

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 117

"I believe that everyone who has said bad things about Edwin and me has now received a summons from the court, and this matter will be handled seriously by my company, so I hope that everyone will be careful with their words and deeds in the future!"

As she said, those paid posters who spread rumors all received it, and they originally thought that in the virtual world, they could say whatever they wanted.

But they never expected that they would be in legal trouble.

What to do?

What should they do?

Then, Sophia posted a second tweet: As for my relationship with Edwin, I don't mind telling it to all of you. We are good friends. We've known each other since little. I'm very grateful to him for he can put aside all his arrangements to star in this drama. I want to say to those who make an issue of it, you are disgusting!

Sophia was so strong!

Somehow, many people became her fans after reading her tweet.

She was so cute, wasn't she?

She had the courage to say anything, unlike some hypocritical people.

Sophia received another call from Mia on her side.

"Ms. Lawson, it's been found out. Cecelia had someone hurt you on purpose."

It did not surprise Sophia.

"Without Aria's help?"

"No, Cecelia did it alone."

"Well, got it."

It seemed that Aria acted much more properly after her miscarriage was exposed, but hopefully, she could always act like that.

Sophia's cell phone rang. This call was from Emma.

"Sophia, I saw those comments online, how could they slander you?"
