconsider making a complaint again? What if elder senior-apprentice brother didn't support them? If that happened, they were in for grave trouble!

Azure Dragon's lips twitched. That's right, it was a twitch, a sneering expression that was incredibly anthropomorphic. If he could speak right now, he would probably use a calm tone as he uttered, "Trash!"

With this little courage, they still wanted to report this dragon for bad behavior? How pathetic! But thinking about how cowardly Old Six and Old Five were, the possibility of them leaking his nickname should be low.

That's right, they wouldn't even dare!

Azure Dragon relaxed. As he felt smug and satisfied, he suddenly felt another hand stroking his head.

His eyes widened and anger burst out. Even if it was Qin Yu, and even if he saved his life, this was too presumptuous!

Only Xiaoyu could touch this Azure Dragon's head. If he didn't give Qin Yu a lesson today, then Qin Yu might even overturn the heavens later!

He bared his teeth, his eyes wide and round. He was going to use the unique dragon's roar skill to give Qin Yu a lesson he would never forget. But just as Azure Dragon opened his mouth to reveal sharp and snow white fangs, no sound came from his mouth.

The giant dragon's eyes fixed onto Qin Yu. He didn't want to acknowledge it, but he had no choice but to...at this moment, he felt fear!

That's right, the Azure Dragon that was praised by the Spring Master and said to have a noble bloodline and limitless future, couldn't help restrain the endless fear that grew in his heart.

It was like he had encountered his natural mortal enemy...no, this description wasn't appropriate. It was more like he encountered an existence from a higher level of life, one that completely restrained him.

Abyssal Titans ate Abyssal Demon Dragons as food and they were top level beasts in the abyss world. Although the two worlds were diametrically opposed to each other, they were inextricably linked in all sorts of complicated ways.

Although Azure Dragon stood at the pinnacle of the dragon race system in the vast brightness world, since he belonged to the dragon bloodline, he was naturally able to sense the aura of the Abyssal Titan within Qin Yu's body.

Of course, if this was just an incomplete Abyssal Titan aura, it might not be able to frighten Azure Dragon. The key lay in the fact that hiding inside Qin Yu's body was also a rebel shadow of the abyss that had fled from the abyss' will.

Old Turtle's existence filled in the flaw within the Abyssal Titan's aura. It even infinitely raised it, lifting it to a point that frightened Azure Dragon.

Lei Xiaoyu looked at Azure Dragon who wanted to roar but couldn't. Then, she looked at Qin Yu who was stroking Azure Dragon's head. Her eyes blinked. She thought that her Big Brother Qin was too fierce, and even someone as arrogant and proud as Little Black didn't dare to be dissolute against him.

As I thought, my Big Brother Qin is the best!

Iron Mountain and Earth Stride couldn't help but widen their eyes. They looked at the strange scene before them, confused.

Why?

Why?

Little apprentice-brother Qin Yu might be a bit more handsome than usual, but with Azure Dragon's aesthetic sense of the human race, that shouldn't matter.

When it came to cultivation, the two of them had cultivated like crazed idiots, so how come they didn't have this confidence? Just thinking about it left them feeling sad!

For their treatment to be so different, it was simply too much!

After rubbing him a few times, Qin Yu knocked on Azure Dragon's head, causing a few metallic scraping sounds. "Not bad, your scales are quite thick and the defensive power should be good. It seems you've eaten well these past years."

He wasn't just rubbing, he was even knocking!

Iron Mountain and Earth Stride licked their lips and coughed a few times. Maybe they could give a few rubs and a few knocks too?

But before they could reach out their hands, there was an angry howl. Azure Dragon took this chance to fiercely turn his head, his eyes viciously glaring at them.

Bastards!

Did they really think just anyone could touch this dragon's head? Daring to have such thoughts was a crime worthy of death! Ahhhhh!

But he really wasn't in the mood to settle accounts with Old Five and Old Six today. It was better to leave first to avoid further embarrassment.

The dragon's head quickly drew back. With a strong gust of wind, a giant shadow flew into the distance.

Okay. The arrogant Azure Dragon's pride had been a little hurt by Qin Yu today. He immediately decided to go to third senior-apprentice brother to exact justice for him.

Hum hum, rubbing was rubbing, but he dared to knock on this dragon's head. Today, I will teach you what it means when disaster comes from a person's own hands!

Iron Mountain and Earth Stride resentfully withdrew their hands. They looked at the direction Azure Dragon left in and then they rolled their eyes.

Earth Stride began to say, "Little junior-apprentice brother, I have some news I can give you for free. How about letting go of the previous bet?"

"Azure Dragon has gone to complain to third senior-apprentice brother. He is deeply loved by third senior-apprentice brother, so little junior-apprentice brother should be careful." Iron Mountain immediately said, not even sparing a look at Earth Stride. "Old Five, what did you say just now? My ears don't work well so I didn't hear you."

Earth Stride: ...

If he could hit Old Five, he would definitely slap him silly. It seemed this guy was determined to fight against him today.

It wasn't anything to compensate with something. When it came to betting, there were always winners and losers. As a consummate gambler himself, he understood this well.

But the key point was that Qin Yu had just arrived today, and he had lost their first bet. This was a bit shameful. Given the personalities of the people in Peach Blossom Spring, they would definitely laugh at him. They would say that Old Six always bragged but he was destroyed by his little junior-apprentice brother the first time they met!

Losing something wasn't the issue. The issue was face and honor.

Lei Xiaoyu blinked, "Big Brother Qin made a bet with sixth senior-apprentice brother? Who won and who lost?"

Iron Mountain's ears suddenly became useful. "Little senior-apprentice brother won. It was a clean and neat victory."

Lei Xiaoyu cheered, "My Big Brother Qin is fierce!" She stuck out her tongue and looked at Earth Stride with embarrassment, as if kicking someone when they were down. "I am sorry fifth senior-apprentice brother, but that wasn't on purpose. I just know that fifth senior-apprentice is a man who keeps his word and will definitely live up to his name, right?"

Earth Stride's face stiffened, his complexion even uglier than a cry. "Yes, yes, little junior-apprentice sister is right. I will definitely compensate!"

When Qin Yu stood outside the door and watched his fifth and sixth senior-apprentice brothers walk away, his eyes were calm and leisurely. Although this was his first day at Peach Blossom Spring, he felt very relaxed.

This place and the people here, they were all different from what he imagined...it was interesting!

Seeing Qin Yu deep in thought and thinking he was worried, Lei Xiaoyu smiled and said, "Big Brother Qin, don't worry. All the senior-apprentice brothers and sisters here are good people. Sixth senior-apprentice brother won't be unhappy just because he has to compensate you with some treasures."

She chuckled and said, "But I have to remind Big Brother Qin that sixth senior-apprentice brother is a person who attaches great importance to face. He also likes to make bets. Since he lost to you today, he will do everything in his power to find a way to retrieve his honor in the future. You should be careful."

Qin Yu looked at her amused expression and suddenly felt warm inside. This girl who knew she was going to die before and still forced herself to appear strong, was now smiling brightly like a flower in full bloom.

He suddenly thought that even though he did things that seemed silly or stupid at times, they were in fact correct and worth it. For instance, Lei Xiaoyu in front of him. For instance, Yun Shi from the Profound Vision World...he hoped that after she woke up, she would live a beautiful and wondrous life.

Although Qin Yu didn't say anything, Lei Xiaoyu could feel the warmth from his expression. She said, "Big Brother Qin, allow me to show you around this place. After hearing you were coming, I cleaned it up myself."

She hugged Qin Yu's arms and shoved open the courtyard doors. There were peach trees everywhere, but since this was Peach Blossom Spring, that wasn't a surprise.

There was a sturdy peach tree deep in the courtyard. At this moment, the branches gently swayed. Through the peach blossom mark on his hand, he could feel a faint sense of joy. It actually had a vague consciousness of its own and seemed to be welcoming the arrival of its master.

Lei Xiaoyu reached out a hand and slapped the peach tree. "Every disciple of Peach Blossom Spring has such a peach tree. They are guardians that master has granted us." As she spoke to here she cautiously swept her eyes around and lowered her voice, saying, "Big Brother Qin, you should have seen master before. Do you think he is different from a solemn True Saint? In truth, master might seem a bit cheap and mean-spirited, but he's actually a really good person. He is unusually good to us disciples. You will understand later. For instance, this peach tree. Cultivators from outside the peach garden could dream all they want, but they can never obtain it."

Qin Yu nodded. He looked at Lei Xiaoyu and said, "Master's thoughts have already retreated."

