

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 133

"Seriously?"

Laura and Abbott looked at each other in shock.

"I called the ambulance. After Drake was taken away, I asked Sophia if she wanted to go to the hospital with the ambulance, but she shook her head and came back."

As Sophia's mother, Laura knew why Sophia did so.

The relationship without families' blessings was destined to come to an end.

"Sophia, since you're back, take a shower and change your clothes!"

"I see!" Sophia walked straight up the stairs.

In the bathroom, Sophia was in a daze.

Even under the shower, the image of Drake being covered in blood kept flashing in her mind.

She wondered how Drake was now. Was he out of danger?

News about Drake's car accident soon spread around the world. And everyone thought it had something to do with Roman, who kicked Drake out of the car.

The police investigated it but did not find anything related to Roman.

The Old Riley was also very remorseful. Driven by anger, he fired Drake. But now he was extremely worried about Drake.

Cecelia walked over and said comfortingly, "Mr. Riley, don't worry. Drake is going to be fine."
