

Revenge On My First Love

Chapter 11 Emilia is now completely cold

Emilia clenched her fist to death, admitting that what Sophia had done today had really hurt her.

Even when those things she used to do were exposed, she never saw Drake in front of so many people and never admitted that she was this hard.

"Of course, Miss Lane, when you marry, I will still send this diamond ring there, now wish you success in advance!"

Sophia finished collecting the diamond rings and left with Helena and Chloe.

Walking out, Chloe was still excitedly saying, "What a relief, we didn't understand why you wanted them to propose in place, but now I know, hahaha, you're forcing Drake to clear the air with Emilia!"

Helena gave Chloe a thumbs up, "Sophia , you're doing really well now and don't have to make us worry about you anymore."

"The point is, I have two good sisters like you by my side, let's go and sleep at my house tonight!"

Sophia wrapped her arms around the two, they had grown up playing together, it was not easy to come this far, but she also thanked God for giving her such two good girlfriends.

Sure enough, what happened in the bar last night has made the headlines, with a few very striking words that made the crowd of foodies click in.

[Emilia is now completely finished, want to marry into the rich family, is simply impossible!

[Can't you see, Mr. Riley never took her seriously!

[It's really ugly, if I were her, I wouldn't come out to see people anymore!

[Isn't it? I've always had a problem with Emilia, I thought she was a bad person, and she is!

This time, even the Old Riley couldn't sit still and had someone publish an article saying that the Riley family would never be related to the Warburg family.

When the news broke, the Warburg family's stock plummeted and Emilia's parents called Olivia to ask her what to do.

Olivia had to settle them down first and slap Emilia in the face.

"Look what you've done!"

Emilia said aggrievedly, "Auntie Olivia, I didn't do anything, it's all because of Sophia, she made me like this."

This, of course, Olivia knows.

Of course, it's not that she didn't warn Sophia, but she didn't expect that Sophia has become very difficult to deal with nowadays.

I'm just afraid she knows something.

"I will deal with this matter, and, what I gave you before, you hurry to find the time to do it, the Old Riley is anxious to have children, if your stomach can compete, even if he issued a statement, so what? Mrs. Rileys position will still be yours!"

Emilia thought of the little pill and a smile floated to the corners of her mouth.

"Yes, Auntie Olivia!"

.....

It's been a few days since we arrived in Sealand, and Sophia has just been staying in Lawson family's apartment, but that's not how it works after all.

Travis was also free and the two of them went to the real estate sales company first.

Rosepark is definitely the best location in Sealand, where up to $500,000 per square foot is enough to buy a house in a small city.

The facilities and everything here are very good, so they run here as soon as they come.

What the two did not know was that today it just so happened that President Drake came to inspect the two were here to buy a house and pressed to notice the people over there.

The salesman met the two of them with a standard professional smile and asked, "Are you two here to prepare to see the wedding house?"

Sophia felt a line of sight that seemed like it was going to kill her before she noticed a familiar person over there.

The corners of her mouth curled up, "Yeah, any good introductions?"

The salesman was just about to take them over when Drake walked over, "Master Travis , you're here, why didn't you say so in advance?"

Drake passed a look to the salesman, who quickly understood that this was someone the president knew.

And everyone heard that it was Master Travis , everyone was excited, just to see the president today, it does not matter, but also to see Master Travis , ah ah ah ah, later they must go to buy a lottery ticket!

Travis' face also put on a rare professional smile: "Just buying a house, no need for Mr. Riley's big trip."

"This time Master Travis came with a project, and I've always wanted an opportunity to showcase it, and here it is."

Drake's aura is strong.

Travis said casually, "In that case, I'll make myself at home with Mr. Riley."

Travis's arm was around Sophia's shoulders, and Sophia was leaning into his arms like a bird.

"Mr. Riley, I've brought Sophia here today to see the house, you are the developer and the seller of this house, why don't you introduce the wedding house to us?"

Feeling the undulating breath of Drake's whole body, this wave is going to make Sophia laugh, but she has been holding back.

Drake didn't move right away, but smiled and said, "Master Travis , shouldn't you observe your girlfriend a little more before you get married? For example, she and Charles seem to be in some kind of relationship."

Sophia laughed coldly: "Mr. Riley, that's not a good way to put it, is it any of your business what Master Travis wants to marry?"

"The relationship is naturally not, but it is not want him to be cheated, after all, there is a person like me who fell for it is enough."

Drake's eyes met hers.

Sophia wasn't overwhelmed by his aura either.

"That's even less of a problem for Mr. Riley, Charles, I asked him to do it, and besides, Charles is backing up his future sister-in-law, so there's nothing unusual about that!"

After that, Travis gave Sophia a doting look.

Sophia's face with a smile, said softly: "Travis, I said at the time, no need for Charles personally, just let him find someone."

"How can that be? His sister-in-law's business, if he doesn't step up, who will!"

"Travis , you are so good to me!"

The interaction between the two made Drake's heart nest with a stone that gambled hard.

"Since Master Travis has already thought about it, let me personally show you the wedding room!"

Drake took the lead and walked ahead.

Travis and Sophia followed.

Because the area itself is all Drake's property, they went to the field to see it quickly.

When this place was first opened, don't look at the high price, but it sold very well, so there were not many properties left itself, and Drake took them to see them one by one.