"Ah!" Lei Xiaoyu's eyes widened, surprised. She said, "You can sense master's intent?"

Qin Yu said, "I could only sense a little bit. It's not too clear."

"Ah, that's wonderful! We finally have a place where we can speak in peace!" Lei Xiaoyu cheered out loud before closing her mouth, "Big Brother Qin, you're not joking around right? This matter is too serious, so don't lie about it!"

Qin Yu revealed a strange expression. He rubbed his chin, "Could it be...master...he is someone who likes to spy on others as they speak?"

Lei Xiaoyu's eyes widened and she covered his mouth, "Big Brother Qin! You must have gone insane to speak so loudly! The last time, second senior-apprentice brother accidentally said something and was thrown into a turbulent spatial flow by teacher. When he came back he was miserable!"

Tossed into a turbulent spatial flow...

Qin Yu's lips twitched. As someone who grasped the Space Laws, he certainly understood how terrifying the spatial flow was. Once someone was dragged inside, there was a chance they would be pulled somewhere unknown. If they fell into a chaotic space, they might never escape from it.

He actually used such methods to punish a disciple. It seemed that this Spring Master wasn't too broad-minded.

Remember this, he definitely had to remember this. When he did things in the future, he had to be cautious and not touch the Spring Master's bottom line.

Otherwise, who knew what sort of punishment he would receive!

He took a deep breath and slowly let it out. "Xiaoyu, I just came to Peach Blossom Spring so I don't know anything. You have to tell me so I can avoid further problems in the future."

Chapter 1207A – Contribution Points

Lei Xiaoyu looked to the right and left. Only when she discovered no signs of her master did she let out a long breath. It seemed that his perception had indeed left.

She asked Qin Yu again. Once he determined that he really could sense the Spring Master's thought fluctuations, her face lit up with joy.

"Let me tell you this first, Big Brother Qin. I will come to you when I want to talk in the future, so don't call me annoying!"

Qin Yu was left speechless. It seemed that the Spring Master's bad habit of eavesdropping was serious.

This wasn't good. He had to earnestly remind Old Turtle to keep an eye out for the Spring Master's thought fluctuations to avoid an accident occurring.

Thinking about it, he subconsciously glanced at the peach tree in front of him. After all, since their teacher was the master of the peach garden, he had no choice but to be careful.

Lei Xiaoyu sensed his look. She said, "Big Brother Qin, there's no need to worry. The peach trees are our guardians and are connected to our hearts. They won't say anything irresponsibly."

She pulled out a wooden chair and sat down. Lifting a hand, she poured two cups of tea, causing fragrance to overflow. "This is tea that master bestowed to me last time. I have no idea what variety it is, but master wavered at the time. I have tasted it several times and the flavor is first class. Big Brother Qin, please give it a try."

Qin Yu took a sip. Its flavor was indeed at the peak. As the tea entered his belly, a warm heat started to nourish his soul. Even with Qin Yu's soul intensity, he still felt a weak increase. From this alone it could be seen how astonishing the effects of this tea were.

“Good tea!”

Putting down the teacup, Qin Yu reached out and knocked on the table. He had plenty of time to slowly savor it.

Lei Xiaoyu said, “Good, then I won’t speak in circles and I’ll get to the main point. The truth is that as I said before, the senior-apprentice brothers and sisters at Peach Blossom Spring are all very good people, and it is easy to get along with them. There is none of the intrigue, secret disputes, and other things that you would find outside. As long as you don’t anger teacher, then there’s basically no problem.”

Qin Yu nodded, hinting for her to continue.

Lei Xiaoyu thought for a moment and said, “Teacher must have told you that the peach garden doesn’t support idlers, right? This isn’t aimed at Big Brother Qin, but all of the disciples of Peach Blossom Spring. I have to remind you that the reason master said this is because it is the truth. Everything in Peach Blossom Spring has to be earned.

“Of course, there are many ways to earn contributions. Every room has a little booklet with detailed records within. Big Brother Qin should remember it by heart, because Peach Blossom Spring’s contribution points are very, very useful.”

She subconsciously shrank her neck, her eyes turning as she looked at Qin Yu. Once she received an affirmation that their teacher’s divine sense wasn’t here, she continued to say, “I’m going to tell you something that actually happened. I came after so I didn’t experience this for myself, but this was told to me by our senior-apprentice brothers and sisters. Our peach garden’s second senior-apprentice brother...I will tell you about him soon enough...but in short, many years ago, second senior-apprentice brother was bullied in the outside world. He came back and torturously cultivated for 30 years. When he broke out of his seclusion he planned to take revenge. But in the end, for some reason his enemy learned who he was and hid inside a turtle shell in fear, not even daring to come out.

“Second senior-apprentice brother blocked that person’s door and cursed out loud for three days and three nights, but he still wouldn’t come out. Can you guess what happened next?” Lei Xiaoyu had an excited and dramatic expression as she continued, “Our second senior-apprentice brother used his accumulated contribution points to ask master for help. Master broke the turtle shell with a single punch and second senior-apprentice brother lifted his spear and rushed in. As for that person who bullied him in the past, he was beaten up so pitifully that he likely wouldn’t be able to stand for the rest of his life. The key is that with master watching on, the elders from the other side were so frightened that they didn’t dare to interfere.”

Qin Yu’s lips twitched. He thought about how a solemn True Saint who had reached the other shore had actually been hired as a thug by his own disciple. For something so odd and outrageous to happen, and for Lei Xiaoyu who arrived later to know about it, it could be seen that this wasn’t a secret in the peach garden at all.

In other words, the Spring Master didn’t think that this was shameful, and didn’t take it seriously at all...he even tacitly allowed the disciples to know so that they understood the importance of contribution points.

What nonsense. If one could even hire a True Saint as a personal thug, was there much else to say about how valuable contribution points were? The most direct example was in front of him. Qin Yu immediately decided that one Lei Xiaoyu left, he would go into his room to find the booklet that listed contribution values and memorize every word.

When it came to this, the more the merrier!

In fact, Qin Yu couldn't help but think that if he gathered a shocking amount of contribution points, could he ask the Spring Master to have a discussion with Peachy to let Ning Ling and You Qi off?

Forgetting whether or not this option was feasible, there was at least a possibility. And as long as there was a possibility, Qin Yu was willing to try it.

"You cannot annoy master, and contribution points must be accumulated. With these two points in mind, you can basically do whatever you want at Peach Blossom Spring." Lei Xiaoyu hesitated and said, "But let me tell you a few more things about our fellow senior-apprentice brothers and sisters. Even though I know they are good people, the truth is that I haven't had much contact with them, so I won't comment and will just give a brief introduction."

When Qin Yu finally entered Peach Blossom Spring, the Spring Master had said he was seated ninth. That meant he had a total of nine disciples.

There was Peachy, the third seat White Phoenix, the fifth seat Iron Mountain, the sixth seat Earth Stride, and Lei Xiaoyu in front of him. He had seen more than half of them. The ones he hadn't seen yet were their elder senior-apprentice brother, second senior-apprentice brother, and seventh senior-apprentice sister. These were the three that Lei Xiaoyu emphasized.

She spoke a great deal and the information was fragmented. But as she kept speaking, three figures gradually appeared in Qin Yu's mind.

Elder senior-apprentice brother. When something made sense, the one who liked to talk about sense the most was him.

Second senior-apprentice brother – he could never be wronged, and if there was revenge to be taken, he would take it immediately. If he couldn't, he would go into seclusion before coming out and taking revenge again.

Seventh senior-apprentice sister...she was a very beautiful woman. But according to Lei Xiaoyu, even now she had no idea what the true appearance of seventh senior-apprentice sister looked like, because every time she saw her, she was wearing a completely strange and yet equally beautiful face.

The reason White Phoenix was called White Phoenix was that he was born from the Phoenix Clan. In terms of bloodline alone, he was one of the noblest creatures in the world. He was born with an affinity to all living things. Simply put, he was someone whose popularity was so good that it blew past the limit, someone who was beloved by the will of the heavens, whose luck was preposterous and would have good deeds meet him just by walking around.

The one he admired most was elder senior-apprentice brother. As a result, he had picked up the habit of speaking to others and reasoning with them. As elder senior-apprentice brother was deep in seclusion and second senior-apprentice brother was almost never home, the daily affairs of Peach Blossom Spring were handled by White Phoenix.

There was also another point. Because the Phoenix Clan was on good terms with the Azure Dragon lineage in the ancient times, and the two bloodlines were on the wane right now, White Phoenix was incredibly good to Azure Dragon. Simply put, he doted on the dragon. White Phoenix had scolded his junior-apprentice brothers and sisters, even given a talking to second senior-apprentice brother once. Thus, although Azure Dragon wasn't the Spring Master's disciple, his status wasn't low.

