

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 149

Sophia looked at him, "You don't know him. If I do leave, he will destroy my companies."

"You know how important these companies are to me, they were all founded by me. I can't just stand by and watch them being destroyed."

"And there are so many employees working for me, where should they go after losing their jobs?"

Noah couldn't believe it. "So, you know this is Drake's trick, and you insist on staying and handling it?"

"Since he wants me to stay, it means he hasn't given up on me yet. I think I should stay and make him."

Noah had been fixing his eyes on her.

After a while, he asked, "So, this is what you have been thinking?"

"Yes. I have said that I won't get back together with him. What happened last night won't change a thing."

It seemed that Sophia was determined.

Noah thought about it and said, "Okay, Sophia. I will stay here with you. After you finished handling work, we will go back together."

Sophia looked at him. "You should go back now. If you don't leave, he might hurt me."

Drake was a jealous and petty man.

Noah thought about it. "I can go. But my proposal..."

Sophia solemnly said, "Noah, I'm sorry, I can't marry you."

Noah smiled with self-mockery. "See? I have known the answer but I just want to hear it from you. It doesn't matter. Anyway, you won't get back together with Drake. I can wait for you to fall in love with me."

Sophia didn't know what else to say.

"I will leave now. Sophia, I will be waiting for you in Pinkerton."

Sophia didn't say anything.
