

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 116

"What, you still want to be in a relationship with her? Even if she has a lot of companies, so what? They're not worthy of the limelight and she thinks she can be arrogant in front of me just because she's made some money? And Drake, listen to me carefully, the woman I need you to be with is not that kind. Cecelia is a rather good choice."

Drake grimaced. "Forget about Cecelia."

"Then Chloe or Helena would be fine."

Drake thought it was particularly funny. "Grandpa, do you think I can pick any kind of woman? Chloe has had a blind date with Bailey Duncan, and Helena likes someone else."

"So what if she likes someone else. It might not work between them. Is the man she likes better than you?"

"That man is Travis Lawson?"

Travis?

The old Riley was surprised for a moment. "Isn't Travis with Sophia ... right, I see, Sophia is not worthy of marrying Travis. After all, her status can't be compared with Helena's."

Drake kept looking at the old Riley, hadn't he ever thought that the fact that Travis and Sophia were both named Lawson was not a coincidence?

However, he would not tell the old Riley his suspicions or remind the old Riley of it.

"I'll help you find a few more blind date women later."

"No, you don't need to worry about my love life. Grandpa, I'll choose a companion that you want." With that, Drake left.

The old Riley stared after Drake with a helpless look on his face.

Walking out, Drake met Baron, who seemed to have no intention of stopping, but Baron called out to him first.

"Drake!"

Drake glanced at him, "Something wrong?"

"You just ... don't want to see me that much?"

Over the years, their father and son relationship had not been very good. Although Drake never talked about his thoughts, Baron knew Drake, with high intelligence, must have known something.

Although Drake came back that day when he just returned, it didn't mean Drake wanted to talk to him, but just showed an inbred courtesy.