Speaking to here, Lei Xiaoyu comforted Qin Yu. She would find Azure Dragon and ask him to be lenient, so that he wouldn't find third senior-apprentice brother and bring him to cause trouble.

Fifth senior-apprentice brother Iron Mountain. He was a cultivator from an ancient line that focused on the mortal body. His cultivation was based on his blood energy and his strength was unfathomable.

Sixth senior-apprentice brother Earth Stride. It was said that he was the reincarnation of an earth spirit bred from the heavens and earth, and he was born to be one with the earth. His escape methods were the most amazing. In addition, he and fifth senior-apprentice brother were together most of the time. It was likely he had also learned some body training methods, as his physical strength was amazing too.

Then, there was the eighth seat Lei Xiaoyu. When she spoke about herself, she was a bit shy because according to the rules of the peach garden, when Qin Yu saw her later he would have to call her senior-apprentice sister.

After all, she was eighth seat and Qin Yu was ninth. There wasn't much to say about it so she quickly passed over the topic.

The last was Peachy. When Lei Xiaoyu spoke of her, she hesitated a little. "Senior-apprentice sister Peachy is fourth seat, and is master's only daughter. She has the most honored status and likes to freely come and go. Even when she is in the peach garden, she isn't close to the other disciples much. Ever since I entered the peach garden I have seen fourth senior-apprentice sister several times, but she has spoken less than ten words to me.

"Except for elder senior-apprentice brother and second senior-apprentice brother who take the initiative to talk to her, only senior-apprentice brother White Phoenix speaks a few words to her. The others are a little afraid of fourth senior-apprentice sister. This isn't because she doesn't walk to talk, but because her eyes are too cold and indifferent when she looks at you."

Lei Xiaoyu forced a smile. She seemed to be recalling an unpleasant memory.

Following that, she spoke about some random matters of Peach Blossom Spring. For instance, issues of going in and out, some restricted areas, and also about the servants.

There were certainly servants, and there was an astonishing amount of them. The solemn Peach Blossom Spring Holy Land couldn't have just a True Saint and nine disciples, right? Although cleaning was a contribution, that didn't mean you would earn contributions just by sweeping anywhere.

Furthermore, in such a massive peach garden, it definitely wouldn't work out if there was no one to take care of things.

Each Peach Blossom Spring disciple would obtain a large number of servants after officially joining. Basically, as long as one wanted to, they could even have people spoon feeding them meals, and these people would all be top class beauties.

It had to be known that while servants were servants, one had to look at what place they were from.

And this was Peach Blossom Spring, the orthodoxy of a True Saint. Even looking at the myriad heavens, this was a peak existence.

If one casually tossed out a servant spot for Peach Blossom Spring, no matter what the job duties were, it would attract countless numbers of outside cultivators. They would brutally fight each other for this, and many of these competitors would be cultivators from large and prominent families.

So even though servants were servants, they couldn't be judged by common sense.

When Lei Xiaoyu spoke about beautiful women, although she had already extinguished some thoughts she used to have, she still tightened her eyes and stared at Qin Yu. What satisfied her was that Qin Yu's expression was calm and he clearly didn't care.

That's right, what sort of eyesight does Big Brother Qin have? Even in the past she couldn't do it...much less these common people!

But even though she said this, the mindset of a man could change at the snap of a finger. He didn't care now, but what about in the future?

Lei Xiaoyu thought that she had an obligation and responsibility to help Qin Yu avoid any mistakes he might make in the future.

She lightly coughed, "Big Brother Qin, you just arrived so there are likely many matters you need to sort out. As for the preparation of servants, allow me to help you. Don't worry, I have done this before and have previous experience. The people I choose will definitely satisfy you."

Qin Yu glanced at her. He laughed inwardly and shook his head. This little girl couldn't conceal her thoughts at all. But since she was willing, he would let her do what she wanted. In any case, Qin Yu never placed much thought into it to begin with.

"Good. Then...I'll have to trouble senior-apprentice sister."

Lei Xiaoyu's face flushed red, looking cute and lovable with her helpless appearance. "Big Brother Qin...you...I...don't call me that in the future...let's talk later!"

As she spoke, she ran away.

Chapter 1207B – Contribution Points

Qin Yu laughed out loud. This girl was too easy to tease. But later on, she would not be able to escape this title of senior-apprentice sister.

After all, there were still rules in this Peach Blossom Spring Holy Land.

Thinking of this, Qin Yu's smile stiffened. He rubbed his nose. In the past, he never imagined that there would be a day where he would have to call Lei Xiaoyu senior-apprentice sister.

Tsk tsk, just thinking about this made him feel a bit awkward.

But he soon discarded his awkwardness. Since this was the reality of the situation, thinking about it was meaningless.

He closed his eyes and started to recall everything that she told him. She had said many times before that Peach Blossom Spring was different from the outside, and that it was easy to get along with their fellow senior-apprentice brothers and sisters.

The things he experienced today made Qin Yu feel relaxed and different. But that didn't mean he truly believed it.

In this world, what a person saw with their own eyes might not even be true, much less the narration of others.

Although Qin Yu believed that Lei Xiaoyu wouldn't deceive him, this girl was too pure and naive to begin with, and what she saw might not be the truth.

In short, Qin Yu still needed to verify and judge the people of Peach Blossom Spring for himself.

He thought things over, drawing a vague outline of everyone in Peach Blossom Spring and putting a few tentative labels on them. The rest would need to be filled out with future contact, and these labels could be deleted or replaced.

Shua –

Qin Yu opened his eyes and stepped forward, walking into the room. Without much effort, he found the little booklet that Lei Xiaoyu spoke about. It explained how to earn contributions.

The contents were detailed. He turned the pages and saw the dense lines of characters that covered them, stacking up into a relatively thick booklet. Qin Yu was pleasantly surprised. He was originally afraid that he wouldn't be able to understand things well enough, but now he was thinking that the booklet was too tedious.

He sat down and carefully sifted through the booklet from beginning to end. After finishing the last page, he let out a deep breath.

As the Spring Master said, there were many ways to earn contributions. Just in this little booklet there were several hundred methods.

For instance, the cleaning that was mentioned before.

A peach garden had peach trees – this wasn't idle talk but the truth. Not only were there peach trees but there was a shocking number of them. They were covered in the aura of a True Saint and bloomed all year round. This caused layers of peach blossoms to cover the ground.

These things had absorbed a trace of a Saint's aura. Although it was incomparably weak, it wasn't something that common cultivators could process.

Peach Blossom Spring disciples obtained a peach blossom mark and received the approval of the peach garden. So the cleaning up of the fallen peach blossoms was mostly done by them.

Of course, this wasn't a good job. It took a long time and the contribution value was too low. Basically, no one wanted to do it so everyone drew lots and tested their luck.

In comparison, tasks of finding precious materials, hunting down powerful monster beasts, helping master refine things, and even cultivating new peach trees gave many more contribution points.

Then where should he begin to earn contribution points from? Qin Yu fell into deep contemplation.

....

Old Turtle didn't allow Qin Yu to feel confused for much longer.

According to what he said –

Master please don't be annoyed, but because I hadn't determined what sort of person you were, I still had reservations and thus held some things back.

On the Endless Sea, in order to obtain a spirit body for me, master suffered risk and you almost lost your life. I was moved beyond words.

You are such a wonderful master. I must grasp your thigh and will never let go. I will tell you everything I know so that master can freely advance in your cultivation!

Blah blah blah, simply put it was all sorts of flattery as well as remorse for his previous actions.

If it weren't for the fact that Qin Yu had begun to feel impatient, then with Old Turtle's current momentum, he might have been able to continue speaking for three days and three nights!

“Shut up and just tell me what it is!”

Then, Old Turtle spoke about the opposition of light and darkness, the relationship between the evolution of the world's source and the rules of the heavens and earth, and all sorts of high-end topics.

Qin Yu's eyes started to shine.

At this moment, he began to realize why the little blue lamp considered Old Turtle to be so important. In the abyss world, when the little blue lamp learned that Qin Yu was going to rush through the Cold Sea and that this was an almost suicidal mission, it had still tacitly allowed him to continue.

The reason was to smoothly bring Old Turtle back to the vast brightness world. Perhaps it had already known about Old Turtle's true value.

As for what the source of the world was or whatever, that was too far away so he wouldn't talk about it for the time being. But, the integration of light and darkness in his body was the big problem that he was facing right now.

