

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 108

"Good!"

Along the way, the two still had a lot to talk about.

Emma thought of all sorts of scenarios about their mother-son meeting, but didn't expect them to talk well and not be as awkward as she thought they would be.

Maybe that's because they've been in touch all these years!

When she arrived at the place, Emma looked at it, it had a nice view and it was a single house. She said helplessly, "Actually, you don't need to arrange for me to live in such a nice place"

Before he could finish his sentence, Drake cut him off.

"Mom, I have a lot of houses, they're empty anyway, and you're not living with me for a while, this is already the smallest of all my villas."

He has been thinking about it for a long time, that's why he made a special arrangement for her to be here. In fact, he was really worried that he might aggravate her.

Emma smiled, "Okay, I got it."

Things were put inside and Drake showed her around. In the end, she had just returned from a long plane ride and might be a little tired.

So, Drake took her to dinner.

On the way, Emma still said with an elegant smile, "Drake, I called someone else when I got off the plane, would you mind letting her come along!"

"How?"

Drake had also heard that Emma had taken a student over the years, a girl, and it just so happened that the girl was also over here.

He wanted to meet people, not because Emma meant for them to get along and see, but purely because Emma wouldn't be so cheerful now if that girl hadn't been by his mother's side all these years.

"I'm relieved to hear you say that."

When they arrived at the restaurant, the girl hadn't come yet.

Emma sent her a message: Sophia , when will it arrive?

Sophia really didn't mean to be late, but she was busy with work and had to wait a bit before she could come.
