

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 127

Chloe and Bard asked as they walked in, "Sophia, what the hell were you talking about? How can you take all the blame?"

"It is justifiable if it's my doing, and the punishment I get will be lighter, but if I said Helena and Edwin did it, then it would be a big crime."

"But ..." Chloe was at a loss for what to say.

Bard, however, furrowed his brow. Without being noticed, he went to the police station.

After hearing Bard's description, the police officer asked, "So, you mean you did this and it had nothing to do with Sophia?"

"Yes, I did it. Sir, I'm telling you the truth. Please keep it a secret. Sophia is my sister, and I can't be indifferent when something like that happened to her. And Sophia took all the blame because she wanted to protect me."

The police were a bit confused and had someone investigate. Sophia was indeed Bard's sister, which meant that Bard also had a motive for the crime.

But for some reason, the police felt something wrong!

Helena and Edwin were confused. They were both filming on the set during the day, but no police came to them. What was going on? Didn't the police investigate them?

And when the Price family heard that it was Sophia and Bard, the Price family didn't let up at all and said, "No matter what, we'll make sure they go to jail."

Flynn had been silent.

The police spoke, "Sophia indeed needs to go to jail, but your mother will get a harsher punishment. Since it's a premeditated murder, I'm afraid Mrs. Price will have to spend a few more years in jail."

"Although they are intentionally retaliating, there are clear provisions in our law that the sentence will be reduced properly in terms of motives."

Cecelia panicked.

Her mother was still unconscious. And it was uncertain whether she could be saved. If she was saved and put in jail, she would break down, wouldn't she?