Although he controlled light and darkness and had comprehended the transformation of light and darkness into one body, just comprehending it didn't mean he could fully grasp that power it contained.

If he wanted to fully wield the power of light and darkness by himself, then disregarding whether or not he could achieve that, even if he could, it would inevitably cost an enormous amount of time.

But if he had Old Turtle's assistance, then that was an entirely different situation.

Anyone could spout out hollow words, and Qin Yu believed at most two or three points of it. Of course, unless Old Turtle was tired of living, he would never joke about such things. But even so, because this was so important, he could only verify it by confirming it himself.

In fact, Old Turtle really wasn't lying. He knew a great, great deal, and Qin Yu's cultivation speed drastically increased.

Contribution points were important, but in Qin Yu's eyes, they weren't as important as Old Turtle's guidance. If he underwent a period of intense cultivation, his strength would increase by leaps and bounds.

Not to mention anything else, as long as Qin Yu could fully control the body of light and darkness, he would be able to easily crush anyone else at the God boundary.

And this God boundary included Origin Gods...according to Old Turtle, the God boundary was the God boundary. Where did so many tiers and divisions come from?

If a person couldn't see the sea they were nothing but trash. If they saw the sea but couldn't enter, they were even more useless trash.

Only by stepping into the sea and starting a journey to cross the sea, initiating an impact to reach the unknown shore, could someone be considered a genuine top character of the world.

Of course, this was just barely considered a top character.

This tone was considerably loud and filled with bravado, enough to suffocate tens of thousands of people. But Qin Yu didn't care how much Old Turtle was bragging right now.

He was like a dried up sponge, thirstily sucking in all sorts of guidance from Old Turtle. Every time he solved a question and understood something, Qin Yu had a hearty feeling of being enlightened, as if he was finally seeing the sun peeking through the clouds.

Just after entering Peach Blossom Spring, Qin Yu plunged himself into the sea of cultivation, reluctant to come out.

In this situation, the various methods of earning contribution points seemed too troublesome.

He was annoyed that he didn't even have enough time to cultivate, so how could he distract himself with thinking about other things? Qin Yu began to have a headache between the gaps in his cultivating, because even just living in Peach Blossom Spring required one to consume contribution points.

That was right!

Just this rule alone fully explained why there were no idlers at Peach Blossom Spring.

The booklet contained detailed explanations. Peach Blossom Spring was where the Spring Master paved his path, and this place was protected by the Great Dao of a Saint. This place in itself was an immortal paradise. Even if common cultivators cried and smashed their heads begging, they could give up the thought of taking a single breath of the air here.

Peach Blossom Spring disciples lived here every day so they needed to pay a certain price. Luckily, not many contribution points were required. Qin Yu recalled the booklet and discovered that the task of cleaning up the peach blossoms would earn him enough contribution points and he was immediately overjoyed.

Cleaning up peach blossoms was fine. He wouldn't need to put in any effort at all. In fact, as he cleaned he could also cultivate the power of light and darkness. While this would affect him a little, it was without a doubt the best option right now.

The only problem was that when it came to the task of cleaning up the peach garden, the various disciples drew lots to decide who would do it.

In other words, if Qin Yu wanted to calmly and steadily cultivate, he needed to find a way to change this custom and take over the task of cleaning the peach blossoms by himself.

He would just do it!

Chapter 1208 – A Scum Dragon That Bullies the Weak and Fears the Strong

Qin Yu quickly contacted his fifth and sixth senior-apprentice brothers, and Iron Mountain and Earth Stride soon arrived. They had been tasked by elder senior-apprentice brother to take care of their little junior-apprentice brother who had just entered. They didn't dare to neglect their duties.

Of course, they were also worried that their little junior-apprentice brother suffered an accident and needed their help.

When they arrived, the two people swept their eyes over Qin Yu a few times. They saw that he had both his arms and legs and he wasn't bruised black and blue, completely different from what they thought he would be like.

How to say this...Qin Yu was sure that he could feel surprise, relief, and some disappointment in their eyes.

To be honest, he could accept surprise and relief. But what the hell was this disappointment for? These two senior-apprentice brothers were too unreliable!

As if sensing something, Iron Mountain lightly coughed. He smiled and said, "Little junior-apprentice brother, why did you ask for us to come?"

This smile, this warm gaze, and combined with his tall and strong statue, he gave off a sense of complete security. It was impossible to feel any more comfortable.

But after experiencing fifth senior-apprentice brother's shy and dull act, Qin Yu wouldn't be deceived by his appearance anymore. This man was much smarter than he seemed. Compared to him, the seemingly intelligent and wily sixth senior-apprentice brother was tricked often.

However, according to what Lei Xiaoyu said, sixth senior-apprentice brother was sworn friends with fifth senior-apprentice brother. They were like shadows to each other, basically inseparable.

Uh...could it be that sixth senior-apprentice brother had masochistic tendencies? If not, then surely he would have flipped the table and even started a fight!

But he was overthinking things.

Qin Yu restrained his thoughts and cupped his hands together. "I greet senior-apprentice brothers. The reason I took the liberty to ask you two to come here was because there was a matter I was hoping to discuss with you both."

He thought for a moment and realized there wasn't any good way to talk about this issue. He might as well bring it up into the open. Perhaps it would be much easier.

Welcoming the looks of fifth and sixth senior-apprentice brothers, Qin Yu continued to say, "It's like this. When I was in the Endless Sea I had some attainments and I need to focus on cultivating for a period of time. But since I live in the garden, I need to use up contribution points. I don't want to take on other missions, so to avoid delay, I hope to discuss with my fellow senior-apprentice brothers and sisters to let me undertake the task of cleaning up the peach blossoms."

Earth Stride mumbled, "Ah..." He lengthened his tone, rolling his eyes, "Little junior-apprentice brother, you should know that we usually follow established rules and customs in the peach garden. I'm afraid it won't be good to suddenly change something that has been established for such a long time."

Iron Mountain slapped Earth Stride's shoulder. With a loud bang, the skinny sixth senior-apprentice brother immediately shortened by a head's height. "Since little junior-apprentice brother is willing to take over the task of cleaning up the peach blossoms, that is a good thing. Don't play around with this. Don't forget, our junior-apprentice sister hates this matter the most. If she becomes angry because of what you said, don't blame me for not warning you when you are beaten up."

Earth Stride shrunk his neck and gave a dry smile. "My intention isn't like what fifth senior-apprentice brother described at all. He's narrow-minded and overly cautious like that." Earth Stride pulled his feet out of the soil and patted his chest, "Little junior-apprentice brother, don't worry. Since this is the first thing you've asked me to do, I will surely do it well and beautifully. In the future, the task of cleaning up the peach blossoms will be handled by yourself!"

Qin Yu cupped his hands together. "Thank you sixth senior-apprentice brother." Then, he smiled at Iron Mountain and nodded to express his thanks.

Things proceeded smoothly. It was unknown what fifth and sixth senior-apprentice discussed in detail, but after learning that their new little junior-apprentice brother had taken the initiative to take on the task of cleaning up the peach blossoms, all of the senior-apprentice brothers and sisters were left fully satisfied.

On this day, as Qin Yu was cleaning up the peach blossoms, while his movements seemed calm and carefree, his eyes were basically glazed over as he mechanically did his job.

Suddenly, a fragrant wind rushed at him. The scent was nice, so nice that even the distracted Qin Yu was dragged back to reality.

He looked up. At some time, a mesmerizingly beautiful woman had appeared. She wore a gorgeous and flowing white dress. Her lips were bright red and she stared at him with interest, a happy smile on her face.

Everyone had a love of beauty, and Qin Yu was no exception. As a hot-blooded man, it was inevitable that he would be left dazed by the sight of her for a moment. His eyes even paused on her.

As a result, the beautiful woman's smile brightened even further, clearly delighted with Qin Yu's reaction.

"Little junior-apprentice brother is truly an extraordinary person. To be so enthralled even while doing something as boring as cleaning up peach blossoms, it seems you like it very much. As your senior-apprentice sister, I am relieved. If I didn't see this with my own eyes, I really would be feeling a little guilty."

Qin Yu immediately responded. He cupped his hands together, "Qin Yu greets seventh senior-apprentice sister."

There were three female disciples in the peach garden. There wasn't any need to mention Peachy or Lei Xiaoyu. The woman in front of him was without a doubt his mysterious seventh senior-apprentice sister, the one said to have a different but equally beautiful face every time she appeared.

Seventh senior-apprentice sister smiled. "What a good boy. If anyone dares to bully you later, just tell me their name; I will deal with them for you...that's right, my name is Cai Sang. It's a pleasant name, so remember it."

