

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 113

"Well, that's it, Bard, you help Edwin. I still have work over there, we'll have dinner later tonight, and I'll leave first."

Sophia left after she finished speaking.

Bard and Edwin were speechless.

Good lord, no one ended up sleeping in Sophia's room.

"You are to blame!"

"You are to blame!"

Though they were adults, they were still so childish.

When it was time for dinner, Sophia asked Mia to help her book a large hotel with private rooms.

As stars, Edwin and Helena would catch a lot of attention if they had dinner in the restaurant lobby. Thus, after they arrived, they walked straight to the elevator and got to the private room.

But they did not expect the manager would say apologetically to them. "Sorry, Ms. Lawson, we have so many clients tonight and I am too busy, so I have yet to tell you there are just a few private rooms available and the private room I arranged for you has two tables. But don't worry. There is a partition between the two tables. Do you think it's okay?"

Sophia did not expect it would end up like this, but then she thought, those who had dinner in the private room should be the wealthy and they would not pay that much attention to Edwin and Helena.

She looked at the others.

Edwin shrugged. "I'm fine with it, just having dinner with everyone."

As long as they did not go to the lobby where many people watched him, he was fine.

Besides, there was a partition between two tables, so he didn't have to worry about being eye-catching.

Since everyone else was fine with it, Sophie nodded her head to the manager.

When she got inside, she found that the clients of the other table did not come. She had heard from the manager that the clients of the other table made a reservation for seven o'clock. She came at six o'clock, so she hardly had a chance to meet them.

When they got inside the private room, Helena stretched out her hand. "Edwin, because of Sophia, we can finally work together."

Edwin also smiled and stretched out his hand. "Yes, we finally work together, but we have a lot of intimate scenes, would you mind it?"

to all except for Travis

a job. I'm okay

said this, her eyes were a asked in a whisper, "Haven't you gotten liked Travis, and Travis was still single. Thus, Travis' siblings subconsciously treated Helena as helpless. "He's not that easy

"Or let's help you!"

wife, Travis would

he just choose to become a star? Travis

a lot of

that, he looked at sudden

mean, Bard, how much money do you make working his old self anymore, and now he could hold his head look down on me. To tell you, I did not earn as much as out

what are

"Tens of millions, huh?"

me again, don't you? I'm

it by taking a luxury brand

"You!"

Bard is great. Though he is still inferior to you, you should stop being complacent. It won't take long for Bard to surpass you. It's just a absolutely right." Bard see how Bard outdoes me." With that,

Bard held

ordered dishes were served and the two sat

and came in. Sophia looked over there and

Watts, there you

"Yeah, I heard that this private room with two tables was arranged for me, but I didn't expect you guys to be exchanged pleasantries, Mr. Watts said, "Then I'll leave you to it. I'll go over there and

"Okay."

one by one.

ushers and