

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 118

She stretched out her hand and fumbled. Was this the bathroom? How could there be a bed in the bathroom? And there seemed to be someone on the bed?

Drake, an alert person, woke up in a flash.

By now, Sophia had gone out.

"That person ..."

Although Drake only saw her back, he somehow felt it very familiar.

Waking up early in the morning, Drake watched Emma busy in the kitchen and asked, intentionally or otherwise, "Mom, where is your student?"

"Alas, I don't know what's going on, you two seem to be destined to miss each other. Every time I create chances for you to meet, you can't meet."

"She woke up and left first thing in the morning, saying she had a very important company meeting to attend."

Originally Drake wanted to see if it was Sophia.

But then he thought, what the hell was wrong with him? How could it be Sophia? How could it be so coincidental?

"Mom, let me help you!"

"OK!"

Sophia arrived at the office and started the day's meeting.

The atmosphere today was very tense. The Summersky Group had recently been reported by customers who complained that the ingredients of cosmetics had carcinogenic substances, which had a bad influence on sales.

Sophia said. "I believe you have expected it to happen long ago. We have good products with high sales, so some competitors are green with envy and use all kinds of means to deal with us. I am not worried about its happening. I just want to know what competitors framed us."

Mia took the initiative to report to her. "Ms. Lawson, a company called Garmmy is behind all this. I investigated it and found out the head of Garmmy company is the good friend of Cecelia, the lady of the Price Group. To be more exact, she is just Cecelia's sidekick. Since Garmmy entered the market, Cecelia had offered a lot of help."

In other words, Sophia was targeted against by Cecelia Price personally.

"Have our products been sent to authoritative testing institutions?"

"Yes."