With a wave of her hand, the moving and enchanting Cai Sang, whose face was beautiful and whose body was even more enthralling, turned and left.

It seemed that she only came here to take a look at Qin Yu. Once she saw him and felt relieved, she left.

She came and left without a sound, leaving nothing behind...ah...it wasn't actually nothing. To Qin Yu's bewilderment, he was now sheltered by a big boss.

From the conversations of fifth and sixth senior-apprentice brother, it wasn't hard to draw this conclusion. Even though seventh senior-apprentice sister was ranked below them, she was definitely a powerful character.

The next one to come was Lei Xiaoyu!

Okay. To be exact, after seventh senior-apprentice sister left, the eighth senior-apprentice sister came to visit.

This was a painful realization!

Lei Xiaoyu stared at Qin Yu with a puzzled expression. "Big Brother Qin, what are you thinking? Why did you decide to take on all the recent missions of cleaning up the peach blossoms? I left you a message in the booklet. No one likes to do this and the contribution value is too low. It's just a waste of time!"

Qin Yu smiled, "I have to cultivate for a period of time and I don't have the spare energy to do other things. Also, I just joined Peach Blossom Spring, so it's nice to help my senior-apprentice brothers and sisters and leave a good impression on them."

"Big Brother Qin, there's no need to do this. I've told you that it's easy to get along with the fellow senior-apprentice brothers and sisters. You don't have to do this." She bit her lips, reaching out to grab him, "Let's go. I'll bring you to look for the fellow senior-apprentice brothers and sisters. I'll explain to them that you can't delay your cultivation."

Qin Yu instead held onto her. His smile remained bright as he said, "Xiaoyu, I did this all on my own. Where did my senior-apprentice brothers and sisters force me? You're overthinking things."

He looked up at the trees full of peach blossoms and the ground that was covered in a thick layer of petals. His tone became more relaxed as he said, "The peach trees in the garden are all touched by teacher's Saint aura. Cleaning up these fallen leaves, to me, is also a way of approaching teacher's Great Dao, and also a form of cultivation."

With the sound of applause, White Phoenix laughed and appeared. He looked at Qin Yu, his eyes full of praise and acclaim. "At such a young age, little junior-apprentice brother is able to understand the truth of cultivation in the world. It's no wonder you have your current cultivation level."

Qin Yu and Lei Xiaoyu bowed, "We greet third senior-apprentice brother."

"Mm, rise." White Phoenix nodded, and then turned his head to look at a little black snake that was uncomfortably wriggling around on his shoulder. He helplessly smiled and said, "Azure Dragon, junior-apprentice brother Qin Yu is cultivating wholeheartedly, so how can he bully you? You must be overthinking things. Remember to get closer to junior-apprentice brother Qin Yu in the future and don't stir up any more trouble."

The miniature Azure Dragon felt extremely aggrieved. He thought, you didn't even ask anything, so how do you know he didn't bully me? And what was with those last words? Don't stir up any trouble? Who is stirring up trouble!?

He had a thought to roar out loud, and call Qin Yu out for knocking on his head before.

But for some unknown reason, when Azure Dragon saw Qin Yu he felt panicked. Even though he knew that Qin Yu wouldn't do anything with White Phoenix here, he couldn't help but feel flustered.

Azure Dragon was stricken with grief. He thought, was he actually a scum dragon that feared the strong and bullied the weak? Why else would this be happening!

Lei Xiaoyu's eyes widened as she saw the sad and sorrowful expression of the normally arrogant Azure Dragon.

This surname Qin, what evil sorcery did he know? Why was Lei Xiaoyu so close to him, and even White Phoenix turned on him as soon as he appeared?

Azure Dragon was heartbroken. He could never love again. Let him turn into shards of glass, falling to the bottom of the icy lake, never to see the sun again...

Before the pitiful Azure Dragon could dwell in his own misery any further, Lei Xiaoyu grabbed him up. She smiled and said, "Since third senior-apprentice brother came looking for Big Br...for little junior-apprentice brother, there must be something you want to discuss. I will be leaving first."

Her face flushed red. Not daring to look at Qin Yu's face, Lei Xiaoyu hurried away carrying Azure Dragon.

White Phoenix chuckled. "That little girl Xiaoyu is getting smarter with each day. But the reason I came here really is because I have a matter I would like to consult with little junior-apprentice brother about." As he spoke, he winked and said, "So little junior-apprentice brother, please don't misunderstand. I really didn't bring Azure Dragon here to punish you for some injustice."

Qin Yu nearly choked on himself. What was the meaning of this? Was third senior-apprentice brother reminding him that the reason he originally came here was to scold him?

Seeing White Phoenix in front of him with his pure and warm smile, Qin Yu felt that something wasn't right. After thinking about it a few times, he decided not to bully Azure Dragon in the future.

That fellow was truly loved and adored!

It wasn't worth it if it would provoke trouble for himself.

Lightly coughing a few times, Qin Yu laid down his peach blossom cleaning tool and said, "May I ask third senior-apprentice brother what your reason for coming here is?"

White Phoenix blinked his eyes. "I heard that in order to celebrate my little junior-apprentice brother moving into a new home, little junior-apprentice sister gifted you a pack of good tea that master bestowed to her."

Qin Yu gestured with a hand, "I don't understand the art of tea much, so third senior-apprentice brother came at the perfect time. Let's taste it together."

"Hahaha, then I'll be impolite."

Chapter 1209 – Blue Point Finger

They returned to Qin Yu's courtyard and sat down as host and guest. Qin Yu prepared the hot water, and soon poured two cups of tea.

"Third senior-apprentice brother, please."

White Phoenix lifted a cup and took a deep sniff. Then, he sipped it and let out a long breath, "This is peak fog dragon tea. It really is enjoyable."

From the look of things, he really did enjoy it and wasn't faking at all.

Qin Yu smiled and rubbed his nose, "Third senior-apprentice brother is a true connoisseur. You can take one sip and know its origins. I only think that it tastes good. For this fog dragon tea to remain with me is like covering a pearl with dirt. I'll gift the rest to senior-apprentice brother."

White Phoenix waved his hand, "How can I take things that little junior-apprentice sister gave you? Besides, it's fine to just drink top tier teas like this once or twice to satisfy my cravings. If I really get used to drinking it, then once I run out of stock I truly will be suffering. I don't have the courage to go and ask master for it. In this peach garden, only little junior-apprentice sister is so bold. Even knowing that master was unwilling, she still pretended to know nothing and just took it away."

Once Qin Yu was sure that he wasn't pretending to decline, he thought and said, "Third senior-apprentice brother, since you like it, please drink some more."

White Phoenix put down the teacup. "One cup is enough." He looked at Qin Yu. Whether it was his eyes or tone, he was honest and open, "On the day that little junior-apprentice brother arrived at the peach garden, I told you that I wanted to have a discussion with you about the Space Laws."

After a pause, he wryly smiled. "Of course, calling it a discussion isn't right. In the end, I'm only a beginner who has just crossed the threshold. In fact, I was hoping to learn a bit from little junior-apprentice brother, to see if it could help me avoid some twists and turns."

Qin Yu's heart skipped a beat. What was this about? How precious were Space Laws? How could such a thing be easily taken out? He originally thought that White Phoenix was just talking because he had nothing to say, but who knew he was being serious?

This third senior-apprentice brother, he seemed a bit rude...however, looking at his demeanor, he wasn't embarrassed by this at all, as if this was all a matter of course.

Could this be the atmosphere in the peach garden?

Qin Yu hesitated a little. Not to mention how precious the Space Laws were, the truth was that he had no idea how he had awakened it.

After all, he had cultivated the Blue Point Finger, gradually transforming it until he eventually awakened the power of space. If he had to speak about it, he wouldn't be able to bring anything substantial to the table.

If he refused, would he be offending third senior-apprentice brother? According to Lei Xiaoyu, their honorable master didn't pay attention to trivial masters. Elder senior-apprentice brother was in seclusion most of the time and second senior-apprentice brother was out roaming about. As a result, the business and affairs of the peach garden were more or less handled by third senior-apprentice brother.

In other words, third senior-apprentice brother was the true person in charge of the peach garden. Although this was the stage of a Saint and third senior-apprentice brother might not dare to do anything, if Qin Yu really did manage to offend him, he would definitely be able to find ways to waste his time.

For a time, Qin Yu was caught in a dilemma.

While he was hesitating, White Phoenix clapped his hands as if he realized something. "I was negligent. Little junior-apprentice brother just arrived at the peach garden so you don't know what happens around here. I was the one in the wrong.

