

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 132

Drake had suspected that Travis and Sophia were cousins, but he didn't get any evidence to prove it. Seeing Sophia leave with Travis, Drake made such a speculation.

"No, Sophia, I can't watch you get married to him!"

Drake's car drove past quickly.

Chloe had sharp eyes. She glanced at it and asked, "Is that one Drake's car?"

Everyone followed her gaze but saw nothing.

Edwin looked at Chloe. "I think you might have been wrong about it."

Chloe said thoughtfully, "Maybe!"

And then she looked away.

In the car, Sophia was still looking out. She knew that she wouldn't come back anymore. It was unnecessary.

She knew things were not going to work out between Drake and her, but the truth almost killed her!

Travis glanced at her. "Are you reluctant to leave?"

Sophia looked at him and smiled. "What are you talking about, Travis?"

"You know it!"

"Even if I don't want to, he and I have to separate."

Travis grabbed Sophia's hand. "Sophia, there is always someone you love but can't be with. It's hard to forget him, but time will help."

"I see!" Sophia nodded gently.

The driver looked in the rearview mirror and said, "Master Travis and Miss Lawson, a car behind us seems to be following us."

Travis and Sophia subconsciously looked back.

To Sophia's surprise, it was Drake.

Why was he following them?
