

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 111

Didn't she want to meet with him at all?

He understood the reason. Back then, they were in a good relationship. But the mistake he made led to their separation for so many years.

Although he had been married to Olivia and even had a child, he was not very happy and missed Emma every day.

"Emma, I've actually been to see you since you left ..."

Emma was speechless. "Are you going or not, if not, I'll go first!"

Emma was such a gentle woman, never lost her temper with him all those years, and now she had a stern face. It was obvious that he disturbed her.

"Emma, we ..."

Emma did not want to talk to him. She stood up. The money was paid before, so she was ready to leave.

Baron hurriedly took her wrist. "Emma, since you're back, go visit the house we used to live in together!"

Emma laughed. "Mr. Riley, both children were very little when I left. I don't think they even knew there is such a mother as me. In that case, what am I doing going over there? To make it look like I'm breaking up your family?"

"Sorry, I don't have that in mind yet."

Emma broke away from him straight away and headed outside.

Baron kept watching her figure sadly.

Emma had changed so much!

That said, after all these years and their separation, she completely disappeared from his world, and no matter how hard he looked for her, he couldn't find her.

These years, she must have had a very bad time. She was a woman living outside, and would certainly encounter many difficulties. He once said to protect her, but he broke his word...

Emma didn't expect to meet two old acquaintances when she came out for a shopping, and she just could not calm down, so when she saw Sophia, she said, "Sophia, let's skip the shopping. I'm a little sick."