"The disciples of the peach garden have never kept their cultivation methods concealed. As long as it doesn't involve their own private secrets, we would tell each other about them in order to help us cultivate. This is one of the rules that mastered laid down in the past. Of course, it isn't free. This is a good way of earning contribution points."

White Phoenix smiled as he finished speaking. Then, he stomped his feet on the ground and said, "Sixth junior-apprentice brother, you must be getting stuffy in the ground. Why don't you come out and talk with us?"

Earth Stride's head popped out, then his entire body emerged from the ground. He rubbed his hands awkwardly and said, "Hehe, I was just too embarrassed to show myself. After all, when it comes to something like the Space Laws, I haven't even touched the threshold."

As he spoke, he cupped his hands and bowed to third senior-apprentice brother. Then, he greeted Qin Yu. "Little junior-apprentice brother, third senior-apprentice brother is right. If you are still unsure, you can ask your guardian. It knows about this."

Without Qin Yu needing to ask anything, he could feel the thought fluctuations from the peach tree in front of him through his peach blossom mark. It was vague, but enough for him to understand that this matter was true.

Old Turtle suddenly said, "Master, there is no need to be embarrassed about not knowing anything. This isn't actually a big deal..."

At this moment, there was a knock on the door. Qin Yu listened to Old Turtle telling him to consider this a bit more, then he got up to open the door.

Iron Mountain stood on the other side, a simple and honest smile on his face, "Little junior-apprentice brother, I took the liberty to disturb you and also ask to share a cup of fog dragon tea with you."

Fifth and sixth senior-apprentice brothers really were inseparable!

Qin Yu gestured for him to come in. But, he didn't close the door. He turned and glanced at White Phoenix, "Third senior-apprentice brother, I fear that all the senior-apprentice brothers and sisters in the peach garden are interested in the Space Laws. How about we call everyone here and I can give them an explanation together?"

That's right, Qin Yu was prepared to take out this Blue Point Finger supernatural art. Giving it to one person or giving it to a group, it was still giving it away. If so, he might as well call everyone here to gain favor.

Cough cough...White Phoenix also said that the exchange of cultivation attainments wasn't free. Although Qin Yu had postponed earning contribution points, it was impossible to dislike having too many.

Of course, before making this decision, Qin Yu communicated with Old Turtle and had an approximate idea of what to do and say.

According to Old Turtle, the Blue Point Finger was a great supernatural art that had been engraved and marked with the Space Laws by someone. The first person who cultivated it to the great success boundary would be able to activate this mark and thus grasp the power of space.

But this was restricted to the first person!

After Qin Yu obtained the power of space, the space mark engraved on the Blue Point Finger had vanished.

Still, even though it vanished, if this supernatural art could hide a space mark within, that meant it in itself was connected to the Space Laws.

If other cultivators cultivated it, they might be able to gain some feelings from it. As for how much they gained, it would depend on their talent and individual luck.

White Phoenix smiled. "Good. Then we'll do as little junior-apprentice brother says. I will go and call the others over."

Lei Xiaoyu was the first to arrive. It seemed that even though she had left, she hadn't gone far away. The concern in her actions warmed Qin Yu's heart. He glanced at her, indicating for her not to worry.

Azure Dragon lay slumped on her shoulders, keeping his previous miniature state. From the look of things, there was a high chance he had been scolded.

Seventh senior-apprentice sister was the second to come. She really did have a different face, and even her fragrance was entirely different. What was similar was that her two faces were both beautiful, and her two fragrances were similarly enchanting. After bowing to third senior-apprentice brother, she gave Qin Yu a flower-like smile that was enough to send pleasant shivers through any man. "Little junior-apprentice brother is truly kind. Since I will receive your advantages today, I will really cover for you in the future!"

What was the meaning of this? Did she mean that she was just being perfunctory with him before? Qin Yu was left speechless by this. He cupped his hands together to express his gratitude...however, the deterrent force of seventh senior-apprentice sister didn't seem to be small at all.

When she said that she would cover for Qin Yu, even third senior-apprentice brother subconsciously glanced at her and then him.

Iron Mountain slapped Earth Stride's shoulder, slamming him halfway into the ground with a loud bang. He said, "Old Six, you had better discard your thoughts of causing trouble for our little junior-apprentice brother. Otherwise if you annoy seventh junior-apprentice sister, no one will be able to save you."

Earth Stride clenched his jaws. He thought, was he supposed to thank him for this reminder? If it wasn't for Iron Mountain being so blatantly obvious about it, who would have known about this? Even if he gave up it wouldn't have been a loss of face.

But now, it certainly would be! Hohohoho!

Seventh senior-apprentice sister Cai Sang narrowed her gorgeous eyes, her lips curling up in 10,000 flavors of temptation. "I heard that when sixth senior-apprentice brother met little junior-apprentice brother on the first day, you lost to him? This is surprising news! How could the solemn sixth senior-apprentice brother of Peach Blossom Spring be looking for trouble with his little junior-apprentice brother?"

Earth Stride's face turned green and he vigorously waved his hand. "I'm not, I'm definitely not. This is all because senior-apprentice brother Iron Mountain has the heart of a villain!"

Iron Mountain laughed out loud and didn't say anything, clearly indicating that he wasn't going to argue about this.

Peachy's arrival ended the atmosphere in the courtyard. After a brief surprise, White Phoenix stood up and welcomed her. He smiled and said, "Junior-apprentice sister Peachy, you came too? It seems that our little junior-apprentice brother's face is quite big."

Cai Sang and the others restrained themselves and stood up. They respectfully bowed, "We greet fourth senior-apprentice sister."

They were like mice that saw a cat.

Qin Yu bowed along with everyone else, surprised inside. He had listened to Lei Xiaoyu describe Peachy, but he never imagined she would be such a deterring force.

Looking at the situation, it wasn't because she was the only daughter of the Spring Master either.

Peachy's expression was indifferent. She glanced over everyone and said, "Rise." Then, she nodded at third senior-apprentice brother. Although this was a response, she actually didn't say a single word to him.

Everyone was accustomed to this, so there was no one who was dissatisfied.

White Phoenix smiled, "This can be considered the most complete gathering of Peach Blossom Spring disciples that we've had in recent years. Elder senior-apprentice brother and second senior-apprentice brother have long since perceived the Space Laws, so it doesn't matter if they come. Then let's not delay." As he spoke to here, he nodded at Qin Yu, "Little junior-apprentice brother, I'll leave the rest to you."

Chapter 1210A – Time Flies and Cannot Be Pursued

Qin Yu tried his best to control himself. Without staring too much, he looked at Peachy and walked beneath the peach tree. "Perhaps fellow senior-apprentice brothers and sisters might not believe this, but the truth is that I do not know how I've obtained the power of space."

Seventh senior-apprentice sister suddenly blurted out, "Is it your bloodline?" Her eyes brightened as she looked closely at Qin Yu.

Peachy's eyebrows furrowed. If one didn't look carefully, it would have been almost impossible to discover. But as she looked at Cai Sang, she unexpectedly felt some inexplicable unhappiness.

Why was this? She restrained her thoughts, erasing any feelings she had and restoring her expression to its original indifference.

The eyes in the courtyard that looked at Qin Yu filled with some surprise.

That's right, the vast brightness was boundless and possessed countless trillions of lives. There was no shortage of talents amongst them.

Some were born with bloodlines that allowed them to resonate with space. There were indeed some races that were capable of grasping the Space Laws when they grew up.

These beings were incomparably scarce. But without exception, they all had astonishing growth potential. Basically, as long as they smoothly grew up, they would possess tyrannical strength.

Could this be the reason why their honorable master suddenly decided to accept a new little junior-apprentice brother?

Without allowing the senior-apprentice brothers and sisters to think more about this, Qin Yu said, "I am just an ordinary human. I don't have that kind of formidable bloodline."

As he spoke to here, the preparations were almost done. He suddenly raised a hand and pointed a finger forward.

Where his finger fell, waves spread out from his fingertip like ripples in the water, spreading through the courtyard.

This space fluctuation contained minimal lethality. The other peach garden disciples simply didn't even resist it, allowing it to spread over them.

Then, their eyes began to brighten.

White Phoenix's eyes were the brightest!

As someone who disliked lying the most, when he said that his power of space had crossed the threshold, he really had crossed the threshold. So, when Qin Yu's finger produced ripples, he was able to sense it even clearer.

These spatial fluctuations contained the power of space. This seemed like useless talk, but the key was here.

This was because the power of space wasn't always the same – the so-called different meant that these ripples weren't stimulated by just powerful forces, but also contained traces of a strange fluctuation.

