

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 156

Bard had no sympathy for Cecelia. "Is suicide a big deal? Are they asking you to wait because she committed suicide? What a jerk!"

In the end, Bard added, "They are equally terrible."

Sophia didn't say a word. She had heard of this kind of thing before. Most men would give in when facing such problems. But Drake just wouldn't let go of her.

He was indeed a jerk.

"Bard, don't be mad. I've got a plan."

Bard, who was driving, looked at Sophia. "What's the plan?"

"I won't make myself suffer. You know, I've been hurt once by him. This won't happen again."

Bard was indeed worried, but thinking that Sophia never made the same mistakes, he was slightly relieved.

"Yeah! Bear in mind that the Lawson family is always here to back you up. If he dares to do anything to you, our family will make him regret it."

Sophia nodded.

"Also, don't take the pill, even if you don't want to have anything to do with Drake. If you are pregnant, our family can afford to raise the child."

Bard heard from Sophia before that she took the initiative, so it was okay for the Lawsons to accept the baby if Sophia had one.

Sophia looked at him with a smile on her face. "Alright!"

Back home, after dinner, Bard went back to his room.

Sophia was about to rest when she heard a sound at the door.

By the time she got there, Drake had walked in.

He approached her as if he were back at home. "Sophia, I heard you weren't going to take the pill."

Sophia had no need to lie to him.
