

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 125

Drake said coldly, "You should know that if I hadn't been there in time to save Sophia, she wouldn't have been sent to the hospital right now."

Chloe said angrily, "Drake, I'm warning you, even if you didn't do this, you're definitely involved."

Bard nodded. "That's right. That's it. Every time Sophia got into an accident in the past, it was all related to you, and this time you can't get away with it."

Drake had no way to argue with that, and he couldn't be sure exactly who would do these things.

Of course, if he had known, he would have been the first to tackle whoever hurt Sophia.

Helena furrowed her brow and asked, "It is not the time to talk about that. What happened to Sophia?"

Everyone looked at Drake together .

If it were anyone else, they might have overshadowed him, but Drake's aura was so powerful that no one could ignore his presence.

"When I went over there, she fought with hundreds of snakes, several of these were poisonous snakes, she was bitten by a poisonous snake and is currently being resuscitated inside."

"What?" Bard panicked. "Edwin, what should we do? Should we tell ..."

Edwin gave Bard a wink, "We'll talk about this later."

Bard understood what Edwin meant. Neither of them wanted Drake to know the truth about Sophia being a part of the Lawson family.

Edwin walked up to Drake. "Although you saved Sophia, we are not going to apologize to you. Since we have come, there is nothing for you to do here. You better leave!"

Drake, "..."

He subconsciously looked at Helena and Chloe, hoping they could speak up for him, but they didn't seem to like his presence either.

"I want to know if she's okay or not!"

Bard snorted. "What's it to you? Don't forget, you and Sophia broke up a long time ago!"