"This...this is..." White Phoenix looked at Qin Yu with surprise.

No matter what he was thinking, Qin Yu directly nodded and said, "Third senior-apprentice brother has great eyesight! Long ago I inadvertently obtained a supernatural art called the Blue Point Finger. As my cultivation rose, I trained this supernatural art to increasingly higher levels until I reached the boundary of large success. It was after the supernatural art reached large success that I suddenly perceived the Space Laws and was able to control the power of space."

White Phoenix revealed a look of utter disbelief. His face immediately filled with amazement and he sighed with emotion, "Space mark...I thought this was something that only existed in legends, yet it truly did exist. Little junior-apprentice brother must have great luck to obtain this supernatural art so long ago."

He thought back to his years of painstakingly cultivating the Space Laws and yet finding it difficult to truly step through the front door. Yet, Qin Yu had cultivated a supernatural art and officially passed the threshold.

No, it wasn't just that. If someone could leave behind a space mark, they definitely weren't a common existence. Since Qin Yu fused with this mark, he was destined to progress upon the path of space by leaps and bounds, only pausing once he reached the level of the being who left behind this mark.

This was what third senior-apprentice brother envied the most!

The courtyard was silent. If even White Phoenix felt envy, then the others who hadn't even crossed the threshold of the Space Laws, not even having touched it, had even more heat in their eyes.

But whether it was envy or burning heat, nothing that appeared in anyone's gazes made Qin Yu feel restless.

Qin Yu's heart relaxed. He once again remembered Lei Xiaoyu's words. The peach garden was indeed different from the outside.

Cai Sang suddenly said, "Little junior-apprentice brother, did you call us here today to teach us this Blue Point Finger?"

Qin Yu nodded, "Yes."

Cai Sang covered her mouth and giggled, her laugh like the sounds of spring. "Little junior-apprentice brother, I'm liking you more and more."

Everyone was overjoyed.

If it could contain a space mark, then the Blue Point Finger inevitably contained the mysteries of space. After cultivating it, it would be greatly advantageous to them in perceiving the Space Laws.

Peachy suddenly said, "The Blue Point Finger is precious. Have you thought of a good price?"

When she finished speaking, she didn't look at the others as she got up and walked out.

A calm voice suddenly rang out, "Humph! Peachy is right. Your little junior-apprentice brother's supernatural art is indeed precious."

The peach garden disciples were startled. They rose up and bowed, "We greet teacher!"

The atmosphere was peaceful. Without any response, everyone waited a bit longer. When it was determined that their master's divine sense had retreated, they finally straightened their backs.

They had to have it!

With Peachy's reminder and master's personal endorsement, that meant Qin Yu's Blue Point Finger really warranted a high price.

But no one felt dissatisfied. Instead, their eyes shined with even more happiness.

Their master...might seem a bit eccentric at times, but he was still a solemn True Saint. He wouldn't speak out casually.

Since he said the Blue Point Finger was precious, it was definitely precious. After cultivating it, the benefits it would provide in perceiving the Space Laws would be even greater.

Following a short discussion, White Phoenix offered a number. When Qin Yu heard it, he suddenly felt some regret. If he knew that he could earn contribution points like this, why would he have taken on the task of cleaning up peach blossoms?

Once he earned a massive amount of contribution points and sent away his senior-apprentice brothers and sisters, Qin Yu seriously considered the possibility of not cleaning up the peach blossoms. But after some hesitation, he pressed this idea down.

The rules of the peach garden were that a person could do no tasks. As long as they had contribution points, they could stay in the peach garden just eating and waiting for death. But as long as someone took over a task, then unless there was some factor that was impossible to overcome, they could only grit their teeth and do it!

Forget it, there was no need to take risks for this. He wasn't familiar with the peach garden yet so it was best to be careful.

For the following period of time, Qin Yu passed his days quietly. Perhaps because everyone was busy comprehending the Blue Point Finger, no one disturbed him. Even Lei Xiaoyu who had said she would come and talk to him often didn't show up.

Qin Yu was happy and quiet. Apart from spending some time cleaning up peach blossoms every day, he was completely immersed in cultivation.

The more he listened to Old Turtle's explanations, the more he rejoiced at the fact that he listened to the little blue lamp's suggestion and risked danger to bring Old Turtle back to the vast brightness world.

This fellow was simply an encyclopedia of cultivation. At least in the aspect of the body of light and darkness, no matter what question Qin Yu asked, Old Turtle only needed to mull it over briefly before giving an answer.

Not only were the answers fast, but they were wonderful and complete. They often made Qin Yu feel enlightened, and his cultivation of light and darkness traveled 10,000 miles every day.

And this wasn't all there was.

Old Turtle's knowledge wasn't restricted to just the body of light and darkness. Or to be more precise, the cultivation of the power of light and darkness covered an extremely wide range.

It was like an intricate mixed-type problem. Only understanding one aspect of it wasn't enough. One had to master all aspects in order to gradually solve it and obtain the correct answer.

For Qin Yu, cultivating the power of light and darkness was like solving an incomparably complicated problem. The road ahead was long and the path was covered in endless clouds. But the feeling of tangibly improving every day and overcoming difficulties was wonderful.

In fact, he felt even more joyful and infatuated with this than with the matters between men and women. It was to the point where he couldn't extricate himself.

Old Turtle secretly smacked his tongue at Qin Yu's enthusiasm for cultivation. He thought that the gap between a normal person and a cultivator was as far as the sun and moon. It was almost unimaginable...but what should be admired should be admired.

With Qin Yu's age and achievements, being able to maintain such a firm and intense will to cultivate was incredibly rare.

Lei Xiaoyu finally came. But she didn't speak many words. She greeted Qin Yu and then left, saying that she had reached a critical moment in her cultivation.

The reason she came was to pass over the servants she had chosen for Qin Yu. She should have finished this long ago, but she had completely forgotten about it in her cultivation. So in a hurry, she finally sent over some people.

No more, no less, there were a hundred people.

All men!

Qin Yu's lips twitched. He thought that that girl was ruthless enough. Although he had no other ideas, looking at beautiful women was always pleasing to the eye and mind, right?

Whatever. In any case, if he wasn't cleaning peach blossoms he was cultivating. Even if an angel were placed in front of him, he wouldn't have the spare attention to look at them.

"We greet Ninth Mister!"

The hundred servants bowed.

Qin Yu nodded, "You all know what you need to do. It's fine as long as you don't disturb my cultivation." With this, he waved his hands and sent them away.

The peach garden servants were all excellent at their job, or perhaps it could be said that they were attentive. Qin Yu's life became more and more relaxed.

Besides cultivating and cleaning up peach blossoms, he had no need to pass down orders for other trivial matters before they were dealt with.

Moreover, the servants clearly remembered what Qin Yu said on the first day. Unless he were to say something, no one took the initiative to get in his way.

However, Qin Yu still discovered a minor secret hidden within the servants...there was a woman concealed in their ranks.

She had a superb method of covering up herself. If it weren't for Old Turtle's reminder, Qin Yu wouldn't even have paid attention as he was immersed in his cultivation.

This discovery left Qin Yu speechless for a while. He thought about how Lei Xiaoyu worked hard to choose a hundred men to be his servants, yet someone had managed to sneak their way in.

However, this was how things were.

It was just a woman. As long as she kept to herself and abided by the rules, Qin Yu would ignore her.

He didn't even have enough time to cultivate, so how could he worry about these other matters?

But just because Qin Yu didn't want to waste time didn't mean that events would unfold according to his will.

The woman who had mixed in with the crowd of men did have a hidden goal. But, it wasn't to tempt Qin Yu and climb onto his bed...rather, it was to take his life!

Chapter 1210B – Time Flies and Cannot Be Pursued

Light and darkness suddenly emanated around Qin Yu, forming two flows of energy that instantly condensed into a domain. The servant who broke in struggled, but wasn't able to move at all.

After awakening from his cultivation, he furrowed his eyebrows as he looked at the servant. He immediately recognized them as the woman who had infiltrated her way in.

Her killing intent had stimulated the automatic activation of the Light and Darkness Domain to protect its master. It seemed he had underestimated this woman's methods.

"You want to kill me?" Qin Yu slowly said, "Why?"

The woman's concealment was stripped by the Light and Darkness Domain, revealing her original appearance...she was indeed pleasant to look at.

But even if she was ten times more beautiful, that wouldn't change the fact that she tried to kill Qin Yu. Even if she was thoroughly suppressed before she could do anything, the essence of the matter didn't change.

