

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 137

Sophia frowned and said, "Stop, Noah!"

Noah kept punching Drake like a madman. Noah was unhappy to see Drake and what Drake said greatly irritated him.

Drake fought back as well, and soon they traded blow after blow.

Everyone was dumbfounded. All of them were almost the most hypocritical in Pinkerton, so few of them would fight with the others in public. However, Drake and Noah did this.

Cecelia ran to Drake in fear and shouted, "Drake, are you all right?"

Noah was burning with rage, but Sophia shouted in a cold voice. "Stop, Noah!"

Noah pointed at Drake. "Sophia, did you hear what he said? I'm so angry. I must teach him a lesson he will never forget."

Sophia glanced at Drake. "He said that up to mess with me for dumping him, so you don't have to take it seriously."

On second thoughts, Noah stopped and stood up straight. He tucked his clothes and said to Drake, "Sophia is right, Drake. You know exactly what on earth happened."

Cecelia bit her lower lip and said softly, "Drake, are you all right?"

Drake did not say anything. People here were all shrewd, so they pretended as if nothing had happened.

When Sophia walked out and stood over the window, Cecelia came. Just when she wanted to slap Sophia in the face, Sophia grabbed her wrist.

"Cecelia, what's your problem? I don't think I have offended you!"

Cecelia knew Sophia's strength well, so she put her hand down.

"Sophia, why do you keep showing up everywhere we go?"

"That's what I want to say. Even if you don't know, Drake should be clear that this is my hometown! I