With Qin Yu's personality, if someone wanted to kill him, he wouldn't be softhearted no matter who the other party was. The reason he kept her alive for now was to find out the reason. Since he had just entered Peach Blossom Spring, he couldn't figure out why this woman would want to kill him.

After all, Qin Yu had no enmity with the people of Peach Blossom Spring, nor did he have any connections.

Mm...that wasn't right!

Qin Yu's eyes flashed with a bright light. He thought back to before he entered the Path of 10,000 Souls. In East Zhou Duly's party of followers, there was a peach garden disciple named Shang Lingyu.

Could this be related to him?

"I want to kill you because you deserve to die!" The woman's eyes were filled with hatred. Even though she knew she was going to die, she still wickedly glared at him.

This hate-filled expression...

Qin Yu asked, "You know Shang Lingyu?"

The woman struggled even more fiercely as she heard this name. "Yes, I want to take revenge for Big Brother Shang! You killed him! You killed him!"

Qin Yu had a calm expression. "He indeed died beneath my hands. I won't deny this. But how did you find out?"

The woman screamed out, "Big Brother Shang was a secret disciple of Peach Blossom Spring, and his aura has entered the peach garden! Of course I know! And it's not just me who knows! Everyone knows, so why does the Spring Master and the other misters allow a murderer like you to stay alive?"

Her face was fierce and mad. No matter how beautiful she was, she was now twisted and ugly. "If they don't care, I will do it myself. I will take revenge for Big Brother Shang! A murderer like you must die!"

Qin Yu fell silent. He never thought that his killing Shang Lingyu would be a well-known matter throughout the peach garden. It was simple. If a mere servant knew, how could everyone else not know?

But whether it was the Spring Master or the peach garden disciples, no one ever mentioned this to Qin Yu. Could it be that they didn't care if a trivial secret disciple died? Or...they already knew something.

While Qin Yu had no idea what it meant for the peach garden to record his aura, it at least showed that being a secret disciple wasn't something casual.

Then, the latter possibility was more likely...the Spring Master and other peach garden disciples didn't raise this topic, perhaps because they didn't want to.

After all, with a Saint's cultivation, they might be able to sense what happened to a peach garden cultivator. This was the disciple of a solemn Holy Land. Even if it was just a secret disciple, they had wallowed in degeneration and colluded with an abyssal being. This was something extremely dishonorable.

As Qin Yu thought of this, he relaxed. He looked at the woman in front of him and faintly said, "You should have asked why the peach garden people have tacitly allowed me to kill someone, but chose not to investigate it?"

The woman screeched, "That's right, I asked the other misters, but they didn't say anything, only telling me never to ask about this matter again. But Big Brother Shang died. He was a true genius and should have had an incomparably bright future, even becoming Peach Blossom Spring's Ninth Mister...but he died. You killed him and stole his position!"

"So I must kill you. I have to kill you to take revenge for Big Brother Shang!"

Qin Yu's eyes became even more indifferent. This was just an ignorant and stupid woman before him...but that didn't mean she couldn't take responsibility for her actions.

This world was fair. Before anyone did anything, they had to be prepared to suffer the consequences of their actions...no one was an exception.

Being ignorant and stupid wasn't a reason for forgiveness. Or, if he had to be even more heartless, then this woman had an even greater reason to die.

After all, if she could stimulate his Light and Darkness Domain to automatically activate before she even erupted with her killing move, her methods had to be terrifying.

If it were anyone else, they might have died in confusion, not knowing anything.

Qin Yu had no desire to continue this discussion. "Shang Lingyu died, and I was the one who killed him. No one told you the reason because he died with dishonor. You can believe this if you want; it doesn't matter. I hope you are reborn as a smarter person in your next life."

He lifted a finger and pointed outwards. The woman's sneer stiffened and her eyes glazed over, darkening, as she slumped to the ground. Although she had no visible injuries, her soul had broken apart.

A calm voice echoed out from behind him. "I originally thought you would spare her life. After all, in a way she was also pitiful."

Qin Yu turned and bowed, "Disciple greets honorable master."

The Spring Master nodded, "Rise."

Qin Yu stood up. After a brief pause he said, "Answering honorable master's question, although she was indeed pitiful, there are far too many pitiful people in the world. That doesn't mean they can escape punishment."

"This disciple comes from humble origins. As I progressed with my cultivation, I encountered numerous tribulations and killed many people. My hands have already been drenched with the scent of blood. As a result, I gradually came to understand a truth. Forgiving an enemy is neglecting my own life. If I want to live, I can only kill them."

"Whoever wants to kill me, I will kill them, regardless of the reason and regardless of the past. In my opinion, this has nothing to do with being cruel or coldhearted. It is a fair and justifiable matter."

The Spring Master said, "Fair? You should know that true fairness doesn't exist in this world." After a pause, his expression turned even more faint, "You are a disciple of this peach garden and also my ninth seated disciple. If this woman is killed, then she is killed. Even if her family learns of this, they will not dare to retaliate against you. But what if you were not a peach garden disciple or even a person of the peach garden? Killing a peach garden servant is also a capital crime. So...would you still kill them?"

Qin Yu answered decisively and without hesitation, "I would kill them!"

The Spring Master glanced at him. Without saying anything else, he turned and stepped away, vanishing from sight.

Qin Yu bowed, "Farewell, teacher!"

He straightened himself and calmly gazed at the direction the Spring Master left in.

From the start, he obtained a warning from Old Turtle and knew that the Spring Master's divine sense had arrived. So when he decided to kill the woman, he had been prepared.

Facing the Spring Master's question, he decided to follow his conscience and give an answer from his heart.

After all, no matter what angle he considered things from, concealing things from a Saint was incomparably stupid.

Peeping into a Saint's innermost feelings through their expression was certainly impossible.

Qin Yu also had no idea what sort of impression his actions would leave on the Spring Master.

He took a breath and slowly let it out. Thinking too much about this was meaningless. He could only go with the flow.

The death of a servant wasn't able to cause even the slightest disturbance in the peach garden. No one paid attention to it, or even if they noticed, they chose to remain silent.

So Qin Yu's life remained the same as before. After some initial anxiety, he immersed himself in cultivation again.

But what was undeniable was that the Spring Master's words had some influence on Qin Yu. As he said, killing a peach garden servant was a capital crime.

Let alone a secret disciple like Shang Lingyu.

If it weren't for a series of lucky chances and coincidences that turned Qin Yu into Peach Blossom Spring's Ninth Mister, then he might have experienced being hunted down by the peach garden.

In the end, a cultivator could only depend on their own strength. If they were strong, strong enough to the point where they could compete with a Saint, who would dare to investigate them?

And thoroughly comprehending the body of light and darkness and fully controlling its strength was the only method Qin Yu had to increase his cultivation in a short period of time and be able to chase after the combat power needed to confront a Saint.

Time flew and could not be chased after.

So Qin Yu had to cultivate, cultivate even harder than before!

...

Peachy pushed open the courtyard doors, a faint expression on her face. Even though she saw the Spring Master in the room, her expression didn't change at all.

She bowed, "Father."

The Spring Master was all smiles. "You want to plant peach trees again? You don't need to work so hard. There are times when rest is required."

Peachy said, "What is the reason father is looking for me?"

The Spring Master lightly coughed. "Ah...there's a minor matter. That old dragon from the East Sea has a longevity celebration, and an invitation was sent to the peach garden. You should know that that old dragon has liked you since you were a child. He told me several times to have you go over and personally visit."

Peachy didn't even turn her head, "No."

The Spring Master revealed an awkward expression, "Daughter, I cannot stand up to that old dragon's badgering and already agreed. Can you make a quick trip?"

Seeing Peachy's silent back, the Spring Master said, "Daughter, haven't you always said that you like the peach trees from Mount Kunlun? As long as you go this time, then even if I must sacrifice all my face and be shameless, I will help you dig up several peach trees!"

Peachy finally turned around and said, "Alright." Her eyes fell on the Spring Master, as if saying since she already agreed, why was he still here?

The Spring Master forced a smile. "The East Sea is too far. You are just a girl, so I won't feel at ease if you go by yourself. How about this, there were two invitations sent. You can choose anyone from the peach garden to accompany you. With two people going, we will seem polite and considerate, and you also won't be lonely on the trip."

Peachy was about to refuse, but the words paused at the tip of her tongue. She finally nodded and said, "Okay."

The Spring Master's smile brightened. He placed two jade slips on the table. "The invitation cards are here. You can choose who accompanies you."

Seeing Peachy's expressionless face, he grumbled a bit and said, "Then father will be leaving first."

When the Spring Master left, Peachy's eyes fell on the two jade slips. Her eyes were deep – it was unknown what she was thinking.
